Boards, Commissions and Committees

ELECTED BY THE CONFERENCE, OR APPOINTED BY COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

(See Conference Rules of Order No. 5).

Note from Committee on Nominations

The first person named is not necessarily the chairman, but is the Convenor of the committee, whose duty it is to call the committee together for organization and report the chairman to the conference secretary. Members of the committee might well be consulted as to the convenient place and date for this initial meeting. It should be called at least two weeks in advance at a time when laymen as well as ministers can attend. For address of ministers see appointments or conference roll.

Resolution: George A. Warmer presented the following resolution, and it was adopted: "To the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. F. C. Eiselen, Executive Secretary, 740 Rush Street, Chicago, Illinois: Whereas the creed of the Department of Epworth League and Young People's Work of the Board of Education has met with such general approval, balancing, as it so adequately does, the two phases of the Gospel—individual and social:

'I surrender my life to Jesus Christ and His way of living, and I enlist in His service.

I believe that it is the purpose of God to establish His kingdom upon the earth, in which all human relationships are controlled by the law of love, and I propose to live, so far as I am able, as if that kingdom were now here.

I will faithfully observe a "Quiet Time" each day for meditation and prayer.

I will regard my life work as my share in the building of God's kingdom.

I will choose my life work in accordance with what I can discover to be God's will, and not for personal gain.

I will practice restraint and self-discipline in all my personal habits.

I will keep my friendships on a high level, not conforming to lower standards, but helping to lift the standards of my group to the best that I know.

I will serve Christ through the Christian church, doing all that I can to make it the effective instrument that it must be if the world is to be made truly Christian.

I will oppose war and the war system and will work ceaselessly for the establishment of peace.

I will treat those of all races as my equals and brothers.

I will refrain from the use of alcoholic liquors in all forms and will work to rid the world of the liquor traffic.

I will give myself to the creation of economic and social conditions wherein every member of society shall have opportunity to earn a livelihood for himself and those dependent upon him and wherein every member of society shall have a sufficiency to meet his economic and cultural needs.

I will use my leisure for recreations which are wholesome and which enrich and uplift personality and will refrain from amusements which degrade personality.

I will give of my time as far as possible to working for the building of a Christian world, in personal work, public speaking, circulating literature and in every possible way evangelizing for Christ.

I will give sacrificially of my earnings and substance to support the enterprises which are working to build a Christian world."

And, Whereas, the program developed has met with such striking response in inspiring our young people to renewed activity and in attracting such widespread interdenominational acceptance—fifty religious groups having adopted it as their own:

And, Whereas, the program "Christian Youth Building a New World" is widely recognized in religious and educational circles as one of the most promising Christian movements of our day:

Therefore, be it Resolved, that we heartily commend the staff of the Department of Epworth League and Young People's Work for the wide variety of material they have provided and for the fine sense of proportion it presents, yet in the interest of future developments of Methodist young people we request that the Central Office place the same emphasis upon that which is essentially spiritual as upon that which is distinctively social.

Scientific investigation reveals the balance and variety in the Epworth Herald, our official youth paper. And we urge our Epworth Leagues and Young People's Departments to actively promote the circulation of their official organ and advise the more general use of the units of study provided.

And, be it further Resolved, that we join with the General Conference and Church Board of Education in approving the personal and social objectives which the Secretaries of the Department of Epworth League and Young People's Work have formulated and in harmony with which they have developed our vital youth program. We express our confidence in and our support of their program and leadership and we earnestly urge their continuance.

The Board of Education can greatly hearten the church and maintain the confidence of youth by the re-election of Dr. Blaine Kirkpatrick and Rev. Owen E. Geer to their present positions of leadership. We strongly urge that these men be re-elected to the positions they now administer."

On the motion of Robert McKibben, the above resolution was ordered to be wired to Dr. Eiselen, General Secretary of the Board of Education.

Personal Privilege: To rectify an erroneous announcement, Prof. E. W. Oliver asked the laymen of the United Session to stand and on his motion they were ordered to meet for a brief time at the close of the United Session.

Conference and their friends to subscribe to the 500,000 units of advance adopted by the General Conference. Of this amount, 418 monthly units at $1.00 were subscribed by those present.

On the motion of Willsie Martin, the following pronouncements of the General Conference were adopted as the pronouncements of this Conference:

One of the most significant pronouncements of the last General Conference was the report of the special Committee on World Service. It seems fitting that a brief summary of that statesmanlike utterance should be given to this Annual Conference. There can be no adequate recovery of a great missionary passion until the Christian obligation to carry out Christ's commission on world evangelization "becomes the primary and determinative conviction of the Church as a whole. . . . We can rightly pray for new Pentecosts only when we are undertaking tasks for which Pentecosts are required." The complete and enthusiastic cooperation of all leaders, pastors and laymen will be necessary if an adequate devotion to world redemption is secured.

It was recommended that the Bishops lead in this holy undertaking by appropriate reorganization in their areas, and that the Secretaries of all Boards and heads of Departments cooperate in a new arousement of interest and earnest solicitation for the missionary causes.

It was further recommended that this new missionary urge be called THE WORLD IS MY PARISH MOVEMENT, and that it be launched at once in every Annual Conference in the United States for the recovery of a renewed personal devotion to the redemption of the world through the Church's great missionary agencies.

It was the conviction of the committee that this Movement should give proof of its practical reality by securing this year 500,000 units of $1.00 per month for the support of General World Service Benevolences, and that a million units should be the final objective.

This report was enthusiastically and unanimously adopted. So, amid prayer and song and a general signing of units of all the delegates and many of the visitors, THE WORLD IS MY PARISH MOVEMENT was launched.

Cooperation: On the motion of Willsie Martin, it was ordered that this Conference shall be among the first to accede to the request of the General Conference, and that we as a Conference adopt the plan, that we give evidence of our purpose to support it practically by each ministerial and lay delegate signing for as many units as each can possibly do, and that we pledge Bishop Baker that we will loyally follow his leadership in carrying this movement victoriously to every charge in this Conference.

In addition we endorse and recommend that the request of the Federation of Methodist Agencies of this Conference that it be allowed to share in this educational and cultivation program by granting it the privilege of nominating seven of its members to membership on this Cultivation Committee be granted; and that this Committee so constituted shall be empowered by this Conference to arrange and carry on this educational program.

World Service Cultivation: It was ordered by the motion of Willsie Martin that (1) A World Service Cultivation Commission be raised to carry out the recommendations of the General Conference on World Service Cultivation (see list of committees).

(2) As part of the World Service Cultivation program in the Southern California Conference, an exhibit, featuring the work of all the Boards, especially the projects of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, has become, under Mr. George G. Becktel, an employee of the Southern California Goodwill Industries, an invaluable factor. If this exhibit is to be continued in its present effective form it is necessary to provide for the expense of travel time and transportation involved. We therefore ask the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to provide an amount for this purpose, not to exceed $1500, to be paid through the Goodwill Industries of Southern California permitting designations from our churches as part of their contributions to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, if the above amount cannot be otherwise provided.

(3) The tentative dates for World Service Cultivation Conferences be included in the World Service report. (See report).

Reception of Class into Full Membership: With all the undergraduates present sitting in a body, Bishop Baker addressed the class to be received into full membership in part as follows:

"A minister does well to have a careful program for his physical life. Plato, in 'The Republic,' mentions the necessity for those who would be leaders in state affairs to keep the body under control and in good condition. . . . We may be too dutiful to our pleasure, but we must keep in good physical condition.

"'Be diligent' is the first rule John Wesley put in his Rules for a Preacher's Conduct. Alexander Whyte . . . said 'I would have all lazy students drummed out of college, and all lazy ministers out of the Assembly.' I say to our young men in the Seminaries that if they do not exercise diligence constantly they will pass out of the period of their usefulness by the time they are fifty, and it will be tragic for them and for their churches. Be diligent in reading! Set up a program of reading; make it hard; beef-steak for the spirit and not milk. We need to read with intelligence and with diligence. Beware of aids! The road to Commonplace is through the use of "crutch" material. Be diligent in writing! Write your sermons! Study how men say things. Notice the use of terms. Remember words are used as instruments of thought. Be diligent in prayer! Boye, in 'The Renewing Gospel,' says the minister must be 'fortified by fellowship, and overshadowed by God.' The same writer speaks of prayer as being like home-made bread baked in the oven of a man's own soul. There are problems, but sometimes the best solution of a problem is to get away from it through reading—reading Dante, Shakespeare, and their kind.

"A man must be a man among men. One must mix with various groups. Young men, learn to move among men. Your life will be richer.

"Be recognized in the community as fine in spirit. Learn to be sensitive, understand others, and enter into their experiences.

"We ministers ought to be men of expectancy, having in us a flame of hope. The Christian religion is radical at heart. Realize again and again new things have come because of the Christian Church. Should we believe that force is the only way? That is paganism! Our General Conference adopted a great statement on World Peace, and you in this Annual Conference have accepted that statement.

"Professor Sweet, of the University of Chicago, speaks in 'Early Methodist Preachers' about 'Men of Zeal.' Of Jesus, John wrote, 'The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.' Zeal must be a part of our ministry.

"Out of the love for fine things one gains a great liberty, and the preacher becomes an impassioned artist.

"This I say to you and to me! 'Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.'

"Great days for the ministry are just ahead and not in the past. People are hungry for 'home-made bread' and to that need the preacher must minister."

Bishop Lee, at the request of Bishop Baker, closed the session with prayer.

Mott, in a statement to the General Conference, he said: "The Methodist Episcopal Church is now participating in 142 union enterprises on the foreign field, leading the entire Christian world in such projects." Bishop Blake, speaking to the General Conference gave figures to show that, in the past six depression years, Methodist Episcopalians have laid on the altars of the Church, one hundred million dollars annually, for ministerial support, current expenses, benevolences, interest, philanthropic and educational work, all of which has been publicised through the Advocate. No doubt much of the success of this gigantic enterprise is due to the participation of the Advocate-reading Methodists. We do not ask our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues to be self-supporting in their character-building programs. Neither should we make a cry for the discontinuance of our Church periodicals merely because they are not wholly self-supporting. The success of every Church enterprise is dependent upon the cooperation of our Church press.

Organization Session of the Lay Conference

The fifth annual Lay Conference of the Southern California Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, was called to order at 3:15 P.M. June 23, 1936, in the First Presbyterian Church, Long Beach, California, by President Charles F. Reiche.

Dr. George M. Roark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, offered the opening prayer.

President Reiche then announced the following Committees and they were introduced:

Committee on Nomination—John P. Howe, Chairman; Chas. W. Stream, Dr. W. E. Daniels, Charles Carver and Guy Jaggard.

Committee on Credentials—H. A. Nordahl, Chairman; J. E. Kienle, N. M. Hill, Paul Spring, Harry Gump, W. D. Woods, C. E. Knott and J. W. Mott.

Committee on Resolutions—Henri Lindsay, Chairman; Daniel Scott, R. E. Paxton, H. A. Harding and W. F. Hannaford.

Committee to Analyze Preliminary Reports—A. B. Stevens, L. A. Copeland and W. T. Smith.

The Secretary reported that Credentials had been received by mail from 214 churches and that over half of these had come in during the past week, which condition had made it difficult for the Conference officers to organize Committees in advance. This report further indicated that only 32% of the 214 had been in attendance at the 1935 Conference.

The Treasurer's report sent in by Irwin Davis showed receipts of $21.00, expenses of $1.78, leaving a balance on hand of $19.22. Upon motion the report was approved.

A. B. Stevens explained the delay in getting the Committee Reports printed and mailed out, some having received them two weeks in advance and others did not receive them due to the delay in receiving reports on elections in local churches. He then called attention to the more important features in the reports.

The matter of expense fund for Lay delegates was brought up for consideration. It was pointed out that many churches have not paid their full share and that the ministers were also being paid a small amount.

A motion presented by S. W. McCulloch was unanimously adopted urging each local church to raise its full quota of the Conference Entertainment Fund to provide equally for Lay Delegates and Ministers, and that the Conference Commission on Finance be requested to notify the local churches of this action.

It was explained that some of the Lay Delegates elected after June 1, 1936, were for a term of four years in harmony of the action of General Conference.

The Credentials Committee reported 201 delegates as being seated representing the districts as follows: Fresno-Glendale 47, Long Beach 40, Los Angeles 44, Pasadena 32 and San Diego 38. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following resolutions: Whereas:

The pronouncement of the General Conference of 1936 on Social and Economic questions, which is the official pronouncement of the Methodist Episcopal Church on this subject, achieved at once both a vigorous indictment of our social and economic ills, and a recognition that there are legitimate differences of opinion among our members as to the best means of curing those ills, and

Whereas:

It is essential that we be not divided as a Church on questions of political and economic policy;
Therefore, Be It Resolved:

That it is the sense of the Lay Conference of the Southern California Conference of 1936, that the aforesaid pronouncement of the General Conference of 1936, be adopted as the expression of the united session of the Southern California Conference.

Resolved:

That Chairmen of the Conference Boards, Commissions, and Committees be requested so far as practicable to set meeting times to suit the convenience of the Lay members as well as their Ministerial members.

Resolved:

That we express our sincere appreciation to the Officers and Members of the First Presbyterian Church for the use of their Church for our meeting, and that we take an offering to care for expenses incidental thereto.

That we express our appreciation for the use of the First Presbyterian Church for the Lay Conference Session and that an offering be taken to pay the janitor. Adopted unanimously.

Upon motion, the chair was authorized to appoint a Committee of 15, three from each district, said Committee to make nominations of Lay representatives on the Conference Boards and Committees.

Upon motion, the Lay Conference voted to reconvene Thursday, June 25, 1936, at 10 A.M. in the First Presbyterian Church to receive the report of the Committee of 15.

The Lay Conference voted unanimously to recommend to the United Session that all Conference Reports, except the Commission on Finance, be placed in the hands of the Conference Program Committee in ample time to be printed and mailed two weeks in advance to the delegates or churches.

The Nominating Committee presented the following names for the respective officers and upon motion were duly elected:

President—Daniel L. Scott.

Vice President—Ernest W. Oliver.

Secretary—H. A. Nordahl.

Treasurer—J. Frank Burke.

The closing prayer was offered by W. A. Armacost.

E. L. BANDY, Secretary.

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

FRESNO-GLENDALE DISTRICT

S. S. Sampson—District Superintendent

The tradition of this district is to tell of something big or about some big thing on the district, so, true to my predecessors, I begin by saying that the richest fossil pit in the world has recently been unearthed in Red Rock Canyon. So far the four-tusk elephant, the horse with three toes, the camel with many humps have been found, but the geno homo has not been found. However, I am not discouraged for I feel sure that this specimen will be found in great abundance on the other districts of the Conference.

The District Superintendent was greatly surprised when just a few days before Christmas that small boy who is Pastor of First Church, Bakersfield, called him up and said—"A situation has arisen on the district over which I have no control. I think you would better come by and see if you can straighten it out." And so, with my heart in my mouth and my spirit very apprehensive, I drove the additional twenty-five miles to locate the trouble and pacify the disturbed preacher. "What's the matter; what's the trouble?" The preacher grinned and said—"The fellows of the district have given you a radio for your Ford and want to have it installed!" Following the installation I started for home feeling so kindly toward the boys of the district, and feeling the need of soothing helpful music thought I would turn on and tune in. But it was already tuned in and the moment I turned on, with great volume the thing started to play "Turkey in the straw"; the Ford pricked up his ears, took the bit in his mouth and passed everything on the road. After considerable 'zigging and zagging' I quieted him down and not until then did I realize that the preachers of the Fresno-Glendale district were not sanctified, neither were they "groaning after it."

Amid shifting conditions throughout the country the Fresno-Glendale district can report advancement during the third year of existence. A steady forward look on the part of pastors and people must be recorded. In fact, spectacular changes have occurred in some places. If the limits of this report could be expanded fourfold, or my descriptive powers increased as zero is increased when one is placed in front of it, then a faint suggestion would be brought to you of what this report ought to be. Men who have been adventurers to the point of heroism, charges manifesting a most generous response, communities seeing as never before the value of the church and all together working for the coming of Christ into the heart, home, school, social, economic and political life of all the people.

Young People: One of the greatest gatherings of young life in the history of Methodism in this State occurred at Fresno, last November. Our resident Bishop was with us in public addresses and private council. A few churches are still impatient of youth. Youth is, as it should be, in the time of autocratic joyfulness. It is inhospitable to restraints and only slightly inclined to look into the deeps of life. Here the elements of character and the needs of the soul being as yet untested by long and hard experiences, are not classified and rated according to their relative importance. The ideals are also in a nebulous state. When in this mood we do not think of God as the eternal friend who is ever present in the mystic shadows about us and ready to commune with us. He is more like a great intellectual fact, sublime, but remote.

Changes: Early in the Conference year, Roy C. Mason of Lemoore was appointed to our mission work and at once took up the task in Seward, Alaska. H. B. Sellers who was appointed to Corcoran at our last Annual Conference, exchanged with Floyd Charles Johnston of the Detroit Conference. Hugo Becker, not a member of this Conference, was serving as a supply to our German speaking church in Fresno, accepted a call to a Congregational Church in Portland, Oregon. The German property in Fresno is now in the hands of the Conference Trustees and many of our German members have been transferred to our English-speaking churches. John B. McGee takes work at the Goodwill Industries in Boston as Director of Young People's Work.

Sickness: Four of our parsonage homes have known the burden of sickness during the year. In September, J. M. Ocheltree, our pastor at Tulare, suffered a severe heart attack which has kept him confined to his bed at this hour. Brother Ocheltree has directed his work through an able supply—Brother Roy Swift, and the fine loyalty of a good Church. He asks for retirement and reference to Board of Stewarts. Harry Thomas Lewis, one of the very able preachers of this Conference, our pastor of Grace Church, Fresno, comes to the close of the year in broken health, and asks for the retired relationship. Harry I. Smith, our pastor at Carruthers, was brought close to the valley of the shadow in a critical operation. Following the operation septic pneumonia seized him and he was out of his pulpit for months. However, his work was ably carried on by his wife—Celia Erwin Smith, who was ordained a Deacon by Bishop McGee at our last Conference. Our pastor at Kernville is truly being tested. Brother Raugust has spent five months in the Kern Hospital at Bakersfield, and his baby girl has been in the same hospital for a year, both victims of Infantile Paralysis. Mrs. Raugust is taking care of the Church work and uncomplainingly and lovingly caring for her sick. Where will you find the greatest courage: In the heart of a man, the heart of a woman, or the heart of a little child?

Four blessed events have brought gladness to the district during the year. Anna Lee Miller of Reedley; Shelley Vesta Gorman of Parler; Lois Claire Wagner of Delano; and Richard Bacon of Chatsworth. In each case mother and baby are doing nicely, father has greatly improved.

Improvements: A new parsonage has been erected at Magnolia Park, Burbank; and grounds beautified. Considerable improvements made on our parsonage at Trinity, Bakersfield.

New church under construction at Taft, to cost $15,000, of which $10,000 is in hand. New church at Sepulveda; this church pay as we go. In each case plans approved by district superintendent and forwarded to Bishop Baker.

A fine spirit of optimism pervades the district. A notable gathering was held in Bakersfield. W. C. Hodgson, Walter C. Buckner and R. J. Taylor brought great inspiration to our group. Likewise a gracious meeting was held in Porterville, when Bishop John Gowdy and Mrs. Gowdy of China paid us a most delightful visit. Dr. Willsie Martin was our invited speaker on this occasion. So helpful and inspiring was Dr. Martin in the truly great address delivered that we look with eager expectancy to his coming again.

A very unusual event took place at Independence when, under the inspiration and leadership of our pastor, a monument was unveiled to the memory of the pioneers of Inyo county. Several notables were present; the Governor of the State and members of his Staff. One of the jurists of the State took part in the great pageant that was given. The whole affair was classical and of very high order.

The Woman's Aid Society, the Missionary Auxiliaries and organized classes in our Sunday Schools, as well as the Epworth Leagues, have worked together in a fine spirit, making the Church stronger in each community. The High Sierra Epworth League Institute, the Family Institute at Camp Sierra have been sources of strength to many of our people both old and young.

Finally, while the hand of death has not broken heart strings in our parsonage homes, the residence of the district superintendent has not fared so well, for on May the 20th, Stella, a foster daughter, consecrated at the altar of this Conference to the work of a Deaconess, closed her beautiful life in a hospital at San Jose. Then, in my home, on the 25th day of May, my big brother and your big brother, Walter C. Loomis, ceased to walk with God on earth that he might walk with God forever in Heaven.

To Bishop Baker, to my fellow district superintendents, to a fine group of preachers, to the parsonage homes, and to a noble group of laymen, I owe profound gratitude, and above all these to Mrs. Sampson, who has traveled with me in all sorts of weather more than 25,000 miles, and to our gracious Lord who knows mountain trails, desert pathways, and the broad plains. He also knows the path of prayer and has taught us that:

Prayer makes the darkest cloud withdraw
Climbs the ladder Jacob saw
Gives exercise to faith and love
Brings every blessing from above."

S. S. SAMPSON.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT

F. G. H. Stevens, District Superintendent

I did not ask my speedometer to tell me how far the car has traveled this year, for you would forget it anyway, and neither does the travel allowance pay the bill. But it costs no more to take a car load than for just the two of us to go. So, since the Conference pays the bills, let us travel together over this district for ten minutes.

We start over 250 miles up the coast. San Miguel is a three point circuit. At Shandon, back in the country from San Miguel was a fine revival with a score converted and received into the church. The salary is paid and overpaid. When folks get religion they support the church.

Paso Robles, the "Pass of the Oaks" has done foundation work, paid $450 on indebtedness, and increased its salary item $200. Brother Ellis, pastor here, lost his mother by death last Saturday.

San Luis Obispo is a typical Northern California Roman Catholic town. This year's work has been done steadily.

Arroyo Grande and Oceano have a happy people. Furnace and improvements in church and parsonage add up to $330. The salary is overpaid, World Service is doubled. Oceano is to be separate next year. A down payment on a new Chevrolet sedan made by the community is a proof of what they think of the Methodist preacher.

A gain in membership and $850 paid on debt, with our church in a place of leadership in the community, is part of Santa Maria's record.

Lompoc has made a gain of 30 per cent in membership, and has its budget all subscribed for next year.

Santa Barbara's official board roll call sounds like "Who's Who in Santa Barbara", and they are leading in Christ's work too, for they show a net gain of 61 in membership and $1250 paid on debt.

Meet the Ventura County folks! There is something more than an old mission in Ventura; the Methodist Church is there—a live one! Fine young people's work indicates growth. There is an increase in both membership and salary.

Brother Woodside at Santa Paula had months of illness, and Mrs. Woodside followed suit after his recovery. Those Ventura County pastors supplied the pulpit, and the year shows a gain of membership and payments on both debt and improvements.

The Fillmore Church will not merge with the Presbyterians in exchange for a similar proceeding in Elsinore, as the sister church has turned down the proposition. The whole question of church merging may well be studied in the light of what churches were before and after merging. A fine work among young people is on at Fillmore.

The pastor has raised the money and added over $300 in improvements on our Piru property again this year.

Over the hills to the Simi Valley! Moorpark has made some improvements on property. At the parsonage home in Simi death came and the mother of Mrs. Jennings went to her other home. Here is a fine example of a merging of two Methodist churches well financed. The year shows a gain in membership.

There are 67 more Methodists in Oxnard now than a year ago, and $650 has gone into improvements.

Now come down the coast to Santa Monica where the "mountains meet the sea." The merging of two Methodist churches here years ago meant a merging of debts in full and the membership in part. That made a real problem which was unsolved by the former pastor, the writer of this report. None can better solve that problem than the present pastor and he is hard at the work with real results.

Ocean Park and Venice fight the wide open town seven days and eight nights a week, for Saturday is two nights long. Ocean Park shows all its old finances paid and a gain in membership but a deficiency in salary. The "pastor pays" but they are putting in an organ.

Venice, with the help of a loan from the Home Board has removed their three buildings to their new site. The cost will be $3,000. We need another $1,000 in designated gifts, then they will have a plant equipment in good taste and well located. It's a fight for righteousness in this beach town.

The oil city of El Segundo has a fine church plant. Fifteen hundred dollars and much donated labor resulted in one of the finest of parsonage homes, free of debt. They have a good vacation church school.

The Cronemiller memorial organ at Redondo Beach was dedicated on Palm Sunday. It is the gift, to the church, by Mrs. Cronemiller, her daughter, Mrs. Marshall, and the daughter's husband, the pastor, in memory of the husband and father. The harmony of the organ seems to have permeated the church. One or two other organs might well be placed at other points on the District.

Shore Acres has had an unsettled year, but seems to be settling down to Christian work after the Methodist fashion.

Torrance is an industrial city, but our community church serves groups at both ends of the same gospel program—a difficult problem. $660 has been paid on debt.

Some improvements have been made at Harbor City, north of San Pedro, and other improvements are planned for the care of the large Church School. After over thirty years of service, our genial brother, the chorister of this Conference, will ask for the Retired relation. God bless you, Bob!

San Pedro parish hums with activity day and night. Evangelism of any type is used which gets folks to God and then trains them in Kingdom vision and work. Whether it is over Terminal Island or up on the hill at Grand View, or among the sailors from Norway and Sweden this church, where much of the "inasmuch as ye did it unto them ye did it unto Me" is done, is doing Kingdom business. The larger parish is a success here. A gain of over 50 in membership, a $3,000 gift made by a Presbyterian was applied on their heavy debt, and other finances better than for years.

Wilmington is one of the old towns of Southern California. Here our Church in a good plant is doing lasting work. Most of the debt is being paid by income from a gift of property.

This brings us to Long Beach, but we are here already so let us go to the other end and start back. We started beyond the halfway line to San Francisco. Now we start more than halfway to Arizona.

We are below the sea level at Indio, where we grow dates. Here is a job that needs a man and we have one. A fine work among the boys of this desert town is the outstanding feature of our work.

The mid-Conference change brought a new man to Banning to face a church well united under the leadership of the former pastor but with a hard financial task because of a heavy debt. The current finances are all met and we will look for some inroads on that debt soon.

Now down into the orange groves! Highgrove is a good country church such as was and still ought to be one of the strong phases of our work. Over $100 has been put in improving property and the folks have been led Godward.

Merging has been forgotten in Riverside and will remain so unless some one starts to sing "Lest We Forget." There seems to be places for two Methodist churches in Riverside.

Grace Church has paid $470 on debt and shows life and growth in all departments. First Church has spent $650 on improvements, held a large summer camp for their young folks and was host to a great Woman's Home Missionary convention.

Arlington, to the south, shows a gain of over forty members and $700 paid on debt.

Now to the other end of Riverside County! It may cost only $8 per person to belong to a City church but it costs $30 per person at San Jacinto, but who gets the most out of it? The Kingdom is not built by saving, but by sacrifice. The church building shows the hundreds of dollars spent on improvements. The church membership has religion.

Hemet has had a remarkable work with young folks. Two weeks ago they were at League, Church, Quarterly Conference and then served refreshments, washed the dishes and then paid off with the old folks next day to raise the deficiency which they did and more!

You have helped at Elsinore by designating gifts. The church has paid $650 for improvements, paid up all back interest and has $500 subscribed for principal. $1,000 has already come from the Board of Home Missions.

Murrietta has added two rooms to the parsonage with our help and is carrying on a young people's work, combining five country communities. A Local Preacher from this circuit has opened up work at Temecula.

Another local preacher, a woman, is carrying our work at Winchester, up on the mesa, where the superintendent preached on Easter to a congregation of 60, half young folks; baptized 13, took 17 into the church on preparatory membership, held communion, preached and held quarterly Conferences.

Now we cut across to Corona! A new home for Boy Scouts has been built and remodelling of the church under the new Disciplinary requirements is now being discussed.

The continued illness of Don Ford brought a new pastor to Whittier in January. Did they forget their former pastor? The answer is—They did not! They paid him full salary for two months, half salary for four months, and $100 a month for the remainder of the year, although he did not preach once during the year. Here is our model combined service which can work well in a settled community like Whittier.

Artesia increased salary this year and has done a good year's work.

We have to cross a part of other districts in getting to Compton, where the sale of a piece of property provides for the ultimate ending of their debt.

Hynes is paying $200 on debt with the help of the Harbor Missionary Society and is to increase salary $300. What a group of young life here! They are redecorating their church.

Davidson City is a student charge and is in charge of a good student.

Now we are back to Long Beach. Out five miles north, at Lakewood Village, where the new Junior College is now in temporary quarters will open work this coming year. This community has been allocated to us by the Superintendents' Council.

North Long Beach, again with the help of the Harbor Missionary Society, is planning to build a parsonage this coming year.

California Heights has made a gain of 44 in membership, an increase of $300 in salary. They have an offer of $3,500 toward a new $10,000. This is a pretty good year's work.

Atlantic Avenue is handling its property matters well, and has a fine work among the student body of the High School. They report a gain of 33 in membership.

The Kernahan meetings brought wonderful results in personal evangelism in North Long Beach. East Long Beach gained 46 members, paid $500 on indebtedness, and added $700 for interior finishing. They have 125 tithers signed up.

Grace Church also reports 37 gain in members with $3,700 paid on debt.

Seal Beach has increased the salary and has been a force for a clean community in a way to make Methodists gladly proud.

Our host church, with a membership of over 2400 has added a clear gain of over 50. They have paid $5,750 on debt, and pastor and people do the all around work of a vital Christian church.

We end at Belmont Heights. And there is a reason. Here for the last twelve years has worked E. J. Inwood, the Dean of this Conference in point of service. Today he closed 55 years in the ministry, 52 given to this Conference. For 18 years he was our Secretary, 7 years on a District, then breaks the record by taking a Long Beach Church with over $59,000 debt and in these years reduced it to less than $8,000 and all that is covered in wills and bequests. And always he has exalted His Master and led men to know God. Today he lays down the work of the active pastorate, having made a lot of us better men because he has shown us how to work and live and love.

Illness has exacted strength this year—Mrs. A. Ray Moore of Santa Monica, E. F. Gates, and Don Ford. All have recovered. We are thankful that Don Ford will again go into the active pastorate.

The District gathered in three worth-while World Service Cultivation conferences at Santa Barbara, Long Beach and Riverside. We all gathered in an informal District gathering at Ventura without preliminaries, program or propaganda and studied and learned together.

That good brother and former Superintendent Will A. Betts, has been a brother and helper whenever asked and never failed.

Laymen and ministers and their wives alike have been brothers and sisters with us. They have been cheerful whether meeting the 10:58 at night or driving to the 4:29 in the morning. It has been a year gone all too fast; filled to the full.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Leonard Oechsli, District Superintendent

Coming to the end of a term of six years in district administration I am truly thankful for the distinctly upward trend of this past year along all lines. There has been the feeling for the previous five years that pull as we might against the tide, we were not only making no progress but even slipping back at times. This turn of the tide is reason for gratitude and hope for better days.

During the year death came unexpectedly and tragically to take from us two of our comrades of the way. John Wesley Robinson— young, vigorous, enthusiastic, whole-souled; he was our John the Beloved. Walter Loomis, loyal, devoted, ingenious, man of integrity, soul of honor, bearer of burdens, loved and honored by all. How we shall miss these valiant souls as we journey on without their companionship.

Little messengers of light and love—Wanda Jacqueline Pellow and Philip Wesley Kendall, have entered the homes of their parents to bring them joy and happiness. Soon after Conference last year the Stanley McKee's took into their home little Dorothy Jeannette.

During the year Rolland Tinchler has recorded a double achievement; completing his schooling with an M.Th. degree, and taken unto himself a wife, Miss Katherine Hall, daughter of a former member of this Conference of honored memory.

Problems of property indebtedness have again this year absorbed an enormous amount of time, attention and nervous energy. Two years ago, with a delinquency in interest payments alone to the extent of $19,734.34 which has been reduced to $8,074.20, most of which is owed by one church, indicating that practically all of our interest payments are now being made on time. In addition to this there was a deficit on current expense of $16,975, which has been largely absorbed and wiped out by pastors in unpaid salaries.

During the year Lynwood, Annandale, Eagle Rock and York Boulevard churches reached a financial crisis. Through the splendid cooperation of Dr. F. W. Mueller, of the Extension department of the Board of Home Missions, and the loyal response of our pastors and people, all of these churches except York Boulevard were rescued and placed on a safe operating basis. York Boulevard church has been closed and the membership transferred to Highland Park Church. It should be recorded here that we did everything possible to meet our obligations to the Bank, offering to pay them six thousands dollars in cash. They refused to accept a cent less than $9,000.00. We are reliably informed that the Bank is now offering this property for sale for five thousand dollars.

Pacific Palisades Church has during the year burned the mortgage on their fine property; and at Rosewood the debt on their parsonage has been entirely paid off.

Hollywood First Church possesses a plant that is conceded to be one of the most beautiful and serviceable in the City of Los Angeles. It was erected at a cost of more than half a million dollars, but has been under an enormous load of debt, due to many factors, including the return of two valuable properties which had supposedly been sold. The net result is that the church has had an indebtedness—including the mortgage on the property, back interest, furnishings, art glass windows, organ, etc., totaling no less than the staggering sum of $487,845.58. One can have nothing but the highest admiration for the pastor and group of efficient business men who, together with the congregation, have not faltered in the face of what seemed an impossible task, but have patiently worked out their problem in such harmony with their creditors that they have finally effected a settlement whereby all their obligations will be gathered together in one note to the Security First National Bank. By this arrangement the Bank takes over the old church property and business lot and all outstanding obligations are taken care of, so that the total indebtedness of the church has been reduced from approximately $488,000 to $214,000, this amount to be amortized on terms which the church will be able to carry. This settlement has greatly cleared the atmosphere and is sending the congregation forth with confidence and assurance.

Compton Avenue church, originally Emmanuel German Church, has gradually been surrounded by an influx of negro people until there is no longer need for a church ministering to white people. The property was one of those listed in the German merger and is being transferred to the Trustees of the Annual Conference for the benefit of the Conference Endowment Fund.

Robertson Boulevard Church, built about seven years ago, located in a rapidly growing section of the City, has overflowed its walls and cannot make further growth in the Church School without more room to expand. Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher has seen this church and community, its needs and outstanding opportunity, the strategic place which Methodism occupies, and out of her generosity has come forth with an outright gift of ten thousand dollars for the erection of a beautiful building that will supply our needs for a number of years to come. The Church has purchased two additional lots giving ample room for a ground floor building in Spanish style around a patio. This building is now under construction under the leadership of Charles Kendall and will be ready for dedication, free of all debt, early in the fall.

Westwood Church has likewise outgrown its facilities, Church and Sunday School overflowing into every nook and cranny. In the absence of a generous friend to make a donation, the Church has felt it necessary to erect an additional temporary unit at the rear of the church.

We have experienced this year a pronounced revival of personal evangelism. Some of our churches have had a new birth of evangelistic zeal in which many lay workers have captured the teachings of the New Testament in winning people to Christ, and the entire atmosphere of the Church has been transformed. The pity of it is that we do not have more of this. Here is an age-old method that is as fresh and effective today as it was when Jesus spoke to the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well. There have been added to the Church this year, mostly by this method, 2,320 persons.

World Service giving for the year shows an increase of $1,809, the first in seventeen long years. This increase is attributable in large measure to the very splendid and most effective cultivation work done under the leadership of Dr. J. L. Corley. Many of our people have expressed their amazement as they have seen the total picture of our Methodist activities throughout the world, as presented in these cultivation meetings. Dr. Corley has also cooperated with the district in holding a very successful leadership training school with an enrollment of 265. This school will be made an annual event.

The work among the young people, under the direction of Mr. James McGiffin, is in excellent condition. If any one is pessimistic about this, saying that our work is failing, that person simply does not know our young people. In the past decade church membership in the Los Angeles district has increased 10 per cent as over against an increase of 31 per cent in membership in the Epworth Leagues. Never in all my experience have I known Christian young people who were more sincere, eager, dead in earnest, more devoted, loyal and intelligent than are our young people, and that in a decade admittedly the most difficult to hold youth for the Church. This has not just happened by mere chance; it is the direct result of our leaders—Mr. James McGiffin and Dr. J. L. Corley.

The year has been one of restlessness and uneasiness. Living as we are in times of social, economic and political tension, the Church has not escaped its share of unrest. It should be said to the credit of pastors and laymen that these problems have been before us and have been discussed in a spirit of tolerance and openmindedness. One of the notable events of the year on the district was a meeting of some sixty-five laymen, together with the Superintendent, for a 24-hour period at the Pacific Palisades, when the disturbing problems of the Church were fully and frankly discussed without a trace of rancor or bitterness. A number of sub-district groups of pastors and laymen have met for discussion, some of them with very great profit. There has been considerable demand for more such opportunities for meeting together in discussion groups. We have the conviction that this is one of the most helpful procedures that we could follow.

Some Major Objectives: (1) Adjustment to environment. One of the most serious and difficult problems in the City of Los Angeles is that of the Church adapting its life and program to the changing community. We have too often been membership-centered rather than community-centered. Churches located in the midst of rapidly shifting population have needed to put on a more progressive program but have been the least able financially to do so. How can we hold our own in the older sections of the City where there are still large percentages of people needing the ministrations of the Church?

(2) Correlation of our Methodist program. How can we bring unity of approach, oneness of purpose, and a sense of the wholesomeness of our task into the consciousness of our Methodist people? The report of the Committee on Correlations has indicated our attempt in this regard.

(3) The Church and community welfare. How can we bring our churches and Christian people to a realization that they have a tremendous responsibility as well as a wonderful opportunity in the relating of the socially maladjusted and the needy to the private and public agencies of the community?

(4) The coordination of the Protestant forces of Los Angeles, of Southern California, and in fact of the entire state is an acute problem right now in a state of flux, and a perilous state it is. How may we create a framework upon which to achieve at least a measureable degree of unity among Protestant forces? No Protestant group has a greater responsibility in this respect than has Methodism.

We have been attempting to make some contribution to these four major problems, but we must confess to a feeling of total inadequacy. In some cases we do not seem to have been able to make the Church conscious that the problem exists. If we could but bring our people to a conviction that the highest achievement of the Kingdom of God in this great metropolitan area will never be made until we have more adequately dealt with these and similar underlying problems.

LEONARD OECHSLI

PASADENA DISTRICT REPORT

CHARLES FRANKLIN SEITTER, District Superintendent

In the words of the ancient gladiators: "We who are about to die salute you." I have requested Bishop Baker not to consider me for re-appointment to the district. The six years of my administration, spanning the most trying period religion has experienced during this generation, has laid on the district superintendents unusually heavy tasks, and I, for one, have often found myself wondering if I were matching them with strength and genius. It has not been reassuring to watch a declining membership in the church and church school, fewer enlistments of new recruits, decreasing salaries for hard-working and hard-pressed pastors and reduced incomes for church members, shrinking totals in World Service and other benevolences, and tragically reduced funds for the retired veterans of the cross, their widows and dependents. It gives a lover of the Kingdom scant satisfaction to know that the same losses characterized the work everywhere. But the courage of the pastors and their families, the unshrinking devotion and loyalty of great numbers of laymen, the sturdy undergirding of fellow superintendents and Bishop Baker, and an unshaken faith in a God for this and all times gave me the will to go forward. This experience has magnified in my own estimation the importance of the District Superintendency in Methodism.

It may be that we have fallen short of our goals and desires, but it is good to know that in a world where sin is rampant, where paganism is widespread, where personal and national honor have been discredited, where truth has been betrayed in the house of its friends, where the liquor traffic has become lewd and arrogant and has in our state a retail license for every 86 persons, where war promoters are in the saddle and are riding hard, where poverty has desecrated millions with its foul blight—I say that in such a world as this it is good to know that a challenging voice of protest has been raised and a revealing light has been thrown on the teachings of Jesus as they relate to these evils and all their foul brood of miseries, and that the Church is now taking the aggressive.

Progress in Debt Reduction. Even during these depression years progress has been made in debt reduction. Not a church has been sold on the auctioneer's block. Nearly every church has reduced its indebtedness, and three have liquidated. Two mergers have been effected, Trinity and First Church, Pomona, last year. This year Grace, Ontario, was united with First Church, the parsonage and two vacant lots were sold, all local obligations met and $900 paid on a $1400 loan from the Board of Home Missions, with more than enough yet to come in from these sales to clear this indebtedness. The proceeds from the four lots and the church building yet to be sold will be placed at the disposal of the district superintendent for use on the district. This was made possible by the generous compliance of First Church with the request of the district superintendent. By the action of the Quarterly Conference, I am asking this Annual Conference to authorize the sale of our church and parsonage property at Prescott, Arizona.

Better times in Jerome have enabled our church there to reduce a $2000 debt to $200, which will be mopped up this fall. A delectable lady in Pasadena by a gift of $2500 made it possible for our church at Blythe to wipe out its $3600 indebtedness. Ontario First Church paid off its debt of $1000. Needles reduced from $4900 to $1600—$1850 this year. A debt of $1240 at San Gabriel has been reduced to $1000. Montebello has shaved its debt from $26,000 to $20,700; Chino from $23,000 to approximately $15,000; Monrovia from $31,000 to $26,300; and Monterey Park from $5400 to $3500.

Marengo Avenue, Alhambra, reduced its debt from $18,300 to $16,350; El Monte from $7400 to $6735; Temple City from $9350 to approximately $7000; and Baldwin Park from $15,000 to $12,300.

Alhambra First has taken a sizable slice of $21,300 from her $96,800 debt to bring it down to $75,500 and is going strong. Hartzell Memorial has battered a $23,700 debt down to $9100 and is paying on principal and interest at the rate of $150 a month. Washington Street, Pasadena, reduced its $8000 debt to $3983, and, assisted by the Pasadena Methodist Council, completely renovated both church and parsonage inside and out at a cost of $8000. Victorville sold a lot on the main street for $4000 cash, paid the Board of Home Missions its loan of $1600, purchased a six-room stucco residence (one of the best in town) for a parsonage, and had nearly $400 left for improvements on the church building. Some high financing!

The Pasadena Methodist Council also reduced the debt on Scott Chapel from $24,000 to $19,000. Likewise, the Council assisted Holliston Avenue to bring its $163,000 debt of five years ago to the point where its mortgage can be lifted for $50,000, leaving the church owing only the Board of Home Missions. A plan involving Holliston Avenue, First Church, the Board of Home Missions, and the loaning bank is in process of being worked out looking toward the cancelling of the mortgage by the first of next January. Holliston has already completed the first step of her part of the program with great credit to all concerned. That heroic people have put into that property $240,000, and in addition to that paid $73,000 in interest. First Church, Pasadena, has already put into Holliston $44,700, besides donating that magnificent stone structure. If the present plan is carried through to the end about $25,000 more will be added, making a grand total of $69,000. It is altogether likely that that constitutes an all-time record in Methodism. Most certainly it gives us a vivid picture of the generous spirit of that great church and its distinguished pastor, Dr. Merle N. Smith, who has adorned that exacting pulpit for twenty years. I regret, more than I can say, that I cannot pay individual tribute to the pastors that have so ably and sacrificially led in all these debt-raising and church building campaigns, but it happens that more than one preacher has had something to do with most of the debt reductions, making personal credit impossible in the time allotted for this report. In my mind I gladly bow to them.

New Buildings and Organs. Trinity, Pomona, erected one of the very best buildings for religious education and social purposes in the Conference at a cost of $61,000, all of which was subscribed and nearly all of which has been paid. Puente built a separate structure for additional church school and social facilities at a cost of $2600 and paid for it in cash. Grace, Redlands, excavated under the church building and finished rooms there for social and educational purposes at a cost of $2250 and paid for it in cash. Upland reared the lovely "Cathedral of the Foothills" at a cost of $45,000 and paid for it in cash. Holbrook built a beautiful church at a cost of $5900 and paid for it in cash. Upland, Chino, Colton, Las Vegas, and La Verne installed pipe organs. Congratulations to all these churches and pastors.

Mid-year Changes. A series of mid-year changes affected nine churches on the district. The illness of Will H. Rogers made it necessary to supply Lincoln Avenue during the greater part of the year. Ray Orr transferred to Colorado, and C. B. Dalton was transferred from Grand Junction, Colorado, to fill the vacancy at Las Vegas. I. A. Engle went from Upland to Whittier, Paul Huebner from Lynwood to Upland, E. D. Goodell from Montebello to Lynwood, E. S. Anderson from Chino to Montebello, L. E. Warren from Banning to Chino, Paul Lomax from Blythe to Banning, and R. W. Tautenhahn from Compton Avenue to Blythe. The 7000-foot altitude of Flagstaff proved too high for Dr. William Dando, Presbyterian pastor of our Federated church there, and he resigned. Ray W. Ragsdale was moved from Holbrook to Flagstaff, and Berlyn V. Farris was brought from Garrett Biblical Institute to Holbrook. The illness of Dr. Merle N. Smith brought Henry I. Rasmus, Jr., from University church to the Associate pastorate of First Church, Pasadena. I imagine that this constitutes an all-time record of mid-year changes in the Southern California Conference, and possibly in Methodism.

Two Lovely Laddies. On July 19th William Temple Branton came to brighten the parsonage family at Winslow, and on January 6th the advent of Claude Stanley Young made glad the hearts of the parsonage home at Colton. Heaven's blessing on them! With the exception of minor illnesses the health of the parsonage families has been good, but the hand of sickness fell heavily on Mrs. Samuel Hughes, Dr. Merle N. Smith, and Rev. Will H. Rogers. Our prayer is for their recovery.

World Service Cultivation. Three World Service Cultivation Conferences were held on the district last October under the auspices of the Conference World Service Council, all ably served by Bishop Baker, and representatives of the Boards. Dr. J. L. Corley was the moving spirit. I, also, arranged twenty-five speaking engagements for Mrs. Elizabeth Brewster in March and some for Dr. John Springer. My hope is that the district will register for the second consecutive year an advance in World Service giving.

Activities of Laymen and Preachers. In spite of world-wide attacks on religion and the spirit of paganism so prevalent the men of the church are manifesting an increasing faith and loyalty. They see no rational and worthwhile outcome except in the ongoing purposes of a living and Christlike God. The women, through their thousands of calls, bouquets, letters, social service activities, Goodwill bags, missionary teaching and giving, have spread good cheer and the glorious Gospel, and their money-raising has stopped the mouths of deficits. And what shall we say of our young people who in their local churches, conventions, winter institutes and summer institutes have carried on studies of the problems of religious living in an unreligious world. Many of them have come into a loftier conception of the riches and implications of the Gospel than any generation since the first and second centuries. They are experiencing a vision of God and an insight into his plan to reconstruct society that bids fair to inaugurate a new era of thought and effort. James McGiffin has proved himself a safe and inspiring leader. And what shall we say of our preachers who have worked righteousness, read books, preached sermons, comforted the sorrowing, buried the dead, married lovers, directed churches in a modern hurlyburly world, and besought sinners to be reconciled to God. I could become sentimental as I think of these preachers. But that is verboten. I will venture to say, however, that only heaven knows how deep has been my affection for them and their families; how truly their sorrows have been my sorrows, their joys my joys. Like Emerson, "I awake each morning with profound gratitude for friends, old and new." My only regret is that I have not been a better minister to them all.

Appreciation of the Cabinet. Membership in the Cabinet offers a fellowship that is distinctive and unexcelled on earth. I thank my brother superintendents who through the years have so richly blessed me. My gratitude goes out to Bishop James C. Baker whose gentleness has made him great, whose intellectual alertness and voluminous reading have been at once my inspiration and despair, and whose sympathetic understanding has dealt kindly with my faults.

I bequeath to my successor the best preachers in the world, the best churches in the world, covering an area 650 miles in length, extending into three states and including the largest vineyard in the world, the largest dam in the world, the largest man-made lake in the world, the largest canyon in the world, the largest painted desert in the world, the most altitudinous appointments in the Conference, and presided over by the best Bishop in the world.

To the Omnipotent God I give thanks for the privileges and responsibilities that have crowded these six happy years and for his unfailing care and presence. May His Name be hallowed, His Kingdom come, and His will be done on earth as in heaven!

C. F. SEITTER.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

James Edwin Dunning—District Superintendent

Following upon the illness which forced his untimely retirement the previous year, death wrote a period on October 21st, 1935, to the earthly career of James Allan Geissinger. A quarter of a century of his devoted service was given to Pacific Coast Methodism. Unflagging in his zeal, passionately devoted to his conception of right and truth, he never hesitated to stand boldly for his convictions, and all men knew where he stood. His last years were given to the Superintendency of this great district.

A. S. Hale, retired, mourns the loss of his wife during the year.

Two pastors have suffered serious illness: H. K. Holtzinger was stricken in February, and came very close to the Jordan, but he has made a remarkable come-back and hopes to carry on as well as ever. The LaHabra Church has been beautifully loyal and kind, and neighboring pastors have shared in filling the pulpit for these four months.

Mrs. Harriet C. Schultz, pastor at Encanto, has been in a sanitarium for a month. She had almost completed the requirements for Deacon's Orders as an accepted Supply, and had expected Ordination at this Conference session.

In several homes serious illness has given way to renewed and greatly improved health.

Happier experiences have come to some of our parsonage homes. Immediately after receiving his first appointment to Globe, Arizona, Edward C. Erny brought from Chicago as his bride—Miss Marguerite Hammer. Ethel Malan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Malan, will be married June 28th to Franklin Garrett of El Centro. Two district homes have rejoiced in the sound of "a baby's low cry". Dorothy Jean Kingman, born December 12th, 1935, and Emilie Claire Cunningham, born June 13th, 1936, have brought joy to these two homes.

Mrs. J. E. Dunning has come through a serious hospital experience in the Fall to renewed health. This happy outcome, and two other family events, have broadened the smile on the face of this district superintendent: (1) The marriage of a son—Charles W., to Miss Barbara Welch of Anaheim; and (2) The advent of the first grandchild, christened James Edwin II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Dunning of Pacific Palisades.

Following a two-year precedent, the first Quarterly Conferences were held in six group meetings, including the six natural geographical areas of the district. In each instance the morning and afternoon were devoted to seminar discussions by the pastors and their wives. In the evening the members of the several quarterly conferences included in the group met at a central point at a dinner meeting, presented written reports, and considered vital phases of the work.

The additional time released by this method I spent with those churches that asked for special services. Addresses were made and seminars of local church workers conducted, in visits varying from one to six days at eighteen churches during the winter.

In January, Bishop and Mrs. Baker shared in a two-day district Quest at Balboa Island, attended by all the pastors and their wives from the California section of the district. J. L. Corley, James McGiffen and Oren B. Waite shared in this fellowship. It was one of the most enriching experiences in the life of many of those present. A similar Quest for all the Arizona preachers, planned as part of a tour of the Arizona churches by Bishop Baker in March, was prevented by the illness of our Bishop. We are happy not only in his recovery but also in his return with Mrs. Baker to this Area for another quadrennium. We of the San Diego district believe his leadership will bring the Church closer to a modern realization of the Kingdom of Heaven on earth.

Changes in Pastorate: Russell S. Stroup, with the consent of the Bishop and the Cabinet, left his work at Newport Beach on October 1st, 1935, to spend some time caring for a sick brother on a farm in Virginia. He is unable to resume his pastoral work at this time and requests the supernumerary relation for next year. October 15th, Kemp J. Winkler began his pastorate at Newport Beach.

An exchange with Frank Linder, for eleven years pastor at First Church, San Diego, brought Walter John Sherman to that pastorate on November first.

Robert S. Porter, accepted supply pastor as Nestor, surrendered that work on March first because of other duties, and Morris W. Singer, a local preacher, filled the vacancy.

More About Debts: Several perplexing debt problems of long standing have been adjusted this year, and others are in process of adjustment. W. A. Jennings led the Normal Heights congregation in a victorious movement whereby that noble society has out of their meager resources laid on God's altar for all purposes more than $9,000 this year. Assisted by other pastors and churches in San Diego and vicinity, additional funds were raised and this congregation is now rejoicing in the redemption of their property. The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension made possible this victory by a donation of $5,000 and a loan of $7,500. Special mention is due to J. W. Mahood for services rendered in this and several other debt situations.

Fullerton has refinanced, obtaining the donation of $14,000 of accrue interest and negotiating a loan of $77,500 at three per cent, with provision for amortizing forty per cent of the principal in ten years. In two years the total indebtedness has been reduced from $113,000 to $84,800, and the people now have courage to go forward.

To date about $3,000 has been reported as designated to Park Blvd., San Diego, of the possible $5,000 allowed by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. The Conference Board of Home Missions has agreed to ask the entire Conference to unite in completing this project within the time limit set by the General Conference—September first. When this donation is matched by an equal amount of local money this debt will be reduced by one-third.

Through an offer of Mrs. G. H. Maxwell of Pasadena, and a loan of $3,500 from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, it is expected that a crushing debt of $10,000 on Point Loma Church, San Diego, will shortly be reduced to $5,500, all held by the Home Board.

Central, San Diego, has reduced its principal and obtained the reduction of interest rate from seven per cent to five per cent. During the year the Methodist Episcopal Church Union of San Diego has incorporated under the terms of the Discipline as a City Missionary Society, and I expect that this will furnish Methodism with an adequate agency for a more united impact upon that City.

First Church, Phoenix, has begun to reduce a long-standing debt of $20,000, paying the first thousand and providing for annual payments hereafter. Tucson has raised $16,000 in cash and new subscriptions on its debt of $50,700, and has obtained a three per cent interest rate for three years. Other churches are making progress in working out difficult debt situations. Creditors have generally shown willingness to cooperate.

Improvements: Two new parsonages are occupied. Garfield, Phoenix, built a seven-room brick parsonage adjoining the church at a cost of $3,500 but worth $5,000, all paid through the gift of $2,500 by Mrs. Ida L. Townsend and Mrs. Rosevere, members, and $1,000 by Mrs. Geo. H. Maxwell. Magnolia's new parsonage is not complete, though already tenanted; it will cost $2,000.

Two Salt River Valley churches have installed pipe organs: Chandler and Mesa, Arizona.

El Centro has moved its social hall to the church lot, and greatly improved its corner. Mrs. G. H. Maxwell again was a benefactor in the sum of one thousand dollars.

Garden Grove and National City re-roofed their church buildings. Brawley; Asbury, San Diego; and Yorba Linda made extensive improvements to their social halls. Santa Fe Springs has provided a small community building adjoining the parsonage, and the Oil companies are donating equipment for a community playground. Improvements to the parsonage have been made at Brawley, San Marcos, Fallbrook, Wintersburg, Orange, Park Boulevard, San Diego, Tucson, and Yuma.

World Service: The World Service cultivation conferences in the district were well attended and genuinely helpful. Pastors and churches followed up this program, and we are reporting an advance of about $3,000 over last year's World Service giving on apportionment. About two-thirds of the churches share in this increase.

Membership Gains: Pastors report to me a net gain of seven hundred members. I make no prediction of what the statistics will disclose. Many church records are woefully inaccurate. Official Boards are ruthless in increasing the inactive lists. I believe that we should be as much concerned to hold and reawaken the indifferent as to win new recruits. One new congregation has been organized at Cochise, Arizona, served by the pastor at Willcox. Bisbee, Arizona, is to be left without appointment after forty-eight years of history, its membership having decided they can no longer carry on.

The two Epworth League Institutes within this district—Prescott, Arizona, and Cuyumaca, San Diego County, report the best results in their history. They demonstrate the breadth and depth of the Young People's program developed in recent years by our Board of Education and its skillful leaders,—Blaine Kirkpatrick and Owen Geer, as well as our own Conference leaders. J. L. Corley and James McGiffin, have rendered valuable service in many churches.

The new Methodist Hymnal has been widely introduced greatly enriching the worship by its hymns and responsive readings.

The unified morning program of worship and study is in use in a number of our churches, with distinct advantage from the standpoint of worship. In nearly all cases there has been a slight decline in enrollment and attendance for the Church School program. I hope the Conference Board of Education will make a careful study of this plan in action.

I have long questioned whether the average church is best served by two Sunday services of identical type. Several pastors have had much success in building evening programs around their young people, providing study and discussion groups and social fellowship, and a well-planned, beautiful period of worship for all. Sunday evening forums also minister to a real need.

The Wesley Foundations at Tempe and Tucson are achieving notable results in creative thinking and activity, and in transformed personality. A group of students at San Diego State College have organized unofficially this year.

Considerable study has been given to the Cooperative movement, and in both San Diego and the Salt River Valley cooperatives have been organized under the patronage of Methodist pastors and people.

Time fails me to tell of personal victories won. One pastor writes: "Three homes transformed for Christ; one official member saved from habitual gambling, to a life of joyous victory and tithing; another member delivered from appetite for drink; these results worth the year's efforts."

Another lists among outstanding achievements of the year: "Good-will amidst confusion". This has been true in most of our churches this year, although there are a few churches in which groups have vigorously opposed the proclamation of an all-inclusive gospel of social and individual transformation. I have never seen a braver, more unselfish group than our pastors and their wives, possessed by a consuming passion for idealism of Jesus in ministering to human need, and utter disregard of the consequences of that passion to their personal fortunes.

Some people appear to think that the ministers are responsible for the demand for social change, and that if they were silent the demand would soon cease and the world would sink back in contentment with the status quo. They do not sense that we are in the midst of social changes which will be more radical ultimately than anything most of us have dreamed of; that these changes are being brought about by world forces more powerful than a Boulder Lake let loose. God knows there are terrible wrongs to be righted, gross injustices and exploitation to be banished forever.

My concern is that the Church shall be at the center of this changing world, releasing the power of Jesus' gospel to turn this rising tide into creative channels, to build the new world that shall realize God's own dreams and make Brotherhood a fact. Is it not too of the Church that Jesus speaks: "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow me; for—whoever loses his life for my sake will find it"? God can use only an utterly renounced Church in this tragic hour.

"Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever". He and His gospel are the only hope for this hour. Let us follow Him!

J. E. DUNNING.

(b) Standing Committees and Boards

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

In presenting its report, your Board first records its grateful appreciation of the co-operation it has received from churches and pastors throughout the year. To these should be added the long list of annuitants whose patience and generosity in accepting one-fourth of their contract claims have helped to bring the Endowment Fund a long way back from the brink of disaster. To the steadily increasing number of those who are accepting a permanent adjustment on a greatly reduced scale go our special thanks. Our auditors, whose careful examination of our records for the fiscal year has just been completed, have earned our respect for the thoroughness of their work, and our thanks for the clarity of their analysis of our accounts. Their certified condensed balance sheet will be found printed in its usual place in the Journal. The statements appearing in this report, dealing with the present status of the Fund and the results of the year's operations, are all based on their audit and its supporting schedules on file in our office.

At the beginning of the Conference year, your Board found itself confronted with a corporate fund whose net capital had been reduced from a high point of $796,180.04 April 30, 1931, according to the audit of that year, to $146,553.13 on May 1, 1935, (See Auditor's statement, page 166, Journal 1935) and which was being still further depleted until on August 31st it stood at $134,388.75, using the adjusted book values for the worth of the property owned. Its budget was badly out of balance. It had put into effect a 25% payment of the amounts due annuitants on their contracts, most of the annuitants having accepted this compromise for a two-year period ending May 1, 1937, but some refusing and threatening suit. It was confronted with perplexing refinancing problems when money was hard to get.

Facing these conditions, policies were put into effect in September which had certain definite goals in view. Before stating these goals, we should recall the nature of the Fund and the processes by which it was accumulated. Only as this is done can we understand the problems the Board sought to solve.

The Corporate Fund is composed of two elements: The first is an Endowment Fund created by the free and unconditional gifts, some small, some large, from people and churches, the income from which was to be used perpetually for the support of the claimants of this Conference. The origins of this fund date back to the early years of our corporate history.

The second is the Annuitants Fund created by gifts of individuals who were promised a definite annual payment during their lives as consideration for their donations. The foundations of this were laid much later in our Conference history.

Gifts to the first of these funds totalled over a half million dollars; those to the latter fund represent a larger sum, the amount of which it is almost impossible to determine because of the difficulty in calculating residues at the death of the donors, and various settlements and modifications of contracts through the years.

With this history in view, the following two primary goals were established:

1. To save for the annuitants the largest possible portion of the money and properties they had conveyed to, the Conference for their contracts.

2. To save for those who had given upwards of a half-million dollars, mostly in cash, without condition or reserve, such residue as might be possible for the benefit of the Conference Claimants in whose behalf it was given.

To realize these ends it became necessary to secure a careful survey and appraisal by competent agents of the real properties and other assets held by the Board, and to institute a campaign of sale of property and liquidation of liabilities. The results of the survey and appraisal seemed to warrant the expectation that a salvage approximating 50% might be realized. Annuitants were approached with the proposal either to rewrite their bonds for 50% of the annuities pledged in the original contract with re-insurance of the new bond in established insurance companies, or to pay them 50% of the legal reserve in a cash settlement. Most of those approached met the Board's proposal in a spirit of generous co-operation with results which will appear later in this report.

The year just closed has seen some real progress. Our Net Worth now stands at $211,734.81 as compared with $146,553.11 a year ago, a gain of $65,181.68. In addition to this we have absorbed losses growing out of deflation of property values totalling $51,476.78. We have reduced the total liabilities of the Fund $189,139.10 at a cost of $123,653.42. In other words, for every dollar of resources we have used in these transactions we have liquidated $1.53 of liability. We have improved our operating experience by $14,872.36, of which $8,645.79 is an increase in cash income, and $6,226.57 a reduction in property expense. This, with some minor adjustments, has resulted in a net reduction of operating loss by $15,130.63, or a cut of three-fifths. Our annual interest charge has been reduced by $4,240.37, and our managerial and office overhead by $1,986.20. Twenty annuity settlements have been made which have given the Conference an advantage of $45,241.72. The accumulated Operating Deficit, which stood at $231,816.05 a year ago has been reduced by $33,639.12, leaving a present deficit of $198,176.93. The one figure to emphasize among all these, however, is that which represents our increase in Net Worth, which increase, after balancing all gains and losses, amounts to $65,181.68.

At the last session of the Conference certain policies were adopted as a three-year program to wipe out the Fund's indebtedness to the Board of Stewards. The effective ministers of the Conference undertook to pay an assessment totalling nine thousand dollars as their annual contribution. The Conference restricted the distribution of Conference Claimants fund to $15.00 per year of effective service, the balance to be applied to this indebtedness. The laymen, voting separately, made provision for co-operation on a voluntary basis. The churches were to complete the Loyalty Campaign. At this writing 192 of the ministers have made payments totalling $4,953.42. The laymen have sent in $271.05. The Loyalty Campaign feature has been a serious disappointment, only three churches having presented the matter during the year, so far as the Board has been informed. The ministers, both pastors and special appointment men, have made real sacrifices to meet this self-assessment. The retired men accepted a lower distribution than might have been made and the indebtedness will have been cut approximately one-third during the year.

After giving consideration to the effect which the recent General Conference legislation will have on the Claimants' Fund, your Board is recommending a modification of the three-year program as follows:

1. We ask the Conference to restrict the distribution of Conference Claimants funds to the basis of a minimum of $15. per year of effective service, and to authorize the Commission on Finance to turn over to the Board of Trustees any balance up to the amount of $5,000. to be applied as a credit on its deficiency to the Board of Stewards, this action not to be construed as limiting the Board of Stewards in handling of any surplus.

2. That we levy an assessment equalling 2% of the total cash salaries paid during this Conference year, distributing the assessment to the effective men on the gradual scale used during the past year, and using as a base the amount of cash salary paid during the Conference year 1935-36, pastors moving to pay on basis of salary paid by the new charge during 1935-36 as shown in the Journal.

From these two measures we shall be able to reduce this indebtedness by approximately $15,000.00 during the year. This is proposed as a program for the second year of the three-year program. By next Conference we shall be in better position to calculate the effect which the new General Conference legislation will have upon the Claimants in this Conference.

The Loyalty Fund Continuation Campaign has been the supreme disappointment of the year. The title is a misnomer, since neither loyalty nor continuation has been evidenced by most of the charges involved. Only three out of a total of 48 churches which had not presented the matter have done so during the year. There are 89 others which have raised less than half their quotas. Of the $100,000.00 asked, only $53,441.00 has been paid to date, of which $17,000.00 has been paid during the past year. For these contributions your Board expresses its profound appreciation. They have had a vital part in making possible the achievements of the year. For the goodwill of those pastors who made an effort to reach their quota but were defeated by local conditions, we have both respect and sympathy. For the churches that would gladly have given but lacked leadership, we are sorry. We are compelled to say to the Conference, however, that if the stabilization proposed when this fund was created is to be realized, the balance called for must be provided from some source. If the Campaign could be completed, we believe our program would be secure. We appeal to the sense of fairness in those pastors and churches who have up to this time failed to meet the responsibility of an honest effort to raise the amount asked, and ask them to take their places with those who have proved their loyalty by their deeds.

To meet the situation we submit the following recommendations:

(a) That the Conference definitely order the continuance of the Campaign on those charges where it has never been presented, and on those where the pledges taken fall short of 50% of the goal.

(b) That each District Superintendent be requested to appoint an efficient promotion committee of five on his district, of which he shall be one, which will co-operate with the office in planning a presentation campaign for October, 1936 on charges above classified.

(c) That it be definitely understood that the future proceeds from this campaign are to be used for stabilization purposes as needs of the Fund may demand.

The question has frequently been asked as to any penalty which would attach to any failure on the part of effective men to meet the 2% assessment ordered last year. The answer to that question lies in the present law of the church, not with your Board. This Conference may enact supplemental legislation but could not change the law. This makes any indebtedness of any member of the Conference to any of the Boards of the Church a charge against his annuities when retirement comes. (See Article XIV of the Pension Code, General Conference 1936.)

Some progress is being made in the transfer of properties listed in the German Merger of 1927. During the year the properties of the Stockton German Church have been conveyed to this Board. In view of the problems being confronted by this Board and by the Board of Stewards, and in view of the fact that up to date we have received property to the amount of $163,500.00 for the uses of this Fund out of the total of $1,297,082.00 listed at the time of the merger, we urge the transfer to this Board at the earliest possible moment all properties then covenanted, it being understood that the rights of the German-speaking congregations to the use of this property for worship purposes shall be protected as long as needed.

In closing we voice our belief that the Endowment Fund is definitely on the way to the solution of its problems. There are difficult problems ahead; there are heavy losses yet to be taken; but if the co-operation of the Conference and our annuitants continues through the next two years, the difficulties can be met and the losses absorbed without disaster. We therefore face the future with courage and assurance.

OREN B. WAITE

BOARD OF STEWARDS

The Board of Stewards asks permission to borrow from the "Commission on Finance" an amount sufficient to complete the quarterly distribution to the Conference Claimants as they become due during the coming Conference Year: this amount to be loaned from current payments from the charges to the Conference Claimants fund. (Art. 22, Sec. 7.) (Ordered by three-fourth vote.)

The Board of Stewards recommends that the annuity rate for this year be fixed at $15.00 for each year of approved service.

The Board of Stewards asks permission to appropriate $400.00 from next year's "emergency" fund to repay that amount granted to D. W. Wilt this year because of permanent disability.

The Stewards ask permission to correct the record of J. H. Levedahl, by adding one year of approved service.

The Stewards request that the firm of Arthur M. Loomis & Co. be appointed to audit the accounts and records of their Secretary and Treasurer in accordance with the new legislation enacted by the General Conference.

GEORGE B. CLIFF.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

The Commission on Finance submits the following report with its recommendation that it be adopted:

Budget for the Conference Year of 1936-37

District Superintendents	$22,500
Episcopal Fund	11,250
Conference Claimants	90,000
City Missions
Conference Missionary Society	12,000
Conference Minutes Expense	1,600
Entertainment and Travel	4,400
Treasurer's Office Expense	4,000
California Church Council	1,500
Episcopal Office Expense	1,000
Harbor District—25c per member.
General Administration Expense (General Conference)	1,800

The apportionment for District Superintendents is divided as follows:

Salary	$3,000
Travel Expense	900

for each superintendent.

We recommend that an assessment of 2 per cent be levied on all collections for the year 1936-37 to apply on the deficit of the treasurer's office expense account which was created prior to Conference, 1934.

Note: The annual expense of the treasurer's office at the present time is about $1800 per year less than it was two years ago.

Whereas, when the Entertainment and Travel Fund was inaugurated the laymen were not in the Conference and since their coming no provision has been made in the apportionment to cover their expenses, therefore we recommend that for the coming year the apportionment for this fund be increased from $4,000 of last year, which included the expense of publishing the minutes, to $4,400 and that a separate apportionment of $1,600 be made for the minutes.

We further recommend that the special appointment men be apportioned for the Entertainment and Travel Fund on the basis of one-half of one per cent of their cash salary.

We recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay retired men attending Conference travel expense only on the basis of one cent per mile under two hundred miles and one and one-half cents over two hundred miles.

We most heartily commend all churches which have made it a practice to pay monthly on their apportionments, and we earnestly urge all churches in the Conference to follow this practice. It will eliminate the need for borrowing money and reduce the total operating expense.

Basis of Apportionments: The apportionments for 1936-37 Conference year to cover the above budget have been figured on a three-year survey of 1933, 1934, and 1935 Conference years and are based on the membership, benevolent giving and pastoral support for each church.

The method of computing these apportionments was studied very carefully during the year by a special committee with the thought that we might arrive at a more satisfactory method, but the committee concluded that the present grade figure plan was by far the most equitable and acceptable. In arriving at this conclusion the Commission has taken into consideration the great inequalities in our churches in giving ability. In order to determine what proportion of our obligations any one church should meet, we have to consider: (1) what they have been in the habit of paying for salaries, (2) what they have been able to give for benevolences over a period of years, and (3) their membership. From these we can determine what that church really should pay toward the total obligations of the Conference.

We recognize that after the grade figure apportionments have been set up, there are still inequalities in each District which must be overcome. Some churches cannot possibly pay their apportionments because of unusual conditions, and to meet this situation other stronger churches have for years accepted and paid additional amounts, in excess of their regular apportionments. The apportionments to the churches which we have prepared for 1936-37 and which we hereby recommend to the Conference for adoption, have been adjusted with the churches in question to meet these unusual conditions.

The total apportionment for this year, exclusive of the General Administration Fund amount of $1800, is three and four-tenths per cent greater than last year because of the increase in Entertainment and Travel Fund and the two per cent to take up the treasurer's office expense deficit of years previous to 1934.

World Service Funds: We recommend that all World Service Funds be paid through our Treasurer's office and the expense of handling same will be absorbed. Thus the entire World Service payment will be forwarded to World Service headquarters with no deduction.

Conference Minutes Fund: We recommend that $1600 listed above for this fund be left entirely in the hands of the Secretaries and that the Secretaries make an annual audited report of such funds as have been allotted to them for publication of minutes.

Benevolent Giving: We recommend that when the benevolent giving in any church for a single year is in excess of twenty per cent over the amount paid during the previous year, because of special gifts or other unusual circumstances, that any increase above the twenty percent be eliminated from the survey in arriving at the apportionments for the current year. This recommendation is made because at times unusual burdens have arisen in certain churches where unusual gifts in previous years have unduly increased the apportionment.

Your Commission on Finance has attempted this year to be of help to the individual church by studying information which these churches have supplied to us through monthly statistical reports to the District Superintendents. The information received has been useful to us, and, we believe, the supplying of it has been useful to the churches. We thank you for what you have done for us, and we solicit your further cooperation to the end that all of our work may be more successfully carried on.

R. O. DEACON, Chairman.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY REPORT

The Society desires in this report to briefly call attention to its aims and purposes and to earnestly request the assistance and cooperation of all pastors and laymen in collecting the entire amount which will be apportioned to the work of the Society for the next Conference year, so that the work of the Society may be more efficiently carried on.

The Society is carrying on the work which was originally done by the Missionary and Evangelistic Society organized about thirty years ago under the leadership of John L. Pitner. In the minds of the founders of that organization it had two purposes; namely, the raising of money to keep an evangelist working in the fields where otherwise he could not be supported by the local churches, and the assistance of pastors in financial ways where their charges were unable to give them proper support.

Inasmuch as the Los Angeles District of the Conference has its own society, membership in the Conference Missionary Society is restricted to the district superintendents, pastors and laymen from each of the other four districts. Each year the amount of money to be received and used by the Society is suggested by the Commission on Finance. For the past year this amount was $12,000.00 and was apportioned to the churches in the four districts. The money received on account of this apportionment is allocated for use as follows:

Twenty per cent to each of the four districts and the remaining twenty per cent to a reserve fund which is drawn upon in special cases.

Each district superintendent uses the amount allocated to his district to supplement low salaries of pastors in needy charges, and also to assist pastors in financial emergencies.

It is the aim and desire of the Society when money shall be available to use some of it for the following additional purposes:

FIRST: For the employment of a well trained man for part-time work to make a survey of the Conference and to open up new fields where there is promise of creating new charges, with a view of developing them for a short period and then turning them over to supply pastors. In this connection it is also the purpose of the Society to provide assistance to pastors in charges where such assistance seems necessary; and

SECOND: To provide leadership in the conducting of financial campaigns for some of the smaller charges heavily burdened with debt. In any such case the remuneration of the person doing the work will be guaranteed by the Society and if the campaign is successful a part or all of the amount expended by the Society will be repaid by the benefited church or churches.

These additional purposes can only be carried out providing a greater part of the amount apportioned is raised and paid in by the churches, and we earnestly request the pastors and laymen to lend their active assistance to the end that this may be done.

DONALD A. ODELL, Chairman.

LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

One of the functions of the City Missionary Society is to own and administer property of those churches which require the assistance of an established, continuous body. These churches are of two kinds: First—those which are newly organized in growing communities; and, second—those in communities of shifting population of a missionary character. The society owns and administers six such church properties, in addition to the property of the All Nations Foundation.

A second function of the Society is that of assistance in the maintenance of smaller churches, through supplementing the support of the pastor. During the past five or six years the demands for assistance in maintenance have increased, and at the same time the resources of the Society have been greatly depleted, and the increased expenditure on account of the upkeep of property has greatly increased, to the very great embarrassment of the assistance in the support of pastors of smaller churches. This has created very grave problems for the Society. However, the income of the City Missionary Society has remained the same during the past two years, and we earnestly hope that its revenues will be augmented in the near future.

One of the outstanding events of the year in Methodist circles was the annual meeting of the Society, which was combined with a reception for Bishop and Mrs. James Chamberlain Baker, held at the First Methodist Church of Hollywood on Monday evening, February 17th, when there was present one of the largest groups of Methodist people to sit down at the banquet table together in many years. Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes was the speaker of the occasion.

An additional service rendered by the Missionary Society, inaugurated this year, is that of the repository for sets of stereopticon slides. Ninety-seven sets of slides have been sent out from the office since its inauguration the first of March. Having these lecture sets accessible here in Los Angeles has greatly simplified their use, and we believe has been an important factor in World Service and missionary education.

Innumerable services offered through the facilities of the office of the Society have been rendered in the way of sending out notices of meetings, giving publicity, arranging for committee meetings, booking missionary speakers, assisting pastors with mimeographing work, furnishing pulpit supplies, and in other ways too numerous to mention. In fact it is doubtful whether the pastors and churches appreciate the enormous volume of business carried on through this office. It has come to be a clearing house for many forms of service.

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

World Service Cultivation: Through the work of the Continuance Committee, the ready co-operation of the District Superintendents, the support of Bishop Baker and the general interest of the pastors of this Conference a very notable World Service Cultivation Program has been carried on in this Conference.

The following World Service cultivation activities have marked the last Conference Year:

Twenty-three missionaries and leaders (Home and Foreign) have been in the Southern California Conference in the interest of World Service:

Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Stowe (Foochow); Rev. and Mrs. F. Bankhardt (Foochow); Mr. I. Hsin Liu (Peiping); Rev. and Mrs. Abel Eklund (Malaya); Bishop and Mrs. Gowdy (Foochow); Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Springer (So. Africa); Pres. James L. Ding (Foochow); Pres. and Mrs. H. W. Worley (Foochow); Rev. and Mrs. E. Pearce Hayes (Foochow); Rev. John W. Lanham (India); Mrs. Elizabeth F. Brewster (Hingwha); Pres. Stanley E. Grannum and Quartette (Samuel Huston College, Austin, Texas) and others who were dated with the churches by the pastors.

Number of Churches visited above: 217.

Thirteen World Service Cultivation Conferences were held throughout the Conference during October and the first week in November. The agencies in World Service sent representatives to present their work, among them being: Dr. Corliss P. Hargraves, Dr. J. S. Stowell, Dr. M. N. English and Dr. M. J. Holmes from the East. The Home Missions work on the Pacific Coast was represented by Chinese, Japanese and Mexican leaders. Missionary pageants were written by local groups and produced at four of the Conferences: Tulare, Glendale, First, El Centro and Phoenix. Two of the pageants, written by Mrs. Floyd M. Reeves and W. A. Matson, have been mimeographed and are available for use. Other pageants or demonstrations were given at the other cultivation conferences. An exhibit of the work of the World Service Agencies was one of the outstanding features of the Conferences. This exhibit has been enlarged and scheduled with local churches. It has been shown in twenty-four churches, under the direction of George G. Becketl. The work of the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was shown through the exhibit and their leaders participated in the Conferences.

Following the World Service Cultivation Conferences, the pamphlet by Charles Kendall, "The World You Serve," was issued, giving the World Service program in the Southern California Conference, for use in churches for their local set-up program.

The Foochow Manuals for leaders of Children, Young People and Adults have been thoroughly distributed throughout the Conference. In order to help the local churches initiate and carry forward their Parish Abroad programs, provision has been made by the Board of Foreign Missions for Miss Alice Louise Brown, author of the Manual for Children's Leaders, to conduct conferences in local churches or groups of churches. To date, 35 conferences have been held.

Considerable correspondence has been carried on with the missionaries and Chinese leaders of our Parish Abroad by the secretary of the World Service Council. A more effective plan is being proposed through which each District will have a specified time during the year to write to our Foochow Area leaders. Also a like plan gives a wider distribution of our missionary and Chinese speakers in our midst by assigning them to special Districts of our Conference, the Superintendents to make up the schedule with the local churches. Very effective schedules have been made during the past year with excellent results.

The appreciation of the Conference should be extended to J. L. Corley and his office for the extra work which they have done in directing and making possible this extensive cultivation program.

Believing that information, education and a renewal of interest are vital to the continuance of World Service giving in this Conference, we recommend that October be set aside particularly for World Service Cultivation, that there shall be set up in every district and in every charge Cultivation Meetings similar to those of this past year.

The tentative schedule is September 24 and 25, San Luis Obispo; September 28 and 29, Ventura; October 1 and 2, Long Beach; October 5 and 6, Bakersfield; October 8 and 9, Fresno; October 12 and 13, Van Nuys; October 15 and 16, San Diego; October 19 and 20, Orange; October 22 and 23, Los Angeles; October 26 and 27, Alhambra; October 29 and 30, Pomona; November 2 and 3, Redlands; November 5 and 6, El Centro; November 9 and 10, Phoenix; November 12 and 13, Tucson.

We recommend that the District Superintendents, the Chairmen of the Boards of Home Missions and Education; the Secretary for Church Schools and the Director of Young People's Work; the Presidents of the Conference Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Conference Brotherhood shall constitute the committee to arrange and carry on this educational program.

We request the pastors and church treasurers to remit all World Service funds through our Conference Treasurer's office, and that monthly remittance be made from that office to the Chicago office.

Foochow Area: As far as is consistent with the wishes of individuals and churches under the law of the Church we recommend that the Foochow Area shall be the Foreign Mission field of responsibility of this Conference and that all funds for Foreign Missions not otherwise designated shall be applied to this field.

While this Conference directs its main giving to the Foochow Area, we believe that it is important that our people should be kept informed about our total Foreign Mission work and be led to feel a deepening responsibility for the world wide parish.

Home Missions: The Board of Home Missions has an especial claim upon the liberality and interest of this Conference. Here center great Home Mission fields of need, Hawaiian, Japanese, Mexican, Filipino and Chinese. These people living mainly in this Conference must be cared for spiritually. That care is the function of the Board of Home Missions. Southern California is the mecca of the transient. That ever increasing group is a Home Mission responsibility.

Literally we have a new frontier in Southern California, hence some of our churches will have to be stabilized for a time. Others menaced by debt will have to be subsidized. We feel that the Board of Home Missions must continue to help this Conference with statesmanlike leadership and generous grants of funds. But if we as a Conference are to expect generous treatment then we as a Conference must stress the work of Home Missions and call on our people to give sacrificially to this mother of needy churches. There should be an aroused interest in the cause of Home Missions.

We recommend that the amounts for the various causes which follow shall be the appropriate share of these amounts to be given to each charge, under these heads:

(a) General District Maintenance	$ 8,920.00
(b) Maintenance for territorial and racial work:
(1) Alaska	1,000.00
(2) Hawaiian Mission	6,000.00
(3) Chinese and Filipino Mission	3,500.00
(4) Japanese Mission	4,000.00
(5) Mexican Work:
I. Spanish American Institute	4,000.00
II. Plaza Community Center	3,500.00
III. Latin American Mission	12,000.00
Total	$42,920.00
(c) Board of Home Missions General Fund

Board of Education: We recommend, in view of the recent General Conference legislation changing the status of the Rally Day and 24-hour Day funds, that the Annual Conference request the Board of Education at Chicago to include in its budget and askings from the World Service Commission for educational work in the Southern California Conference, and approve the following funds for which World Service credit on apportionments may be given to the local churches:

Board of Education: We recommend that $16,500 be asked from the Board of Education for work in this Conference, to be apportioned as follows—

- (1) Conference Church Schools$5,000.00
- (2) Wesley Foundation$6,800.00

Applied as follows:

Conference Director of Wesley Foundations	$3,500.00
U.C.L.A. (University Religious Conference)	1,000.00
Stanford	600.00
Berkeley	600.00
Tucson	800.00
Tempe	300.00

- (3) Further we ask for $3,500.00 for Rally Day, and
- (4) $1,200.00 for the 24 Hour Day Work.

Negro Education: This Conference has bonds of interest and acquaintance with Samuel Huston College. We recommend therefore, that the World Service Funds from this Conference for Negro Education be designated to Samuel Huston College.

Other Boards: We commend the interests of the other Boards of benevolence and service in World Service to our churches for sympathetic and intelligent support and backing.

World Service Asking: The World Service apportionment sent to this Conference is $155,914. We recommend that this sum be set aside as the amount we shall try to raise for the World Service causes.

Conclusion: A Church which loses a missionary passion is a decadent Church. We are engaged in the greatest business in the world. We must not falter nor turn back, rather must we gird our loins afresh and go on with renewed vigor.

Much can be done by wise plans and aggressive education. But continuing missionary interest always goes deeper, it finds its true dynamic in the love of God shed abroad in men's hearts, it comes from a vital Christian experience.

Therefore, your World Service Council prays that the power of Christ may fill our hearts and quicken in us and our churches a new passion for the extension of His Kingdom.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SURVEY OF FORMER GERMAN CHURCH PROPERTIES

Pursuant to the instructions of the Conference to continue negotiations with the California Conference regarding German Church properties covered by the merger, the Treasurer of the Conference met with the German Merger Commission of the California Conference in San Francisco on December 17, 1935. Bishop Baker and the District Superintendents of the California Annual Conference, with the exception of Dr. Bent, and all the pastors of German churches in that Conference were present. After prolonged discussion we agreed upon the following points:

(1) That the work in the German-speaking churches shall not be neglected. Since at the present there are certain incomes from properties other than churches and parsonages which seem necessary to the maintenance of the church at Santa Rosa, Calvary Church in Oakland, and the United German Church in San Francisco, it is agreed that these incomes shall continue so to be used on the recommendation of the cabinet of the California Conference as long as the ministry to the German community is maintained.

(2) That in case the continuance of these churches, or any of them, is, in the judgment of the California Conference, necessary as English-speaking congregations, these incomes above referred to shall no longer be used for their support but be turned to the uses contemplated by the merger agreement.

(3) That the Quarterly Conferences of these churches shall definitely take formal action recognizing the binding force of the merger agreement, and that ultimately title to these properties is to be vested in the Southern California Annual Conference but subject to the following conditions: That in case the California Conference finds it necessary to continue these churches, or any of them, as English-speaking congregations, then there shall be a reconsideration by a Commission appointed by the California and Southern California Conferences of the question, both as to the title to the property involved and the retired relation of the German brethren in the number involved.

(4) That title to all income property shall be conveyed to the Southern California Conference as quickly as possible.

It was agreed that this Memorandum of Agreement, after approval by our Commission, should be submitted to both the Annual Conferences for adoption as a basis for future action. We so recommend.

Within the past six months all the properties lying within this Conference, and the properties at San Jose and Stockton, have been inspected and found to be in a fair state of maintenance.

During the year the properties of the German congregation at Stockton and at Orange have been conveyed to the Board of Trustees of this Conference, and these properties, together with those at San Jose, Fresno and San Diego, can now be sold for the benefit of the Fund. We, however, call attention to the fact that of the properties listed in the merger agreement on page 19 of the Minutes of 1927 totalling $1,297,082.00, to this date there has been turned over to the Board of Trustees properties and securities totalling only $163,500.00, the Pacific Old Peoples' Home being held by a separate corporation.

We strongly urge the conveyance to the Conference Board of Trustees at the earliest possible moment, of all properties included in the merger, and as listed therein, even though they may for a time be continued for use by the German-speaking congregations; their rights being protected by definite agreement as the transfers are consummated.

Your Commission also approves the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the Conference that this body shall authorize its Board of Trustees to sell all abandoned church property coming to it from the merger, and such income property as may be deeded in connection therewith, at its discretion, for the benefit of the Conference Endowment Fund.

EVANGELISM

It is reported that when the opportunity came to E. Stanley Jones to participate in the preaching mission to be held in this country this fall, he gave up his plans which were of very great importance to him, and gladly accepted. He plans to spend the summer in the Himalayas in the preparation of his own life for this great work. What would happen if every preacher among us would spend his summer in like manner, that he might be ready for whatever part he might play in this great evangelistic movement! The Book Concern have brought some books to Conference which will be very helpful in this direction.

It is suggested that as soon as possible after Conference, the district superintendents call their men together to consider and set up a plan for evangelism for all their churches, and that in every way possible, every church shall be encouraged vigorously to carry out the plan through the year.

Your Committee on Evangelism wish to call your attention to this fact, however: Evangelism is a life-long process. After the soldier has enlisted, we must see that he is trained. After the pupil has entered our Lord's School of Life, we must see to it that through our neglect or carelessness he is not denied education in that School.

As a basis for your thought, your Commission bring to you the following questions:

1. What does decision for Christ mean?
2. What are the most effective methods of getting decisions?
3. To what extent are individuals, as you know them, having an experience of conversion and beginning a life of new moral integrity and spiritual power?
4. What are the conditions, as you know them, on which any rebirth of vital Christian experience depends?
5. How do you, as a pastor, prepare yourself for your evangelistic preaching and program?
6. How can pastors and laymen co-operate in the program of Evangelism for the local Church?
7. What shall we do with backsliders?
8. What is the relation of Evangelism and Christian Education?
9. What use shall we make of our church literature in our program of Evangelism?
10. How do you prepare your (a) Children; (b) Young People, for Church membership?
11. What is the best program of Evangelism your Church has ever conducted?
12. How may we permeate the total program of our Church with the spirit of Evangelism?

CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

At the time last year when I should have prepared my conference report, I was so near death that it was impossible for me to do so, so I include it at this time.

During the conference year of 1933-34, I held 19 meetings, as follows:

Seven camp meetings—Washburn, No. Dakota; Ridgeview Park, Pennsylvania; Fig, No. Carolina; Beulah Grave, Sharon Center, and Sychar, Ohio; and Clarksburg, Ontario, Canada.

Two Prayer Conferences—one in a Nazarene church in Hartford, Connecticut, and one in a Methodist Episcopal church in Alexandria, Minnesota.

Ten revivals—one for the Akron Holiness Association in Akron, Ohio; one for an Evangelical church in Everett, Massachusetts; one for a Congregational-Christian church in Westgrove, Ohio; two for Nazarene churches in Haverhill, Massachusetts, and Danielson, Connecticut; two for Wesleyan Methodist churches in Coshocton, Ohio, and Greer,

So. Carolina; and three in Methodist Episcopal churches in Ortonville, Minnesota, and in Olivesburg and Moreland, Ohio.

During this conference year I have held only 13 meetings. Because of my sickness, I lost 22½ weeks which cut seven camp meetings and two revivals out of my scheduled engagements. The 13 meetings which I held were as follows:

One Prayer Conference in a Christian and Missionary Alliance church in Livermore, California.

Twelve revivals—one in the Pilgrim Tabernacle, Pasadena, California; two in Bible Institutes in Portland, Oregon, and Huntington Park, California; three in Nazarene churches in Kansas City, Kansas, and in Hartford and Danielson, Connecticut; three in So. Methodist churches in Orosi, California, and in Roseburg and Coquille, Oregon; and three in Methodist Episcopal churches in La Verne, Yorba Linda, and St. Pauls, Los Angeles.

It is with more than usual gratitude to God that I submit this, another report. The goodness and mercy of God shown to me in the sparing of my life, has profoundly influenced me. What I saw and felt and was made to understand of my Lord and His salvation, as I lingered on the border of eternity in restful fellowship and communion with my Christ, has given a new depth, vision, reality and earnestness to my Christian experience. The hour when Jesus spoke so plainly and recommissioned me to return and continue to preach and evangelize, will stay with me as long as I have a memory. As never before, I feel the urgency and responsibility connected with the work of evangelism, and long to do my best to win the lost to Christ. I love my Lord and rejoice in the consciousness of His abundant grace in my heart. Jesus is all to me and I am wholly and forever His. I am determined to keep in His will and serve Him faithfully, the Holy Spirit helping me.

For my work last year, I received $2458.98.

For my work this year, I received $1334.91.

With sincere appreciation of your love and prayers, Brethren,

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

METHODIST CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

The members of our Association believe the Christians of today should do all in their power to recover the spiritual dynamic of first century Christianity, which also characterized the days of early Methodism. A society which is to function in harmony with the spirit and teachings of Christ must be made up, for the most part, of people who shall have been spiritually transformed. Our age is exposed to sin in its most subtle insinuating, alluring, deceptive forms, blighting the lives of multitudes like a devastating plague, not sparing youth or the members of the Church. To help people to become strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might that they may become valiant soldiers to carry the gospel of a supernatural salvation to the ends of the earth, is our task.

To help to accomplish this purpose we offer the finest program we have ever had. Dr. Mert S. Rice will preach twice every day, August 16th to the 23rd, in First Church, Long Beach. He is a preacher of wide repute and evangelistic fervor. Bishop J. W. Pickett of India will speak every afternoon on Missions and Evangelism with Round Table. F. G. H. Stevens will be our Bible expositor every morning.

Young people's day will be Friday, Aug. 21 with a banquet at 6:30, half price for young people of High School age.

We ask the prayers and cooperation of all pastors, and official members of all our churches.

JOHN M. BARNHART.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

"This generation has an appointment with destiny," says Walter Lippman. Great issues are in the balance and momentous decisions, affecting the life of the race for good or evil for generations to come, will be made before the twentieth century reaches the half-way mark. "Which will prevail depends mainly upon education."

What place should the Christian Church hold in this gigantic and dramatic scene? To such a question no simple answer can be given, but one comes close to the heart of the matter when he replies that the task of the Church is to permeate the whole situation with the spirit of Jesus by the Christ-like living of Christ-like people. By its work the Church is to produce Christ-like personalities whose chief business is to produce social and world conditions in which such personalities may continue to thrive.

"It is a race between education and catastrophe," says one authority. "What is to prevail depends mainly on education," says another. Whatever the point of view relative to Christian fundamentals, all rely upon educational processes to carry out and complete our work. All of us believe in Christian education. It is indispensable. We depend upon it to lay deep and secure the foundations for a Christian super-structure, as well as to reveal the kind of super-structure that should be.

Conditions that harm and hinder, conditions that help and enhance, demand our attention. Human personality is the supreme value. It is our point of reference by which all other values must be appraised. "If Jesus Christ is the perfect revelation of God and the perfect revelation of the possibilities of man, what difference should that make in human living? If we accept the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, what about present economic and industrial conditions, war and international relations, discrimination against other races and peoples? There is need of an intelligent and comprehensive program of Christian education administered in a patient, painstaking and sympathetic spirit. Christian education has an almost unlimited opportunity, an almost super-human responsibility."

The Conference Board of Education does not seek to usurp the places and functions of the agencies it represents. With representatives of all agencies in its official group it may become the coordinating agency through which the entire Church may be served with a well wrought out, balanced and supervised educational program. This end can be achieved only through the cooperation of all the boards, societies and agencies which are interested in an educational approach to the local church, such as the several benevolence boards of the church, the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, the Spanish-American Institute, the Committees on World Peace and Social Problems, the California Church Council and similar organizations. In line with the cooperation of agencies is the development and promotion of special emphasis in Christian education, such as Peace Education, Stewardship Education, Temperance Education. It is only through an alert central agency that this cooperation can be achieved and made effective.

We earnestly solicit the cordial sympathetic help of the leaders of all our educational agencies, and of our pastors and people, as we seek to coordinate our efforts for the largest and most effective impact that can be made. Coordination of efforts will effect integration of personality. Our aim is a common one, our efforts should be unified.

To this end representatives of our various institutions and agencies have accepted membership in our Conference Board of Education and together with the leaders of our age groups and departments are seeking a closer fellowship and are endeavoring to discover the common elements that should unite us in our efforts to produce people of well-rounded and effective personalities. We mention briefly some of the departments and the agencies represented, and outline their particular emphasis:

Elementary Work Committee: Counselling and holding conferences with local leaders and teachers of the Beginners, Primary and Junior Departments of the Church School.

Young People's Work: Through the departments of the Young People's division and Epworth Leagues in the local church, Summer Institutes and conferences, religious education is promoted through various channels: Personal religious living with special instruction in Worship and use of the Bible, Peace, Temperance, Social Action, Missions and Recreation. Last summer, the six Summer Institutes with their helpful courses and quest groups, enrolled a total of over 1400 young people.

Adult Work Committee: Promoting vital courses for Sunday morning discussion groups that will lead to intelligent action in church and community projects.

Spanish American Institute and Plaza Community Center: Spanish American Institute; enrollment this year, 80. Nine received diplomas this spring. The Plaza Community Center; through its clinic, legal welfare and church groups, approximately 10,000 contacts during the year.

World Service Council: Promotion of educational phase of the Council's work. World Service Cultivation conferences set up. Missionary speaking schedules formed.

Wesley Foundation Work: Denominational programs at tax supported educational institutions, ministering to over 1200 Methodist students.

University of Southern California: School of Religion, Leadership Courses and Forums.

Woman's Home Missionary Society: One hundred ninety auxiliaries, membership 7865, regular study texts used; Educational work carried on through 147 children's and youth organizations with a membership of 2737. Objective: Correlation of work in missionary education.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society: Membership 9178, 185 auxiliaries, carried on educational program through prescribed study texts. Young business women, in the Wesleyan Service Guilds, have promoted study programs; 147 children's and youth societies, membership 2882, also organized for study.

California Church Council: Interdenominational educational work: Leadership training, Vacation Church Schools, Week-day Religious Instruction, and Summer Conferences.

To save printing expense detailed reports of the various agencies and departments in the Board of Education are being mimeographed for distribution during Conference.

J. L. CORLEY.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

The Commission on School of Religion reports that the time has not arrived for the carrying out of the will of the Conference on the matter of a Divinity School under the complete control of the Conference; but we recommend the continuation of the Commission.

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

In order to make the Historical Association of real value to the conference it will be necessary for every member to take its work seriously. This may be done.

First let every pastor make clippings from the local papers, that may be published in his community, of all of such items that relate to the work of the church and send these clippings to the historical Association.

Second, in reviewing the historical records on the various charges items of historical value will frequently be found, all such should be placed in the hands of the chairman of the association for classification and preservation.

SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC QUESTIONS, WORLD PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

General Conference Pronouncements

Social and Economic Questions

I. The Religious Grounds

1. We are in the seventh year of the most devastating depression of modern times. The people called Methodists refuse to pass by on the other side while millions for whom Christ died are in misery. We will not be silent in the presence of hunger, injustice, and exploitation. We insist that it is not only the right of the Church to speak; it is its bounden duty.

2. We, who are the heirs of the Hebrew prophets and the followers of Jesus of Nazareth, declare that the Church is morally obligated to teach the divinely revealed principles of personal and social conduct, to voice judgment against those practices that contradict the commandments of our Lord, and to proclaim the necessity of establishing the kingdom of God on earth.

3. In the revelation made manifest in Jesus, God is a Father and we, belonging to the family of God, are brothers. Man is of infinite worth because he is a son of God. Christianity holds that personality is the supreme value; it tests all institutions and practices by their effect upon personality. It condemns all practices that are destructive of personality and commends those practices that enrich personality. That Jesus died for the redemption of man is sufficient warrant for Christians to labor for his emancipation from every personality-destroying influence, just as we through Christ would seek to save him from sin.

4. Because of its insistence upon the sacredness of personality, Christianity has been a social force. It has released the transforming power of Christ, which, working out through transformed individuals, has resulted in social action that has, in part, transformed society. The early Christian may have recognized the achievements of Greek and Roman civilization, but, because of his acceptance of the fact of man's infinite worth, he was forced to demand the abolition of slavery upon which that civilization rested. Similarly, with full appreciation of the cultural contributions of Renaissance Europe, serfdom nevertheless had to go. The Christian of today is the very first to recognize the rise in the standard of living made possible by the emergence of modern industrialism, but he demands the elimination of all those factors that result in the destruction of human values, brotherly relations and cultural advance.

5. Because modern science offers Christianity the possibility of realizing all of the physical conditions essential to brotherhood, the Church is forced to demand whatever reconstruction of society is essential to that realization. We refuse to submit to a state of affairs wherein grasping interests seize the contributions of science and prostitute them to selfishness. We insist that the contributions of science shall be used for the purpose of enriching the life of all. We must not allow the very achievements of science to be used by the selfish in such fashion as to destroy society itself.

6. We do not claim to possess sufficient information to pass upon the specific measures essential to the realization of the Christian goal in society, but we do believe that, as we approach the Christian ideal, brotherly co-operation will supplant competitive struggle, the appeal of creative service will increasingly replace the desire to acquire, and democracy will be extended as autocracy is curbed. While we do not pass judgment upon the techniques of attainment, we, as Methodists, do declare ourselves in favor of a personality-making economy; that is, an economic order wherein the fundamental objective is fullness of life for all. To that end we summon our membership, and we believe our ministers and laymen should face this task together.

II. The Facts

1. There is wide divergence of opinion among us as to the meaning of a Christian society, as well as to the means for its realization. That fact reveals the necessity of united study. We call upon the Church to make such a study which might well mark the beginning of a revival both personally and socially significant. We suggest this united approach to the social issue because we desire a united Methodism moving toward a Christian social order. In this united endeavor certain undisputed facts which confront us constitute a challenge to the Church. Among these facts are the following:

2. Privation in the midst of potential plenty;

Gross inequality in income and property;

Insecurity;

Unemployment, with its resultant effect upon national morale;

Long-continued public relief, slowly destroying the self-respect of the recipient and contributing to the pauperization of a nation;

Preventable sickness, accompanied by a menacing rise in tuberculosis and diseases of undernourishment;

Reduction in the support of public and private education, a fact that strikes at the very foundations of constitutional government;

Extensive denial of equal opportunity as a result of economic circumstance or racial condition;

The wasteful and unintelligent use of natural resources;

The excessive debt carried by American productive enterprise, due to over-capitalization, unplanned expansion, and financial racketeering, resulting in a carrying charge that precludes adequate wages for workers or reasonable dividends for owners;

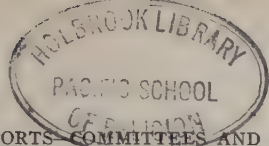

The increasing burden of armament;

The closed doors confronting American youth, with the consequent loss of their service to the nation, and the destruction of their faith in our institutions;

Outbreaks of mob violence;

The growth of tenant farming and the creation of a peasant class with no property stake in the nation.

3. The Christian conscience declares that the continuance of these conditions is sinful in the sight of God, and the Christian Church summons its membership to the task of saving us from our sins. The kingdom of God cannot be built upon foundations of economic injustice. We are told by some that it is not the function of the Church to discuss such matters. The Church makes no claim to expertness in economics and engineering, although within its membership are many highly trained economists and engineers. Methodism does assert, however, that since every unit in the statistical table descriptive of unemployment is a human being, we are vitally concerned and have full authority from the teachings of Jesus to demand the elimination of these anti-social facts. We will not be silenced by critics who offer no solution to these problems.

III. Some Proposed Solutions

1. Within the membership of Methodism there are differences of opinion as to the causes that have produced these unchristian facts and as to the methods of solving the problems that confront us. Among the positions taken, are the following:

2. One group of Methodists believes that the fundamental cause lies in the fact that we are organized around an acquisitive principle, and that the basic method of modern industrialism is the struggle for profit. It is declared that this method is the organized expression of selfishness, and that the system requires this dynamic for its success. Methodism is urged by this group, therefore, to pronounce judgment upon this profit-seeking economy, and to call upon its members to abandon the method of the struggle for profit and to replace it by a method that does not violate the divine law of service. This end is to be achieved, these members believe, by establishing a planned social economy which continuously adjusts economic effort to measured needs, cultural as well as material, thereby introducing intelligence and knowledge and eliminating speculative guessing; that the motive of service is required for this method just as the motive of self-interest is required and generated by the profit-seeking economy. To be successful, it is argued, a planned social economy must rest upon social ownership of the resources and plant necessary to its operation. It is declared that brotherhood becomes real, because such a system enables a large increase in, and the widest possible distribution of, property for personal use and development. It is believed that such a process leads to a society in which there is no class distinction or privilege, in which all are free to develop their capacities and to contribute creatively to the maintenance and progress of humanity; in which the struggle for profit and power is gradually replaced by mutual aid and in which the Christian principle of service is made concrete. This group, like all other Methodists, repudiates the use of force and recourse to violence in social change, and pledges itself to the democratic method of change, and to the resistance and defeat of all attacks upon the democratic process.

3. Another group utterly repudiates this answer to the economic problem. Its contention is argued with force and clarity in a recent publication from the Brookings Institute as follows: "The American people have come a long way on the road toward plenty in the relatively brief space of 150 years. Indeed, during this period standards of living in all industrial nations have been enormously improved. The era of less than two centuries in which our present system of economic organization has developed has magnified man's power over nature vastly more than had all the preceding span of human history. Viewing the problem of economic progress in the large and in this historic perspective, it must be conceded that the economic system which has evolved along without technological development has achieved truly remarkable results. . . . Before discarding the institutions and procedures under which the material civilization of our times has been achieved, it would seem to be the part of wisdom to recognize that this system has shown great capacity for evolutionary growth in the past. May it not be simply in need of readjustment to new factors which have entered the economic situation, or of adaptation in the light of clearer understanding of the fundamental economic forces which govern continuing economic progress. If we can discover definite types of maladjustments now existing, and devise specific ways of correcting them, this road to progress seems much surer than the uncertain and always costly pathway of revolutionary change." The Brookings report holds that our technical capacities for production are not fully brought into play under the system of distributing income and handling the pecuniary side of the economic process which is now in vogue. The particular point in this maladjustment is a failure promptly and fully to pass on the results of improved production techniques to the masses of the population, the report states, and continues: "The more acute minds within the ranks of business leadership have perceived these basic facts of the economic process and recognized that only by acting in conformity with them can they assure the long-time success and growth of their own companies as well as administer to general well-being. The voices of such business leaders are still sounding in the economic wilderness of lesser men who have not as yet seen their place in the larger picture of national economic progress."

4. Still another group among us has turned to the consumers' and producers' co-operation, believing that in the co-operative movement there lies the possibility of expressing brotherhood and at the same time of conserving the values that lie in private ownership and operation.

5. Because of the differences of opinion as to method, and the sincerity and standing of the individuals arguing the cases at issue, we do not pass judgment on techniques. We will test concrete proposals and systems by the Christian doctrine of personality.

IV. The Case for Democracy

1. We are unalterably opposed to any method of change that is based upon war or that condones violence. We will oppose, likewise, attempts to maintain privilege by recourse to violence upon the part of those who refuse to obey decisions made by the people through the democratic process. We repudiate the entire concept of class war. The fact that class consciousness exists is a challenge to remove it, not to accentuate it. Class consciousness has no place in the democratic community: the very idea of brotherhood assumes co-operation in the interests of all rather than war in the interests of a class.

2. We declare ourselves for democracy. All dictatorships challenge democracy. Is faith in a government conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal a forlorn hope? We of Methodism answer, No!

3. The passing of democracy would mark the passing of the freedom that is essential to the proclamation of the Christian message. A free church cannot long survive the death of a free school, free press, free speech, and free assemblage. Methodism, because of its emphasis upon preaching and education, has a vital stake in the retention of democracy. We refuse to go with those who would destroy political liberty to win economic justice. To the contrary, we will strive to maintain democracy, to the end that free men may use their freedom to win economic justice for themselves and for their brothers. For that reason we will resist dictatorship; economic justice is to be won by extending democracy to the industrial order, not by setting up therein the autocracy of dictatorship.

4. The interplay of ideas and the struggle of conflicting interests cannot be avoided in a democracy. But in a democracy such conflict is under law and order, with the constitutionally elected representatives of the majority pledged to enforce law and maintain order, and pledged likewise to guarantee those civil liberties that protect the minority. Thus the minority has opportunity to be vocal, to scrutinize, to criticize, to educate, and through the use of the ballot, to become the majority. Change is thus achieved within the democratic structure by free men who may turn to religion for motivation and to science for method, for the purpose of creating a truly Christian social order. The avenues through which originality flows are kept open. Democracy thus maintains a technique of change which is, in fact, the fundamental principle of stability. It is not at all impossible that, by this method, a splendid synthesis may be developed whereby the creative initiative that flows from individualism may be conserved and the values that lie in collective endeavor be appropriated.

5. Dictatorship decapitates opposition. Democracy dignifies it. Under dictatorship, the creative mind in opposition is destroyed and the nation moves toward intellectual sterility. In democracy the creative mind is protected and conserved. But democracy is more than a political form. It is a political philosophy expressed in terms of Liberty, Equality, Fraternity. It is identified with such ideals as Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness. The Methodist Episcopal Church calls upon its people to use the democratic form to realize this ideal.

6. Consequently, believing in both the democratic form and the democratic ideal, we propose to resist every form of dictatorship, whether it come from the left of Communism or the right of Fascism. We will resist all attempts of those who profess to fight subversive movements, while in reality they pursue policies which destroy the very democracy they profess to defend. We will make every effort to maintain democratic government, and to retain those great guarantees of freedom that have been written into the Constitution of the United States and the other great democratic constitutions of the world, because the truth that makes men free cannot be proclaimed in states wherein freedom itself is destroyed."

World Peace and International Relations

"The patriotism of the Methodist Episcopal Church has never been challenged. Neither our motive nor our loyalty must be impugned when we insist on the fulfillment of pledges made to the dead, and assert our Christian ideals to the living."

In these terms, as in the General Conference of 1924, we set ourselves to create the will to peace, the conditions for peace, and the organization for peace. "The agencies of our Church shall not be used in preparation for war: they shall be used in preparation for peace."

The threats of war in the world today are so grave that we feel called upon to restate our convictions on this subject. Therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, and with the hope that His Spirit may be evident in these words, we make the following declarations:

War as we now know it is utterly destructive. It is the greatest social sin of modern times; a denial of the ideals of Christ; a violation of human personality; and a threat of civilization. Therefore, we declare that the Methodist Episcopal Church as an institution does not endorse, support, or purpose to participate in war.

If civilization is to endure, nonviolent methods of overcoming evil must be found and demonstrated. We are convinced that intelligence and good will can find them. As Christians we shall earnestly seek to discover and recommend ways, in harmony with the mind of Christ, by which mankind may deal effectively with evil, whether in the relations of nations or in the relations of economic or racial groups.

Freedom of conscience is one of the most valuable heritages of Christians. It has been won by long struggle and should never be surrendered. "In the long run any people have far more to gain by cherishing freedom of conscience than by any regimentation which takes away that freedom." We therefore petition the government of the United States to grant to members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who may be conscientious objectors to war, the same exemption from military service as has long been granted to members of the Society of Friends and similar religious organizations. We petition all educational institutions which require military training to excuse from such training any student belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church who has conscientious scruples against military training.

We earnestly petition the government of the United States to cease supporting all military training in civilian institutions. We rejoice in the position taken by the General Conference of 1928 and reaffirmed by the General Conference of 1932, which declared that "we are opposed to all military training in high schools and to compulsory military training in colleges and universities." We urge Methodists in all parts of the world to make a like request of their respective governments.

We believe that the United States should lead the other nations of the world in a program for the progressive reduction of armaments. The governments of 59 nations having, by the Pact of Paris, officially renounced war, should now abolish weapons designed primarily for aggressive warfare. The drastic reduction or total abolition of such weapons would greatly enhance the significance of the peace pact, allay suspicions and fears among nations less prepared to make war, prevent rivalry in armaments among the nations, and help to promote peace in the world.

The exposure of the aims, methods, and practices of the munitions makers of the United States and of other nations is of great value in the development and understanding of the causes of war. We commend the Committee of the United States Senate under whose direction this investigation was made and express it as our conviction that their findings are making a valuable contribution to exposure of one of the primary causes of war. We urge the passage by the Congress of the United States of a neutrality bill designed to keep the United States from international entanglements incident upon the sale of materials to belligerent nations.

We recommend that the Federal government assume exclusive responsibility for the manufacture of munitions of all kinds. We further recommend prohibiting the sale of munitions of war to any individual, group, or nation.

We recommend the creation of a Department of Peace by the United States government, the head of which shall have cabinet rank, this department to be financed through appropriations equal to not more than five per cent of appropriations for purposes of national defense. The department should be authorized and directed to carry on a constructive program of education as a part of its functions, utilizing every known avenue of approach to the mind, on the causes, cost, and waste of war.

We recommend that Methodist bodies in all parts of the world make similar requests of their respective governments.

The amount of financial support to be allocated to the work of this Commission shall be referred to the World Service Commission for favorable consideration. The General Conference authorizes the appointment of a Committee on World Peace in each local church and a similar committee in each Annual Conference and Episcopal Area, these to be listed among committees to be appointed.

We recommend that if men are conscripted in time of war, money, industry, and materials shall also be conscripted to the end that individuals may not derive profit from war, war materials, or war supplies.

We appeal for such modification of the present Immigration Act as will place Orientals on the same quota basis as now governs immigration from European countries.

Recognizing the imperative need for international organization, we urge the government of the United States to enter the World Court and to state the conditions under which it will consent to membership in the League of Nations.

We urge the government of the United States to call an international economic conference for the purpose of securing a more intelligent and just distribution of natural resources and also for the purpose of removing all dangerous barriers to international trade. Toward the success of that conference we urge our government to be willing to surrender inequitable national advantages, even as we shall ask other nations so to do.

We endorse the program of peace education as now being conducted by the Emergency Peace Campaign and the National Peace Conference."

Missions, World Peace and International Relations

"As missionaries, by virtue of their vocation, are intermediaries between races, nations, and classes, we urge that they take full advantage of the opportunity thus afforded them for the creation of understanding and good will in these groups. In the interests of its primary spiritual responsibility and in the interest of world peace itself, the Board of Foreign Missions has a major interest in this field.

The promotion of world peace is an interdenominational, inter-racial, and international activity. The Board of Foreign Missions with its worldwide contacts has the well-established co-operative relationships necessary to make peace action possible and effective.

The Board also has exceptional access for accurate information with reference to the causes of stress and strain which are likely to lead to war.

World Missions cannot be separated from the peace issue, yet is separated in the minds of the youth of the church. Youth today needs to realize that the greatest world peace movement is the World Peace Mission of Jesus Christ.

We, therefore, recommend that the Board of Foreign Missions express its willingness to co-operate with the World Peace Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church in ways mutually acceptable to relieve mankind in every land from the brutalizing effects of war."

"B"

The Church is called upon to make a study of the meaning of a Christian society in order that there may be a united Methodism moving toward a Christian social order. To this end, Bishop Baker is instructed to appoint a committee of ministers and laymen to promote and aid as a clearing house of information for the churches of the Conference a comprehensive and unbiased study of the social questions, as they are related to the Christian program, to the end that Methodists may be able to act with more unanimity and understanding as citizens and Christians in the solution of the social problems which confront us in this day. In accomplishing this the committee shall work in close connection with the Conference Board of Education so that the coordination of all organizations in the Conference, having the same objectives, be effected.

CORRELATION

In accordance with the action of the Annual Conference a year ago, instructing the Committee on Correlation first, to set up a temporary council to be known as the Council of Methodist Agencies of the Southern California Conference; and, second, that the Committee also make a further study of the missionary societies with the view to formulating such an organization as might deal effectively with the missionary and social problems of the metropolitan area of Los Angeles and the rural areas of the Conference; the Committee on Correlation submits to the Conference the following report:

Early in the fall, following Conference, the Committee on Correlation met and raised two sub-committees to carry out these two distinct purposes of the Conference. However, these committees had not proceeded far until it became apparent that if we were to effectively correlate the entire educational, social, missionary and financial program of the Conference, we were moving in the wrong direction in setting up two distinct groups. As a result the matter was referred back to the Committee on Correlation, and one sub-committee was constituted to study the entire problem as a unit.

This sub-committee has continued its work throughout the year, with frequent sessions, as a result of which they have arrived at the definite conviction that there should be, first—one correlating agency for the entire program of the Conference; and, second—that all of these correlated agencies should be divided into two separate groups, according to the main division of their interest.

At a meeting held at the Church of All Nations on Friday, June fifth, the Constitution and By-Laws of such a correlating body was adopted by the Committee on Correlation, and the resulting organization was formally set up. The Constitution and By-Laws follow herewith:

Constitution and By-Laws of the Federation of Methodist Agencies

I. Name. The name of the organization shall be The Federation of Methodist Agencies.

II. Purpose. The purpose of the Federation shall be to aid in correlating the activities, programs, services, budgets, financial campaigns, and to assist in the general promotion of the missionary, educational and social agencies operating within the bounds of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Church.

III. Membership. (1) Institutional Membership: Any institution, agency or missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal Church operating within the bounds of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church may, by the vote of its governing body, of which written notice shall be given, become an institutional member of the Federation. The relation of the Federation to such institution or agency shall be advisory only. Any such institution or agency may withdraw from membership upon giving written notice of such withdrawal.

(2) Active Individual Membership: The active individual membership of the Federation shall consist of members of the Methodist Episcopal Church who have made a contribution of at least five dollars per annum to any one or all of the institutions or agencies belonging to the Federation.

(3) Associate Individual Membership: The associate individual membership of the Federation shall consist of persons other than members of the Methodist Episcopal Church who have made a contribution of five dollars or more to any one of the agencies or institutions composing the Federation.

IV. Board of Managers: The Board of Managers shall consist of the executive or administrative officers of each institution, agency or missionary society within the Federation, together with two members of the governing body of each, who are not paid officers, as they shall be elected by such body.

Divisions: The Board of Managers shall be made up of two divisions:

First—The Council of Methodist Social and Educational Agencies.

Second—The Council of Methodist Societies.

(a) The Council of Methodist Social and Educational Agencies shall be made up of these institutions and agencies which have to do primarily with social and educational service, such as:

All Nations Foundation	Goodwill Industries of Southern California
Board of Education of the Southern California Conference	Goodwill Industries of San Diego
David and Margaret Home	Methodist Hospital of Southern California
Deaconess Home, Los Angeles	Pacific Old People's Home
Esther Hall, San Diego	Plaza Community Center
Frances De Pauw School	Robincroft Home
First Church Welfare Department of Los Angeles	Spanish American Institute
Good Samaritan Hospital, Phoenix

and such other social and educational agencies as shall be organized from time to time.

(b) The Council of Methodist Societies shall be made up of those Boards, Commissions, institutions and agencies which have to do with matters of church extension, maintenance, mission churches and special work, such as:

Conference Missionary Society	Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society
Conference World Service Council	Pacific Chinese Mission
Conference Board of Home Missions	Pacific Japanese Mission
Conference Board of Trustees	San Diego Methodist Episcopal Church Union
Commission on Finance	Woman's Aid Federation
Harbor Missionary Society	Woman's Foreign Missionary Society
Latin American Mission
Pasadena Methodist Union	Woman's Home Missionary Society and such other societies as may be organized from time to time.

V. Meetings: Regular meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held in May and November of each year, at the time and place fixed by the Board of Managers. Special meetings may be called by the President whenever deemed necessary by the Board of Managers.

The Council of Methodist Social and Educational Agencies, and the Council of Methodist Societies shall meet at the call of their respective chairman.

The Board of Managers shall call an annual meeting of the active and associate individual members of the Federation, as early in the Conference year as is deemed advisable, for the purpose of acquainting the members of the Federation and of the Methodist Episcopal Church with the benevolent, social welfare and educational activities of the Church.

VI. Promotion and Cultivation: The Board of Managers shall co-operate with the World Service Council, the Commission on Finance and other benevolent organizations within the Conference, in a Conference-wide educational campaign, followed by systematic cultivation of the field in the interest of World service and other benevolent causes of the Church.

VII. Officers: The Board of Managers shall, at its May meeting, elect the following officers, who shall serve during the succeeding Conference year:

President

First Vice-President (Chairman of the Council of Methodist Social and Educational Agencies).

Second Vice-President (Chairman of the Council of Methodist Societies).

Secretary

Treasurer

VIII. Amendments: These By-Laws may be amended from time to time at any regular or special meeting of this Federation, by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting.

It becomes at once apparent that the main function of the Federation of Methodist Agencies is, first, the correlation of the entire program of the Methodist Church in Southern California, and, second, the presentation of this total program to the Church in Southern California and the effective cultivation of our entire constituency in the interests of the total program.

It further becomes apparent that by the formation of the two Councils within the Federation, opportunity is given for those organizations of a missionary character to cooperate in their program, and likewise those institutions and agencies engaged in social and educational work to effectively cooperate in the correlation of their programs, raising the standards and otherwise uniting and solidifying these institutions and agencies in a common purpose.

The Committee on Correlation recommends:

First—That the Conference approve the Constitution of the Federation of Methodist Agencies; and,

Second—That the Committee on Correlations be discharged and the entire responsibility for the correlation of the program within the Conference be committed to the Federation of Methodist Agencies.

Third—That the Bishop of the San Francisco Area and the District Superintendents of the Southern California Annual Conference be ex-officio members of the Federation.

LEONARD OECHSLI.

TEMPERANCE

After the very able and strong pronouncement of last year, your present committee felt that the time for action had come. Early in the year, Mrs. Eva Wheeler, a member of this committee, was authorized to carry our request to the California Council of Churches that the Council call all temperance organizations together to plan a united forward campaign against alcohol. The Fresno meeting was held, a program agreed upon, and the local option movement initiated. The United Dry Forces, headed by Roy L. Smith, are pressing the battle and we pledge ourselves and our churches to obey orders and give sacrificially of our time and money to obtain local option.

Local option was the process twenty-five and thirty years ago by which two-thirds of the area of California was freed from the dominance of the open saloon, under the leadership of Dr. Chapman and later, Dr. Gandier. We realize that the task before us is no easy one. For over seventy-five years the church has fought the liquor traffic. Our ministers especially have sacrificed and suffered, yes, many of them have given their lives to bring about the abolition of this great evil. We must do this again. It cannot be done by apathy and indifference. Men will have to die again before we will finally be freed from the curse of liquor.

We pledge our loyalty to the W. C. T. U., whose work of education has been and will be the most important part of the battle. Our churches will be open and our gifts given to these wonderful women.

We are glad for the reorganization of the Anti-Saloon League and the union of the American Temperance Federation. There are numerous improvements yet to be made in this organization. Its name should be changed; younger men should become the burden-bearers. There should be new emphasis on temperance and not too much playing of politics.

We are also glad for the remodeling of our own Temperance and Public Morals organization. We note with great satisfaction the selection of Dr. Cherrington as head.

The great task is to educate our youth and we pledge ourselves to renewed activity of our Quarterly Temperance Committees, and to more vital teaching of temperance in our Church Schools and Epworth Leagues.

1. We extend greetings to the State Senate Investigating Committee and offer any aid possible in uncovering graft and vice conditions in the Board of Equalization, now under investigation.

2. We request the District Attorney's office to assume full responsibility in a relentless prosecution where cases come before the courts.

3. That we urge Governor Merriam to carry forward a complete investigation and pledge the investigating committee sufficient financial support to meet their needs in such investigations.

We nominate for directors of the California Anti-Saloon League: ministers—John Gabrielson and Walter John Sherman; laymen—Hugh C. Gibson and Dr. M. A. Wilkinson.

ALL NATIONS FOUNDATION

Under the leadership of Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, recently elected a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the All Nations Foundation had its inception fifteen years ago with the purchase of two two-story houses and a vacant lot, located at 810-24 East Sixth Street, which is the present site of the main building.

The purpose of the All Nations Foundation, under the City Society, is to establish settlement house activities in the less privileged sections of Los Angeles, in an effort to meet the physical, mental, social, and spiritual needs of the underprivileged boy or girl, and to render this service without distinction as to class, creed, or color.

Child Welfare Clinic: In 1931 the gift of an unknown donor, the Child Welfare Clinic was established in an attempt to make a clinical study and provide clinical treatment for the 1200 children who are included in our activities. This project comes to a conclusion on July 1, 1936. No finer service has been rendered in any institution or through any organization than has been made possible by the generosity of this unknown benefactor. The work that has been started and demonstrated in this five-year period has attracted nation wide attention, and an adaption of this service is now being seriously considered by the American Youth Commission, which is funded by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Sunset Center: In 1933 through the co-operation of the service clubs, (Rotary, Kiwanis, Exchange, Friday Morning) municipal departments, private character building organizations, and the co-ordinating council, Sunset Center was formally opened. It was reported that in 1932 there were 660 cases before the police or courts from this area while in 1935 there were only 156. This represents a decrease of 77%. This Center is located in what was the old Epworth Church. It now operated with a staff maintained by the Los Angeles Kiwanis Club and the Friday Morning Club under the direction of the All Nations Foundation. Over five hundred children and young people are officially connected with the activities of this organization. The First Baptist, First Congregational, and First Unitarian Churches are uniting this summer in funding the vacation church school for a four-weeks' period.

Hollenbeck Center: In November, 1935, Hollenbeck Social Center, which was formerly the quarterly conference of the Grace Methodist Church with Ben F. Forney director, became a unit of the All Nations Foundation. A thorough study of the community revealed the tremendous need in that area for such work, showing over 153 girls between 10 and 21, who resided within a two-block radius of the institution.

Donation: In January, 1936, through the allocation of special funds from the California Community Foundation, five departments of the Foundation were able to refurnish their quarters or add new equipment in the sum of $750.

Pickfair: Through the wholehearted co-operation of Mary Pickford, the gardens at Pickfair were made available to the girls' department of the Foundation, and under the leadership of the executive board a benefit tea was scheduled for May 12, 1936. Four thousand people visited the gardens, and the girls' department netted $1325, which is to be used for the all-year-around camping program, including their summer camp at Catalina. Many of the churches were most generous in their co-operation.

Camp: June 20, 1936 marked the completion of the first units of the All Nations Camp at Big Pines, comprising a main recreation lodge, dining room, and kitchen, with separate sanitary and shower buildings with the necessary water storage and fire lines constructed. This has been done at a cost of approximately $6,000 for materials. This gives the All Nations Foundation a year-around camp valued at a minimum of $15,000.

Chapel: Because of the interest in and concern for the Church of All Nations on the part of Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, it has been possible to add to the staff as of June 1, 1936 Louis M. Fiske as the associate minister in charge of the chapel work. With the experience of Mr. and Mrs. Fiske in the mission field, more particularly among the Spanish speaking people, a vital and worthwhile Christian ministry will be made possible through their efforts.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

Goodwill Industries was born of the conviction that the Christian program today should provide economic rehabilitation through self-respecting work for the handicapped, aged and needy.

The Goodwill Industries of Southern California, with branches in Long Beach, San Bernardino and Santa Ana, and the Goodwill Industries of San Diego County, operating within this Conference, report for 1935 as follows:

	Hours Work	Different Persons Employed	Wages Paid	Total Expense
Los Angeles	1,030,549	1,458	$264,011.30	$410,202.20*
Long Beach	65,470	75	17,942.77	26,924.58
San Bernardino	70,182	132	18,035.10	24,033.50
Santa Ana†	15,710	64	3,602.92	7,395.55
Total Goodwill Industries of S. Calif.	1,181,911	1,729	$303,592.09	$468,555.83
Goodwill Industries of San Diego County..	105,127	643	20,521.51	32,696.82
TOTAL	1,287,038	2,372	$324,113.60	$501,252.65

*Capital and building accounts not included.

†Four months only, September to December, inclusive.

For every dollar contributed in cash to operating income, $27.38 was paid out in wages.

Salvaging waste and reconditioning cast-off materials during 1935 in the Los Angeles Goodwill Industries provided wages for a daily average of 448 persons, denied gainful employment elsewhere largely because of physical handicaps or age. The free employment bureau obtained outside work for 890 different persons.

Chapel services for all workers start the day. The popular designation of the Los Angeles Industries as "the house of a thousand smiles" amply testifies to the pervading Christian spirit. Los Angeles reports a total chapel attendance for 1935 of 83,363; San Diego, 12,657.

Each of the Industries has shown substantial gains. A small building in Long Beach and a building site in San Bernardino have been purchased.

Conference members are invited to visit the Industries and see the complete picture. This practical Christian ministry is filling a very real need in the Methodist program of Southern California.

FREDERIC H. BLAIR.

PLAZA CHURCH AND COMMUNITY CENTER

The Staff and Board of Directors of the Plaza Church and Community Center thank God for the opportunity of "working together with Him" another year; and also the members of the Southern California Conference for their prayers and kindly cooperation.

The CHURCH, under the pastorate of Rev. B. E. Garcia, has moved forward in a very fine way. We know that "prayer moves the hand that moves the world." The prayer group has met every night, excepting Saturday, for one hour, since January 1st. This accounts for a Spiritual Church, Growing Sunday School, Vital Epworth League, Live Junior Church and Loyal Temperance Legion, Busy Ladies' Aid and W.C.T.U. group, Staunch Brotherhood, and a Tither's Band, which has grown from 7 to 53. These tithers bring their tithes to the altar for consecration each Sunday morning.

The contributions of the Church have increased self-support considerably; the World Service is paid in full and various other contributions made. The Lord has truly manifested Himself as He promised in Malachi 3:10.

Attendance in all services amounted to 30,887; pastoral calls 1620; new members added to the church 68; Bibles and tracts given through all departments 4000.

The WELFARE DEPARTMENT through its many avenues of constructive service has made over 3000 contacts. Many discouraged folk have taken a new lease on life through the kindly counsel given, and the help in solving their domestic, unemployment, legal, poverty and many other problems. In this and all other departments of the work we have had fine cooperation with Religious, private and public Welfare, Legal, Health and other Institutions.

The CLINIC, through its various departments, has rendered a much-needed service. While we have tried to "cut-down" on the remedial work, by referring folk to other clinics, we have found it very difficult, as all clinics do not have interpreters; and if the doctors and nurses do not understand the patient, and the patient cannot understand or speak the English language, an intelligent diagnosis cannot be ascertained, and the patients gravitate back to the place where they are understood. With fine, Christian men and women physicians and others ministering, the clinic has done a very constructive work among its 6000 contacts during the year.

The work among the YOUNG PEOPLE is going forward in an encouraging way. An orchestra, which has been long-wanted, has recently been organized; also a Glee Club; Boys' and Girls' Clubs; Dramatic Club, which is now working on a religious drama for the Epworth League Institute. The way has been opened at the Center for some of the young people to get training and experience in various lines of work, such as student pastor, occupying the pulpit, experience in teaching, in leadership, in church and secular music, in clinic and welfare work, home visitation, the Children's Home and in office work.

In the Methodist correlation plan, it was suggested that the CHILDREN'S HOME merge with some of the other Methodist institutions. This was undertaken, but the Boards of the other institutions would not take the younger children the Plaza Home has been caring for; the question arose "Where shall they go?" There was no other Home and very few Mexican children are ever adopted. These children are held in such high esteem by teachers and residents of Sierra Madre, that when they heard that the Home might be closed, an overwhelming protest was sent in. A steadily increasing financial interest is being shown by the Mexican churches, and the debt on the property has been materially reduced.

The PLAZA COMMUNITY CENTER CLUB, sponsored largely by some of the fine Methodist women of Los Angeles District, has served all the interest of the work in a very splendid way. It means to the Center what a Woman's Aid means to a church.

Space forbids mentioning the full program of the Institution. Figures mean little; the important thing is the kind of service rendered. Service rendered at the Center is rendered as friend to friend, and not just so many "Cases." We have endeavored to know and to do His will.

KATHERINE B. HIGGINS, Executive Secretary.

PACIFIC OLD PEOPLES' HOME

As Superintendent of the Pacific Old Peoples' Home I take pleasure in bringing to you my third annual report and acknowledge with gratitude my indebtedness to one of the finest Boards any man ever had the pleasure of working with. Their faithful and whole-hearted cooperation together with the efficient service of a loyal staff makes it possible to bring to you a record of achievement that has not been equalled in the history of the institution and this has all been made possible by my faithful predecessors who laid well the foundation of this Home.

Last March we dedicated one of the finest and most beautiful buildings of its kind to be found anywhere in America. There are sixteen living rooms on the second floor and fourteen on the first floor with a complete bathroom between each two rooms. In addition to that every room has a private lavatory and a closet. The rooms are eleven by fifteen.

The building is beautifully furnished with Doehler metal furniture. In less than sixty days after the building was completed every room in the building was occupied and there is little or no room available in any of the eleven buildings on the grounds.

Like every growing institution there are always needs that have not been met. We need another new building.

Additional Site: During the time the new building was being erected an additional site was purchased including eleven pieces of property just west of the old site. This provides an additional site 181 feet by 200 feet and will be a great asset in the future development of the Home. This property was paid for in cash except a trust deed in the amount of $2,000 which amount we assumed. The buildings on this site will yield a very satisfactory return until such time as it is needed for additional buildings.

The greatest asset of the Pacific Old Peoples' Home is not its physical equipment and conveniences but the marvelous Christian fellowship that prevails in the Home. If you were to visit the Home you would be convinced that we have one of the happiest and most congenial groups of people, regardless of age to be found in all California. I wish I could take time to bring to you some of the many remarkably fine statements expressing the keen appreciation of both our members and our guests. A recent visitor said when leaving, "I think you have an ideal situation here for elderly people. I only have one criticism. I do not like the name. I should like to see the name changed to Sunset Paradise. Our most enthusiastic boosters are those who live in the Home.

Finances: I do not think it is necessary for me to say much about finance. The accompanying statement will speak for itself.

In closing this report I desire to express my gratitude to Almighty God for His patience and marvelous leadership.

The future of your home is bright but its needs are great and only through that leadership that comes from above can we hope to make this Home what under God it ought to be, a Sunset Paradise, for those who have toiled through the heat of the day and now in the twilight of the evening shadows wait for the dawn of the eternal day.

I count it a great joy and a high privilege to be able to serve these beloved sons and daughters of the king.

CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD

In the records of the services rendered by the various institutions of our Conference, must be recorded the deeds of the several Deaconess organizations within its bounds.

The work of the Deaconess Home has been accomplished in the face of difficulties. The lack of workers has been the greatest handicap in this day of "Repeal" when the need for visitation in the homes is an absolute necessity. Much of the relief work has been carried on from the Deaconess Home. The work with the children in the nursery and kindergarten, the primary and junior grades, including many nationalities, has shown most gratifying results. Daily vacation Bible schools were held with large attendance. Helpers in the schools were former pupils and came from many foreign speaking homes. Through clinic, class and club, by call and personal contact, suffering has been relieved, spiritual help given, new ideas planted and Christian literature distributed. Some, who had lost their way, found again the path that leads to Christian living. The Conference Board reports no transfers in and the transfer out of Miss Mildred Hewes to the St. Johns River Conference in Florida. Our probationers have been employed part time as local pastors or pastors' assistants.

Thoburn Terrace culminated another successful year with the Thirteenth Birthday Party on April 25th, 1936. Her ministry of kindliness to retired Christian workers continues with a full house and an increased waiting list.

Robincroft has given another year of rest and happiness to those who have spent much time in serving others. The building has been filled. The family is in fairly good health with but one death, that of Mrs. Luella Umlauf, 94 years of age, who gave all but twenty years in the work of Missions.

"To be a strong hand in the dark to another in the time of need, to be a cup of strength to a human soul in a crisis, is to know the glory of life."

FELLOWSHIP FUND

Balance July 1, 1934, and receipts to April 30, 1936$3,560.97
Distributed to Charges toward maintaining adequate support

From 1935 Fund 2,417.35

Balance on hand April 30, 1936$ 793.62

Paying participants increased from 55% of effective ministers in 1934 to 69% in 1935. Fully paying participants decreased. Ministers under special appointment, who paid into the Fund, increased from 29% in 1934 to 37% in 1935.

The committee recommends:

1. That the District Superintendents explain the importance of the Fund, and its place in Southern California Conference church economy, to the Pastors in each charge.

2. That total aid to any charge shall not exceed $250 in any year.

3. That it shall be the responsibility of ministers in charges or appointments not furnishing a parsonage to report to the Fellowship Fund Committee at each conference session the cash rental paid or rental value of homes owned and occupied by them.

4. That the Fellowship Fund be continued for 1936-37.

FRANK M. TOOTHAKER.

EQUITABLE SUPPORT PLAN

The Southern California Annual Conference of 1935 approved the basic principles of the Equitable Support Plan as printed in the 1934 Conference Journal, Page 101. It also continued the Commission to study the four items indicated in the final paragraph of the 1935 report and to "propose a plan to secure an equitable salary for every member of this Conference."

The Commission feels that we do not have sufficient available data concerning the four items of study, but recommends a continued study. Realizing the necessity of immediate action we propose the following plan of equitable support.

I. Disciplinary Provision

The 1932 Discipline, Paragraph 338, Sections 3 and 4, provides that "if it is necessary in order to maintain a satisfactory schedule of Minimum Support or to assist pastors in special need, a Sustentation Fund may be apportioned to the Pastoral Charges, collected and disbursed as the Annual Conference may direct."

"In order to supplement such a fund an equitable assessment may be made on the salaries of all effective members of an Annual Conference above the minimum salary fixed by said Annual Conference."

II. Present Organizations and Funds

The Conference now has the following organizations and funds which supplement ministerial salaries: (a) The Conference Missionary Society, which disburses funds for sustentation purposes; (b) The Los Angeles City Missionary Society, which applies some of its money for this purpose; (c) The Fellowship Fund, maintained by ministerial members of the Annual Conference disbursed $2369 last year; and (d) The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension appropriates some money to this end.

III. Proposed Organization

We recommend that:

1. The salary maintenance features of the first three above organizations, and any other funds used for sustentation purposes, be combined and known as the Equitable Support Fund.

2. A Conference Committee on Equitable Support consisting of five ministers and five laymen to administer the Fund be elected annually by the Conference on recommendation of the Conference Committees on Nominations.

3. District Committees consisting of three ministers and three laymen from each district shall be elected in a like manner, which will cooperate with the Conference Commission as suggested in later provisions of the proposed plan.

IV. Recommended Procedure

1. Each District Superintendent shall report to the Conference Commission on Equitable Support, not later than the opening day of the Conference session, on forms supplied by the Commission, the estimated amount needed to assure the minimum salary for every effective member of Conference in his district for the following year, together with the amount of available resources from the Board of Home Missions for this purpose and any other outside support.

2. The Conference Commission shall report the total amount needed to the joint session of the Annual Conference which shall set the total amount to be apportioned for the ensuing year.

3. It shall be the duty of the Commission on Finance to apportion this amount to the individual churches on the same basis as the other items of ministerial support (Episcopal Fund, District Superintendents, and Conference Claimants). This apportionment shall be prorated as other items of ministerial support as provided in paragraph 338 of the 1932 Discipline.

4. All funds shall be paid to the office of the Treasurer of the Commission on Finance, who shall disburse them as directed by the Conference Commission on Equitable Support.

5. Each District Committee shall: (a) Investigate every charge that has set a salary lower than the minimum set by the Conference to ascertain whether or not the charge is doing its utmost to meet the standard, and to recommend, in writing, to the Conference Commission on Equitable Support the maximum amount to be paid to said charges.

(b) Report to the Cabinet in writing any members of the Conference serving charges on their district who in their opinion are permanently ineffective and suggest that the Cabinet take action as provided in paragraph 188 of the 1932 Discipline.

6. The Conference Commission on Equitable Support, on the basis of reports from the District Committees, shall determine, with the District Superintendents of the respective districts, the amounts to be given each charge, and (in writing) order the Treasurer of the Commission on Finance to make monthly payments as funds are available.

7. The Treasurer of the Commission on Finance shall prepare an itemized account of the receipts and expenditures by charges, which shall be printed in the statistical tables of the Conference Journal, as provided in the 1932 Discipline, Paragraph 449, Section 2.

8. The Conference Commission on Equitable Support shall recommend to the joint session of the Conference the minimum salary for the ensuing year, as provided in paragraph 338, Section 1, of the 1932 Discipline.

9. The apportionment feature of this plan shall become operative beginning July 1, 1937; all other features to go into effect immediately. In order that this may be done we recommend: (a) That each District Superintendent be instructed to present this plan to each Quarterly Conference on his district during the coming Conference year; (b) That the minimum salary shall be one thousand dollars and living quarters for single men, and twelve hundred dollars and parsonage for married men, except those serving in our Annual Mission. (c) That the Conference Committee on Equitable Support for next year be appointed early in the Conference session and that they report later in the session the estimated amount of the apportionment.

RUSSELL E. CLAY.

PRORATING

Your Committee calls attention to the new legislation which relates to pro-rating as found in The Pension Code and which is as follows:

Article X, Section 4. "The apportionment to the individual charge for Conference Claimants shall be stated as a percentage of the cash salary to be received by the pastor."

Article XI, Section 1. "The amount payable by any Pastoral Charge on the apportionment for Conference Claimants shall be directly proportional to the amount of cash received by the pastor on his salary."

Section 2. "The Treasurer of the Pastoral Charge shall be primarily responsible for the application of the provisions of the first section of this Article, but in the event of his failure to apply such provisions, the pastor shall adjust his cash salary and the payment to the Conference Claimants according to the proper ratio, as provided above, before he enters the respective amounts in his statistical report to the Annual Conference. See Article XIX, Sec. 3, for records of default. In the event that a pastor in charge violate this section, a permanent record of such default shall be kept as provided in Article XIX, Sec. 3, and, on retirement, the amount of such defaults shall be deducted from his annuity in such installments as the Board of Conference Stewards shall direct."

Section 3. "It shall not be permissible for a Pastor-in-Charge to receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation intended to defeat the object of the regulation in Sec. 2 of this Article, by the stipulation that such bonus or other supplementary compensation be not counted on his salary. For so doing, on the complaint of the Board of Conference Stewards, presented to the Conference by the Committee on Conference Relation, his annuity claim may be disallowed by order of the Conference, for the particular year of service during which such bonus or supplementary compensation was so received."

Paragraph 328. "The specific amount for the support of the pastor having been determined, the other three items of ministerial support shall be related to the pastor's salary on a percentage basis, so that the respective payments required for the support of Bishops, District Superintendents, and Conference Claimants in each pastoral charge shall be exactly proportional to the amount paid to the pastor."

WALTER C. BUCKNER

GROUP INSURANCE

Late in the 1935 Conference the Group Insurance Committee was instructed to "study further into the matter of Mutual Benefit Plans for men of the Conference, and to act in matters of adjustment during the year".

One of the first things which the committee did was to adjust the Plan adopted by the Conference to conform with certain legal requirements which resulted in the formation of the Southern California Conference Fraternal Aid Society. Most of the details of the Articles of Agreement which were signed by the members of the Committee and the men of the Conference who joined the group were identical to those included in the outline which the Conference adopted.

While the Plan has not operated without criticism, a consistently large group of men has seen the plan through the year and has cooperated with the Committee in a brotherly way to carry out the Fraternal spirit of the Conference. During the year the Committee has had the privilege of reaching out to five beneficiaries of the Plan and of expressing true "Fraternal Aid" in the hour of greatest need. One member whose wife passed away was paid $152.00, and four widows received a total of $1700.00, at a total cost per member in the Plan of $12.00. One widow says of the Plan: "I wish I could find words to express my appreciation for such an organization . . . if ever a widow needs help it is certainly when her husband and dear companion has gone to join the church triumphant . . . I wish I could say something to convince every member of the Conference to see it his duty to become a member of the Fraternal Aid Plan".

In accordance with instructions your committee has diligently investigated many other plans of mutual benefit and insurance. The most attractive group insurance policy which was discovered would give coverage as follows: The amounts of life insurance range from $15.00 up to age 35 to $125 at age 71 or over, on the monthly premium bases of $1.25 each plus an accidental death and dismemberment benefit of $1,000 and an additional ten cents per month to the age of seventy. The complete schedule is on file in the Commission on Finance office.

The Committee feels that our own Plan is preferable to any of the eight plans which have been considered. In order to stabilize our Plan more members of the Conference, particularly the younger men, should join. The Committee recognizes the principle employed by the insurance companies of assessing a lower rate to younger men, and recommends that the rate of assessment be changed as follows: Under 30—$1.00 per death; 31 to 40—$1.50 per death; 41 to 50—$2.00 per death; 51 and over—$2.50 per death. We recommend that upon the death of the wife of a member of the Fraternal Aid Plan that the assessment be one-half of the regular assessment. We further recommend that members on trial be invited to join the Fraternal Aid Plan. In case of their discontinuance they will cease to become members of the Plan. We earnestly urge all members of the Conference to join this Plan.

Technically the assets of the old Group Insurance plan, consisting of a dividend balance of $1749.07 and unpaid notes and accounts covering premiums due from some 19 members totaling $845.80, should be distributed proportionately among the members who were policy holders, on a basis of premiums paid. This distribution would be difficult to make, and the Committee feels that it would be consistent with the wishes of the men to give the Conference Claimants the benefit of these assets. The Committee therefore recommends to the Annual Conference that the assets above mentioned be assigned to the Conference Board of Trustees to be applied on the Board of Stewards Deficiency Fund.

E. DOW HOFFMAN.

PROPHECY

Your committee is asked to bring in an estimate of the number of new members this Conference may reasonably receive in the next five years. There is no seer in the committee, and any statement is as much a guess as a calculation. Our best means of a fair decision seems to be in using statistics of the past five years—that is, from 1931 to 1935 (1936 figures not available).

In those five years this Conference lost: by death, 35; by retirement, 24; transferred out, 17; withdrawn and located, 3; total, 79. In the same period there were received into the conference: transferred from other conferences and other denominations, 31; from completing course of study, 24; total, 55. Thus 24 more have left the conference than were received. The number of charges is reduced by 9, district superintendents, 1 and special appointments, 1. There were 8 supply pastors used in 1935, where none are reported in 1931.

The relation in number of pastors and charges seems about the same proportion in 1935 as in 1931.

The element of contingency here is large. There is no age at which members can be compelled to retire; no one knows how many will die during these years. But if the five years of our calculation are a fair criterion we can do better than guess. If there is a member transferred out for everyone who comes in, then it would seem safe to assume that this conference may reasonably receive 10 or 11 each year.

WM. C. HODGSON.

APTITUDE TESTS

This committee reports progress in the development of a means for discovering the aptitudes of applicants for admission to our ministry. Every project of research is slow. Thanks are due to Dr. Roy G. Bose of Chapman College, and Dr. Welty C. LeFevre of U.S.C. for valuable assistance given in tabulation of data and in making extensive statistical analyses. At least one more year, perhaps more, will be required to complete the task.

The Committee on Itinerancy reported non-concurrence on the memorial from this Conference asking permissive legislation for aptitude tests. (Report 47, p. 483, The Daily Christian Advocate. This report was accepted by the General Conference in the blanket motion covering all non-concurrence reports. The committee, therefore, asks the consideration of the Conference as to whether it shall continue its work.

Of the $50.00 appropriated for the work of the committee, $10.00 was paid out by the Conference Office for clerical help. If the work is to be continued, we recommend that the committee be continued, and an appropriation of $50.00 be set up as part of the Conference Expense Fund.

CARL C. SEITTER,

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The progress of the Methodist Hospital of Southern California has continued during the current year. The extent of this progress is perhaps best evidenced by the following figures:

Daily average number of adult patients, 1933.....	59
Daily average number of adult patients, 1934.....	70
Daily average number of adult patients, January 1, 1936 to June 1, 1936	99 5/10

This increase in patronage can be explained only through the giving of proper recognition to the fact that hospital service meeting the highest standards has been provided. Miss Mary K. West, the hospital superintendent, is outstanding. Her associates in the hospital staff are capable, well qualified, loyal, and efficient. No factor has been more important in the accomplishments of the hospital than the service rendered by this group.

The medical staff under the leadership of Dr. Gail Fehrensen, as Chairman, and Dr. Kenneth H. Boyer, as Secretary, has rendered all possible assistance to the hospital. Monthly meetings have been held during the year, and the staff organization has functioned in accordance with the highest standards.

The reconditioning of the hospital plant has continued during the past year. The maternity division was completely rehabilitated. Twenty-four rooms in the nurses home were redecorated. New equipment includes beds, mattresses, surgical instruments, short wave diathermy machine, linens, dishes, etc. A soda fountain and lunch room near the main entrance has been installed. A unit providing fifteen additional beds on the third floor of the hospital was opened in October, and the reconditioning of the remainder of the third floor will be started in the immediate future. Since June of last year the sum of $2,500.00 has been expended in the purchase of new linens.

The following additional statistical information is of particular interest:

Babies born, 1935	812
Babies born January 1, 1936 to June 1, 1936	378
Number of operations performed, 1935	2,151
Number of operations performed January 1, 1936 to June 1, 1936	850

During the year 1935, 200 patients from the All Nations Clinic were cared for in the hospital. Ninety-eight and one-half per cent of all charges made to patients during the past year has been collected. Numerous opportunities for much needed hospital service, in cases where the patients were without the ability to pay, have had to be declined by reason of the financial limitations of the hospital. It is most sincerely hoped that improved financial conditions and the further interest of the friends of the institution will make it possible for an extension of this type of service.

Of particular interest to the general membership of the Methodist Church in Southern California will be the news that a plan has been agreed upon by the representative of the bond holders, the Board of Trustees of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern California Conference, and the hospital board for the rewriting of the bond issue which encumbers the hospital, and the release of all missionary society properties which have been involved by the litigation which has been pending for some time. This plan will be consummated at the earliest possible time, and while the details involved will require a considerable period within which to be completely worked out, the plan agreed upon is rapidly going forward. Satisfactory arrangements for the payment of all hospital indebtedness, including taxes, have also been made, and the arrangements agreed upon have in each instance been carried on without default up to the present time. The rewriting of the bonded indebtedness upon conditions which are fair and equitable to all concerned, should create a new interest in the Methodist Hospital and make possible the rendition of an even wider service than has been rendered during the past year, having in mind the progress evidenced by the figures quoted.

ROLAND MAXWELL,
President.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL—ARIZONA

We only wish that the Conference could see and know the inside workings of our hospital. We wish that they could know something of the relief and help given to the 3,494 patients that went through our institution last year. The worth while things of a hospital cannot be put on paper in cold type. The writer's ability to describe the real happenings do not begin to picture the happiness and satisfaction that comes from worth while work, well done, dealing with pain and sickness.

The past year has been a very successful one at our institution. Successful from the standpoint of the number of patients handled, the results of that work as surveyed by the American College of Surgeons, the increased collections for work done, the improvement of the physical equipment of the institution, and the general co-operation between our nursing staff and our doctors' staff.

In our physical equipment we have bought and installed new operating lights, operating tables, portable X-ray, Diathurmy, fracture equipment, put linoleum on the corridors on two floors, completely painted the inside of the old building, improved our laundry, and many other material improvements.

Among the outstanding accomplishments of the past year has been the refinancing of our bonded indebtedness at a reduced rate of interest. Our bonded indebtedness of $250,000.00 has been refinanced in such a way that the average interest rate for the next ten years is 3 1/10 per cent. This new agreement went into effect as of Dec. 15, 1935.

We are exceedingly happy to report that for the first time in more than ten years we closed the year with our current obligations paid in full and a small cash balance in the bank. The Conference will be interested to know that last year in addition to all these things we did $18,645.52 of free work. This amount represents charge off as the patients left the hospital. In addition to that amount, when our audit was taken and after going over our bills receivable, we charged off

$4,160.89 as uncollectable, making a total of $22,806.41 that the hospital contributed to those in dire need of our services and no funds to pay for same; or to put it another way, we spend over $1900.00 each month in the year on poor, needy people.

The expense of operating the hospital was $136,984.19.

For years we have been deeply interested in the problem of crippled children. Once a year from 75 to 100 of these unfortunate ones come to our institution for a free clinic, coming from all over our state, seeking help and more than that number come in our regular way.

We have from time to time improved this department, until I am sure we have the best orthopedic department of any place in the state, but yet the desire and constant pull on our heart strings has never been satisfied. So some six weeks ago we put our problem before Mrs. Carrie A. Maxwell and she has very generously and graciously given us $10,000.00 to enlarge and better equip the department so that we can do more and better work. We are indeed grateful to Mrs. Maxwell and wish that she could receive that thrill and satisfaction that has been mine when some nurse brings a little tot to my office and the little one says: "Mr. Sexson, I thank you because I can now walk."

It is the sincere conviction of mine that the good Lord is not interested in any part of our great Methodist Church's work more than he is in the splendid healing ministry of our hospitals.

J. O. SEXSON,
Superintendent.

RESOLUTIONS

Once more we would express our gratitude to God for the privilege and opportunity to participate in the blessings, fellowship and service of another annual conference.

The return of Bishop James C. Baker as our resident bishop for the next quadrennium has met with the approval of Southern California people, and especially ourselves and our congregations. His scholarly Christian culture, kindly and comprehensive understanding of our needs, his moral courage, Christian statesmanship, and brotherly fellowship have endeared him to us beyond our ability to express. We rejoice in his presidency of our Conference, and with loyalty and anticipation of an ennobling future, face the tasks of Methodism in this area, as the sharing of a great enterprise together for our God.

We would mention appreciation of the method used in directing the exceptionally large number of communicants at the Lord's Supper, making for quiet and reverent orderliness. We would also commend the manner of conducting the Memorial Service, giving it a unity and effectiveness which added much to its sacred character.

The beautiful and colorful floral decorations furnished by Mr. Walter Armacost and the Flower Committee, as well as those of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hancock, have been a daily and continuous inspiration.

Again would we thank the Sparkletts Water Company for its very generous contribution of drinking cups and of palatable and refreshing water for the Conference thruout its sessions.

We thank the Acousticon Company for the installation of its extensive apparatus for the benefit of those who otherwise would have been unable to hear the addresses and proceedings; we also appreciate the thoughtfulness and kindness of the Stricklin Company in providing an emergency amplifying set.

We would convey our appreciation to Rolla Alford and Anne Aaronson for the beautiful and inspiring special music furnished on the many different and important occasions by organists, soloists, quartets, and choir. We are grateful to Director William Hartshorn and the Vermont Square Church choir of Los Angeles for their particular contribution of the numbers which brought us spiritual refreshment.

The Program Committee deserves our thanks for their painstaking and long continued labor in arranging the many details and providing the special features of our conference program. It has been a labor of love well done.

We would here express our commendation of the plan to secure the pastors of local churches of different denominations to bring the morning devotional messages, and hereby express our appreciation to those who accepted the invitation and made possible for us this varied program of devotional inspiration.

Dr. Oswald W. S. McCall, our conference guest speaker, has stirred our intellect and esthetic appreciations in his series of addresses. Greater still, he lifted us to new heights of the spirit by his revelation of the love of God and Christ and fellow men—as being real to him. As we listened, we moved into fresh areas of living, and pitched our tents in the realms of a more god-like humanity and a society like unto the Kingdom of God.

We would be ungrateful, indeed, if we did not express once more our sincere gratitude to First Church, Long Beach, to the church staff and to the special Conference Committee who have been untiring in their efforts and most careful in their attention to details for our every comfort and convenience during our attendance at this the seventh session of the Southern California Annual Conference to be held here.

We would extend our special thanks to the caretakers upon whom has devolved an excess of arduous work in meeting the many additional demands in connection with the holding of the sessions and the transaction of the diversified business of the Conference.

Special personal mention should be made of the work of the handling the almost incredible amount of pre-conference correspondence by Miss Mary Higgins, the local church secretary, and the accurate management of details involved in the financial arrangements by Mrs. Elma Reed; in addition, these two secretaries have been in control of the amplifying system all thru the day and night sessions. To R. N. Merrill, our pastor host, we extend our heartfelt thanks for his brotherly and unselfish giving of himself, and for the organizing of his church to care for the multitudinous needs of this large conference of ministers and laymen; his fine and generous spirit has made us feel truly welcome.

We would express most cordial appreciation of the unostentatious conscientious, and almost continuous service rendered by the secretaries, treasurers, and statisticians of both lay and ministerial conferences, as also the members of the different boards and committees whose duties have deprived them of much of the Conference, and have required many extra hours of hard work in order to dispose efficiently of the innumerable items of vitally important Conference business.

The unfailing and continued courtesy and generosity of the First Presbyterian, First Baptist, First Congregational, and First Christian Churches, and the Y.W.C.A. of Long Beach in placing at our disposal their buildings and facilities merit our sincere and hearty thanks. We would also gratefully recognize the courtesies extended to our Conference by city officials and departments, as also by the Chamber of Commerce of Long Beach.

We truly appreciate the generous consideration of the Conference by the Willmore Hotel in the matter of its entrainment of our guests and courtesies extended.

We hereby record our appreciation of the attention and space given in the local papers to the deliberations and proceedings of our conference session.

We would note and commend the spirit of fair play and brotherliness which has prevailed, and the absence of acrimony and personalities in the debate of delicate and difficult issues on the floor of the Conference, all of which have made for a sense of liberty in expression of opinion and the maintenance of an atmosphere of reasonable consideration.

To all who have contributed in any way to the mechanical, organizational, or inspirational success of this conference session, and whose efforts seem to have been unnoticed, we would convey our gratitude and the reminder that the service has been rendered to Him who said that any who should give so much as "a cup of cold water" in His name "should not lose his reward."

W. T. GILLILAND, Chairman.
RECTOR JOHNSON.
FRANK WEBER.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

This committee was appointed to "discover the facts with respect to the loss in membership reported by our Statistician and the causes for these losses." It was also ordered that the committee report to the Conference the results of its study together with "suggestions of ways and means if deemed advisable, for remedying the situation."

With the gracious help of the Statistician, we have sought to discover the facts. This has been an almost impossible task, largely because the so-called statistical data of the Conference is highly unreliable. This is through no fault of the Statistician who can assemble only the figures that are given him in pastors' reports. Every effort to trace churches or districts through a period of years, and justify the printed totals has resulted in futility. At least three separate attempts have been made to produce a defensible analysis. Each has failed. Only two or three facts can be noted.

1. At least a part, perhaps an important part, of the reported decrease in membership is due to confusion in reporting "non-resident members." In accordance with the directions given with the statistical reports, the Statistician subtracted the number of non-resident members reported from the total membership. This was done for each church. In filling out their reports a number of pastors had already made this subtraction with the result that the totals were decreased twice. Just how great this error is, we have no practical way of determining.

2. Our statistical data are so inexact that deviations in totals from one year to the next are without much practical significance. A seven year period was studied, however, and reveals the fact that Southern California Methodism has been practically static during that period.

3. The most significant decrease during the 7 year period has been the decrease in the number received into the churches by transfer. Assuming that the economic situation has halted much of the immigration from which Southern California Methodism had drawn its increases in membership in years past, we note that the churches are not replenishing themselves with new blood fast enough to make any gain against the natural stream of losses.

4. There seems to be no correlation between increase or decrease of membership, and the theological or sociological concepts of the ministers. The problems of increase or decrease in membership do not seem to hinge on the conservative or liberal factor in the ministry.

It is the judgment of your committee that valuable studies might be made if reliable data could be produced. The actual balancing of membership figures from each church by recording accessions of all types, losses of all types, and all changes in classification, would provide a foundation for such studies. Augmented statistical forms would be required for this. Additional columns in the minutes, however, would not be needed.

We recommend, that a committee be named to work with the Statistician during this Conference year in the preparation of such additional forms as may be necessary to provide for the accurate recording and balancing of our statistical data regarding membership, and that this Conference order the full and careful use of these forms by each pastor in making out his report, prior to his coming to Conference.

CARL C. SEITTER,

Largely through the interest, participation and support of nineteen Protestant denominations which have cooperated in the work of the California Church Council, that organization has established itself as the efficient agency through which Protestantism in California can act in matter of an interdenominational nature.

The merger which resulted in the formation of the California Church Council is only a year and a half old. The various merging groups have carried into the new Council their individual programs, which are rapidly being amalgamated into one, with most satisfactory results. It has been found that most effective work can be done by throwing the major responsibility for program development upon the Northern and Southern geographical areas. Very recently the Northern Area has engaged Dr. Paul H. Buchholz as its executive secretary, and a rapid development of the program in that territory is expected.

In the Southern Area, the program of Christian Education has been maintained at the high level which has prevailed for many years. Leadership Training Schools, Vacation School Institutes, supervision of Community Councils, regional conferences, and service to denominations and individual churches, indicate a part of the activities in this field. The Department of Home Missions and Comity includes the work of the Superintendents' Council, in which many matters of church comity and inter-church relationships have been adjusted. The Department of Evangelism finds a place of large usefulness at this time in the plans for the National Preaching Mission, especially in the second and third phases of this significant movement, which carries it into the communities and the local churches. The Department of Social Relations is representing the Council in the Local Option campaign which has for its objective the elimination of liquor from the Constitution of the State of California in November, and provision for local control of the liquor evil.

It is recommended that the California Church Council take steps to organize the Protestant Churches of Los Angeles as a unit of its Council and that the Southern California Conference appoint a committee of five to serve on the Council. These should be representative of the clergy, and laity; of the institutions and interests.

In brief, the Council is, not a separate, outside organization; but, the cooperating denominations, working together toward the bringing in of the Kingdom.

HAROLD V. MATHER, Executive Secretary.

JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

As we seek to bring about the union of Methodism, and preserve in the highest degree the interests of each constituent group, as well as their confidence in the proposed organization, we, the United Session of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in session, June 25, 1936, respectfully petition the Uniting Conference, if and when it shall be held, to readjust the provisions for Jurisdictional Conferences as now provided in the Plan of Unification, so that no Jurisdiction shall be determined on purely racial lines while all others are based on geographical boundaries.

By way of example, and not in the sense of proposing a specific plan to which we are committed, we offer the following:

To the Northeastern Jurisdiction add the Delaware and Washington Conferences.

To the North Central Jurisdiction, add the Lexington Conference.

To the Western Jurisdiction, add the Central West Conference.

Create a South Central Jurisdiction to be comprised of all Negro Conferences, Mission Conferences, and Missions in the states of Arkansas, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and Oklahoma.

The Southeastern Jurisdiction would remain as now provided.

A Southwestern Jurisdiction, comprising the balance of the Conferences in the states of Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Nebraska, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, would complete the list.

We request the Secretary of this Annual Conference to communicate this resolution to all other Annual Conferences, with the hope that they may take similar action.

We request further that this resolution be sent to the Secretary of the General Conference with the instructions that it be given to such persons or committees in the Uniting Conference, if and when it shall be held, as may be necessary to secure consideration.

L. E. JORDAN.

Memoirs

ENRIQUE NARRO

Our hearts are moved by a deep and common grief in the death of our beloved father, Enrique Narro. We stand with bowed heads and hearts in great sorrow. While our grief is assuaged and sorrow mitigated by the profound conviction that God "doeth all things well," and that a good man has gone to his eternal reward after a hard day's work, we sit quietly and wonder sadly at the mystery of it all.

Enrique Narro was born in Saltillo, Coahilla, Mexico, February 22, 1867, and died in Glendora, California, February 20, 1936. Born of Spanish parentage, his parents were Don Antonio Narro and Dona Galindo de Narro. His father died when Enrique was but a boy five years old. His early education was secured in a Jesuit convent. He was converted at the early age of fifteen.

On June 3, 1890, he was united in marriage to Miss Emilia Garcia Morales in Nogales, Arizona. To this happy union was born seven children, four of whom are still living.

In a few years, he established a tailor shop where fifty men and women were employed. Soon after this business was well launched and in the midst of successes as a young business man, he heard the voice of God calling him to the ministry and, with the same courage and unfaltering fidelity that so characterized him all through his marvelously useful and eventful life, he turned his face resolutely towards the new field of endeavor.

In 1905, he took his first charge under the leadership of Rev. R. C. Elliott, a Superintendent in the Methodist Church South, and thus he began a career of splendid achievement for God and the church. In 1909, he was the first minister to start working in Cananea, Sonora, Mexico and this was one of his most successful charges, having a total membership of 400.

In 1912, he came to Los Angeles, to visit his three daughters who were in Frances De Pauw School for Girls in Hollywood. He met Dr. Vernon M. McCombs, the Superintendent of the then Spanish and Portuguese District of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and became the first pastor of the Plaza Mexican Church in Los Angeles, and one of the first preachers in the Mexican work in California. He served appointments in Los Angeles, Long Beach, Santa Paula, Anaheim and Glendora, where he retired in 1927 because of ill health. His ministerial career stretches over a period of thirty-one years.

He is gone from us, but in a deep and profound sense he is still here. His spirit will always abide with us who knew him. In the evening time of our own earthly lives, there will continue to come to us those inspirations and tender memories that now so greatly help us in the performance of life's tasks.

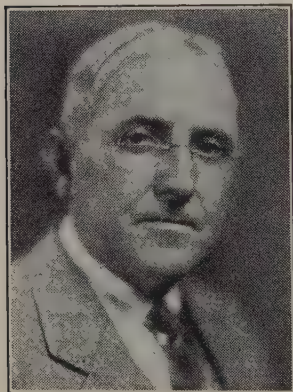

Interment was made in the family lot in Evergreen Cemetery in Los Angeles.

"Servant of God, well done!
The glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last"

Written by his daughter, EUNICE NARRO.

JAMES ALLEN GEISSINGER

James A. Geissinger was an imposing and chivalric idealist. His sermons pulsed with convictions. Preaching was to him an infatuating soul-recreation. He began preaching when he was only sixteen years old, and it was his chief ecstasy. His diction was finished and often picturesque. He was a reformer, but not fantastic. He struck hard blows, but he was always constructive. He was an omnivorous searcher after truth. No one among us was more familiar with great books. He had an unwavering confidence in the dominancy of great Biblical truths. He believed that a banal materialism, with its Protean idiocies, was running out. He not only read great books, he wrote them! His "Heart Problems and World Issues" was a notable, widely-read volume. One of his brochures reached a popular distribution of eight million copies. His deep erudition did not give him any pontifical superiority, nor result in mere rationalization nor mystical interpretations of the truth. As a friend he was affectionate and companionable.

James Allen Geissinger was born in Burbank, Ohio, October 14, 1873, and was translated October 21, 1935, in Los Angeles, Calif.

His home life was idyllic. His devoted wife was his sweetheart from childhood. They lived blissfully together for forty years. His two sons, Wayland and Roger, found in their father a genial comrade. His grandson, Bob, had his confidence and tender affection. Besides these one brother, A. W. Geissinger of Columbus, Ohio, and one sister, survive him.

His scholastic preparation was in Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio State Universities. He held conspicuous pastorates in Cincinnati, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Pasadena and Phoenix. His last work was as Superintendent of the San Diego District, which he led forward for nearly six years.

Doctor Arthur H. Compton, a Methodist preacher's son, and a world famed scientific explorer says, "There is stable ground for a belief in immortality because the light of a candle continues through space after it is extinguished or burned out." So we may confidently believe that the radiant soul of James Allen Geissinger throbs on into the eternal realm. This is our steadfast faith as we press forward to that "one far-off divine event to which the whole creation moves."

BISHOP CHARLES EDWARD LOCKE.

N. J. BURTON

Last Conference N. J. Burton was very ill. He had answered the roll in fifty-four annual conferences and he could not miss his fifty-fifth so his doctor brought him to Long Beach and for a few hours he was with us. Then he underwent a serious operation in July but the shock was too great and he passed away Sunday morning, August 4th. Until the very end his faith triumphed and his going was full of hope.

Brother Burton was born May 2, 1852, near Columbus, Ohio, and moved, when a small boy, to Lima where he secured his elementary education, graduating from Ohio State Normal. He taught school for a number of years in Ohio and at Louisburg, Kansas.

At the age of twenty-seven he felt the call to the ministry of the Methodist Church and in 1880 he was appointed missionary to the Seven Confederate Tribes of the Indian Territory. The Seven Tribes were the Ottawas, Cherokees, Modocs, Chickasaws, Gages, Iroquois, Wyandottes and Senecas. He learned their dialects and lived among them as they lived, journeying on an Indian pony from tribe to tribe. He was the first missionary sent out by the New York Board to these Indians of the Southwest. His work was very successful and many accepted Christ under his leadership.

During this time he also served as "sky pilot" in wide open western towns, his pastorates being Garfield, Wichita, New Salem, Hazelton and Augusta.

In 1888 he was married to Miss Gertrude Staub at Garfield, Kansas, and soon after, in 1890, came to Southern California, serving the following charges: Otay and Oneonta, Garden Grove, Colton, Corona, San Jacinto, Lompoc, Hueneme, Glendale, Burbank, Elsinore, Mountain View, Lennox Ave. Inglewood and Easton, Fresno. In 1921 he retired and having loved the Mountain View folks so much, he came back, bought an acre of ground at 757 No. Oak, Temple City and for nearly fifteen years gave himself to the service of the community. He called on the sick and aged and made more pastoral calls than did the pastor. Everybody far and wide knew him and loved him.

His presence at church and Sunday school was an inspiration. His Bible class was a benediction to all.

Besides his beloved wife he leaves four sons and four daughters, also fourteen grandchildren. They are: Major Vincent Burton, Eureka; Dr. Chaffee N. Burton, Alhambra; Clifford N. Burton, Pasadena; Marion S. Burton, Los Angeles; Mrs. Irma Nicolaus, Glendale; Mrs. Edna Fearon, Los Angeles; Mrs. Cecil Hamren, North Hollywood; and Mrs. Sarah Arenschield of Montebello.

Brother Burton and F. D. Ashleigh had long been friends and had made arrangements that whichever one went first, the other was to preach his funeral service. When this time came, Brother Ashleigh was too feeble. He was, however, at the funeral and made a very touching prayer.

The funeral services were in Temple City Church, August 7th, Rev. A. L. Baker, the pastor, conducting the services assisted by John Nicholson, Rev. Wilbur Wilson and John Oliver. The Church was crowded with his friends and those to whom Brother Burton had given loving service. Interment was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

A. L. BAKER.

SILAS HENRY ENYEART

Silas Henry Enyeart was born in Lagro, Indiana, December 31, 1846. He died in Huntington Park, Calif., October 15th, 1935. Age 88 years 9 months and 14 days.

He was married to Florence Buck, March 30th, 1871. His faithful companion of these years still survives, together with three sons, LeRoy, Clarence, and Wallace Enyeart, and two daughters, Mrs. Grace Goble, of Santa Maria and Mrs. Ethel Richardson, of Berkeley, California, and their families.

He was reared in a deeply religious home with a large family, in that day when the home was the center of the religious education of the children, when father and mother felt themselves called to be the priests of God, in the Church of Christ, which was in their home. It was no accident that four of the five brothers of that home entered the ministry of the Church, and the fifth was for years a Local preacher and Class leader in the Church. The four girls have had a lifelong interest and active relationship with the Church. The four who entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Nathan M., Silas H., Thomas J., and William R. all entered the Missouri Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church within a few years of each other. Their united ministry in the active relation in Mo. Conf. was 121 years. Their total years as members of Conference was 160 years, with an additional ministry under appointment as Local Preachers of 15 years, or a total ministry under appointment of 175 years. They have all been translated to the better world. Silas and William during this Conference year.

Silas joined the Missouri Conference in 1869. He transferred to the Southwest Kansas Conference in 1885, and to the Southern California Conference in 1895. He retired in 1911. It was his proud boast that he had not missed a session of his Annual Conference from 1869 to the session of last June, 1935, or a total of 67 consecutive annual sessions.

For 29 years he has been a resident of Huntington Park, Calif., where he, with his family, have been connected with the Huntington Park church during its entire history.

He was a graduate of Garrett Biblical Institute.

He served in the Union army as private in Co. B, 137th Illinois Inf. Serving under General Thomas—and was an honored member of Stanton Post of the G. A. R. of Los Angeles.

He was a good man, a good husband and father, a good minister of Jesus Christ, a faithful witness to the very end. Loyal and true. A disciple of hope and good cheer, his last sickness was the cheerful getting things ready to be off and be with his Lord.

O. L. ENYEART.

WALTER C. LOOMIS

Rev. Walter C. Loomis was born in Putneyville, Penn., on December 15, 1880. He died May 25, 1936, age fifty-six years.

In the day when the full tide of manhood's strength was coursing through his body, he stood erect like a tall pine, and announced in that quiet, firm manner so peculiar to him, that he had given his life to the service of Christ and proposed to enter the ministry of the Christian Church. The country neighbors, accustomed to judging men by their essential character, placed the seal of their approval on his decision and said, "He was cut out for the ministry." No man ever questioned his fitness for he had lived his life among them and they knew its quality.

He was educated in Allegheny College, Meadville, Penn., and also took work in U. S. C.

In the day when his training had been completed and his mind was matured, he stood, with shoulders squared and eye clear, before the bar of the conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and pledged God and the church that he would give his whole life to the ministry That pledge was never violated in the least degree.

He entered the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1904 and served Liberty Chapel and Enow Valley. In 1907 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference and served the following churches: Moneta; Central Church, Long Beach; First Church, Hanford; Lincoln Ave. Church, Pasadena. Secretary of the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund; First Church, San Bernardino; District Superintendent of the Long Beach District; and Associate Pastor of First Church, Los Angeles. He was in active service thirty-six years, the past three in First Church, Los Angeles.

For more than a-third of a century he was a Methodist preacher. He went to the churches to which he was assigned. He sought nothing for himself, shirked no duties, avoided no dangers, asked for no light loads. In the words of an old farmer friend, "he always kept his tugs tight."

He trusted the church. To it he had given his life, and to him it had given a promise—"a support." That is all the Methodist church ever promises any man. He kept his pledge to the church and the church, to the last day of his life, kept its pledge to him. True, there were times when that support was very modest, but the hard necessities laid upon him never stilled his laughter nor embittered his wit.

In the day of his seasoned experience and matured wisdom, the church gave him authority over other preachers and for four years he poured out his health and strength in behalf of "his men." Week after week he stood in their pulpits and preached; again and again he presided over their quarterly conferences and adjudicated differences, inspired them to new leadership, and heartened their people. "He came to us like a flame," said one preacher to whom he had come in an hour of discouragement, "and lighted our lamps anew."

He was accepted as a chaplain in the World War and stationed at Camp Taylor, Ky.

While on the Long Beach District he gave much time to evangelism, and many young people were saved in the meetings.

He originated many contests which brought thousands of people into the Sunday Schools. These contests are used in the United States and foreign countries.

On one Easter Sunday he received four hundred and twenty-five people into the First Church, San Bernardino. He baptised one hundred and four on Palm Sunday.

Always interested in civic affairs, he served as president of the Lion's Club in San Bernardino.

He was a man's man. His unerring judgments, his convulsing humor, his charity of mind, his tender heart underneath a certain taciturnity, all combined to give him a powerful appeal to the most masculine.

He was God's man. Uncleaness was as foreign to him as cowardice or hypocrisy. He was incapable of pretensions or conniving. He lived, with all his actions and thinking, in the sunlight; there were no subterranean passages in his character.

He was as versatile as a sunset. His mind moved with the speed of a flying planet: his resourcefulness was as amazing as his endurance.

He was married to Jennie Ella Wick on May 20, 1903.

Three daughters were born: Mrs. Pearle Price, Mrs. Pauline Anderson, and Miss Dorothy Loomis, and there are four grandchildren. There is one brother, Arthur M. Loomis of Huntington Park, and his father, John Merrill Loomis of Bell.

ROY L. SMITH.

JOHN WESLEY ROBINSON, JR.

John of the happy heart—the radiance of which shown with unfading splendor upon his face—went out to walk the streets of the City of God, April 16, 1936.

He was born in a Methodist parsonage in the City of the Angels May 28, 1895, the fourth child of John Wesley Robinson and Rosamond Burnett Robinson. From the earliest years, his educational opportunities were of the best including work in Long Beach High School, the University of Southern California, Boston School of Theology, Harvard and Northwestern Universities. Travel on the Continent, and a complete circuit of the world served to broaden the horizons of this man, who never closed the door of his heart against anyone.

As a very young lad, John showed an aptitude for public address with the result that early manhood found his heart set on the ministry of Jesus the Christ. To this ministry, the best of his exceptional talents were given. Many opportunities of rare attraction in other fields knocked at the threshold of his life, but none found entrance. Always, the answer to their insistent claims for recognition was "I want to preach." And preach gloriously he did for the short, but crowded, span of his years.

For two years, John travelled with the famous evangelist, Dr. George Wood Anderson, as young people's worker; and, at the outbreak of the World War, the Young Men's Christian Association enlisted his services. But as the awful conflict drew out its weary months, he entered one of the United States Officer's Training Schools, where he was commissioned Second Lieutenant. So outstanding were his qualities of leadership that had not the Armistice been signed when it was, the commission was to have been Captain.

On June 15, 1923, he was united in marriage with Loreen Buffum, and four lovely children came as messengers of joy to their home: John Wesley III, Robert, Shirley and Anita.

During the period of his seminary training at Boston, he served as minister of "The Church of the Harbor" Scituate, Massachusetts; and, on the completion of his seminary work, came to Los Angeles as Associate with Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam in the work of the City Parish. Later, the organization of the Westwood Methodist Episcopal Church was committed to his talents. To this task, he brought an executive skill which was notable.

No man in the Southern California Conference had a greater genius for making friends than did this friend of the Christ. He simply went about loving everybody; the response was, of course, inevitable. Being an indefatigable worker, possessing an eager soul, this minister packed into his very few years the accomplishments of an average man's life time. Men sensed instinctively his willingness to assume responsibility.

The result was that they heaped the burdens high. At the time of his going, John was a member of the Boards of Directors of the Methodist Hospital, The Los Angeles City Missionary and Church Extension Society, the Latin American Mission; Secretary of the Los Angeles Ministerial Union; Vice-President of the Hollywood Ministerial Union. Organizations and individuals found his shoulders broad; his willingness to lift, boundless.

His spirit was like the sweep of a morning breeze from off the salt sea bearing tang, healing to those who were privileged to pass his way.

So another John, another beloved one, journeyed the highways of this world; the highways of men's hearts. They marked his passing and, like those disciples, who walked with Jesus along the Emmaus Road, found within their hearts a strange, new glow.

HARRY RASMUS.

WARD WESLEY HULL

Ward Wesley Hull converted when a young man, decided to get an education and enter the ministry. Was first licensed a local preacher in 1896. Took his preparatory and College work in Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas, graduating in 1903. In that same year joined the South Kansas Conference serving Mont Ida and Buffalo. At the latter place was married to Alice Irwin whom he had known in Baker University. At the session of his Conference in 1906 was ordained deacon and left without appointment to attend Boston University School of Theology. While a student here he supplied at Linden, Malden and Broadway, Lynn.

In 1909 he transferred to the Southern California Conference, where he served at Calexico; Taylor, San Diego; Garden Grove, and Hanford. From the latter place, he went as a chaplain into the United States Army with seven others of his brothers from the Conference. As a transport chaplain he made four round trips across the Atlantic and also spent five months in various camps in France. It was while in the service that he contracted the disease which later resulted in his death, at the Veterans Administration Hospital, November 13, 1935.

In spite of a disease which nothing could stop, with a marvelous courage and strong will power, he spent ten years more in church work at Colton, Washington Street Pasadena, Orange, and Normal Heights San Diego. He took the Retired Relation in 1928, and settled in his own home in West Los Angeles.

Here with his wife he spent much of his time with his flowers and with his books. He had enjoyed all the work of the pastorate, but best of all he liked to prepare sermons and preach. His was a constructive ministry.

He loved people and he knew God and it was a joy to him to get those whom he loved to know the God whom he also loved.

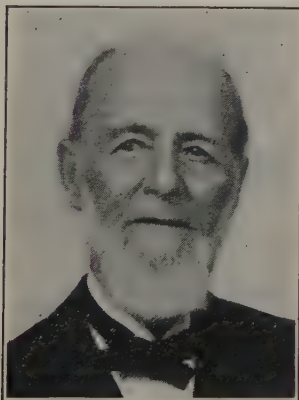

Underneath the seemingly quiet outer surface of his being there lay a fine sense of humor, a deep analytical mind, and a brotherly regard for the opinion of others. In the eternities he will meet many to whom he gave the first instructions on the pathway to God.

The body lies in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, his soul went Godward, his influence remains with us.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

JOHN REINHOLD ANDREWS

John Reinhold Andrews was born on the Island of Oland, Sweden, May 5, 1851, and departed this life in his home, Kingsburg, Cal., Feb. 10, 1936. At the age of 18 he came to America. Here he soon found employment as a salesman, with a successful business career open before him. But God had other plans for this promising young man. Soon after his arrival he came in touch with the Methodists, was gloriously converted to God, surrendered his life to Christ, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Feeling the call to preach, and "not disobedient to the heavenly vision", he entered the Swedish Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill., where he received the preparation for his high calling. In 1880 he married Jenny Marie Danielson, with whom he lived a happy and beautiful married life for almost half a century until her death 6 years ago. To this union, blessed of God, came 7 children, all living except one daughter, Sophie C. Tucker, who went before the parents to her heavenly home.

As a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church Brother Andrews had a rather singular record, and a very successful and blessed ministry. Admitted on probation into the Northwest Swedish Conference in 1878, he was ordained to deacon's orders the same year, under the missionary rule, by Bishop Merrill. Four years later Bishop Peck ordained him an elder. It was Brother Andrews' just pride that for 55 consecutive years he never missed answering "present" to the roll call at the annual session of his Conference. Successfully he served the following pastoral charges: Ishpeming, Mich., 2 years; Norway, Mich., 2 years; Atwater, Minn., 3 years; District Superintendent, St. Paul District, 2 years; transferred to the California Conference 1887; San Francisco 5 years; Los Angeles 5 years; San Francisco again 2 years; Kingsburg 5 years; Fresno and Easton 4 years; District Superintendent, Swedish churches in California, 2 years; special appointments until 1917 when he took the retired relation. Since 1928, when the Swedish Mission Conference was merged with the English-speaking Conferences, he has been a member of the Southern California Conference in the retired relation. Retired, we say! A man of his mind and vision could not stay still and inactive.

His latter years have been neither idle nor fruitless. In his comfortable country home surrounded by friends, pilgrims of the Infinite always found an oasis in the desert. His wise counsel, his radiant faith, his unfaltering belief that truth alone makes right, his willingness to take part in any and every good work, is felt not only in the church he loved, but also in the community at large.

Brother Andrews was a christian gentleman in the best sense of the word. With depth as well as height, his thoughts took in a large range of vision, which made him not only clear in judgment, but also sure in action. This made him a valuable asset on the Conference floor, as well as in smaller gatherings. As a member of the Official Board of the Kingsburg Methodist Church, which church he organized almost half a century ago, he rendered valuable service. Cosmopolitan in his vision, brotherly in his sympathies, optimistic in his outlook, tolerant in his convictions, and well poised always, he stood four square to every wind that blew, one who never turned back, but marched breast forward. As a preacher he was positive; he voiced no doubts, and sounded no uncertain notes. He loved to preach the "unsearchable riches of Christ". His implicit trust in God, and his child-like faith in Christ, whom he knew through a wonderful christian experience in His redeeming grace, gave him a deep insight into God's plan of human redemption, and the truths of divine revelation.

Brother Andrews knew hardships a plenty, and he was fully "acquainted with grief", but these did not sour him; he kept sweet until the very end. The closing days of his earthly life, as the shadows lengthened, were beautiful and serene. He died as he had lived—a true soldier of Jesus Christ, a fearless man of God, who to the last wore the white flower of a blameless life. We loved him dearly, trusted him always, and we never found him wanting. We bow in sorrow at the departure of this good man and soldier of the Cross, but this sorrow will be changed into a benediction, as in loving appreciation we are reminded of the fine christian life of this minister of Jesus Christ.

He is fallen, this "grand old man" of Kingsburg. Through his life we have learned to know God better.

The funeral services were held in the Kingsburg Methodist Church, with the pastor, F. A. Lundberg, in charge. He was assisted by the following ministers: C. H. Sundstrom, J. H. Levedahl, G. E. Kallstedt, O. W. Ostrom, and Abel Eklund, his friends since the early days of his ministry, and former members of the Swedish Mission Conference. Interment was made in the beautiful Kingsburg Cemetery.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought; the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

F. A. LUNDBERG.

G. S. UMPLEBY

G. S. Umpleby was born on September 19, 1849. His college work was done in Mt. Union College in Ohio where he was graduated with the class of '76. He continued his training at Boston University School of Theology and took his degree there in 1878.

The same year he was married to Izina Cole of Smithfield, Ohio, who had been a classmate at Mt. Union. With his bride he went as a missionary to Mexico where they spent four years before taking work in the United States. During their sojourn in Mexico, George Stewart was born to them but died at the age of 18 months. Two other children were born to them, Joseph Betram, in 1883, and Acha May, in 1887, both of whom are living. The former is a geologist in Norman, Oklahoma. The latter, Mrs. E. B. Wilkinson, makes her home in Reno, Nevada. In 1889 the mother slipped away to rest.

Upon returning from Mexico in 1883 Brother Umpleby took a managerial position with the Methodist Book Concern for about 2 years. A nervous breakdown sent him to a ranch in southern California. By 1887 his health had improved so that he entered the Southern California Conference, serving charges at Lordsburg, Ensenada, Plano, and Hanford.

In 1901 he was married to Elizabeth Thornborrow of Belmont, Ohio. This union was broken by death in 1924.

Ill health forced him to take the supernumerary relation in 1891 and the retired relation in 1896. In 1907 he came to Escondido to make his home.

On June 18, 1935, the Father to whom he had dedicated his life in youth said, "Come," and he answered the call of the Great Shepherd of Souls. Three days later funeral services were held in Escondido and the earthly house which had lost its tenant was laid to rest by loving hands.

MRS. MAY UMPLEBY WILKINSON.

MRS. GEORGE COCKING

Laura Lee was born in Wabash County, Indiana, July 30, 1863. Her family, of Revolutionary stock, came from Virginia. They moved to Indiana before the Civil War, and her father fought in the Union army.

As a child she was always religious, but when a young woman she was converted to God, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church in Huntington, Indiana. Possessed of rare talents, she was soon sought out for definite christian work in the Church and Sunday School, and a life of intense interest for Christ and His Church was in the making.

While teaching school in Colorado, she became acquainted with George Cocking, who shortly afterward was admitted into the North Indiana Conference on trial, and the same year, 1893, they were married and began their life together at Coesse, Indiana.

Mrs. Cocking proved herself well fitted for the task that they had undertaken together, both in the church and the home.

Two children were born to this union, but both preceded her in death, one passing in infancy, the other, Ezra James, passed to his reward at the age of 24 years, during his father's pastorate at San Jacinto in 1917.

Because of a break in health, the family came to Southern California Conference, the transfer being effected in 1905. And since coming to Southern California ten charges have been served by this splendid couple, and in every charge Mrs. Cocking won her place in the hearts of the people they served, both within and without the church, through her happy disposition and religious zeal.

At her funeral many former parishioners and friends came from long distances to pay the last tribute of respect to one whom they had loved through the years.

For some time before her departure she was conscious of the fact that her work was done. She was ready and anxious to meet her Lord. Death to her was the shining gateway to eternal glory. She fell asleep in Jesus on the 29th day of January, 1936. A very impressive service was conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Riverside, the Rev. B. D. Snudden, her pastor in charge, assisted by the Rev. Frank A. Leak, and the Rev. J. Lewis Gillies. She was laid to rest by the side of her son, Ezra, in beautiful Evergreen Cemetery, Riverside.

She is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. Margret Kline, of Seattle, Washington, and Mrs. Vivian Beaver of Wabash, Indiana.

"There is no death. The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore,
And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for evermore."

FRANK LEAK.

MRS. BENJ. C. CORY

Caroline Elizabeth (Ward) Cory, widow of the Rev. Benj. C. Cory, daughter of Philip and Martha (Chaney) Ward, was born in Athens County, Ohio, August 30, 1854. On her father's side she was descended from good Philadelphia Quaker stock, and on her mother's side from John and Priscilla Alden of Mayflower fame. These high strains of good blood, united by marriage in the stirring days of Ohio's pioneer history, could but produce a family of sturdy and gifted character. Nine children were born, the fifth being the daughter Caroline Elizabeth. While she was still very young, the family, spurred by the general westward urge of those days, left their comfortable home in Ohio, and migrated to the new state of Wisconsin, locating at the village of Cadiz. The Civil War followed shortly and the father and two older sons enlisted in the Union Army, the father, after only a few months of service, having been sent home to die.

The widow, with the indomitable courage of her Pilgrim ancestry, bravely took over the responsibilities for the family. Assisted by her sons, she established a home on a small farm, and managed to give her children the benefit of the meager educational advantages afforded in a pioneer region. The family were Methodists, and Caroline, with one of her brothers, attended Lawrence University at Appleton, Wis., for a time in its early days. Later, three sons and three daughters attended Cornell College, at Mt. Vernon, Iowa, another Methodist school, from which two sons graduated, one into an eminent career as a minister, and one to an honorable life as a lawyer. The other sons became successful business men.

About 1875 the mother removed from Wisconsin to Mt. Vernon, where she made her home until her death. There, in the autumn of 1878 the writer of this sketch first met Caroline Ward and her future husband, Ben C. Cory, as students at Cornell College, and a life-long, intimate friendship resulted. They were married Oct. 2, 1879 at Mt. Vernon and for 8 years served very efficiently together in the ministry in the Upper Iowa and the North-west Iowa annual conferences. They transferred to the Southern California conference in 1887, three years subsequent to the coming of this writer, and partly by his influence.

They had a most useful and happy ministry in important charges here until the decease of the husband in Sept., 1931. In all these fields it was the writer's great privilege to have had close association with them, often being a guest in their home for days at a time, assisting them in their work. From this close up view of Mrs. Cory as wife, mother, and help-meet to her husband, her remarkable qualities became well known and most sincerely appreciated. She was a very unusual woman, a saint of God if ever there was one.

With the quiet, strong traits of her Quaker and Puritan ancestry, she combined the beautiful patience and unvarying gentleness which only come from a deep religious experience; a calm faith that met all difficulties with a smile because she "knew in whom she had believed", as did Paul; and the "love that beareth all things, hopeth all things, believeth all things", was in her heart.

The church people always loved her, her children revered her as the embodiment of motherly devotion and tenderness, and "the heart of her husband did safely trust in her". What greater crown can woman-hood wear; God gave her His coronation when He called her to himself on Nov. 26, 1935.

Her memory is sacred to her children, Miss Mabel Cory, City Librarian, San Pedro; Mrs. Thomas McDougall, Santa Barbara; Mrs. William Brewster Park, San Pedro, and Arthur Cory, City Engineer, Inglewood, and six grandchildren. Also, her eldest sister, Mrs. Mary Deniston, living at South Pasadena, and her youngest brother, William A. Ward, living at 2315 West 20th St., Los Angeles, holding her in hallowed affection. "She hath chosen the better part which shall never be taken away from her."

GEO. W. WHITE.

MRS. A. S. HALE

Florence May Dale, daughter of William and Mary Jones Dale was born May 25, 1867, near Iowa Falls in Harden County, Iowa.

At the age of five she went with her parents to Brookings, South Dakota, where they homesteaded for three years and then returned to Iowa, when she became a graduate of the Iowa Falls High School. After that she attended and graduated from the Valparaiso Indiana University. Upon completion of her college course she experienced splendid success as a teacher. She also became an expert newspaper writer and was the author of several widely read articles.

In 1893 she was united in marriage to Rev. A. S. Hale, and became the fond mother of four children, two of whom preceded her to the "home overthere". Frederick in 1908 and Dorothy in 1934. John is principal of the Mesa Union High School, Mesa, Arizona and Bryant a teacher in the Elsinore, California, public schools.

Mrs. Hale was a devout Christian of the practical kind. One who loved people and took great pleasure always in helping others. Her ability and her disposition made her an ideal ministers' wife. She always rendered fine service in teaching classes of young people in the Church School. Many young people came to her for private instruction. With her husband in the charges they served, some of them prominent churches in Methodism, she proved herself a true and faithful servant of Jesus Christ.

When they retired and sought rest of mind and body from the exacting duties of the ministry, she found it not, until in a short time she found it in "That rest that remains for the people of God." Among her last words were, "Father, is there any room in heaven? I am coming home today". Thus she verified the statement of John Wesley, when he said, "Our people die well".

The fitting text used at her funeral was, "She openeth her mouth with wisdom and her tongue is the law of kindness".

Report of Resolution Committee Liquor Traffic Resolutions

Whereas: The Church of Jesus Christ always has proclaimed its interests in the welfare of entire man and believes fully in Christ's teachings and examples, advocating human brotherhood, and deplores the fact that many who profess the name of Christ have been the oppressors of their fellowmen.

Now, be it resolved by the Southern California Conference Brotherhood in Annual session at Long Beach, California, that we affirm our belief in the right of every human-being to receive a proper share of worldly needs and to be made secure from privation in food, clothing, home education and pursuit of happiness. To that end we call on our State and National leaders in Legislation, in industry and in all economic business life to bring about a better system of production and distribution of daily necessities, shorter working hours for labor, better provision of the use of leisure time and greater control of the destructive forces now active in our Social Order.

Whereas, the Beverage Liquor Traffic has grown to such enormous proportions and assumed such arrogant disregard of all regulations for its control, depriving children and parents alike of life's essentials for comfort and happiness.

Now be it resolved by the Southern California Conference Brotherhood in Annual Session today, June 22, 1936, that we hereby reaffirm our undying enmity to the alcoholic traffic and pledge ourselves anew to a continual vigorous warfare for its extermination and ultimate destruction from country and the entire world and we hereby declare our never ending enmity to the Liquor Industry in whatever form it may appear, and pledge ourselves to total abstinence.

Social Service Platform Resolutions

Resolved, that we do hereby endorse the Social Service Platform adopted by our recent General Conference that convened this year in Columbus, Ohio, and adopt it as the expression of our attitude upon the Economic, Social and Industrial situation in the United States of America today.

Use of First Baptist Church, Caretakers work, Director of Music and Musicians, Floral Decorations—Mr. Frank J. Brejcha, Asst. Auditor, Long Beach.

President Wray Andrew asked all newly elected officers to stand so that the audience might see them. He also thanked the outgoing officers and the Conference officers whom had worked with him in the past year, for their cooperation during the year.

The meeting was adjourned until the Evening Session.

EVENING SESSION

The Banquet was held in the Masonic Temple at 6:30 p.m. About 275 people were seated at the tables, representing Brotherhood delegates, visitors, pastors and wives from all parts of the Southern California Conference. Among the visitors were five members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Rev. Aker of the South Church brought the invocation.

After the meal the program was opened by the Conference President, Wray Andrew, who introduced the song leader, John King. Mr. King led in a community sing which was greatly enjoyed by everyone. Mr. Rolla Alford, director of the choir of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach, entertained in the singing of three vocal numbers. Prior to and during the meal an orchestra from the Belmont Heights Methodist Church of Long Beach played background music, winning a hearty applause.

Mr. Andrew introduced the Toastmaster of the evening, Mr. John Yates. Mr. Yates delighted his audience with a ready flow of wit and humor. The Toastmaster introduced the speakers. Bishop Baker of the San Francisco Area brought a forceful message on the subject, "An Ideal Layman". J. Russell Throckmorton, Secretary of Men's Work, addressed us on the subject of "The Significance of the Laymen's Work in the Church." The close attention and hearty applause of the auditors reflected the acceptance of the scholarly addresses.

WOMAN'S DAY MEETING

The Auditorium of the First Methodist Episcopal Church was well filled on Thursday afternoon when the Conference Women's organizations held their annual anniversary service.

In the absence of Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick, Conference President of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. George R. Gross, Conference Vice-President, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. B. Dudley Snudden led a very impressive devotional service. The Morning Choral Club, singing several numbers, under the direction of Rolla Alford, was greatly enjoyed.

Reports of the three organizations were given by Mrs. E. M. Edler, Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water, President of the Federated Woman's Aid Societies, and Mrs. Cora M. Cassill, Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

The address of the afternoon was given by Dr. Oswald W. S. McCall, pastor of the First Congregational Church, Berkeley. His message on "Inspiration of the Unfulfilled," gave a new vision of the possibilities and opportunities for service by Christian women.

MRS. CORA M. CASSILL.

WOMAN'S AID FEDERATION

An enthusiastic group of women gathered in the First Christian Church of Long Beach for the annual meeting of the Conference Woman's Aid Federation, Thursday, June 25, with the President, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water, presiding.

Meeting opened at 9:45 with a lovely song service led by Mrs. Earl Dickens with Mrs. J. W. Patterson as accompanist.

A very spiritual message was presented by Mrs. R. A. Young, using 1st Corinthians, fourth chapter.

Mrs. Van de Water was the recipient of a beautiful corsage from her Board as an expression of its great appreciation of her.

Mrs. L. C. Toney, Welfare Chairman, presented Mrs. Elaine Dudley of the Goodwill Industries and Miss Katherine Higgins of the Plaza Community, each expressing her gratitude for their interest in their work and urged a continuance of cooperation.

Wonderful reports were made of the year's work, showing an advance along all lines, especially in philanthropic work, calls made and the spreading of good cheer. These were given by the District Presidents: Fresno District, Mrs. Julius Hansen; Long Beach District, Mrs. G. L. Mowry; Los Angeles District, Mrs. O. J. Hill; Pasadena District, Mrs. David Wood; and San Diego District, Mrs. M. Lamont. The following were elected to serve the Federation as officers for 1936-1937: President, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water; 1st Vice President, Mrs. S. N. Bisbee; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. R. A. Young; Recording Secretary, Mrs. M. Lamont; Treasurer, Mrs. F. C. Onion; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. G. N. Parsons; Historian, Mrs. Geo. Frampton, and Parliamentarian, Mrs. R. O. Taylor.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary showed 281 Aids in the Conference with a combined membership of 16,019; calls made, 297,616; Goodwill bags, 22,403; bouquets, 81,627, and receipts, $135,796.25.

A challenging message was given by Dr. Ira Landrith to the womanhood of today—to live and vote for the home.

MRS. C. F. VAN DE WATER, President.

MRS. G. N. PARSONS, Secretary.

MINISTERS' WIVES' ASSOCIATION

The 1936 activities-at-Conference of the Ministers Wives' Association were confined to one meeting which was held in the Y. W. C. A. beginning at 9:30 on Saturday morning, with Mrs. Glenn R. Phillips, our president in the chair. The hymn, "What A Friend We Have in Jesus", was sung and Mrs. George B. Cliff led in prayer. After the secretary's and treasurer's reports had been read and accepted, the officers for 1936 were asked to stand for introductions. The report of the Nominating Committee which was read for which the secretary was instructed to cast a unanimous ballot, was as follows: President, Mrs. George Root; Vice President, Mrs. Carl Allen; Secretary, Mrs. J. D. Van Buskirk; Treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Thompson; Resolution Committee, Mrs. Lois Fiske, Mrs. H. K. Holtzinger, Mrs. Mardiros Stone, Nominating Committee, Mrs. Harold Preston; Mrs. W. A. Matson, Mrs. L. C. Kline.

After being presented with a boquet of red roses, in appreciation, our Bishop's wife, Mrs. James Chamberlain Baker, speaker of the occasion said in part.

"The church, in which all of you are so vitally interested, is being accused of harboring "reds" We must be sure that we are not misleading by definitions. We must be ready to define, with no uncertain sound, our policies, and in such a manner as to leave no doubt in the minds of those whom we influence, but that our concern is for the under-privileged and trodden-upon but with a Christ-like attitude toward all men and situations Mob rule in these United States takes one life every three days Let us not sow the dragons teeth.

While traveling in foreign countries last summer, we were impressed by the evidences of hate and the constant use of that word throughout Europe. Of the three outstanding revolutionary governments in Europe, Communism, Fascism and Naziism, the one showing the greatest glimmering of hope and promise is that in Russia. What kind of religion is the opiate of the people? is being asked and the Russians show promise of some day being willing to differentiate between religions and not class all alike Let's not let Russian youth have all the fun building a new world. Let us realize anew our responsibility as persons of influence and leaders in our communities."

The group was impressed by the evidence of careful preparation and deep conviction in Mrs. Baker's talk.

The following report of the Resolutions Committee was read and accepted:

1. For the many courtesies extended us by our gracious host, Dr. Merrill and his able assistants, Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Kent, as well as the hardworking office force, the musicians, committees, organizations and janitors, we wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks.

2. We wish to extend special thanks and appreciation to our own Mrs. Merrill, who has so endeared herself to us during the years she has been our hostess. The loveliest affair of each Conference has been the delightful Friday afternoon tea she so graciously has given us in her home.

3. To Mrs. Glenn R. Phillips, our president and her corps of officers we wish to express our sincere thanks for the year's work.

4. We desire to express our thanks to our hostess Church, the Christian Church and the Y. W. C. A. for the use of their buildings.

5. Again we are privileged in having our charming Mrs. Baker with us and wish to express our joy in her speech, her graciousness and her inspiring presence.

6. We wish to extend a whole-hearted welcome to the young women who are just entering this sisterhood of minister's wives and resolve to lose no opportunity to help make their parsonage life full and happy.

7. We rejoice with those parsonage folk who have been blessed with new babies during the past year.

8. Our prayers and sympathy go out to those whose homes have been bereft of their dear ones during the past year.

9. May we, as parsonage women, go forth into the next year to serve more faithfully Him who came, "not to be ministered unto but to minister". May we be loyal in the tasks which confront us. May we trust more implicitly in our Master and exemplify Him more. Thus may we be of greater assistance in helping the loyal group who seek to hasten the coming of God's kingdom here on earth.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Golder Lawrence.

Mrs. Don S. Ford.

Mrs. Lloyd Taber.

In appreciation of her delightful hostessing during the eight years we have been in First Church, Long Beach, Mrs. R. N. Merrill was presented with a boquet of Talisman roses to which she responded graciously.

The president called on each of the District Superintendent's wives to introduce any brides on her district for our welcome. They also directed our congratulations to new mothers and our condolences to the bereaved loved ones in the parsonage homes of our sisters. Mrs. James Edwin Dunning of the San Diego District told us of the serious illness of little Jean Warmer and prayed that the doctors be given skill and the family comfort and assurance.

Letters of sympathy because of bereavement were ordered sent to Mrs. J. W. Robinson, Jr., Mrs. Walter C. Loomis and Mrs. James A. Geissinger. Greetings were authorized to be sent to Mrs. E. W. Stricker, Mrs. Samuel Hughes, Mrs. R. R. Detweiler, Mrs. Gordon Chapman, Mrs. George Steed, Mrs. Daniel Dundas, Mrs. C. B. Dalton, Mrs. Paul Abbey, Mrs. E. E. Marshall, Mrs. F. H. Woodside, Mrs. O. L. Enyeart, Mrs. Harriet Schultz.

Mrs. F. S. Woodcock, oldest member of our group was escorted to the front and by her talk made us feel that to live to be 94 would be a most desirable thing.

We were entertained by a trio of young ladies, who sang a group of songs. These Phoenix girls were Ethel and Jean Malan and their friend Norma Jane Shaw. Mrs. Will Malan accompanied them.

On the motion of Mrs. Kemp Winkler, it was ordered that Mrs. Paul Huebner select a committee to write up a historical resume of the Minutes in the old secretary's book and place it in the new book.

On the motion of Mrs. George B. Cliff, it was ordered that we transfer $20 from our funds to those of the Conference Board of Stewards for use as they deem necessary.

A communication from our last year's president, Mrs. Frank Linder, was read.

After a call for dues to be paid at the door the meeting was ordered

Respectfully submitted,

Eunice A. Broughton,

Secretary.

Boards, Commissions and Committees

ELECTED BY THE CONFERENCE, OR APPOINTED BY COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

(See Conference Rules of Order No. 5)

Note from Committee on Nominations

The first person named is not necessarily the chairman, but is the Convenor of the committee, whose duty it is to call the committee together for organization and report the chairman and secretary to the conference secretary. Members of the committee might well be consulted as to the convenient place and date for this initial meeting. It should be called at least two weeks in advance at a time when laymen as well as ministers can attend. For address of ministers see appointments or conference roll.

"We are honored this morning by the presence of Rabbi Mayer Winkler of the Community Synagogue of Los Angeles. Dr. Smith, the pastor of First Church, reports that there is a beautiful relationship existing between this downtown Church and the Synagogue and likewise an understanding comradeship between Rabbi Winkler and himself.

"This is a significant symbol of what is happening in many communities in the inter-relationship of Jew and Christian. We should seek in some possible way to increase this mutual respect and cooperative fellowship. Never, in the history of the world, was this more important than it is today, when race prejudice, devastating nationalisms and intolerant ecclesiasticisms are working fearful havoc in our world life.

"I am happy, beyond words, to have the privilege of presenting Rabbi Winkler to this Methodist Conference to conduct our morning worship. When we worship together we are inevitably lifted to higher levels of appreciation and understanding. God is the Eternal source of humanity's great unities."

Bishop Baker's Address to the Class

"William Frazier McDowell was a good minister of Jesus Christ. To become that he was a great actor. He played many parts. He played many of them deliberately.

He was good to look at. Men could not help looking at him. He made the most of Nature's gifts. You could see it by his erectness and his carriage. He was never sloppy or slouchy. He carried himself with pride. My young brethren, I think we ought to set up that kind of an ideal for ourselves. We are hampered when we don't carry ourselves erect—when we are not neat—when we do not make the most of Nature's gifts. To be slouchy is inexcusable. One of the memorable experiences in the General Conference was the time at which Bishop McDowell retired. He came with a red necktie that morning. He said to the Conference that he wore a red necktie purposely because he was not coming to it as to a funeral occasion. He was playing a part even then. What a noble part! It was expressing the spirit that was in him.

William Frazier McDowell had a rare mind and heart. He was a scholar and a bookman. They said of him, the morning of his death, as he came back from a preaching engagement: "His bags were heavy with books". He also had judgment to read beyond his professional field. There are preachers who confine their reading to books in theology, to the subjects which are immediately allied to their task or their point of view in the ministry. Every minister should read widely in literature, biography, history and in other fields. If one does not he cannot enter into his work with the power that he should have.

Bishop McDowell was a man of rich and beautiful sentiments. He was not afraid of emotions. His experiences make this remarkable. If religion is to mean anything different to us, it ought to mean that added dimension of emotion, that enthusiasm, that temper of espousal. He could break us all to pieces, yet never with cheap sentiment.

Bishop McDowell sat at the feet of great preachers, likewise, at the feet of his brother ministers who were less brilliant in their capabilities, always with great appreciation of what they were doing. He had his heroes. I do not believe that any man in this profession could do what he did if he did not have heroes, to illustrate for him what his profession might be at its best.

Bishop McDowell lived in the house of the Interpreter. He knew how to interpret the best thinking of the day. In the areas where he lived and worked and practiced, the best service he did was in the field of interpretation. He lifted all areas above controversies at all times. He tried to center men on religion and not whether they came by one sort of creation or by another. He was an interpreter of students. I said to him one day at Lake Geneva, in a conference where there were hundreds of students gathered, "Shall we sing 'Faith of Our Fathers'?" He said, "That is about the last thing I want to sing. At the present time I am very much more concerned about the faith of our children than I am about the faith of our fathers."

Yet, he had a profound appreciation of the faith that we inherit, though he knew that every generation had to think in terms of its life and its only knowledge the great meaning of religion. He was tremendously concerned that students should have such interpretations of religion in terms of their own day that they might achieve a faith for themselves, knowing that one cannot pass on a ready-made faith.

Bishop McDowell was a Methodist. He was much more than a Methodist! He was an inter-denominationalist and internationalist. He was active in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and in the proposal for the unification of our Methodism.

One never heard Bishop McDowell speak on anything that did not move in spacious places. He thought in great terms. He saw things enlarged. He watched men in debate. When the debate was in danger of getting lost he would come in and engender his soul in it until it shone; then it moved into a higher level.

His rare gift of humor made him a popular after-dinner speaker. Even in his preaching he was humorous. Of course, there is a vein of humor in every sane man, that is what keeps him sane.

The relationship which existed between Bishop and Mrs. McDowell was as nearly ideal as possible. She was interested in him and in that which he was doing. Together they were incomparable in their service of Jesus Christ.

Bishop McDowell was a writer. From his first book on "The School of Christ" to his last, "Christ In All His Offices", Christ was his center of life and thought.

He was a good minister, a good minister of Jesus Christ. He led a wonderfully inclusive life in his interests, in his purposes and in his passions. All these finally centered in the Lord and Master of us all. I look forward confidently. You young brethren should continue these ideals. This is a great day! Young brethren of this Conference, the greatest opportunity before you is to look into the future and feel that the greatest creative opportunity is to interpret Jesus Christ to the whole world. That is your task. That is the task of us all."

The Secretary called the roll of the Class in full membership as follows: Russell Bales, Rollo E. Dunham, Edward C. Erny, Will M. Hildebrand, David Kingman, Noel C. LeRoque, Oscar Newby, Edwin E. Reeves, Winston Trever, Gustavo Velasco, Edgar T. Zimmerman.

Bishop Baker asked the Disciplinary questions which were answered in the affirmative and the class was received into full membership.

Benediction: Bishop Baker dismissed the Conference with the benediction.

Excuses: The following were excused: Harry Slater, excused Saturday to meet his daughter; J. Crawford Trotter, excused Saturday, funeral;

Arthur Hobson, excused Saturday afternoon and Sunday to preach at Orange; M. W. Bennet, excused Sunday night and Monday to attend a Convention.

Resolution: By order of the motion of Frank Toothaker the following resolution was adopted:

"In recognition of the fact that the welfare and even the lives of our brothers are at stake in the present conflict between employers and labor, we request our resident Bishop to express the appeal of this Conference to our churches and ministers located in or near areas of industrial struggle, to find ways to enter such situations quickly to secure the prevention of violence and the establishment of fair play.

In further recognition of the dangerous world situation, and knowing that one of the chief causes of international tension is the disparity of economic opportunity among nations as exemplified in barriers to world trade, discriminating colonial policies and exchange, we request our secretary, on behalf of the conference, to urge the President of the United States, in line with his world sympathies and purposes, to use his good offices to invite the nations to a World Economic Conference committed to the task of lessening these economic tensions.

In recognition of the difficulty of keeping our nation from involvement in a foreign war, if that war were long continued, we would now erect as many safeguards as possible to protect ourselves against such a catastrophe. We believe in democracy, and would extend it to those who, if war is declared, will be called upon to fight it. We therefore urge the passage of the Ludlow War Referendum Constitutional Amendment which provides a mandatory popular vote favoring it before Congress may declare war. We request our Secretary to transmit this, our urgent desire, to the Senators from Arizona, California, and Nevada, to the Representatives from these States and to the President of the United States."

"To Bishop James C. Baker, the Cabinet and members of the Southern California Conference:

With deep appreciation for courtesies extended to the staff and gratitude for the substantial gift presented to them, it has been a joy to serve this noble body.

Very sincerely,
The Staff of the First Methodist Church."

Resolution: On the motion of C. V. Gustafson, it was ordered that:

"Whereas the Hill-Sheppard bill now pending in the Congress purports to take profits out of war but in reality stabilizes war profits on a pre-war basis plus about 5 per cent;

Whereas, the Hill-Sheppard bill would confer enormous dictatorial power on the President in war time in the regimentation of industry, agriculture, commerce and labor;

We, the ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Churches of Southern California and Arizona do hereby register our opposition to the Hill-Sheppard bill and any similar legislation stabilizing war profits and conferring additional powers upon the executive branch of the government and we urge our senators and representatives to vote against such legislation.

We further direct that copies of this resolution be sent to the senators of Arizona and California, the representatives of Arizona and the representatives of the southern portion of California."

Organization Session of the Lay Conference

The sixth annual Lay Conference of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was called to order in the Annex of the First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, Tuesday, June 15, 1937, at three o'clock by President Daniel L. Scott.

Mr. M. N. Hill of the Garvanza church led the opening song and Mr. C. I. D. Moore of the West Adams church led in prayer.

Mr. Scott introduced the Lay officers for the year just closing.

Mr. Howe of Gardena reported for the Credentials Committee that 208 delegates had registered, four more than during the entire Conference last year. The registration by districts showed Glendale-Fresno 40; Long Beach 36; Los Angeles 49; Pasadena-Arizona 41; San Diego-Phoenix 42. The Credentials Committee was composed of: Robert N. Boswell, Fresno-Glendale; Aver H. Grimes, Long Beach; John P. Howe, Los Angeles; Lloyd E. Davis, Pasadena-Arizona; T. Murray MacCallum, San Diego-Phoenix.

President Scott presented the Order of Business and Rules for the opening session. These were adopted unanimously. The first statement was: "The names validated by the Committee on Credentials shall be the names of the members of the Conference, except in cases in which an appeal is taken from the Committee to the Conference".

Mr. J. J. Flint, Chula Vista, was appointed Sergeant at Arms.

Mr. Scott read the following statement, which, on motion of N. A. Mackey of Imperial, was adopted in its entirety by a unanimous vote: To the Members of the Southern California Lay Conference of 1937:

The experiences of the past year have suggested several desirable changes in the administrative set-up of the Conference which it seems in order to bring to your attention at this time.

First: The change to the four-year basis of membership in the Conference has made practicable a longer look ahead in the selection of the officers of the Conference. By this is meant that it is now feasible this year to elect the officers who will serve through to the end of next year's Conference session. The present practice of changing officers at the beginning of the Conference session has the very unfortunate effect of plunging the new administration without warning into the thick of its responsibilities, especially those of the selection a large number of qualified laymen to serve on the many important Conference committees.

Another unhappy result of our present practice is that the Nominating Committee must take hasty action in selecting nominees for the Conference officers so that the entire election process may be completed within the scope of a single 3-hour session. The suggested change would permit the Nominating Committee to take more leisurely action, reporting back to a short meeting of the Lay Conference on a later day in the session, when the election would be held.

Second: Last year's experience in fulfilling the Disciplinary requirement that lay members of the Conference standing committee shall be nominated by the Lay Conference, or, by a committee therefrom, demonstrated that there are two essential steps in this important process, namely: the compilation of an adequate panel of qualified laymen to serve on these committees, and later, their final assignment to the various posts of service. These two steps require, in the first instance, a large committee, representative of all the Districts, to make the tentative selections, and secondly, a small executive committee consisting, perhaps, of the chairman and the secretary of the committee on committees, and the incoming and outgoing Presidents and Secretaries of the Conference to meet with the ministerial committee, after adjournment of the Conference, to complete the task.

It is respectfully recommended that the two foregoing recommendations for administrative changes be, at this session, enacted into the by-laws of the Conference.

Furthermore: Solely as a statement for the consideration of the succeeding administration of the Lay Conference and of the Cabinet, it is necessary, if the Lay Conference is to function as a worthwhile element in our church economy, that a permanent and informative roll of the Conference membership be maintained by the Secretary of the organization. The "Lay Member Credential" currently issued certifies that the member is "a Lay Member of the Southern California Lay Conference of 1937 to be held at First Church, Los Angeles, June 15." Also, apparently entirely too many Quarterly Conferences have acted on the assumption that it is sufficient if members' credentials are handed to them just as the President's gavel descends to call the Conference to order.

By all means, let us have our Lay Conference on a permanent and tangible basis, and not merely as a convention called for a week's deliberations.

By-Laws: In order that the organic structure of the Conference may be reduced to written form and embodied in the records for future guidance, it is recommended that a Committee be appointed to draft such By-Laws for submission to the Conference at the session of 1938 for its further action.

Good Work: The President wishes to make special acknowledgement to Secretary Nordahl, for his good work in the preliminary organization of the Conference, and to Chairman A. B. Stevens, of the Committee on Committees, for the devotion of his experience and sound judgment to the arduous task of fitting the square holes with whatever pegs were available.

Respectfully submitted: D. L. Scott, President.

On motion of A. B. Stevens, it was voted that the present officers remain in office until the close of Conference this year. At the request of the secretary, H. A. Nordahl, and on motion of C. I. D. Moore, the President appointed Mr. Adna W. Leonard, Jr., to serve as assistant secretary for the remainder of the Conference.

From a panel of fifteen presented by the president, a committee of seven was elected to serve as a Nominating Committee for officers for the next Conference year. The following were elected:

N. M. Hill, Garvanza Church, Los Angeles, Chairman.

Grover C. Bagby, First Church, Fresno.

Charles Carver, South Pasadena.

Loren S. Ayers.

Harold Girton.

Mrs. L. E. Hammond.

John P. Howe.

T. Murray MacCallum.

Mr. A. B. Stevens was appointed Chairman of the Committee on Committees.

On motion of J. J. Flint, Chula Vista, the president was authorized to appoint a Committee to draft by-laws to submit to the Lay Conference of 1938.

On motion the session adjourned to meet tomorrow, Wednesday, at the time of the afternoon recess, approximately 3:45.

H. A. NORDAHL, Secretary.

SECOND SESSION OF LAY CONFERENCE

June 16, 1937

President Daniel L. Scott called the meeting to order at 4:00 p.m.

President, Ernest W. Oliver, First Church, Los Angeles.

It was moved and carried that the officers arrange a dinner for Laymen next year.

Ernest W. Oliver, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolutions which were adopted in the form appearing appended to these minutes.

On motion of Mr. C. C. Cunningham, North Hollywood, the president requested the Lay Delegates of each district to get together informally at the close of this session and select two members each to serve as Nominating Committee for officers for the year 1938-39. The following were selected and constitute the Nominating Committee to report to the next Lay Conference:

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Resolutions Committee, appointed by President Scott, wishes to present the following report to the 1937 Lay Conference:

America is tremendously in need of active Christian leadership to cope with the present problems which are vital to the preservation and advancement of Christian ideals in our American Democracy. The membership of our great church must meet the challenge of the present hour. Because of our belief in God and in our fellow men, we have faith in the ultimate triumph of the Christian standard of living.

We commend the radio and motion picture industries for their many excellent programs. However, we condemn those features of radio and motion picture programs that tend to lower the ethical standards of our people, especially the youth of the land.

We deprecate the action of the Federal authorities in the production and sale of alcoholic beverages, as carried on at present in the Virgin Islands.

We re-affirm the declarations adopted by the 1936 General Conference on World Peace, Temperance, Prohibition, Public Morals, and Social and Economic Questions. Printed copies of these declarations are available in pamphlet form.

We call to the attention of all citizens the fact that the traffic accident problem has reached major proportions, that present methods do not curb this menace, as accidents continue to increase in number. From official statements, we are convinced that a considerable proportion of accidents is caused by drivers who indulge in alcoholic beverages. As a group and as individuals, we pledge our support to the following: That highways be constructed with maximum safety, that car efficiency be enforced by law, that drivers' fitness be determined by more strict license laws and more thorough drivers' tests, that a general program of education be carried on to make our citizens safety conscious, that there be an increase in enforcement agencies, and that as individuals and Christians we adopt and encourage all others to adopt a courteous and considerate attitude toward our fellow citizens, be they motorists or pedestrians.

We desire to heartily commend the Conference Secretary, Mr. W. C. Botkin, for getting a copy of the preliminary reports into the hands of the members of the Conference in ample time to permit a careful and thoughtful study of every report before the convening of Conference. We also commend the promptness of the various Boards, Commissions, and Committees that made this result possible.

We strongly recommend that each church of the Southern California Conference be represented by a Lay Delegate. In case the regular Lay Delegate finds it impossible to attend, provision should be made whereby the Alternate Delegate may be present at the sessions of the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

LOREN S. AYERS, Santa Paula.

HAROLD GIRTON, Orange.

MRS. L. E. HAMMOND, Eagle Rock.

JOHN P. HOWE, Gardena.

T. MURRAY MacCALLUM, Oceanside.

C. I. D. MOORE, West Adams, Los Angeles.

GEORGE H. PAGE, Wilshire, Los Angeles.

ERNEST W. OLIVER, First Church,
Los Angeles, Chairman.

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

FRESNO-GLENDALE DISTRICT

S. S. Sampson, District Superintendent

To report for a district as large as five New England states, in ten minutes, two minutes per state, is a challenging task.

However, I can report as Amelia Earhart reported to her companion in flight after crossing a stretch of ocean measuring two thousand miles, to find the coast of Africa shrouded in fog, and when he expressed disappointment she replied, "The outlook is better than yesterday." The outlook on the Fresno-Glendale district is growing brighter each year. The day is near at hand when two of the three great valleys of this district will provide the Southern California Conference with its most desirable appointments.

Early in the year Dr. James M. Ocheltree departed this life. At our last session one year ago Dr. Ocheltree took the retired relation but lived only three weeks in this new relationship. Brother Harry I. Smith was appointed by Bishop Baker one year ago to our Church at Livingston. Sickness trailed him through the year and his physician advises complete rest under the direction of a specialist. Thus he is compelled because of sickness to ask for the retired relation. When he could not carry on, his splendid wife, well equipped for the work, was appointed supply pastor.

Three blessed events are to be reported from the district. Norma Jane has come to live in the parsonage at Carruthers. Then Loren Kramer and Paul Raugust have also taken residence in Methodist parsonages.

Improvements and Repairs: We all but lost our church at Alpaugh by fire, but heroic efforts saved a part of the building. The insurance company promptly made adjustment and the building is now in splendid condition. Substantial improvements have been made at the following places: Corcoran, Central Glendale, Pacific Avenue Glendale, North Glendale, Bishop, Lindsay, Selma, Tranquility, Livingston, Bakersfield Trinity, Mountain View Bakersfield, First Church Bakersfield, Farmersville, Visalia and Delano.

New Buildings: Randsburg is to have a new church. Some months ago the districts pooled some of their special projects and as a result of this united effort the churches of the Conference responded most generously. The rehabilitation of this work will greatly hearten our people on the desert.

On May 16th Bishop Baker dedicated a beautiful new church at Taft. This church was erected at a cost of $26,000.00. The pastor, Robert A. Young, and his loyal people have set a worthy example in church financing; so splendidly were the financial matters cared for that it was not necessary for our Bishop to make a plea for funds.

Taft's New Church Building

On May 23rd Bishop George A. Miller dedicated our church at Sepulveda. Here again is a fine example of a community cooperating beautifully in a Kingdom enterprise. The money is collected and all bills are paid. Brother M. S. McGee and a noble band of helpers with a mind to work, provided every penny, and you cannot stop them. The parsonage debt is now melting away.

Sepulveda's New Church Building

On May 9th the Presbyterians and Methodists federated at Lemoore. The District Superintendent was asked to conduct the services on the opening day. Regardless of the wisdom, the history, the prophecy of federated movements, be assured of this: That here two great denominations, in travail of soul, each trying to outdo the other in Christian brotherliness and fair play, have come together for the glory of God to build a better community and eventually a better world. Dr. Preston, a cultured Christian gentleman of the Presbyterian Church, and Carl B. Johnson of our Church, have displayed the spirit voiced by John the Baptist: "He must increase and I must decrease".

Exchanges: Early in November, Stephen L. Kiser of Hanford, and Robert E. Cordell of Torrington, Connecticut, exchanged, Bishops Baker and McConnell concurring. Kenneth Danskin of Lindsay was brought to West Adams Church, Los Angeles, and Chester Lewis was taken from the Seal Beach Church and stationed at Lindsay.

Young People's Work: "Get ye up into an high mountain" is a call heeded by our young people. Our high mountain is Camp Sierra. Here, under the direction of James McGiffin and Dean Clarence Wagner, a most helpful Institute was conducted. Bishop Baker, always ready to help, gave time and strength to this gathering. A little later in the same place a Family Institute was held. Dr. Jesse L. Corley helped greatly in the building of an inspiring program.

Woman's Work: The Woman's Aid Societies are ever planning new and helpful programs. The way these women call and bring cheer to "shut-ins" and aid to financially distressed Official Boards is a means of Saving Grace.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society are exceedingly active. When the church as a whole will follow our educational program with Evangelism at the center, the missionary zeal and the financial strength will return. Go on, Good Women; we are slow to learn, but it is most interesting to look on!

Worship: We hear and read much of worship and its technique. Worship is fellowship. In public worship we are not simply hearers; we are a fellowship of Christian people. We go to Lyceum to hear the lecture, or we go to the show just to see the play. But we go to church for the fellowship we have in worship. Surely in every fellowship there must be the element of sacrifice. It is true in the fellowship of home, if home is to be more than a mockery, in all communion a willingness to yield a little, and if that be so in the fellowship of home it must also be so in the fellowship of the Church of Jesus Christ. A mother worthy of the name loves to deny herself for her children. Just as a husband will regard his wife in every choice he makes, and every plan, so in the fellowship of worship there must be mutual consideration for others for whom Christ has died.

The young have their rights, but they will not insist on them when they know it will irritate the old. The old have their claims, but for the sake of the young they will welcome what may not appeal to them. When a hymn is sung or when the Word is preached, that seems to have no word for one worshipper will always bear in mind that for someone else that is the word of life. All this is of the essence of true worship, and all calls for a little sacrifice. A happy home is impossible without the sacrificial spirit of Jesus the Christ.

I confess to uneasiness when some pompous official calls me to one side and very piously, in a half whisper, says: "Please see that this church is not afflicted with some inexperienced stripling for a pastor next year." I am equally vexed when a group of young people surround me and say: "For goodness sake, if a man has one gray hair above his ear don't send him to this Church; we want a young man." "O come, let us worship", not men, not institutions, but God in the fellowship of service!

My gratitude to God is great when I remember the great preachers and greater pastors of this district. And when the laymen meet in Quarterly Conferences then I have a better understanding of how our preachers move with such courage to face difficult tasks and achieve glorious victories. A finer group of laymen cannot be found in this area. God bless the laymen of this District! To Bishop Baker, to my fellow Superintendents, to the parsonage homes, to the sacred memory of holy men who walked with God in other days, and most to the Heavenly Father whose love can never fail, I would express my gratitude.

"O God, above the drifting year,
The shrines our fathers founded stand,
And where the higher gain appears
We trace the working of Thy Hand.
Fill Thou our hearts with faith like theirs,
Who served the days they could not see.
And give us grace through ampler years
To build the Kingdom yet to be."

S. S. SAMPSON.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT REPORT

Walter C. Buckner, District Superintendent

My arrival on the Long Beach District as a new and unexpected District Superintendent was saved from embarrassment by the unfailing courtesy and consideration shown me on every hand. My predecessor, Dr. F. G. H. Stevens, who was in high favor over the district, made every effort to set my feet in pleasant paths. The same spirit, manifest on the part of ministers and laymen, from start to finish, of the years work, has served to make it a happy year of fellowship.

Following mid-year adjustments, two men have been added to the district. Norman L. Conrad was appointed at California Heights, Long Beach, and Oscar M. Newby, at Seal Beach. Death has entered two of our parsonage homes, and has taken two from our retired ranks, Mrs. George Steed and both the father and mother of Mrs. George W. Richmire passed away during the year. Also E. J. Inwood and Mrs. J. D. Crum. Mrs. Crum was the last one of the surviving widows of Charter members of this Conference. Three babies were born to parsonage families; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lomax and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nagel.

The six years that have intervened since I left the District Superintendency cover the period of a world-wide depression which has had a profound effect on the minds and moods of men. It was inevitable that so great an upheaval should be reflected in our church life. It has been interesting and not a little disturbing to note the changes which have taken place since I touched the churches in this capacity in a former term.

Pastors' salaries have been drastically reduced, and will not be restored fully, in my judgment, for many years. One reason for this judgment is the fact that many of our people reduced their scale of giving during the lean years and they are not restoring that scale in proportion to their increased income. This constitutes a major task of the church today. In it lies a peril, both to our financial structure and the spiritual life of our people. Another factor is a changed attitude toward pastor's salaries. We are reaping what we sowed on this Conference floor when we debated certain salaries and it was argued that our salaries should have a closer relation to the minimum income of our people. We will not hear the last of that suggestion for a generation. Then too it was argued that we might raise the general level of salaries by lopping off the top of the few highest. This has had the opposite effect. We have seriously shattered the salary morale of the Conference.

I find a new insistence on the part of committees that we give them young men. From my experience this year I should say that we may have to reduce the retiring age to 40 or at most 45. The complaint is that pastors beyond these years have grown stale. Then, again the young men can be had at lower salaries. Why pay for experience when you can get brawn and boundless energy and enthusiasm at lesser cost, before it has become aware of its market value. A modified form of child labor.

There is a widespread infiltration of doctrine, foreign to Methodist thought, picked up from traveling evangelists, neighboring non-Methodist churches, renegade radio preachers and queer religious periodicals. Many good people have been so impressed by this avalanche of catastrophic redemption, flourishing, as always, in a time of world crisis, that they look with suspicion on the whole program of Methodism and often seek to block it. A perfect stream of inferior literature is finding its way into our Church Schools, constituting a major threat to the highest spiritual welfare of those who choose Methodist church schools in all confidence.

I find a hypersensitiveness to the preaching of the social gospel which did not exist a few years ago. "Send us a preacher," said one man, "who is non-committal." Non-committal indeed! You do not want a man who has gone stale and yet I submit that there is no surer way for a preacher to go stale than to shut his mind and heart to the great and throbbing issues of the day and preach a gospel that is non-committal. A non-committal man is a non-effective man, and the Methodist church is not sending out non-committal preachers to be the prophets of the Lord in this year 1937.

All in all I find the task of the preacher more difficult, more exacting than when I traveled a district before. But if it is more difficult, yet it is more rewarding for the man who is equipped in mind, body and heart, for success. I have pointed out some new difficulties as I see them, but not all is dark by any means. Indeed I see the sunburst through the clouds at many points. Let us see.

At many points this year there have been substantial increases in salaries. Church after church has reported a balanced budget. A common report in Quarterly Conferences, was "all bills paid to date" or "All will be in full at the end of the year." Church debts have been reduced. I think no church in the Long Beach District is today in real peril of foreclosure. Few indeed have any real serious debt problem.

Church Schools have shown a steady increase in attendance. The Sunday evening service has been adjusted until it is probably in better shape than for 25 years. The temper and timber of our young people is such as ought to make us ashamed of our fears and lack of faith. They have been disturbed, and who can blame them, as they looked out on a world gone mad. They have turned to God for light and strength and are facing the future with a new inner assurance as they study ways to build a better world. I have never seen the various women's societies working so splendidly together. There is a more systematic, widespread and effective program of information concerning our world wide missionary program than I have ever known. The same is true of our Conference program. Our people ought soon to know the facts about our varied and thrilling program which lies within the bounds of the Southern California Conference. Above all I want to bear witness to a deepening spiritual tone in the life of our real leaders, laymen and ministers alike. There is a better balanced message. New emphasis on a vital personal Christian experience has put warmth and winsomeness into the social gospel and is feeding many a hungry heart. Study groups, thinking through the problems of the day, are springing up here and there and promise a more intelligent attitude on the part of all.

Venice's Remodeled Church Building

I am impressed with the need of a Conference manager. Some one to act as a sort of traffic manager among our many organizations, to keep us from colliding and help us to move more in unison. Perhaps not a person, but an organization, such as our Commission on Finance, might serve the purpose if its duties were redefined and somewhat enlarged. This in addition to and in quite a different field from the splendid Federation of Methodist Agencies.

Finally Aldersgate. What a challenge and what a chance! If we shall seek the experience of Wesley at Aldersgate, in this anniversary year, I have a notion that we shall see real progress in melting up and drawing off the dross which lies at the core of the dark spots which have been mentioned in this report. In such an Aldersgate atmosphere as can thus be engendered, our ministers can set out to give our people a little more doctrine congenial to Methodist history; we can lead thousands of our people into an experience which they long for and have not found; we can stand in our pulpits uttering the prophetic word which is "profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness."

WALTER C. BUCKNER.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Leonard Oechsli, District Superintendent

The year has brought a number of changes in appointments. W. R. Hessell was transferred to Newport Beach and Wm. F. Koehler was transferred in from the California Conference and appointed to Bethel Trinity. L. E. Jordan transferred to Mt. Calvary Church, New York City, and E. W. Rakestraw was transferred in an exchange and is beginning auspiciously his pastorate at Wesley Chapel. The Southern California Conference was highly honored in the appointment of Carl Seitter to the Chicago office of the Board of Education as Director of Institutes of the Department of Epworth Leagues and Young Peoples Work, and Crawford Trotter of Hemet was appointed to fill the vacancy at Culver City. Kenneth Danskin of Lindsay came to West Adams to fill the vacancy made by the death of W. J. Pellow.

Joy has come into two of our parsonage homes in the form of a baby son, Richard Craig, born to Rev. and Mrs. George Warmer, Jr., of Calvary Church, and a daughter, Claudia Fern, born to Rev. and Mrs. Claude A. Brown of Grace Church, Inglewood. We will all of us share in sympathy in the sorrow and disappointment that has come to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Stanley McKee in the loss of their infant son, Donald, and also Rev. and Mrs. Russell Clay in the loss of their infant son, William Russell.

Rev. Thomas Burden went to the hospital for an operation a few weeks ago, but is able to attend this Conference session.

On the adjournment of Conference last year, when Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Crowder had scarcely gotten settled in their new appointment at West Los Angeles, their daughter, Veda, was stricken and after a brief illness passed away. Veda was a senior in the University and was a beautiful girl.

Death came to us again in swift and tragic manner, in striking down in less than three weeks, three of our brethren—W. J. Pellow, Horace K. Holtzinger and Chas. D. Lewis, each of whom strangely enough had served in turn as pastor of West Adams Church in as recent a period of time as eighteen months. Recognition of the passing of these brethren has been given elsewhere, but we would pause here to say this word concerning them: Bill Pellow was a whole-souled, eager Companion of the Way, with whom everyone delighted to fellowship. He was in the first year of his regular ministry, which seemed to be opening so auspiciously after such a valiant victory over obstacles. It is still hard for us to be reconciled to his going. He possessed in rare degree not only high qualities of mind, but profound depth of human sympathy. We can only bow to the will of the Heavenly Father and pray God's blessing upon Mrs. Pellow and their little daughter, Jacqueline.

Horace Holtzinger, quiet, reserved, fine-spirited messenger of Christ, slipped quietly away only a few days after Brother Pellow. His record of service in this Conference and elsewhere, bears testimony that he was a valiant servant of God.

Chas. D. Lewis has for these years been identified with so many vital interests of the Conference that we shall miss his genial spirit at every turn of the road. Frank, open, sincere, his sympathetic nature has won for him a host of friends among his brethren of the ministry, and a wide circle of laymen throughout the Fresno district and the churches he has served.

The Million Unit Fellowship has gone steadily forward without blare of trumpets or frenzied emotional appeal. The literature has been excellent and the pastors have come in voluntarily to supply their needs. An effort has been made to place the emphasis on fitting ourselves to be of service to the needs of the world. Opportunity has been given to our people to make their subscriptions, and they have responded.

If it is true, as we have said, that this is a movement and not a campaign, we believe that the future is bright for our world program. After all, it takes but one generation to make a new church. By educational processes we may in this generation create a missionary-minded church.

In January and February there was held a district-wide Methodist School of Christian Education for the training of leaders, which was very well attended and of real worth.

The Preaching Mission in October roused a very wide and deep interest and was of real value, not only in the inspiration of the preaching services but more particularly in the educational value of the seminars conducted.

The indebtedness on church property on the Los Angeles district is more than twice as large as that on any other district in the Conference. We pay out more than $50,000 a year in interest. At scarcely any time in the last three years have we ever been free from the threat of foreclosure on some church of the district. A number of our churches are not yet free from the danger of foreclosure. One by one we have been working to get them over into the safety zone. Three churches will this year join the select group of those that have no debt, namely—Shaw Chapel, Lennox, and Hamilton. This latter church, the home of one of our fine negro congregations, has had this unique experience: Several years ago they completely remodelled the church. The money for the remodeling was loaned to them without security. The church is now again out of debt without having defaulted on a single payment! It is doubtful whether there is another church in the Conference whose credit would secure them a loan without mortgaging the property.

University Church has reached a crisis in its history. This church has played an important part in the writing of the history of Southern California Methodism. A long line of eminent and outstanding men have occupied this historic pulpit. Its influence has been felt to the ends of the earth. When the present plant was erected in 1931 it was designed to care not only for the membership of the Church but also for the Methodist students of the University. The expense involved has proven more than the congregation is able to carry, due for the most part to the depredations of the depression. During the past year the church has been under constant threat of foreclosure. The hope that the property might be bought by the University has not materialized. As has been stated elsewhere in this Conference session, we are now faced with the possibilities of foreclosure on the first of August unless we can successfully sell real estate notes on the property to the extent of approximately $70,000.00. It should be recorded here, to the credit of the loyal members of University Church, that they have raised over $11,129.00 to be paid in in cash before August first. We have come to this Conference appealing for help—not for the purpose of saving one more church from foreclosure; we have come in behalf of the hundreds and thousands of students who during the years to come will secure their education at the University of Southern California. We cannot believe that Methodism is prepared to withdraw from what is perhaps the most strategic opportunity for work among students in the Southland. We are but your representatives, doing what we believe you would have us do, namely, to plan and lead the way in a Conference-wide effort to meet our responsibilities for our youth.

Robertson Boulevard has enjoyed the unique experience of dedicating two buildings in one year. The new social and educational plant was dedicated by Bishop Baker on Sunday, September 17th, 1936. Since this splendid new building was dedicated the attendance at the Sunday School has doubled, and a fine program for young people is in full swing. Thirty-three young people were received into the church on a recent Sunday. The donor of the building, Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, has again generously come forward with the gift of $3,000 and a loan of $4,000 which made possible the buying of a fine parsonage near the Church. This property was enlarged and completely done over, making it one of the finest parsonages in the district.

Some progress has been made on the part of a number of churches in the matter of adjusting their programs to changed environment. It is encouraging that we have a number of pastors who are willing to devote themselves in sacrificial spirit in an attempt to solve these difficult problems. Notable among these is Vincent Church, where an old historic church, accustomed to the conventional type of church program, has set up a program designed to attract and serve the people of the neighborhood who for the most part are without church background.

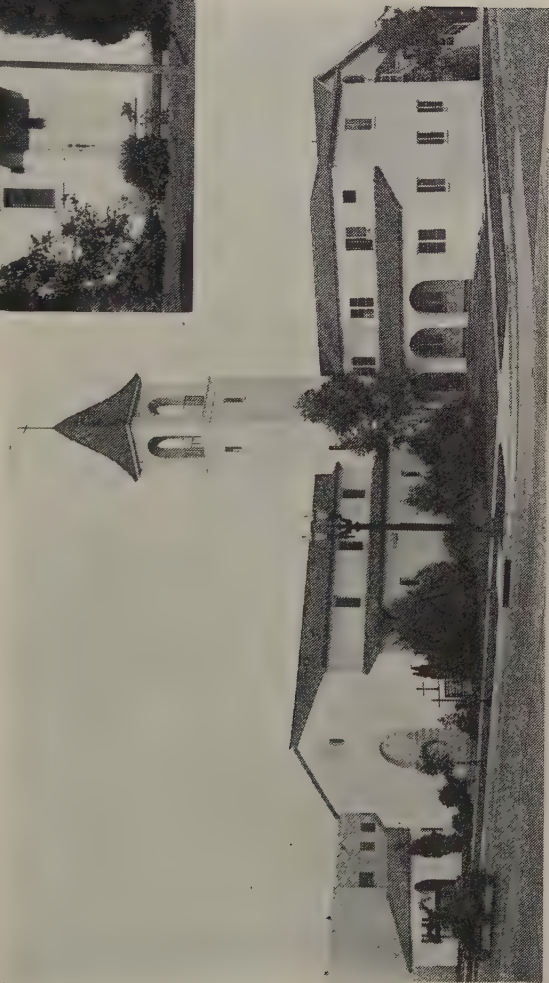

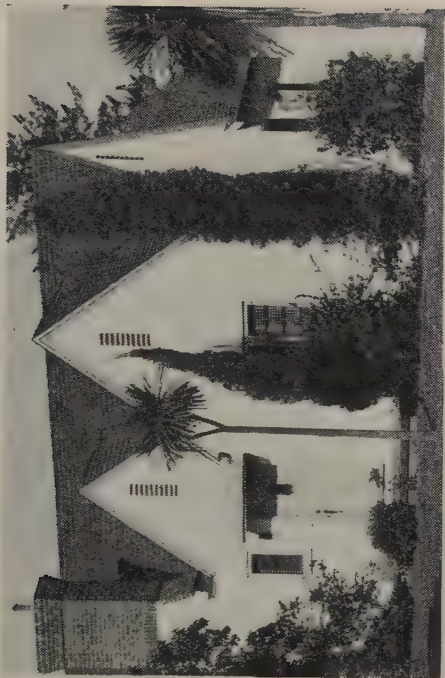

In like manner, many other churches that might be named, are endeavoring to prove that the church may find ways of ministering to the new cultural and racial groups coming in around them, people who have for the most part had little church background. Each church presents a different problem and there is no stock pattern that can be applied. Grace Church has rendered a remarkable service in the interests of racial goodwill in its service to the Jewish people of the east side and in its ministry and message to the labor group of the City. The Sunday night Forum here has attracted City-wide attention and support.

Boys and girls club work is fast assuming new proportions in its importance to the program of our churches. Our prediction is that this will occupy an increasingly important place in our total church program. We anticipate this year, as last, a hearty response to the appeal of the Coordinating Council for the cooperation of the churches in carrying on Vacation Church Schools. These Vatican Schools have enormous potentialities, not only in keeping youth occupied and out of trouble, but also as a means of creating character and shaping attitudes. This district is expecting to cooperate to the fullest extent in the experiment in week-day religious education as outlined and proposed under the able leadership of Jesse L. Corley.

The California Christian Advocate, Pacific edition, has been a powerful ally in every department of the work of the Church. We have increased the number of Advocates taken this year over last year by 30%, our total subscription list on the Los Angeles district now standing at 971, slightly under ten percent of the total circulation of the Pacific edition. This circulation is far from what it should be, and it is our purpose to enter into a real campaign next fall to very greatly increase the circulation. We would like here and now to throw out a challenge to every district and district superintendent, various and sundry, individually or jointly, within or without the Conference, within the Area or throughout the Pacific Coast, to meet us on the field of mortal combat next fall, to determine what district shall lead in the percentage of increase in subscriptions to the Christian Advocate, Pacific Edition.

PROTESTANT COOPERATION: Much time and thought has been given this year to the difficult problem of providing a framework for effective Protestant cooperation in the great metropolitan area of Los Angeles. At no time in the past three years has the situation been more encouraging. These seem to be a very genuine desire for united action among Protestant forces. Plans are under way which give every promise of an effective correlation of the Protestant Churches and agencies in Los Angeles and Southern California. If their plans are successful, we bespeak the heartiest support from our Methodist Churches.

Robertson Blvd. New Social and Educational

MORAL REFORM AND SOCIAL CHANGES: In the maze of social reconstruction through which we are passing, there is taking place a wide-spread moral breakdown. There is evidence of the presence, both within and without the Church of a moral insensitiveness, a sort of immunity of conscience to social and individual iniquity. Unquestionably the tides are running strong against moral forces of the community. Naturally these are most acute in the great population centers of the metropolitan area. Gambling in multitudinous forms has become almost a disease. In many parts of the City there is open and unrestricted vice, including prostitution, illicit sale of liquor to minors, every form of gambling, indecent and immoral shows which furnish the background for a vast system of commercialized vice. In this dark picture there is one thing for which we have reason to thank God, namely, that during the past year for the most part the ministers of the Methodist Church have consistently but unostentatiously cried out against these conditions. We have on numerous occasions served notice to those in authority over us in our City, personally face to face and in public, that we as a Church will not endure these conditions without protest, and that we refuse to be intimidated by threat of boycott or by "Red baiting", from attacking every form of corruption and organized vice in our City. There is reason to thank God that our Church has lifted its voice in protest, not only in the City Hall but in surrounding communities—notably in Inglewood, against the proposed new race track; in Huntington Park against police corruption; in Gardena against gambling, and in other communities.

Nor have we allowed the bugaboo of "Radicalism" to keep us from facing the living issues of our economic and social life. From the smallest church on the district, to the pulpit of this great church—one of the most influential in Methodism, our ministers have continued to insist that upon the great moral and social issues of our day the Church does not dare be neutral. While there have been among us those who have cried out—"Peace, Peace", when there is no peace, for the most part our ministers have been given freedom of utterance and have fulfilled the prophetic function of their ministry. More and more our laymen are coming to see that Methodism must be true to her sacred heritage from the past in striking out fearlessly for righteousness and justice.

In this great city perhaps the tides are against us, but these tides are not the tides of the sea, but human tides, and it is for us to be numbered among those whose business it is to turn the tides. We shall continue to dream of the day when ours shall be a fair City, of which we need not be ashamed.

"O Master, from the mountain side
Make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
Among these restless throngs abide
O tread the city's streets again,

"Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
And follow where Thy feet have trod;
Till, glorious from Thy heaven above
Shall come the city of our God!"

LEONARD OECHSLI.

REPORT OF PASADENA-ARIZONA DISTRICT

F. G. H. Stevens, District Superintendent

This is a story of folks and things on the Pasadena-Arizona District. We will go to Arizona first, a state with more wonders less known by outsiders, than perhaps any other place between the Atlantic and the Pacific. Here are some of them: the Petrified Forest, Oak Creek Canyon, Cliff Dwellers Ruins, Painted Desert, Meteor Crater, Navajo Indian Country, the Hopi mesas, and the Grand Canyon. So we pass by the wonders of nature and tell about the churches and folks.

We catch the Santa Fe fast mail and express at 11:30 at night, a train which beats the Limited to Chicago by four hours; eat breakfast at Needles, dinner at Ashfork, and get off in time to eat supper at Holbrook, the far eastern end of the District, and more than a quarter of the way to Chicago. Here, in the center of these cattle ranges, we have a community church. It is pioneer work, with a pastor just out of school adapting himself in a wonderful manner and giving the church a rightful place in that western community.

The next appointment as we start toward California is Winslow, a railroad town which, in spite of poor equipment, has a large Sunday School, one of the largest in comparison with its church membership. It has improved its parsonage property and increased World Service 40%.

Flagstaff, our Federated church, is doing good work with the students of the State Teachers College and is paying on its debts. The church auditorium was beautified by the addition of a memorial organ, and the parsonage home was blessed by the coming of a baby daughter, Judith Elaine.

Our supply pastor at Williams working with the loyal membership, has worked wonders. Hundreds of dollars were spent in improvements and equipment, there is an increase in membership, a resolve to pay an old Home Mission Board debt, and a decided increase in salary. Williams requires full time for the pastor, so a worker was put in at Ashfork and Seligman with such good results that they alone are subscribing $700 for a supply pastor this coming year, with the two Sunday Schools three times their former attendance.

In spite of months of illness at Jerome, this church has paid the last of its debt, $330. Our pastor here, Brother B. F. Davis, now in the hospital at Soldiers Home, will ask for the Supernumerary Relation. This church has loyally cared for him through over six months of illness.

At Prescott we are working out a satisfactory adjustment of our property matters, with the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The adjustment of this problem was not helped any by the gratuitous criticism of men of both denominations who neither knew the problem nor knew what we were trying to do.

Kingman, center of a mining industry, has one of the best church buildings and one of the finest groups of officials in the whole state of Arizona.

This District comprises a part of three states; California, Arizona and Nevada. There is probably no other like District in Methodism. So we'll cut across Boulder Dam into Las Vegas, Nevada, which proudly boasts "still a frontier town". This church has wiped out $900 of its $1000 indebtedness this year, increased its membership and Sunday School attendance by 15%, and more than doubled its World Service giving.

Down the river 90 miles to its nearest neighbor, we come to Needles, another railroad town, with an average Sunday School attendance larger than the church membership. Here an increase in membership and World Service of 25%, with $300 paid on debt.

Down the river another 90 miles is Blythe, in the Palo Verde valley. Blythe has organized a fine men's class, and increased its salary by $400. In spite of illness, Brother Tautenhahn has done work at Midland, a gypsum plant town twenty-three miles to the north, which has resulted in a new Methodist church. The appointment will be known as "Midland and Ripley".

At Victorville a supply pastor has done very fine work, increasing the attendance, and the church has responded by a $300 increase in salary. The church has been artistically decorated.

These thirteen points are all outside the sacred enclosures of Southern California, but as one pastor's wife out there said when she was commiserated for being "so far off"—"Why, we're not far off, we're right here." It takes real men and women to work these jobs.

At San Bernardino the plan is to add a young people's worker this coming year.

The whole orange growing section of the District was hard hit by the freeze in February. Usually the man who was hit hardest is the man who tells the story at Quarterly Conference. But in spite of losses, most of the churches are paying their pastors in full even though it means sacrifice.

Highland is one of these churches which has suffered loss, but the pastor has very thoroughly reorganized the church and done good work with young folks.

Yucaipa has increased its World Service giving 50% and received 25 into preparatory membership. The pastor's daughter, Maud Lucille Hudson, was married last August.

At Redlands First Church, Harry Slater has rounded out a ten years pastorate. Here is a church which has a fine church school and gets people to the Sunday evening worship, the number averaging over 315.

Redlands Grace shows a net increase of 40 in the membership and a fine increase in World Service.

Colton is one of our liveliest churches, with a wonderful group of young folks, good church attendance, evening as well as morning. Hundreds of dollars have been put in improvements on the property.

Rialto and Del Rosa were separated early in the year, and the student pastor at Del Rosa has done good work in church and Sunday School. Rialto, with a full time pastor, has responded by the doubling of church and Sunday School attendance, the payment of hundreds of dollars of old taxes and note obligations, and an increase of $400 in salary.

Cucamonga with the assistance of Chino, Ontario, Upland, and Pomona, wiped out an old obligation of $430.

Upland has paid $300 on pipe organ debt, has increased World Service giving, over 30% and has had a good year.

Ontario has received over fifty in membership and has strengthened its young peoples work.

At Pomona, the original First church property was sold for $5000, as arranged last year, and the money applied on Trinity church debt. The pastor's wife is at home from the sanitarium and the pastor himself is back from Albion with a new Doctor of Divinity degree.

Chino has a fine group of younger married people in its officary and has had real evangelistic results; $900 was paid on debt and the Sunday School has been increased by one-third.

La Verne holds the banner on Million Unit Fellowship, having increased its World Service, giving 121%. It has paid $360 on debt.

San Dimas has three of the best Epworth League groups on the District, and reports a goodly number of conversions.

Covina, one of our solid churches, shows an increase in its World Service.

Baldwin Park has made a real success of its unified service, and has shown an increase of 45 members, largely by Confession of Faith.

Puente, one of our community churches, has increased its salary and its membership. It has a fine officiator.

Monterey Park carries on a well-rounded work of evangelism among young and old, and has increased its salary.

Montebello is in the midst of a campaign to reduce its indebtedness, with the help of the Home Board. Over $1800 has been paid on the principal of debt this year. Twenty-one have been received on Confession of Faith.

El Monte has increased both membership and World Service.

Our community church at Rosemead is doing steady work.

Alhambra, Marengo Avenue, has received 35 on Confession of Faith, largely from the High School and Young People's departments, as a result of a real spiritual awakening. This church stands high in World Service giving.

First Church, Alhambra, put on an ideal financial canvass, stressing personal religion, personal work, and World Service first; with the local church interests afterward. Result: Its World Service is over-subscribed and one hundred and twenty-six more pledges for Current Expense than ever before. This Million Unit Fellowship works when it is worked. This year saw the marriage of a daughter of the parsonage, Ruth Kaler, to Joseph Testor, and the celebration of the 95th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Woodcock, sole surviving member of the Conference charter group.

Glendora, in the "frostless belt", was hard hit by the freeze, but has heroically met every financial obligation. Here a remarkably fine work has been done among the young people.

At Azusa a large group of young folks have been attracted to the church service.

Monrovia shows an increase in World Service giving, and a very successful handling of the penny bank system.

Temple City shows an increase in membership and World Service giving, both of which are rather unusual for a community church. San Gabriel has paid $100 on its debt and shown an increase in membership.

South Pasadena has put more than $1000 into improving and beautifying of the church, and has paid off their small indebtedness.

We started out on the Santa Fe, running 18 hours toward Chicago by train. We have wound back by auto to the west end of the District at Pasadena. In this city we have ten Methodist churches, the Chinese and Spanish being under their respective missions. The other eight are included in this District.

Our Swedish and German churches meet together for some union services. The Swedish church has put in $400 on repairs. The pastor married his son in Honolulu by radiophone, the first in history. Our German church is a united church. Because of the German merger, and the feeling engendered thereby, I would suggest the following in regard to the Emmanuel German church:

1. This church is now carrying on both German and English services, and will continue to do so as long as needed.

2. If and when it shall seem best to stop German services this church has voted its desire to continue as an English speaking church because many of the younger and middle aged people will feel more at home in a smaller church than to try to become absorbed in one of our larger English-speaking churches. They believe others will be added to their number.

3. Because the present membership is not able to support its church without the income from the apartment house which they own, and will probably not be able to do so for a time at least, when changed to an English speaking church they should be allowed to continue to use such income for helping in such support.

4. When the English-speaking church is able to support itself without income from the apartment house, then it is expected that the church will itself offer to transfer the apartment house to the Conference Trustees for the Conference Claimants Fund which assumed the support of the retired members of the California German Conference.

Hartsell church has paid $1100 dollars on indebtedness, leaving its present debt at $8000. It has had an increase in World Service giving, and has paid everything in full for the first time in six years.

Lincoln Avenue has increased its salary and World Service giving and is a fine sample of a real home church with deeply spiritual leadership.

Washington Street has increased its World Service giving decidedly and has one of the best balanced congregations and Sunday Schools in age, in the Conference.

The bank has started foreclosure proceedings on Scott Church, our negro church. Pasadena Methodism is uniting under First church leadership to meet this problem. Scott Church itself has subscribed almost $2000 dollars. This church shows some of the largest giving per capita in the Conference. The home of the supply pastor was blest with the coming of a new baby boy a few months ago.

The great financial victory of the year has been at Holliston Avenue. Here an offer by the Mormons of $100,000 for purchase of this debt-burdened church challenged Pasadena Methodism. The answer was, the 600 members of Holliston raised $13,000 in cash in ten months. A number of members of First Church added other thousands and in addition, property held in interests of the Pasadena Methodist Union was mortgaged, and with the discount of the principal given by the First Trust and Savings Bank, and with designated gifts from the remainder of the Conference through the Home Board, their indebtedness was reduced from over $80,000 to $21,900 owed to the Home Board at 1%.

We don't need to lose churches when we have loyalty like this. They ended up by restoring the pastor's salary of pre-depression rate, an increase of $500.

The mother church of Methodism in Pasadena has carried on remarkably well during the illness of Merle N. Smith, under the leadership of Henry I. Rasmus, Jr., and Claude Smith. They have oversubscribed their Million Unit Fellowship for next year and as has already been stated, paid some thousands of dollars to help out Holliston Avenue, and are now engaged in a campaign to wipe out their own indebtedness and help Scott.

After 21 years of service, Merle N. Smith lays down the leadership of a church whose name he has helped to make live in American Methodism. Brotherly, sweet-spirited, evangelistic, with a passion to help men at home and abroad, he has literally revealed Christ to men.

From the Pasadena-Alhambra group we have lost by death of our retired brethren and wives, John Hedley, C. A. Bunker, W. M. Sterling, Mrs. Sterling, and Mrs. S. B. Woolpert. These were men and women who helped to make the Conference which we enjoy today.

Often on this District they call me "Dr. Seitter", and never apologize for it. Why should they? For this predecessor of mine lived and loved and worked himself into the hearts of this District Methodism.

It is a far-flung District. You start out with a palm leaf fan and an overcoat, taking along khakis and your cutaway. It may be 118 degrees in the shade or you may catch the train at Clarkdale at 20 below. In the course of a month you are in mining camps, smelter towns, resort towns, farming communities, pioneer towns, orange growing communities, railroad towns, favored residence sections.

Always there is the deepening loyalty of this fine bunch of men and their wives, a loyalty which reaches farther than a mere District Superintendent, farther than love for the church, one that is rooted deep in a willingness to try and match the compassion and the passion of the Christ.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

SAN DIEGO-PHOENIX DISTRICT

James Edwin Dunning, District Superintendent

"Thy kingdom come . . . on earth." Thus Jesus' disciples must have prayed for nineteen centuries. This is the all too inadequate record of some of the acts of modern apostles and disciples for one year in the San Diego-Phoenix District in their untiring efforts to answer that prayer.

Death and sickness have made inroads upon our parsonages. Kemp Winkler, noble Knight of the Cross, left us suddenly in October after a brief illness. Although only one year at Newport Beach he had won a large place in the community. We counted on his expanding leadership. We can ill afford to spare him. W. R. Hessel was appointed to succeed him.

E. J. Inwood, who moved into this district upon his retirement at our last Conference, was called into his Heavenly Father's home. I helped to welcome him and his family into First Church, Santa Ana, on Easter Sunday. Brother and Sister Swennerton mourn the sudden and seemingly untimely death of their seventeen-year old son, Ross, a lad of great promise. Mrs. W. A. Jennings laid away her mother.

Returning from the funeral of C. D. Lewis, O. W. Renius suffered a paralytic stroke that has since rendered him an invalid. After thirty-seven years in this Conference, ten of which were spent at Richland Avenue, Santa Ana, and after many years as the capable and affable Statistician of this Conference, he asks for retirement.

Happier occasions were the marriage of two parsonage daughters, Elizabeth Aileen Butters and Martha Frances Essig. Joy came into the home of Paul and Emma Hershey with the advent of Carolyn Jean, October 16th, 1936. Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Warmer welcome a seven-pound boy, born June 15th.

A definite up-trend with buoyant optimism has marked the churches of the San Diego-Phoenix District this year. Both pastors and laymen are facing the work with more courage and with clearer understanding. The difficulties are not minimized, but there is, in many places, a deep desire to cooperate in the creative Kingdom tasks. Statistics can never tell the whole story. There are personality values that can never be estimated by any standard of measurement. The most sensitive and valuable possession on earth is human personality. That is the material with which the Church is concerned. Hence, increased membership is not necessarily a better membership helping to build a better world. Nevertheless, there is a distinct note of encouragement when statistics also confirm the upward trend.

More than 500 persons have definitely begun the Christian way of life in the Methodist churches of this district this year. Thirty-nine churches report net gains in active members, totalling 649; others show a net loss which exceeds the gains, so that the district reports a net loss of 195. In some churches our membership records are woefully inaccurate. Pastors seem to have reported estimates rather than actual count, and their estimates are never conservative. One pastor going to a new appointment last June has been unable to find even the names of members within two hundred of the figures reported in the Conference Journal! Although there has been an actual net gain in that church, the statistics show a loss of more than two hundred. Accuracy on the part of pastors and membership committees will prevent such inflated reports. We are still too ready to drop members from the rolls. We need to remember that resident members can be placed on the inactive list only by vote of the Quarterly Conference. One pastor reports: "We located members who had moved elsewhere and sent transfers of 23." How much better than to merely drop them.

In addition to this slight decrease in members, we must report a decline in enrollment and average attendance in our church schools. This is partly accounted for by the extraordinary weather in the winter, described by one pastor as the Three F's—Flood, Freeze and Flu! But this will not wholly account for the decline. In simple candor must we not confess that we have placed a very slight value upon the importance of our whole program of religious education? The answer of Superintendents to the question of the Quarterly Conference report blank, "What is the greatest need of the school?" is almost stereotyped: "Trained and consecrated teachers". What a tragedy that there should be a dearth of adequate leadership in this hour of unparalleled crisis and opportunity! Wherever there is devoted and intelligent leadership, our young people are responding with enthusiasm to help build the new world.

One of the greatest educational opportunities we ever had was offered by the action of the United Session last year in setting up a Commission to promote the study of a Christian social program. The three reports that have been released by that Commission present impartial study outlines of immense value. Reports indicate, however, that very few pastors have used them except for their own study and preaching. I strongly recommend that these reports and others to follow be used in every church in study groups and adult and young people's classes. Henry Smith Leiper in "Christ's Way and the World's" says: "It may not be out of order to suggest that for the Christian who would apply to the needs of his time the remedies and correctives which are inherent in the Christian religion, it is necessary that understanding be greatly increased. The first needs is for light, not heat. In trying to elavate the conflicting Christian proposals for complex relationships of life, the Christian will seek to comprehend before he condemns or adopts any particular policy . . . He will not let differences of theory prevent common action where such action is possible, and he will not permit apparently insuperable obstacles to shake his faith in God's power to bring in the kingdom of righteousness and love."

During the fall and winter I undertook to substitute seminar discussions on the aims and program of the church, for the routine Quarterly Conferences. Bishop Baker spent nearly a week in such seminars in the Arizona churches, and J. L. Corley and James McGiffin were of great assistance both in Arizona and California sections of the district. Usually the plan was to have afternoon and evening sessions, with a separate young people's group with Mr. McGiffin in the evening. About half the churches of the district were reached in these seminars. In addition, Bishop Baker spent two days at Tempe, Arizona, in a Quest including all the pastors and wives in Arizona, cooperating with Dr. Stevens, and at Balboa Island with the pastors and wives of the California sector.

As representative of the Bishop's Cabinet on the Conference Epworth Leagus Cabinet, I have enjoyed the fellowship with these Conference youth leaders. I have attended, as far as possible, the meetings of the Epworth League Cabinet, attended the National Conference of Methodist Youth at Berea, Kentucky, last September, and have served as a member of the Institute Faculty Commission. I shared in the Arizona Institute at Granite Dells, June 5th to 12th, and expect to attend the San Diego Institute, June 26th to July 3rd. I am also serving as a member of the joint committee which is now setting up an Area Conference for Methodist Youth, to be held November 11th to 14th. I am deeply grateful for the privilege of these contacts with the young people of our Conference and the Church at large. I am profoundly impressed with the sincerity and the moral earnestness of our young people as they face the problem of being Christians in times like these.

Special emphasis has been placed upon preaching this year. Most of the pastors of the district attended the National Preaching Mission in Los Angeles in November. Community follow-up meetings were held in several other cities, and a large proportion of our churches carried out the plan for a parish preaching mission. Many pastors testified that great stimulus had come to their churches as a result. In cooperation with the pastors of Imperial Valley a two-weeks All-Methodist Preaching Mission was held in the Valley in February. Roy L. Smith, Walter Buckner, Frank S. Williams and J. L. Corley assisted the District Superintendent and the local pastors.

"The World Is My Parish" is the slogan that has rung out from every pulpit of the district. Five of the ten cultivation conferences last fall were held in this district. The aggregate attendance was large. Subsequently the splendid exhibit assembled and displayed by George Bechtel was taken to many of the churches, accompanied by C. C. Hartzler of Africa, or C. H. Archibald of India. Every pastor made a personal subscription to the Million Unit Fellowship, and enthusiastically presented it to his people. This district reports an increase of 25.36% over last year in total World Service giving. Nearly every church shares in this increase. We are emphasizing this not as a spurt but as a continuing cumulative movement. We believe that the underlying principles of this Million Unit Fellowship must be emphasized, and a sound philosophy of Missions must be achieved by every pastor and layman. We must recapture the sense of urgency of our fathers, even though the basis of the urgency be somewhat changed.

Dr. Charles F. Boss, Secretary of the World Peace Commission of our Church, and Dr. Charles Webber, Secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, conducted seminars within the district, helping greatly to clarify the vision of our people in relation to the social application of the Gospel.

Tell me what you read and I will tell you what you are. It is lamentable that so few of our people do any reading to correct the distorted views so largely given by the newspapers, the radio, and the motion pictures. Our Christian Advocate is a powerful corrective. Why are we so timid or apologetic about it? Last fall this district led all the districts in the patronizing territory in the percentage of pastors who contributed two or more new subscribers; but forty percent is entirely too small for the top percentage. Why should not every pastor include Advocate Sunday in his fall program, and plan full cooperation in the campaign for 5,000 new subscribers to our Advocate? I have taken a page from the early Methodist preachers and have sold at the Quarterly Conference many copies of the new Methodist Hymnal, the Discipline, The Pastor's and Church Superintendent's Work Book, and other publications of the Church. Many churches have introduced the new Hymnal, thereby greatly enriching their worship.

Diminishing Church Debts: Three years ago the total property indebtedness of the churches of this district was $430,980.00. One church had been sold, and foreclosure proceedings were inaugurated against several others. I am now able to report that nearly every serious situation has been readjusted, either substantially reducing the debt, or refinancing on a basis that enables the churches to carry their loads. The total paid on indebtedness this year is $38,306.00, and the total for the three-year period $143,457.00. The total indebtedness reported this year is $297,523.00. Several cases are worthy of special note: The fine cooperation of the entire Conference has put on deposit with the Board of Missions and Church Extension $5,000.00 designated for Park Boulevard, San Diego. This church is now raising an equal amount to reduce its debt by $10,000.00. Point Loma Church has carried out the program outlined a year ago, and reduced its debt by $4,500.00 to a balance of $5,500.00. Inwood Church, San Diego, one of the smallest churches, has valiantly lopped off $598.00 of debt, leaving a balance of $1,284.00. First Church, Phoenix, has decided to tackle its old debt of $20,000.00. Result: $6,500.00 has already been paid and the balance is covered with new subscriptions. Garfield, Phoenix, is entirely out of debt, besides having built and paid for a $500.00 garage.

Creighton, Phoenix, had just completed raising a debt of $1,000.00 when fire totally destroyed church and parsonage on December 18th, 1936. Insurance realized, $3,900.00. This church serves an otherwise unchurched neighborhood, and we must rebuild. It is expected that by fall the congregation will have a new church, adequate for future growth, free from debt.

Costa Mesa presented the most serious emergency this year. The debts, including delinquent interest, amounted to $25,000.00. Foreclosure had been begun. With the help of the Revitalization program of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, the congregation has subscribed over $4,000.00, a great sum for them. The Board will grant a loan of $5,000.00. Discounts and donations from creditors amount to about $8,000.00. In order to complete the financing we must obtain $4,000 additional outside the community. The Board has granted permission to get $3,000 in designated gifts with "Additional Support" vouchers. Only about $1,000.00 has been contributed. December 31st is the deadline, and it is all or none. Will not your church designate something in the next six months for this really needy community?

The following churches also have reduced their debts this year: Brawley, Calexico, Encinitas, Chula Vista, Douglas, El Centro, Fullerton, Glendale Arizona; Globe, La Habra, La Mesa, Mesa, San Diego Asbury, San Diego Central, San Diego Mission Hills, San Diego Normal Heights, San Diego Trinity, Santa Ana First, Santa Ana Richland Avenue, Tucson and Yorba Linda. We believe that this is a strategic time to reduce debts, and we mean to press this business in the next two years.

Property Improvements: Coronado has installed a Hammond electric organ, on which $578.00 has been paid, the balance of $858.00 to be paid in eighteen months. Anaheim First, Glendale Arizona, Holtville, La Habra, Phoenix First, San Diego First, Somerton and Willcox have made improvements to church and/or parsonage property.

Yuma has plans for a new parish house to cost about $10,000.00. Nine thousand has been pledged, of which $3,300.00 is cash in hand. Construction will begin as soon as the total amount is covered by subscriptions and fifty percent is in cash, a sound financial program.

Ministerial Support: Salary estimates were largely reduced during the depression years. There are few deficits this year. Advances in pastor's support for next year have been made by Ajo, Chandler-Gilbert-Higley (this three-point circuit voting to divide into two charges), Coronado, Encanto, Globe, Wintersburg, Mesa, National City, Point Loma, Santa Ana First, Tempe, Tucson and Yuma. Seven of these are in Arizona. Better look to Arizona, brethren!

The two Wesley Foundations at Tucson and Tempe, Arizona, are led by pastor-directors. Students from all parts of the world are in the Arizona student bodies. Many who have never been identified with the church or the Christian religion have been enlisted through our Foundation work. In my opinion the time must shortly come when this Conference will accept the responsibility for this student work by helping to lift the heavy debt burden of the Tucson Church, and by helping the Tempe Church to expand its equipment so as to make provision for the large group of students.

I wish that I could adequately emphasize the importance of our Conference Missionary Society. Two churches, Globe Arizona and Coronado were kept open by its help when it seemed they must close. Now both are gaining in strength and will soon be entirely self-supporting. Bisbee Arizona asks for a pastor this year, after having been pastorless for a year. It will take considerable missionary help for a year or two, but I believe that "the right man" can revive and restore that work. Brethren, encourage your churches to pay the Conference Missionary Society apportionment. Put it into your Benevolent budget and let it share in the benevolent giving of your people.

The Woman's work is vigorous, cooperative and strengthening. The Young People's work prospers wherever there is adequate leadership. Organized Men's work is lacking. A few churches have developed promising programs, notably First Church, Phoenix. We welcome the new organization of Methodist Men and pledge our cooperation.

Jesus taught His disciples to pray, "Thy kingdom come on earth . . . for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever". With such a prayer there is no reason for timidity, apologies or hopeless pessimism. Shall we not lift up our heads with confident assurance and faith that admits no denials, but labors indefatigably to building the Kingdom of God in every community?

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Your Board of Trustees brings again a report of progress in the management of the funds entrusted to its care. The statistical matters included in the report are all based upon the annual audit of the Fund for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1937. The Balance Sheet, together with a condensed operating report certified by the auditors, will be found printed in its usual place in the Journal.

During the year we have pursued steadily the goals outlined in our report printed in the Journal of 1936. The facts given below justify the statement that the year has been a year of real progress. Improvement in general economic conditions have helped somewhat, particularly in the appreciation of values in the securities owned. Owing to the age and condition of most of the properties in possession of the Board, they have not shared in any marked degree in the general recovery. Where more than 63 per cent of property values lie in buildings, which range from 15 to 50 years in age, it is hardly to be expected that the other 37 per cent of the values represented by these properties will appreciate sufficiently to overcome the depreciation in buildings and equipment. The major factor in our gains has been the splendid cooperation of the annuitants who not only consented to accept during the two-year period ended April 30, 1937, a 25 per cent of the original annuities covenanted, but have also consented either to cash settlements based upon approximately 50 per cent of the legal reserve value of their contracts, or to a re-writing of these contracts on a basis of 50 per cent of the original annuities promised. The effect of this has been equivalent to cash donations of over $125,000.00 to the Fund. All these revised contracts, large enough to be reinsured, have been transferred to the Board of Pensions & Relief in Chicago, which has issued its bonds, reinsured with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York. Our annuitants, therefore, have not only made a magnificent contribution to our Fund, but have enabled us to put them in a position of complete security for the future, so far as these incomes are concerned.

To judge of the real improvements in the Fund since the inauguration of the policies now being pursued, we should go back to the date of September 1, 1935, when the policies were adopted. The Balance Sheet of August 31, 1935 shows total liabilities and annuitants' reserve equalling 83.9 per cent of our total assets. On April 30, 1937, the end of our fiscal year, these liabilities and annuitants' reserve represented only 44.6 per cent of our total assets. For every dollar of assets which has been consumed between these dates, there has been wiped out $1.36 of liability. During this period of twenty months there has been an increase of a little over 107 per cent in the net worth of the Fund, which now stands at $281,270.11. This compares with a net worth of $211,734.81 reported a year ago, an improvement for the fiscal year amounting to $69,535.30. In the two-year period since April 30, 1935, there has been a reduction of $561,918.46 in liabilities and reserve, all interest-bearing or carrying equivalent annuity obligations. Of this reduction $372,779.36 has occurred during the fiscal year just closed.

The importance of this reduction is more clearly seen when the relation of our annual interest and annuity charges to our total available income for the past year is compared with that for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1935. In that year the gross income, after direct property expense had been charged, but before depreciation, amounted to $33,089.47. The combined interest and annuity charges for the same year amounted to $61,135.67, an excess of charges over income of $28,046.20. For the year ended April 30, 1937, gross income, after direct property expense had been charged, but before depreciation, had been reduced, owing to sales of income property, to the sum of $32,879.72; but the combined interest and annuity charges for the year had been reduced, owing to our liquidations, to $21,486.08, resulting in an excess of income over expense for these items in the sum of $11,393.64, an improvement over the former year amounting to $39,439.92. During the year we have still further reduced the accumulated operating deficit which stood at $198,176.93 last year, leaving a present deficit of $166,321.40. The figure of chief importance among all those given, however, is that which represents the net worth of the Fund, which now stands as above stated at $281,270.18. When the net worth of today is compared with that at our low point on August 31, 1935, when it stood at $134,388.75, it will be noted that the total gain for the twenty-month period has been $146,881.43, notwithstanding the fact that during that same period we have absorbed book losses through the sale and depreciation of properties totalling $146,791.60. These losses amount to $258.47 more than the total net worth shown in the audit of 1935.

While these figures are a source of gratification, it would be unfair to the Conference not to forewarn its members that there are losses yet to be taken on the properties still held by the Fund, and that we no longer will have annuity adjustments to counterbalance them. In other words, the net worth here reported will very probably be subjected to future shrink, unless additions to the Fund in the way of capital donations can be made in sufficient volume to offset these future losses, which will be taken when, and as, the properties are sold, and their values are adjusted to our actual sales experience.

Greater even than the substantial improvement in dollars and cents shown in the above given statements, though because of it, is the fact that the Fund as a whole can now be safely and truthfully said to be solvent and out of danger. The major task of the Board will be to consolidate the gains which have been made, and to re-adjust investments so as to produce larger income and restore the Fund again to a position where it can provide funds for the support of its beneficiaries. It may require another full year before such accumulation can begin. We are now, however, definitely on the way to this goal. One technical difficulty will need to be removed. We still show an operating deficit accumulated over years in the sum of $166,321.40. Technically we should not make contributions until our earned income from operations, plus credits to surplus from non-operative sources, had wiped out this deficit. Corporations, however, are permitted to cancel their deficits by writing-down their Capital in an equal amount, and may then set aside funds for their beneficiaries out of earned income. We have in effect done this already in our accounting by subtracting the deficit from capital donations in order to arrive at the net worth figure given above. We are proposing, when the time arrives that the deficit is the only barrier to appropriations for the benefit of the Conference Claimants, to write-down our capital donations by the amount of the then existing deficit in order that the Fund may begin consistently to make contribution to the beneficiaries in whose interest it was created. This statement is made for the information of the Conference, and the adoption of this report will signify approval of our proposed procedure.

The year has witnessed a large reduction in the Board of Stewards Deficiency. At this writing 153 men in the Conference have paid all or part of their assessments, the aggregate amount received this year to date of May 21st being $5,229.25. This is $275.83 more than was contributed to the same date last year. The policies adopted in 1935 for a three-year period will completely wipe out this indebtedness during the coming year, at the same time cutting the assessment on the effective men and increasing the distribution to claimants. Your Board recommends the following modifications of the plan heretofore adopted:

(1) That the Commission on Finance be authorized and instructed to turn over to the Board of Trustees any balance over $5,000 remaining in the Conference Claimants Fund after the distribution to Conference Claimants of an amount arrived at by multiplying the total years of effective service by the rates prevailing in the Conferences where service was rendered, as such rate is fixed by the Board of Pensions and Relief. Any balance turned over shall be applied as a credit on the Board of Stewards Deficiency Fund. Nothing in this action is to be interpreted as limiting the Board of Stewards in handling any surplus.

(2) That we levy an assessment equalling 1 per cent of the total cash salaries to be paid during the coming Conference year, distributing the assessment to the effective men on the graduated scale used during the past two years. This will be one-half the amount assessed for this purpose during the year just closed.

The adoption of these two recommendations should enable us completely to liquidate this deficit during the year.

Problems connected with the German Merger have been brought nearer to solution during the year just closed. The former German properties at San Jose were sold during the year and brought to the Fund a little over $10,000.00 net cash. The property at Orange, and the Compton Avenue German property (formerly known as Emmanuel Church) have been sold under sales contract, bringing to the Fund in cash and receivables $8,481.41. Negotiations are under way looking toward transfer of other properties, and a better mutual understanding has been reached with the governing bodies holding properties which should ultimately come to the endowment Fund.

The Hough Fund, created in 1895 by Rev. A. M. Hough, a former member of this Conference, and his wife Anna G. Hough, for the benefit of necessitous cases among Conference Claimants, is administered by a Board of Trustees of which the Conference Board of Trustees is an ex-officio part, representing 7/10s of the membership. Since no separate report is made by the Hough Board, some reference to the Fund and its status will not be out of place here. The auditors' balance sheet and certified statement will be found printed elsewhere in the Journal. The attention of the Board has been directed to the fact that a major part of the values reported year after year is still represented by two pieces of property originally given by the founder, and which were given appreciated values in successive appraisals, both during and after the lifetime of the donors. They were located in what at the time they were given was the center of the city's life. Since then the trend of development has left them in what is technically known as a blighted area. At the present time they, with a few other smaller pieces of property, represent approximately 70 per cent of the value of the Fund, and earn almost nothing beyond taxes and expense of maintenance. This explains the meager dividend which the Hough Fund has been reporting in recent years. We are glad to report this year an increase of this appropriation from $1,000.00 to $1,500.00. The Conference is also forewarned that it will be the purpose of the Board during the coming year to re-study these properties and to re-adjust book values to reflect the present worth. This will doubtless result in a sharp cut in the total worth of the Fund as it is reported, and has been reported, in recent years.

In view of the general confusion with reference to the future of the whole pension problem in our Conference, your Board of Trustees believes that serious attention should be given immediately to the working out of some adequate and comprehensive security program for the retired ministers of our Conference and their dependents. At the present time three groups in our organization have some responsibility in the matter, namely, Board of Stewards, Commission on Finance, and Board of Trustees. To these should be added the special committee appointed at the last Conference to seek some way of introducing the class received in 1936 into the pension plan controlled and administered by the Board of Pensions & Relief in Chicago. As a step toward a constructive solution of the problem it is recommended that we ask the appointment of a special commission to consist of two representatives from each of the three Boards mentioned, which group shall be authorized to select three additional members chosen because of their special qualifications for the task, to which commission shall be delegated the responsibility for making a complete study along the following lines:

(1) To ascertain the cost and determine the feasibility of bringing our whole pension problem under the care of the Board of Pensions and Relief in Chicago.

(2) To study and report upon the feasibility of some comprehensive plan to be developed within our own Conference to meet the retirement pension problem which we face.

This recommendation is made in the conviction that provision for the aged ministers and their dependents must always remain the responsibility of the Church. No social security legislation being considered by the various governing bodies in the Country proposes to include these workers. The Federal legislation distinctly and in terms excludes them. They remain, and will remain, the wards of the Church. We should not drift without a definite program. It is, however, recognized that unification may introduce new factors into the problem and may possibly provide new solutions. It is the conviction of your Board, nevertheless, that immediate study should begin so that we shall find a workable plan for handling an increasingly difficult situation in case the Church at large does not provide a church-wide program.

In closing this report the Board records again its grateful appreciation of the cooperation which it has received from the annuitants whose generosity has been the chief factor in making possible the salvaging of the Fund. Similar appreciation and gratitude go to the men of the Conference, both effective and retired, who have borne the burden of the withholdings and the assessments which will, when continued through the coming year, have made possible the entire wiping out of the Board of Stewards Deficiency. Special thanks should go to E. E. Helms and Roy L. Smith for counsel and help in handling special problems; to Irvin A. Engle, of Whittier, for help in securing annuities; and to E. Dow Hoffman, of Fullerton, for suggestion resulting in the inclusion of the Fund in the provisions of a will.

OREN B. WAITE.

BOARD OF CONFERENCE STEWARDS

Of necessity this can only be an incomplete report, because so much of the information needed to make a complete report is not as yet available.

The Board of Conference Stewards recommend:

1. That the Annuity Rate for this year be fixed at $18 for each year of approved service.

2. That every member of the Annual Conference appointed to any field of labor than the pastorate or District Superintendency, who shall fail to furnish annually to the Statistician of his Conference, at the time of the Conference Session, a statement of his financial support, shall forfeit his Annuity claim for that year. Paragraph 675-5.

3. The Board of Stewards names the apportionment for men in Special Appointments at $150 for the coming year. This amount shall apply to all members in special appointments who receive as much as the average Conference salary, including house rent—a lesser graduated amount for those who receive less than such average salary. This amount to be apportioned to those organizations and institutions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and/or those organizations and institutions which have been approved by a three-fourths vote of the Annual Conference, who do not provide a pension for his years of service therein. Paragraph 952-5 and Paragraph 947-1(c).

Statement as to Annuity Procedure This Coming Year

The Board of Bishops has ruled that the new plan adopted by the General Conference of 1936 is in full effect as of June 1, 1937.

Each annual Conference is now responsible for the annuity of each claimant, for the years served in that Conference.

Each annuitant will have his annuity calculated according to the annuity rate of the Conference in which he has served.

The conference in which a member retires will pay his entire annuity. The General Conference has constituted the Board of Pensions and Relief a clearing house for making the adjustment of debits and credits between the Conferences.

The Clearing House in Chicago makes the calculation of every annuitant's claim. These calculations will reach us after this Conference session adjourns. We will not know the amount of any annuitant's claim until they arrive. If they fail to arrive before July 1, we will mail checks to all annuitants in part payment of what we expect their quarterly annuity to be.

Your Conference Stewards Recommend the Following as a Standing Rule of the Conference:

When any organization or institution requests the appointment of a member of this Conference to its work, the Cabinet shall notify such body before appointment is made, that it will be expected to pay to the Conference Treasurer each year, an amount to be apportioned by the Board of Stewards (Par. 952-5) except those institutions which provide a pension; unless this appointee shall assume the obligation.

These amounts shall be placed on deposit with the Board of Pensions and Relief to help pay his Annuity when he shall become a Claimant. If there shall be delinquency in payment of such apportionments, unless the appointee shall pro rate the claim with his salary, a record shall be kept as provided in Article 19, Paragraph 961-3.

When he or his family become claimants, a part of the Annuity shall be disallowed until the delinquency shall be paid. Article 16, Par. 958-1.

In the 1936 Discipline a new question appears in the order of business of the Annual Conference, namely, "What institutions and organizations are approved by three-quarters vote of the Conference for the appointment of ministers in the Effective relation, with annuity claim?" (238-26, P. 108).

Paragraph 947-1, 2 provides that years served in a Methodist Episcopal institution whose entire governing body is elected by the General Conference or by an Annual Conference are automatically approved for annuity. Years served in other institutions since May 29, 1924, may not be counted for annuity unless they shall have been formally approved by the Annual Conference.

We find that the following institutions to which we have members appointed, meet the disciplinary requirements for automatic approval of annuity: The Board of Education, Board of Home Missions; Board of Foreign Missions; Garrett Biblical Institute; Drew University; Wesley Foundation; Board of Pensions and Relief; Cornell College; Pacific Old Peoples' Home; Spanish American Institute; The Hawaiian Mission; The Latin American Mission.

The institutions not meeting the Disciplinary requirements for automatic approval are: The Goodwill Industries; University of Southern California; Occidental College, Chapman College and the National Council for Prevention of War.

Without knowledge of the exact provisions of the Discipline, the Conference at the last session approved these institutions for the year just now closing. (Page 40 of Minutes).

Two things need to be determined.

1. Shall these institutions be approved for annuity for the years between 1924 and 1936?

2. Shall they be approved for future years?

We recommend that the Goodwill Industries and the School of Religion at U.S.C. be approved for past and future years; the University of Southern California be approved for past years.

If Conference members appointed to institutions not approved feel that such institution should be approved, they will be given opportunity to state their case before the Board of Stewards during the year and the matter can be determined finally at the next session of the Conference.

O. L. ENYEART, Secretary.

BOARD OF PENSIONS AND RELIEF

After carefully considering the idea of the 1936 Conference Class of the Southern California Conference entering the new plan of Pensions and Relief of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the special committee recommends that the Conference defer action at the present time for the following reasons:

First, the initial expense necessary to inaugurate the plan is too great. (Dr. T. A. STAFFORD, Treasurer of the Board, states that at least an initial reserve fund of not less than $150,000.00 would be required to initiate the pensioning of the 1936 class of 5 men under the new plan.)

Second, the fact of unification of the Methodist Church, South, Methodist Protestant Church and Methodist Episcopal Church impends.

Third, the committee feels this plan can be more effectively established along Connectional or Jurisdictional lines rather than by the various Conferences working separately.

PAUL HUEBNER.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

The Commission on Finance has attempted, during the past Conference year, to accomplish three major objectives:

1. To apportion equitably to the churches the amounts ordered to be raised by the 1936 Conference;

2. To convince the churches that the apportionments sent them were equitable in division and that it was their duty to accept and pay in full the amounts apportioned to them; and

3. To induce the churches to care for their Conference and World Service responsibilities on a regular monthly basis. A closer analysis of these endeavors will be helpful.

The problem of apportioning the amounts ordered by the Annual Conference on a equitable basis has been a problem confronting the Commission for many years. During the past six years no less than five different committees have been appointed by the Commission to study the method of apportioning with a view to improving this method. Each time the committees have reported that they had failed to discover a more fair basis of handling the problem.

This "Grade Figure" method employs a three year survey of each church in the Conference, covering membership, pastoral support and benevolent giving. The ratio of each church to the Conference total for each of the three factors reveals the relative strength that each church has. The ratios of the three factors are averaged in order to eliminate, as far as it is humanly possible, any possible penalty or advantage due to unusually heavy or light ratios which may exist because of some peculiar condition, such as a large membership in a poor community, or a small, wealthy membership. The Commission recognizes that no mechanical method of figuring can be perfect, and for this reason it is imperative that some adjustments be made after the "Grade Figure" apportionment has been obtained. These adjustments, made by the Commission, are definitely a part of the method used in arriving at an equitable apportionment for the various churches, and the Commission requests the Conference to approve the apportionments which have been made on the basis of this method of adjustment.

With very few exceptions the churches have accepted their apportionments and have made a real effort to pay their share of the total amount needed. In the cases where there have been objections made to the apportionments, the difficulties have usually been ironed out when an understanding of all of the factors involved has been reached. Likewise, many churches have adopted the suggestions of the Commission with reference to monthly payments, and have systematically paid their Conference obligations, as they have other obligations, on a monthly basis, thus eliminating the end-of-the-year campaign to pay apportionments.

There are a few recommendations which the Commission wishes to make to the Conference. The new pension legislation, ordering the divided annuity responsibility, effective as soon after June 1, 1937 as possible, has raised the hopes of the churches for a reduction in apportionment for Conference Claimants, and has raised the hopes of the Claimants for an increase in the Annuity Rate. In order to discourage anticipations which cannot be realized, the Commission recommends to the Board of Stewards and to the Conference that any relief which may come to it as a result of the new legislation be divided so that 50 per cent of the relief will be used for the benefit of Conference Claimants, and 50 per cent will be used to decrease apportionments to the churches. This relief, however, cannot come before the 1938 Conference.

With reference to the division of receipts from the churches for the Entertainment, Travel, Minute and Office Expense apportionment this year, we recommend that the funds be paid out in the following order:

1. $1000.00 for the entertainment fund for retired men at this Conference, whose residences are outside of the city of Los Angeles, on the basis of $2.50 per day, in accordance with the order of the 1936 Conference;
2. $1600.00 for the publication of the Annual Journal;
3. Entertainment and travel allowances to the ministers on the basis of $1.00 per day for 5 days plus mileage allowance on the basis of 1c per mile over 25 miles and under 200 miles, or 1½c per mile over 200 miles, and to lay delegates on the basis of $1.00 per day for three days, plus mileage allowance on the same basis as to ministers, with the provision that the allowance be paid on exactly the same percentage as the church from which the minister and lay delegate comes has paid its apportionment to this fund;
4. The balance of the receipts to be credited to the expenses of the Treasurer's office.

For the purpose of more accurate records, we recommend that each separate society of a circuit be required to file a separate statistical report, and that in printing the statistics in the Journal the reports of the societies comprising a circuit be printed separately, if possible.

After careful consideration, the Commission recommends the following apportionments for 1937-38:

District Superintendents	$24,000.00
Episcopal Fund	11,065.27
Conference Claimants'	90,000.00
City Mission (L. A. District only)	10,000.00

The apportionment for Entertainment and Travel is estimated to make possible the payment of the same rate to lay delegates as to ministers at the 1938 Conference.

In conclusion the Commission wishes to offer the services of its Treasurer and its office to any who may be in need of the services which it can render. During the past year numerous individuals, committees and boards have come to the office for information and assistance. The treasurer has met with several finance committees in response to requests for information and explanation about the Conference apportionments.

In addition to the regular funds ordered apportioned by the Annual Conference, the Treasurer has handled the funds for the Fraternal Aid Society, Fellowship Fund, Conference Missionary Society, World Service Council, and Conference Board of Home Missions.

The cooperation of pastors and treasurers of local churches has been greatly appreciated, and has done much to make the work of the Commission go smoothly.

R. O. DEACON, Chairman.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Among the records of outstanding achievements made by Methodist agencies during the past year must be recorded some of the activities of the Conference Missionary Society. Organized over thirty years ago in order to meet the needs within the Conference not otherwise provided for, this Society has been receiving new life because of increased cooperation from the churches after a period of dormancy.

The aim of the society has been four-fold in importance in the order named: 1. To supplement low salaries in needy charges. 2. To meet financial emergencies in parsonage homes, such as the need for hospitalization, food and clothes. 3. To provide funds to open new fields for Methodism. 4. To subsidize financial and evangelistic campaigns in charges where real need for such assistance exists.

To do this work the Society, by Annual Conference approval, this year apportioned to the churches a total of $12,000. If more nearly 100 per cent of the apportionment had been paid in, the effectiveness of the work done could be greatly increased. It is a source of gratitude, however, to be able to report that collections from the churches during the past two years have increased almost fifty per cent.

Added to the other functions of the Society will be the duty of providing the major part of the funds needed to carry out the new Equitable Support Plan. Because of this added responsibility, the Society is asking the Conference to increase its apportionment this year, rather than to apportion an additional amount directly to the Equitable Support Plan.

A total of $7200 will be needed from the Conference Missionary Society for the work of the Equitable Support Commission. This is almost as much as the total annual collections have been from the churches during the past few years. This year we are asking the Commission on Finance to apportion $14,000 to the churches, in order that sufficient funds will be available for the other phases of the Conference Missionary Society program. Pastors and lay delegates of the Conference are urged to bring this added responsibility of the Conference Missionary Society to the attention of the Official Boards, with a sincere hope that the churches will get behind this worthy project financially.

Although many of these cases assisted by the Society from the Fund administered by it cannot be publicized, the Society is anxious that the lay membership, as well as the ministers of the Conference, know of some of the worthy assistance given. During the present Conference year 64 charges have received assistance from this Society. Consider some of the cases:

A disheartened community on the desert needs an aggressive young pastor to lead them . . . and a pastor's wife in the parsonage. They can raise only $800 per year. The Conference Missionary Society provides $400 for one year, and the next year the community is paying its own bill in full.

A parsonage family is suddenly smitten with misfortune. The pastor is in the hospital, and his baby daughter is the victim of infantile paralysis. The wife bravely carries on with the financial aid of the Conference Missionary Society. No greater need for missionary support exists in the Church.

A pastor is trying to "spread" himself over three communities. The three communities together can only provide $1100 per year. The people need spiritual leadership as much or more than the residents of our big cities, but they have not been cared for spiritually. A District Superintendent is able to send a man, specially fitted for the task, into the communities, to make an intensive survey of the situation, and to assist in working out the problem. In four months the people have rallied, made possible two charges instead of one, and are paying $2280 per year instead of $1100. Was not this a profitable investment for Methodism?

A charge, struggling under heavy financial stress because of a huge per capita building debt, has an opportunity to make an advantageous settlement, but needs just a few more dollars than it can possibly raise within the time limit. The Conference Missionary Society is able to change defeat into victory for less than $100, and a disheartened and discouraged flock takes new hope.

A pastor with unexpected medical expense to meet faces Christmas with less than $1.00 in his pocket and hungry mouths to be fed and expectant hearts that cannot be disappointed. A District Superintendent and Uncle Sam's special delivery service together get a check to a discouraged and baffled member of the Conference, and his most precious possession awakes on Christmas morning to find that there truly is a Santa Claus.

Several churches with an honorable past had arrived where it seemed necessary to close. A survey indicated that we should carry on. Sufficient missionary subsidy from the Conference Missionary Society was provided to support virile young pastors, under whose leadership these churches are on the way up to renewed life and service.

These are not fancied situations. They actually occurred, every one of them, within the last twelve months. They are only a few of the 64 cases assisted this year. Is not the small amount asked of the churches for this work more than justified?

The Society earnestly requests the Churches of the Conference to give their cooperation and financial support, in order that the work of the Society may be carried on more efficiently, and that the many needs may be more adequately provided for.

DONALD A. ODELL, Chairman.

LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society is the agency of the Methodist Episcopal Church for dealing with the problems of a great metropolitan area. It has no endowments and no funds except such as are contributed by the churches of the Los Angeles district. In its work the Society has accumulated obligations to the extent of $87,000; during the year definite progress has been made toward the liquidation of the major part of these obligations.

The City Missionary Society is uniting with the ministers and churches of the Los Angeles district, in the coming year, in a three-fold, forward program, having as its objective the following purposes:

First—To liquidate the indebtedness of the City Missionary Society, and reduce the indebtedness on the churches of the district.

Second—The revitalization of members who have drifted away from the Church.

Third—The definite extension of the influence of the Church over the lives of multitudes of people now beyond its touch.

The work of the Society is carried on through the monthly meetings of a devoted group of outstanding business men of the Church.

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

Work Done:

The World Service Council of the Southern California Conference has acted this year as a liaison office between the Boards of the Church, and the pastors and charges of this Conference. It has carried on correspondence with our Foreign Mission field and the World Service Commission. It has arranged opportunities for missionaries, educational leaders and general Board Secretaries to speak at local churches. It has helped in the circulation of missionary and World Service literature. But its major work has been threefold.

First:—The preparation, promotion and carrying through a most successful cultivation program, which embraced the entire Conference through a series of one and two day conferences. The following places were used as conference centers: San Luis Obispo, Ventura, Long Beach, Bakersfield, Fresno, Van Nuys, San Diego, Orange, Los Angeles, Alhambra, Pomona, Redlands, El Centro, Phoenix and Tucson. The Boards of the Church, including the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society furnished a corps of strong speakers. The meetings were further enriched by a fine group of preachers and lay folk who acted as resource people and contributors to the local programs. The whole program was very ably directed by Dr. J. L. Corley, Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, and the success of this series of Conferences is due in no small measure to his wise direction.

Bishop James Chamberlain Baker added much to many of these Conferences by his presence and statesmanlike leadership.

Second:—It has encouraged and sponsored a World Service Exhibit under the direction of Mr. George C. Bechtel. This exhibit has been presented at over 100 Churches and has been seen by above 28,000 people.

Third:—It has been an active agent in promoting The Million Unit Fellowship Campaign in this Conference. In this connection it provided a depot for the distribution of literature, it helped arrange interest-arousing meetings and it circularized the Conference with suggestions and tentative plans for the local churches.

Recommendations for the New Conference Year:

1st. That there be held another series of Cultivation Conferences during the month of October in the interest of World Service, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and Young People's Work and for the further promotion of The Million Unit Fellowship Campaign.

We recommend that the District Superintendents, the Chairmen of the Boards of Home Missions and Education; the Secretary for Church Schools and the Director of Young People's Work; the Presidents of the Conference Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Conference Brotherhood shall constitute the committee to arrange and carry on this educational program.

If the great missionary, educational, philanthropic work of the Church is to continue our Methodist people must be interested, informed and inspired. To that end we recommend:

That each local Church arrange and carry out a like program of education and inspiration. Further, we recommend that a special effort be made through organizations and through work under organizations already set up to give information and enlist the interest of the men and young men of our Churches.

It is further suggested that in the World Service Cultivation Program that the areas covered by the meetings shall be smaller, that the purpose shall be training leaders, that informing charts be used and that slides be prepared for two illustrated lectures, one covering work within the Southern California Conference and one touching the general work of the Church as to missions and education.

2nd. Foochow Area: As far as is consistent with the wishes of individuals and churches under the law of the Church we recommend that the Foochow Area shall be the Foreign Mission Field of responsibility of this Conference and that all funds for Foreign Missions not otherwise designated shall be applied to this field. In every way possible let us focus the mind of our people upon this historic and important field of missionary opportunity. Let us build a bridge of understanding interest and spiritual fellowship between each Church and the Foochow Area.

But while this Conference directs its main giving to the Foochow Area, we believe that it is important that our people should be kept informed about our total Foreign Mission work and be led to feel a deepening responsibility for the world wide parish.

3rd. Home Missions: The attention and generosity of Southern California Methodism should be directed also toward the work of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for three reasons that apply directly to our situation:

(1) The main work of the Board of Home Missions for Japanese, Mexican, Hawaiian, Chinese and Filipino centers in this Conference.

(2) The problem of transients and casual labor migrants is particularly heavy in Southern California. The spiritual care of these peoples is a Home Mission responsibility.

(3) The steady inflow of new people into this area makes Southern California a religious frontier calling for new or enlarged churches. Like the old geographical frontier, this new frontier must have Home Mission assistance. But if we hope for a generous answer to our needs we as a Conference must loyally back the Home Mission Board by our World Service giving.

Particularly we recommend that the amounts for the various causes which follow shall be the appropriate share of these amounts to be given to each charge, under these heads:

(a) General District Maintenance$ 8,920.00

(b) Maintenance for territorial and racial work:

(1) Alaska 1,000.00

(2) Hawaiian Mission 6,000.00

(3) Chinese and Filipino Mission 3,500.00

(4) Japanese Mission 4,000.00

(5) Mexican Work:

I. Spanish American Institute 4,000.00

II. Plaza Community Center 3,500.00

III. Latin American Mission 12,000.00

TOTAL$42,920.00

(c) Board of Home Missions General Fund$25,480.00

4th. Board of Education: Believing that the Educational progress being carried on in this Conference through the Church Schools, through young people's work and through the Wesley Foundation is one of the most important in Methodism, we request the Board of Education in Chicago to include in its budget and askings from the World Service Commission for Educational Work in the Southern California Conference $16,500.00 to be applied as follows:—

(1) Conference Church Schools$5,000.00

(2) Wesley Foundation 6,800.00

Applied as follows:

Conference Director of Wesley

Foundations (U.C.L.A. and L.A.J.C.)....$3,500.00

University Religious Conference

(U.C.L.A. and L.A.J.C.) 1,000.00

Stanford 600.00

Berkeley 600.00

Tucson 800.00

Tempe 300.00

(3) Further we ask for $3500.00 for Rally Day, and

(4) $1,200.00 for the 24 Hour Day Work.

We further request the Board of Education in Chicago to approve these amounts for World Service Credit on apportionment from the local churches.

5th. Negro Education: Since the Churches in this Conference are becoming familiar with the work being done at Samuel Huston College for Negroes and a bond of interest has been created between our Churches and this College, we recommend that World Service Funds from this Conference applicable to Negro Education be designated to Samuel Huston College. Amount—$3,000.00

6th. Other Boards: We recommend the interests of other Boards of the Church, namely; Board of Pensions and Relief, Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, Board of Hospitals, Homes and Deaconess Work, and The American Bible Society to our churches for sympathetic and intelligent support and backing in their great work of providing hospitalization for the sick, pensions for the retired Veterans of the Cross, the circularization of Bibles and carrying to victory great moral reforms.

We request the pastors and church treasurers to remit all World Service funds through our Conference Treasurer's office, and that monthly remittance be made from that office to the Chicago office.

We further request all agencies within the Conference receiving World Service payments from individuals, groups or churches, to forward such payments to our Conference Treasurer's office to be included in the regular Conference remittances to the Boards, rather than remit such payments direct to the Boards.

World Service Askings for 1937-1938: The World Service apportionment to this Conference is 17,789 Units, or $213,468.00. We recommend that we accept $180,000.00 as the apportionment for this Conference and that we try to raise this sum for the World Service causes.

Means of Attaining Goal:

If this goal is reached the members in all churches must be made intelligent about the great causes represented in this report. Then their interest must be aroused and finally their loyal generosity secured.

This will require education and personal effort, but most of all it will require prayer and an awakened and enriched spiritual life in churches.

Our greatest need is for a more vital spiritual experience and for a more thoroughgoing dedication of substance, of service and of self to the work of God. For such a work of Grace your Council prays.

WILLSIE MARTIN.

WESTERN REPRESENTATIVE OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

Your representative is very happy to report to this conference a very busy year in the San Francisco Office of the Board of Foreign Missions.

Missionaries passing through the city feel free to make the office their headquarters and we are able to render them service in many ways. It has been our privilege to meet them at the pier as they arrive in San Francisco, aid them with Customs procedure, make hotel reservations at reduced rates, advise with them regarding their transportation problems, secure clergy rates, make contacts with our Board's examining physician, assist them with shopping, and in other ways. Also, more and more the missionaries on the field are writing us asking us to make shipments of varied products to them.

The San Francisco Office of the Board of Foreign Missions has the responsibility of initiating the first steps in personnel procedure in ten western states, contacting and keeping in touch with young people desirous of investing their lives in foreign missionary service. Local personnel committee meetings are held under our direction whenever necessary.

When requests come to us, we are always happy to help churches, Epworth Leagues and other church organizations to plan missionary services and frequently provide missionary speakers, thus keeping the work of our Board before the people.

Besides the great responsibility of answering the many letters which come to us from California, Arizona and Nevada regarding investments, annuities, etc., during the year several hundred calls are made on prospects and annuitants of the Board throughout this western territory. Each spring several weeks of intensive endeavor are given to this work in Southern California. Every year some thousands of dollars of annuities are sold, and also real estate and estate notes are received by the Board through our efforts on this Coast. However, we feel very well repaid for our work when we hear the words of commendation and satisfaction from our annuitants who were fortunate enough to have invested in bonds of the Board of Foreign Missions, and thus received an income during the depression. Some of our friends and annuitants have said that but for the income from the Board's annuities they would have had a very hard time getting through the depression period. Your representative can always approach a prospect with confidence because of the fact that we have not failed in seventy years to meet our dividend payments when they are due.

Miss Marjorie Merrill, our office secretary, divides her time with the Epworth League Office, the Department of Christian Education and the Stereopticon Department, thus making it possible to operate our San Francisco Office with a minimum of expense to our Board.

JOHN TUNNICLIFFE.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON SURVEY OF FORMER GERMAN CHURCH PROPERTIES

The Commission on Survey of Former German Church Properties has held two meetings during the Conference year. Its activities have been confined for the most part to the cultivation of better understanding between this Conference and the California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the cultivation of friendly relations with various congregations still carrying on work in the German language. Two meetings have been held with representatives of the First German Church in Los Angeles with the result of a better mutual understanding of the situation, and appreciation of our mutual problems. As a result of these meetings, the Quarterly Conference of the First German Church made a special appropriation of $500.00 for the benefit of the Conference Endowment Fund. Similar action was taken by the Board of Trustees of the Pacific Old People's Home, which organization has made a special appropriation of $2,000.00, thereby returning to the basis of contribution which prevailed before the depression.

Three properties have been sold during the year: those at Orange and San Jose; and the Compton Avenue, formerly known as the Emanuel, Church in Los Angeles. Proceeds from the sale of these properties have been added to the Conference Endowment Fund. Thus far none of the properties located within the bounds of the California Annual Conference, other than those at San Jose and Stockton previously reported, have been transferred to the Southern California Annual Conference, though friendly relations prevail, and steps are being taken to secure a more complete understanding regarding the matter, and if possible to hasten the processes of transfer.

The year closes with brighter prospects of an ultimate solution of the problems involved in the Merger. Your Commission desires to express its appreciation of the cooperation of our Bishop James Chamberlain Baker in furthering by his presence and counsel all the efforts which have been made to bring about the desired settlements. Appreciation also goes to various members of the former California German Conference who have used their influence to bring about mutual understandings, and to put our Conference Board of Trustees in possession of the property which should ultimately come to us under the merger.

All told the year has been one of progress, for which we give thanks. Looking forward to the coming Conference year we urgently request all pastors of German-speaking congregations to use their influence in promoting among their own laymen, and especially their official members, the idea of full and complete cooperation in carrying out the intent and the terms of the merger as adopted in 1927.

In view of the need of continued contacts with the Merger Commission of the California Annual Conference, we recommend the continuance of our own Commission for another year.

HARDY A. INGHAM.

ALDERS GATE STREET BI CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

"In a day of confusion and appalling need, the Christian Church is challenged. A pronounced advance is demanded in Christlike living and evangelistic effort. Something is desperately needed to change conditions in the whole world.

The General Conference Commission on Evangelism believes that this Aldersgate year may be the turning point to a new era of the Methodist Movement."

Your Commission fully agrees with the above statement by Bishop Ralph Cushman and the further statement of Stanley Jones that "We cannot go further until we go deeper."

This seems to use to be a providential hour. Methodism was born when John Wesley was born again. "Wesley was the greatest philanthropist and social reformer of the eighteenth century," but this reform grew out of his deep spiritual experience.

Your Commission earnestly hopes and fervently prays that this anniversary year will see the greatest spiritual advance we have known for a century.

We therefore recommend:

1. That all we people called Methodists seek a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit.
2. That we make this year a year of Evangelism and Christian Experience.
3. That we use every method possible, the revival meeting, the prayer meeting, the Study circle to revitalize our spiritual lives.
4. That we ask all our groups and organizations, the women, the young people, the men, the district meetings, the preachers' meetings to put the Alders Gate Bi Centennial first in plan and program.
5. That we expect a glorious climax on May 24th, 1938, and that the anniversary of the convention of John Wesley with Easter and Pentecost may see Methodism recommissioned to spread Scriptural holiness through the world.

FRED H. ROSS.

EVANGELIST-AT-LARGE

It has seemed best for me this year to use the many opportunities that come to speak only to various churches and groups in and near Los Angeles, regarding the social implications of the Gospel. This I have done, the only exception being a week spent with some 500 students at Asilomar during December. The results have seemed to me highly worth while, for I have been permitted to declare the mind of Jesus to many who do not habitually attend church.

For these services I have neither asked nor received remuneration except for necessary expenses so have no financial report to make. During the Conference year I have made 110 such addresses.

E. P. RYLAND.

EVANGELIST REPORT

During this conference year, I have held 22 meetings, as follows:

Six campmeetings—Spencerville and Warsaw, Ohio; Brushton and Houghton, New York; Romeo, Michigan; and Springerton, Illinois.

Two Prayer Conferences—First Missionary Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and University Avenue Nazarene Church, San Diego, California.

Fourteen revival meetings—one in the Evangelistic Tabernacle, Huntington Park, California; one in the First Missionary Church, Royal Oak, Michigan; one in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Coquille, Oregon; five in Nazarene churches in Portland, Maine, Danielson, Connecticut, La Habra, California; Marshfield and Oregon City, Oregon; six in Methodist Episcopal churches in Thoburn, Detroit, Michigan, California Heights, Long Beach, and Yorba Linda, California, Tremonton, Utah, and Park Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The past year has given me much for which to thank God. He has given journeying mercy, strength for the work, and above all that personal attendance and unction of the Holy Spirit that has made the truth of the Gospel effective in bringing many into saving and sanctifying relation to Christ. I have found that the old gospel of full salvation still appeals to young and old of every class and occupation in life, and is as effective as ever in delivering from sin and maturing godliness of life and character. My personal testimony is that Christ abides in my heart in all the fullness of His salvation. I am deeply in love with my Lord, and find His service a constant delight and satisfaction.

For my work this year, I have received $2493.34.

With deep appreciation of my appointment to this wonderful work of evangelism.

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

METHODIST CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

The Methodist Camp Meeting Association is praying and working for the renaissance of a triumphant evangelism. Though swift, radical, revolutionary changes have swept us in recent years into economic, industrial, political, and social situations entirely new to our day, there seems to be no evidence to show that man's moral delinquency need is any less than in other days.

The strangely warmed heart will always be a strangely changed heart, a truly integrated personality, a new creation in Christ.

There is an essential truth in the saying that the true way to serve God is to save men. The work of saving men generates the spirit that also serves men. Jesus is able to save to the uttermost all those who come to God through Him. He is our regenerator, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin. To emphasize the saving power of our Christ for youth and age our Association is conducting its annual Methodist Assembly in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Long Beach, beginning Sunday, August 15th, and closing Sunday, August 22nd. This year we are fortunate to have Dr. Clovis G. Chappell, a speaker of high repute in the M. E. Church South, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to preach every morning and evening. Our own inimitable Bishop George A. Miller, missionary to the Latin-American Republics, will give an address every afternoon, and the warm-hearted scholar, Dr. Carl Sumner Knoff, Dean of the School of Religion, U.S.C., will be our Bible expositor every morning, and Mrs. Iva Yeoman, specialist in the field of religious education, will conduct a morning children's hour.

We wish also to hold a retreat for preachers and all who long for the power of Pentecost. Rev. William A. Jennings will supervise the music, Rev. Fred Ross has complete charge of Youth Day Friday, August 20th. A fifty cent banquet will be served but all young people of high school age will be charged only twenty-five cents.

These meetings are made possible through the kind cooperation of this Conference, the gracious pastor host, Dr. R. N. Merrill, and the generous action of the Official Board of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Long Beach granting us the free use of their beautiful edifice.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The principle of coordination is at work in our Conference once more. This should be encouraged in the interest of wise economy as well as effectiveness in our work. Unnecessary duplication should be eliminated and wherever we find a Methodist organization making a contribution of value, that ought to be made available to as many of our people as possible. It is only as we inter-mesh in our activities that this can be made possible. But co-ordination and co-operation can be achieved only as leaders come to know and have confidence in each other.

Our officers, Dr. Warmer and all the others have continued most loyally and leave little to be desired in the way our affairs as a Board have been conducted. Mr. Hole's services as treasurer are invaluable. Miss Black and Miss McCaron in the office deserve our appreciation for their faithfulness and devotion to the cause we seek to serve. Dr. Phillips, chairman of the finance committee, is devoting himself with genuine interest to putting our finances on a sound basis. The heads of departments have rendered exceptionally valuable service. Too much praise cannot be given Mr. McGiffin for his management of the young people's department. Herman Beimfohr, building wisely on foundations laid by his predecessor, David Shipley, in Wesley Foundation, is getting an excellent start and his kindly, tactful spirit is bound to make for him and his work a large place in the Conference. Dr. Buckner as chairman of Wesley Foundation

Committee gives wise and helpful guidance. The voluntary leaders of the departments do not have the chance paid leaders have to give us a strong and constant program. However, for many years Miss Brown and her faithful committee have rendered our Elementary workers a genuinely creative service. The Adult Work Committee has a more difficult task. Here is a field needing the leadership of some one in position to give continuous attention. Our adult program lies in pieces "all over the lot." If it could be gathered up, pieced together, with some modern parts added, it might become something of great service. Byron Horn has recently been elected to the chairmanship of this committee and we confidentially look forward to the inauguration of a strong and aggressive program for our adult forces.

Lack of time and space permit only mere mention of the following features of our work: World Service Cultivation Conferences, fifteen in number, Sept. 24-Nov. 11, 1936; Week-day Religious Education, Wieman Seminar, Family Institute, Field Work, Committee on Church Losses, Social Studies Committee, Seminar groups at Conference, Conference Program Committee, Cooperation with Wesley Foundation, Standing Committees, Rally Day and World Service activities, California Church Council, "Go About, Talk About, Resolve About" plan, I. Hsin Liu's work and our Parish Abroad, among other things.

Complete departmental reports were made at the annual meeting of the Board in January. Following are brief excerpts from these reports:

Children's Work Committee: During the year our activities include: Thirty-eight sessions in 22 churches for set-up of Foochow Area projects among children's groups in cooperation with and financed by the Board of Foreign Missions; preliminary set-up of three sub-committees for promotion of children's work in local sections as a means of closer contact with leaders of children's work in the Conference. As an aid to the leaders in the elementary division there was prepared suggested lists of Bible stories, memory passages, and songs for us as required standards with Kindergarten, Primary and Junior groups. Looking toward the future we plan to promote the projects under the supervision of this Conference (Foochow Area, Sam Houston College, etc.), to cooperate with other agencies working with children thus saving duplication of effort, to plan definite training for our children's leaders through institutes and training conferences and to aid them at all times with their problems through correspondence.

Department of Epworth League and Young People's Work: A year ago our particular emphasis was on personal religious living. Following this, "Youth's responsibility to the Church," has been written into all our activities in our conferences, conventions, and institutes. In a specific way it has been promoted by a study of the new purposes adopted by General Conference, and by a campaign of church membership. As we plan for the coming activities our theme suggested is "Being Christian in Times Like These," which will be used throughout our summer institutes. With nearly three hundred Leagues in the Conference having an enrollment of approximately 9,000, great opportunity is offered for training in personal religious living and leadership in the church. Our six summer institutes last year report an attendance of nearly 1,400 which provided such training through their well set-up programs. Further training came throughout the year in regional conventions, seminars, mid-winter institutes, coaching conferences, officers' retreats and local chapter counselling. Our Summer institute schedule is as follows: Arizona, June 5-12; San Diego, June 26-July 3; High Sierra, July 17-24; Arroyo Grande, July 31-August 7; Radford, August 14-21; Pacific Palisades, August 21-28.

Wesley Foundation Work: Wesley Foundation in this Conference seeks to serve Methodist students at the campuses of six state and independent colleges and universities within our bounds and give financial aid to the Universities at Berkeley and Palo Alto. The Conference Director bears an advisory relationship to the Wesley Club at San Diego State College and contacts and advises groups of Methodist students at other colleges. With an organized program of religious training and activity not only in the development of personal religious living but also in helping to create the Kingdom of God in practical human relationships, the realization of these objectives is possible through: Fellowship, Discussions, Forums, Worship, Personal and Group Counselling, Guided Reading, Courses of Study, Experience in Leadership, Social Service activities, Retreats, Youth-informed Tours, Drama, Deputation Teams, Contacting Students of other racial and national groups, Recreation, Student Co-operatives, Co-ordination with Local Church Program, Inter-faith and Inter-denominational cooperation, Financial support of Wesley Foundation in Tokyo, Home Away from Home, summer institutes and State Student Conferences. The more than one thousand Methodist students in the Wesley Foundation units already in existence and the hundreds in the twenty-nine junior colleges where there is no campus-centered work, are an ever present challenge in this important work.

Spanish American Institute: This Institute is the only Christian Industrial Training School for Spanish-speaking boys in our Church. This year the enrollment is sixty with four receiving the diploma of the Institution. The Institute's objectives are to teach Mexican boys to enter life with a knowledge of something to do to make a living, to possess a high school education and to be useful citizens and Christian, active in some church. Our faculty, employees and part-time employees, number eight. Our needs are: Continued interest in and prayers on the part of our church people, the giving of gifts outside of World Service credit by people of our own conference, and that openings shall be made for bringing the boys to churches so that interest and cooperation may be maintained.

Adult Work Committee: The Committee has been recently re-organized and plans to co-ordinate the adult work, not only in the local church, but offer recommendations for community-wide movements with other agencies working with adults. It is at work on a program for young adults in our churches helping local church groups in fitting into the activities of the church. Suggested courses for adult classes are available for discussion groups, seminars and local church classes.

Women's Home Missionary Society: The education program of the W. H. M. S. in this Conference is carried forward by an adult membership of about 9000. Through Conference, District and local monthly meetings and public offering services in the churches, information regarding the work of the society is furnished. Nearly 130 auxiliaries have made use of the text book for this year's study on the American Negro. The Young People's and Junior Departments also follow the same prescribed line of study with their own textbooks. Our Society cooperates with the Council of Federated Church Women in plans and program for the Interdenominational School of Missions held each year. The summer camp for the Queen Esther groups is well attended and training in the year's program is given. The work of the Society has been presented in 16 unorganized churches, advancing missionary education among church women, and generally trying to arouse interest in our Home Missionary program.

Women's Foreign Missionary Society: Each year the W. F. M. S. concentrates on a certain country for study and inspiration, this year being the study of Africa. Complete programs are outlined for Juniors, Standard Bearers, Young Women, the Wesleyan Service Guild and the Auxiliaries. Much of the Junior work is carried on through a correlated program in the Sunday School. Our women also are interested in and study earnestly subjects pertaining to Stewardship and World Citizenship. Our auxiliaries in this conference number 180 with a membership of 9089. Looking forward to the 70th Anniversary of the founding of the Society, the celebration of which will be held in California—Pacific Branch—in the fall of 1939, the promotional plans for the Southern California Conference include the securing of: 1190 new adult members each year for 3 years, 1190 Sunset Shares ($5 each) each year; 17 Anniversary Memberships ($70 each) each year; at least one Anniversary Patron Gift ($1000) each year; and a large number of subscriptions to the "Woman's Missionary Friend."

California Church Council: Elementary councils have been organized in several communities. The Christian Youth Movement which has for its slogan, "Christian Youth Building a New World," Two important projects in the adult education field are receiving attention of the Council: the United Adult Movement and the National Laymen's Commission on Character Building. These movements represent an effort to interest Christian adults in placing the church in its rightful place in the task of Christian education. In Leadership Training, during the year 1936, 40 schools and classes were conducted throughout the Southern Area of the Council. Vacation Schools in Los Angeles County increased from 104 in 1935 to 340 in 1936. Enrollment increased from approximately 15,000 per day in 1935 to 39,363 in 1936. Coordinating Councils helped in the organization and promotion of the Schools. Interest in week-day religious education is on the up-grade. Our Week-day Committee has recently been challenged by certain Los Angeles school authorities to work out a plan for the introduction of week-day schools of religious education in Los Angeles, and as a consequence, a series of meetings with school leaders has been held in which preliminary plans have been discussed. We have found a number of principals of public schools who are eagerly willing to cooperate with us. A new feature of the summer program of the Council is the Co-educational Camp for older young people and their leaders at Idyllwild Pines, August 28-September 6th. The Methodist Episcopal Church is one of the nineteen denominational bodies which co-operate in the work of the California Church Council. Its help, both in planning and execution of the program, and in the way of finance, is greatly appreciated.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND STATE OF THE CHURCH

In his little book on stewardship Bishop Ralph S. Cushman says: "The Chicago Church Federation is authority for the statement that in Chicago the ratio of church members to those having no church connection is nine to one and is unsurpassed in any other city of a half-million or more in the United States. Protestants and Roman Catholics have each about 1,250,000 communicants, while the Jewish membership approximates 400,000. These figures are somewhat surprising in view of the rather unsavory reputation that the city has been given in the news in recent years."

This statement is enough to call our attention to the weakness in the effectiveness of the church today. Protestantism lacks power today because of its inability to speak as a unit on great issues which we face in our social life. The feeling seems widespread that that unity may be had by uniting the great denominational bodies of Protestantism, or of Methodism itself. Basic unity cannot be thus secured because such unity does not exist within those great individual groups.

Again, there is a great confusion today in the matter of evangelism. The efforts in this regard, the methods used, the appeals, the procedures, and the requirements for membership in our churches are haphazard, half-hearted, and many times ineffective.

Furthermore, we need merely to call attention to the lack of any general norm in ethical and moral thinking and practice. Our members, to say nothing of the church itself and its leadership, are often so dominated by the current pagan practices that they are unable to distinguish the christian from the selfish practices prevailing about them. This confusion extends to the educational work of our church. It is with great difficulty our teachers and leaders are held to the use of the best materials and methods. Some are slaves to the texts regardless of pupil needs or responses.

Finally, may we quote Joseph M. M. Gray to the effect that ours is "an untheological religion." To make the statement carries conviction of its truth.

In further analyzing these conditions in the present state of the church, let us say that the recognition of them is no reason for a defeatist attitude. One of the fundamental reasons why we are in this confusion today is because of the very progress that has been made.

We are not impotent before the great social evils. While ours is a day of confusion, crisis and change, a small, but growing group of our fellowship has insisted that the church speak on these matters that affect the lives of our people so intimately. That voice has been heard with power. It must be heard again and again with increasing insistence.

One of the reasons why we feel that evangelism is merely stumbling on is that we have discovered the ineffectiveness of the old methods and old appeals, yet everyone is reaching out for something more effective for our day and generation.

We do not have a general ethical and moral norm. Though we have recognized the general practices of our social and industrial order to be pagan and un-christlike, only independently, or at most as small groups, have we searched for tools, concepts and ideals which would make it possible for us to determine and assert christian standards and to create a working program for their realization.

One of the reasons why we are confused in our educational work is that our pioneers in this field have said that the pupil and the situation of which he is a part is the thing we are educating or changing. However, we find within even a specific church no unanimity of objective and procedure.

One of the reasons why we have been called "an untheological church" is, that with life crying out on every hand in its human need, and with our theology so out of gear with those needs, we have said that life is first and our theology "afterwards".

In practically all of these areas we are at the place we were a few years ago in regard to science and religion. Then we had only a little science but had not thought our way through. There is one fundamental difference. The former conflict did not impede our effectiveness and progress as does this fundamental confusion today. What is the way out?

The only way out is to work and pray and think our way through. In order that our church might experience a new sense of companionship with Christ we believe that:

1. We must not only become deeply conscious of the fundamentally pagan aspects of our modern social and economic life, in so far as they thwart the highest development of personality, but, like Jesus and the prophets of old, we must openly pronounce moral judgment and promote the most promising experiments in social rebuilding.

2. We must re-think the great objectives of the Gospel of Jesus and the fundamental purposes for which our church exists.

3. In harmony with the above we must think out carefully and clearly the terms and methods for a modern evangelism.

4. We must discover again the great absolute principles in the ethics and morals of Jesus, and practice them with a discipline that is worthy of our great purpose.

5. We must discover and use educational principles and methods in harmony with our objectives and purpose and values.

6. We must re-think our theological conceptions and recognize them for what they are, the framework by which our Gospel walks out into life.

7. We must discover the mind of Christ in regard to the great social life of our day, and then use the above tools to the end of building our world in all of its relationships after the ideals of Jesus.

8. When the forces of Fascism and materialistic communism are threatening our political order we must re-educate the present generation in the fundamental relation of democracy to the Christian spirit and processes. To make effective such an educational process the church should not only seek to preserve the democratic heritage of the past but to extend the democratic principle into those relationships most directly effecting the welfare of man—education and industry.

It is the conviction of your committee that as we face honestly and aggressively these tasks, casting out all fear of change where change is necessary, courageously seeking the message and the methods which will put the principles and the spirit of Jesus into our modern life, we shall experience a new joy of fellowship with Him and a sense of new power in our individual lives and the life of the church.

PRONOUNCEMENTS OF OUR CONFERENCES

Our church, through its General Conference, has made adequate analysis which reveals the un-Christian conditions and practices of our present social order and life.

We call to your mind that the General Conference report of 1936 cites fourteen specific un-christian practices, as follows:

1. Privation in the midst of potential plenty.
2. Gross inequality in income and property.
3. Insecurity.
4. Unemployment, with its resultant effect upon national morale.
5. Long-continued public relief, slowly destroying the self-respect of the recipient and contributing to the pauperization of a nation.
6. Preventable sickness, accompanied by a menacing rise in tuberculosis and diseases of undernourishment.
7. Reduction in the support of public and private education, a fact that strikes at the very foundations of constitutional government.
8. Extensive denial of equal opportunity as a result of economic circumstance or racial condition.
9. The wasteful and unintelligent use of natural resources.
10. The excessive debt carried by American productive enterprise, due to over-capitalization, unplanned expansion, and financial racketeering, resulting in a carrying charge that precludes adequate wages for workers or reasonable dividends for owners.
11. The increasing burden of armament.

12. The closed doors confronting American youth, with the consequent loss of their service to the nation, and the destruction of their faith in our institutions.

13. Outbreaks of mob violence.

14. The growth of tenant farming and the creation of a peasant class with no property stake in the nation.

On the basis of these conditions the report says: "The Christian conscience declares that the continuance of these conditions is sinful in the sight of God, and the Christian church summons its membership to the task of saving us from our sins. The Kingdom of God cannot be built upon foundations of economic injustice."

And yet, there is not present in our churches, generally, the knowledge of these pronouncements nor of the conviction which underlies them which makes the exercise of a concerted conscience possible.

Our last Annual Conference made a constructive recommendation when it requested Bishop Baker to appoint a committee of ministers and laymen to promote a comprehensive and unbiased study of the social questions as they are related to the Christian program, to the end that Methodists may be able to act with more unanimity and understanding as citizens and Christians in the solution of the social problems which confront our day." (Conference Journal, 1936, page 105).

In spite of this there has not been any widespread use of these materials in the churches of the Conference.

STUDY OF PROBLEMS

In the light of these conditions, this committee devotes its efforts to recommendation of methods and procedures consistent with laws of growth for educating our church on the social problems and international relations facing the world today.

A. Principles: Believing that a democratic procedure should be followed in our effort to find Christian solutions, we suggest that the following principles govern our studies:

1. Start where the people are facing their needs and interests.
2. Define clearly the issue before commencing the study.
3. Allow the presentation of different points of view; honesty in search for truth and respect for authority.
4. Evaluation by the group of possible solutions in the light of the teachings of Jesus as means to selection of Christian solution.
5. Commitment to the chosen program.
6. Participation in carrying it out.
7. The re-evaluation of the choice after a period of trial.
8. Re-adjustment of the program in the light of new evidence and experience.

B. Methods of Procedure:

1. Circulating Library and Literature Table:

The task of the Good Literature Steward should be enlarged to include circulation of the following:

- (a) General Pronouncements pamphlets.
- (b) Study pamphlets as recommended in a list to be provided by the Conference Board of Education.
- (c) A Bibliography, as provided by the Board of Education.
- (d) A circulating library of pertinent literature as recommended by the Board of Education, under the direction of the Good Literature Steward and the pastor. Some pastors have found it valuable to take a number of good books to Official Board meetings and briefly review them, allowing members to borrow them.

2. Panel Discussion:

A group of people adequately prepared under the guidance of a chairman, discussing a given subject in the presence of a larger crowd. Following the presentation of a variety of view, the privilege of questioning any member of the Panel is to be given. This method might be used as a means of stimulating interest, or to present different viewpoints. It is more effective for mass presentation but would not be as desirable for a study group carrying on a series of meetings.

3. Forums:

A general meeting where a recognized authority on a viewpoint presents his subject with opportunity for questions at the conclusion of his presentation.

4. Discussion Groups:

A democratic process for an interchange of knowledge, opinion and judgment. Follows certain normal steps, such as analysis of existing situation, segregation of problems, analysis of conflicts involved in problems, with ample attention to all sides, exploration of possible solutions, evaluation of possible solutions in light of accepted knowledge, acceptance of a solution, provisions for applying the solution, and evaluation of the outcome. It is usually directed by a leader whose function is to keep the process moving forward in an orderly fashion.

The Discussion Group could take the form of study groups in Missionary Societies, Epworth Leagues, Wesley Foundations, Brotherhoods, Church School Classes (for youth and adults), Women's Aid Federations, and in District Retreats with District Superintendents, pastors and laymen.

(a) Case Studies: First hand study of situations in our own communities through reconciliation trips, interracial understanding fellowships, etc.

(b) Resource Information: By which information is introduced by the lecture method, through materials, booklets, committee reports, etc.

C. Conclusion: That these methods may be more effective in the local church, we suggest:

1. That the Conference request every pastor, between Sept. 15th and Oct. 15th this year, to present in detail in a public meeting, in his Church School Board, and his Epworth League Cabinet, the aims and the method of procedure herein outlined in order that the program may be carried on throughout the year.

2. That the responsibility of the Quarterly Conference Committee on World Peace be extended to authorize it to introduce these discussions into the local church.

3. That it be included as a part of the Brotherhood program, the Conference Women's Aid Federation, the summer program of the Queen Esther, Standard Bearers, and the Young People's Institutes.

4. That the Committee to Promote Social Studies be continued, and that we call upon them for leadership.

5. That the Conference Board of Education be authorized to prepare lists of leaders and materials to be available as resource material for such discussions, adaptable to different age groups.

COMMITTEE TO PROMOTE STUDY OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL PROGRAM

At the 1936 Session of the Southern California Conference on motion by C. I. D. Moore, a committee was appointed by Bishop Baker to promote the study of a Christian program concerning the leading social and economic problems of today, looking toward a Christian social order. The committee, consisting of Charles V. Caldwell, Jesse L. Corley, William C. Hodgson, Willsie Martin, Wiley W. Mather, Martin H. Neumeyer, Ernest W. Oliver, Glenn R. Phillips, and Carl S. Seitter, has been at work throughout the conference year seeking to discover the most effective divisions of the general field assigned to us, to provide suggestions for study and various methods by which groups may enter into the study, to assemble bibliographies and lists of speakers and discussion leaders, as well as preparing three sets of study outlines dealing respectively with World Peace and International Relations, Social Control of Public Morals, and the Economic Order. The outlines were mimeographed and submitted to the pastors and lay delegates of the Conference with extra copies supplied on demand.

Peace has long been regarded as of vital importance to human welfare and progress. Peaceful international relations are threatened on every hand by increasing armaments and the growing military spirit, and by underlying political, economic, and social conditions. Is the Church prepared to combat the war spirit and to create and maintain international goodwill? Do we have an understanding of the forces which provide the conditions of peace?

The social control of public morals is an important national as well as international problem. The Committee has directed the attention to positive and negative phrases of public service, legitimate business versus commercialized gambling, temperance and the liquor situation, the threat of vice to personal and social competence, crime and delinquency and the program of their prevention, commercial amusements and their relation to morals, the changing moral standards, and the responsibility of the church and all character building agencies in controlling public morals. It is easier to formulate opinions concerning the above mentioned problems than to attain a thoroughgoing understanding of the conditioning factors and underlying implications.

The economic order is difficult to understand, for it has many ramifications. Even a cursory analysis of economic conditions reveals defects of the system, but to diagnose the situation correctly, to ascertain the causes of the problems involved in it, and to propose ways of improvement present many difficulties. The social aspects of the economic order are of special concern to the Christian Church. Human welfare is affected by the conditions of making a living.

Christian principles, if they are to be of greatest worth, must be applied to all phases of life. International relations, public morals, and the economic order are areas in which needs are pressing, but the problems of inter-racial relations, family life, the new leisure, and many others are likewise important. The issue of the relation between the Church and the State is repeatedly raised and needs a new interpretation. The first essential for any effective social action is an intelligent understanding of social conditions based upon a thorough analysis of the facts. It has been the purpose of this Committee not to present programs of reform, but to aid in the study of the Christian social program and to stimulate an interest in such a study. While the efforts have been directed toward a study of three sets of social problems during the conference year, it is hoped that similar studies will be made of other problems.

The total expense of issuing the reports thus far published has been $168.63. Freewill offerings from churches are not adequate to care for this expense. Your committee recommends that the amount necessary for the publishing of these reports, and future reports, be charged against the amount allowed the Conference Secretaries.

Your committee endeavored by the return postal card questionnaire method to ascertain the use being made of the reports in the local churches. Total number of cards sent, 278; number responded, 49. There seems well-nigh universal appreciation and approval of the character of the reports and the thoroughness with which the committee has done its work, but it is indicated that, for one cause or another, the churches have not used the outlines as extensively as it was hoped they might. The committee suggests a thorough discussion of the ways and means by which these materials may be more generally introduced in the current program of study and training in the local church.

MARTIN H. NEUMEYER, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION AND PUBLIC MORALS

We are now well along in the fourth year since the repeal of National Prohibition. Every promise, made by the opponents of prohibition in their appeal for the votes of the American people, has been violated. The promises cover: elimination of bootlegging, protection of dry territory, poisonous liquor sales to be curbed, temperance to be promoted, underworld influence in politics would cease, young people protected from evil influences, taxes reduced, unemployment relieved, the saloon would not return, racketeers eliminated, people would drink less whiskey and more light wine and beer.

The present situation is in marked contrast to all this; practically a monopoly of the liquor traffic, poisonous liquors sold and advertised, speakeasies, bootleggers flourish and sell large quantities of liquor, three quarters of a million retail liquor stores many of which are saloons, graft and corruption flourish, vice and underworld influences never so rampant, debauchery among young people, blatant advertising of wine, beer, gin, whiskey in the press and over the radio, lowered moral standards everywhere with increasing taxes and crime and law violations.

Every promise concerning the control of the liquor traffic and the non-return of the saloon made by Franklin D. Roosevelt, the candidate and president has been broken and at his doors we can lay the tragedies of broken lives, despoiled homes and suffering of little children.

A large per cent of automobile accidents on the highways can be placed against liquor drinking. How terrible they are. The American Automobile Association tells us that one in every three babies born in America will either be killed or seriously injured in traffic accidents. Think of it, in six major wars within 150 years in America 244,357 lives were lost, yet in the past 15 years 415,977 have lost their lives in traffic accidents.

"We can drink and drive a buggy. We can abstain and survive a motor civilization."

The significant thing in current, American social trends is the increasing consumption of Alcoholic beverages. In 1935 the consumption of spirits was 94 per cent. In 1936 the increase in whiskey consumption was 34 per cent and in beer 17 per cent. Large increase in drinking among laboring people and people who receive small salaries and wages has increased the demand for welfare assistance.

The state liquor control system in California has broken down repeatedly. Our last legislature bolstered up this tottering system with a few more impossibilities. The trouble is that when enforcement is in the hands of politicians a break down and failure is inevitable, and grave scandals will occur.

Progress might be made in state control if 1. The system was administered in the interest of social welfare without regard to revenues. 2. All private profit eliminated. 3. All promotion be rigidly eschewed. 4. The state offset the psychological weight of State sale by definite, intelligent temperance education, saying, "We sell alcoholic beverages because we believe some people will buy them from illicit sources, but we warn you against alcohol as an irritant, depressant narcotic drug, which is damaging to the individual and to the state." This kind of a system might go places. In order that these principles may become practically operative we urge the Anti-Saloon League to give them legal form, and to their enactment we pledge our support.

The Church must educate for total abstinence. Many of our church members are drinking and others are winking at the prevalent social drinking. There is a state of mind bordering on indifference to the finer moral standards of life so that in many homes our boys and girls are having no instruction in idealism or examples of ideal living.

We are opposed to and condemn the effort to establish a second race track in Southern California and we also condemn the present race track as a menace to our homes and as an evil influence in fostering the gambling spirit among our people.

We call upon our Governor and all enforcement officers to see that laws against vice, gambling, exploiting schemes for robbing the people be rigidly enforced without fear or favor.

We will stand back of any officer, irrespective of his politics or religion, who tries conscientiously to enforce the laws but we will be everlastingly opposed to the officer who plays politics and favorites.

We are having splendid leadership in our Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals directed by Dr. Ernest Cherrington and in the California Council of Churches, in the W. C. T. U. and in the Anti-Saloon League. These are our organizations and we should follow them in their plans of aggressive warfare against the forces of unrighteousness.

We suggest that the provisions of the last General Conference be carried out in the organization of a Citizenship Committee in the conference and in each district.

Be it resolved:

1. That we seek to enlist our members in pledging themselves to patronize, whenever possible, only those grocery stores which do not sell alcoholic liquors.

2. That we, as ministers and churches, inform the chain stores in our respective communities of such action.

3. That we inform our membership of nearby stores that do not sell alcoholic liquors.

4. That this Conference send notice of this Conference action to all major chain stores operating within the bounds of the Southern California Conference.

5. That we urge the Anti-Saloon League of Southern California to support such action in other churches within the bounds of our Conference.

Be it further resolved:

That we request all ministerial and lay delegates to present this matter to their Official Boards at an early meeting for discussion and action.

On the motion of A. L. Baker, the report was adopted as a whole.

A. L. BAKER.

FEDERATION OF METHODIST AGENCIES

The outstanding event of the year in the work of the Federation of Methodist Agencies was the annual meeting, held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Hollywood, on April 26th, 1937, when 475 people gathered at the tables for the banquet. Following this the sanctuary was filled with a large group of Methodist people gathered from the most distant parts of the Conference. Thirty-one different institutions and agencies operating within the bounds of the Southern California Conference, represented by as many different speakers, with the use of stereopticon slides, gave in one hour and ten minutes a sweeping bird's eye view of the whole range of activities carried on by the Methodist Episcopal Church. Even those most familiar with the work and program of the church were amazed and astonished from the impact of this presentation. So many have been the requests that this be available for use in the churches, that the Federation of Methodist Agencies has now prepared these talks in abridged form, together with the stereopticon slides, and they are now available for use in the churches.

The climax of that evening's program was the incisive analysis of religious, political and social movements in the Orient, as presented by Bishop James Chamberlin Baker, who had just returned from his commissioned visit to Japan, Korea and Hawaii, in behalf of the church. The delightful social features of the evening were greatly augmented by the presence of Mrs. Baker. It is the purpose of the Federation of Methodist Agencies to make this an annual affair.

In connection with this annual meeting, authorization was given for the appointing of a strong representative Committee on Correlation, which is designed to serve as a means of coordinating the work of the various agencies and institutions of the Methodist Church within the bounds of the Southern California Conference.

The Federation is already giving to our institutions and agencies a sense of unity and a consciousness of their relationship to the total program of the church. No doubt it will also have an important function as we face the problems of unification with the Methodist Church South. Great possibilities lie ahead.

The newly elected officers are as follows: President, Leonard Oechsli; Vice Presidents, Robt. A. McKibben, Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick; Secretary, W. D. Michener; Treasurer, Katherine B. Higgins.

Points to Remember

Chapel: The Church of All Nations has made splendid progress under the able leadership of Rev. and Mrs. Louis M. Fiske. Two very effective youth groups have been organized, and the Women's Club has become a vital factor in the life of the Church. The tenth anniversary of the dedication of the chapel was observed on Sunday, June 13.

Camping: In addition to a beautiful recreation lodge and dining room there have been added five cabins, each to accommodate ten persons. The present value of the camp is $18,000. There is a reserve of $2,000 in the bank for a swimming pool. 250 children will use the All Nations Camp at Big Pines this summer.

Boys' Club: Under the able leadership of Charles S. Thompson the All Nations Boys' Club has achieved national recognition. A recent book, "Preventing Crime", edited by Glueck for the national committee on the study of crime, devoted an entire chapter to this work. Dr. Reese Bowman Kester, chairman of the Boys' Club executive council, was presented with the "Fifty Years of Service to Boys" gold medal by Mrs. Herbert Hoover. F. N. Rush is chairman of the Boys' Club Advisory Board.

Sunset Center: The Literary Digest has included the founding of Sunset Center in a recent article as evidence of organizations cooperating effectively in crime prevention. Those agencies uniting in this effort are L. A. Kiwanis, Friday Morning Clubs, Downtown Y. M. C. A., Boy Scouts, Woodcraft Rangers, L. A. County Probation Department, Works Progress Administration, National Youth Administration. D. R. Brothers is chairman of the Sunset Board.

Girls' Department: When Miss Zada French was secured as director of girls' work for the Foundation, it was feared the walls would soon be pushed out by the crowding in of girls. 1224 girls participated in activities of the Foundation. Mrs. Montclair McCabe is chairman of the Community House Executive Council.

Hollenbeck Social Center: This center is serving a very needy area, which has the highest juvenile population in the city and so offers a challenge to the Christian forces. Merrill Harrod is supervisor of the center, and H. Price Webb is chairman of the executive council.

All Nations Clinic has become one of the postgraduate teaching centers for the Southern California Dental Association. Dentists who have been in the field for ten to fifteen years are learning newer techniques under able leadership at All Nations. Mrs. Elfrieda Martin is director of the Clinic. Dr. C. L. Mulfingher is chief of staff.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

The need for Goodwill Industries in the rehabilitation of the distressed and the handicapped has never been greater than it is today. Those in distress who want to help themselves are coming to us in ever increasing numbers and from many walks of life. Goodwill Industries is supplying a practical Christian service in the name of our Lord and His church, a service which the individual church is not equipped to render.

Reporting for 1936 are those Goodwill Industries operating within this Conference—the Goodwill Industries of Southern California, with headquarters in Los Angeles and branches in Long Beach, San Bernardino and Santa Ana, and the Goodwill Industries of San Diego County:

	Hours Work	Different Persons Employed	Wages Paid	Total Disbursed
Los Angeles	1,285,689	2,619	$ 345,508.00	$ 524,954.00*
Long Beach	79,714	108	22,717.00	33,934.00
San Bernardino	68,073	125	18,699.00	29,334.00
Santa Ana	64,438	108	15,715.00	22,869.00
Total Goodwill Industries of So. Calif.	1,497,914	2,960	$ 402,639.00	$ 611,091.00
Goodwill Industries of San Diego Co..	113,098	647	27,070.00	37,870.00
Total	1,611,012	3,607	$ 429,709.00	$ 648,961.00

* Capital and building accounts not included.

A daily average of 568 handicapped, aged and distressed persons were given work at the Los Angeles Goodwill Industries during 1936. In addition 637 persons were provided with outside jobs through the free employment bureau.

The Christian inspiration of the chapel service at the beginning of every working day sets the gauge for the entire organization. Los Angeles had a total chapel attendance for the past year of about 90,000. San Diego reports an attendance of 12,262.

San Diego has opened a branch industrial unit and store in Escondido. This makes a total of six industrial units in the Conference—two in the San Diego Goodwill and four in the Goodwill Industries of Southern California.

Los Angeles has opened two new Goodwill Stores, one in Inglewood and one in Huntington Park. San Diego has also two new Goodwill Stores, in East San Diego and National City. The Goodwill Industries of Southern California now operates a total of twenty-four stores—fifteen out of the Los Angeles headquarters, four out of Long Beach, three out of San Bernardino, and two out of Santa Ana.

Before another year passes the Los Angeles Goodwill undoubtedly will be forced out of their present headquarters to make way for a street extension in connection with the Civic Center development. This necessitates rather immediate action in the construction of a new plant on property donated for the purpose on San Fernando Road. A start will soon be made, but the Industries is handicapped by lack of sufficient funds to erect at this time a plant adequate for its needs.

During the year San Diego Goodwill has been able to purchase the building it now occupies and two lots adjoining this building in the rear.

PLAZA MEXICAN METHODIST CHURCH AND COMMUNITY CENTER

Another year has passed, and we are asking ourselves "What has been accomplished?" "Has the service rendered met the approval of our great Leader?" "Has it merited the interest of our friends?" Regardless of what has been accomplished, we regret that we were able to do so little for Him Who has done so much for us.

During the year, we have felt the steady upward pull, without any spectacular movement in any of the departments. Financially, we have met our current expenses and made a fine beginning on the reduction of our Building obligation; we are trusting to be able to cut this indebtedness materially by the first of August, when we are promised by the Bank, a reduction in the rate of interest, if this is accomplished. We trust the Plaza building will soon be free of debt, when we will be able to develop and extend our program.

We thank the great Physician for the restoration to health of our pastor and his son, after their long seige with typhoid fever. The loyalty of the staff and church members during their illness showed devotion to the Master's work. The pastor's assistant, Cesar Lizarraga, who is working his way through Chapman College by assisting in our church work, has made a fine record, is an honor student and a member of the Honor Society.

The church is growing in spirituality and membership. Attendance at all service for the year 28,500; home calls 956; meetings held 389; new members 49; conversions 32; tithers 59.

We are making every effort to keep people off any of the "Relief Rolls," advising them to be independent and meet their own problems in so far as possible. In all our church membership, only two families are on relief, both cases owing to age or infirmity, and very few of the folk who come to the Center are receiving aid. While many of them have suffered greatly, they have put up a brave fight and cooperated with us in a very fine way to keep off relief.

More than 10,000 contacts were made through the service rendered in the Clinic, Welfare, Legal Counselling and Employment departments last year. 630 calls were made in homes, hospitals and jails; 781 women placed in employment; almost 1600 free or part-paying patients taken care of in the Clinic. 6400 Bibles, Gospels and other pieces of Christian literature given out in all departments.

The following testimonies are typical of many that prove our aims and objectives are being realized. "I recall the many kindnesses and give thanks to God for what you have done for my people. You have been our refuge." "I love this Clinic, for it was here I found Christ and health."

Our Children's Home is filled to capacity, and many applications are on file. Indebtedness on the Home has been paid in full. The buildings are greatly in need of repairs, but the Home is so much appreciated by the citizens of Sierra Madre, that we believe they will assist materially in reconditioning the Home.

The members of the Plaza Club are still the same loyal friends as when the Club was organized eight years ago. Their interest and influence is felt in every department of the work. They have contributed an average of $30.00 per month since their beginning. Several of the women who attend the meetings regularly have said time and again "If I have two engagements the Plaza Club day, I always go to the Plaza, because I never come away without feeling I have had a spiritual uplift."

Our Boys' and Girls' Clubs are of great importance, even though we have only touched the fringe of the opportunities presented to us. We have a monthly attendance of 175 girls and 140 boys. Activities include piano, singing and harmony classes and an instrumental ensemble, athletics and various lines of handcraft.

We feel our next large effort must be with boys and girls who will be the future leaders in church and city. The Central Coordinating Council is urging us to extend our youth program to help stem the tide of delinquency which has increased in this district 150 per cent since repeal.

Who knows but some of these young people may someday be another student pastor or an Olga Marquez, a protege of the Plaza Community Center, who is now one of the most valuable members of the faculty of the Spanish American Institute.

With confidence in our great Leader, and you our friends, we go forward to do a greater work in kingdom building.

KATHERINE B. HIGGINS, Executive Secretary.

THE SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

During the year the Spanish American Institute lost its beloved president, Dr. Chas. D. Lewis, who was also much more than President for he had been associated with the Institute at its beginning and through the years, for many years having served as President of the Board. The school will long remember his great spirit and unselfish service.

Mr. John Howe, who has also been with the Institute from its beginning has carried on the work of the President as well as his own and though it has been a difficult and exacting load it has been well handled.

Immediately following the death of Dr. Lewis came our annual Lincoln Day program which with request of the family was carried out as planned and a very successful day it was. Bishop George A. Miller gave the address of the day and A. Ray Moore took charge of the subscriptions. The boys showed the fine work that had been done for them in the declamations and orations which were the principle feature of the day. About $5000 was subscribed for the work which enables the Institute to complete the year with only a small deficit.

The Institute has been very fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Grow S. Brown who has acted as field agent. Her services have been supplied thus far by friends of the school and without expense to the Institute. She has done much to make Methodists of Southern California, and especially our good women, conscious of the Institute and its work.

There have been enrolled this year sixty boys. They attend public school in Gardena for their regular elementary work and for two years of high school. The Institute Faculty provides only the more advanced work together with special training in industry, language and Bible. Special emphasis is given to character development and athletics.

The Institute has a great field of useful service, far greater than the limited income and capacity enables it to cover. Within our limited means we believe that the Institute renders an invaluable work in the lives of the boys who receive its training and in an unnumbered host of those whom they reach.

E. D. GOODELL, President, Board of Directors.

PACIFIC HOME

As Superintendent of the Pacific Old Peoples' Home, I take pleasure in bringing to you my fourth annual report.

Last March a year ago, we dedicated a fine new modern Class A building and purchased an additional site. This year we have moved eight of the buildings on the additional site to North Hollywood and reconditioned these buildings inside and out, and they are now rented at $270 a month. We then moved two of our annexes onto the new site and the sixteenth of May of this year, we dedicated a new Dining Hall, 49 feet wide, 127 feet long. The floor is covered with beautiful rubber block tile and all the furnishings are new, including dishes and tables. Adjoining the dining room is a modern kitchen 27x72 with more than five thousand dollars worth of equipment. There is a basement under the entire structure. There are eighteen large rooms on the second floor. These rooms are 12x19½. They are all furnished with beautiful drapes, venetian blinds, and Simmons metal furniture. There is also a roof garden.

Most of the rooms were arranged for before dedication and within a week all of the rooms were assigned. The same day this building was dedicated, ground was broken for the new Administration Building 203 feet long, four stories high. This building will provide a lovely foyer such as you would find in any first-class hotel and adjoining that will be a parlor, director's room, and administrative quarters. The building will have 101 rooms and about 13 of these will be taken up by administrative quarters, Matron's quarters, parlors, and library, leaving 88 guest rooms. All but 28 of these rooms will have private baths. Within ten days after erection of this building was announced, fifteen rooms were arranged for. It is expected that this building will be ready for occupancy the first of December. All materials have been purchased, contracts signed, and more than three carloads of furnishings have been ordered.

Finance: In the erection and furnishing of the building above referred to, we were able to pay every bill when the architect's certificate was presented. We have also paid more than $3000 on the new Administration Building and the financing for the building is well in hand. I think the financial statement at the close of this report will reflect to your satisfaction the financial situation of the Home. In closing my report, I can not say too much for the excellent cooperation of my Board.

I desire to acknowledge my gratitude to Almighty God for a kind prevalence.

CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD

No small part of the effective ministry of many of the Churches of the Conference is due to the tactful, faithful, spiritual ministry of the Deaconesses who serve in them. The hand of kindly helpfulness and word of loving counsel has led many a discouraged soul into a new sense of spiritual achievement. These spiritual ministries cannot be tabulated and reported in a statistical column but we are very sure the results of this ministry are adequately entered in the heavenly records.

Deaconess Home—Another interesting year has passed and each day and week has brought new opportunities and responsibilities. Thousands of calls have been made in home and hospital throughout the conference by the deaconesses. Early attendance at clinic by children and adults have brought medical aid and spiritual uplift. The usual activities in nursery and kindergarten, club and class, church school and Junior League, Epworth League and Queen Esther, Daily Vacation Bible School, story hour and play time prove the intense interest by the large attendance. Young people have been inspired for Christian living and service. The Deaconess Home, a Christian center in Los Angeles for forty-one years has continued in entertaining many groups and boards. Families and individuals have received encouragement, spiritual help and material relief. The women of the conference have given the needed support in providing the supplies to carry on this work. Our Christmas season and Easter time were filled with happiness for many by the sacrifice of these women. Our neighbors of other nationalities have been included in all the plans and work.

Robincroft Rest Home—The ministry of Robincroft has been one of full measure. The home has been filled to capacity with many transient guests. The health of the family has been good. Many Church groups were entertained during the year. The annual spring meeting of Robincroft Memorial Guild was one of inspiration and was largely attended. Many improvements on buildings were made bringing cheer and comfort to the members of this happy family. The spirit of the Christ still fills the hearts of this fine group who have given so many years of effective service to the Master and to the Church.

Thoburn Terrace, Inc. This home for retired Deaconesses and Missionaries is located in the center of Alhambra and one-half block from the First Methodist Church. Spacious grounds, a friendly atmosphere and kindly ministry bring happiness and a sense of security to the members of this worthy family. Mrs. W. F. McDowell is credited with having said "A Missionary is the reflected love of the folks back home." If this definition is correct, then Jesus the greatest of all Missionaries must be the reflected love of the Heavenly Father. Thoburn Terrace is the reflection of that same love. The Home has been filled to capacity with many on the waiting list. Some changes and improvements have been made on property. It is confidently expected that before the year closes a beautiful new main unit will be erected. The cost of this improvement will be approximately $30,000. This will double the capacity of the Home. Through the generosity of interested friends $20,000 of this amount is in hand. The Home has no debt and there will be no debt when this new unit is completed. The fourteenth Birthday Party was held at the Home May 8, 1937. A large company of friends attended and sufficient funds were received to meet the current expenses for the coming Conference year. This institution moves forward with faith and gratitude.

The German Deaconess Motto expresses most beautifully the spirit of ministry reflected in the lives of our active deaconesses and likewise the spirit of those to whom these institutions are a resthaven. "To be a strong hand in the dark to another in the time of need, to be a cup of strength to a human soul in a crisis of weakness is to know the glory of life. To be a true friend, saving his faith in man, and making him believe in the existence of love, is to save his faith in God. And such service is possible for all. We need not wait for the great occasion and for the exceptional opportunity. We can never be without our chance, if we are ready to keep the miracle of love green in our hearts by humble service."

Paying participants decreased from 69% effective ministers to 65%.

Fully paying participants doubled in number as compared with 1935.

Number of special appointees participating dropped to three year low, 26%.

Conditional upon the final adopting of the Equitable Support Plan as now pending, and election of its executive personnel, the committee recommends conference approval

(1) to complete the distribution of the 1937 Fund within a reasonable period of time following the Conference.

(2) to transfer any unappropriated funds to the account of the Equitable Support Fund with the Conference Treasurer.

(3) to deliver its records to the Equitable Support Committee, and

(4) to consider its duties discharged.

FRANK M. TOOTHAKER.

EQUITABLE SUPPORT PLAN

Last year's report pointed out that our Conference now has four organizations and funds which supplement ministerial salaries. Your Commission felt that any forward program in this regard should be formulated by all these groups. It called a meeting of the representatives of the Conference Missionary Society, the Los Angeles City Missionary Society and the Fellowship Fund Commission to study the problem. This larger group came to the conclusion that there should not be any separate apportionment sent the churches. It also felt that the ministers themselves should contribute to the plan.

The Committee, concurring in these suggestions, has accordingly amended the Plan approved by the 1936 Annual Conference, and presents for adoption the following working procedure for the Equitable Support Plan.

I—ORGANIZATION

1. A Conference Commission of ten members on Equitable Support, consisting of one minister and one layman from each district, shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Conference Committee on Nominations.

2. District Committees, which shall consist of the two representatives on the Conference Commission on Equitable Support together with two additional ministers and two additional laymen, shall be elected annually in a like manner.

3. Both the Conference Commission and the District Committees shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

II—METHODS OF RAISING NEEDED FINANCES

1. The Fellowship Fund shall be discontinued at the close of the 1937 Conference Session.

2. A sustentation fund assessment, as provided in paragraph 942, section 4, of the Discipline shall be made on the salaries of all effective members of the Conference, excepting those serving in an Annual Mission. It shall amount to the following percentages of the cash salaries. In case there is no parsonage, rent not exceeding 15% of the salary may be deducted.

2000-2499— $1\frac{1}{8}\%$

2500-2999— $1\frac{1}{2}\%$

3000 and over—2%

3. The additional amount needed to pay the minimum salary set by the Conference shall be raised in the following manner:

(a) Seventy-two per cent shall be included in the budget of the Conference Missionary Society whose Treasurer shall remit monthly to the Treasurer of the Commission on Equitable Support the pro rata amount received on the basis of the total budget of said Society.

(b) Twenty-eight per cent of the amount needed shall be apportioned to the churches of the Los Angeles District, on the same percentage basis as other conference apportionments, under a separate apportionment to be known as the Equitable Support Fund.

III—PROCEDURE

1. Each District Superintendent shall report to the Conference Commission on Equitable Support, not later than thirty days before the opening day of the Conference Session, on forms supplied by the Commission, the estimated amount needed to assure the minimum salary for every charge served by an effective member of the Conference in his district for the following year, together with the amount of available support from the Board of Home Missions for this purpose and any other outside support.

2. The Conference Commission shall immediately send a report of the estimated amount needed for the ensuing year to the Conference Missionary Society together with the suggested amount to be included in its budget on the same percentage basis as other conference apportionments.

The Commission shall also send the Conference Commission on Finance the amount needed to be apportioned to the churches of the Los Angeles District for the ensuing year.

3. The Treasurer of the Conference Commission on Finance shall be Treasurer of the Equitable Support Fund and as such shall receive and disburse all monies as directed by the Commission on Equitable Support. He shall be ex-officio member of the Commission on Equitable Support.

4. Each District Committee shall: (a) Inquire of every charge that has a salary lower than the minimum set by the Conference to ascertain whether or not it is doing its utmost to meet the standard, and to recommend, in writing, to the Conference Commission on Equitable Support the maximum amount to be paid to said charges. (b) Report to the Cabinet in writing members of the Conference serving charges who in their opinion are permanently ineffective and suggest that the Cabinet take action as provided in paragraph 505 of the Discipline.

5. The Conference Commission on Equitable Support, on the basis of reports from the District Committees, shall determine, with the District Superintendents of the respective Districts, the amounts to be given each charge, and in writing order the Treasurer of the Commission on Finance to make payments as funds are available.

6. The Treasurer of the Commission on Finance shall prepare an itemized account of receipts from members of the Conference and expenditures to the charges, which shall be printed in the statistical tables of the Conference Journal.

7. The Conference Commission on Equitable Support shall recommend to the joint session of the Conference the minimum salary for the ensuing year, as provided in paragraph 942, section 1 of the Discipline.

8. The minimum salary for next year for the effective members of the Conference who are single men shall be one thousand dollars and living quarters and for effective members who are married men twelve hundred and parsonage, except those serving in an Annual Mission.

RUSSELL E. CLAY.

FRATERNAL AID

The Fraternal Aid Plan Committee has made repeated attempts this year to enroll more of the members of the Conference in the Society. Even the action of last year's Conference in reducing the rate to a sliding scale based on age has failed to increase the maximum number enrolled in the Society beyond 187.

During the year there have been fourteen deaths among the members of the Conference of which seven were members of the Fraternal Aid Society. The average benefit to the beneficiaries of these members has been $436.50. In most cases the benefit came as a God-send to the widows. One member's wife died during the year, making a total of eight assessments levied during the year.

The Committee feels that it is not possible to carry on with the present plan for the reason that approximately 40 per cent of the members of the Conference is carrying a load which should be borne by 100 per cent of the Conference. Other plans have been investigated during the year, but none have been found to care for the things which the committee feels should be included in the plan. Most of the plans investigated eliminate anyone over 65 years of age, thereby defeating the desire of the Conference to include the retired members.

The committee feels that every member of the Conference would want to support a plan that would give the surviving loved ones, of active and retired men alike, a fraternal protection in case of death. It is evident that to try to compete with Insurance Companies for insurance coverage at an advantageous rate is not feasible; but all can be parties to a method of assisting the families of our brethren in a financial way at a time of death without a heavy cost to anyone, if all will participate. With this feeling in mind, the committee wishes to present the following plan to replace the present optional Fraternal Aid Plan.

We recommend to the Conference:

1. That the Conference assess each member the sum of $1.00 upon the death of a member.
2. That 95 per cent of the receipts from an assessment be paid to the beneficiary of a deceased member.
3. That 5 per cent of the receipts from an assessment be retained by the committee to guarantee handling expenses.
4. That if and when the unused portions of the 5 per cent deductions shall accumulate to such an amount as to be sufficient to pay a claim in full, the following assessments shall be waived.
5. That the Commission on Finance continue to act as collecting and disbursing agency for the Plan.
6. That in case of the death of a wife of a member, the assessment be 50 cents per member, and the benefit to the surviving member be one-half the regular amount.
7. That regular accepted Supply Pastors be accepted with the provision that no benefits will be paid to their beneficiaries if more than one assessment is delinquent.
8. That members on trial be included in both assessments and benefits.
9. That if any member is delinquent for an entire year's assessment, the Commission on Finance shall refer the case to the Cabinet for consideration.
10. Since the Conference cannot levy an assessment upon men in the Retired Relation their joining will be voluntary. However, the Retired men are urged to join the Fraternal Aid Plan, whereat all of the foregoing requirements will apply to their membership, with the exception of the enforcement of assessments.
11. That the present Fraternal Aid Plan committee be continued to administer the new plan, and be authorized to act in matters of adjustment during the year.

According to the 1936 Journal, there were 420 members in full connection. Under the proposed plan the beneficiaries of a member upon death would receive $399.00 from this Fraternal assessment. The cost would probably not exceed an average of $1.00 per month per member.

The committee recommends further, that the present balance on hand be retained and applied to the credit of the members having made the payments, and that the first assessment be levied against all other members immediately upon the adoption of this new plan.

E. DOW HOFFMAN.

COMMITTEE FOR THE STUDY OF CONFERENCE STATISTICS

Strictly speaking this committee's report was the special set of blanks for reporting membership authorized by conference, last year and indicated on page 124 of last year's Journal. These blanks were sent out before Easter in preliminary mimeographed form and sent out printed on this year's Statistician's reports. The report given herewith is a commentary on the work of the committee by the chairman in explanation of the committee's work.

The reports in mimeograph form were adopted January 25, 1937. Total membership of the committee, ten. Members present at the adoption of the report, Dr. Robert A. McKibben, B. L. Jennings, Carl Seitter, C. V. Gustafson, Miss Evelyn H. Fisher. All present voted for the report.

The church law governing membership and the reporting thereof is a historical growth, and hence contains many apparent inconsistencies when one attempts to translate it into report forms which may be balanced. In reality we have five classes of members, two on the way in, members in full activity, and two other classes on the way out. These are,

1. Baptized infants.
2. Preparatory members.
3. Full active members.
4. Inactive non-resident members.
5. Members removed without certificate.

There is even a sixth classification, associate members, students affiliated with a college church, but retaining their connection in their home town.

Difficulties encountered included the following features of the church law:

We retain infant baptism (Disc. par. 112).

We regard baptized children as preparatory members of the church (Disc. par. 113).

But baptized children shall not be counted as preparatory members in reporting membership (Disc. par. 235, section 8).

In churches in which preparatory membership classes are conducted in the church school without the use of the preparatory membership ritual the question will arise, when does a baptized child (already a preparatory member in one sense of the word) cease to be such and become a preparatory member in a statistical sense? Further, there is at present known to the committee no manner of reporting children beyond the period of infancy, who have been baptized earlier, have been in regular attendance at Sunday school, and are received by transfer with their parents when they move.

According to the church law there is no difference between an active member and an inactive non-resident member except that apportionments are not based upon any but full active members. This is an important difference, but surely there should be some penalty such as a loss of vote in a congregational meeting attached to dropping into the inactive list. But the law requires that even inactive members shall be reported in the membership!

In view of these difficulties the committee decided to dispense entirely with forms for preparatory members. The forms for full active members and for inactive members seem self-explanatory. If there is any question it can be answered when the report is made in conference.

It will be of interest that the Presbyterian church has a very strict way of checking on statistics. A committee of 12 ministers and 12 laymen audit the membership records of every church in the presbytery once a year. When books are found to be in error the pastor and church are held accountable. If Methodists were to inaugurate such a system ministers could no longer fill out their reports from memory after they arrive at the conference session.

Statistics of membership can never reveal the facts of the spirit. They are not the most important things in our work. But if we keep them at all they should be kept so that they are more than a device to conceal our ignorance of the facts.

CLOYD V. GUSTAFSON.

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The facts and figures which an annual report may give you do not show the real and worth while work which goes on each twenty-four hours of the day in the hospital. The story may be told not in the number of patients admitted, not in the cash receipts at the end of the month nor in the amount of new equipment installed, but only in the service rendered and in the spirit in which that service is given. The proof of this service may be found in patients who return time and again, in those who bring other members of their families, and in those who come because of the recommendation of some friend.

The hospital is fully accredited by the American College of Surgeons and by the American Medical Association. Only Doctors of Medicine licensed in California and selected on a basis of integrity, ethics and competency are allowed the privilege of membership on the hospital staff. The nursing is done entirely by graduate nurses. These two facts assure the patient of the best professional care available.

The present capacity is 180 adult beds and 40 bassinets. From May 1, 1936 to May 1, 1937, 5441 adult patients were admitted. For the same period the number of births was 1201 and the number of surgical operations performed 2,772.

Through the medium of the All Nations Clinic hospital service was extended to 241 patients who would otherwise have been unable to obtain it. The usefulness of the hospital in the community has been greatly amplified because of the arrangement which made possible the providing of this service.

New installations, repairs and improvements are added to the physical plant each month. During the past year these have included surgery lights, orthopedic table, X-ray equipment, an asphalt parking space for doctors, a lighted hospital sign on the Hope Street side, beds, mattresses and floor linoleum. Almost the entire interior of the nurses' home has been painted.

The current bills are paid by the tenth of each month. The old deferred accounts have been reduced by more than one-half.

The re-writing of the hospital bonds is in process of completion. The bonds have been printed and upon the approval of the Corporation Commissioner of the State of California the exchange of the new issue for the old will take place.

Miss Mary K. West, the superintendent of the hospital, and her able staff have developed the Methodist Hospital of Southern California into a hospital of the very highest type. The entire Methodist Church may take pride in the service being rendered in Southern California through the medium of this institution.

ROLAND MAXWELL, President.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL, PHOENIX, ARIZONA

An institution such as ours cannot in the short space allowed in our Conference Report go into detail in either policy, program, or work accomplished, so we are just giving you a few facts this year and ask you to read between the lines the many things that must have been done to accomplish the following:

In 1936, we cared for more than 3,500 patients.

Did $20,271.63 of Free Work.

Spent $17,530.97 on new equipment and improvements.

Retired $14,000.00 of our out-standing bonds.

Closed the year with enough cash in the bank to pay all out-standing current bills and interest to date.

We have since the first of the year, which of course does not include any of the above figures, bought approximately $2500 worth of new furniture for our old fourth floor that has been closed since 1930, preparing to open it next winter; bought a large new autoclave and other sterilizing equipment for surgery at an expense of over $1500; worked over our kitchen refrigerator at an expense of over $2,500; bought a new X-ray table, bringing the department up-to-date with three different units at an expense of over $5,000, all of which is paid for.

Also we are employing more than 100 people in the hospital, so you see these facts tell our story.

J. O. SEXSON, Supt.

CALIFORNIA CHURCH COUNCIL

This has been a year of discovery for the California Church Council. One by one new fields of service to the various communions have opened, and the Council has found an ever-increasing place of usefulness to its constituents.

The annual business meeting was held in Los Angeles in December. Mr. Fred D. Parr, a Methodist layman of San Francisco, was re-elected as President. Dr. Murray T. McNeil, of Los Angeles, was re-elected as vice-president and chairman of the Southern Area, and Dr. Galen Lee Rose, of Fresno, as vice-president and chairman of the Northern Area. During the year the Northern Area has employed Dr. Paul H. Buchholz as its Executive Secretary, and the Council is now building a constructive program throughout the state. Recently the organization has completed the necessary formalities, and is an incorporated body.

Space will not permit a complete review of the Council's activities during the year. It will suffice to indicate briefly some of the major projects which have been undertaken:

Department of Evangelism: The National Preaching Mission was our most important enterprise. In addition to close cooperation in the Los Angeles Mission, sixteen community Preaching Missions were scheduled, programs prepared, and teams recruited, in the Southern Area, and fourteen in the Northern Area. The Preaching Mission follow-up, under the caption, "The United Christian Advance," is now receiving careful attention. Helps and suggestions were available through the Council offices in community observances of the Week of Prayer, and special pre-Easter services.

Department of Comity and Home Missions: Constant attention is given to this phase of the work. Monthly meetings of the Superintendents'

Council of Southern California consider denominational applications for of over-churched communities.

Department of Social Relations: In this field large advance has been made in discovering the usefulness of the Council. It was our privilege to assume a large place of leadership in the state-wide Local Option campaign last fall. During the present session of the State Legislature the voice of the Church Council is frequently heard at Sacramento, endorsing proposed legislation which has for its purpose better moral conditions, and against numerous pieces of vicious legislation which have been proposed. A representative of the Southern Area has been present almost constantly, without expense to the Council. We have made a careful analysis of all proposed legislation having to do with liquor control, horse racing, gambling, marriage and divorce laws, and other matters having a moral implication, and this information has been made available to our constituency. In two localities we have conducted Forums on International Relations, with excellent interest. A committee on problems of marriage and the family has done splendid work. Cognizance has been taken of the place of the church in industrial relations. Through the Christian Youth Council, world peace receives constant emphasis.

Department of Christian Education: The work of this Department, while less spectacular, has been continuous, and effective. Numerous conferences have been held; two members of the staff of the International Council of Religious Education have been on the field for series of conferences; leadership training schools have been more numerous than last year; many individual churches have been served in various ways. Week Day Religious Education is again coming to the fore, with plans developing for the establishment of schools in the city of Los Angeles. The Vacation Church School movement has had a wonderful growth, largely due to finding a way to secure close cooperation with the Los Angeles County Coordinating Councils.

The Council has been designated as the representative of the Hall of Religion, which will be an outstanding feature of the San Francisco Exposition in 1939. This will offer a large opportunity for state-wide service.

Department of Finance: Finance is still a major problem. The Council has adopted a plan whereby it suggests to the cooperating denominations, which are its constituent units, that its budget can be met if contributions are made in sums which equal five cents per member. Gifts received from denominational treasuries, individual churches and interested individuals are credited to the denominational totals.

The California Church Council is pleased to know that it is of real service to its constituency. It desires to serve the denominations as a whole, and the individual churches of the denomination in any and every possible manner.

H. V. MATHER, Executive Secretary.

PREVENTION OF WAR

Report: E. Guy Talbott, Regional Director, western office of the National Council for Prevention of War, reports:

"During the Conference year I have traveled 48,190 miles covering the following territory: California, Hawaii, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Colorado, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Washington, D. C. I have given 326 addresses with attendance at meetings of 75,715. Chief duties have been to organize peace committees, work out programs for community activities and legislative programs, etc. I have served on the faculties of several institutions on international relations, especially those at Mills College and Whittier College."

E. GUY TALBOTT.

RESOLUTIONS

As the sixty-second Annual Conference of Southern California Methodism writes "The End" to this chapter of its history, it is our privilege to give thanks for the many blessings, courtesies and privileges which have been given us.

Bishop James Chamberlain Baker, our resident general superintendent, has exemplified perfection in piloting this august assemblage through the numerous narrows of parliamentary law, reports, resolutions, questions of privilege and amendments to amendments. Bishop Baker has our sincere love and affection. We know that his interest in every one of us and our churches will be as keen and sincere next week, next month and next year as it is now.

The Communion Service and the Memorial Service were beautiful hours. Their deep spiritual significance stood out. By them we were refreshed to meet the challenges of the week with the feeling that we were continuing the work of our departed brothers.

For the flowers; indeed, for all the attractive and comfortable arrangements of the church, we thank Mrs. J. G. Early, Official Hostess and President of the Woman's Aid, and her fine assistants.

The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Los Angeles has even excelled our high expectations as Host church to the Conference.

The actual host of the Conference, we find, is Gerald Harvey, associate pastor. He has had the colossal task of habilitating this Conference, directing the technical care of the building, providing for exhibits, committee rooms and taking care of banquets and the thousand and one details which arise without notice. Only a man of exceptional executive ability could have done so well. Byron E. Horn, Minister of Education of First Church, has been busy for us. He is editor of the gift edition of the First Methodist Herald given this Conference. We thank him.

Rachel Davidson, head of the business office, has used more than half a ton of mimeograph paper in preparing the addresses for those who wanted to keep alive the memory of the inspiring speakers we heard.

Mr. Walter Derry had the tiresome and thankless task of printing the slides and handling the stereopticon which informed anxious preachers that their wives were waiting for them at the information desk. Mr. Derry, advertising designer, recently of New York City, has given his services freely and efficiently. We sincerely thank him.

Miss Irene Robertson, organist, and Mr. Frank Geiger, soloist and director, have sacrificed personal obligations and pleasures in helping with the music for the evening and Sunday services.

Charles Fayram, Leo Hepp, C. H. Martindale, and C. J. Askew, ushers of this church, with their assistants, have quietly and efficiently cared for and seated the congregations. Henry Leavitt and J. H. Winkler have been unfailing in their courtesy and help as heads of the local entertainment committee. Elizabeth Church and the J. O. C. Class worked very hard to provide the excellent dining room service for the banquets and regular meals.

The Red Starr System of public address has made it possible for us to follow the debates.

Mr. Cheseaman, janitor of the church, has set the janitors of our churches an example of perfection. Would that his name were legion.

Back of all of these First Church services we see the efficient, aggressive leadership of Roy L. Smith, preacher, writer, reporter, organizer, traveler, humorist, pastor, teacher.

The Sparkletts Water Company again extended the Conference the courtesy of its water service, furnishing cups and cooling equipment so that even the most agitated members of our number could be refreshed.

Mr. C. H. Wheeler is the manufacturer and distributor of the beautiful "transparent" pictures which we have seen and admired. Located in the Figueroa Hotel, Mr. Wheeler has graciously placed these pictures about the church for our enjoyment and inspiration. The picture "The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci, which has been given to our conference, is one of Mr. Wheeler's works.

The Los Angeles Examiner and the Los Angeles Herald-Express have been most generous with their columns, giving fine reports of the Conference sessions, and using a number of pictures of groups and individuals. We sincerely thank them for presenting our Conference to the public so fairly and fully. We also thank the Los Angeles Times for the mention it gave the Conference.

The Embassy Hotel and the Figueroa Hotel were gracious in the courtesies extended the Conference and in the entertainment facilities they provided.

The choir of First Methodist Church of Glendale, directed by Arthur Shank, the combined choirs of Pasadena, directed by Frederick Vance Evans, the choir of First Methodist Church in Los Angeles, directed by Frank Geiger, the combined choirs of Hollywood, directed by Otto T. Hirschler, the combined choirs of Southwest Los Angeles, directed by Wm. Hartshorn, and the combined negro choirs of Los Angeles, directed by George Garner, added to the cultural richness of the evening programs. We wish to extend our thanks to Elijah Hull Longbrake for arranging for these choral programs.

We are deeply indebted to Josephine Forsythe, nationally known composer, who delayed the return to her home to be present and preside at the piano during the rendition of her arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer" by the Hollywood choir ensemble.

Also we thank Einar Woerms for his fine singing.

The Program Committee did an exceptionally fine work this year. Bishop Baker's morning devotional meditations, the securing of Dr. Halford E. Luccock, Dr. Harold C. Case, Dr. Henry Kendall Booth, Roy L. Smith, Mr. C. J. Haggerty, Walter C. Buckner, Dean Carl Sumner Knopf, Dr. R. P. Shuler, Sargeant Alvin York and others as speakers have made this session one of mental and spiritual stimulus.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, in its Sunday evening pageant, gave us a most lucid and vital presentation of the workings and products of Home Missions in city, mountain and valley. The Kentucky Lassies and the Mexican ensemble were Home Mission jewels set in the background of Home Mission philosophy.

It is impossible, in this report, to really express our appreciation for the great addresses we have heard. Dr. Halford E. Luccock gave his flashing mental photography of life situations when seen in the higher light of Christian love and service. Bishop Baker led us as a shepherd into the greener pastures of great books and greater personalities. Roy L. Smith led us into the greater crusades of the Church today. How can we give thanks except through being better ministers of Jesus Christ this coming year?

We do not forget the chorister, the organist, the secretaries, treasurers and statisticians of both lay and ministerial conferences, the members of the various boards and committees, all of whom have sacrificed time and effort without complaining that the machinery of the Annual Conference might run smoothly. To everyone, who in any way has helped this Conference achieve its ends, we voice our appreciation.

We are thankful for the high spirit of the entire Conference. We have had more light than heat this year. We are grateful! As we await the reading of our appointments for the coming year, we give thanks to God, Who gives to those who believe, power to become Sons of God and good ministers in the bringing in of His Kingdom.

CHARLES S. KENDALL.

Memoirs

In Memoriam

EDWIN JOHN INWOOD

Edwin John Inwood was born in Woburn Sands, England, March 30th, 1860, and passed away at Laguna Beach, Monday, April 19th.

He was the fourth son of Charles and Marianna Inwood, one of a family of eight children. As a child he was dedicated to Jesus Christ by his godly father and mother and early showed the warmheartedness and winsomeness so characteristic of his manhood life. In his middle teens, through the influence of his widowed devoted mother, he was led into a very genuine experience of Christ as his Savior and began his long and consecrated life in Christian service. Not long after, he became a Local Preacher, and this step was soon followed by the call into the ministry. The call was unheeded for a while, but when God made the duty clear through a call from Canada he gave hearty consent and was soon crossing the seas to enter the ministry in what was to him a foreign field. There as a junior minister he served three charges—Wilton, Bath and Roblin. The last was a very hard field and his health broke down under its rigor and he was compelled to seek a more healthful climate. He decided on California, was soon on the field, and sent as supply to "Soledad and Gonzales," and thus began in 1884 his long and fruitful ministry in the Southern California Conference.

In 1888 he was married to Miss Jeanette Baldrige, of Covina, and there began a most beautiful companionship, comradeship and cooperation which lasted almost 49 years.

It is given to few men to serve in one Conference for over fifty years, but this was his honor and delight, and in those years he served with marked success (in addition to the one already mentioned) the following charges: Mason and Providentia, Covina, Garvanza, Fallbrook, Beaumont and Banning, First Redlands, Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, First Church San Diego, First Riverside, University, First Redlands (again), Santa Ana, Alhambra, and Belmont Heights, Long Beach, closing his active ministry by a pastorate there of twelve years. In 1916 he was appointed Superintendent of the newly formed Long Beach District, and for seven years superintended the work in that extensive field.

He was chosen as delegate to the General Conference which met in Baltimore in 1908. For nineteen years he was Secretary of the Conference and for a number of years an active devoted member of the Conference Board of Trustees.

Life is too great to be measured by statistics and that of E. J. Inwood's was exceedingly rich and full. Keen-minded, warm-hearted and tender, magnetic and winsome, he drew and bound men to himself with unbreakable bonds of love. Gifted as a preacher, he had one all consuming passion—to win men to Jesus, and so he led many and many to Him. His heart-break of the recent years was that through the strange mood of these days he was seeing so few coming into the clear experience of Christ's saving power. To him Christ was all and in all.

A few short days of illness and then swift and triumphant entrance into the life of larger service, of beatific vision, of enriching personality and gracious reward. He had earned the Master's "Well Done", but his going leaves a great vacancy. He leaves to mourn their great loss his wife, his two daughters—Mrs. Grace Armstrong and Mrs. Harry Drown—his son Reginald F. Inwood, four grandchildren, two sisters, two brothers—Alfred Inwood, of Southern California Conference, and F. A. Inwood, of the Methodist Church, in England—other relatives and a host of friends. A great soul has won his crown.

" No moaning at the bar. Sail forth strong ship
Into the dark which has God's face for light.
No dirge, but proud farewell from each fond lip,
And praise, abounding praise. Life's clear starlight Lighting this radiant soul to that large room
Where he shall dwell with angels.

Words of woe are for the unfulfilled,
Not those whose moon of life sinks
Full-orbed, glorious and aglow.

No moaning at the bar. But Musical drifting of times waves
To the eternal sea.
Death's soft wind all his canvas lifting
And Christ his pilot to the peace to be."

Hail, Comrade and Friend. Hail, all hail and farewell.

The funeral service was held Friday afternoon, April 23rd, in First Church, Long Beach, in charge of F. G. H. Stevens, assisted by Geo. A. Warmer, R. N. Merrill, A. Ray Moore, Will A. Betts, Glenn R. Phillips and F. H. Ross, the last four of whom he had led into the ministry. A very large number of his brother ministers and of friends were present to pay tribute to this friend they loved.

ALFRED INWOOD.

HORACE KIRK HOLTZINGER

On the wall of my office in Boston is a photograph of Horace Kirk Holtzinger. As I look at it, the casements of memory open, and I see back in the years a strong, stalwart, gallant-souled ambassador of Christ walking steadily forward through the years from a lucrative lay position to a place of service and honor as a good minister of Jesus Christ, with uncalculated and uncalculating devotion and sacrifice. Limned against the skyline of mission work in Philadelphia, of missionary work in Mexico, of shepherding and Superintendency in Montana, of preaching in the Imperial Valley and in the city of Los Angeles is a man of strong physique, undaunted spirit, a warmth and wealth of friendship in his face, unswerved in his quest of the Grail by the hot sands of the desert or the blizzards of the plains or the storms of the mountains. With poignant joy, I remember him back in the years in Philadelphia speaking before an official group of First Church, Germantown, of which I was then minister, telling of his willingness to resign his position which his father before him had filled with honor and enter the mission field in down-town Philadelphia. In all his beginnings was God!

Horace Kirk Holtzinger was born October 18, 1878 in York, Pennsylvania. His early education was completed in the Harrisburg high school. In young manhood, he was a journalist, connected with the old Philadelphia Times. Later, he was connected with the Philadelphia Stock Exchange firm of Cramp, Mitchell and Shober. It was while working with ever-mounting success with this firm that the call came to enter the ministry which he accepted with gladness and with joy. On October 20, 1903, he was married to Miriam Frederick, just graduated from Bryn Mawr. Three children were born of this union—Phyllis, Beatrice and Wesley Burns. In 1910, Brother Holtzinger united with the Philadelphia Conference, completing his academic and ministerial work in the University of Pennsylvania and Neff College. As a local preacher two years previously, he superintended the work at the mission at Fifth Street Temple, Philadelphia, now the Goodwill Industries. From 1908 to 1917, he toiled heroically at this Herculean task. While this work was partly under the aegis of First Church, Germantown, it was also associated with the City Missionary Society throughout all the heroic, shepherding sacrifices of Horace Kirk Holtzinger's nine years of ministry there. Then followed a ministry at Fairhill, then the appointment as a missionary to Mexico in 1920 in charge of the Pachuca Boys School. In the changing character of the work in Mexico, he was transferred to the Montana State Conference where he was pastor of the Livingston Church. From 1922-25, he served as Superintendent of the Butte District of the Montana State Conference—heroic, happy, achieving years. In 1925, he transferred to the Southern California Conference where he was pastor at Brawley for three years, followed by pastorates at Asbury, San Diego; West Adams, Los Angeles; and La Habra. During 1933 and 1934, he was president of the Federated Protestant Churches of Los Angeles. He retired in June, 1936. His passing came on Sunday evening, January 31, 1937.

It is difficult to write these formal lines without expressing my personal affection for Horace Holtzinger. Our souls were knit as were the souls of Jonathan and David. The twenty-six years he gave to the Methodist ministry were as fruitful and rewarding as any I remember. His burning, passionate messages, his sunny-souled optimism, his great hearty laugh, his strong affinities in friendship, his open-eyed social passions where his social action always was controlled by social knowledge, his ever waxing and widening ministry under ever-ripening experience—his worth and his work; his life and his love gladdened and blessed not only the waste places of the world but the populous centers.

Like Chaucer's Parson of the Town,

"He was a shepherde and no mercenarie.

But Cristes lore, and his apostles twelve,
He taughte, and first he folwed it himselve."

CHARLES WESLEY BURNS.

LESLIE ELMER FULLER

Leslie Fuller, for whom life was always a great adventure and who thoroughly enjoyed grappling with the hardships and difficulties of an unfamiliar trail, turned his steps last August 8th to the Great Adventure which all men must face at last. He, accompanied by his two sons, a nephew, and a high school friend, had spent the summer months on a long-anticipated canoe and portage trip through northwest Canada to Aklavik, on the Arctic Circle. From here they planned to make their way along the Rat River to the Yukon, thence home by boat and train. On the sixth day out from Aklavik, as Dr. Fuller was struggling up the Rat River against a rapid and treacherous current, well ahead of the rest of the party, scouting out the best passage, he must have fallen, for when the boys reached the spot they found his body washed up on the shore.

Leslie Fuller was a lover of the out-of-doors, a man of robust vigor and strength. Those who had heard his descriptions of previous trips sensed his keen anticipation of conquering the swampy wastes of the Northwest Territory. He met death on the trail, after covering most of the difficult miles of the trip.

As all his friends knew, Leslie Fuller was a loyal son of California, having been born in Redlands on December 28, 1882. He attended Pomona College, took his seminary training at Drew, and was awarded the M.A. degree by Columbia University. From 1910 to 1912 he studied in Bern, Switzerland, where he earned the degree of Doctor of Philosophy with highest honors. After a one year's pastorate at Pacific Beach, California, he was called to Garrett Biblical Institute to teach in the field of the Old Testament.

The loss to Garrett, where Professor Fuller had taught for twenty-six years, is irreparable. A brilliant, discerning and conscientious scholar, a skillful and popular teacher, a passionately devoted servant of the causes of righteousness, a genial and loyal friend, he made a place for himself which will remain unique in Garrett history. Hundreds of alumni who have forgotten much of their seminary experience will treasure the memory of Dr. Fuller's friendly greeting, his frank and forthright manner, his famous sense of humor, his hearty laugh, to say nothing of the warm hospitality which was always to be found in the Fuller home.

Those who knew Leslie Fuller feel that he would be the last person ever to wish for mourning at his loss. Rather they continue to feel as though his spirit hovers in the Garrett halls and classrooms, and as though at any moment he might stroll into the office to tell a good story or pose a challenging question.

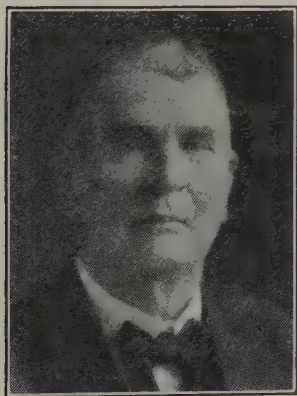

Friends from far and near extend their heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Fuller and their two sons, John and Charles.

MURRAY H. LEIFFER.

SAMUEL A. THOMSON

Samuel A. Thompson who died at his home in Eagle Rock, Calif., Wednesday morning, March 3rd, was born in Dungannon, County of Tyrone, Ireland, in 1842, the second son in a family of seven children of Archibald Thomson and Elizabeth King. At the age of fourteen, with his two young brothers, he sailed to Canada to join his family who had gone there a year earlier. A youth of eighteen he consecrated himself to the Methodist ministry in Ontario, Canada, serving various charges in that Province and covering the distances from charge to charge on horseback . . . a circuit rider of those earlier days. In 1868 he was married to Charlotte Fraleigh Thomson, of Trenton, Ontario, the widow of his elder brother, and moved to the United States where he joined the North Ohio Conference. In 1872 he graduated from Scio (now Mount Union) College, at Alliance, Ohio, and until his passing was its oldest alumnus. In 1882 he moved to Dallas, Texas, where he had a short but very fruitful ministry, until 1884 when he was transferred to the Southern California Conference and for thirty years was one of its most honored and active members, filling important places in its organization. He served the following churches: Grace, Los Angeles, Pomona, Central, San Diego, Vincent and Boyle Heights, Los Angeles and Van Nuys. For nineteen years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Southern California, and for four years a member of the general Missionary Committee. For twenty-three years he was in the District Superintendency, as superintendent of the Fresno and Pasadena districts, then of the Arizona and Nevada Missions, giving in all this wide administrative work a fine leadership, holding the warm love of the brethren under him and organizing many churches, among them the First Church, Glendale and that of Eagle Rock, of whose congregation he afterwards became a member. In 1915 he took the retired relation and residing in Eagle Rock was for fourteen years an active worker in the church there, teaching the Bible class until nearly a year ago and preaching his last sermon there on his ninetieth birthday. To him were given four children: three sons who passed on before him, and a daughter, Mrs. Frances T. Fraleigh, who with her two sons, John and Albert, survive him. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Ellen McMurray of Red Cloud, Nebraska. He passed away suddenly of a heart attack early Wednesday morning, March 3rd and was buried in beautiful Forest Lawn Cemetery the following Saturday. The funeral service was in charge of Alfred Inwood, assisted by E. A. Palmer, John Oliver, Dr. Donald Gaylord, pastor of the Methodist-Congregational Church of Eagle Rock and the saintly aged Dr. J. P. Widney, who in great feebleness but beautiful spirit, spoke of the pioneer work he with Brother Thomson had done in building the kingdom in this Southland.

ALFRED INWOOD.

REINARD FERDINAND STEINBACH

Reinhard Ferdinand Steinbach was born Jan. 18th, 1848 in Crimiitschau Saxony, Germany. After his public school education and apprenticeship as weaver, he traveled throughout the country as was the custom in the Fatherland. His wanderings took him as far as Italy and Austria.

The "Wanderlust" had so captivated this young man that after only a few years at his trade it seized him anew, so in 1872 he came to America. At German Creek, Iowa he had the good fortune to live with a German Methodist family. They invited him to attend the Revival Meetings under Rev. Thalenhorst. There he came to know his Saviour in a personal way and from that day forward, he tried to serve his Master faithfully. The words of Matt. 25:23, "Well done thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord," were used as the funeral text in the German Church at Oakland March 20th. They really tell the story of his life. Shortly after his conversion, while attending a camp meeting he felt the call to the Ministry. After attending the College at Charles City, Iowa, for a time he began his work among German immigrants near Denver, Colo. In 1875 he entered the Southwest German Conference as a probationer. In 1875 he was assigned to Salinas, Kansas, and the next year to Reno, McPherson County. At the Conference in 1877 Bishop Peck sent him to California and he became a member of the California Conference, serving the following churches: Stockton, St. Paul, San Francisco, Oakland First, Folsom, San Francisco, and St. Paul's S. F.

In 1889 he became a member of the California German Conference and served the following charges: First German, Los Angeles; Oakland

First, Santa Rosa; Folsom Street, San Francisco; Oakland, Salem, and Santa Rosa and in 1923 he retired and at the time of the Merger in 1927 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference of which he was a member at the time of his death.

He has thus rounded out 60 years in California Methodism, and during that time belonged to three Conferences. It was not mere chance that he returned to four charges for the second time. He really was so beloved by young and old that he was always welcome in his fields of labor. Up to a few months of his death he made his regular visits at the homes of the shut-ins.

He passed away at Santa Rosa March 18th. At the services March 20th in the Oakland Calvary Church the Pastor was assisted by some of the Comrades of the Cross, Wm. Schuldt, G. A. Waasa, C. F. Nelson, H. J. Hobert, and F. H. Hollman. He was laid to rest in Mountain View Cemetery.

Brother Steinbach had a happy home life. August 13th, 1880 he married Sidonie Elenore Brueck, herself a parsonage daughter. She was a great help to him. And so was his daughter Marie. For many years Brother Steinbach was conference treasurer, and one always saw the three working together at that strenuous task. The last few years he was often lonely. His wife had gone to heaven and his daughter was married to Mr. Hoeh in Santa Rosa, while he lived with his son Albert in Oakland.

The body lies in Mountain View Cemetery, his soul went God-ward, his influence remains with us.

R. ZURBUCHEN.

WILLIAM JAMES PELLOW

William James Pellow was born May 5th, 1902, and passed from our midst on Wednesday, January 20th, 1937.

Brother Pellow greatly endeared himself to his people in every charge that he has served, and was held in the highest esteem by his brethren in the ministry. He gave himself to his work with greatest intensity. Many times he was admonished to spare himself, but the love of Christ constrained him, and he could not. It seemed to be written in the very soul of his nature to live intensely. His convictions were intense and he could not seemingly spare himself. Who knows but perhaps this may be his greatest message to those who knew him.

How lacking in conviction people are today, and how lightly they carry the responsibilities of Christian discipleship. Perhaps we need again today to know one who was willing to give his life for his deepest convictions. In spite of his intensity he was able to combine with it something of the winsomeness of the One he endeavored to follow. He passionately loved the work of the ministry, and for him life held no higher joy than the privilege of standing in the pulpit and preaching to the people whom he loved.

No less entrancing to him was the work of the pastor. There was an utter lack of professionalism in his pastoral care. Every life he touched was an opportunity. Word came to us repeatedly from such people as the man who read the gas meter, the deliveryman who called at his door, and others who spoke of "that young preacher at West Adams". There was a joyous contagion in the abandon with which he did his work. He had begun the most promising ministry at the West Adams Church, and not only that church but the entire community felt that it suffered in his death an irreparable loss. His own people said of him: "The sincerity and devotion of his beautiful Christian living in our midst will ever abide with us as an inspiring example."

He preached as he lived. It was because his sermons were an expression of the deepest and best in his own unusual experiences that they were unfailingly stimulating and helpful and always gripped the hearts of his congregation and inspired in them a desire to reach the ideals he set before them.

Brother Pellow was one of the most promising young men of the Southern California Conference. It is one of the strangest providences, hard for us to understand, that just as he had overcome the almost unsurmountable obstacles in the way of his preparation for the ministry, and was entering so joyously into the work of his first pastorate, he should be taken from us.

A special ruling was made at Drew Seminary whereby he was admitted to study in that institution without first having completed his work for an A.B. degree. He was a graduate of Redlands University, and had just taken his M.Th. at the University of Southern California. He had already been elected to membership in two Scholarship Societies. Many of his professors spoke of him as the most brilliant young man in their courses in recent years. Professor Glen E. Carlson, of the University of Redlands, wrote on the occasion of his death: "Bill Pellow exerted a terrific influence on the campus when he was here, and I happen to know that influence has been felt long after he left. He lived vitally and well when he was here. We must think of his life as that of the brilliant meteor which flashes quickly across the sky, illuminating the landscape for a short period of time, yet throwing sharply into focus and calling to our attention many things which never would have been illuminated by the longer and feebler flow of those whose career is measured by a longer number of years."

President Clarence H. Thurber, of Redlands University, said of him—"He was one of the finest spirits, one of the finest minds, and a man of the greatest vision. He was one of the choicest men to whom I have presented a diploma."

Brother Pellow's mother died when he was a small boy. He and his brother were sent to England, where they lived under the care of an aunt. Later he returned to America, and came to young manhood without the opportunity of completing his education. He was married on April 12th, 1926, to Beatrice Elston. He was from earliest infancy of a deeply religious nature, and responded to the call of the ministry. He began his preparation under a very great handicap. On account of the health of Mrs. Pellow they came to Arizona, where he was employed and had the opportunity to do some supply preaching. He determined at this time to continue his preparation in order that he might be admitted to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He served a pastorate at Highgrove while completing his work for his A.B. degree at Redlands University, and at Christ Church, Los Angeles, while studying at the University of Southern California.

Nine years after their marriage, on December 16th, 1935, they had the great joy of welcoming to their home little Wanda Jacqueline. After what was a long hard struggle for health for Mrs. Pellow, and for an education on his part, it seemed that they had at last come to the realization of their deepest desires, the welcoming of a child into their home and the opportunity for the unrestricted spending of himself in the work of the ministry. It is not for us to know now why this was not to be, but we may trust that in the Providence of God out yonder in the future it will have its meaning. The love and sympathy of a host of friends will follow Mrs. Pellow and Jacqueline, who have gone to be with her father and mother in Unionville, New York.

LEONARD OECHSLI.

CHARLES ARTHUR BUNKER

Charles Arthur Bunker was born near Woodstock, Illinois, October 12, 1850. He died in Pasadena, Calif., April 7, 1937. The death of Dr. Bunker means a distinct loss, not only to the Methodist Church, of which he was a lifelong member, but to the entire community, as well, for he was an all-round man. He held himself to strict account for the performance of civic and social duties, and in all these functions manifested a fine fraternal spirit. His aim was to be on the right side of all questions affecting the general welfare. He was an ardent advocate of Prohibition, and threw himself body and soul into every wise effort to further the cause. So did every good cause find in him an earnest friend and advocate.

The life of Dr. Bunker from beginning to end was a paean of praise to the God whom he loved and served. Converted at the age of 10, though always accustomed to prayer, he then became more actively identified with Christian work, first as a Presbyterian and then as a Methodist. He early felt a call to preach, but up to the age of 18 had been in school but three months. His father had died when he was but four. After that it was a struggle with the family to provide the necessities of life. When Charles was eleven the family moved to Nebraska, where his principal job was herding sheep on the prairies. Later his mother exchanged her holdings here for land in the Ozarks in southwestern Missouri, where the struggle for existence continued. The family lived in most primitive fashion till Charles was 18. Then he slung a pack across his back and trudged away to Rolla, 40 miles distant, to a school of which he had heard. In the spring he returned with $5.00 of the $15.00 with which he started still in his pocket. His next move was to Evanston, Ill., where he was to continue his schooling for the next ten years. He finished his academic training at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, and his Biblical training at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, all made possible by an unflinching purpose to achieve his goal. That same spirit has characterized him in all his years since.

Brother Bunker joined Rock River Conference, and served such charges as Rock Falls, Dixon, First Church, Freeport, and finally Garfield Park, Chicago. Here for health reasons he felt the need of a change of climate, and was transferred to Albuquerque, N. Mex., and thence came to Southern California.

Dr. Bunker's ministry was almost always attended with revivals, some 3,000 being added to the Lord. Of these about a dozen entered the ministry. He was particularly effective in his ministry to young people and children. Retiring from his last charge, Euclid Heights, he located in Pasadena, where he lived as an active and useful member of First Church till the day of his death.

Dr. Bunker's marriage to Miss Anna Maxfield of Sycamore, Ill., was most felicitous. His success as a minister was in no small measure due, not only to her consistent Christian life, but to her earnest cooperation as well. A son was the costly sacrifice they both laid on their country's altar in the World War. He returned from the war, but in broken health, and died after a lingering illness. The widow and one daughter remain to bless the memory of Dr. Bunker. Well may we all say, "Servant of God, well done."

JOHN HEDLEY

John Hedley was born in Northumberland, England, on January 7, 1869. He died in Pasadena, November 30, 1936, aged 67 years. Beginning as an office boy for the Bedlington Collieries, he rose to be cashier before he left ten years later to enter Ranmoor Theological College at Sheffield in preparation for the ministry. In 1897 he received appointment as a missionary to China. In 1898 Annie Smith Whitehead sailed to China to share his life thenceforward and they were married in Shanghai. The Boxer Rising of 1900, pioneer journeys in Mongolia, negotiations with the Chinese Government and with sister communions of English Methodists filled busy years. He was the author of two widely read books, "Our Mission in North China" and "Tramps in Dark Mongolia." From 1908 he was principal of the Preachers Training Institution in Tientsin.

Overwork took its toll and in 1912 he was invalided to California. He regained sufficient strength to supply at Visalia in the summer of 1913. In 1914 he was admitted to the Southern California Conference and for ten years, except for 18 months' service with the Chinese Labor

Corps in France and Flanders, he served the church in California, including three years of teaching in the University of Southern California. Always the Orient called, and since doctors forbade his return to China, he found joy after a brief term as Superintendent of the Pacific Chinese Mission, in assignment to the Hawaiian Mission. In Hawaii, successively as Assistant Superintendent, pastor of First Church, Honolulu and pastor of the Union Church at Lihue, Kauai, he served for eleven years. He and his wife returned to California in 1935, settling in Pasadena, and at the last Conference session he entered the retired relation.

John Hedley was a true ambassador of God, serving the cause of heaven with distinction and singleminded devotion. He was a man of broad horizons. He had a certain largeness of nature, undergirded and enriched by divine grace and by varied service in widely separated lands. His chief joy was in preaching. He was hearty, wholesome and ruggedly honest. Cheerful and hopeful, he had no doubt of the success of the divine enterprise. A stalwart Christian, a faithful minister and missionary, a true friend, he helped the sons of men forward on their toilsome advance toward the glorious City of God.

His home was a haven of happiness. During all his ministry he was nobly sustained and inspired by his devoted wife who shared with him wholeheartedly the joys and sorrows, the hardships and victories of ministerial and missionary life.

There remain in the family, his wife, a son, Professor George P. Hedley, a daughter-in-law and an 11 year old grand-daughter.

MERLE N. SMITH.

JAMES M. OCHELTREE

James M. Ocheltree was born at Sutton, West Virginia on July 26, 1874, being at the time of his death 61 years, 11 months and 13 days old. Brother Ocheltree's mother died when he was a boy of 11. James then went to live with a married sister, whose husband was recognized as one of the very able teachers of that period. Here opportunity was afforded for the boy to lay the foundations for a good education. His was a teachable spirit, and the reward was a well trained mind.

The machine shops of Elkins, West Virginia, became a school for a part of his early 'teen age training. Here he came to know men and how to deal with them. The lesson of insight and understanding stood him in good stead throughout his ministry. He also had the happy experience of a conversion deep and abiding before he left his 'teens.

His father was a preacher of the Protestant Methodist Church in West Virginia. James followed the father's example, and after due preparation joined the Conference where the father enjoyed long and honorable membership. Some years later Doctor Ocheltree was admitted to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church and in 1913 was transferred to the California Conference, and stationed at Downieville. In 1921 he was appointed to Red Bluff, where he had an outstanding pastorate.

He was united in marriage to Martha Emoline Henderson at Burnsville, West Virginia, on August 4, 1897. To Doctor and Mrs. Ocheltree five children were born: Paul and Warren, now in business in Madera, California; Helen, who lives with her mother in Fresno and is attending college there; James M., junior, their oldest son, who met an untimely death in Red Bluff at the age of nineteen, and Ruth, their little daughter who passed away at the early age of two years.

In the Southern California Conference he served at Blythe, Lancaster, Garden Grove and Tulare, his last pastorate.

He was stricken with a heart attack on September 16, 1935, just before he entered the church on Sunday morning. The last sermon he preached was from the text: "My Peace I give unto you," which made a profound impression upon the people of Tulare where he had enjoyed their confidence and love for seven years. He took the Retired Relation at Conference in June, 1936, and lived just two weeks after Conference. He passed away on July 17, 1936 at the hospital in Red Bluff. Interment was made in the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery in Red Bluff.

Peace, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin?
The blood of Jesus whispers peace within.
Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom naught but calm is found.
Peace, perfect peace, with loved ones far away?
In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.
It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease,
And Jesus call us to heaven's perfect peace."

S. S. SAMPSON.

CHARLES DEAN LEWIS

Charles Dean Lewis, son of the parsonage, teacher, preacher, District Superintendent and finally president of the Spanish American Institute, died on February 7th, 1937 at the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles.

The evening before, he spent with his loved ones. He said, "I feel like a king. I am going home tomorrow. Good night." Before dawn, this radiant spirit had passed into the World of Light, there, some future day, to say to his loved ones, "Good Morning."

Born in Roseville, Ohio, February 8, 1871, he had the usual experiences of the P.K.'s, as his father, J. Wesley Lewis, and five others directly related served in the Methodist ministry. As time moved on, he graduated from Hamline University in the class of '94, and Drew Seminary in 1900.

Among his papers was found this past with Christ, dated Sept. 30, 1895, set down during seminary days:

"This evening I give without any reserve, to the Lord Jesus, to be used or destroyed, humbled or exalted, made everything or nothing—

1st, My body, brain, heart and hand and foot; 2nd, My possessions, including money, chattels, books, and clothing; 3rd, My intended wife and all the domestic happiness for which I have hoped; 4th, My worldly prospects and ambitions; 5th, My friends, my liberty, my ALL I am or HOPE to be.

in humble gratitude for His having forgiven again my sins and occupied my heart by faith."

He had taught three years in Plainview, Minnesota, where he met a charming young lady, Nellie Hall, who later became his wife and the mother of their sons, Ned and George.

The brave, true comrade of his life was led to Christ during Charles's Y. M. C. A. mid-winter meetings and in a Bible class which he had while teaching in Plainview. We are not surprised that the two splendid sons, Ned and George, are not only successful in business but outstanding in social good will and a desire to serve. Ned is an active member of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Hospital.

Following seminary, Doctor Lewis had been appointed to Mayville, North Dakota, in the midst of farm empires, the "wheat basket of the world." Here the parsonage home was set up in June, 1901. The illness of Mrs. Lewis compelled the transfer to Southern California, the first appointment being Grangeville in the Fresno District, of which District he later became the Superintendent. His pastorates included Gardena where he was instrumental in locating the Spanish American Institute of which he later became president; First, Alhambra; Vermont Square, Los Angeles; Belmont Heights, Long Beach, preceding his entrance into the Southern California Conference Cabinet. An unusually delightful pastorate in Highland Park, Los Angeles was followed by his appointment to West Adams. Within a few months, came his call to the Spanish American Institute, completing a splendid ministry.

Charles Lewis was unique in the degree of those qualities all successful ministers covet. Genuine, sincere, tolerant, courageous, humble, an unflagging zeal and transcendent faith, he unflinchingly pushed, helped and organized along all Christian efforts. His favorite hymn was "This Day Comes Not Again". His open mind and a tender social conscience made him constructively critical and a good representative of the Kingdom of God. In one enterprise where he served, he and many trusting folks lost life savings, he was heard to exclaim, "I am ashamed that I ever had a part in a system that could bring sorrow to so many people."

From boyhood to the crowning, he had a wide circle of friends. His irresistible humor and his family smile, with a most willing mind and energetic efforts in behalf of moral causes and every good work characterized his entire life. He had a passion for young people and they loved him.

Greetings sent by the San Joaquin Valley Ministerial Council and the Federated Aid Societies included beautiful tributes and the following appropriate poem by Longfellow:

Were a star quenched on high,
For ages would its light,
Still traveling downward from the sky,
Shine on our mortal sight.

So, when a good man dies,
For years beyond our ken
The light he leaves behind him
Lies upon the paths of men.

VERNON M. McCOMBS.

KEMP JULIUS WINKLER

When the word passed from friend to friend that Kemp Winkler, another of our noble, high-souled young men had slipped into the ranks of the immortals, the Conference was stunned. How can we adequately characterize Kemp? His fine culture, his understanding of people and of changing social conditions, his patient courtesy towards those who did not see eye to eye with him, his eager spirit of adventure in "building a pathway to God," his passionate devotion to the building of the ideal Kingdom of God on earth, his skillful leadership in our constructive young people's program, his love of preaching and his ability to interpret the Christian message in terms of modern life, his sensitive response to human need, suffering and injustice, his growing understanding of God and his love for every member of God's family, all combined to make his contribution to religion in life a very rich and invaluable one. In his brief ministry he made an impression for good that will abide in the memory of all who knew him. We greatly needed his counsel and help, and it seems to us who remain that we can ill afford to spare him from our ranks. We counted on his expanding leadership in the coming years; but now we who carry on must hold high the standards he lifted up.

Kemp was born in Los Angeles, Oct. 2, 1900. His parents, Julius H. and Laura Kemp Winkler, have long been active members in Los Angeles Methodism, and Kemp and his sisters, Lois and Tacoma, grew up in the enriching environment of the First Methodist Church. At its altars he dedicated his life to Christ, and here he made his decision to devote himself to the Christian ministry.

Kemp's education was pursued at Stanford University and at Boston University School of Theology. At the latter school he met Agnes King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. King of Bardsdale, and acquaintance ripened into love and plighted troth. In company with Kemp's sister Lois, they made a trip to Europe and the Holy Land, and on their return were married September 20, 1927.

He had joined the Southern California Conference in 1924 while still in school. To the active work of the pastorate he brought his fine scholarly mind, motivated by a consuming love for Christ and for all "the least of these" his brethren. His appointments were Chatsworth, Associate Pastor at First Church-Long Beach, Torrance, and Newport Beach. Faithful pastoral ministry to youth and mature years alike won for him a host of devoted friends.

From the beginning young people rallied around Kemp and Agnes, and both were quickly called into the Conference young people's councils, serving as quest and resource leaders in many Epworth League Institutes. His executive ability led to his service as dean of two Institutes, Pacific Palisades and Arroyo Grande; and at the time of his death he was chairman of the Conference Institute Commission.

Although he grew up surrounded by love and devotion and in a home that was able to supply his needs, yet he early began to make the difficult transition in his thinking that led him to become a valued member of the growing group of ministers and laymen who believe that the church should identify itself with the underprivileged and the dispossessed and work for the building of a new world that will more nearly express Jesus' ideals of the Kingdom of God.

An operation during his Stanford days left Kemp with a physical disability that became an increasing drain upon his strength. But most of his friends did not suspect it, so well did he carry on with his brave, heartening smile, and his holy daring for God and right. He was stricken suddenly and crossed the bar almost without the "sadness of farewell," to meet his "Pilot face to face," October 3, 1936.

Warm tributes were paid to Kemp and his effective ministry in the service in First Church, Los Angeles, by Drs. Roy L. Smith and Elmer E. Helms, and the following Sunday by the writer in Christ-Church-by-the-Sea at Newport Beach. His body was laid to rest in Forest Lawn. Those assisting were his young comrades in the ministry. Subsequently at a charming vesper service planned by his wife at Newport Beach, all the Methodist pastors of Orange County, and the writer participated in the dedication of a neon lighted cross in Kemp's memory that shines from the top of Christ-Church-by-the-Sea, the gift of Agnes and their four-year-old son, Wilmont King. Members of all the churches he loved and served in this Conference participated in that service and bore eloquent testimony to the richness and depth of his ministry.

JAMES EDWIN DUNNING.

JAMES ALBERT CROUCH

James Albert Crouch was one of God's gentleman. Born in 1863 in Bourbon County, Kansas, raised among its pioneers, he caught the spirit of that great state, and was naturally a reformer. He came to California in 1880, and hungering for an education, he entered the University of Southern California. While here he came under the influence of Rev. M. L. Colburn, pastor of the University Church, and was led by him to give his heart to God. His conversion was outstandingly clear. It was like Saul of Tarsus, he met God face to face, and was transformed through and through. He was made a new creature in Christ Jesus, old things passed away and all things—purposes, ambitions, habits, life—became new. He became a fearless man of God. Albert was pure gold. He soon felt the call to the ministry. His ministerial life was spent in hard places.

In August, 1889 he was married to Cora A. Sherman and for 47 years they lived in love together. In 1888 he went to the Arizona Mission, and served Wilcox, Gila River circuit (100 miles long, seven different preaching places) Alhambra and Glendale, Winslow and Holbrook, and Yuma. In 1905 he united with the Southern California Annual Conference. He served as Chaplain of the Territorial Prison, being the first Protestant chaplain appointed.

He served Mesa and Tombstone, Glendale and Gilbert. For thirteen years he did missionary work with the Yuma Indians, 1909-1922. He was advisor, doctor, preacher, brother, a loving, faithful missionary to these neglected people. Albert was intensely evangelistic, aiming always to lead men to Christ. In 1924, broken in body, but not in spirit, he took the Retired Relation, moving to Eagle Rock where he remained until his home-going.

He built churches at Safford, Yuma, Bard, New Indian Mission church and parsonage at Yuma Indian Mission. Only eternity can reveal the scope of such a ministry. And the grace of God, which was sufficient for him in his arduous toil in his missionary endeavors, sustained him to the close, and on July 27th, 1936 he went "sweeping through the gates of the New Jerusalem, washed in the blood of the Lamb." He leaves a widow, two sons, Chas. Albert, and Paul Sherman, and one daughter, Mrs. L. W. Morris to mourn his loss.

"Servant of God, Well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

E. J. INWOOD.

FRANK BRINKMEYER

Frank Brinkmeyer was born in a parsonage at San Joseph, Missouri, September eighteenth, 1863. He was converted and consecrated himself to the ministry at a camp meeting in Missouri in the fall of 1883 and all through the years of a long and useful life he sustained an unerring loyalty to his Christ. He began his ministerial career soon afterwards, when he was licensed as a local preacher and on the advice of his friends he entered the Theological Seminary at Warrenton, Missouri where he remained only a short period for the workers in the Saint Louis German Conference were so scarce at that time, that he was urged to take up missionary work before he had finished his theological education.

The Conference sent him to Moberly, Missouri which became his first appointment. Here he met and married Margaret Wainant who was a devoted and faithful helpmeet during all the years of his ministry.

Shortly after his marriage in 1888 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Joyce. In the German Conference he served the following churches: Moberly, Jamestown and Etna, Missouri; Pittsfield, Bloomington and Edwardsville, Illinois and District Superintendent of the Belleville District of the Saint Louis German Conference.

In 1909 he was transferred to the California German Conference and served the following churches: Pasadena; 11, Superintendent California District; 15, Saint Paul's San Francisco; 20, Bethel, Los Angeles; 23, Sabbath Year; 24, San Diego; 25, Anaheim. With the uniting of the German Conference and the Southern California Conference he became a member of this Conference and was appointed to Anaheim and in 1928 he retired. His was a long and useful ministry.

He was a man of conspicuous ability and prophetic courage. The outstanding characteristic of Brother Brinkmeyer was his originality. There was no one like him. An attempt to imitate him was a sure method of finding humiliation and defeat.

Another characteristic of this man that made him distinctive was his loyalty to his friends. He was a prolific reader and somewhat advance thinker, but he never lost sight of the fact that Christ was his all and in all and his preaching held closely to the gospel.

He was a true pastor and always endeared himself to his flock. With those who knew him best the memory of his genial smile and friendly handclasp will remain fresh and beautiful all through the years.

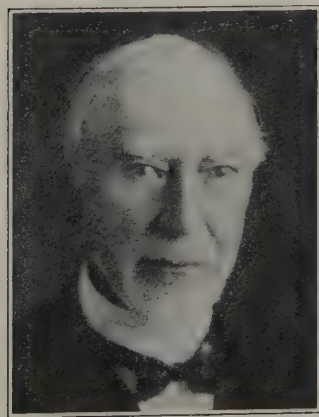

His homegoing took place on Sunday afternoon, September 27, 1936 and was preceded by a long and painful illness, borne with Christian fortitude and patience.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters Edith, Esther and Mabel and two sons, Arthur and Emil. His body rests in a fair green hillside in Forest Lawn, Glendale, California, but his noble spirit is with his God.

ALEXANDER HARDIE

Alexander Hardie was born at Norwick in Canada on October 4, 1841 and departed this life on June 25, 1936 at the age of ninety-four. When a boy of fifteen, he attended an old-fashioned camp-meeting where he was converted to God and at once joined the Methodist Church. Three years later he entered Victoria College at Cobourg. Here he graduated as an honor student in Arts in 1866. The same year he was ordained at Montreal and at once began his active work in the ministry. On June 26, 1873 he was united in marriage to Maria Davidson. Three children were born to them; one died in infancy, but his son, George Alexander, and his daughter, Ethel Jane, still survive. For seven years Dr. Hardie acted as financial agent of the Staustead Wesleyan College and during his stay in Canada served some most important charges. In 1887 he received a call as English teacher in Nobles College, Tokio, Japan. After four years, he returned, with his family, to Los Angeles and joined the Southern California Conference and became a teacher in our University for seven years. After serving several churches in this Conference, he retired from the active work in 1915.

Since his wife's death fourteen years ago, he has devoted his time and study to writing. He made it a practice to study five hours a day and walk one hour. Six books have been published and he has left three others in manuscript form. He gave away thousands of his books. His funeral service in University Church was largely attended by friends and members of the church and ministers from the Conference. Professor C. V. Gilliland had charge of the service and read his obituary notice. Short addresses were given by Rev. John Oliver and Rev. W. C. Hodgson. Appropriate music was given by the choir. The student body will not soon forget his "God bless you." His son and his wife, who ministered so faithfully to all his temporal needs during his declining years, will ever cherish his memory as a true son of God. His body was interred in the Rosedale Cemetery, beside that of his partner of other days, to await the resurrection morn. We would sing

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

WILLIAM M. STERLING

William M. Sterling was born in Newport, Nova Scotia, July 4th, 1845. He received his early education in the common schools of his native birthplace and at the Wesleyan Academy, Sackville, New Brunswick. He was converted in early life and soon felt the call to ministry. He then entered and later graduated from the Wesleyan University, at Middleton, Conn. From there he went to the Boston Theological School finishing his education there, and entering the Vermont Conference, was appointed to Newport. Serving four pastorates in Vermont he then transferred to the Maine Conference; and in 1881 to the Minnesota Conference, and three years later returning to Maine, and after four years coming to the Southern California Conference, where he gave 27 years to the active pastorate, six years of which were given as Superintendent of the San Diego District. In 1874 at Barton, Vt., he was married to Miss Eva E. Drew, and they walked together in loving fellowship for 40 years. To this union one daughter was born, Mrs. Ellen Sterling Thorne of Pasadena. In 1914 he took retired relation, and has since lived in Pasadena. The last years were years of great feebleness, and on August 24th, 1936, "he was not for God took him." Brother Sterling was indeed a man of God. His presence in any church was a benediction for he was a man of clean hands and pure heart. He was a man of prayer. The secret of his beautiful life was that it was one of constant and closest communion with his Christ. He was a faithful preacher of the Word. The passion of his life was to preach Christ and Him crucified. And now he has heard his Master say: "Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant."

E. J. INWOOD.

MRS. WILLIAM M. STERLING

Sarah Pauline Sterling was born in the state of Maine January 11, 1845. While yet a child she was converted and later united with the Methodist Episcopal Church of which organization both her father and brother were regularly ordained ministers.

Mrs. Sterling's first husband was Mr. Adelbert B. Stevens, a successful business man who retired from his business career after he had acquired a competency and moved to their commodious home in Altadena, California, where they lived until Mr. Stevens passed away.

Then it was that Mrs. Stevens was united in marriage to Dr. W. M. Sterling an honored member of the Southern California Conference.

Mrs. Sterling was a great lover of the beautiful whether in nature, art or literature. It was this characteristic which led her into the field of painting. To this activity she devoted much time and effort as was demonstrated by the numerous pictures which adorned the walls of her commodious home. While she sold many of her productions she bestowed not a few as gifts upon her friends.

Nor did Mrs. Sterling's desire to express beauty exhaust itself in her use of the brush and canvas. Even before blindness fell like a pall upon her vision she took up her pen and proceeded to express in verse the thoughts and yearnings of her inmost soul. This is seen in the poems she wrote before the one on Blindness in which she endeavors to depict the darkness which she so keenly felt.

But her chief delight was found in the spiritual beauty she discovered in the scripture both in her home study as well as its exposition in the sanctuary, where she was a regular and attentive worshipper until the infirmities of age and the affliction of blindness overtook her she delighted in the Bible. Then it was that the companionship which had so long existed between herself and Dr. Sterling revealed itself. As she sat in physical darkness he would open the scriptures and permit the glorious gospel to stream from its sublime utterances into her ravished soul. This companionship was continuous from the time of their marriage to the end of their long lives with the exception of the few brief weeks which intervened between their decease. Both lived to be past four score and ten years. Mrs. Sterling was buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Altadena, California.

WILBUR FISK.

MRS. GEORGE STEED

In a service conducted by Dr. F. G. H. Stevens, assisted by Rev. Henry G. Burgess and the writer, at the Los Angeles Crematory, February 18, 1937, final tribute was paid to the useful and beautiful life of Mrs. George Steed. When her soul was released from "the earthly house of this tabernacle" it ended many years of intense suffering from arthritis. It also marked the entrance into "a house not made with hands eternal in the heavens," of one who for thirty-five years has graced a number of parsonages in the Southern California Conference, and prior to that for several years in the Canadian Northwest.

Mrs. Steed was born in Greenwich, England. She received her education in a private school and was a talented and accomplished pianist. In May, 1891, she came to Manitoba, Canada, to be united in marriage to Rev. George Steed, then a minister in the Manitoba-Northwest Conference. Brother and Sister Steed came to Southern California in 1902 and were stationed at San Pedro for four years. It was here the writer came to know this interesting family and come under the influence of this noble woman who not only created the true atmosphere of a Christian home for her own children, but who in a real way opened the doors of the parsonage home to all the boys and girls in the church. In her own silent way she extended an influence that will be felt as a benediction through many years yet to come by those who had the good fortune to know her.

Through long years of suffering her Christian experience became more radiant. The peace and joy she possessed verified the ancient promise: "He shall keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee."

The wise man of old said of the good woman: "Her children rise up and call her blessed." Increasing recognition is given to the rich contributions that parsonage homes make to the life of the world by the type of sons and daughters they send out into useful and distinguished service. Beyond any doubt a large factor in this rich contribution is the quality of the women that preside as wives and mothers in these homes. The Steed home has given five splendid sons and daughters to render honored service in private and public life. Dr. D. Victor Steed is Chairman of the Department of Mathematics in the University of Southern California; Mrs. Alfred Trefethen (Gwendolyn), lives in Lomita; Roy M. Steed is a contractor and builder in Alhambra, where he is also a member of our Marengo Avenue Church; George Valentine Steed, who with his brother Roy forms the firm of Steed Brothers, is treasurer of the First Methodist Church in Alhambra; and Frances, Mrs. Chas. Eiseman, is a teacher in the Florence Avenue School, Los Angeles. These with our brother, the Rev. Geo. Steed, of Moorpark, cherish the memory of one dearly beloved. That which she was still remains with them as a beautiful benediction.

JOHN GABRIELSON.

MRS. SAMUEL B. WOOLPERT

Martha (Hodges) Woolpert, widow of Rev. Samuel B. Woolpert, was born February 27, 1852, in Luesca County, Iowa. Early in life her interests were along religious lines. On September 18, 1870, she was joined in marriage to Rev. Samuel B. Woolpert and for more than 58 years these splendid spirits lived in happy concord, and established a delightful christian home which radiated the faith that he preached and gave full proof of the Christian belief in which they lived.

Ten years of her life were spent in the parsonage homes of Kansas in the pioneer days of that great state. In 1887 she with her husband came to the Southern California Conference where again she was active in the general work as helpmeet of her husband in ten different churches, laying the foundation for a number of churches.

In 1899 the health of Rev. Woolpert was such that he asked for the Retired Relations and with her husband Mrs. Woolpert went to Alhambra where they united with the local church and made their home until the death of Rev. Woolpert in 1929 and where she continued to live until near her death. She gave full proof of her devotion to the church in her whole hearted service. She lived frugally and gave a large portion of what came into her hands to the various causes and institutions of the church. She was interested in Missions and was vitally interested in the Spanish work at San Gabriel and the Spanish American Institute at Gardena. She was also interested in Foreign Missions, keeping a missionary in India for a number of years. After she was unable to read she always kept her Advocate by her side ready to have someone give her the church news.

With that quiet, sturdy common sense and good judgment she combined the beautiful patience that comes only from a deep religious experience; a calm faith that met all difficulties with a smile because she "knew in whom she had believed," as did Paul; and the "love that beareth all things, hopeth all things, believeth all things" was in her heart. The church people always loved her. In every charge Mrs. Woolpert won her place in the hearts of the people they served.

There were two children in this home—Royal M. Woolpert of Los Angeles and Maud Irene—who in December, 1899, was married to O. W. Reinius, who the following year united with the Southern California Conference and together they continued in the work until the time of her death July, 1926.

Mrs. Woolpert passed to her eternal reward October 21, 1936.

MRS. JOSEPH D. CRUM

In the death of Mrs. J. D. Crum we have lost the next to the last of the original members and their wives who formed this Conference in 1875.

Mary Ann Dalton, fourth child of George Dalton and Mary Ann Sage, was born in Circleville, Ohio, Oct. 4, 1842. Her mother died when she was fourteen months old and she was raised in the family of Mrs. Cassianda Morgan, a dear friend of the family.

When her father started for California when she was seven, at the request of her foster parents, she was left with them. A few years afterwards she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

On October 2, 1867, she was united in marriage to the Rev. Joseph D. Crum in Piatt County, Illinois, and eight years later they were transferred to the California Conference which that same year was divided by the formation of the Southern California Conference.

Brother Crum was appointed to Santa Monica. There being no railroad then, they came from San Francisco by steamer Orizaba with the Rev. J. R. Tansey, newly appointed Presiding Elder of the Los Angeles District. Arriving in San Pedro October 7, 1875, they anchored about where the end of the present breakwater is, and passengers and baggage were transferred by lighter to shore. Here Mrs. Crum met her father, and her stepmother and her stepbrothers and sister, and her half brothers and sister.

Santa Monica was just then being subdivided. Brother Crum secured lots from the land company and built a church which still remains as a part of the Patriotic Hall in the rear of the present Ocean Park Church. He also built a parsonage which still stands on Fifth near Arizona Avenue.

The daughter, Mrs. Josephine Morris, has in her possession the Bible from which he then preached and the little bell which he used to call the children in to Sunday School.

As a pastor's wife she served with her husband in Santa Monica one year, Santa Ana one year, Santa Monica again two years, Pomona three years, Artesia one year, Newhall one year, and Florence three years. Brother Crum was translated in 1903. Making her home near the University in Los Angeles that home became a center for students who loved her deeply. She held membership in the St. James Church, later merged with University Church, and in Vincent Church, from which she was transferred to Santa Monica in 1929, thus coming back to mother the church where she had served as the wife of its first pastor. Here she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Josephine Morris.

Denied the privilege of regular attendance she always wanted to know the text and whether there "were many out." Often she said to her pastor, "I don't know why the Lord leaves me here, I am ready and just waiting His call." When her pastor told her that she was needed as the mother of the church she replied, "Then you are all my children." The church thought of her that way, as an old-time mother who knew and loved her children and one who knew and loved her God.

When that small wiry body finally gave up on July 31st, 1936, her soul went out gladly.

Her family gathered by the hundreds to honor her, for she was buried, as was right, from the church she had helped found over sixty years before. In that gathering was Sister Woodcock, the only surviving member of the charter group.

She is survived by her son, John H. Crum; her daughter, Josephine Morris; one grandson, Douglass Crum; two great grandsons, Malcolm and John; a sister, Mrs. Josephine S. Hall of Tulsa, Okla.; three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Dalton, Mrs. W. T. Dalton, and Mrs. William Jenkins of Los Angeles; and over a hundred nieces and nephews who loved "Aunt Mary".

She always loved folks and the beauties of the world and she is surely enjoying heaven.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

MRS. SILAS SPROWLS

Kate Wing Sprowls belonged to that noble band of men and women who make a garden out of the desert, who plant flowers of hope and trees of worth along the trails they travel. She was by right of her devotion to the common good a member of life's real aristocracy, the aristocracy of Service.

She was born in Elgin, Illinois, August 15th, 1857. She was a frail child. She was never able to attend school for a whole year at a time. All her life she was dogged by ill health. But by sheer force of will sustained by courage she acquired an education and did a glorious work for society. For a number of years she was a teacher in the schools of Illinois. Then she came with her mother in 1888 to California and taught for seven years in Garden Grove. Then she exchanged the teacher's desk for the responsibility of a Methodist parsonage and a homemaker, for in 1895 in Garden Grove she was married to Rev. Silas Sprowls, the pastor of our Garden Grove Church, and undertook the upbringing of his two children, Ralph and Madeleine. She and her husband served in the churches of Orange, Rialto, Burbank and Colton. They took the Retired Relation in 1903 and affiliated at once with the Westlake Church in Los Angeles, now the Wilshire Church. Her husband passed to his reward in 1915.

On October 10th, 1936, she left her pleasant home on Lillian Way for a more glorious and abiding habitation. For God had called her to the City Celestial. She is survived by her son, Ralph Sprowls, and by her brother, E. W. Wing, and by a cousin, Mrs. Walter Bordwell.

Mrs. Sprowls took an intense interest in all movements for human wellbeing. She was at one time a member of Ebell Club. She was active in her local church and loyal to its every interest. But her great work was in the Woman's Home Missionary Society and in recognition of her distinguished service she was rewarded by high official position in both the Conference and the National Societies. For thirteen years Mrs. Sprowls was a trustee of the National Board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, for two years she was Conference president of the Southern California Woman's Home Missionary Society, for six years she was Bureau Secretary for Utah and Bureau Secretary for Deaconess work for the Pacific Coast. For many years she was a trustee of the Methodist Hospital and a member of the City Missionary Society. She filled a great place in our Methodism. Mrs. Sprowls was a woman of unusual ability and character. She had a courage that never faltered. She was clear-sighted, level-headed, well-balanced. She was a splendid executive and a great administrator. Honor was the very essence of her conduct. She loved her church and labored for it with amazing zeal and passion. She was a true Christian. Her inspiration, her power, her worth came from the Christ she so loyally followed. She is gone but she is not forgotten. Her work abides because it was in the Lord.

WILLSIE MARTIN.

MRS. JAMES McCREADY HUSTON

Eliza Holoway Huston was born December 17, 1851, in Bridgeport, Ohio. Her family was prominent in that locality, her father being a banker and active in church and civic affairs. His daughter was inclined in the same way and became a true helpmate to Dr. James McCreedy Huston whom she married November 21, 1894. He was then pastor at East Liverpool, Ohio, but not long after he received a call to the First Methodist Church, Pasadena, Calif.

Through their labors there came the "most beautiful brown stone church in Methodism" completed at a cost of $80,000, a stupendous sum for 1901. That brown stone church, now Holliston Ave. Church, stands as a type of the life of these two devoted and noble workers.

Here Mrs. Huston connected herself with all the interests of her husband while still lending substantial support to the church in her old home. She gave to it the family residence which she inherited to become a Methodist Deaconess Home. This still continues to serve its purpose in Bridgeport, Ohio.

Being vitally interested in all Missionary work it was soon recognized by the members of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and she was elected as Treasurer of the organization and became known throughout the Conference. Soon after the turn of the century the Huston family moved to Los Angeles. About 1915 Mrs. Huston was stricken with paralysis and with each year she became more and more helpless. In spite of this fact she maintained a steady courage and unflinching interest in the life of her family and friends down to the time of her death, December 9, 1936. "She fought a good fight, she kept the faith."

J. D. HUSTON.

MRS. GEORGE HAFFEN

Florence Ebey, now known as Mrs. Florence E. Haffen, was born in White Hall, Illinois, on January 28, 1868. Her father being a Free Methodist preacher, the family moved about the state, living in smaller towns such as Bellville, Crystal Lake and others, then going to Chicago, where she secured an education in the public schools preparatory to teaching, occupying positions in several of the schools there. In the year 1889 she came to California, some members of the family having preceded her. Here she attended the Normal School in Los Angeles; then taught school in the city a number of years. In 1896 she was united in marriage to George Haffen and became a faithful helper in the work of the ministry. They were in active service together for twenty-five years, retiring in 1922 on account of her failing health. They moved to Bellflower and have lived on a small ranch since that time. She became eager to get back into school work and taught for a time in the school on Somerset Avenue. This seemed to cause a complete breakdown from which she never completely recovered.

She was a splendid Christian of highest character and always exerted a beneficial influence over all persons with whom she was in any way associated and was ever ready to lend a helping hand to any one in need. Having no children of her own, she cared for the three small children of her widowed sister during a number of years.

She was usually engaged in many features of work in the church—always as a Sunday school teacher, also in young people's societies, and enthusiastically in the Woman's Missionary work.

Her testimony was clear and bright, and her prayer life was marvelous. On April 5th, 1936, she gave her last public testimony in the Methodist Church at Hynes, Calif., following the Communion service. Referring briefly to the time of her conversion in early life, then to her life of service for the Master, she stated that she was now consecrated and sanctified wholly, ready for any experience that might come to her, little realizing that the end of her earthly life was so near. Again, it is recalled that the last prayer she offered at the family altar in the home contained the familiar verse of a hymn:

"Oh God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our guide while life shall last
To our eternal home."

She could hardly have foreseen, when uttering the words "while life shall last," how very soon the end would come.

On the evening of April 16th, as she was coming in from the street alone, after dark, she became confused when she was required to step on higher ground. This caused her to fall resulting in the breaking of her hip bone. She was taken to the Long Beach Community Hospital where every possible and kindly care was given her. Owing, however, to the low condition of her health prior to the accident, pneumonia set in and at the early hour of 5:15, Tuesday morning, July 7, 1936, she departed this life and was conveyed to that happy home over there where sorrow and sighing will never be known again.

She is survived by her husband, George Haffen, also by one sister, Mrs. Grace Reed of Los Angeles, and three brothers, two of whom, Clarence and George live in Oakland, California, while her brother Howard lives in Washington, D. C.

GEORGE HAFFEN.

MRS. HARRIET CAMPBELL SCHULTZ

(Supply Pastor)

Mrs. Harriet Campbell Schultz was the eighth in a family of nine children. She was born in a small town in Wisconsin September 4, 1863 and lived in that state until she came to California with her husband and two daughters in the fall of 1920. She made her home in San Diego until July 26, 1936 when she was called to give up her work here.

She had a real Christian heritage, counting Martin Luther among her ancestors. At the age of fourteen she became church organist, and from that time was active in church work as organist, choir director, Sunday school teacher and superintendent, church clerk, Ladies' Aid Evangelism secretary, W.C.T.U. Evangelist and finally a pastor.

She and her husband, Charles R. Schultz, began their lives together in 1885 and spent thirty-three years on a pioneer farm in western Wisconsin. The two miles they had to travel to the village by horse and buggy, through rain and mud, snow and sleet, or the amount of farm work they had to do, never kept them from choir rehearsal or the Sunday services.

After coming to San Diego Mrs. Schultz was an active worker in the W.C.T.U., and spent some years as Conference Evangelism chairman of the Ladies' Aid. She helped in special meetings in a number of churches.

She was a firm believer in prayer and, when, on Christmas Day, 1929, her faithful companion went Home she prayed that she might be given some work with which to occupy her time and thought. In direct answer to this prayer an opportunity was later afforded her to assist the pastor at Encanto in his work. Then on April 30, 1931 she was licensed as a local preacher by the Quarterly Conference of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, San Diego, James W. Mahood, pastor, and James Allen Geissinger, District Superintendent. At the conference session at Long Beach, 1932, she was appointed supply pastor at Encanto where she served faithfully until May 20, 1936 when she was stricken with apoplexy.

During her pastorate Mrs. Schultz not only carried on her pastoral duties, walking many miles weekly over the hills in pastoral calls, but also pursued the Local Preachers' course of study. She was to have been ordained Deacon at the Annual Conference in June, 1936, but as was so fittingly said at her funeral service, "Our Bishop Baker was not permitted to lay his hands upon her head in ordination, but our Great Bishop laid His hand upon her head in coronation."

Her two daughters, Miss Vera V. Schultz, a teacher in San Diego, and Mrs. Katharine M. Paul, in business in Los Angeles, are left a rich heritage. Her life was a benediction to all who knew her. Her Christianity was not of word only, but was truly alive, felt by all who came in touch with her.

Two days before she closed her eyes in final sleep she said to her nurse as she pointed near the foot of her bed, "Oh, don't you see Him? My loving Saviour stands right there." Truly with such intimacy as this we can certainly say, She has gone to be with Him.

She wrote the following lines at the time of her husband's death and it seems fitting that it should be placed here.

"We pause upon the brink of time:
Our earthly vision cannot see
Beyond the darkening of the night
That ushers in eternity.

We listen for the boatman's oar,
Ah! See! Our Christ in human form,
A sweet farewell, a long drawn sigh,
And lo! Eternity is born."

JAMES W. MAHOOD.

METHODIST MEN IN ANNUAL SESSION MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1937

First Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles

Methodist Men is the name of a new organization for men's work in the Southern California Conference. This new program is a successor to the Southern California Conference Brotherhood.

The aims and purposes are briefly stated in this one sentence—"to correlate and promote men's work in the Southern California Conference". It is all inclusive—Brotherhoods—Men's Clubs—Forums—Bible Classes. The program is well set up with Conference-district and regional officers.

The suggested aims for 1937 are given briefly here below—

- 1—Beautification of church property.
- 2—An awakened interest of men in the boys of our church.
- 3—Pick up the slack among our men in church interest—both inside and outside the church.
- 4—Promote with the pastor the Sunday evening service.

The slogan is—

"Rediscover the church for men.

Rediscover men for the church."

The new name—these objectives—the slogan and the organization itself were heartily endorsed by a group of 150 men during the afternoon session and were climaxed with a dinner meeting with 500 men present. With the new leadership of laymen working with a representative of the Bishop's Cabinet together with the counsel of the office of the Conference Board of Education and the Dist. Supt. of each district this new program is launched.

The officers elected are as follows:

WOMAN'S DAY MEETING

The auditorium of the First Methodist Episcopal Church was filled on Thursday afternoon, when the Conference Women's organizations held their annual anniversary service. Mrs. Wray Andrew presided.

A beautiful devotional service given by Miss Katherine Higgins followed an inspiring praise service.

The address of the afternoon "Women of Yesterday and Tomorrow" was given by Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf. His message brought to the many women present a new vision of their power, freedom and responsibility since women hold in their hands the destiny of the people.

Two numbers, "The Lord's Prayer" and "His Eye Is On the Sparrow", were sung by Miss Zaruhi Elmassian.

Reports of the three organizations were given by Mrs. Wray Andrew, Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick, President of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern California Conference, and Mrs. C. F. Van de Water, President of the Federated Women's Aid Societies.

A telegram was voted sent to Governor Merriam asking him to veto the repeal of "Three-Day Marriage Bill", also that for legalizing dog racing in the state.

The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Robert A. Young.

MRS. GEORGIANA D. CHAPMAN,

Recording Secretary.

WOMAN'S AID FEDERATION

The Woman's Aid Federation met in the annex to the First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, Thursday morning, June 18, for their annual meeting. The president, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water, presided. Mrs. R. A. Young gave the devotional and spiritual message, using as her subject "Seeing and Touching Life Through a Cross."

The Fresno-Glendale district is divided into three sub-sections, the Long Beach into three and the San Diego-Arizona into four. The work of these was presented by the District presidents and the section chairmen were introduced. District presidents reporting were: Mrs. Ina Hansen, Fresno-Glendale; Mrs. Geo. Frampton, Long Beach; Mrs. O. J. Hill, Los Angeles; Dr. Maude Pettifer, Pasadena; and Mrs. J. G. Shanafelt, San Diego-Arizona. The value of this group to the church and its contribution cannot be estimated but as the reports were given it was easy to see the spiritual, mental, moral, social and physical needs had all been enriched and helped. The report of the Secretary, Mrs. G. N. Parsons, shows 279 aids with a membership of 16,247 women; total receipts were $130,643.07.

As this is the only society within the church which presents to the women the work of the Conference institutions and welfare projects, Mrs. C. F. Toney, Welfare Chairman, presented Mrs. Elaine Dudley for the Goodwill Industries; Miss Katherine Higgins, for the Plaza Center; Mrs. Grow Brown, for the Spanish American Institute; and Fred Ross for the sailors' work at San Pedro. Each gave a brief outline of their work. On behalf of the Long Beach District Aid Federation Mrs. Van de Water presented each of these speakers with a check for $5 as a memorial given by the district for their late president, Mrs. G. L. Mowry.

Mrs. S. N. Bisbee then presented Mrs. E. C. Douglas, who spoke on "World Citizenship", and Mrs. Eleanor Miller, a member of the State Legislature, who had the subject, "The Church and Legislation". Time was too short for forum discussion which had been planned.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water.

First Vice President, Mrs. S. N. Bisbee.

Second Vice President, Mrs. R. A. Young.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. Matthew Lamont.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. G. N. Parsons.

Treasurer, Mrs. F. C. Onion.

Historian, Mrs. Geo. Frampton.

Parliamentarian, Mrs. R. O. Taylor.

Meeting adjourned at noon.

MRS. C. F. VAN DE WATER, President.

MRS. MATTHEW LAMONT, Secretary.

MINISTERS' WIVES ASSOCIATION

The ministers' wives of the Conference met for a fellowship luncheon in the banquet hall of the First Methodist Church on Friday, June 19, at 1:00 o'clock. After a delicious meal, served by members of the J.O.C. Class of the church, Mrs. George Root, President for the year, called the meeting to order. The first item on the program was a "spell-down", the president giving the names of charges in the Conference and asking for the names of the pastors. This contest was won by Mrs. Clarence Wagner, who was given a prize.

Mrs. P. F. Huebner read a History of the Association, compiled from old records. This was ordered to be filed in the Secretary's book as a permanent record.

Mrs. F. D. Mather and Mrs. F. S. Woodcock, the oldest members of the association present, were introduced.

The wives of the district superintendents introduced new members of the association. These included Mesdames Rakestraw, Koehler, Noel LaRoque, Norman Conard, Roy Ford, Oscar Newby, B. E. Garcia, J. J. Vieira, L. P. Tirre, Robert Cordell, Winston Trever, F. W. Elger and Glenn Evans. Following this, Mrs. Dow Hoffman read a paper on "Parsonage Thrills." Mrs. Merle Smith, whose husband retires this year after a service of 21 years in First Church, Pasadena, was introduced.

Mention of new arrivals in parsonage homes was also made by the wives of the superintendents, and the mothers who were present were honored with small gifts. This was followed by a paper on "Why So Many Preachers' Sons are in 'Who's Who'," by Mrs. Bruce Ellis.

Greetings were ordered sent to the following members who were absent because of illness: Mesdames George Cliff, Harry Shepherd, Wendell Kramer, George Warmer, Sr., McKinley Walker, A. D. Bancroft, and others.

A letter was read from Mrs. James C. Baker, wife of the Bishop, and the Secretary was asked to send her a telegram of greeting and appreciation.

The Ministers' Wives Quartet, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Matson and Mrs. Danskin, accompanied by Mrs. Thompson, sang two numbers. Miss Eileen Fernald gave two delightful readings, and Mrs. Gustafson, accompanied by Miss Dalton, sang two numbers.

Mrs. Harold Preston, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented their report and the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for: President, Mrs. Richard N. Merrill; Vice President, Mrs. Clyde Crist; Secretary, Mrs. Harold Baker; Treasurer, Mrs. Elmer Gorman.

Resolutions Committee: Mrs. Will Malan, Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Bruce Ellis.

Nominating Committee: Mrs. Luther Rice, Mrs. Chester Lewis, Mrs. Fay Butler.

Mrs. Louis Fiske read the report of the Committee on Resolutions which was accepted and ordered to be included in the minutes:

We would express our gratitude to God for His care over us during the past year, and for the privilege that has been ours of serving Him from the parsonages.

We are deeply grateful to Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Byron Horn, Mrs. Gerald Harvey, our pastors' wives, and to Mrs. J. G. Early and their helpers for the thoughtfulness in preparing a place where we might rest in comfort, and for the afternoon teas which we have enjoyed so much.

We also wish to show our appreciation to the J.O.C. Class of this church for the lovely table decorations and luncheon today and for the meals they have served throughout the week.

We wish to thank Mrs. George Root, our president, and the other officers for preparing the enjoyable program of this day, and those who have taken part.

We regret the absence of Mrs. James Chamberlain Baker and the inspiration that her presence always brings.

We rejoice with those to whose homes little ones have come.

To those who have suffered the loss of loved ones, we express our deepest sympathy.

We extend a warm hand of welcome to those who are new in our fellowship.

May we return to our work with a new consecration and a new desire to go forward in the bringing about of God's Kingdom here upon earth.

MRS. LOUIS M. FISKE.

MRS. H. K. HOLTZINGER.

MRS. MADIROS STONE.

After announcement and the collection of dues, the meeting adjourned.

HARRIET E. VAN BUSKIRK, Secretary.

THE PACIFIC JAPANESE MISSION

Eleven of the 31 charges of our Mission are within the bounds of your Conference. In Los Angeles County are living 35,000 Japanese, one-fourth of all in the United States, but only three of our churches, First at 35th and Normandie, West Los Angeles, and El Monte, are serving this large population. We regret greatly that we lost the foothold we had at Sunland. There should be more Japanese work in Los Angeles County and there should be at least one unit in San Diego where we have no mission work of any kind. This makes San Diego a blind spot in cultivation.

We are in your World Service Budget for $4000 and we appreciate your faithful and sacrificial help. Had it not been for the Designated gifts of the Southern California and the Illinois Conferences during the depression, we would have been compelled to close some of our stations. We came through unscathed and are now ready for some advance again. Our larger churches are self-supporting and the aid from the Board of Home Missions but 10 per cent of our budget of $60,000.

During the past year our churches and pastors worked hard. The pastors reported 245 baptisms and 236 new members. Our membership is now 4933 and the enrollment in our schools 5218. We bought new churches at Spokane and West Los Angeles and new building plots at El Monte and Mesa, Ariz. A beautiful new building is in course of construction at Santa Maria. Westwood Church friends contributed 100 comfortable chairs to our West Los Angeles Church and with the Wesley Foundation furnished teachers to assist us.

"Little Tokyo", at and near First and San Pedro Streets in Los Angeles, is the mecca of many of the 70,000 young Japanese-Americans. Already many young lawyers, doctors, dentists, pharmacists and business men are settled there. This year we plan to organize a Second Generation Church in Los Angeles with English preaching every Sunday to try to minister to this rapidly growing group.

REPORT OF THE LATIN AMERICAN MISSION SUPERINTENDENT

"I'm speaking long distance from Santa Paula. Can you come for a union meeting of the Mexican work in the Presbyterian Church? Pastor L. P. Tirre is doing such a fine work here that the community wants to help. He settled a bad strike. He needs a new church and additional salary. We want to help his work."

This is the testimony increasingly of the 62 communities where our 43 pastors work. Last year, 502 souls were led to Christ; $13,832 given with $5,657 on pastoral support. This is $1,000 more than that ever given before. The World Service is usually paid in full. Endless and innumerable calls come for social service. Last year, 7,676 were "helped to help themselves." At least two of the Mexican congregations have received no relief funds.

Among the Mexicans, Italians, Portuguese, Filipinos and Spaniards, we now have 4,454 members of all classes, besides 3,812 adherents. There are 4,072 in Sunday School and 1,322 Epworthians.

Above colonies of moral darkness and spiritual need are rising beautiful church towers. The Watts Institutional Church among 22,000 Mexicans is nearing completion. Bishop Baker dedicated the beautiful adobe Templo in Mesa, Arizona, where Alma Blew is missionary pastor. More beautiful than church towers are the lovely lives pouring forth from them, like Ignacia Hernandez and Viviana Obregon, who are from Mesa and came to sing for us.

Astride the border is the capital twin city, Mexicali-Calexico, where we have two institutional churches and a large social pastor's home. The Woman's Home Missionary Society and Board of Home Missions and Church Extension this year are providing for two woman workers to reinforce the efforts of energetic Pedro Robles and Pastor Zimmerman of the American church.

Pastor and Mrs. Vieira are building for God among the Portuguese in Oakland as Pastor and Mrs. Ettore Di Giantomasso are among the Italians of North Beach in San Francisco. The Filipino work is taking form in their Christian and cooperative Fellowships.

Time fails to tell of the evangelistic programs, the fine Epworth League work, the new adventures in pageants, massed choirs, gospel teams, church bulletins and visitation in hospitals and jails. Also, of the great and nationwide famous achievements of the Plaza Community Center, church and children's home, the Spanish American Institute and the Frances De Pauw School for Girls of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

"Oh, Señora Jesusita, (pastor's wife at Fillmore) I love God and I love Santa Claus, but I love you most of all!"

"I am saved after serving 25 prison sentences and being a dope fiend." This Juan Paez led 32 to Christ in one evangelistic week!

"Well, you bootleggers, you are doing a beautiful work landscaping our new Watts church!" That $200 of choice shrubs was given by a Catholic. One of these two converted bootleggers has brought his family to Christ and gave $26 for benevolences last year.

Such are the stories back of 424,126 attendances, 28,097 visits, 9,501 letters, 657 Bibles, and contracts yearly with 88,118 different persons throughout the Latin American Mission.

Greater things are ahead for, Alfredo Macias serving Albuquerque is our first college and seminary graduate. Mary Elizabeth Ports won the Lowell or first prize at the Arizona State College; Ben Garcia, another "P. K." (preacher's kid) won a place among the "Associators", a select two score among 2200 students at Franklin High School. From this can be seen some of what Bishop Baker calls our "Flying Goals".

HISTORY OF SWEDISH METHODISM ON THE PACIFIC COAST

(Published in last Journal of Mission)

The following "Historical Sketch" is printed by order of the Pacific Swedish Mission Conference prior to its dissolution, Rev. Francis Ahnlund being elected to compile these "Sketches", and they appear here very much the same as the various Pastors have sent them to the Compiler.

Swedish Methodism on the Pacific Coast dates back to the year 1873, when in the Howard Street Methodist Episcopal Church in San Francisco, Calif., a Scandinavian Class was formed, comprising a little band of Swedish and Norwegian people, who had for some time attended that Church. This Class was organized as a separate body, Sept. 27th, 1875, and launched out as a Scandinavian Church. (The Norwegian friends left after a short while and organized work of their own). The Swedish Methodist Church in San Francisco is therefore the "Mother" of Swedish Methodism on the Pacific Coast, and from her have come the many "children" represented by various Swedish Methodist Churches in California, some even in Oregon and Washington. Swedish Methodism here can therefore now look back on a fruitful career of not less than 55 years.

It may not be out of place to mention just briefly the rise of Swedish Methodism in United States. Its founder was the Rev. Olof Hedstrom, born in Sweden, May 11th, 1803. He arrived in New York in 1825, and in a short time established himself as a merchant in Pittsville, Pa. He was converted in July, 1829, three weeks after his marriage to Miss Caroline Pinckney, a warm and true-hearted christian woman. His conversion took place in Dr. Phoebus' Church in New York, which Church he visited at the invitation of his wife. He received not only the assurance of full salvation but also the call to be a Minister of the Lord Jesus Christ. Four years later he set his face toward his native country, filled with a burning desire to bring his own relatives to Christ. He brought his parents to Christ in a little while, and influenced his brother John so greatly that he also later became Hedstrom's associate in the Gospel amongst the Swedish people in America. Returning to America, Hedstrom began his ministry in earnest and entered on probation the New York Conference in the year 1835. He preached exclusively to English speaking congregations because the Swedish immigrants were as yet so few, that a mission amongst them seemed almost of no need. For 10 years Hedstrom gave his service to the English speaking population. It might be of interest to know that the great man of God, Dr. Daniel Steele, was one of Hedstrom's converts. Dr. Steele's parents lived in the next house to Hedstrom in 1841, and Hedstrom said one day to Daniel, who was then 16 years of age: "I expect to see you converted to God before I leave this field." He had the joy of leading the young man to Christ before he moved to another place. During this period he served on a circuit with 18 preaching places, with but one Preacher as his assistant. Concerning Rev. Hedstrom's life and work, Dr. Steele said: "Gladly I raise my voice together with the great multitude of Swedish Methodists saying: 'Praise be the Lord Jesus Christ for Olof G. Hedstrom and his ministry'."

In the year 1844 some few Christian friends began to write Hedstrom regarding a Mission for the Swedish immigrants, who began to arrive in greater numbers to New York, but he was hesitant in the matter, saying that to him: "It looked as dark as a pocket." A young business man, Mr. George T. Cobb, having this matter warmly on his heart, gave $50.00 towards the Mission, and the subscription was continued. Another business man, Mr. William G. Roggs, together with a few other members of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church in New York bought the ship, "Henry Seeds", anchored in the North River. The name of this ship was changed to "The Bethel Ship John Wesley". The matter of the Mission was brought to Hedstrom at the annual session of the New York Conference, which convened in May, 1845, but Hedstrom was yet uncertain. In company with Dr. David Terry, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Missions, Hedstrom visited one of his countrymen, Mr. Peter Bergner, and in his home they talked the matter over. They prayed and cried, and Hedstrom received the assurance that the Mission was of God destined to be his future field. He said: "I believe it is from God; and if appointed by the Bishop, I am willing to accept the Mission". He was appointed for "The North River Mission", and held his first sermon in Swedish, Whit Sunday, May 25th, 1845. This was the beginning of Swedish Methodism in America, and from this beginning has come 4 Annual Conferences and 2 Mission Conferences with a membership of about 20 thousand. (Recently the Southern Swedish Mission Conference (in Texas), and the Pacific Swedish Mission Conference have amalgamated with English speaking Conferences, and 3 Swedish Annual Conferences, the Central, the Northern, and the Western, have united into one Annual Conference (1928) under the name of The Central Northwest Conference).

From the "Bethel Ship" Methodism amongst the Swedish people spread from the Atlantic to the Pacific, but not in America only was the influence of Hedstrom's work felt. It crossed the Ocean and the whole of Scandinavia felt its impact. Men of God, converted onboard the "Bethel Ship", went to their homeland preaching the Christ they had found in America under Hedstrom's ministry. One of these men, the Rev. O. P. Peterson, became one of Norway's greatest Methodist Preachers. But who can tell the extent of Hedstrom's ministry and influence? Thousands of people both inside as well as outside the Methodist family have him to thank as being the one through whom they have found Christ, and of this great host thousands are now in the various American Methodist Churches, while others are found in the several Swedish Denominations. The little seed planted 83 years ago has grown to a mighty tree, the branches of which have brought comfort to hundreds, yea thousands, of weary souls.

Rev. Hedstrom passed away happy in the Lord, May 5th, 1877, at an age of 74 years, and was buried two days later from the St. Pauls Methodist Episcopal Church in New York. Thanks be to God for such a witness as Olof G. Hedstrom.

As Church upon Church was organized by Swedish Methodists on the Pacific Coast, they affiliated with English speaking Conferences, the work in Oregon and Washington being part of the Puget Sound Conference, while the work in California belonged to the California Conference. This continued to 1908, when, by an enabeling act of the General Conference of that year, the Pacific Swedish Mission Conference was organized by Bishop Henry W. Warren. This event took place in the Swedish Methodist Church in Oakland, Calif.

After twenty years, or in 1928, it was thought best to dissolve the Pacific Swedish Mission Conference and amalgamate with the English speaking Conferences, the various Churches to join the Conferences within whose boundaries they are located. This was done at the Conference session held in Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 20th to 23rd, 1928. Invitation to amalgamate had previously been received from the Southern California Conference, the California Conference, and the Puget Sound Conference.

As a fraternal institution in which the retired Methodist ministers profit, though no individual owns stock, the whole interest of the Methodist Book Concern is based on service instead of profit. Resolution Requesting Continuance of Episcopal Supervision of Bishop James Chamberlain Baker

In the critical period of readjustment incident to the unification of Methodism in America it is imperative that we in our own Conference and in our several churches seek to conserve gains and insure progress in Kingdom building.

We are convinced that no single factor will contribute more to this end than the assurance that we are to continue under the confident and confidence-inspiring direction of the present Episcopal leader in this area, Bishop James Chamberlain Baker.

In administrative affairs, thorough going and conscientious; in spirit patient and understanding; in outlook eager and hopeful; in courage unflinching; in personal relationship and public presentation uncompromisingly Christian and unfalteringly kind, Bishop Baker has given ample proof of his ability as a Christian statesman during the six years in which he has been Resident Bishop in the San Francisco Area! In a most impressive way he combines executive grasp of detail with a prophetic appreciation of the deep moving, far reaching thought tides in our restless world.

Living on the eastern rim of the Pacific basin we occupy front seats in the theater whose stage is set for the next great scenes in the unfolding story of the race. Our need demands a leader who is able to speak with insight and understanding as to the part the church must play in the drama of decisive days.

Bishop Baker's service in the Orient, his recognized leadership in the Oxford Conference last summer, and the fact that he has been chosen as a trusted interpreter of the message and mission of Christianity to our modern day at the World Missionary Conference to be held next December in Madras, give his word and work prestige and power.

Therefore in view of the strategic importance of our situation and the combination of qualities required of a general superintendent in this area, and recognizing how satisfactorily our present leader, James Chamberlain Baker fulfills these requirements.

BE IT RESOLVED, That we as pastors and lay representatives of the churches of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church do hereby go on record as respectfully and urgently requesting the continuance of Bishop Baker's leadership.

ALSO BE IT RESOLVED, That it is our conviction that in the transition days following unification we shall be able to proceed with less confusion and greater assurance if we may anticipate his counsel and guidance through the period of readjustment and reorganization,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be presented to Bishop Baker and that copies be forwarded to Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and to the officers of the Uniting Conference when these are chosen.

Introductions: Bishop Oxnam presented Dr. Reece Bowman Kester, long a friend of and co-worker at the Church of All Nations, and Mr. Charles Brown Voorhis, friend of boys, part donor of boys' club of Church of All Nations and founder of the Voorhis School for Boys.

Mr. Voorhis addressed the Conference expressing his confidence in the future of the Conference relationship to the contemplated merger of the Voorhis School for Boys.

Bishop Oxnam presented the Honorable H. Jerry Voorhis, member of Congress, and he addressed the Conference on the aims and ideals in the life of the students at the Voorhis School for Boys.

Resolution: John Oliver presented the following resolution and on his motion it was adopted: That we express our hearty appreciation to Mr. Charles Brown Voorhis and his son, Congressman Jerry Voorhis, for presenting to the Southern California Conference, the opportunity to acquire, by gift, the Voorhis School for Boys for our expanding service to underprivileged youth. This school, beautiful for situation, substantial in its buildings and spiritual in its foundation and traditions, brings to our Conference larger and richer opportunity to help produce leadership among the underprivileged of earth. This gift would enlarge our kingdom service for Christ and humanity. In Christ's name we say, Thank You!

Change of Record: Willsie Martin presented the following resolution and it was adopted: that this Conference recognize that for the Conference year 1893-94 Alfred Inwood be recorded as serving "Beaumont & Banning" instead of "Newcastle" as recorded in the Conference Journal of 1937.

Petition: C. F. Seitter presented the following petition and it was ordered adopted:

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Southern California hereby petitions the Uniting Conference to establish an Episcopal Residence at Los Angeles, and begs to submit the following considerations in support of the request:

1. The Los Angeles Metropolitan District is the most populous west of Chicago. And, with its salubrious climate and the coming of abundant water and power from Hoover Dam and the consequent expansion of manufacturing and of shipping from a harbor now second only to New York in the amount of cargo handled, that population is destined greatly to increase.

2. All observers of World Affairs point to the Pacific as the stage on which world-changing events of the future are to be enacted. The fact that one of the most populous metropolitan areas on the continent faces squarely on that ocean is of major importance religiously as well as otherwise.

3. Los Angeles and environs embrace, by all odds, the largest Methodist membership and constituency west of the Rockies. In 1937 there were in the Southern California Conference 100,000 members. In the same year the Methodist Episcopal Church South reported some 12,000 members in Southern California, a total of 112,000. This, probably, is close to one half of the Methodist membership on the entire Coast.

4. There is within the bounds of the Southern California Conference an immense student body. The following figures are eloquent: In 1937: 235,000 high school students; 22,000 Junior College students, 33,000 College and University students.

Since students from Methodist homes constitute the largest percentage of any denominational group, Methodist responsibility is correspondingly great.

All these considerations—Population, Industry and Trade, Methodist Membership and Constituency, Frontage on World Affairs in the Pacific, and Numerous Student Body—lay upon us here a sense of opportunity and responsibility that convinces us of the necessity of a Resident Bishop.

We, therefore, respectfully request and urge the Uniting Conference to establish an Episcopal Residence at Los Angeles. We venture to add that in view of his familiarity and sympathy with the Orient and his long and eminent experience with student bodies, make Bishop James Chamberlain Baker a natural for that Residency.

On the motion of J. L. Gillies, Bishop Oxnam was requested to re-appoint C. E. Leitzell superintendent of the Pacific Home.

Stevens, the Lay Conference was requested to name a committee of three to be added to the committee of three ministers already appointed to report upon the place for holding our next annual conference. This committee was later given as: Donald Odell, George Page, V. I. Correll.

Resolution: Willsie Martin presented the following resolution and it was adopted as amended: "that the Board of Home Missions be requested to file each year with the district superintendent of each district of this Conference and with the Board of Trustees, the amount of the loans and interest due the Board of Home Missions specifying the amount against each church also filing a statement of all the grants made to individual churches in this Conference."

Board of Stewards: On the motion of Stanley McKee, the following members were elected to the Conference Board of Stewards for its class of 1941: A. Ray Moore, Mrs. Marion W. Armacost, Russell Clay, John P. Howe.

Disciplinary Questions 9 and 10:

Resolution: On the motion of A. Ray Moore it was ordered that "since the Discipline provides that the Board of Stewards shall recommend to the United Session an apportionment to the churches for regular relief for Conference Claimants the apportionment for regular relief for next year be fixed at $3500.

On account of the divided annuity responsibility it is impossible for a complete report to be made by the Board of Stewards until after Conference has adjourned. It is necessary to receive the final report from the Board of Pensions and Relief before that can be done. Therefore, be it ordered that this United Session give authority to the Board of Stewards to make distribution as soon as possible after Conference and to complete all records necessary for the Minutes of the Conference."

Disciplinary Question No. 12: What are the items and aggregate of Annual Conference Benevolences approved by this body for the ensuing year?

See Committee on Finance report.

Disciplinary Question No. 16: What shall be the Evangelistic and Religious Education plan for the ensuing year?

See Report by Committee on Evangelism and the adoption of the five-year plan.

Aptitude Test: R. G. Bose presented the Aptitude Test report and it was adopted. (see Report)

Registrar: Glenn R. Phillips requested authorization that additions and corrections be made on his registrar's report which was presented in Executive Session on Friday, and it was granted.

Resolutions: Jesse Lee Corley presented the following resolutions and they were adopted:

"Your Conference Board of Education recognizes that when every thing possible has been done to increase the efficiency of the Sunday

Church School, the problem of religious education will still remain. Only from one-third to one-half of the children who need its ministrations are reached by it. The growing habit of spending week ends away from home tends to limit its scope still farther.

Therefore we commend the action of the last General Conference when it instructed the Board of Education to arrange for the calling of an interdenominational gathering for the purpose of studying the feasibility of inaugurating week day schools of religion on a large scale; and we learned with satisfaction that the International Council of Religious Education, at its meeting last February showed a disposition to resume activities in this field.

Moreover, we recommend experimentation with this plan wherever local conditions are favorable and where careful preparation has been made involving cooperation by as many religious bodies as possible.

(2) WHEREAS: The majority of radio programs now on the air for children are not conducive to substantial character building, but on the other hand, because they often glorify war and carry blood-curdling stories of murder, crime, and terror, they are deleterious to the health of our children, physically, morally and spiritually; and, many mothers complain that their children suffer ill effects, nervously, resulting from these programs; and

WHEREAS: Advertisers do themselves, as well as their intended customers, a disservice by the use of this character of programs; therefore.

BE IT RESOLVED: That we encourage churches, clubs, organizations and individuals to join in a concerted action to secure constructive children's programs on the air, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to George Henry Paine, Commissioner of the Federal Radio Communications Commission, a government organization, which has the power to make decisions which they deem are in the public interest.

Young Adults: Lloyd Davis spoke briefly on the program of the young adult movement within our Conference.

Resolution: George A. Warmer Jr. presented the following resolution "The Church and Civic Righteousness" and it was unanimously adopted as amended:

The future of American democracy is dependent upon the integrity and efficiency of the government of our cities. Corruption of public officials, whether by the underworld or overworld, should, therefore, become the immediate concern of every good citizen. When the social, economic and political life of a section is as directly effected as is all southern California by what transpires in metropolitan Los Angeles, such conditions as have been made matters of court record in the Kynette case should immediately arouse the moral indignation of all our churches.

The verdict of the jury followed by assurances of Mayor Shaw and Chief of Police Davis that the police department is to be thoroughly reorganized, reveals the emptiness of their earlier protestations of the quality and effectiveness of the police department, as well as of their repeated insistence that Los Angeles is free from vice and gambling. We believe that the relation of the mayor's brother-secretary to the entire situation calls for his immediate elimination from political life and thorough investigation by the Grand Jury. In the light of all that has transpired, Mayor Frank L. Shaw must forfeit all right to respect from honest citizens unless he proceeds forthwith to clear his administration of the presence of his brother, the Chief of Police and the Police Commission.

The Mayor's failure to act decisively when apprised of law violations and his apparent backing of a police unit, used not to ferret out law violators, but to spy on citizens concerned with exposing the evil of his administration, made necessary a recall movement. His ludicrous and unsubstantiated accusations that those interested in his displacement are allied with eastern gangsters, and later that the Committee of 25 are receiving support from the tango interests only go to emphasize his unwillingness to be honest with himself and the public. These facts, together with the manifest gambling and vice conditions that have flourished, seemingly with the knowledge and to the profit of members of the city administration, impress us as calling for an aggressive and generally supported recall movement.

We believe, that the Governor of our state and the Attorney General should also be censured for their failure to give substantial aid in exposing conditions and insuring vigorous prosecution of law violators.

The Southern California Conference of the Methodist Church commends the courageous and democratic spirit manifest by individual citizens and by such groups as C. I. V. I. C., and the Federation for Civic Betterment in which municipal, labor and church organizations are united for an effective short range program of the recall of Mayor Shaw and the longer range objective of securing a more responsible and responsive form of city government. Because of conditions authoritatively revealed, we cannot see how any Methodist minister or layman within the city limits can fail to do his utmost to insure the achievement of these objectives.

Greetings: The Secretary read a telegram from the Secretary of the Northwest Indiana Conference in response to his telegram to Bishop and Mrs. Baker.

Privilege: Leonard Oechsli spoke of the critical illness of Wendell and Mrs. Miller who are in the Methodist Hospital with a throat infection. Mrs. Leitzell was also reported critically ill in the hospital following an operation.

Prayer: Glenn R. Phillips led the Conference in prayer in behalf of these, dear to our hearts.

Order of the Day: On the motion of Frank Toothaker the immediate 'order of the day' was fixed to consider the problem of the homeless migrants, was presented by Bishop Oxnam to speak on the resolution. was limited to ten minutes.

Courtesy of the Floor: Mrs. Lucy McWilliams, worker among the migrant, was presented by Bishop Oxnam to speak on the resolution.

Resolution: On the motion of Frank Toothaker, the following resolution was adopted as amended:

"Inasmuch as there are at the present time more than 100,000 homeless refugees—victims of the loss of the world markets, depression, drouth, dust storms, floods and mechanization of agriculture.

And since it is impossible to rehabilitate such persons in their own states through any quickly available procedure,

And that we of California are financially unable to support the additional relief load necessary to aid them,

(1) We urgently request the Federal Government to set up such procedures as shall accelerate the program for their rehabilitation,

(2) And further request the National Red Cross to consider this problem a national emergency, taking such steps as may care for these starving, shelterless people until a permanent program may be worked out.

(3) We ask that a special committee of six, three laymen and three ministers, be appointed by the Committee on Nominations in each of the following: San Joaquin Valley, Imperial Valley, Coachella Valley and Arizona, within the area of our annual Conference, to study the migrant and seasonal labor conditions, develop an experimental unit within each valley and report in writing to the next annual Conference the plan and its results.

Ministerial Ethics: Recter Johnson presented the report of the Ministerial Ethics committee and it was adopted with the amendment that it be not printed in the Journal.

Introductions: Bishop Oxnam introduced Bishop Charles Wesley Flint, resident Bishop of the Atlanta Area, and he happily addressed the Conference.

Bishop Oxnam introduced Dr. Dan Brummitt, editor of the Christian Advocate, Northwestern and Central Editions, and he unofficially addressed the Conference.

Bishop Oxnam introduced E. Clyde Smith, Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Christian Education, Arizona Conference, M. E. Church, South.

Recognition Retired Ministers: Fred Trotter, Chairman of the Conference Relations Committee, presented the following who have been retired at this session: Maynard Beckwith, Ray Harker, Hardy Ingham, and J. A. Stavely. The latter three, who were present spoke affectionately of our ministerial fellowship.

Stevens it was ordered that if the Program Committee sees that the Conference expenses are being met, the need of the Randsburg Church shall be presented on Sunday evening and an offering be taken to complete and help in furnishing the building. The offering amounted to $307.42.

Committees: On the motion of James E. Dunning, it was ordered that the Cabinet be allowed to name the committees on Board of Home Missions; Board of Church Location and Qualifications for Local Preachers after the adjournment of Conference and that such nominations will constitute an election of these three committees.

Introductions: Bishop Oxnam presented Albert E. Day and C. F. Holman, recent transfers into this Conference.

Presentation of Class: Glenn R. Phillips, registrar, presented the class for admission into full membership and following the singing of hymn numbered 268, "Are Ye Able" Bishop Oxnam welcomed the class and addressed them in part as follows:

BISHOP OXNAM'S ADDRESS TO THE CLASS

I Have Been Initiated

"Many years ago, centuries ago by now, Paul wrote these words, "I have been initiated into the secrets for all sorts and conditions of life". The word "initiated" strikes one immediately and any one who hears it thinks, of course, of some fraternity, of some order, of the service whereby he is inducted into that order.

"I have been initiated" says Paul. May I suggest to you that you are about to become initiated into a brotherhood, as we suggested in the prayer, in the brotherhood of men of different opinions, different talents, but we are united. It is the greatest brotherhood in the entire world. It is the brotherhood of the followers of the Master, serving him in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

I want you to think you are upon the road to Damascus. I want you to think it is the moment when Paul was being initiated into this great fraternity of ours. You are about to belong to it. This young individual tells of the organization of the fraternity and he speaks directly to Paul. "I know something of you. I know your training. I know what the fraternity is to do, and I covet you for this organization." Did Paul join, "I have been initiated." He did. If Paul were to stand in this conference this morning and I were to ask the question, "Is there anything against him?" we would pass his character. Yes, Paul joined this fraternity.

You are about to join this fraternity. It is my privilege to welcome you into it. Brethren we are about to welcome you into a fraternity that does call upon you to remember the cross, that does call upon you to remember brotherhood and cleanness of life. It does call upon you to be faithful and never deny Him and there will be times when you feel like doing it. We would see the scars in your hands in days to come. (He read from the advices given Wesley in 1784).

May I come back now to the fraternity and then ask you these words. We are about to admit you into the fraternity. We are calling upon you to engage in a great adventure. Think of the sheer audacity of individuals who through the foolishness of preaching think they can reveal God's will to men in such a fashion that men may become brothers and actually love Him."

Excuses: By a previous motion, the secretary in charge of excuses was authorized to grant the following excuses for the stated reason and time: E. Dow Hoffman, funerals, Friday; W. I. Lowe, funeral, Saturday; Russell Clay, funeral, Saturday p. m.; Richard Merrill, funerals, Friday and Saturday p. m.; Leo Kline, wedding, Friday night; C. H. Sundstrom, Saturday, wife sick; Robert A. Johnson, funeral, Monday. Wm. McKinley Walker, daughter's graduation, Thursday.

SEVENTH DAY

Monday Morning, June 27, 1938

Ministerial Session

Bishop Oxnam called the Conference to order at 9:10 a. m. The hymn numbered 31 "When Morning Gilds the Skies" was sung. The Conference joined in prayer by the use of the Collect for Purity.

Journal: H. H. Stranberg reported that the Journal through Saturday had been read and approved with the exception of the Executive Session on Friday afternoon which by action of the Conference has been left open for the Registrar's corrections and additions. On motion the report was adopted.

Committee on Journal: On the motion of James E. Dunning the Committee on the Journal was authorized to read, correct and approve the Executive Session and that of Monday morning after adjournment of the Conference.

Resolutions: On the motion of George A. Warmer, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS: since the close of the last General Conference there has been almost continuous unrest in the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the office staff at Chicago, and it is now reported that a new "purge" in the office staff is under way involving among others, Dr. Merle N. English, one of the best beloved and most efficient leaders in Christian education in our Church, who has been requested to readjust himself to some new position not later than the next meeting of his annual conference, and

WHEREAS: a curriculum without adequate leadership is unavailing and impossible, and

WHEREAS: we are approaching the Uniting Conference when we ought to be at our maximum strength rather than in a weakened condition when these important matters are to be determined, and it is apparent that an experienced and a well-informed personnel would tremendously assist in the development of an adequate program and a workable Methodism, and

WHEREAS: within twenty-four hours previous to this date (June 27th) it has been authoritatively reported to us that members of the staff of the firm which made the recent efficiency survey of the Board "deny, clearly, that they recommended the dismissal of Dr. English", and

WHEREAS: it is reported that the Board has pledged its loyalty to the present curriculum for which Dr. English has been largely responsible; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED: that we the members of the Southern California Annual Conference vigorously disapprove the request for the removal of Dr. English at this time and register our earnest desire that in the interest of the Methodist Church the action of the Board be reconsidered to the end that he be retained in his present position, and further.

BE IT RESOLVED: that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Christian Century, Zlon's Herald, Christian Advocate, Bishop Adna W. Leonard, Dr. Harry McPherson and that it be printed in the Journal of the Southern California Annual Conference.

Entertainment and Travel: On the motion of James E. Dunning the following resolution was adopted: "that the Conference Treasurer be instructed to pay from the Entertainment & Travel Fund to each of the young men received on trial or into full membership at this Conference session, and who have come from the East for that purpose and have received an appointment, the regular per diem and the flat amount of $10 each to apply on their traveling expense. The same rule shall apply in the case of Leon I. Brock, received by transfer."

Ruling: On a question raised by the Conference concerning annuity claims, Bishop Oxnam cited a footnote in the Discipline reading, "When an institution or organization has been approved by a three-fourths vote, it may be listed thereafter under the proper Disciplinary Question, unless there is objection at the time the Question is asked each year." Discipline 947-2.

In answer to a request for ruling on Section 4 of the report of the Board of Stewards, Bishop Oxnam gave the following:

Ruling:

"In the report of the Conference Board of Stewards of the Southern Annual Conference, among other recommendations, the following was made, "That when a claimant who owns property or other assets, asks for additional help beyond his annuity, he be asked to give a note for any amount granted, at one per cent interest; the note to be paid from his estate after the death of both himself and his wife."

A ruling has been requested specifically asking whether or not an action by an Annual Conference adopting such a recommendation is permissible under the Discipline.

Answer:

It is.

It is necessary to append an explanation and a warning in connection with this ruling.

The President of the Conference Board of Stewards states this recommendation neither in its intent nor wording is mandatory. It is a request. The phrase, "he be asked to give a note," is used solely in the sense of a request. There is nothing within the recommendation that indicates any intent to refuse "additional help beyond his annuity," if the request an estate note or the right of a member of this Conference to tached to the refusal. It would appear that there is no prohibition within the law of the Church or the Conference Board of Stewards' right to request an estate note or the right of a member of this Conference to request an estate note. However, it should be pointed out that this request comes as a part of a report of the Conference Board of Stewards. While in its present wording, it is simply a request, there is grave danger that passage of such a recommendation by an Annual Conference might be regarded in future years as a precedent and become a factor in determining whether or no "additional help beyond his annuity" might be granted. If such were the case, it would appear to contravene the clear intent of the present "Pension Code."

There is a further danger in the fact that receiving such notes in such cases might establish a precedent justifying the extensive issuance of collateral loans by Stewards. Such a practice might involve serious difficulties and might result in prohibitive action by the General Conference. It is clear from the "Pension Code" that the practice set forth in this recommendation from the Conference Board of Stewards was not contemplated. It would appear wise in the event such extra legal action is ordered by this Conference that this should pertain to an individual case and should not be set up as a general rule which an Annual Conference might be adjudged incompetent to make.

It should be pointed out that this recommendation carries a clause which may be impossible to execute in the light of civil law. It reads, "the note to be paid from his estate after the death of both himself and his wife." While it is true that both the annuitant and his wife might sign the note and, therefore, each become liable, said note could not be paid from his estate after the death of both himself and his wife. His estate must of necessity be settled in accordance with the law governing such matters, and such a claim could not be postponed until the death of his wife, if the phrasing is retained, namely, "to be paid from his estate."

In a strict legal sense, the answer to the question is affirmative."

Special Appointments: On the motion of James E. Dunning, Bishop Oxnam was requested to appoint the following men as indicated.

List of special appointments: Herman N. Beimfohr, Conference Director of Wesley Foundations; Frederick H. Blair, Executive Secretary Goodwill Industries of Southern California; Roy G. Bose, Professor Chapman College, Los Angeles; E. F. Gates, Financial and Property Executive, Goodwill Industries; Myron Insko, Superintendent Goodwill Industries, San Diego; John B. Committee on Nominations: On the motion of F. G. H. Stevens our Committee on Nominations was requested, in making its nominations for the coming year, to spread the work so as to include a greater number of our members in Committee work and that the rule be that no person shall be appointed for more than three years to the same committee, except in the case of the four ex-officio members of the Program Committee, the pastor host, the host District Superintendent, the Secretary of the Conference, and the Chairman of the Committee on 'Order of the Day'.

Stevens, the funds collected for the Randsburg church on Sunday evening were ordered turned over to the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society and disbursed on the order of the District Superintendents who have handled the matter, Paul E. tion for the donation of labor and time for the personal interest which they took in completing the church building at Randsburg, and that the Secretary be requested to send a copy of this action to them.

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

FRESNO-GLENDALE DISTRICT

The record of early American Methodism clearly indicates that the ministers of that period, young men they were, literally burned themselves out in their devotion to the task of Christ and the establishment of the kingdom of God. Dr. S. S. Sampson, superintendent of the Fresno Glendale District, thus gave his life as a good minister of Jesus Christ. At the memorial services held in his honor on Monday afternoon, May 23rd, at the First Methodist Church of Bakersfield, it was written concerning him: "Dr. S. S. Sampson, Man of God." Truly here was a man of God. And for the joy of the task set before him, he endured as a good minister of Christ, looking constantly to Him as the author and finisher of his faith. The younger ministers of the district called him their spiritual father. To the very end, the future of these same young men was in his mind. The real proof of our appreciation of him and his work will be evident in a renewed consecration on our part to the task of the building of the kingdom of our God.

On February 3, Rev. John Ovall, minister at Randsburg and Inyokern, heard the last clear call. His was a faithful service in a difficult field. Mrs. Wendell Kramer, wife of Rev. Wendell Kramer, responded to the eternal summons on March 2nd. Hers was a ministry of love in the midst of suffering. We record the following births: Charles Virgil Ford, son of Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Ford, born, October 21st, 1937; Roy Virgil Swift, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. Virgil Swift, born, December 25th, 1937; Winston Kay Ellis, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ezra Ellis, born, June 19, 1938.

Reports of the district show that there has been a sincere attempt to meet the challenge of the Aldersgate anniversary in terms of vital, meaningful Christian experience. Many of the churches have made very definite progress in the reduction of indebtedness on building. We commend an aggressive program of debt reduction to all of the churches facing this problem. At First Church, Bakersfield, there was dedicated this year "The Little Chapel of Sacred Memories." It is a gem. North Glendale has completed a new parsonage. Dr. F. G. H. Stevens, superintendent of the Pasadena-Arizona District, has proven himself a true friend of the Church in the service which he has given on this District, following the passing of Dr. S. S. Sampson. The loyal support of the men in cooperation with him and the newly appointed superintendent is proof of real devotion to the larger task.

What of Tomorrow? John C. Bennett, writing in "Christianity and Our World," voices his faith in the Church of Tomorrow. He insists that there are now discernible four definite trends in the churches which are the basis of this hope. There is emerging a type of leadership which is becoming intellectually awake, and which is not interested in maintaining rigid forms of orthodoxy. There is the definite awakening of the social conscience of the churches. There is the rapid increase of the spirit of cooperation and in some cases of the actual union. Finally, there is a growing willingness of the habit of self-criticism. The churches of the Fresno-Glendale District look ahead in a spirit of expectancy and faith. The development of the Central Vallies Water Project will make for tremendous progress in the San Joaquin Valley and new challenge and opportunity for the churches. The completion of the church building at Randsburg is now in progress. The re-routing of the State Highway at Selma has made necessary a new building program for the coming year. The youth of the District are alert and are already planning for the fall and winter work. A vital program has been set up for the Family Institute which will be held in July at High Sierra.

We would face tomorrow in a spirit of expectancy and faith, determined that the Church shall express the spirit of the living Christ in experience which is meaningful because it is in terms of vital, life-situations, now present in our world.

PAUL F. HUEBNER.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT

At the last session of this Conference Fletcher G. Watson was assigned to Corona. It proved to be his last appointment. After having been most cordially received by the Corona Church and in the midst of a happy year's pastorate, he suddenly passed away on February 8. John Oliver served as a very acceptable supply until early in May when J. D. Van Buskirk, of San Luis Obispo, was appointed to Corona and David Kingman, Associate pastor at Whittier, was appointed to San Luis Obispo. This adjustment has met the hearty approval of all parties concerned. Dr. A. C. Stevens at High Grove and Miss Alice Louise Brown at Oceano have also served as new and most acceptable supply pastors. Richard N. Merrill closes a notable pastorate of nine years at First Church, Long Beach. Bishop Oxnam has already announced his appointment to First Church, Phoenix, Arizona and that of Dr. George W. McDonald of First Church, Tulsa, Oklahoma as his successor.

Three churches on the district have achieved unusual distinction in debt paying programs. Belmont Heights surprised itself by the ease with which an old debt of $6,775 was covered in cash gifts and subscriptions payable within one year. $3,135 has already been paid, and pastor Arthur Nagle and his people are talking of a new sanctuary.

Santa Monica began the year with a debt of $82,600. Pressed by their creditors for a substantial reduction of this indebtedness they set out on a program by which they expect to shrink the debt to $40,000. This involved the sale of two pieces of property and the raising of $15,000 by subscriptions. One of these properties has now been sold and on June 8 the subscriptions had reached the sum of $14,354. When the second property shall have been sold and these subscriptions paid they expect to be in possession of three pieces of property, i.e., the present church plant, the parsonage and an income property, which returns a rental of $125 per month, and a total indebtedness of but $40,000. A. Ray Moore, the pastor, has been ably assisted in the campaign by E. F. Gates.

Hemet, with a soured debt of $14,250 on which nothing has been paid for many years, stimulated by a donation of $2,500 from the board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and inspired by the leadership of Harold Baker went out in February and secured subscriptions in the amount of $7,678. When to this amount is added the Home Board's gift of $2,500, the debt yet to be funded is reduced from $14,250 to $4,072. If there remains a doubt that a sour situation has been sweetened, attention is called to the fact that this church has completed three successful campaigns during this Conference year. In September they subscribed $3,174 to cover a $3,100 current expense budget and have paid it. In February they subscribed $7,678 toward the property indebtedness of which amount $1,291 has since been paid. In June of this year they subscribed $3,444 to cover the current expense budget of $3,400 for the next year.

Other churches making payments on indebtedness are: First, Long Beach, $7,210; Ventura, $6,841; Grace, Long Beach, $4,050; Santa Barbara, $3,697; Santa Maria, $3,000; San Pedro, $2,400; First, Redondo Beach, $2,568; Atlantic Avenue, $1,525; East Long Beach, $1,500; Grace, Riverside, $1,800; Banning, $1,000; El Segundo, $1,000; Venice, $940; Torrance, $869; Santa Paula, $907; Arlington, $870; Paso Robles, $550; Ocean Park, $400; Compton, $300; Elsinore, $372; Fillmore, $200; Hynes, $140; Harbor City, $140; Artesia, $123; Oxnard, $120; San Jacinto, $60. A total of $48,867.

North Long Beach completed the building originally intended for a parsonage, but which has served as a worship unit, after moving it on to a lot adjoining the church site, where it becomes a modern, commodious parsonage. On the site thus vacated they erected an attractive sanctuary. The total cost was $10,150 toward which $5,200 has been paid this year.

Whittier has remodeled the Organ, sanctuary, kitchen and dining room, at a cost of about $5,300 all of which has been paid. The enhancement in beauty and utility is in marked contrast to the modest cost.

Grace Riverside began the year with a debt of $3,450. During the year they have reroofed their buildings, remodeled and refurbished the sanctuary and installed a pipe organ. Their present indebtedness, after expending $8,000 for the improvements noted, is $2,975. The old Akron-plan auditorium was completely transformed into a beautiful gothic sanctuary.

Indio has expended $750 remodeling and refurbishing the parsonage and installing a cooling system. Other improvements are, Riverside First, $14,100; Grace Long Beach, $2,000; East Long Beach, $1,500; Simi, $1,000; First Long Beach, $900; Santa Maria, $600; California Heights, $2,500; Murrieta, $465; Atlantic Avenue, $500; Venice, $460; Santa Monica, $416; Davidson City, $535; Belmont Heights, $525; Santa Paula, $450; San Pedro, $320; El Segundo, $354; Aroyo Grande, $300; Fillmore, $300; Santa Fe Springs, $250; Elsinore, $225; Seal Beach, $175; San Jacinto, $157; Bardsdale, $143; Ocean Park, $100; High Grove, $128; Redondo Beach, $50; Compton, $100; Torrance, $75. A total of $47,977.

Corona has provided the necessary subscriptions and has let the contract for a building program which calls for a beautiful new sanctuary and the rehabilitation of the Church School plant, at a cost of $13,300.00.

Compton has entered upon a modernization program to cost $8,000. They have $1,900 toward the first unit of the job which is to cost $2,500.

Davidson City has purchased a lot for the future parsonage.

California Heights has purchased a new site to which the present building will be moved and enlarged. The enterprise will cost $11,000, $9,000 of which they have in sight.

Venice must move back to make way for a highway widening. The State of California is deeding them additional land to compensate for that released. With the new land thus acquired they secure a good house which is to be used as a parsonage. The State will move the church at no cost to the congregation.

Murrieta has plans drawn for an addition to the church at a cost of $1,500. Grand View, San Pedro has selected and expects to purchase a new site on a splendid corner at a cost of $1,500. Santa Fe Springs has determined to abandon the present location in a forest of oil derricks and build a new church on a site adjoining the parsonage. Riversde First has purchased a lot adjoining the church at a cost of $12,000 and is beginning to think in terms of a new and modern church.

Pastor's preliminary reports revealed the following:

Received into full membership 1,286. A net gain of 660.

Epworth League membership 2,308. A gain of 852.

All but eight charges show a gain in the average attendance of church school. A total gain of 773.

Nine charges increased pastor's salary at a total of $1,600; a net increase of $416.

The Women's aid societies have raised $56,504. A gain of $26,174.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Societies have raised $13,804; a gain of $76.

The Women's Home Missionary Society have raised $10,797; a loss of $3,812.

George Bechtel has rendered excellent service with his Missionary exhibit. Miss Alice Louise Brown visited many charges as a church school missionary, and her work was outstanding in its effectiveness. Bishop Baker inspired a large group of representative people at our annual Harbor District Missionary Society Banquet and this unique and useful organization has made a gain of more than 100 per cent in contributions this year.

While World Service figures were not sufficiently complete to make a comparison with last year, yet the trend, indicated at the time this was compiled, forecasts a possible decrease. I wish this Superintendent could feel that he is not responsible for this showing, but when I note that where pastors pushed the matter earnestly there followed fine increases, I have an uncomfortable suspicion that I took too much for granted.

All in all it has been a surprisingly fruitful year. In my judgment much credit must be given to the Aldersgate emphasis. This has had a wholesome and inspiring effect on our pastors and people.

As I finish my service on the Long Beach District I wish to record my sincere gratitude for the loyal cooperation of pastors and laymen. I shall cherish many happy memories. My successor, Edwin Stricker, will be royally received and loyally supported.

The magnificent leadership of Leonard Oechsli, whom I shall follow on the Los Angeles District, has commanded my profound admiration. I am not worthy to assume the duties which he now lays down. I can only pledge my best endeavor and plead for your patience, your sympathy and your prayers.

WALTER C. BUCKNER.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

In looking back in review over these past eight years and particularly the last four years in Los Angeles, they seem in many respects to embrace a life time. In them I have learned a great many things. Among others I have learned the difference between a depression and a recession. One is what I came in on, the other is what I am going out on! Let us hope that we are really having the recession of the depression.

Early in the year Fay Prince came from Needles to Florence Avenue Church to take the place of Allen Heist, who accepted a position as Educational Director for the Conference for Industrial Organization for Southern California. It is cause for sincere gratitude that we are able to report no deaths in the ranks of the ministers of the district during the year. Mrs. Wendell Miller has been for several weeks seriously ill in the hospital, due to a streptococcus infection. Latest reports indicate that her condition is improving. Wedding bells are to ring for Morris Singer, pastor of the Union Avenue Church, who is to be married next Sunday afternoon to Miss Gladys Cooper. Rumor has it that Robert Romiston is to follow his example. Three men on this district are this year asking for the retired relation. Two of these men have had especially long years of service; Ray Harker 46 years and Hardy Ingham 44 years. I doubt whether there are any men in the Conference who have had more years of service, and each of them is without break. They have both occupied a large place in the service of the Church in some of our very best pulpits. Maynard Beckwith after heroically serving through these past two years under serious health handicap, is asking for the retired relation for health reasons. During the year Tom Pendell was called to the Chicago office of the Board of Education as executive secretary of the Methodist Youth Council, the second contribution Southern California has made recently to the Chicago office. At latest reports Carl Seitter and Tom Pendell are still holding their jobs!

Even if the physical climate of Southern California does not change, but only passes through cycles, we believe there are some clear signs of improved spiritual and religious climate manifesting itself at the present time. Some of these signs are as follows:

FINANCIAL IMPROVEMENT: Four years ago when I came to this district there were thirteen churches in immediate jeopardy because of creditors threatening foreclosure, and eleven more were in serious financial straits because of mortgages. 25 churches were on the "bad loan" lists of the Banks. With a total indebtedness of a million and a quarter dollars, interest payments alone were in default to the extent of more than $20,000, to say nothing of default on principal payments. Conditions have in these four years so improved that although there are still some difficult debt problems, there is not a single serious threat of foreclosure and there is not one dollar of delinquency in interest payments. Reports on indebtedness on property indicate that there will be a reduction this year of $115,000.00, and for the four-year period a reduction of more than a quarter of a million dollars, or $280,000.00.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH: With profound gratitude and joy we report that our beautiful University Church property has been successfully refinanced. The members of the Church paid in cash more than $11,000, and in addition have met all obligations in full. The indebtedness has been reduced from $112,000 to approximately $66,000. The atmosphere of the Church has been changed from fear to hope and confidence. University Church is taking serious its responsibility for the students of the University and for the redemption of its bonds as they come due. The church has probably never had a finer program for students than today. The Conference should know that its contributions to University Church are making possible a constructive and expanding program for student life at the University of Southern California.

MOUNT OLIVE CHURCH: One of the most difficult debt problems has been a Mount Olive Church where a congregation of 150 active members has wrestled heroically all through the depression with a debt of approximately $24,000.00. This property has been sold and a beautiful new site purchased on Franklin and Kenmore Avenues. The contract has been let and the work begun on a new plant adequate for the needs of the present congregation, with every prospect that this building, costing about $21,000 including the lot, will be completed without debt, aside from a small loan from the Board of Home Missions.

Other churches have materially reduced their indebtedness this year, including the following:

Wilshire	$11,633	Florence Avenue	645
Hollywood First	8,943	St. Paul's	600
Vermont Square	8,500	Highland Park	600
Huntington Park	4,278	Eagle Rock	591
Westwood	4,112	Crescent Heights	543
Echo Park	3,195	Calvary	515
West Adams	2,245	Gardena	475
(West Adams also completed a campaign which will provide for the liquidation of most of the debt of $19,000 in three years.)		Sunnyside	382
First Church	2,250	Melrose Park	344
Wesley Chaoek	2,200	Bethel	335
First German	2,000	Garvanza	300
Rosewood	1,350	Maywood	294
Inglewood First	1,100	Culver City	285
First Swedish	1,045	Euclid Heights	277
West Los Angeles.....	1,000	Normandie Avenue	249
Hamilton	974	Grace Church	200
		Chesterfield Square	165
		Southwest Community	160
		Inglewood: Grace	140
		Christ Church	41

Ten churches have increased their salary in the total amount of $4,850. But enough for debts and mortgages. How enheartening it is to see signs of new vitality and spiritual interest in the churches. Attendance at Easter services broke all records and was accompanied by large membership accessions. At least the tide seems to be changing in average attendance at Church School, most churches reporting an increase. Work among the young people is one of the most gratifying departments of our church life. A new spirit of faith and optimism is abroad and the spirit of defeatism is broken. The observance of Aldersgate has done much to lift the levels of religious experience although some churches did not take full advantage of the rich opportunity offered. The Women's Societies of the district have carried forward their vigorous program with their usual enthusiasm and success. Special mention should be made of the expanding cultural and educational program of the Aid Societies.

A year ago we expressed the hope that our Christian cooperative efforts might be coordinated in the reorganization of the Federation of Protestant Churches, and the clarification of its relationship to the California Church Council. We are still hoping. The Federation of Protestant Churches has for some time been an impotent organization, dominated by a small unrepresentative group in the City. This organization is supposedly the local expression of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, an organization of vigor and virility which is leading Protestantism out into dealing with the living issues of our troubled times. While our City and State are torn with labor disputes, why should not this organization have some courageous word to say or some vital part of reconciliation to play. With our City Hall occupied by human leeches, bleeding the community of millions of dollars every year and terrorizing and bombing those citizens who dare to do anything about it, why should an organization representing Protestantism draw its cloak about itself and walk away from the foul mess, in the fear that someone will say, "You're getting the Church into politics"? The denominational leaders of the City should take hold of this organization and make it truly representative, determine its policies and pay its bills. With the coming of an executive secretary we should make it emphatically clear to him the kind of a program we shall expect.

METHODISM AND CIVIC RIGHTEOUSNESS: The City of Los Angeles, the fifth largest City in America, is caught in a great system of political corruption and vice exploitation. The youth of our City are being demoralized through gambling and illicit sale of liquor. Rackets are being built up, "Bookie" establishments operate unmolested, houses of prostitution have spread openly throughout the City, gambling devices are to be found in every corner drug-store, Chinatown is utterly demoralized by the mad rush for easy money in gambling and lotteries. Our negro people are being shamelessly exploited. The Police Department—our only defence against lawlessness, is not only used to protect vice but is made the weapon with which to bomb and terrorize those who dare to raise a voice against their political machine. We are fast on the way toward the building up of a political machine that will put to shame even Tammany Hall in its palmyest day, or the Pendergast machine in Kansas City. Decency in Los Angeles is fighting with its back to the wall and the Church has a tremendous stake in that fight. We make no apologies for the part Methodist ministers have taken. When the jury was being impaneled for the Kynette trial it is significant that the prospective jurors were asked by the defense attorneys, "Are you a member of any church?" Another question was, "Have you heard—certain people—speak on the radio" We should take pride in the fact that the ministers mentioned were Methodist ministers.

We are deeply grateful to Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam for his vigorous, fearless, stirring address which he gave in his church recently to a mass meeting of Los Angeles citizens. We need the support of every Christian leader and church member. Things will not be changed so long as Church people vote with the underworld. May God help us to save our City from the band of pirates that now possess it.

VOORHIS SCHOOL FOR BOYS. The proposed merger of the Spanish American Institute and the Voorhis School for Boys is perhaps one of the most important matters before this Conference in many years, and will deserve the most careful thought we are capable of giving, with the prayer that we will be guided to a right decision.

The multiplicity of duties and responsibilities of the Superintendent of the district makes it difficult to keep one's equilibrium. With the care of the churches, the activities connected with the City Missionary Society, the relationship to the numerous organizations and agencies and Boards within our Church, together with multitudinous calls to represent the Church in other interdenominational and civic organizations, I am sincere in saying that I could not have carried on had it not been for the loyal and undivided support of you ministers of the district, and the faithful cooperation of the laymen. Your sympathetic understanding of the difficulties I have faced, and your patience with me in my limitations, is something I shall never forget. I have tried to be one with you. Whatever we have achieved is not to by credit, but to yours. In the main I have only taken the ideas of some of you and given them to others to carry out.

One of the great experiences of my life has been the privilege of being associated with Bishop James Chamberlain Baker. A man of integrity, keen and quick of perception, sound of judgment, patient and brotherly, decisive of character, ever willing to accept responsibility, indefatigable in labors, he is one of the great leaders of the Church. Sharing with him and the other members of the Cabinet the responsibilities for the welfare of the ministers and their families, and many other burdens, is a sobering responsibility, with much of heart ache. But by that fact we in the Cabinet have been drawn together in a fellowship that is unique. I shall miss that fellowship. Sharing this with me and fully appreciating the wives and children of the parsonage homes, has been my wife. We have received so many kindnesses and courtesies that will long be remembered. I cannot close this report without a word concerning one who has done much to lighten my burdens and keep the machinery well oiled and running, being for me at times both dictionary and memory and many other things, Miss Elizabeth Avery, "The Daughter of the Regiment". It has about come to the place where no one is willing to accept the appointment unless the Secretary goes with it.

The time of departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight. I have finished my eight-year term and trust I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me (I hope) an appointment with no church debt (!) which that righteous judge will give me on that day.

"Some work of noble note may yet be done

It may be that the gulfs will wash us down

It may be we shall touch the happy isles."

LEONARD OECHSLI.

PASADENA-ARIZONA DISTRICT

Following the death of the Superintendent of the Fresno-Glendale District, the first death of an active Cabinet member in the history of the Conference, the Cabinet assumed general charge of the affairs of that District and asked the men and churches to clear through the Superintendent of this District. The thanks of the Cabinet and myself are hereby given to the many who helped by holding Quarterly Conferences and by counsel. It was a sad joy to try to follow in the footsteps of S. S. Sampson whose brotherliness knew no limit, whose devotion matched that of his Leader, but whose body could not stand the pace set by his spirit.

The women of the two missionary societies and of the Aid have carried on well in local and District work.

The young folks in Epworth League and Church School and in their conventions and Institutes, seem to be buzzing around quite a bit, like their elders, but really they are getting some things done, making themselves and the world better, which is the right order—themselves, and the world.

But after all, the test is, what goes on in the local churches.

Geographically this district is 625 miles long and 200 miles wide. It's spiritual extent depends on how high ministers and laymen have lifted their eyes during the past year. That its people go far in applying their mystical experience to temporal things is evident in the story of the year's work.

Pasadena heads the name of the district and well may. It's First Church was "Left to be Supplied" at last session. The choice of a new pastor was worked out by the Cabinet, the Pastoral Relations Committee, and the Quarterly Conference, according to Methodist law. As a result, we have a united and happy church following the transfer of Albert E. Day from the Baltimore Conference last fall. The year shows a membership increase of over 100, with $9,000 paid on debt. The pastor has led a very worth while Sunday evening Youth program. Claude Smith now adds D.D. to his name, the degree being given by Evansville this month.

Our German Methodism has made a real advance in revival and personal evangelistic effort at Emmanuel.

Our Swedish Church has materially improved their property by redecorating. They united with the German Church in evangelistic services.

Karl E. Downs was transferred to us from the West Texas Conference, for at least a year's service at Scott Church previous to taking up work in Liberia. With a full time work the church has turned into a beehive of activity, spirit, mind, and body. $2,000 has been raised by this church for their debt which must be faced this fall as the bank has foreclosed. Salary has been increased and, 'tis well, for Brother Karl returned this week from Baltimore with his bride, the former Miss Marian Jackson.

Holliston has put in a year of solid work following the achievement of last year's debt paying. Not easy for a pastor to adjust himself to a vital program after years of money raising but Holliston's pastor has done this.

Hartzell had a heart break on Easter when Brother Will E. Malan began the day's work at the altar and ended the day before the great white throne. His was a ministry which left no part of God's work undone and always left a church better every way. The church has supplied the pulpit since Easter and finished the year with all obligations met and $1,000 paid on debt.

Washington Street, by a vote of 55 to 1 reapproved the double pastorate. Well they might for the year has shown a Church School addition costing $2500 and paid for, and a decided advance in attendance in church school, worship service, and in membership and World Service, and a spiritual deepening.

Lincoln Avenue has received 50 members, and has recarpeted the entire church at a cost of $700, and held a successful evangelistic series.

You who say it cannot be done will find an average attendance of 200 of a Sunday evening at South Pasadena, which is two thirds of the morning average. Furniture was purchased for a rented parsonage at a cost of $1530. One of the daughters of the parsonage, Pearl Anna, was married this week to Edgar Jacobs.

Alhambra has gone a-debt paying. Under the leadership of Dr. Christensen of the Oakland District, First Church led off with a campaign which netted almost $25,000, of which $15,900 has been paid. The year has seen the marriage of Kenneth Kaler to Miss Jane Temple. This church meets its World Service quota in spite of, or because of debt paying.

Marengo Avenue raised $5,000 on debt to match an offer of a similar amount. Since February, $3,000 of the $5,000 has been paid, and the indebtedness has been reduced $7,000. This church has in its membership three who were with William Taylor in Africa: Brother and Sister A. E. Withey, and Mrs. Mary Shuett.

Monterey Park is meeting all finances and had special evangelistic work with good results.

With aid from the Home Board, Montebello reduced its indebtedness by $2,560, and has received 46 members.

Temple City is a community Church. Here a real work has been carried on among the young people and in enlisting the help of the men of the community. A young people's evangelistic campaign is on this week.

Early in the conference the parsonage home at Puente was broken by the death of Mrs. Ella M. Loofbourrow. She was a "help mate" for her husband and one who knew God and led others to Him. This is one of our best community Churches.

Rosemead had evangelistic service with 20 conversions, and is planning increased Church School room and debt paying with $1400 pledged.

San Gabriel shows a $400 increase in salary, all their $900 debt subscribed, and half paid this year, and a real revival. The pastor reports the "Raising of the spiritual dead—and the church debt!"

El Monte is a growing community. The church on the main business street should be relocated. This year it has been redecorated and made really beautiful.

Monrovia organized a real Methodist Men's group, paid $2500 on church debt and naturally meets all financial claims this year. Received 44 members.

At Azusa Mrs. Botkin had made the parsonage home beautiful by her presence and love. God asked for this winsome woman of frail body but indomitable spirit. The beauty of her life lives with us who knew and loved her. The church shows increase in World Service. A new carpet enhances the beauty and comfort of the sanctuary.

Glendora has received thirty members. The church sorrowed with Dr. W. T. Wright in the tragic death of his son, Earl Cranston Wright of the Colorado Springs District.

Baldwin Park has added improvements to the parsonage and increased salary $200.

An increase in Church School attendance and $1,000 paid on improvements is the news from Covina.

San Dimas reroofed the parsonage and part of the church and increased membership and World Service, the latter 15%. The pastor is recovered from a severe operation.

La Verne has improved the inside of the church by redecorating. Sister Butters has been ill much of the year. The church celebrated its 50th Anniversary.

Pomona has received more from preparatory than by certificate, a total of 63 in all, has installed a new organ in the chapel, and conducts three morning worship periods.

$850 has been paid on debt by Chino. This church makes good use of its Membership Committee in securing new members, 40 having been received. It has inspiring men's gatherings one Sunday evening a month.

Ontario shows advance by spending $600 on property and increasing the salary $400.

Upland, both willingly and unwillingly gives up their good pastor to the District Superintendency and pays his salary for the month when he does double duty. The property has been wonderfully improved by the expenditure of $1250 and the final $1200 has been paid on organ debt. The unified service here is a success both morning and evening.

Cucamonga wasn't sure they wanted to keep a church open until a young enthusiastic college graduate struck town. The record: Advocates increased from 1 to 9, World Service from $15 to $132 (the apportionment) Church School attendance from 35 to 47, and all claims met in full.

Rialto knows only one direction, forward. They raised $500 for improving property and held a successful 50th anniversary.

San Bernardino has seen this year a vital, all inclusive work for young folks carried on, and shows increased World Service.

Like all other orange growing communities, Highland has been hard hit but has doubled World Service giving, increased Sunday School attendance and paid $400 on improvements. Do you notice how often those three things go together, money raised for debt or improvements, increased attendance and increased World Service. You don't think that just "happened" do you?

Del Rosa, our infant church, wiped out their $185 debt this year under the leadership of a student pastor who loves God and folks, and received 10 to add to a membership of 41.

Colton shows an all around increase in Sunday School attendance, World Service giving, church membership and in the size of the parsonage family, a new Wesley being added this Aldersgate year, Wesley Dean Young.

Redlands First is doing its full work with the Methodist student body of Redlands University. This church also celebrated its 50th birthday. Rector Johnson received his Doctor of Divinity degree from the College of the Pacific last week.

Redlands Grace has gone on with its program of improving the property and deepening the spiritual life of its membership.

Yucaipa is missionary minded. These people face lowered giving by reason of fruit prices but they increased World Service giving $337 to $405. They have built four new class rooms for Church School costing $600.

Now over the Cajon to Victorville where the pastor works the whole task of a Christian minister. The church building is improved, World Service doubled and salary increased and the pastor has developed an out appointment.

To Needles where a change in pastors was made mid-year. What a bunch of young folks in School, League and worship service! Twenty-four received into the church and $400 paid on debt.

Blythe responded to the ministry of a fine young couple and pays all claims in full as a proof that the pastor does the whole work of the ministry.

Midland is in course of adjustment caused by decided change in that gypsum camp.

To Nevada: Las Vegas 200 miles up the river. The church has been renovated to the extent of $2500, of which $500 has been paid. This church is helping in the proposed re-opening of the negro work in this community. Forty-four members have been received.

Boulder City is a church founded in this construction city near Hoover Dam by seven denominations. It's pastor was killed Christmas eve by a drunken driver. The securing of a new pastor has taken some of the time of the superintendents of several denominations. Independent churches are lost when they are lost.

Now to Arizona. This Tri-State District has a Tri-State Epworth League gathering of Needles, Calif.; Las Vegas, Nevada, and Kingman, Arizona, which cannot be beaten.

Kingman, center of mining activities, wanted a man just out of school. We gave them one. He had sense enough to find a wife in the granddaughter of a former member of our conference, Miss Esther Lawrence, and she now graces the parsonage as Mrs. Kenneth Engle. $300 has been spent on improvements. After years the church was dedicated in February by Bishop Baker. World Service and the salary both go up.

Ashfork and Seligman, a new circuit, has had foundation work done and the pastor has led in repainting and improving the Ash Fork church.

Williams has under way a property improving program which will eliminate the old social hall. The Home Board will help. Salary is increased.

Our church at Flagstaff is Federated. The Presbyterians and Methodists, each with a separate church roll and a separate staff of officers are pastored in turn by a minister from these two denominations. They have received 39 into the Methodist section of the church and unitedly have raised $8,500 in cash this year which with $1500 from the Home Board and $2500 discount from their creditors cancels their $10,500 mortgage indebtedness.

Clarkdale, the smelter town, is hard hit by the depression, but here is an official board 90% college graduates, a teaching staff 90% college graduates. The year shows membership up from 60 to 97, increase in Church School, improvements in property by painting and the promised deeding to us of the property by the Phelps Dodge Corporation.

Jerome, the city on a side hill, is facing the closing of the mines. Here is an increasing interest by the men in the church and with the help of the mining company $700 has been put in improvements. An experience in Arizona makes one less than 100% sure of the heartlessness of big corporations.

Winslow's membership goes up from 196 to 223, World Service from $202 to $275 and Church School attendance up 20%.

Not satisfied with being almost to New Mexico, the pastor of the frontier town of Holbrook has two out-appointments reaching almost to the New Mexico border in which he uses his youth much to their joy deepening. 22 members have been received and $100 added to salary.

That's the record made possible by a few brilliant preachers, a few graceful ones, but mostly by a lot of us praying, hard working, people-loving, bible-studying, faithful men, almost always backed up by the women who know that we are better than we are. And then always God, above, around, and within. With Him as yokefellow, who worries about hard work?

F. G. H. STEVENS.

SAN DIEGO-PHOENIX DISTRICT

Early in my ministry I recall that when I heard the report of a District Superintendent I had the impression that that he had achieved all the results he reported, and that the pastors were mere Charley McCarthys who moved at his bidding. I wish to emphasize the fact that it is the pastors and loyal laymen and women of the district who have wrought faithfully and well. It has been my job to work with them, but theirs is the glory of achievement. I have spent my time among the churches of the district, and since last Conference have traveled nearly 46,000 miles, of which 22,422 was by train and the balance by automobile.

Appointed to Costa Mesa Church at our last Conference, Harold J. Smith threw himself into the labor of ministering to a large constituency and completing the refinancing of that church. Just after the dinner that celebrated the victory in that undertaking, the community and the Conferences were shocked by his sudden death. It is remarkable that in so short a time a man could enter so completely into the community life. The congregation has rallied loyally around C. I. Andrews, a member of the Idaho Conference, for the rest of the year. J. L. Minney, retired since 1929, died June 11th, 1938, at his home in San Diego. The funeral was conducted by his pastor, Walter John Sherman, assisted by the District Superintendent. Interment was in Glen Abbey Memorial Park.

Henry I. Rasmus, Jr., was transferred in January to the Genesee Conference, and Calvin E. Holman was transferred from the Kansas Conference and appointed to First Church, Santa Ana. Golder Lawrence has been transferred to the Oklahoma Conference. On March first Maurice G. Ballenger became Minister of Education at First Church, San Diego. His transfer from Lucknow Conference is pending.

After forty-three years of effective and efficient ministry James A. Stavely requests the retired relation. The crowning work of his ministry is the new Creighton Church in Phoenix, now nearly completed.

Russell Bales, pastor at Gilbert, Arizona, was united in marriage August 21st, 1937, to Margaret Barstow, at South Windham, Conn. Eleanor Engle, daughter of John H. Engle, was married to Hatley Harrell; and George A. Lawrence, son of Golder Lawrence, was married to Hallie Mouer.

Six Arizona parsonages have resounded with the cries of new-born babies: James Oliver Taylor came to Tempe parsonage October 15, 1937; Jerry Edwin Reeves to Somerton, November 3, 1937; Thomas Edward Deshler to Ajo, March 14th, 1938; Carol Ann Erny to Globe, March 19th, 1938; James Robert Carter to Douglas, May 9th, 1938; John Allen Bales to Gilbert, March 31st, 1938.

Serious illness entered several parsonages. Arthur T. Kent and Mrs. Kent both submitted to hospitalization; both are improved. Helen Swenerton, daughter of Kells, is recovering from a dangerous illness.

Soon after his coming to our Conference Dr. Albert E. Day, in addressing the Los Angeles Methodist Preachers Meeting, referred to "That festival of figures known as a Methodist Annual Conference". It is indeed a veritable orgy of statistics and some there are who would do away with all statistical records and goals, and it is true that they cannot tell the whole story; there are values they cannot measure. Nevertheless they do serve as an important yard-stick, provided they are accurate. Unfortunately, there are many inaccuracies that creep in. For instance, careful check on the average attendance of one large church school for the year 1936-1937 revealed a figure one-third less than that reported in last year's statistics. The figure reported in the statistics is higher than the highest recorded attendances for the year. In another case the debt of one church got into the statistics minus one zero, which showed the debt of that church and the total for the district over $70,000 less than it was. These errors are no fault of the Statistician. They were the figures on the reports submitted by the pastors. Based on these figures in last year's Journal, our district shows losses. Actually there have been encouraging gains in the totals. Like Will Rogers, "all we know is what we read in the" Conference Journal.

More than 700 persons recorded decisions to begin the Christian life during the year. Most of these united with our churches. Thirty churches report net increases in the active membership roll (not including Inactive) totaling 726. The remaining churches offset these gains by losses aggregating 781; a net loss of 55 active members in the district. Most of these losses represent transfers to the inactive list; others are due to inaccuracy in last year's figures; only a few represent actual decreases. Three churches report more than 100 new members received: Garfield, Phoenix, 111; Asbury, San Diego, 107; First, San Diego, 103.

The record of Church School average attendance shows a heartening upward trend, after correcting known errors in last year's report. Thirty-four churches register gains in average attendance totaling 627; twenty churches show losses aggregating 289; an actual net gain of 338 in the average attendance of the entire district.

A group of selected workers attended the Childrens Work Seminary in Los Angeles last October. Subsequently these were formed into teams, and with their aid I conducted fourteen Children's Work Institutes, reaching every part of the district. Nearly every pastor was present and more than 500 workers for afternoon and evening sessions. Special attention was given to Church literature, both in these Institutes and in the Quarterly Conferences. As a result many churches report the banishing of inferior literature and the substitution of the highest grade literature published, that of our Methodist Book Concern. Surely it is presumptuous for any pastor or local teacher or committee to set up their judgment against that of the finest pedagogical leaders in the field of religious education. We ought not to tolerate the use of literature which theologically and socially does not represent the convictions of the Methodist Church.

Many of our churches already have adopted the proposed Five Year Plan. Early in the year we shall aim to have every church register as a "Third Century Church", and move forward in an aggressive program of advance, not merely in the number of persons reached but also in the quality of our educational work. Everywhere the cry is for more and better leadership. Many of our churches are conducting training classes, but not enough. In San Diego a city-wide interdenominational school enlists many of our workers. In Orange County our churches maintained last fall a largely attended training school which included both Church School and Epworth League groups. This will be continued next fall. Education in Christian Stewardship is one of the major objectives for the district next fall and winter.

Nearly every pastor and pastor's wife of the district spent two rewarding days in San Diego, September 27th and 28th, 1937, questing for an adequate understanding of the Christian message in terms of our day and dynamic sufficient thereto. Bishop Baker was our helpful counsellor.

All the Methodist ministers of Arizona, of all branches, met in a three-day assembly, March 28th to 30th, 1938, near Phoenix. Bishop Baker and Dr. Robert E. Goodloe of Southern Methodist University were the leaders in the exploration. It was wholesome intermingling of the ministers preparatory to the union of the Methodisms. Arizona Methodism is about equally divided between the two branches with a total of about 50 churches, forty plus Annual Conference members and 10,500 church members. The Church South now has a separate Annual Conference for the State. The preponderance of desire on both sides is that the Arizona churches shall form a district in an Annual Conference which shall include Arizona and Southern California in the reorganized church.

In this connection I affirm what I believe to be the conviction of all the Cabinet as well as of an overwhelming majority of the ministers and laymen of our Conference, that the leadership of Bishop James C. Baker for the past six years has been tremendously stimulating and constructive in the direction of understanding the meaning of Christianity and interpreting its implications for our day; that it would be a misfortune to have him removed at this juncture, and that we therefore hope that the Uniting Conference next spring will assign him permanently to the Western jurisdiction, and that further he will be assigned to the area which include our conference territory.

The Epworth League and Young Peoples work shows virility and depth that is most encouraging. Our young people are developing creative leaders out of their own ranks, and they are facing the perplexing and alarming problems of the day with an intelligence and consecration that are a challenge to their elders. The district was well represented at the Area Assembly of Methodist Youth at Fresno last November. I have just came back from the Institutes at Granite Dells near Prescott, Arizona, and at Green Valley Falls near San Diego. The total registration of young people at these two Institutes was in excess of six hundred. Nearly all the pastors in the supporting areas were there with their young people. A large group of young people will go from the district to the National Conference of Methodist Youth at Boulder, Colorado, in September.

Very few churches have really effective organized groups of men. I commend the objectives of Methodist Men for 1938-1939. They seek to enlist the men in definite commitments to a well-rounded program, the fulfillment of which will revitalize any church. During the year we plan to accept the proposal of Dr. J. Russell Throckmorton for some week-end retreats of the laymen of the district.

Our Women's work is increasingly vigorous. The Aid Societies are emphasizing many other phases of work than merely raising money, such as cultural interests, the study of World Service and the support of World Service projects, etc. The District Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in their report to me for the year shows a vigorous program and the organization of a number of new groups. They report $12,272 raised. I have no report from the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Seven World Service Cultivation Conferences held last fall enlisted the presence of over 700 workers. The itineraries of the Coopers and of the World Service Exposition, accompanied by Mr. Bechtel and Dr. McCurdy of China, included nearly every church. Incomplete reports at this hour do not permit an estimate of the World Service giving for the district. When will our pastors and World Service Councils or Benevolence Committees accept the same responsibility towards World Service quotas as our women assume towards the goals of their Societies? Again and again I hear the report from the women: "We have raised (or will raise) our full apportionment". Too many pastors and lay leaders assume that the World Service quotas are beyond reach. With the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies raising together as much as all the churches raise for the seven Boards included in World Service, it is obvious that the World Service quotas are not too high. The average ratio should be at least twice as much for World Service as for the combined Women's Societies. It is high time that the whole Church, including our faithful women, take seriously the obligation to meet in full our general missionary and other World Service quotas.

What shall we say of evangelism? The whole creative task of the Church today is evangelistic, and it is a far more comprehensive evangelism than in any previous day. The old evangelism always centered around a specific sin, such as slavery or drunkenness or sex immorality. The new evangelism includes many more areas—war, race relations, economic injustice, and the whole gamut of social interests. The commitments are as personal as ever, for each person is challenged to make his own consecrations in the light of the gospel of Jesus. This is the new Aldersgate experience for our day, and many a searching soul has felt his heart "strangely warmed" as he has discovered and accepted responsibility towards his underprivileged and exploited brothers, "the least of these", as a great adventure of holy daring.

Two churches have come to the close of honorable careers. Central, San Diego, has completed fifty-one years of service. A loyal but diminishing constituency has held on in the face of inroads of various racial groups and the removal of much of our membership to distant parts of the City. An opportunity has come to sell to the Presbyterian Church for their Mexican Mission. With the unanimous concurrence of Central's Board of Trustees, the District Board of Church Location and Building, Bishop Baker and the Cabinet, I am asking authorization to discontinue this church and to sell the property. The same authorization is sought in the case of our church at Imperial. The oldest town in Imperial Valley, has steadily decreased in size and our constituency has so diminished that it cannot longer function.

After so many lean depression years many of our properties have been badly in need of repair. This has been a year of general repairs and improvements. It is encouraging to see our people taking pride in renovating their churches and parsonages and improving the grounds with lawns and shrubbery. Here is a brief list: Ajo—Sanctuary decorated, Hammond electric organ installed. Anaheim First—rehabilitated after flood. Brawley—redecorating, windows painted, landscaping. Calexico—repainted interior and exterior new lighting, cooling system, landscaping. Chandler—a most unpromising building transformed into worshipful sanctuary, cooler installed. Coronado—lawn and sprinkling system, parsonage painted. Costa Mesa, parsonage repairs and painting, landscaping. El Centro—sanctuary enlarged (crowded every Sunday) cooler installed. Escondido, new furnace. Gilbert, new furnace, new chancel in sanctuary. Holtville, extensive equipment and repairs. Huntington Beach, new roof, complete interior redecorating. Wintersburg, social hall remodeled. La Mesa, painting and furnishings. Mesa, general refurbishing of church and grounds. National City, electricity amplified organ. Newport Beach, amplifier and chimes by electrical transmission. Oceanside, furnace in church and parish hall. Orange, Hammond electric organ. Phoenix, First, cooling system, recreation hall refinished. Phoenix, Garfield, church and parsonage partly redecorated and furnished. San Diego, Asbury, exterior painted, extensive repairs inside. Encanto, interior decorations, church and parsonage exterior painted. Park Boulevard, extensive minor improvements. Trinity, termite damage repaired. Santa Ana, Richland Avenue, alterations and redecorating sanctuary. Somerton, extensive repairs and redecorating, landscaping. Wilcox, landscaping. Yorba Linda, church repainted. Yuma, parsonage remodelled and painted. Best of all, practically all has been paid for.

Debts continue to shrink—Total paid on debts this year, $35,124, leaving a total indebtedness of $355,021. We are going forward inch by inch. The greatest achievement this year was the refinancing of Costa Mesa Church, reducing the debt from $21,000 to $8,919, mostly due to the Board of Home Missions.

Replacing the church destroyed by fire in December, 1936, Creighton, Phoenix, has nearly completed a beautiful and well-planned church of adobe construction. Thus far every cent of cost has been paid in cash. Total cost unfurnished, $8,500. The Board of Home Missions authorizes $1,000 in designated World Service gifts. Prompt remittances after Conference will be appreciated. Yuma has sold their old church and will soon build on a new site.

There are fewer deficits in pastors' salaries this year—A few churches that have retained old estimates which have not been reached for years, have now reduced the estimate to a figure that will be paid. Thirteen churches have increased their estimates for next year, a total of $3,090; Ajo, El Centro, La Mesa, Creighton-Phoenix, First-Phoenix, San Diego-Asbury, Mission Hills, Normal Heights, Park Blvd., Santa Ana-Richland Avenue, Wilcox, Yorba Linda, Yuma. An increase of giving to the Conference Missionary Society to $1,850 reflects the interest in the Equitable Support plan.

Although our district increased its percentages of cooperation in the Christian Advocate campaign, we yield the palm to the Pasadena Arizona district. We must all do better by our Advocates.

Time and space both fail to tell of our institutional work. Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix; Esther Hall and Goodwill Industries in San Diego, and of the three Wesley Foundations at Tempe, Tucson and San Diego.

The greatest menace to the Church today is the threat of the totalitarian state, the restriction of a free and untrammelled pulpit. With such a philosophy the totalitarian religion of Jesus Christ comes inevitably into conflict. In His Name let us guard with our lives the liberty of our pulpits. When liberty is infringed anywhere it is undermined everywhere. Let us "stand fast in that liberty wherewith Christ has made us free."

JAMES EDWIN DUNNING.

(b) Standing Committees and Boards

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Herewith is submitted the report of your Board of Trustees for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1938. All statistical matter either is taken directly from, or is based upon, the report of the auditors who annually examine our records and accounts. Their certified Balance Sheet will be found printed in its usual place in the Journal.

In our report of last year the task for 1937-38 was defined as the consolidation of gains already made and the readjustment of investments to secure larger incomes with a view to making the Fund again productive for the support of its beneficiaries. To this task your Board and its staff have given careful attention throughout the year. Progress has been difficult owing to the sharp industrial and financial reverse which began in September of 1937, affecting not only the market value of securities but of real estate and other values as well. Nevertheless, real progress has been made in putting the Fund on a sound basis and bringing it nearer to production of net income.

Last year's report called attention to the fact that there would be future losses affecting our Net Worth, growing out of the inflated values at which our Real Estate was still carried on the books, and which it was the announced intention of the Board to reduce to present day values. This was accomplished during the year, in part by absorbing losses taken in connection with the sale of properties in the total amount of $20,959.14, and in part by a careful re-appraisal of the remaining properties by three competent appraisers. This resulted in the writing off of an additional $57,464.34. We now believe that the Fund is on a realistic book value basis, and that no further serious shrinks from deflation will occur.

The recession also affected the book value of our securities. They have been carried since 1934 at their market value at the close of each fiscal year. The revaluation this year occurring so soon after the year's low point brought a reduction of $6,475.92 to our securities and left us a new book value of $23,392.40. Fortunately these securities are so diversified, both as to character and geographical spread, and have been so chosen as to income history, that income shrink will not be proportional to shrink in market value. Thus far there has been one increase, one decrease, and one change of dividend date, the total effect being negligible.

These two factors, i. e., real estate and security write-offs, have affected our Net Worth adversely, of course. It now stands at $213,469.69, which compares with $134,388.75 at the low point in August of 1935, and with $281,270.18 in the audit of 1937. The reduction of $67,800.49 for the past year is much more than accounted for by the three loss items above mentioned. Moreover, by taking the re-appraisal loss we have completed the deflation of our assets.

Notwithstanding these adverse factors due to general conditions, which, as our auditors remark, have affected all similar institutions, many real improvements have marked the year. Among these the following are to be noted:

We have completed the readjustment and reinsurance of our annuity obligations, with the exception of a few cases in which the obligation is too small to be an acceptable risk to insurance companies. The reserve for these stands at $2,884.00, which compares with a reserve of $378,369.18 in 1935 when we began seeking the readjustments.

We have continued the liquidation of the mortgaged properties, pushing especially those being operated at an annual net loss. We hope to complete this campaign during the coming twelve months. During the year we have reduced our total liabilities by $76,970.40. This continued the policy begun in 1935 when liabilities equalled 83.9% of our total gross assets. They now represent only 40.5% of present total assets. In other words, we are on a conservative banking basis. By this means we have continued the process of reducing interest costs. These stood at $15,026.21 for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1937, but were only $9,025.74 during the year just closed, a reduction of $6,000.47. Operating expense has been cut $7,678.51 for the year as compared with expenses of the preceding year.

Notwithstanding the shrink in Net Worth above referred to, we are now on a sounder basis of complete solvency than in any year since 1930. That Net Worth now represents 59.9% of our total assets as compared with one representing 15.7% of total assets in 1935. In gross amount, after absorbing book losses of $207,008.95 in the three years (which losses exceed the total Net Worth reported in 1935 by $60,455.82) the auditor's report shows a present Net Worth which is $79,080.94 greater than that reported in 1935.

Improvement is also shown in the relation of our Cash and Accounts Receivable to our total liabilities. In 1937 Cash and Receivables were reported at $137,395.95, our total Payables at $211,727.96, mostly secured. In other words, our Receivables were only equal to 65% of our indebtedness. This year the auditor's report shows Cash and Receivables in the total of $134,495.33, our Payables at $141,543.97. Our Receivables therefore equal 95% of our indebtedness, practically all of which is otherwise secured.

While we are still operating at a loss, we have again cut the annual deficit in two. The operating loss for the year just closed was $3,518.00, which compares with a loss of $6,987.00 in 1937, $10,445.00 in 1936, and $23,693.81 in 1935. When these losses are considered in relation to total assets and Net Worth, the improvement is even more striking. In 1935 the operating loss, including annuity payments of $36,547.35, represented 6.5% of the total assets; in 1938 only .98 of 1%. Comparison with Net Worth gives the following: In 1935 the operating loss before annuities equalled 16.1% of the Net Worth; in 1938, 1.6%.

From these various trends it is apparent that the Fund is slowly emerging toward productivity. When that is achieved it will then be in condition to justify an appeal for its rebuilding. Meanwhile your officers would be helped by information from pastors and laymen as to persons who might be seen with reference to bequests and annuities. The present reinsured annuity plan gives an annuitant all the security represented by one of the greatest insurance companies of the nation, and an assured income for life.

Your Board reports with regret that the latest developments in connection with the German Merger properties are not encouraging. Only one property, the church and parsonage at Santa Rosa, has been deeded to the Conference during the year. When the Board began the sale of some of these properties which had come into its possession, the public records in some instances disclosed the existence of liens held by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension which, with accrued interest, more than consumed their entire present value. Apparently the matter of such liens was not reviewed by the original merger commissions, and so their existence was not revealed. Complete investigation on our part during the year, covering the properties in our possession and, later, all properties involved in the merger, disclosed an indebtedness which, if settled on the basis of the legal claim of the Board of Home Missions, would leave the Endowment Fund with an equity measured in hundreds rather than in tens of thousands of dollars. A compromise settlement is being sought and it is hoped may be effected on a basis which will leave some real values for the Fund.

Pursuant to the request of the Conference at its last session the question of the obligation of the Pacific Home to the Pension funds of the Church was discussed with representatives of the trustees of the Home, and the matter has been settled amicably. By the terms of this settlement, the Pacific Home pays to the Conference Claimants Fund $3,540.00 per year for a period of five years. These sums, with the credits for previous payments actually made, are equivalent to a payment of $2000.00 per year for the entire period since the merger. At the end of the five-year period the matter of the amount of the claim is to be reviewed and re-adjusted.

This year should see the final extinction of the Board of Stewards Deficiency, thanks to the loyalty and generosity of the ministers of the Conference, with some help from the laymen in 1936. A liability which stood at $46,897.63 in 1935 stands at this writing at $2,044.55, with unpaid assessments sufficient to cover the balance. No further levy is therefore asked on this account. On the contrary, your Board records its hearty appreciation and thanks for the generous cooperation of the men of the Conference throughout the three-year assessment program.

During the year final settlement was made with Pacific Palisades Association, which organization has now been disincorporated under the consent of this Conference given at the session of 1936. The Endowment Fund, as a residuary beneficiary, received from the Association a total of $4,414.93, of which $3,000.00 in cash was paid in April and the balance in November of 1937. Included in this amount were securities valued in the current market at $895.00.

In the Hough Fund, created in 1895 by Rev. A. M. Hough, a former member of this Conference, and his wife, Anna G. Hough, for the benefit of necessitous cases among Conference Claimants, developments have followed the same pattern appearing in the Endowment Fund. Declining values, due to world-wide conditions, have affected security values adversely, revaluation as of April 30th bringing about a shrink in book value of $6,390.07. Income, however, has been well maintained and is at the highest level in recent years. Owing to the age of the real properties held, unusual expense for repairs and maintenance has been incurred. On this and other accounts, the net earnings of the Fund have been sharply reduced during the year, and the dividends for necessitous cases is correspondingly reduced, standing this year at $899.00. Pursuant to the announced purpose of your Board, and the later request of the Conference, a thorough re-appraisal of the real properties held was obtained. This resulted in a drastic cut in the book value at which they had been carried since 1934, this being reduced from $70,764.78 to $32,839.55. The Net Worth as reported in the certified Balance Sheet printed elsewhere in the Journal now stands at $58,048.90, as compared with $102,461.45 in 1937. This was anticipated and fulfills the prediction in the report of last year that reappraisal would "result in a sharp cut in the total worth of the Fund".

The Commission, authorized last year at the request of the Board for the purpose of studying the pension problem of the Conference in view of the approaching union of the three Methodisms, has had several sessions but is not ready to report more than progress. It is the recommendation of the Board of Trustees that the Commission be continued.

OREN B. WAITE.

PRELIMINARY REPORT OF THE BOARD OF STEWARDS

On behalf of the Conference Claimants, your board wishes to express heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the pastors and laymen of the Conference for their sacrificial loyalty to our Veterans through the past few years of difficult financial readjustment. As a result, we are able to report that the Stewards' fund is now solvent. All of this year's payments to the Claimants have been made in full when due, and the income from the churches is intact for the payment of next year's claims, as the Discipline requires.

Because of necessary adjustments in the office of the Board of Pensions and Relief it was imperative that the annuity rate for next year be fixed early in May. It was therefore fixed by your board at twenty dollars ($20.00) for each year of approved service. This is the full legal rate. Our receipts from the new disciplinary plan of Divided Annuity Responsibility (Par. 959) will make it possible to reduce the apportionment to the churches for next year by at least $6,000.00.

The following brethren in special appointments have relinquished their claims for the years indicated: E. Guy Talbott, 1924-1935 and from 1937 on; Albion R. King, from 1936 on; Carl Seitter, beginning 1937, so long as he shall be employed by the Board of Education, and W. M. Jeffers, from 1936 while employed by the Board of Pensions and Relief.

Your Board makes the following recommendations:

(1) That, after $1,000 has been set aside for emergency relief, any surplus funds which remain in its hands at the close of the Conference session shall be used to initiate a reserve fund as provided in par. 954, sec. 11 of the Discipline.

(2) That the Board of Stewards be authorized to make such financial adjustments as are necessary to make equitable the claims of brethren, who through the years have been transferred and appointed to charges in this conference soon after the close of a conference session, but whose transfer was not recorded in the minutes until the next year.

(3) That the following institutions be approved for annuity purposes, for past years of service by members of the Conference, (Par. 947, Sec. 1), the State Federation of Churches, the Mission to the American Indians, the Conference Epworth League, the Methodist Hospital of Southern California, the C. C. C. Camps, the University of Southern California, Occidental College, Whittier College, Chapman College, Pomona College, Scout Work in Los Angeles District, the Anti Saloon League of Arizona, the Pacific Broadcasting Corporation and the Good Will Industries.

(4) That when a Claimant who owns real property or other assets asks for additional help beyond his annuity it be suggested that he and, if married, his wife jointly, give a note bearing interest at 1 per cent per annum to the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference for the amount of such additional help, said note to be paid from his estate, or if a joint note, from the estate of the survivor.

GEO. B. CLIFF, President,

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

For several years past the report of the Commission on Finance has been presented to the Annual Conference by Mr. R. O. Deacon of Fresno, California. Shortly after the 1937 Conference, Bro. Deacon underwent a major operation and was unable to attend any of the Commission's business after August. He lingered on until in January when he slipped away at his home in Fresno. His loss is not only felt by the Commission of Finance, to which he had given himself so unselfishly for many years, but also by a host of friends throughout the Conference. He was a sterling leader and a Christian gentleman.

The Commission has spent many hours during the year wrestling with the everlasting problem of "How to make apportionments". The matter has resolved itself again to the conviction that the method now being used, while not by any means infallible, is better than any other plan thus far suggested. We will continue to study the problem and if, and when, we discover a basis of making apportionments whereby every cause for which we are responsible will receive an increased amount, and every church will at the same time receive a decreased apportionment, you may rest assured the plan will be adopted. In the meantime we recommend that the Conference approve the apportionments which have been made for next year on the basis of the action of the 1937 Conference, which for convenience is quoted: "When the total amount required for the support of each Conference cause shall have been determined, it shall then become the duty of the Commission on finance to apportion these amounts to the pastoral charges of the Conference. In computing the apportionments to the pastoral charges, the Commission shall use the Grade Figure method, based on a three-year survey of each pastoral charge covering membership, pastoral support and benevolent giving. Using the figures thus obtained as a basis, the Commission shall make such adjustments as may in its judgment seem necessary in order to arrive at an equitable distribution of the apportionments, and such apportionments shall then become the official apportionments of this Annual Conference."

With one or two exceptions, the churches have accepted their apportionments and have made a sincere effort to pay them in full. In cases where objections have been registered against the apportionments, the difficulties have usually been eliminated when all the factors involved have been understood.

The Commission has carefully reviewed the requests of the various causes for which apportionments are levied, and recommends the following totals to be apportioned for 1938-39:

District Superintendents	$24,000.00
Episcopal Fund	11,538.00
Conference Claimants	84,000.00
City Missions	11,000.00
Conference Missionary Society (including Equitable Support)	16,800.00
Entertainment, Travel (including retired men)	6,000.00
Conference Minutes Expense	1,600.00
Treasurer's Office Expense	4,000.00
California Church Council	2,000.00
Episcopal Office Expense	1,000.00
U. S. C. Student Work	3,500.00
General Administration Fund	2,225.00

The apportionment for District Superintendents will provide for each Superintendent as follows:

Salary	$3,300.00
Travel & Expense	1,200.00
Rent	600.00

The newly organized Federation of Protestant Churches in Los Angeles has requested the Methodist Episcopal Church to assume its proportionate share of its annual budget, which totals some $9,000.00. After carefully studying the problem, the Commission has decided to make two recommendations affecting this situation: (1) To increase the apportionment for the California Church Council to $2,000.00 with the understanding that a division of the receipts be made between the two organizations on a basis agreeable to both, since they overlap in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area; and (2) To approve the work of the new Federation and urge our churches to cooperate with it when it comes to the churches for financial aid. Such aid, however, will be made direct to the Federation and will not be in the form of a Conference appointment.

The Commission makes the following recommendations to the Conference with respect to the division of the 1937-38 receipts from the churches for the Entertainment, Travel, Minute and Office Expense apportionment:

(1) $1,000.00 to be allocated for the Entertainment Fund for the retired ministers of the Conference whose residences are outside the city of Los Angeles, on the basis of $2.50 per day.

(2) $1,600.00 to be paid to the Secretaries for the publication of the Annual Journal.

(3) Entertainment & Travel allowances to be paid to the ministers and lay delegates alike, on the basis of $1.00 per day for 5 days plus a mileage allowance of 1 cent per mile over 25 miles and under 200 miles, or 1½ cents per mile over 200 miles, with the provision that the allowance be paid on exactly the same percentage as the church, from which the minister and lay delegate come, has paid its apportionment to this fund.

(4) The balance of the receipts to be credited to the expenses of the Treasurer's office.

Few people realize the quantity of work which passes annually through the office of the Commission on Finance. An idea, perhaps, may be obtained from these figures: In a single year more than 10,000 single remittances are received, entered in a Cash Book, posted, and receipts issued. A total of nearly $300,000.00 passes annually through the Treasurer's books. About 800 checks are written each year in disbursing the funds received. Approximately 15,000 letters are mailed each year.

The cooperation of pastors and treasurers of local churches has been greatly appreciated this year. Without the close cooperation we have enjoyed, our work would be indefinitely more difficult. We earnestly request your continued cooperation in the months and years ahead.

A. W. TOWER, Chairman.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY AND EQUITABLE SUPPORT PLAN

Early in the Conference year it became apparent to both the Conference Missionary Society and the Equitable Support Commission that a close cooperation between the two groups would be necessary for harmonious administration of the two funds. A committee representing both groups met in an effort to work out an understanding between them, and recommended that the two groups be merged into one organization to be known as the "Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society." A joint meeting of the two societies was called, at which time the proposal met with unanimous approval, and the two groups recommend the proposed plan to the Annual Conference for adoption.

I. Purposes:

The purposes of the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society shall be:

(1) To maintain the schedule of minimum support adopted by the Annual Conference for its effective members, which include members on trial.

(2) To supplement low salaries paid by charges served by supply pastors.

(3) To meet financial emergencies in parsonage homes, such as the need for hospitalization, food and clothes.

(4) To provide funds to open new fields for Methodism, and to help develop existing needy fields.

(5) To subsidize financial and evangelistic work in charges where real need for such exists.

II. Organization:

(1.a) A Conference Board of 30 members, consisting of two ministers and three laymen from each district and the District Superintendents, shall be elected annually by the Annual and Lay Conferences on recommendation of the Committee on Nominations. The Treasurer of the Commission on Finance shall be a member ex-officio, and shall vote only in case of a tie vote.

(1.b) The Emergency Committee, consisting of the District Superintendents, shall be responsible for the Reserve Fund as hereinafter provided.

(2) District Committees shall consist of the representatives of each district on the Conference Board. The District Superintendent of each district shall be responsible for calling the first meeting of the District Committee.

(3) Both the Conference Board and District Committees shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

III. Method of Raising Needed Finances:

(1) An apportionment shall be levied upon the churches of the Conference on a basis to be recommended by the Commission on Finance and approved by the United Session for at least 75% of the total amount needed, as provided in Par. 942, Sec. 3, of the 1936 Discipline.

(2) The balance needed shall be raised by a sustentation fund assessment, as provided in Par. 942, Sec. 4, of the 1936 Discipline. This assessment shall be made on the salaries of all effective members of the Conference, excepting those serving as pastors in the Latin American Mission. Funds collected from such an assessment shall be used only in payment of minimum salaries. The assessment shall amount to the following percentages of the cash salaries. In case there is no parsonage, actual house rent, providing the amount has been approved by the Conference Board, may be deducted:

$1200 to $1599	½%
1600 to 1999	⅔%
2000 to 2499	1⅓%
2500 to 2999	1½%
3000 and over	2 %

IV. Procedure:

(1) Each District Superintendent shall report to the Conference Board not later than thirty days before the opening day of the Conference session, on forms supplied by the Board, the estimated amount needed to assure the minimum salary for each charge served by an effective member of the Conference on his district for the following year, together with the amount of available support from the Board of Home Missions and any other outside support for this purpose. He shall also report the amount needed by charges served by supply pastors to supplement the amount paid by the charge.

(2) The Conference Board shall immediately report the estimated total needed to the Commission on Finance. In order to arrive at the amount to be raised by the churches, the Commission on Finance shall deduct from the total the estimated amount to be provided by the sustentation fund assessment on the salaries of the effective members of the Conference. It shall then add 25% to the balance to provide a Reserve Fund. The total needed from the churches shall be apportioned on a basis to be recommended by the Commission on Finance and approved by the United Session.

(3) The Conference Board shall establish a Reserve Fund to care for the third point under, "Purposes" and for any other work which the Conference Board may authorize. The percentage of receipts from the apportionments to the churches to be placed in the Reserve Fund shall be determined by the Conference Board, provided this percentage shall not be less than 20% of the receipts. The Emergency Committee shall be responsible for the disbursement of the Reserve Fund.

(4) The Treasurer of the Commission on Finance shall be Treasurer of the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society, and as such shall receive and disburse all monies as directed by the Conference Board.

(5) Each District Committee shall:

(a) Inquire of every charge served by an effective member that has a salary lower than the minimum set by the Conference to ascertain whether or not it is doing its utmost to meet the standard, and to recommend in writing to the Conference Board the maximum amount to be paid to said charges.

(b) Report in writing to the Cabinet, members of the Conference serving charges who in their opinion are permanently ineffective, and suggest that the cabinet take action as provided in Par. 505 of the Discipline.

(c) Recommend to the Conference Board the amounts to be paid to the charges served by supply pastors to supplement the support.

(6) The Conference Board, on the basis of the reports from the District Committees shall determine the amounts to be paid each charge, and in writing order the Treasurer of the Commission on Finance to make payments as funds are available.

(7) The Treasurer of the Commission on Finance shall prepare an itemized account of receipts from members of the Conference and expenditures to the charges, which shall be printed in the statistical tables of the Conference Journal. The expenditures from the Reserve Fund shall be reported by the Emergency Committee to the Conference Board in detail, and the total shall be listed in the printed report as "Reserve Fund Expenditure."

(8) The minimum salary for effective members of the Conference, except those serving as pastors in the Latin American Missions, shall be decided each year by the United Session of the Annual Conference in answer to Question No. 14 of the Disciplinary Questions. The Conference Board on recommendation of a District Committee may make adjustments in the minimum salary where higher living costs and other variants warrant it.

(9) The Conference Board shall determine the minimum amount to be paid to a charge served by a supply pastor.

(10) This plan shall be effective at the close of the 1938 Annual Conference session.

(11) The Treasurer of the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society shall turn over to the Conference Committee on Permanent Records each year a list of members of the Conference who have not paid their assessments to the Society in full, together with the amount of the default.

CLYDE W. BEECHER, Chairman.

LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is filling an indispensable place in attempting to meet the missionary problems of the City. The record of this Society compares favorably with other City Missionary Societies across the country, even with some operating with a paid executive. Its budget is larger than that, for instance, of the City Missionary Society of Chicago, with a paid executive. During the past four years its income has been slightly in excess of $8,000 a year. During the past twelve years the churches of the Los Angeles districts have contributed to the Society no less than $183,615, or an average of $15,301 per year. During the past year the Society has aided twelve churches in the support of the pastor; has owned and cared for eight churches, which includes payment of taxes and street assessments, repairs, upkeep, insurance, etc.

Tuesday, May 3rd, 1938, the Society held a City Institute, in which problems of the City were discussed in round-table and certain factual information was presented to those present, who included pastors and representatives from the churches of the district. This meeting was held in lieu of the usual annual meeting with a formal report by the Secretary. It was generally agreed that this was one of the most helpful and informative meetings held by the Society, and the suggestion is made that such meetings should be held at least three or four times during the year. Out of it has come very valuable suggestions concerning the program of the Society for the future.

We are facing a very serious problem in the matter of the relationship of the City Missionary Society, which operates within the bounds of the Los Angeles district, to the Los Angeles metropolitan area, which extends out into the other four districts of the Conference. This is not a Los Angeles district problem, but distinctly one in which the entire Conference should have a very vital interest. After four years of experience working out the problems of the City there has come to the present Secretary a very definite conviction that this problem must have the immediate attention and careful study of the entire Conference.

Action has been taken by the City Society giving authorization that the All Nations Foundation should be organized and set off in a separate corporation, independent of the City Missionary Society and responsible to the Annual Conference. It is expected that this will be done immediately. Further reference to this will be made in other reports to be presented to the Annual Conference.

LEONARD OECHSLI

WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

World Service Education:

The Million Unit Fellowship movement, reinforced by Methodism's desire for a new realization of Aldersgate, has provided a spiritual carrier wave for world parish education. A literature came forth full of life. It caught our eyes and gripped our souls. Three thousand Methodists massed in Chicago to confer, and even mild skeptics who went with questioning came home with enthusiasm. The Methodist Men, without labeling it, have turned home missionaries, vitalizing personal religion and rehabilitating church property. From the field came stirring letters, reproduced and mailed to us by thousands, this a service of the Board of Education headquarters' staff. Jointly sponsored by the Woman's Home Missionary Society, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, the World Service Agencies and the Department of Epworth League and Young People's Work, a series of Cultivation Conferences crossed our entire territory. It is safe to say that without the correlating and directing interest of Dr. J. L. Corley, whose concept of education includes the whole world program, these conferences would have fallen far short of the success achieved. To these central gatherings and to 92 other church groups totaling 27,915 persons went the enlarged and increasingly valuable exhibit, truly a university of missions. One of several available members of our furloughed missionary staff, teamed with Mr. George G. Bechtel, director of the exhibit, visited each place. To make possible this fruitful education the Secretaries Council of World Service Agencies made available $500, and we are assured that our request for another such subsidy will receive appreciative attention. Many leaders of our larger church consider this an outstanding piece of world vision education. Local groups gave expense offerings totaling $635.58. These figures do not appear in any statistical table, but they do indicate our belief in missionary education. Special mention must be made of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Cooper of Pomona, laymen, who on their own expense have given largely of personal service. They have addressed 278 meetings in 143 churches and 31 civic bodies from Oregon to Mexico. Again, the singing of the Samuel Huston Students under the supervision of President Stanley Grannum, makes that school project vivid to our people. Spanish American Institute boys in drama, music and testimony likewise have helped clothe our budgets with personal reality. So much for the panorama of missionary education.

Plans for the Coming Year:

The Council has approved and recommends to our Conference and our local churches:

1. Hearty cooperation in another series of Cultivation Conferences, inclusive of every missionary organization and interest, local and worldwide, organized and sponsored by the District Superintendents, the presidents of the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, the president and executive Secretary of the Board of Education, the presidents of the Board of Home Missions, the Federation of Methodist Agencies, the Methodist Men and the Director of Young People's Work.

2. Ever widening use of the World Service Caravan, including the exhibit.

3. As far as locally suitable, utilization of suggestions offered by Dr. R. E. Diffendorfer, for increasing the effectiveness of the World Service Caravan to our churches.

- (a) Appoint a local Caravan Chairman to help set up the program.

- (b) Secure a Hospitality Committee to meet, greet and entertain those who come as guest helpers. They should contact speakers and director before the date set, giving them all possible help.

- (c) Enlist "prayer partners" who will join in spiritual preparation for the visit.

- (d) Choose a chairman for literature distribution, and get samples of literature in advance, to be familiar with it.

- (e) Make outside appointments in clubs, schools, etc. for the speakers, broadcasting the reason for their coming.

- (f) Use Scouts, Y groups, or church school classes to put one piece of publicity in each house.

- (g) Place news copy, mats, etc. in the local papers, such matters to be procured as required from the World Service Council.

4. Incorporation of World Service educational features and projects within the program of the Methodist Men, especially to reach "marginal" men

5. Taking full advantage of the opportunity created by the return of Bishop James C. Baker from the Madras Missionary Council to which he is one of 35 North American delegates. What need we more than the vision and fire of what promises to be the greatest missionary council of all time? This should be a Conference wide event of great significance.

Our Conference World Service Program:

1. The Foochow Parish Abroad: This continues to be the major area for our overseas expression of evangelism. Today, it forms the scene of a gigantic struggle between two ideas—greed and love. Nationalist militarism drops death, sneering at the sacredness of personality and making mockery of love. Our ambassadors, bearers of the imperishable message, labor on mid alarms and excursions. Bibles they leave, not bombs; comfort they bring, not terror. They carry on, as do also the heroic preachers, teachers and nurses of Chinese nationality. Let our lips be sealed and sleep forsake us if we forget them in this hour.

2. The Home Mission Appeal: Our Conference includes large needy areas. Perhaps we are most familiar with our Spanish speaking work, and well we ought for Los Angeles County alone includes 350,000 of these people. Likewise, large numbers of Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos are scattered thruout the Pacific Coast. The Hawaiian mission is peculiarly ours, as also the Alaskan work. Many an economically depressed community—such as one within the city of Los Angeles in which 60% of the property is sold to the state for taxes—must have a missionary ministry or be left inadequately shepherded or exploited by quackery. A growing problem, which is yet marginal in our local home mission program centers in the plight of California's migrant thousands. The Board of Home Missions, for all its liberal heart, cannot serve these people unless we put the ability into their hands. Pioneer fields still await a church which dares to pay as it prays.

3. Christian Education: The Board of Education spreads a wide tent, as may be seen in its Conference report. Because of the key importance of its many functions, we renew the request of 1937 that the Board of Education include the following askings in their budget, and approve these amounts for credit on apportionment of the local churches.

Wesley Foundation	6800
Rally Day	3500
24 hour day	1200
Samuel Huston College	3000

4. Other Agencies: (a) The Methodist agent of the American Bible Society in Shanghai writes: "No, business is not dead", and a Chinese District Superintendent reports: "7650 portions of scripture, 34 Bibles, 60 New Testaments sold". (b) Our staff of fighters for a clean and sober society are no lost expedition—the tide of struggle turns. (c) The work of our Board of Pensions means greater security for the veteran of the church. (d) Our hospitals, home and deaconesses bless those who need their service. The portion of the World Service dollar allocated to these projects provides no measure of the importance of their service.

Recommendations:

1. That pastors diligently guard against delay in the forwarding funds. Such withholdings often cost the constituent Boards many dollars of interest upon borrowed funds with which to carry on until our payments arrive. This is needless waste, and the prevention of it is with us.

2. We urge the continuance of the policy by which all agencies, or persons receiving World Service funds forward the same thru the Conference office, J. Wesley Hole, Treasurer, rather than sending them direct to the Boards.

3. Unification will doubtless modify our machinery. We believe that in the interests of economy, simplification and efficiency we could well follow the principle of correlating and combining some of our related mission agencies. In as much as many of their functions involve identical situations, we recommend that the Committee on Correlation of Methodist Agencies consider the advisability of combining the Conference Missionary Society and the Conference Board of Home Missions.

4. Our Conference approved an apportionment of $180,000 last year. Have we Aldersgate faith and fire to approve a 10% increase, apportioning $198,000 which we shall endeavor to raise? Let the Conference vote its answer.

The Dynamic:

Look our world squarely in the eye! Isn't it about time somebody, some church, some group of people offered themselves to Christ's command with a passion like unto Pentecost? Couldn't we be that church? Aldersgate is the earth's longest street. It encircles the globe. What drove that highway to the ends of the earth? Unshakable faith, deathless patience, bull-dog tenacity and fiery enthusiasm. Methodists—let the ancient sneer of "Enthusiasts" again be our glory!

FRANK M. TOOTHAKER, Chairman.

GERMAN MERGER COMMISSION

Section I

The German Merger Commission has been vigilant in its attention to the interests of this Conference in connection with the properties that were to be transferred to the Conference under the terms of the merger agreement. Several meetings of the commission have been held during the year and the status of each property carefully surveyed. Little definite progress can be reported. The transfer of only one property, that at Santa Rosa, has been completed. An agreement with the Pacific Home, as set forth in the report of the Board of Trustees, has been reached. The agreement appears to be equitable, and we believe will be satisfactory to the Conference. Delays have been encountered in connection with the transfer of some of the properties which are within the bounds of the California Conference, but constant effort is being made to complete these transfers. Some rather difficult problems have faced the commission during the year. It is hoped, however, that some solution may be reached in the near future. Your Commission has worked in conjunction with the trustees of the Conference and has held one meeting with them. We wish to assure the Conference that every thing possible is being done to conclude property adjustments under the terms of the Merger agreement with the California German Conference.

Section II

At the San Francisco Area Conference held by Bishop Baker at Mt. Hermon September 21st to 23rd, 1937, the present status of the German Merger properties located within the California Annual Conference was reviewed. In view of the fact that the Merger Agreement is now ten years old, and that there remain four properties within the bounds of the California Annual Conference still not conveyed to the Southern California Annual Conference, and that only two of the four properties are now in process of transfer, the following action was taken.

(1) That we join in a request to both the California Annual Conference and the Southern California Annual Conference that they continue from year to year a German Merger Commission whose business it shall be to review annually the status of the German Methodist congregations and properties which have not been transferred to the Board of Trustees of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the benefit of its Endowment Fund.

(2) That the German Merger Commission of the California Annual Conference at or before each annual session shall raise with the Cabinet of the said Conference the question of the continuance of the German Methodist congregations located in the said Conference, requesting the Cabinet to give conscientious study and consideration to the matter of the continuance of these churches throughout the ensuing year, and to give formal notice to the Southern California Annual Conference of its annual recommendation in the premises.

(3) That if the California Annual Conference deems it best for the interests of the Kingdom not to discontinue the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church of Oakland, California, and United German Church of San Francisco, California, or either of them, at or before the session of 1940, then its secretary shall so notify the Southern California Annual Conference, and each Conference shall instruct its Merger Commission to meet in joint session with the Commission from the other Conference to reconsider both the title to the property retained and the retired relationship and pension responsibility of the German brethren then in the California Annual Conference in the same number of the churches retained.

GERMAN MERGER COMMISSION,

Hardy A. Ingham, Chairman of Commission.

EVANGELISM AND ALDERSGATE BI-CENTENNIAL

With the passing of the formal commemoration of the anniversary of Aldersgate, your Committee on Evangelism centers its thought upon the future.

It is our conviction that no whole-hearted or united effort is likely to be made until there is a clarification of our views as to the meaning and goals of evangelism.

For one thing, we are separated by two conflicting views in society as to methods of redemption. There are those who put their faith in the purely individualistic approach, insisting that if we create in a large number of individuals a new soul the inevitable result will be the creation of a new world. There is another group which insists that if we change our social and economic structure, the transformation of individuals will follow. This latter view, in its purest form, is economic determinism.

Both groups express only half truths. Lord Bryce tells us that in the sixteenth century there were many who believed that the transformation of the world as well as the individuals within the world would come through the substitution of the rule of the people for the rule of kings. We see the fallacy of that argument today.

But we ought to see the fallacy also of the first point of view. For four hundred years Evangelical Protestantism has been working upon the inner lives of individuals. Yet the social order remains unredeemed. Millions still go to bed hungry. Nations still settle their differences with the sword. The world still is full of race prejudice and even race hatred.

There is no possibility of world redemption apart from the redemption of individuals. But unless the church insists upon individual conversion in the frame-work of social demand, we cannot hope to deal with the corporate sins of our day.

There is an unfortunate dualism in our thinking about evangelism which is manifested in the very use of the terms "personal gospel" and "social gospel". The Prophets did not make this distinction and certainly Jesus did not make it.

We cannot rightly divide Christ's Gospel. It does not come to us in departments. There is no such a thing as a purely personal religion or an absolutely social gospel. We are social beings and can do nothing in private which does not affect someone else. Even when we get away from the rest of the world and kneel upon the floor of our prayer closet, we kneel upon a floor laid by someone else. And, if we believe in the second great commandment, as well as the first, the welfare of that "someone else" ought vitally to concern us, even as we try to be alone with God. "The chief significance of the teaching of Jesus," says Bishop McConnell, "is the togetherness of the two commandments."

Another dualism in our thinking is expressed in our use of the term "evangelistic approach" and the "educational approach".

As a church we long have recognized Wesley's own appreciation of the importance of sound educational procedure but not always have we recognized how closely tied up it was with his evangelistic program. Wesley looked upon children not as psychological subjects but as immortal souls. "The warmth of gospel preaching," says Bishop Hughes, "fell upon the cooler realm of instruction—so much so that often the Sunday School teacher was the most powerful lieutenant in the converting effort and moved down the ancient aisles with his own scholars as the trophies of his anxious supplication."

We have enlarged our views of the church's responsibility to children and youth since those early days. We are realizing that religion is "a journey, not a destination." But if we forget that the high point in that journey is the time and place when the individual child commits his life to the Master and the various points where dedications must be made as the meaning of the Master's message becomes more clear, we indeed are missing our opportunity. Sarah E. Green, in her suggestive little pamphlet on "Evangelism and Our Work with Children" says: "All our guidance should be preparatory and considered as incomplete until a decision is made." In other words, if the educational approach does not lead into and become part of the evangelistic approach, our whole religious education program falls short of its goal.

There is a third dualism in our thinking about evangelism which centers around the intellect and the emotions. We tend to set over against each other the "warm emotional appeal" and the "cold intellectual approach."

That there is a place for emotionalism in religion cannot be doubted. Surely we "shouting Methodists" ought to be the last ones to question it. Probably we are unanimous in desiring to recover some of the glow, warmth and enthusiasm that characterized the religion of our fathers and mothers.

But we should not forget that their emotionalism was primarily a result rather than a cause. While the appeal of the old-time evangelist was for a simple and direct yielding of a person to the Lord, there were also clean-cut and definite implications. These implications were stressed in the pulpit, in the Sunday School, in church literature and in Christian homes.

It meant something very definite to be a Christian in those days. When a penitent sinner walked down the aisle and knelt at the altar, he knew what was expected of him. It was to "Quit your meanness", as Sam Jones used to say, and "forsake the pleasures of the world." And our fathers did not quibble about naming the pleasures. It is little wonder that the penitents' surrender often was accompanied by a considerable display of emotionalism.

Today, we must admit, things are different. For better or for worse, we have stopped talking about some of the older standards. And we have not yet clearly defined newer standards made necessary by a machine age. There is a lack of definiteness about being a Christian these days, as far as implication are concerned. In most of our appeals there is a minimum of commitment to any specifically Christian outlook or responsibility. It is not strange, therefore, that people join the church with the same casualness that they join a lodge or a service club. We need to confess that, as a church, we have been too much a part of the world we are trying to save.

Judging from the pronouncements of our church in recent years we are moving towards a clarification of what it means to be a Christian in a modern industrial order. We are beginning to see that it often means criticism and even persecution. If Dictatorship continues its onward march, it may mean imprisonment and death. When that time comes we will not be worrying about the lack of emotionalism in connection with religion.

The evangelism of yesterday at least was partially suitable to the conditions of yesterday. We have no desire to criticize it. But we do have a yearning to more than match its adequacy; to work out a technic more efficient for our day than their technic was for their day. In keeping with that spirit your Committee on Evangelism makes the following appeal:

First: We urge our ministers and lay teachers to stress the immediacy and urgency of the Gospel so that our people may realize that without Christ society and individuals who go to make up society are lost and with Him they are saved.

Second: We urge an earnest and honest facing up to the fact of sin, whether that sin be manifested in the innermost thoughts of the individual in the privacy of his own soul or in the realm of industry and international relations.

Third: We urge our ministers to be as definite as possible in dealing with sin in specific areas of our individual lives as well as in the life of the world. It is easier to talk about sin in general terms than to discover motives back of our own attitudes. It is easier to deal with selfishness in the abstract than to upset money changers' tables.

Fourth: We urge a more earnest and careful reading and study of the Bible with its dramatic stories of individuals who were "born again" and became "new creatures in Christ Jesus" and its constant emphasis upon the Kingdom of God which is to come upon earth.

Sixth: We urge our people to pray without ceasing and to labor diligently for the coming of the Kingdom, living meanwhile as though the Kingdom already is here.

In this Aldersgate anniversary year with its appeal for a return to the vital experiences that characterized early Methodism under the leadership of its founder John Wesley.

First: That this Conference memorialize the Uniting Conference of the Methodist Church to provide ways and means to study how best to promote and extend an evangelistic program which shall be deemed adequate for this day and hour.

Second: That for this purpose the Uniting Conference be asked to continue as a major board of the united church the Commission on Evangelism now in existence in the Methodist Protestant Church and in the Methodist Episcopal Church South and that this Board be asked first, to carry out provision one; second, to put into operation such a program for the evangelistic work of the united church as shall be deemed suited to meet the needs of a changing order of society. We realize a new day confronts us, old methods will not suffice for the great demands made on the church by this present age. Therefore we ask for an agency to carry on effectively the evangelism of a new day.

METHODIST CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

If Methodism moves forward into the third century with power it will need just such meetings as those conducted by the Methodist Camp Meeting Association. The meeting this year will be held in First Church, Long Beach, on August 21-28. We will have an outstanding leadership for these meetings.

Dr. Walter Buckner will preach the opening sermon. Rev. Bob Shuler and Bishop Ralph S. Cushman will be the preachers at the morning and evening services. Rev. D. Willa Caffray will preach at the afternoon meetings. Miss Caffray's ministry has been world wide having held meetings in India, South America and Africa. Her work was strongly commended by Bishop Oldham. Bishop Johnson said, "We were discouraged and disheartened in Africa and God sent us a great Pentecostal Revival through an American Evangelist." That was Miss Caffray.

Dr. J. A. B. Fry, Presiding Elder of Los Angeles District Methodist Church South will have the daily Bible Hour. Jimmie Roberts will be in charge of the music. There will be one whole day for young people. Think of being instructed in evangelism by Bishop Cushman and Miss Caffray. A Men's Day headed by Wray Andrew. A special Woman's Day with the world task kept before us.

Dear brethren and sisters, help us to make this assembly and Camp Meeting worthy to be called by the name Methodist. May it be a focal point to spread scriptural holiness over these lands.

FRED H. ROSS, President.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

No adequate review of the multiform services rendered by the various departments of this board could be made in the space allowed. For details of the work we prefer again to refer those interested to the Board's Year Book (1937-38) which we shall be glad to mail, gratis, to anyone requesting it. Therein one may find, in addition to the report of the secretary, statements, concerning their work, by the departmental and committee leaders as follows: Adult, Byron E. Horn; Wesley Foundation and Schools, Herman N. Beimfohr and Walter C. Buckner; Epworth League and Young People, Jas. McGriffin; Children, Alice Louise Brown; Spanish American Institute, Richard H. Silverthorn; Educational work of Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick; Educational work of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. Wray Andrew; Educational section of California Church Council, Harold V. Mather; Finance Committee, Glenn R. Phillips and J. Wesley Hole.

Under the faithful and able leadership of its president, George A. Warmer, this staff of departmental leaders and their committees discharged their duties in a most commendable manner. Each year sees a more satisfactory understanding of our purposes in Christian education; a more effective integration of our methods; a finer fellowship in the board.

Week-Day Religious Education. Special attention has been given this year to week-day religious education. Numerous conferences on the subject have been held with public school authorities. Two experimental projects, after school hours, have been conducted for an extended period, one in Hollenbeck Heights, another in Hollywood. A number of our pastors and churches very generously and faithfully helped in meeting the expenses involved. Plans are now maturing to approach the Los Angeles school board with a request for "released time" in order that the churches may more adequately introduce religious teaching into the regular education of our children. Great encouragement is given all these efforts by Dr. Mills in our Christian Advocate. It is high time this movement receives the study and support of our churches. "It does not seek sectarian favor at the expense of the common good. It seeks to eliminate from the educational processes an educational sectarianism which is fatal to the highest good." "What we want in our nation tomorrow we must put into our schools today."

Some items in the report of each department deserve particular notice.

Adult Work. The Adult Seminar under the leadership of J. Russell Throckmorton of the Board of Education, Chicago, greatly stimulated the entire program. The hope is that there may gradually come a thorough coordination of all adult activities and organizations within our conference.

Young Adult Work. A vigorous young adult movement is developing in our conference. Officers have been elected, a tentative program has been set up, a conference-wide survey has been taken and it is now proposed to project the movement throughout the conference by District organizations. This program is designed to meet the needs of our older young people who have outgrown the Epworth League, to minister to their home life and furnish a field of useful activity for them. It holds great promise. An institute for young adults will be held at Camp High Sierra, June 25-July 2. Miss Ruth Harris was elected president of the group.

Young People. In no other section of the Church is there a better conducted program the year round for young people than in our Conference. With a total enrollment of 400, eight institutes were held during the year. Two institutes will be held this summer for the Junior High groups. Other activities throughout the year include the Area Assembly, Regional conventions, Alliance rallies and local church coaching conferences. These are but a hint of the work that has been carried on during the past months and is projected for the year ahead.

Wesley Foundation. The six Wesley Foundations (three are called "clubs") of this conference and those at Berkeley and Stanford, are the Methodist Church interpreting the Christian life to students and faculty. Several Foundations have been experimenting with "A Laboratory of Life," a clinic of Christian living. This year marks progress in determining an approach and program for Junior College students. An active group of young Methodists have been functioning as a Wesley Club at Pasadena Junior College. Growing interest and action have been manifested in all the school in inter-faith cooperation. The University religious Conference "harmonizes the relations or organized education that complete education shall be provided to the rising generations in America." The cooperative approach to the campus by religious groups is practicing the American principle of appreciative living in the midst of differences.

Children. The outstanding event of the year was the Children's Work seminar under the able leadership of Miss Sarah E. Green (deceased) and Miss Ethel L. Smither, prominent leaders in Methodist work for children. One of the accomplishments of the seminar was the training of leaders to constitute auxiliary leadership groups for sectional and district training conferences. Following the seminar under the leadership of district superintendents, pastors, children's leaders, a number of one-day institutes have been conducted and more are projected for the year ahead. The seminar convinced to the last person of over 300 enrolled, the superiority from every angle of our Methodist Church School literature.

Spanish American Institute. The Institute has as its objectives: to develop character by helping boys to help themselves; to train their minds to gain useful knowledge, and then to reason clearly; to assist them in acquiring a gainful occupation and through that ability attain a high standard of living. There are approximately seventy-five boys enrolled with a staff of about fifteen. Attention is given to each student according to his need. Since this is an experiment in cooperative living, each boy does a certain amount of work regardless of the amount of tuition paid. There is no doubt of the need for this type of school and no greater task awaits the Church than to produce the type of manhood that comes out of the Spanish American Institute.

Woman's Home Missionary Society. During the year, the Woman's Home Missionary Society in the Southern California Conference, has endeavored to acquaint women and young people with the need and opportunity of service through the use of 169 study courses, 3000 subscriptions to Woman's Home Missions and the Junior Magazine, and other literature for all age groups. In addition to the prescribed program of study, interest is stimulated in Temperance and all measures promoting Christian citizenship. Over 200 girls in Queen Esther Camp at Idyllwild Pines, with an able faculty, devoted a week to Bible Study, missionary education and healthful recreation.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. The women of this Society study with a two-fold purpose: First, to learn the need of the peoples of the world and how that need may best be met; second, to learn their own need and how they may provide food for their own personal growth. A new enterprise along the education line is the preparation of study courses for instruction in the subjects of Leadership and Christian World Citizenship. The summer camp for the Standard Bearers and Young Women, where a well-balanced instructional program was given, had an enrollment of nearly 200, including the faculty.

California Church Council: The Council is the agency through which nineteen Protestant denominations in the state of California work together toward the accomplishment of those Kingdom tasks which can be done more effectively when all Christian groups cooperate. In addition to the significant experiments in Week-day Religious Education (referred to above), Vacation Church Schools made another marked advance last summer. Through close cooperation with the coordinating councils of Los Angeles County, 410 schools were conducted in the county, enrolling a total of 44,164 pupils, and reporting an average daily attendance of 35,092. There is added interest in Leadership Training in Southern California. During 1937, forty-two leadership training schools were conducted. These schools had the services of 120 teachers, offered 128 courses and enrolled over 1600 students.

J. L. CORLEY.

PRINCIPLES OF A CHRISTIAN SOCIAL ORDER

Search for the principles of a Christian Social Order must begin with the fundamental fact in Jesus' consciousness and teaching, namely the Fatherhood of God. Great implications lie germinal in this simple concept: implications from which Jesus did not shrink either in precept or practice.

Most immediate of these by inevitable logic is the universal brotherhood of men, dowering each individual with equal claim to the great patrimony of God. Any social order seeking to be Christian must begin here. It's members must accept kinship, with God and with all men. As in the parable of the Father with the Two Sons the father refuses to be unfathered by the unfilial prodigal and calls the self-righteous elder brother to assume his kinship, so the members of a Christian social order cannot evade the obligations of brotherhood even to the most unbrotherly of men. The dominant note in an effective evangelism must summon men to accept and practice kinship in the Great Family: with the Plaza "bum", as well as with the bishop of the Church and the bank president; with the women of the street, as well as with the ladies of the West End.

The Christian order is all inclusive. God is the leader. Loyalty to Him is supreme over all other loyalties, and creates the Family bond. The individual is part of the larger total, bound to it by his inheritance, his faculties and his needs. The Christian order is a pool, adding to its inheritances the total resources of its members: the strength of the strong, the frailties of the weak, the potentialities of all, that from this common treasury each may draw the sustenance of an "abundant life": a life which means not merely an enlarged ego, but one which reaches the fulness of personality through its kinships and the service which these involve.

The Christian society is thus a fraternity of persons. Personality becomes the supreme value to be sought and conserved. Things, institutions, even though sacred and long-established, all are "made for man". Their function is to minister to the development of the Christ-like personality. "The whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now, waiting for the revealing of the Sons of God." The whole created order exists to free and enrich the life of all, not according to desert but according to need, as Jesus taught in the parable of the equal reward to the unequally employed. Not by a hard and even justice but "by grace are we saved": the grace that makes gracious both the giver and the recipient.

The Christian society is a fraternity of responsibility. No talent, however carefully napkined, can be withheld from service. It must yield its "usury" to the total good. Larger talents are a larger trust, sacred to the uses of the Great Family. "He that would be greatest among you must be the servant of all." There can be no "sit-down strike" for personal faculty or resource. All must find place in the divine processes and program.

The Christian society is redemptive in purpose and passion. The order of nature seeks progress through the elimination of the unfit; the Christian order seeks progress through the elimination of unfitness. It therefore recognizes as Anti-Christ whatever perpetuates, increases or exploits unfitness, whether that unfitness arises from meager native endowment or from artificial handicaps created by the maladjustments of existing society. It demands that the "grace of God" which stoops to enter the human soul to transform it shall also enter and transform the environment which so largely conditions the development of personality. Only so is the redemptive mission of the Christian order fulfilled.

The Christian society sustains a perpetual hostility to, and is in perpetual struggle with, those forces, institutions and attitudes, personal or corporate, which represent Anti-Christ. Jesus declared that he came "not to send peace but a sword" upon the earth. This tension and conflict must enlist the resources of all members of a Christian society until the injustices, the class and race antagonisms, the inequalities other than those irremovable handicaps of nature, and all other unsubdued egotisms, are overcome. The ideals of a Christian social order will be perpetual "trouble makers" until the world is finally "turned right side up".

The Christian society rests upon, and its very existence is conditioned by, three great attitudes. Paul was not uttering sentiment when he wrote: "And now faith, hope and love, these three, last on!" To bickering groups, each bent upon emphasizing the importance of its own particular skills, he was baring, with an insight as keen and as kindly as a scalpel, the rugged structure upon which a Christian civilization must rest. Faith conditioned by a simple honesty of word, a sincerity of deed—personal, communal and international—which gives validity to all covenants, and makes mutual confidence possible; hope which ties faith to great ideals and unpopular causes, which girds it with dauntless courage for persistent struggle for achievement; love which holds every faculty, every skill, every possession, every potentiality, in trust for the welfare of the kinship: these are the spiritual attitudes of a Christian society. Without these fundamentals, a Christian order is impossible.

The implication of these fundamental principles is far-reaching. They penetrate every institution and relationship of modern society, demanding that these shall assume and perform functions consistent with and in furtherance of the universal kinship. Effect upon personality becomes the touchstone by which current practices must be tested and judged. From these fundamental viewpoints your committee submits the following analysis of certain current social institutions and practices, together with its suggestions and recommendations.

II—MARRIAGE AND HOME LIFE

There is no more basic matter involved in building a better world than the establishment through marriage of homes founded on and giving expression to Christian ideals. Today we view with a great deal of concern the mounting figures of unsuccessful marriages and broken home life.

Modern marriage presents a more difficult relationship than in the days when our ways of living were less complicated. The disruption of the social and economic structure of society, the great movement of the population toward urban centers, all have had a tremendous influence upon marriage and the family life.

"This is no small task in these days when community sanctions are low, required investment high, and storm areas frequent. The call of material values is so insistently strident that it is hard for the church to make its call to the cultural values of human living impressive. Yet never has there been more needed this work of the church of centering and recentering the attention of the husband and wife upon the building of conditions for fostering that kind of communion in which greater cultural values grow in the world." (From "The Modern Family and the Church"—p. 183, by Regina Westcott Wieman.)

The institution of marriage, no matter how sacred it may be considered, can actually become no better and no more sacred than the people who comprise it. Even though the church may place its blessing upon marriage through the marriage ceremony, it can by no means assure the sacredness of the relationship being entered into, unless the information made available by education and science has been adequately presented.

Marriage is essentially a fellowship of a man and a woman who seek to share their lives biologically, psychologically and spiritually. No one of these relationships can be ignored without damaging the total personality of the two entering into such a union.

The minister who officiates at a marriage has in no way discharged his responsibility by merely performing the marriage ceremony, but should see that there is a program of education carried on before the actual marriage contract, as well as continued guidance in the years that follow. We deplore the commercial aspect of marriage which has almost reached the proportion of a race to see who can offer the best facilities for performing the ceremony. The attitude of, "Well, if I don't perform the ceremony, someone else will, and I might as well get the money" is altogether too prevalent. We urge our laymen and ministers to cooperate in a program which will lift this very important event to a place where in reality it becomes "a holy institution ordained of God." We call upon all ministers and laymen to cooperate in the following suggestions:

I. Program of Guidance before Marriage.

A. The education and training of individuals, with specific emphasis upon emotional maturity in the psychological, biological and spiritual aspects of marriage. This may be done by:

1. Study groups or seminars.
2. Distribution of adequate texts and pamphlets.
3. Bringing into young people's groups competent leaders in these areas.
4. Putting select reading material into the church library so that it is available to young people.

B. Personal Counseling.

1. When our own young people are getting married, require physical and psychological examinations of both parties before performing the ceremony.

2. In the event that they are not members of the church fellowship, the pastor should suggest that these examinations be made before accepting the responsibility of the ceremony.

II. Program of Guidance of Growing Relationships After Marriage.

A. Keep in contact with the couples whom they have married through letter or whenever possible by personal visitation.

B. Educational groups or seminars in keeping with marriage relationships and the establishment of the home life.

C. Provide a program in the church which will stimulate husband and wife participation in sharing in interests other than themselves.

D. Social organizations for members of similar interests, who would find growth and reinforcement through fellowship.

E. Special connections with other community agencies which have similar purposes and problems or the means to meet them.

III. Work for the passage of uniform Federal divorce legislation.

III. THE GAMBLING EVIL

The alarming way in which gambling in its different forms has been accepted by an increasing number of people is comparable only to the extent in which it has involved State and local governments. Every election, either municipal or state, evidences the pouring of large sums of money into the campaign which is an obvious investment and demands future favors from those elected. These are tremendous moral and economic hazards which the Church cannot rightly overlook. Mark Kelly, writing in the Examiner June 17, 1937, tells us that "California has six tracks solely operated for gambling profits. In the north, Tanforan, Bay Meadows and Del Monte, new. In the south, Santa Anita, Del Mar, new, and Inglewood, building. This is an increase of 100% in the last year. Hand books operate illegally and almost continuously because there is generally racing in some part of the country." In the same paper on August 1, 1937, Mr. Kelly goes on to say: "Here we are (at Del Mar track) wondering where the crowd gets all that money to toss into the pockets of race track owners. On a 22-day meeting, Bing's group will profit $80,000 to $100,000. Santa Anita paid stockholders fifty per cent the first year, fifty per cent the second year, and sixty per cent dividends last year. Just give the race track stockholder two years on his investment and he won't moan too much if an aroused electorate and a sadder but wiser sucker public decides to oust the sport."

The following forms of gambling seem to be the most evident:

(1) Pari-mutuel Gambling already referred to. We would suggest that the Methodist men, through their machinery, initiate a state-wide fight against this evil.

The law permitting pari-mutuel betting in this state makes criminal an act in one place which is perfectly legal in another.

It virtually makes crime a matter of geography.

It was passed by the activity of special interests, owners of racing horses, who receive special permits. This has formed virtually a trust in permission to certain groups to profit from trafficking in gambling.

If gambling is wrong and should be forbidden, it should be forbidden anywhere and to everybody. If it is beneficent, it should be granted to everybody who desires to participate on the same terms. The development of a selected group and special privilege to take money from the pockets of their fellows without giving an adequate and equivalent return for it, is virtually creating a "corner" on stealing and breeding the conviction that the extraction of money from another without fair exchange is right if it is legal!

There should be no monopoly permitted by law in exploitation, whether in burglary or gambling.

(2) The Gambling Ships located three miles or more off the coast are a source of evil. This problem will have to be handled, not only through a State law but also through local ordinances controlling taxis to and from the gambling ships. We suggest that local ministerial groups in the seaside resorts affected make themselves responsible for such action.

(3) Agitation for State Wide Lottery. The thought behind this movement seems to be that the foreign lotteries, such as the Irish Sweepstakes, get money from those who will gamble anyway, and that it would be good business to keep this money at home. Does this mean that America has come to the place where she is willing to discard the foundation principles laid down by our forefathers and substitute the loose moral standards of Europe for the sake of a questionable monetary gain? Our government must never become a partner to such a plan. The ultimate result would not be the diminishing of money going abroad but the universal acceptance of the practice of gambling both at home and abroad.

(4) Slot Machines. So gigantic is the profit from this type of gambling that it is impossible to get accurate figures depicting the magnitude of their "Takes". This amounts annually to millions of dollars in the City of Los Angeles alone. So thoroughly organized are these groups that they become strong political factors, and do not hesitate to pour large sums of money into campaign funds to further their cause. Anyone attempting to attack this evil will find themselves in opposition to a well organized and aggressive machine which is willing to go to unthought of means to secure its purpose. This is all the more reason why we should fight the gambling interests in a concerted and intelligent manner.

The evident results of gambling are first of all:

- (1) The breaking down of the moral fibre of our citizenry.
- (2) Corrupting of public officials.
- (3) The diverting of large sums of money from legitimate channels into unproductive and wasteful business.

We suggest:

- (1) That each church organize an educational program to inform the people of the insidious ramifications of this evil.
- (2) That they support the Methodist Men who will give leadership to such a campaign.
- (3) That a local survey be made in each community in cooperation with such organizations as the W.C.T.U., Womans Clubs, P.T.A. or any other social-minded groups.
- (4) That the widest possible publicity be given to the findings in each local community.

The unprecedented indirect advertising given the race tracks at Santa Anita and elsewhere is creating a gambling mind and slowly and surely breaking down mental barriers which are part of the American tradition, and is rapidly encouraging California to become the gambling rendezvous of the United States.

IV. LABOR

Introduction: By labor we do not mean that special interest and philosophy often represented as opposed to capital. We do not mean labor organizations unless specifically so stated. By labor, we mean any human activity by which wealth and cultural values are created, or service is rendered to persons.

(1) Labor's Honor. Labor therefore partakes of the nature of God in His Creativity. Labor creates new values. This principle of the creation of value brings judgment upon such human activities as are chiefly acquisitive. For example, speculators may gain, but as such they perform no labor; profit-takers may amass while failing to produce; gamblers may get, but do not enrich society. Our society has often sinned against God by honoring these and others who are parasitically inclined. Parasitism, that is, living without labor, has no place in the Kingdom of a creative God. Kingdom citizenry must be of the makers, not the takers.

Action: (1) We pledge ourselves to withdraw all expressions of approbation from non-creative ways of living, and refrain from doing honor to persons and institutions living without labor. (2) Especially will we seek by our approval to reinforce those engaged in creative vocations.

(2) Labor Not a Commodity: Workers are persons, and personality represents values not to be classified as goods. The Christian principle of brotherhood brings to judgment any order under which man's skill and toil are dealt with as though they were so much oil or lumber. "Every unit in the statistical table descriptive of unemployment is a human being," a brother of more value than the world's accumulated material wealth. To believe this and apply it to industry requires a long overdue revolution in our thinking, language and action.

Action: (1) We, therefore, covenant to purge our thinking, so that as a society we shall remember that labor is the activity of persons, each one our brother. (2) We pledge ourselves to work against all plans and devices for creating surpluses of workers, the effect of which always depresses the worker's income to levels where health and decency cannot be maintained.

(3) The Laborer's Opportunity: Since the industrial revolution, the processes of production have grown increasingly complex and more dependent upon gigantic mechanical power. Simple craftsman's tools no longer suffice the industrial worker. Yesterday he owned his forge, and hammers, but today he cannot own a continuous strip rolling mill. Ownership also tends to become a series of impersonal, highly-complicated corporate bodies, where control is often exercised by a small minority of actual investment. (See Berle and Means "American Corporation") The purpose of owning tools also changes. Tools to produce wealth tend to become tools designed to make profits. Again, the worker who has lost control of his tools, loses thereby his freedom to initiate work. He now works or idles at the direction of the owner. Before the giant corporation he stands powerless. Moreover, since profit-making largely controls corporate policies, the automatic machine grows in favor, further diminishing the worker's opportunity. From the power street-sweeper to the auto-telegraph the mechanical man displaces human skill. Sixteen million workers suffer partial or total idleness today, a condition not unrelated to corporately owned industrial mechanization. To these facts we call attention in order that we may clearly and strongly assert that this process utterly denies, abrogates, and renders impossible the Christian view of man as a brother and as an infinitely worthwhile son of God.

Action: We recommend that our churches make clear the moral and spiritual implications involved in (1) the present development of the giant corporation and (2) its ownership of the modern machine, coupled with (3) the prevailing over-emphasis upon the motive of private gain, as judged by (1) their effects upon the personalities of worker and employer, and (2) in the light of the teaching of Jesus concerning brotherhood and the worth of man. We assert the laborer's moral, spiritual, and economic right to an opportunity to work, and to share the social product fully enough to sustain family life on a basis of decency and culture. We will actively aid workers to secure enjoyment of their right. We will work in every Christian way to establish such democracy in ownership and control of industry as shall distribute the benefits of mechanical progress to workers as well as owners, and remove the menace of technological unemployment.

(4) The Worker's Right to Organize: Facing diminishing opportunity, and experiencing the frustration of individual impotence in dealing with organized industry, the worker also organized. He became possessed of new and unaccustomed power. Goaded by his painful experience, the organized laborer often retaliated with the weapons which had been used against him, and in similar spirit. This we deplore, though we understand the laborer's sufferings, such as (a) the threat and reality of hunger, (b) frustration through lack of opportunity, (c) unemployment through displacement by imported low wage workers, or industrial mechanization, and (d) the use of hired thugs, spies, and other oppressive practices and methods used against him. It became clear that, if industrialists organize on national and international scales, then workers must also organize as widely, if anything like equality of discussion, agreement and planning are to be secured.

Action: We, therefore, by the authority of successive General Conferences, declare the worker's right to organize, and bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to use such orderly and legal means as may be consistent with the spirit of Jesus to secure the effective exercise of this right.

(5) Collective Bargaining: Collective bargaining means much more than a form of commercial haggling. It should be thought of as a method by which persons who are owners and other persons who are laborers meet on a basis approaching equality to discuss, analyze, and solve the problems involved in working and living together. These include (1) wages (a workman's livelihood); (2) hours (a significant portion of the worker's life); (3) working conditions (the environments of an important segment of life); (4) basic economic factors in industry (operating costs, raw materials, overhead expense, owner's remuneration, and factors affecting marketing); and (5) mutual attitudes (the fundamental bases of living together).

Action: We hereby urge all employers and workers, and especially upon all Methodists, the espousal and sincere practice of these principles, in times both of harmony and of disagreement.

(6) Democracy in Industry: Fortunately for us, American institutions in their genesis partook generously of the spirit of political democracy. The succeeding century offered an unparalleled opportunity through a westward moving frontier. The losers freely pressed on to find a new beginning "out west". But about 1890 the doors of the frontier swung shut. It began to dawn upon a few minds that the era of uncontrolled individualism had not given birth or nurture to an economic or industrial democracy which would parallel our assumption of equality of political voice and our ideal of "every man a king". Nowhere is this more apparent now than in the autocratic structure of industry, an autocracy that not only largely dictates the habits, standards and life of workers, but also in many respects reduces political government to the position of an accessory to autocracy. By assuming the sole right to hire and discharge workers, and in large measure to fix prices and wages, industry assumes dictatorial powers. By the exercise of the power of discharge, whether able or unable to continue wage payments, industrial owners may sentence workers to poverty, and force the government to support them. In effect, this compels society to subsidize industry until such time as profits are again in sight. Moreover, in spite of long insistence on the part of enlightened opinion regarding employee share in ownership and co-operative control, industry has done virtually nothing about it. Our General Conference has repeatedly urged "the supremacy of the principle of co-operation in the industrial world. The Church must clearly teach the principle of the fullest possible co-operative control and ownership of industry". We, therefore, again point out to our people that we shall either move quickly toward the democratization of industry, or industry will drive us under the dominance of a political autocracy, a totalitarian state.

Action: (1) For the preservation of our historic institutions founded on the democratic principle, and to extend that principle, which is grounded in the dignity of personality and in the right of each person to share in determining the conditions of his life and work, we pledge ourselves to strive for an orderly change of business and industrial organization and practice, so that our economy may approach true democracy. (2) Wherever the rights inherent in property assume dictatorial authority over the lives of persons, we will oppose such acts as unChristian.

(7) Child Labor: While we recognize the value of child participation in family life and work, with due regard to his age and development, we nevertheless hold these to be no argument for the failure by the states to ratify the pending Child Labor amendment.

Action: We will work for the ratification of the present pending amendment, or for other superior legislation for the protection of children in their right to normal childhood.

(8) Relief Labor: We call attention to the fact that methods employed upon government sponsored work-projects often depress and dispirit able workers who may be assigned to such projects. Methods which discard the use of efficient tools and resort to outworn practices insult the intelligence of those who would rather work productively than offer half-hearted effort with obsolete tools. We stand for a scientifically discovered adequate annual family income as a substitute for the present wage-hour arrangement which results in lack of sufficient sustenance and has the practical effect of making relief a subsidy in many areas of our agricultural and industrial life.

Action: We strongly recommend the adoption of high standards on relief work projects with adequate scope and sufficient numbers of projects, to sustain not only the bodily health of workers, but also their spiritual morale. We further urge the payment of a decency standard, rather than a starvation level wage on all federal, state, or county work projects.

Farm Laborers and Owners:

Farm workers income forms the lowest wage bracket: 1925—$537.00; 1929—$648.00; 1932—$352.00. A study of California migrant workers in 1937 shows the largest group receiving between $500.00 and $600.00 per family. U. S. farmer-owned farms decreased in acreage 6.5%, while manager-operated acreage increased 23%, and tenant-farm acreage increased 19%. (U. S. census of Agr. 1930-35). Farm income on the average bulks insufficient to support either farmer or farm laborer at a decency standard. This appears due to four not irremediable factors.

(1) Lack of consumer buying power. An Illinois study indicates that $100.00 buying power added to family budgets under $1250.00 buys from $25.00 to $40.00 additional agricultural products.

(2) Monopoly controlled marketing. From January to March 1938, the New York milkshed received 4.6c per quart from the monopoly collected price of 13c.

(3) Inflated distribution costs—transportation, warehousing, selling, jobbing, wholesaling, processing, retailing.

(4) Flexible income and inflexible overhead. Wheat may drop from $1.25 to 75c but the new tractor does not drop from $1250.00 to $750.00. Taxes, interest, electric power similarly do not accommodate to the wide range in farm prices.

Farm-owner operators and farm laborers should organize, not against each other, but together, realizing that their economic and social salvation requires the development of an economy wherein purchasing power is sufficiently distributed to absorb agricultural production which has never yet exceeded human need.

Consumer Co-operation:

Consumer's cooperation implies the brotherhood of man—brotherhood which is central, not merely as emotion, but as fraternity in economic and social areas of real life. Such cooperation has proved to be successful in practising the concept of human brotherhood. We believe that as Christians, professedly believing in brotherhood, we should seek consistency by committing ourselves to the study and furtherance of this movement. Consumer's Co-operation proposes no magic panacea to transform the world overnight, but offers a way of living together which for nearly a century has proved itself a practical and constructive method for bettering the character and standard of living of those who employ it. This co-operative way challenges capitalism and the profit system on the grounds of social economy—of being able to secure greater good to greater numbers, both spiritually and economically.

V. THE RELATIONSHIP OF CHURCH AND STATE:

The Church today is compelled to define its relationship toward the State chiefly because of the widespread tendency of the modern state to control the totality of human life in all its individual and social aspects, and to attribute absolute value to the state itself, demanding unconstitutional loyalty, even from the church. The tendency is becoming increasingly noticeable in the remaining democratic nations. In our own country it finds expression in teachers' oaths, compulsory flag salutes, denial of the right of conscience to applicants for citizenship who refuse to declare a willingness to bear arms, the ridiculing of those who for religious reasons take a pacifist position in regard to war, the use of police power to illegally suppress minority groups, and in the increasing militarization of our educational system.

Chief Justice Hughes, in summing up the minority opinion in the famous MacIntosh case said: "In the forum of conscience, duty to a moral power higher than the state has always been maintained. One cannot speak of religious liberty without assuming the existence of a belief in supreme allegiance to the will of God". The four justices who sustained that opinion were in the minority. A similar decision today would doubtless be still more unpopular.

Fundamental causes of the success of the totalitarian states lie: first, in the hunger of underfed and underprivileged populations; and second, in the denial of fundamental justice to people of all races and equality of economic opportunity, not only for individuals but between peoples. These deny the persistent and divinely implanted conviction of the worthfulness of persons, a conviction deep and forceful in the souls of men of all races.

The Church must recognize its own responsibilities for the evils of today in having failed too often to express its faith in terms of social relations and with the spirit of self-sacrificing love. The Church must be reconsecrated to the task of creating a spirit which will enable the State to fulfill its God-given task of maintaining justice and ministering to the welfare of the people.

The Church is the trustee of God's redeeming gospel, and its concern is to witness to men the realities and eternal truths which outlast change, because they are founded on the eternal will of God.

The concern of the State is to provide men with justice, order and security in a world of change. According to the Oxford Conference of last summer: "The primary duty of the Church to the State is to be the church, namely, to witness for God, to preach His word, to confess the faith before men, to teach both young and old to observe the divine commandments, and to serve the nation and the state by proclaiming the will of God as the supreme standard to which all human will must be subject and all human conduct must conform."

From this responsibility certain duties follow for the churches and their members:

(a) Praying for the state, its people and its government.

(b) Loyalty and obedience to the state, disobedience becoming a duty only if obedience would be clearly contrary to the commandments of God.

(c) Cooperation with the state in promoting the welfare of its citizens and in lending moral support when it upholds the standards of justice as set forth in the Word of God.

(d) Criticism of the state when it departs from these standards.

(e) Holding before men in all their legislation and administration those principles which make for the upholding of the dignity of man who is made in the image of God.

(f) Permeating the public life with the spirit of Christ and training up men and women who as Christians can contribute to this end.

The Church must also promote the trust that the State is not itself the ultimate political unit, but a member of a family of nations with international relations and duties.

The Church to fulfill its function must be free to the fullest extent—free to determine its faith and creed, worship, educational program, government, training of ministers, missionary activity, cooperation with other churches, ownership of property and collection of funds.

The Oxford Conference stated that the present task of the Church is as follows:

(1) To summon their members to repentance for sins and to consecration to the purpose of God.

(2) To create cooperative agencies to do the tasks common to all.

(3) To cooperate with the state in constructive tasks.

(4) To guard for all churches the opportunities of worship, witness, service and education.

(5) To secure just treatment for all who are victims of cruelty and oppression.

(6) To renounce all forms of persecution, whether by Christians against other Christians, or by Christians against adherents of other religions.

Above all, the Christian must remember he is a follower of One who did not discredit the importance of government, nor refuse to pay taxes or to obey legal authority in all ordinary circumstances; and yet he obeyed God's will as the supreme will, even though it meant a cross set up by the state.

VI. WORLD PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

With war and preparation for war increasing around the world, every Christian is called upon to rethink his attitude toward modern war. Many are confused and feel that just once more we must follow Mars before we can follow Christ. However, in the words of the Oxford Conference: "We need not despair: The world belongs to God; to believe in His power and love is not to escape from reality but to stand upon the rock of the only certainty that is offered to man."

What is war and what is the Christian attitude toward it? The World Peace Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church declared in May, 1934: "We believe that war is sin because it involves: (a) the slaughter of human beings; (b) violation of personality; (c) lying propaganda; (d) deliberate breeding of the spirit of hate; (e) vast destruction of property; (f) it puts in place of moral law the doctrine of military necessity; (g) it distorts the religion of Jesus into the religion of a war god."

We live in a world which is becoming increasingly interdependent. Modern civilization requires products from the ends of the earth. World trade ties the nations into an economic unit. The means of communication such as radio, newspapers and the motion picture build a growing world consciousness. God through modern science is laying the foundation for a world fellowship of all races and nations. What God is drawing together, let not man put asunder.

The new facts of today must contend with old ideas of national honor, national sovereignty and national rights. Pride of race and nation, blindness to our faults as a nation, complacency and group selfishness prevent us from taking the national and international actions which lead to peace.

Our Christian message to a world at war begins with the word "repent"! "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." We say to a world which trusts in force and violence: "Get a new mind." It is possible to have peace, plenty and security if we will follow the will of God as revealed in Christ. God is working for peace. "He breaketh the bow and cutteth the spear asunder." When we cease to build our national defense upon fear and mistrust of others and work for peace through justice, we shall have the joy that comes to those who follow Christ.

The rising tide of war tempts even the elect to abandon the way of the cross for the ways of the world. With civil war, invasion, strife and violence upon every hand we are told that Christians must rely upon threats, guns, battleships and bombs to preserve the eternal values upon which an enduring civilization can be built. But the methods used determine the ends we seek. The glorious goal of world peace is destroyed by war. To fight the devil with fire only increases the blaze, for fire is his native element. Evil can only be overcome with good.

Christians who turn from war to the ways of peace will not find a prepared road. The road to war is wide and well paved but leads to destruction. The road to peace must be built over shifting sands of self interest, through jungles of ignorance, inertia and prejudice, and at times must tunnel through mountains of opposition. Pioneer spirits are needed who will help build this new highway for our God.

In suggesting specific action for individuals, churches, and the Conference as a whole, we recognize that sincere and devout Christians may differ concerning attitudes and concrete methods. When these differences arise let us meet again at the feet of Him in whom all things cohere. Thus from the light of His life we can again approach the definite task with more probability of unanimous action.

Suggested Action For Individuals:

(1) Peace action begins with each one of us. Search your heart and remove all traces of ill will, prejudice or hatred toward Negroes, Jews, Japanese, Catholics, pacifists, millionaires, labor leaders, and communists.

(2) Seek harmony in all your relationships, such as those of home, the office, the store, the shop, the school, the church, etc.

(3) Think, study and pray until you arrive at a personal decision concerning war. Would you fight anywhere at the command of the government? Would you fight only in a defensive war upon the soil of this continent? Do you renounce all war, defensive or offensive, international or civil?

(4) Share your peace convictions with others.

(5) Make your will known in Washington.

(6) Continue to seek out and do what you can to remove the underlying causes of war, such as economic exploitation, racial injustice and discrimination against minority groups.

(7) Do not discriminate against the native born Japanese in our midst.

(8) Give to war relief in Spain and China.

Suggested Actions For Churches:

The Oxford Conference challenged the Church to be the Church. We are to remember that here is "a society with a unity so deep as to be indestructible by earthly divisions of race, nation, or class.

The Conference also pointed out that "Wars, the occasion of war, and all situations which conceal the fact of conflict under the guise of outward peace, are marks of a world to which the Church is charged to proclaim the Gospel of redemption. War involves compulsory enmity, diabolical outrage against human personality, and a wanton distortion of the truth. War is a particular demonstration of the power of sin in this world, and a defiance of the righteousness of God as revealed in Jesus Christ and Him crucified. No justification of war must be allowed to conceal or minimize this fact."

(1) The Church should help its members discover God's will concerning war, and then should honor their conscientious decisions, whether they are led to participate in, or to abstain from war, and maintain both alike in the fellowship of the body of Christ. (Suggested by the Oxford Conference.)

(2) The Church should remind its members that the principle of the unconditional supremacy of the State or nation, advanced either in peace or war, is incompatible with the Church's faith in Jesus Christ as its only Lord, and is therefore unacceptable as the final word of judgment or action. (Suggested by the Oxford Conference.)

(3) The Church during a time of war, as well as in time of peace, should pray not only for the nation in which God has placed it, but also for the enemies of that nation.

(4) The local church can use several methods of education in the problems of war and peace. Sermons, dramas, study groups, and distribution of literature are a few of the ways by which the members can be enlightened to the new demands upon the Gospel of Christ.

(5) Make use of special days such as Memorial Sunday, Armistice Sunday, and the Christmas season to direct the thinking of the entire Church toward the ways of peace.

(6) After careful preparation, conduct a congregation-wide peace plebiscite to discover attitudes on war and peace.

(7) Lead in community efforts to relieve the suffering of war.

(8) Support the missionary work of our churches with new vigor.

Conference Action:

(1) We should renounce all special privilege and extra-territorial rights in China and petition our government to that effect.

(2) We suggest as one step in putting our relations with Japan upon a basis of fair dealing that the Oriental exclusion act be repealed and Japanese and Chinese be admitted to our country upon a quota basis.

(3) We urge that our government continue to cooperate with other governments in all efforts for progressive and universal reduction of armaments.

(4) We support our nation's membership in the International Labor organization and urge continued and increasing cooperation of our government with the League of Nations and its various departments.

(5) We call upon our members and churches to do all in their power to combat anti-Semitism.

(6) We urge the President to cooperate with other governments in calling a World Economic Conference to deal with the pressures which drive nations into war.

(7) We urge the elimination of compulsory military training from tax-supported schools and colleges. We are opposed to any military training in High Schools.

(8) We suggest that a memorial be prepared to be sent to the General Conference which would authorize the Conference Board of Stewards to provide monthly allowances from the pension funds of our Church to the families of ministers of our Conference who may be imprisoned for opposition to war.

(9) Followers of the Prince of Peace share with others the indignation and horror aroused by the capture of Ethiopia, the invasion of China and assistance rendered the rebels in Spain. These illustrations of the ruthlessness of modern war challenge us to do nothing, or to respond with force, but to do everything in our power to remove the causes of war.

(10) We urge the passage of laws which, in the event of war, declared or undeclared, would make it illegal to assist either belligerent to carry on the war by loans of money or sale of war-making materials such as gasoline, oil, scrap iron, or munitions of war.

(11) We recommend heartily the work of the Methodist Peace Commission under the leadership of Charles F. Boss and urge the co-operation with it of every minister and layman.

Conclusion:

Christians and Churches are here to proclaim the way of life to a dying world. We have no authority to change our message to conform to the will of man and the sins of nations. "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

COMMITTEE TO PROMOTE STUDY OF THE CHRISTIAN SOCIAL PROBLEM

Social Studies

We submit some of the comments by pastors who have made use of the "Social Studies" outlines: "best guides in these fields available"—"are using them in men's and women's groups and adult classes"—"using in mid-week and Sunday night meetings"—"fine for reference, resource, talks, sermons"—"the systematic array of material most helpful"—"concise, yet comprehensive"—"use in official board meetings"—"valuable for clear-cut way the problem fields are defined"—"plan to use in Brotherhood"—"like the non-professional atmosphere of outlines"—"fine for pioneering"—"for study groups on Wednesday evening"—"for setting up a P. T. A. program"—"good reference material, well balanced"—"help stimulate vital discussions"—"I use the material every possible chance"—"in young people's meetings"—"in Wesley Foundation meetings"—"germinal, thought-starting"—"week-day lecture series"—"in personal contacts and study"—"like the Christian-centered approach"—"gives wider perspective of problems"—"my people see these discussions are not peculiar to just their pastor"—"excellent bibliography, very stimulating"—"help plans for reading"—"stimulate search for truth"—"yes, emphatically, we shall use them, best opportunity in Church School classes"—"workable"—"reasonable, complete, clear, suggestive"—"adult forums."

The Committee was appointed by Bishop Baker on the initiation of the laymen in the 1936 session of the annual conference. An equal number of laymen and ministers form the committee and in the course of two years they have produced six outlines. World Peace and International Relations, Social Control of Public Morals, The Christian and the Economic Order, The Church and the State, The Church and Leisure, The Church and the Family. These outlines have been distributed to all the churches. An extra supply is kept at Methodist Headquarters for any needing additional copies—ten cents each, one dollar the dozen. There has been a considerable demand for the outlines from numerous parts of the country. The study on Peace and International Relations was published in its entirety in The Pastor's Journal. Steps have been taken for the publishing in pamphlet form of the entire series, if the Conference desires to give its consent. There remains one subject for which an outline has not yet been prepared, namely, "Inter-racial Relations."

The Outlines completed during the year are: The Church and State, The Church and Leisure and The Church and the Family. The problems of the relations between Church and State are particularly acute today. In some of the European countries church have been losing ground in their struggle against the dictatorial governments. This is a far cry from the dominant position of the Church during the Middle Ages and its subsequent advances in maintaining religious freedom. In order to properly evaluate the place of the Church in modern society it is necessary to consider its historical background as well as the present trends in Church-State relationships. The growing nationalism and the totalitarian states, the problems of civic government and of local community conditions, and the importance of religious education are challenging the churches today and require careful study.

The new leisure has far reaching significance. What factors have produced it and have conditioned its uses? Are people prepared for a "worthy use of leisure"? Are communities providing wholesome recreational and cultural activities? Have commercial concerns abused the opportunity provided by extensive free time? How has the new leisure affected the Church. These are some of the questions which the modern church must study if it is to meet the needs produced by the widespread extension of spare time.

The family is one of the most stable units of society, but the changing social order and the impact of the economic depression are profoundly affecting its life. Family disorganization and domestic discord, bad housing conditions, and the problems of child welfare are evidences that the modern home is passing through a crisis. The Church has emphasized the sacredness of marriage and the importance of the home, has tabooed divorce and the mistreatment of women and children, has ministered to the family in time of need, and has provided the background of religious ideals and moral conduct which are essential to Christian living. Is it able to assist the family in meeting the new needs?

The Church tomorrow must be intelligent and well informed concerning social conditions if it is to meet the challenge and responsibility thrust upon it by the changing social order. It is the hope of the Committee that the study guides will be widely used and will help both layman and ministers to a clearer understanding of the Christian way of life.

COMBINED REPORT CONFERENCE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE, WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION, CALIFORNIA ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

The leaders in the organized fight against the liquor traffic in California realizing that victory depends upon united action on the part of all interested organization and groups, called a state-wide meeting of representatives in San Francisco, September, 1937, to decide upon objectives for the 1938 election.

With Dr. Roy L. Smith as Chairman of the United Dry Forces, a careful study was made and three objectives agreed upon for the 1938 campaign.

First Objective

Protect our schools and children's playgrounds by a state-wide law prohibiting the selling, giving away or exposing of alcoholic beverages within two hundred yards of their exterior boundaries.

Our first consideration in the organized fight against the liquor traffic must be our children. Never in all of the black history of this nefarious traffic has it been such a menace to our boys and girls.

"Within The Shadow of Our Schools"

Nothing has ever stirred the Christian people of California more than a moving picture photographed by Cedric P. Robb, of Pasadena, showing actual liquor conditions around our schools.

"Believe It Or Not"

The picture shows an actual scene of children eating their luncheon at a bar, less than half a block from their school, over which beer was being served and consumed. Another scene of a five year old kindergarten child going into a liquor store to get soda pop from a cooler containing beer cans and beer bottles and drinking it in the liquor store. Another scene showing great liquor billboards occupying half a block directly across the street from a school with such appeals as "KEEP FIT—DRINK ALE" and "A LIFT WITHOUT A LET DOWN" on the very edge of the school grounds.

There is no better place to start in our campaign to drive liquor back than the school. The liquor traffic knows that its next crop of drinkers must come from the boys and girls in our schools, and our greatest obligation is to give them every protection possible.

This school measure has already been endorsed by the State Parent Teachers' Association, the Federation of Women's Clubs, Los Angeles District, and many other groups and organizations, practically assuring us of a victory if this measure qualifies for the November ballot with 186,378 signatures.

Victory Needed

Every representative at the State Meeting of the United Dry Forces agreed that a victory this year is needed to encourage the Christian forces and dissipate the spirit of defeatism which gripped so many of our people following repeal, and the powerful governmental backing of the liquor interests.

Second Objective

The second objective decided upon was the cleaning up of the streets and highways for our boys and girls, by prohibiting the liquor billboards and signs and the great window displays. Fathers and mothers can protect their children in the home from liquor's appeal by refusing to subscribe to newspapers and magazines carrying these ads or by deleting such ads before they reach the hands of the children, but the parents are absolutely helpless to protect their children from the great billboards and show-window displays.

The liquor traffic has gone so far in its advertising campaign that even hundreds of drinking people are becoming disgusted and many organizations outside of the church are condemning it in resolutions. The International Kiwanis Club recently registered a protest against it, and also a Post of the American Legion.

What a Victory!

What a victory it would be if, after the votes are counted in November, the liquor interests would have to pull down their great billboard advertisements and remove the beautiful liquor displays from thousands of show-windows which now line our streets.

Third Objective

Our third objective providing for inebriate institutions is primarily to protect our children from drunken degenerates, by confining them for care and treatment the same as the insane are now confined. No one can read the tragic story of little Jennie Moreno, of Downey, who was attacked and brutally killed by a drunken inebriate and her broken and mutilated body thrown into the weeds, without being convinced that the drunkard is more of a menace than the average insane person, and should be confined in an institution, cared for and treated and kept confined until the head of the institution declares him to be no longer a menace to our children and those who travel the streets and highways.

Shame on California

The State is receiving millions in revenue from the liquor business but has no institutions in which to confine the drunkards it produces. The least the State should do, as long as it participates in such a foul and bloody business, is to provide institutions in which to confine the drunkards and thus protect innocent people, and especially our children.

These institutions must be provided and the expenses for them should be charged against the liquor revenue instead of revenue raised by taxes on the homes of the people.

This third objective is to be obtained by an Initiative Measure providing that five per cent of the Alcoholic Beverage Excise Taxes be deposited in a fund for use by the State Department of Institutions for care and treatment of inebriates and to compensate counties or cities for their care and treatment. Also, that fifteen per cent of the excise taxes in 1939 and 1940 be used for construction of inebriate institutions. Five per cent of the excise taxes will amount to approximately one half million dollars per year, and fifteen per cent of such taxes for 1939 and 1940 will amount to approximately two and one-half million dollars with which to construct state inebriate institutions.

This measure would also establish the policy that the liquor traffic should be made to pay the bill for the damage it causes—a policy, which in the end, may crush it to death with its own burden.

The United Dry Forces requested the California Anti-Saloon League to assume the financial responsibility of the campaign for these three measures, and if the League is carry this additional burden it must have the cooperation of the churches in a special church service at which these three measures are discussed by the pastor, and a loose offering taken to help in the expenses of this campaign.

Fifty-one thousand petitions have been printed and are being circulated throughout the State for the 186,378 signatures necessary to qualify these measures for the November ballot. We must have the help of every church in the work of securing these signatures. Additional petitions may be secured at the office of the Campaign Manager, 517 American Bank Building, Los Angeles.

The church has no greater enemy today than the liquor traffic, and the only way with which it can be dealt successfully is through UNITED ACTION.

We as a United Conference instruct our representatives on the Anti Saloon League of California to do their utmost to make possible that, at the state election of 1940 there shall be put on the ballot either a local option amendment, or a prohibition amendment, or both.

The temperance organizations are united back of these objectives and with the enthusiastic support of the churches, we will win.

MRS. EVA C. WHEELER,
President Southern California W. C. T. U.
REV. E. DOW HOFFMAN,
Conference Board of Temperance.
GEORGE YOUNG HAMMOND,
Superintendent California Anti-Saloon League.

FEDERATION OF METHODIST AGENCIES

One of the outstanding events of the year was the reception to Bishop and Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam and Bishop and Mrs. James Chamberlin Baker, held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Pasadena on January 3rd, 1938. This event brought together a great host of Methodist people from all over the Southland, and was a moment of very high enthusiasm and inspiration. There is a certain value in such gatherings which is hard to estimate, but is none the less real. The Federation is serving a very high purpose in thus gathering the Methodist hosts once a year for such a meeting, if it did nothing more.

Another meeting which gives promise of real worth and value is one in which the Board members of all of the agencies will be invited to meet for the annual meeting, together with a dinner, followed by a round table discussion of the duties, responsibilities and functions of the Boards and Board members.

The Federation has been requested by the Conference World Service Commission to edit a Master Calendar for the coming Conference year. It is expected that this Calendar will be prepared and ready for distribution soon after the adjournment of this session of the Annual Conference.

One of the original functions of the Federation of Methodist Agencies was to act as a medium of correlation and coordination whenever such need arises. Some important studies have already been made in various fields and others are projected for the future. One such study is that concerning the relationship between the Conference Missionary Society and the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society, as well as other City Missionary Societies within the Conference.

LEONARD OECHSLI, President.

ALL NATIONS FOUNDATION

The All Nations Boy's Club received special contributions totaling $1,100, making possible complete renovation of the building after eleven years of service to over 2100 individual boys. The Boys' Club Executive Council is in the field for an endowment of $100,000 to make possible additional services to youth.

The All Nations Clinic served 100 new applicants each week in addition to 150 who were under regular treatment, the total services for the year amounting to 48,348. Forty per cent of those were served free of charge; 17% paid 10c a treatment; and 15% paid 25c a visit. Four hospital beds per day served 197 individuals without cost to them. This included 150 major operations. All these services were made possible by 11,000 hours of volunteer service on the part of the doctors and dentists of your community.

The All Nations Community House, which serves tiny tots in the kindergarten (150 of them this year) and 250 girls, has been the scene of many interesting events, among them being a doll fair, "Christmas Around the World", directed by the Junior League of Los Angeles, the May spring festival, and will conclude its special events with a dinner to the graduates at the end of the school year.

Hollenbeck Social Center made possible 90,000 services to 375 youths through such interest groups as choral, nature study, and kodak groups, etc. In addition it has become the headquarters for the Mexican Athletic Association, which includes eight organizations.

Sunset Community Center, occupying the old Epworth Church property and operated jointly by the Los Angeles Kiwanis Club, Friday Morning Club, All Nations Foundation, and W. P. A., is open to any youth of that community. There were 458 members on May 1, 1938. One of the most fascinating community projects housed at Sunset is the Coordinating Council Toy Loan Library, which provides toy loans as the public library lends books. Dolls which girls keep in "good condition" may be "officially adopted by the new mother".

All Nations Camp will provide ten-day vacation periods for 250 youths and many one- and two-day periods in its year around operation.

All Nations Chapel: The Church of All Nations, which is responsible for the activities of the All Nations Chapel, has been increasingly effective in its service to the youth and adults of the community, under the leadership of the pastor in charge, Rev. Louis M. Fiske. Throughout the year there has been a consistent increase in membership and attendance, and in addition, a growing consciousness of being a part of a larger kingdom building enterprise. Although the conference apportionments and World Service goals are not large, the church membership takes particular pride in paying them in full each year. The youth groups of the Church of all Nations, through the district and conference Epworth League organizations, have aided greatly in making the youth of our conference internationally minded.

Budget: A budget for the work of All Nations Foundation, totaling $61,796.94, was made possible by the Board of Home Missions, Woman's Home Missionary Society, Los Angeles Community Chest, California Community Foundation, Los Angeles Kiwanis, Los Angeles Lions, Los Angeles Rotary, Friday Morning Club, and many other individual organizations, churches, and persons.

The Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society, which owns and governs All Nations Foundation, wishes to express to members of the Southern California Conference its appreciation for the splendid support of the past year, making possible the successful operation of this Christian service station in a needy area.

ROBERT A. McKIBBEN, Superintendent.

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

The Spanish American Institute completed this year twenty-five years of service in the Southern California Conference. While the work done has been within the confines of this conference, the influence has gone out to many parts of the world, especially to Mexico. One of the founders and the man who has been the guiding spirit, Mr. Frank S. Wallace, has gone from us, but his lively spirit lingers on Wallacetown campus; and the spirit of the Christ that he loved and served has found root in many lives and is bearing fruit. This cannot be lost and will continue through time and eternity. The many hundreds who have been on the campus across this quarter of a century rise up to call his memory blessed.

This has been a year when we have attempted to find our way about and to make plans to carry forward the work. Seventy-five boys have been in attendance. Work along the regular lines with special emphasis on some of the vocational subjects, as well as arts and crafts, has been conducted. We have found a group of eager boys, anxious to know something of the way of life and ready to respond to the challenge of the highest and best. I am sure few men of the Conference realize what a great training school this is for the worth-while leadership, especially in a field where such leadership will count in the progress of Christianity.

We are deeply grateful for the loyal support given to the school this year. Many, many churches have been opened to us. The Federated Ladies Aid has adopted the school as one of its projects, and the support given has been invaluable. To all the many friends of the school we promise our allegiance to the great purpose which prompted the founders, regardless of what may be the course pursued in the future.

R. H. SILVERTHORN, President.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF ELEVEN ON THE PROPOSED UNITING OF THE ALL NATIONS FOUNDATION, SPANISH AMERICAN INSTI- TUTE, AND THE VOORHIS SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

A

Early in the year 1937 through a series of conversations between Mr. Charles Brown Voorhis and Dr. Reese Bowman Kester it developed that it might be possible for the Methodist Episcopal Church through the All Nations Foundation to acquire as a gift the property of the Voorhis

School for Boys. The property consists of a rectangular tract containing 150 acres of land traversed from East to West by Puddingstone Canyon. It lies almost due East of Covina and about midway between that city and San Dimas. On a mesa, containing approximately 60 acres, lie scattered in artistic landscape setting the fifteen major buildings housing the Voorhis School for Boys. The entire plant, with its landscaping, orchards, irrigating plant, equipment of farm and shops, furniture, water rights etc., represents roughly a value of One Million Dollars.

Contacts between Mr. Voorhis and the Methodist group continued throughout the summer until, on September 13th, it was felt that there was a consensus of opinion among those who had been in the preliminary conferences to warrant a confidential official approach to Church authorities. The result of that approach was a very definite agreement that the enterprise could not be considered by Southern California Methodism unless in some way the growing needs of the Spanish American Institute could be satisfied and its work promoted. After still further conferences a joint meeting of the Boards of Trustees of the L. A. City Missionary and Church Extension Society and the Spanish American Institute authorized the appointment of a committee by Bishop James C. Baker. To this committee was entrusted the task of surveying the Voorhis property, reporting upon its usability from the Church standpoint, and making careful report upon probable costs of operation should the property be received and the work of the Spanish American Institute merged with that of the Voorhis School. The committee was composed of the following: Leonard Oechsli, chairman, Walter C. Buckner, Reese Bowman Kester, Henri A. Lindsey, Robert A. McKibben, R. H. Silverthorn, Mrs. Charles F. Van de Water, George A. Warmer, Vernon M. McCombs, E. D. Goodell, and Oren B. Waite. At its second meeting, the Committee of Eleven constituted three sub-committees to study different phases of the problems involved in the proposed merger, which was to include All Nations Foundation, Spanish American Institute, and the Voorhis School for Boys. The first sub-committee was a Committee on Survey and Appraisal, consisting of Oren B. Waite as chairman, E. D. Goodell, Peter Robinson, and F. S. Wallace. The second was a Committee on Policy and Program, consisting of Walter C. Buckner as Chairman, R. H. Silverthorn, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water, Henri A. Lindsey, and Robert A. McKibben. To these were added later Mrs. C. P. Colegrove, Benito Garcia, and Oren B. Waite as advisory members. The third sub-committee was a Committee on Finance, consisting of George A. Warmer as Chairman, Dr. R. B. Kester, Robert A. McKibben, Vernon W. McCombs and J. Wesley Hole. These sub-committees met separately for the study and discussion of the problems assigned to them, and the summary of their findings is herein presented, which summary also contains their final recommendations. As an indication of the care with which the work was done, it may be stated that the combined reports prepared and presented during the investigations to this date make over one hundred pages of manuscript.

A few preliminary statements should be made before presenting the summary of findings and recommendations. Tribute should be paid to the interest of Mr. F. S. Wallace, who was never able to meet with the Sub-Committee No. 1 on account of illness, but who was consulted by some or all of the other members of that sub-committee on several occasions. He was thus informed as to the progress and made helpful suggestions up to the time of his decease. While not able to participate actively in the preparation of the report and therefore not attaching his name thereto, he gave repeated assurance that he wanted the best thing done and would approve of any plan which safeguarded the educational interests of Methodism, particularly those represented by the Spanish American Institute, a project dear to his heart and one to which he had given loyal service during the many years of his life.

It should also be said that during its investigations the committee has been impressed, not only with the dignity, beauty and intrinsic value of the Voorhis property and its adaptability to the uses contemplated under the merger, but it has been more impressed with the fine spirit, the frankness, the idealism and the generosity of Mr. C. B. Voorhis, the founder, with whom its negotiations were carried on.

After careful study of the physical properties involved, and thorough analysis of actual and estimated operating expenses of the Voorhis properties, should they be acquired, the Committee of Eleven submits the following as a summary of its findings and recommendations:

(1) Maximum capacity of the present plant is one hundred (100) pupils.

(2) The expense of maintenance and operation of the physical properties, apart from educational activities and student body sustenance, cannot be placed wisely at less than $17,000.00 per year.

(3) This annual cost seems to your committee too large to justify the operation of the plant by the Church as only a home for boys whose scholastic training is to be given by the public schools, though it should probably be so operated for the first year if the merger is consummated.

(4) The plant, with comparatively small modifications, is adapted to, and much of its equipment presupposes, the operation of a school of secondary grade, perhaps admitting some special pupils as early as the Seventh Grade.

(5) If the enterprise can be properly financed, and if careful selection is maintained in the admission of students, there is a field for such an institution, having in view particularly the training of leaders among Pan-American groups.

(6) Adequate support to give security to a program of this kind in the plant of the present Voorhis School would require a bona fide Sustentation or Endowment Fund of not less than $400,000.00.

(7) A combined Gymnasium and Assembly Hall with stage, and certain additional laboratory facilities, would be needed to give highest efficiency to an institution of this type.

(8) To justify the Church in financing such a secondary school enterprise, your committee believes the institution should have sufficiently high scholastic standards and sufficiently good equipment to secure for it accredited standing with the universities.

(9) It is recommended that the student personnel of the School be limited to seventy (70) youth for the first year; these to be selected by Mr. Silverthorn and Mr. C. B. Voorhis, subject to the approval of and Admissions Committee to be named by the trustees. The students shall be chosen so far as possible from the present student body of the Spanish American Institute and the Voorhis School for Boys.

(10) It is proposed that not later than the third year the student body should be increased to one hundred (100) and a full educational program be undertaken.

(11) It is estimated that the total prospective budget for plant maintenance and the full educational program will run $52,630.00 per year for maximum capacity.

(12) After careful study it is the opinion of the Committee that with little extra cost the property will lend itself to an additional community program, such as a retreat for various Epworth League groups, Women's Societies, Student and Ministerial groups of all races, and many other similar study and conference groups.

(13) The merger, if consummated, requires the creation of a new non-profit corporation for religious, educational and social welfare purposes, to which the properties of the present All Nations Foundation, the Spanish American Institute, and the Voorhis School for Boys will be deeded. This new corporation will hold all these properties under deeds which will make The Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church the reversionary owner.

(14) This corporation will consist of a Board of Trustees, twenty-one in number, all (except those composing the first Board, which will hold office for one year) to be selected from nominees from The Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, two-thirds of whom shall be members of said Church. These trustees will be divided into three classes so that one-third of the members will retire each year unless re-elected. This Board will have ultimate control over all units operating under the corporation, though each separate unit will be directed by a Board of Managers of not less than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15), which also will be divided into three classes with one-third retiring each year unless re-elected. For further details concerning the organization, reference is made to the proposed Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, which are today offered for your consideration.

These proposed Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws were submitted to the Trustees of the L. A. City Missionary and Church Extension Society, the Trustees of the Spanish American Institute, and Mr. C. B. Voorhis of the Voorhis School for Boys, and have the unanimous approval of all three, with the understanding that if any changes of detail should be legally necessary, such changes might be incorporated.

Final approval in all cases was made contingent upon the raising of the Endowment and Sustentation Fund of at least $400,000.00, it being understood that no property shall be conveyed nor any merger agreement become binding unless and until this financial condition is fully met. It is also definitely understood by all parties that negotiations to this point are purely tentative and subject to the approval of The Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Should the proposed merger meet the approval of the Conference, it is proposed that the campaign for gifts shall be in the form of a quiet search for large gifts and shall not involve public appeals through the churches.

The proposed Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws are submitted to you herewith for your consideration.

The Committee, therefore, comes to you today to ask that you take the following actions:

(a) Approve the general plan of the merger of the All Nations Foundation and the Spanish American Institute with the Voorhis School for Boys upon the absolute condition that a bona fide Endowment and Sustentation Fund in the minimum of $400,000.00 be secured before the merger is consummated.

(b) To approve and authorize the solicitation of gifts to such a fund by approaches to individuals, the churches as such not to be asked for the presentation of this cause in public appeals.

(c) To authorize the existing Committee of Eleven by and with the consent of the Bishop and Cabinet of the Southern California Annual Conference and the affirmative action of the Boards of Trustees of the L. A. City Missionary and Church Extension Society, and the Spanish American Institute, to determine the adequacy of the resources pledged to such Endowment and Sustentation Fund to meet the financial conditions above set forth.

(d) Further, to authorize and instruct the above named under (c), when satisfied that the financial condition has been met, to proceed with all necessary actions to complete the merger, substantially on the basis of the recommendations contained in this report and the proposed Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws intended to create the new corporation.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

In Southern California the Goodwill Industries is the one agency of the church for the relief of distress and unemployment in Christ's name and is entitled to the wholehearted support of every member of our church. During the past year with economic conditions becoming worse rather than better there has been an increasing flow of worthy men and women seeking our help. At the Los Angeles Goodwill Industries alone these number about 3000 every month. It is a tragedy that in the face of such conditions the various Goodwill Industries throughout the territory have had to curtail their activities somewhat, due to the situation in the orient and its disastrous effect on salvage prices. These conditions developed late in 1937, however, and did not prevent that year from being the best year in our history.

In Los Angeles the Goodwill Industries will soon be forced out of its building at 342 North Main Street. The first unit of a new plant (with about one-third of the floor space ultimately needed) is under construction in the 300 block on San Fernando Road. It is a three-story and basement reinforced concrete building, 120 feet deep with 160 feet frontage costing about $175,000. Funds for buildings and land do not come out of earnings which go to the workers as wages. Cash gifts from friends finance the building program. About $65,000 of this is yet to be raised. Occupancy is expected in August.

The gift of a Hammond electric organ has been the source of much inspiration in our main chapel services this past year. Four chapel services held every working day had an aggregate attendance for the year of over 85,000. This includes a chapel service for our Spanish speaking group with a daily attendance of about 75. Bible classes for men's and women's groups are held weekly. Three lip reading classes for the hard of hearing and deaf and a Choral Club with a membership of about 50 are making effective contribution toward the rehabilitation of our workers. The Fourth Annual Open House, held in April, brought over 4500 visitors to see just what Goodwill Industries is doing.

The Harbor District Goodwill Industries, under the supervision of Wray Andrew, has purchased two lots adjoining their plant in Long Beach. These will provide for future expansion to care for the work. During the year a new store has been opened in Bellflower. The Orange County branch, supervised by George Angne, and the San Bernardino-Riverside Counties branch, supervised by Richard Wyant, suffered from the flood but rendered valuable service during the emergency. The Orange County branch has opened a new store in Placentia and the Riverside store has been enlarged.

The Goodwill Industries of San Diego, with Myron Insko as superintendent, has completed its best year, with a daily average of 61 persons employed. Total receipts for the year were $58,929.20. A new store was opened at Ramona. The aggregate attendance at chapel services was over 15,000.

The following report for 1937 is of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California with headquarters in Los Angeles and branches in Long Beach, San Bernardino and Santa Ana, and the Goodwill Industries of San Diego County.

Church:

Our church thermometer shows a growth in all departments. Several times the main part of our sanctuary has been filled, and we look forward to seeing the balcony filled, also. 29 new members have been added to the church, with an expectation of about 12 more before Conference. Our desire is to have the "heart-warming" experience of the founder of Methodism. We preach Christ as personal Redeemer and Friend. One man, not a member of our church, gave this testimony. "When I come here, I always receive a great spiritual blessing. We all need more of the Bread of Life".

Attendance for the past eleven months: Church services, 9968; Sunday School, 7,766; prayer meetings, 1099; Epworth League, 2517; Junior Church, 1365; Ladies Aid, 530. Pastoral calls, 989; Gospels and literature distributed, 3250; church paper (Nueva Senda) 45; Upper Rooms in Spanish, 115. Our aim is, an Upper Room in every home.

Youth:

While the attendance at our Clubs has increased this year, our aim is to strengthen our groups, placing particular emphasis on the constant contacting of the individuals, thereby affecting a direct influence on their lives. We have classes in home-making, music and handcraft. Some of our handcraft has been on exhibition here, in San Francisco and Utah. Our boys and girls enjoy hikes, picnics, ball games and other outdoor activities afforded them. N.Y.A. workers assist in our Club work.

General Welfare:

From far and near, people come with their many "problems", but to us every problem is an opportunity and not just "another case". This department had over 2500 office interviews, made 500 calls, and gave emergency relief to 165 families and individuals, also distributed 1,300 Bibles and other literature.

Employment was found for 825 women and girls. We do more than merely place them. They are taught English, and they know we are their friends and interested in their welfare. Every effort is being made to help them to be independent.

Our legal-counselling department, together with several attorneys in the city, and in cooperation with the U.S.C. Legal Clinic, and courts, fills a great need.

Clinic:

Well bodies and minds are necessary in this world of competition, and our clinic is endeavoring to bring health and happiness to those who cannot afford a private physician. The medicinal service rendered to 4444 men, women and children during the year, helped them to help themselves. While the patients made a brave effort to pay the small fee, we gave free care to 687. The prayer service, music, flowers and literature are appreciated by the patients. 220 calls were made in homes.

While the tragedy of war in the home land is creating enmity between nations, two fine Chinese doctors, added to our staff, demonstrate their good-will toward their Mexican neighbors, by ministering in our clinic, one of whom is in charge of purchasing medical supplies for Chinese refugees in China.

Women's Club:

Working together for ten years has enhanced the interest of the Women's Club. This group is to the Center what the Womans Aids are to the churches. Women from about 35 Methodist Churches attend the meetings. When we try to vary our programs by the introduction of outside speakers, there is protest from those who are anxious to know more about the work and accomplishments at the Center.

Children's Home:

We are rejoicing that our Home is out of debt and some of the much needed repairs to the main building have been made. A friend, whom the children call "Auntie Lou", decided that she would like the children to enjoy some of her money while she lived, so she has taken us out of her will, and remodeled the Boys' Dormitory, dedicated May 25th. This enables us to take more little laddies. Are the boys proud of their dormitory! The children who have gone out from the Home, consider it a great treat to come back to visit, and always go away reluctantly.

Financial:

We are happy to announce that the indebtedness on the Plaza Community Center building has been reduced from $53,400 to $29,100, $18,200 to the Bank and $10,900 to the Board of Home Missions. This was partially made possible by the sale of property (an annuity), and bonds given us some years ago. This, of course, means a saving of interest, and inspires us to continue in prayer and to look forward to the time when this property will be completely free of debt, and the money now paying interest used for the furtherance of His work.

For all that has been accomplished we give thanks to our Great Leader, and to the friends He has given us.

KATHERINE B. HIGGINS, Executive Secretary.

PACIFIC HOME

As Superintendent of the Pacific Home, I take pleasure in bringing to you for your consideration my fifth annual report.

One year ago we had just completed our large new Dining Hall and Housing Unit which building was dedicated May 16, and on that date we broke ground for the new Administration Building which was to be a four story Class A building, 203 feet long. In erecting this building it was necessary to move four other buildings. A large lot, 83x180 was purchased at the corner of Harvard and Romaine on which lot these buildings are now located. Those buildings now provide twenty-five rooms and are a real asset to the Home. The actual cost involved does not exceed $8500. The Administrative Building was dedicated February 11 by Bishop Baker, assisted by members of the Cabinet. Most of the rooms had been sold before dedication and within six weeks after dedication there were not more than a half dozen rooms left. The day the Administration Building was dedicated, the corner stone was laid for our fourth new building which is a building forty-four feet wide, one hundred feet long, and four stories high. This building stands at the north end of the Administration Building and is really joined to that building. The first two floors provide a beautiful modern auditorium with pipe organ, indirect lighting, excellent pews with pew backs and individual cloth upholstered seats. The third and fourth floors over the Chapel provide fourteen additional rooms for living quarters. Practically all of these rooms were sold before the building was completed. The demand for rooms is more than we are able to meet.

I realize that many may be fearful lest in this extensive building program, we incur obligations that might prove embarrassing in the future. I am happy to report that we will not owe a dollar on any of the four new buildings that have been constructed in the last two and one-half years.

Five years ago the amount set up for reserve for life memberships was $65,000. The reserve set up by Ernst & Ernst this year is, as you will see by their report, $533,049.37. Of course, our operating expenses will be very greatly increased. Without doubt, they will exceed a hundred thousand dollars a year. Because of that fact, the Board has been very careful in all their planning to make sure that we would be able to meet these heavy operating costs. For further information about finance, I am referring you to the balance sheet taken from Ernst & Ernst annual audit just submitted for the fiscal year closing April 30.

In many ways this has been the most strenuous year of my life, but I have never been more conscious of the leadership and blessing of my Heavenly Father, nor has any man ever had finer cooperation from his Board than the Directors of the Pacific Home have given to the Superintendent this year. For all of these blessings and privileges, I acknowledge my gratitude to God and to those who have cooperated with us in this labor of love in serving those who have now come to the sunset years of life.

The Trustees whose terms expire in 1938 are J. Lewis Gillies, Fred Ritter, who succeeded George Shugers, and Leonard Oechsli. The Board voted to recommend the re-election of J. Lewis Gillies and Fred Ritter, and suggest that the new Superintendent of the Los Angeles District be elected to take the place of Leonard Oechsli.

The Board unanimously requests the reappointment of C. E. Leitzell, Superintendent.

At the same meeting of the Board on the the recommendation of the Superintendent a resolution was adopted pledging the Pacific Home to pay annually $3,540.00 to the Conference Claimants funds of this Conference for a period of five years beginning with 1938. This would make a grand total of $17,700.00 which together with previous payments made since the merger is the equivalent of $2,000 a year for the fifteen years following the merger.

C. E. LEITZELL, Superintendent.

CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD

Perhaps no more effective work is done in any Church, proportionate to the financial investment, than that done by and through the direction of the deaconesses serving in pastoral charges. With a spirit and devotion seldom approached and excelled by few, they continue their patient, tireless and efficient ministry. The Deaconesses whose membership is in the Southern California Conference compose a body of women whose spirit and training qualify them for service in any Church within the bounds of Methodism. Their service is one that has made glad many weary and discouraged hearts in almost every walk and condition of life. They have ministered to bodily and spiritual needs and revealed the loving and forgiving grace of a kindly Heavenly Father. A new phase of the work this year has been the placing of a deaconess in the General Hospital of Los Angeles County, to work especially among the Methodist patients of this institution. This service has been deeply appreciated and productive of much good. It is to be regretted that the Woman's Home Missionary Society found it necessary to close the Deaconess Home at 224 W. 21st Street in Los Angeles. This Home had been a Christian Center for forty-one years. Here many deaconesses found the atmosphere of home and happy fellowship, where physical, intellectual and spiritual strength could be renewed for continued and enlarging tasks.

Thoburn Terrace Inc. In the Home "Thoburn Terrace" there lives the only survivor of that group of men and their wives in which the men were the charter members of the Southern California Conference. She is Mrs. Mary F. Woodcock, who celebrated her 96th birthday June the first. The family of Thoburn Terrace numbers some twenty-four, consisting of deaconesses, missionaries and a retired minister and his wife. Miss Demis Smith for nearly thirty years, deaconess in the First Methodist Church of Los Angeles is a new and very welcome member of the family. Two members of the home came to their coronation during the year. They were Miss Mamie D. Cook, for many years a member of this Conference Deaconess Board, after forty years of devotion to the church and Miss Sarah E. Pike of New York City. May 14th witnessed a great gathering at the Home. The morning session was devoted to the work of the Thoburn Terrace Auxiliary which has made fine progress during the year, closing with a balance of $141.95 after having paid $500.00 into the maintenance of the Home. The afternoon session was sponsored by the Board of Managers of the Home. Dr. Albert Edward Day was the speaker of the afternoon, following which more than $2000.00 was raised to help in this fine Christian ministry for the coming year.

Robincroft Rest Home. Robincroft has just closed its fourteenth year of loving service, of caring for tired and retired deaconesses and missionaries. The permanent family numbers twenty-two. More than thirty active workers have been entertained for vacations and longer periods of rest during the year. The annual Bazaar is the event of the year. The proceeds this year were $335.00. These funds are always used for repairs and improvements not provided for in the annual budget. This year, a porch joining the dining room was inclosed in glass adding much needed space to the over-crowded dining room. Many times these workers in the sunset of life need hospitalization. Robincroft is now planning a new dormitory with a hospital unit. Some money is in hand for the purpose and is growing. It affords a splendid opportunity for memorial and love gifts. The home has four very desirable lots for sale adjoining the Robincroft property, proceeds from the sale of which can be placed in this fund. No better location can be found in Pasadena. Located on this high plat of ground, the view is always surpassingly beautiful. The San Gabriel Valley below presents a panorama of entrancing interest, while the majestic Sierra Madre mountains lying back recalls the exultant word of the Psalmist "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

HARDY A. INGHAM, President of the Board.

FRATERNAL AID SOCIETY

After a year's experience with the Fraternal Aid Plan on an assessment basis, your committee is convinced that our present plan is by far the most satisfactory yet tried. The great majority of comments heard this year have been in favor of the plan. A very few opinions have been voiced against the plan, but most of these have been based on the premise that insurance coverage can be purchased at a lower cost than can the Fraternal Aid benefits. To this statement we would answer that, strictly from a dollars and cents point of view, it is true; but we would also have you remember that there is no fraternal element to insurance coverage, and many of those who have and will receive benefits from our plan would not be able to buy insurance. None of the retired men could qualify for a Group Insurance plan.

During the year to date (May 20th) there have been twelve deaths which resulted in assessments. Two were retired members, four were effective members, four were wives of effective members, one was supernumerary, and one was a supply pastor. The average benefit to the widows will be about $360.00, and to the members whose wives have departed the benefit will average $180.00.

The committee recommends that the plan adopted last year be continued with one or two minor adjustments:

(1) The committee has given careful consideration to numerous suggestions that the assessments be increased to either $2.00 or $2.50, but is of the opinion that the rate should not be increased this year. We feel, however, that the Plan should pay just as much to a member upon the loss of a wife as is paid upon the loss of a husband. We therefore recommend that all assessments, whether upon the death of a member or his wife, be $1.00.

(2) We also recommend that in case a supply pastor or retired man, who was a member of the Conference at the date the Plan was initiated, decides to come into the Plan, he may do so at any time by paying the assessments in full that have been levied since July 1, 1937, the date of the adoption of the present Plan.

(3) We recommend that in the event an effective member of the Conference retires and chooses to drop his membership in the Fraternal Aid Plan, and later wishes to resume it, he may do so by paying in full the assessments which were levied during the time he dropped his membership.

(4) We also recommend that any member of the Conference who is in school without an appointment, or is without income, may upon written request and upon consent of the Conference Fraternal Aid Committee be excused from the assessment; but if so excused, will waive any and all benefits from the Plan during the period so covered, and shall not be required to pay the unpaid assessments when he again becomes a member. Such a member shall, however, be subject to assessments immediately when he receives an appointment or becomes otherwise employed.

(5) We recommend that in case a member neglects to pay the assessments, the Treasurer shall report the amount each year to the Conference Committee responsible for keeping the permanent records of all members, and that upon retirement the amount of unpaid assessments against the member shall be deducted from his retirement allowance in accordance with P.958 of the 1936 Discipline.

(6) The suggestion has come to the committee that widows of both effective and retired members of the Conference should be included in the Plan. In considering this suggestion, the committee has taken into account the practice of the Board of Stewards in allowing $100.00 for the funeral expenses of a retired man upon his death. We recommend that the Conference instruct the Board of Stewards to make an allowance of $100.00 for the funeral expenses upon the death of a widow of a member of the Conference, effective or retired.

There are now, in addition to all effective members of the Conference, 81 retired men and 10 supply pastors who are members in good standing.

E. DOW HOFFMAN, Chairman.

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The past year has been of particular importance for the Methodist Hospital because of the fact that it has brought about the satisfactory refinancing of the bond issue encumbering the hospital. The new bond issue in the original amount of $570,000.00 is for a straight period of twenty years, with provisions for annual payments including interest of $25,000.00, the interest rate being 1% for the first two years, and 2% thereafter. Bonds of a par value of $47,500.00 have already been retired as a result of the expenditure of a portion of the funds available for the retirement of bonds from the first annual installment of $25,000.00. This means that the balance due under the bond issue at this time is $522,500.00. It is anticipated that bonds will be available at a price considerably under par for some time to come, and that by reason of this fact a rapid decrease in the amount of the indebtedness will be brought about.

The following statistical information concerning the hospital operations during the year 1937 is of interest:

Total number of days of hospital care	57,015
Total number of adult admissions	5,509
Total number of births	1,281
Total number admitted and born	6,790
Total number major surgical operations	1,519
Total number minor surgical operations	1,282
Average number of adult patients per day	120.6
Average number of infants per day	35.5
Average length of stay of patients (days)	8.0
Total number laboratory examinations	16,581
Total number physical therapy treatments	1,153
Total number X-ray films used	2,983
Average number employees	200
Bed capacity	180
Bassinets	40

Recently the hospital has been the recipient of endowment funds in the sum of $7,500.00 from three donors. The Board of Directors is exercising extreme caution in the investment of these funds in order that they may be preserved in future years for the purposes specified by the donors in giving them.

Some new equipment added during the past year:

1. X-ray (fluoroscopic) table, developing tanks and film dryer; all equipment made shock proof.
2. Passenger elevator.

3. Steam serving table and ice water fountain in nurses' dining room.

4. Inner spring mattresses for every bed.

Through cooperation with the All Nations Clinic 204 patients received 1614 days of hospital care.

The Methodist Hospital is rendering fine service to a large group of people of the community in which it is located, in accordance with the exacting standards of the American Medical Association and the American College of Surgeons.

ROLAND MAXWELL,

President of the Board of Directors.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL, PHOENIX ARIZONA

The job of feeling the "heart throb" and being a "friend to man" and trying real hard to use "applied christianity" in your daily work of running a hospital where you must consider the public—first of all the patient, the doctor, the Board of Directors, your creditors, and all the other organizations that are watching you, is no small job; and yet, in and through it all, the executive of such an institution must always keep in mind that he is facing an adult. I feel this report I make from year to year which is in fact taken from our annual audit is my audit to this organization.

When an audit is taken of a bank, you first count the cash and then examine the securities—not only listing them but determining their value and then reach your conclusion. The audit of a hospital is much more complicated than that. It is an easy matter to count the cash and list our physical assets but that does not constitute the important things of a hospital. These are necessary but much more necessary are the dreams, ideals, and work and the results of all these things combined. We will not further preach, but proceed to give you facts and figures from which you may draw your own conclusions:

The past year has been the greatest, most successful year of our history—handling 4,138 patients, doing a total of $202,057.47 of business representing more than 4,000 hospital days. We increased earnings of the institution more than $30,000.00 and spent more than $25,000.00 of this for additional nursing and labor service. We did $23,750.29 worth of Free Work, and yet, we closed the year with a surplus of $14,969.62.

During the year we bought new equipment for the hospital of $22,814.35. In this item we re-modeled our kitchen making it a beautiful up-to-date kitchen in place of the old dilapidated worn out affair that we had. Also, we spent $5,000 for a new x-ray machine—making us, we think, the most up-to-date hospital x-ray outfit in the State of Arizona. We also spent money on reequipping and opening the old fourth floor and other necessary equipment.

I think it will be interesting to you to know we did 13,054 laboratory examinations, handled 1,582 surgery cases, did 5,533 treatments in our physiotherapy and hydrotherapy department, and had 492 babies born during the year.

Last, but not least, we retired $20,000 of our outstanding bonds. We retired these at an expense of $15,400.00. This makes a reduction of more than $75,000.00 we have made in our indebtedness in the past three years. The hospital today is in the best condition that it has ever been in its history. We have a hospital working staff of 135 people doing splendid work, and the whole year from every angle was one of the happiest, most successful in our history.

We are stressing more and more our nurses training school—giving girls a real opportunity to learn a profession that is more and more in demand, as well as, enabling us by having more nurses to care for the middle-class patient without so much expense to them for special graduate nurses.

The cooperation and help of the doctors of the staff, I am sure, has been one of the big items of our success. Their sacrifice of time and effort in helping us in our school, as well as on the floors, is one of the things that we value as one of our most valuable assets.

The management of an institution like the Good Samaritan Hospital with its diversified interests requires constant care, financial skill, scientific efficiency, hard work, and determined courage. These things, those who are entrusted with this responsibility, are faithfully striving to do; but it requires much more than that. We want to be a house of healing, a ministry of mercy, a place to train young lives for valuable service, and a dispenser of health. May we all be given grace in the interest of this great work "to acquit ourselves as workmen who need not be ashamed of their labor".

J. O. SEXSON, Superintendent.

CONFERENCE STATISTICS

The 1937 Conference ordered the Committee on Conference Statistics "to study the Presbyterian system on church membership procedure and report their findings to the 1938 Annual Conference session". This action was taken after it had been reported to the Conference that the Presbyterians had a method of auditing membership records annually. The committee, therefore, made an effort to get the information requested, but the net results of our efforts was the assurance that the Presbyterian brethren would appreciate sharing our good fortune, if and when we discovered a method of doing what they were credited with having accomplished. They do have a system of checking the records of the Clerk of each session in an effort to be sure that actions taken by each church conform with the law of the denomination, but they do not have an auditing process covering membership records.

The committee felt that a Bulletin on Church Membership would be helpful to local membership committees, who perhaps might not know all of the provisions of our Discipline covering their responsibilities. Consequently such a bulletin was prepared in which the Disciplinary provisions were paraphrased for local committees. The bulletins were mailed to each pastor, and several churches have ordered additional copies.

In addition to the bulletins, the committee requested the Statistician to mimeograph a form, similar to that used last year, on the blanks which are filed annually by the pastors. These blanks are for the purpose of supplying information on accessions and losses in membership. The Statistician will attempt this year to "audit" these records, using last year's membership as a starting point. At least the information supplied by the pastors on the forms will be analyzed in an effort to see just where accessions and losses occur. Perhaps a study of such an analysis will be helpful in finding out the factors which contribute to the problem of decreasing membership statistics.

The committee recommends that it be continued for another year so that the figures reported this year can be carefully analyzed, and the findings reported to the Conference next year. Every pastor is urged to supply the information requested, for without the information the committee cannot proceed.

J. WESLEY HOLE, Chairman.

COMMISSION ON A SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Your Commission on a School of Religion desires to report that the immediate prospect for the building of such a school are not exceptionally bright; but the members of the Conference and your Commission believe there is urgent need for such an institution out here on the Pacific Coast, where candidates for our ministry may be trained and graduated in the highest type of Methodist life, culture and service in loyalty to Christ as Saviour and Lord and the building of the Kingdom of God. We hope to see such a school to include the training of laymen as well as ministers that a more vital unity may be developed in the Churches and the Conference and that a holier fellowship in team work may achieve more blessed spiritual results.

We suggest that an adequate Commission on a School of Religion be continued to keep this Kingdom vision of service alive and to foster its achievement.

JOHN OLIVER, Chairman.

EVANGELIST REPORT

During this conference year, I have held 19 meetings, as follows:

Five camp meetings—Red Rock and Medicine Lake, Minnesota; Penhook, Virginia; Conneautville, Pennsylvania; and Richland, New York.

Two Prayer Conferences—Mennonite Brethren in Christ, Elkhart, Indiana; and Potter Park Methodist Episcopal, Lansing, Michigan.

Twelve revival meetings—Two in missions, Binghamton, New York; and Minneapolis, Minnesota; two in Methodist Episcopal churches, Austin and Hector, Minnesota; two for Mennonite Brethren in Christ churches, Kitchener and Toronto, Canada; one for the Pasadena Pilgrim Tabernacle church, one for the Huntington Park Evangelistic Tabernacle church, and one for the St. John's Methodist Episcopal church, So. Ventura, all in California; one for the Evangelical church in Brown City, Michigan; one for the Brentwood Nazarene church in Portland, Oregon; and a union meeting in Marion, Indiana, twenty two churches cooperating.

This year has been marked by many remarkable answers to prayer. I want to record my thanksgiving and praise for these visitations and blessings of the Lord which gave us victory in the meetings. It has also pleased God to give us some wonderful outpourings of the Spirit in old time revival power. Several of the meetings closed with the same manifestations of power as marked the early revivals of our Methodism. This has greatly encouraged my faith. Fully one half of those saved have been young people of about high school and college age. For this we are especially grateful to God. My own heart rejoices in the full salvation of my Redeemer, and I never felt more like pressing the battle for souls.

My offerings have totaled $2491.78.

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

APTITUDE TEST AND PERSONNEL

A most careful study has been made of the results of the Strong "Interest Test," The Bernrueter, Personality Inventory Test, and the ratings made by the District Superintendents to find, if possible, whether all or any of the above instruments would have value in predicting ministerial success. The complicated statistical work required was done free of all cost by the advanced statistics classes of the University of Southern California under the guidance of Dr. LeFever, Statistical Expert and Educational Leader. The net result of the exhaustive study was disappointing, and yet enheartening. No significant relationship was found between any of the tests and ratings given by the District Superintendents. None of the tests seemed to predict anything of definite value that could justify their immediate use.

The most valuable finding was that ministerial success involved so many varying factors that no devised test is able to predict it. General high intelligence seems to be the best factor for success.

The Committee would, therefore, recommend that until a proper instrument can be devised the existing standards be strengthened by rigid adherence to the rule of Seminary graduation for full membership in the Conference. For undergraduates coming in on trial we would suggest that the Conference Relations Committee request a transcript of high school and college work. In addition we would suggest that a good general intelligence test such as the California Test of Mental Maturity be given to undergraduates. We feel that high intelligence, school success, general appearance and committee judgment will make a good basis for selection.

The Committee recommends that the fifty dollar appropriation allowed for this work be continued in order that further investigations be made into possible instruments of measurement.

ROY G. BOSE, Chairman.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A meeting of the Historical society was called by Wilbur Fisk for Oct. 19, 1937, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church following the Los Angeles Ministers meeting. Five of the seven members of the society were present and the organization of the body was effected by the election of Wilbur Fisk as president and Will A. Betts as secretary.

Besides urging the pastors on the different charges to pay special attention to the collection of valuable historical data it was thought wise to appoint certain individuals to prepare summaries of a historical character and place them in the hands of this society.

In harmony with that plan W. E. Tilroe working in collaboration with Owen Coy was assigned the task of preparing the history of the University Church.

Vernon M. McCombs was requested to write the history of the Latin American Mission.

Will A. Betts was asked to prepare an account of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach.

Charles W. Harshman was assigned the work of preparing summaries of the Euclid Heights of Los Angeles, California, and the Bisbee, Arizona, Churches.

Wilbur Fisk was requested to bring the historical account of the Ariona Mission from the time of the conclusion of the account published in the Journal of 1934 to the time of the merging of that Mission with the Southern California Conference.

It was the unanimous opinion and request of the meeting that the Conference provide at the earliest possible time a suitable fire proof room or vault in which all of the historical documents may be deposited and thus preserved for the future.

F. A. Leak not being able to be present sent in the suggestion that the society request the Secretary of the Conference to provide a column in connection with the Roll of the Honored Dead in which the burial places of the members of the Conference and their wives may be recorded.

WILBUR FISK, Chairman.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

A prominent attorney in New York asked concerning the perilous times in which we are living: "What is the church going to do about it?" Then he added, "It is a terrific thing for the church to be expected". When was the church ever more expected than now? With drinking, especially among women, on the increase, with gambling in a riot, with the number of unemployed growing, and with every nation strained to high tension through fear of war, the church is challenged as never before. Nor is the church able to meet these evils. Well organized, strong in leadership and profiting by its many years of experience it yet lacks the motive power to be as effectual as those within and without the church expect it to be.

Churches of all denominations, but especially Methodists, should capitalize on two recent events: The final vote assuring the union of three branches of Methodists and the celebration of Wesley's Aldersgate experience.

A few specific suggestions are here offered:

1. That a safe and sane balance be kept in the several departments of church activities—Evangelism, Christian Education, Social Service and Missions, and that no department be emphasized to the exclusion of any other.

2. That evangelism shall be controlled by sound judgment and intensified by consecrated enthusiasm in the Power of the Holy Spirit. We recommend that the abundant material made available in the Wesley celebration be used continuously.

3. That Christian Education be duly stressed, and continued in alliance with other functions of the church; that its work be done with the end in view that every life be committed to Jesus Christ. We recommend that "The Five Year Plan" be honestly presented to every church, seeking as enthusiastic reception and hearty adoption as in the Annual Conference session.

4. That the church assume its share of responsibility for the unjust and unholy social conditions, and that every church make a definite study of these conditions and its relation to them. We recommend that the materials prepared by The Committee to Promote Study of Christian and Social Problems be used as a basis of study.

5. That the missionary work of the church be increasingly emphasized in every department of every church, not overlooking children in the lower grades of the church school. We recommend most heartily cooperation with the promotion of the Million Unit Fellowship.

6. That recognizing the colossal task in effecting organic union among the several branches of Methodism, we pray God that wisdom shall be given the Commission, and that the Conferences shall be guided by the finest spirit of brotherhood.

WM. C. HODGSON.

LAY PARTICIPATION IN CONFERENCE AFFAIRS

The Layman in the Annual Conference is still somewhat of a stranger. In many instances he has represented his local Church in the Lay body for too short a time to enable him to acquire the experience necessary to the most effective functioning. It is to be expected that this disability will become less pronounced under operation of the lengthened term of Lay representation.

We find several points at which improvement seems to be desirable.

- (A) Many well qualified Laymen are unable or unwilling to accept the responsibility of representing their churches in the Conference, because of the time required to attend the annual sessions.

A broader and deeper interest in affairs of the Church beyond the limits of the local parish would undoubtedly tend to correct this condition. We respectfully urge upon various Lay organizations and District Superintendents and Pastors the necessity of making systematic effort to arouse such interest.

(B) Many Laymen are unable to participate in the deliberations of Conference committees, because of the inconvenient time or place of the meetings; or because of insufficient notice.

Convenors and Chairmen should help at this point by making suitable inquiry as to the convenience of Laymen in calling meetings of Committees, and in giving adequate notice of such meetings.

We would call the attention of the Chairmen of committees to the possibility of enlisting the co-operation of the members of committees located at too great a distance to attend meetings, by assigning them some part of the work of the committee for study and for report by letter.

(C) It is not always clear to the Layman what sessions of the Conference are to be "United Sessions". Consequently he comes to the annual meeting with plans which call for his return home before the united sessions are actually adjourned.

We recommend that in setting up the program of the Annual Conference each year the Program Committee make a careful estimate of the time which probably will be required for the business of the "United Sessions" and the days on which they are scheduled to occur, and by whatever means may be practicable (including publication in the Christian Advocate) to make such information available to the members of the Lay Conference.

(D) Members of Conference are not always sure of their rights and limitations in debate under the rules of the Conference.

We suggest that at the first united session the attention of Conference members be called by the Presiding Officer to the Conference Rules of Order as printed in the Journal, with an explanation of the extent to which they apply in the current session.

(E) Article 262, section 2, of the Discipline, providing for the selection of Lay members of Conference Committees and Boards by the Laymen, is occasionally disregarded by the Conference.

Boards or Committees desiring the reappointment of certain members, or the appointment of certain others, should advise with the Lay Conference committee on committees rather than bring nominations directly before the Conference for election along with approval of the committee's report, thus eliminating the possibility of duplicate action by the two bodies.

We urge laymen generally, and members of the Lay Conference particularly, to keep informed regarding the business and affairs of the Church by the consistent and regular use of—

- (A) The Christian Advocate
- (B) The Conference Journal
- (C) The Discipline

Fortified with the knowledge gained by the study of these publications, the Layman will be better qualified to serve and to participate in the affairs of the Conference and the Church.

DANIEL L. SCOTT, Chairman.

THE ADVOCATE

There can be no real advance on the part of the Christian Church as long as it does not read the news of the religious world, and study the issues before the Christian Church. In presenting these matters our own Advocates are rendering a service of great value. We commend the editorship of Dr. Edward Laird Mills most cordially, and solicit the support of the pastors in his efforts to increase the circulation of the paper.

We have a distinct feeling, however, that there is need for material in the paper, dealing with problems of the personal spiritual lives of the people. Too many news stories of missionary enterprises, church building projects, etc., have the effect of discouraging the people. Devotional articles, discussions of religious problems facing the church, and factual material dealing with social issues, are distinctly needed by our people.

In the editorial matter prepared by Dr. Mills we find much of great value, but in the syndicated material we find considerably less interest. In the effort to provide us with a newspaper the editors have lost sight of the devotional and educational function of the paper. There is too much disposition to write "over the heads of the people," assuming a spiritual maturity, and a body of social information, that the conditions in the local parish do not justify.

We respectfully request, therefore, that the editors seriously consider the presentation of more articles dealing with the technique of spiritual life, the cultivation of the devotional life, and analyses of personal problems for lay readers.

ROY L. SMITH.

WESTERN REPRESENTATIVE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

While our San Francisco Office of the Board is not large, it touches practically all departments of our work. Miss Marjorie Merrill is office secretary, sharing her time with several other Church offices and thus reducing to a minimum the operating expenses of the office. Whenever I am away from the office I know that Miss Merrill will amply care for everything.

It is a real pleasure to be of assistance to our missionaries in every way possible. We always endeavor to meet at the pier those who are returning home from the field—a bit of service which is much appreciated by them. There are many things which we are able to do for them in these contacts: securing clergy rates for their transportation, making hotel reservations, advising regarding customs and baggage, taking them their mail and making appointments for them to visit the Board's examining physician. In one instance a few months ago it was necessary to arrange for hospital entrance for one of our missionaries who returned home ill, and to have an ambulance at the boat to transfer him to the hospital. Also, during the weeks of his convalescence we were happy to keep in close touch with him and care for all his needs.

Just recently a young Chinese student arrived in San Francisco and for certain health reasons was detained a few days at Angel Island. It was our privilege to see that he made the contacts which would smooth his way and give him a happy introduction to America.

Purchasing at discounts for our missionaries is another one of the activities of the San Francisco office. We are asked to help in the purchase of many articles of varying nature. Pianos, radios, hospital floor covering, fruit juices, groceries, dishes, shoes, clothing, mimeograph supplies—even a saxophone—have been among the requests this year.

Also, the San Francisco Office of the Board of Foreign Missions has the responsibility of initiating the first steps in personnel procedure in ten western states, contacting and keeping in touch with young people desirous of investing their lives in foreign missionary service. Whenever necessary, local personnel committee meetings are held under the direction of this office. Just recently four young people met the Los Angeles Personnel Committee.

Our office endeavors to serve as a clearing house for missionary speakers who are available for cultivation work in the local churches.

Much of my time is given to looking after the financial interests of the Board of Foreign Missions, making frequent calls upon annuitants and prospects and soliciting annuities, estate notes, bequests and gifts to our work whenever possible. Each spring several weeks are spent in Southern California contacting our many friends in that section. It is always a joy to call upon them and find them all so happy and satisfied with their annuities. Many have expressed the wish that they had invested more with our Board so that they would not have lost their money in the recent depression, for as you know, our Board of Foreign Missions has never lost a dollar of any annuitant's money. We always welcome inquiries from those interested in investments with our Board.

I am glad to report that Dr. A. A. Parker, who now lives in Los Angeles, has consented to help us in our work in Southern California, without salary.

JOHN TUNNICLIFFE, Representative,
Board of Foreign Missions,
Methodist Episcopal Church.

RESOLUTIONS

We are deeply conscious of the unusual courtesy extended to this Conference and its presiding Bishop by Dean Bloy and the Vestry of St. Paul's pro Cathedral and the Bishop of the Diocese, Rt. Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, in making that beautiful Sanctuary available for the morning devotional services of this Conference; and we express to them our appreciative thanks for this brotherly action.

A host of people, too numerous to mention, at First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, have labored assiduously to facilitate the business of the Conference and to make our sessions comfortable and happy. Mr. Gerald Harvey, the assistant pastor, has been indefatigable, planning and working to make this Conference the success it has been. While the pastor-host, Dr. Roy L. Smith, by his brotherly spirit and genial wit, has been a great factor in making our days together delightful ones. To all of these and to the Officiary of First Church, we tender our grateful thanks for the facilities of their commodious and beautiful Church plant which they have so generously put at our disposal. We are greatly indebted to our sacrificial hard-working secretaries, statisticians and treasurer for their efficient service.

The programs and addresses have been of unusual merit and we thank the distinguished speakers who have widened our horizons of interest and moral concern by their addresses.

We have had a good Conference marked by a spirit of unity and goodwill. We have moved happily, swiftly and intelligently to constructive ends. A successful Conference demands the presence of a real leader in the chair. We have been particularly fortunate in the presidency of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam. Words at best are poor counters to express the emotions that stir us and to articulate the affection of our hearts toward you, our friend and brother. But we should like to say to you that we are happy to have had you as our presiding Bishop. You have given us during these sessions, distinguished leadership, scholarly, brotherly and statesmanlike. But our affection for you has been more than high regard for an efficient presiding officer. We have felt that you were one of us and belong to us. We have watched your rise in the Church to place and power and great usefulness with pride and joy. We shall never forget the notable work you began in this Conference for underprivileged people, particularly boys and girls. You have put all humanity on the map of our hearts.

The noblest comradeship in the world is the comradeship of service. We have known that comradeship with you and so there are ties that bind us together that are very precious. We are happy because you are home again with us "Walking once more Old Friendship Street". Our only regret is that we do not see you more frequently. We hope you will come often to hearten us. The finest gold in the world is not found in placer deposits or quartz veins. It is found in human hearts. We call it friendship. You are at home with friends who love you and believe in you.

For the splendid way in which you have led us through your presidency of the Conference, for the fresh enthusiasm and visions created by your brilliant addresses and sermons, accept our grateful thanks. You have the friendship of our hearts.

WILLSIE MARTIN.

In Memoriam

SAMUEL SHAW SAMPSON

Forty-two years unbroken ministry in one conference: that is the enviable record of Samuel S. Sampson. Never transferred in nor out, never a supernumerate, never a superannuate, never on leave of absence, and almost never on vacation, he was always at his task. His appointment was his responsibility and loyalty marked his every service.

This man, born in Calloway County, Missouri, October 25, 1871, was left motherless in infancy and before he reached his teens his father died. His youth was a constant struggle for a living and an education. He worked at any kind of honorable labor and was often found cooking his own meals in sheds and sleeping in haymows. At seventeen he went out to Colorado with an old Forty-niner, a friend of his father's. Then he came to California. His work with the Banning Water Company brought him in contact with the notorious Sam Temple with whom he often slept; but this greatly feared man was as tender with "Sammy", as he called him, as he would have been with his own son.

Brother Sampson made his way through college, entered the ministry, and joined the Conference under difficult conditions which would have made most men give up. But he was dedicated to the ministry by his mother at his birth, (though he did not know it until he was grown), the Hand of God was upon him, the Call was in his soul, he had dedicated his life to Christ, and difficulties must not matter. He was graduated from Chaffey College, a Branch of The University of Southern California, in a class of nineteen, in 1896. Later he received from the University a Doctor of Divinity degree. He was ever a student, possessing one of the finest libraries in the conference.

His first charge was at Creston and Shandon. He arrived with only five cents in his pocket. His next appointment was Santa Maria. Here he was married to Miss Bertha Cook in 1899. They were parents of a daughter, Virginia, (Mrs. E. N. Blakely of Honolulu), and three sons, Dr. Phillip, Kenneth and Paul, who with several grandchildren are all living in Los Angeles County. For thirty years this family was unbroken, but in 1929 Mrs. Sampson went to her blessed and well deserved reward. Three years later Dr. Sampson was married to Miss Kathleen Gibson, who survives him, and who was his constant companion on his long drives over the Fresno-Glendale District.

Brother Sampson went to his coronation on April 8, 1938. Brothers Fred B. Trotter and F. G. H. Stevens and Bishops James C. Baker and George A. Miller conducted the funeral service in the Huntington Park church, which was crowded with fellow ministers, church members and citizens who held him in highest regard. His body lies in Angelus Abbey.

Of his forty-two years ministry he spent thirty-eight as a pastor. Only one other member of the conference exceeded him in average length of pastorates. His last was the longest, twelve years at Huntington Park. He was finishing his fourth year as superintendent of the Fresno-Glendale District when he was obliged to lay down his work.

In his school days Brother Sampson was president of the College Y. M. C. A., and was sent as a delegate to the great convention in Knoxville, Tenn. Years after he was a delegate to the World's Sunday School Convention in Scotland. The Huntington Park church paid all his expenses to the convention and on a continued trip through Europe and a visit to the Holy Land.

The ministry of our brother was well balanced: he was an executive, he was an efficient pastor; and his pulpit work was most wholesome; no fanaticism, no vagaries. His messages reached the hearts of his people. They were filled with quotations from the Scriptures and great poems with which his memory was packed.

The character of this man may be read in sentences from his writings which were never intended for publication. Here are a few:

Twenty five years after its occurrence he reports a heart-breaking experience in a desolate home in the country, in the first year of his ministry. These lines are in the report: "As he rode home tears rained from the eyes of the young preacher and baptized the chestnut mane of his horse . . . but twenty-five years after I am ready to say, 'Lord, if I may, I'll serve another day'." The page for December thirty-first in each of his year books records his reconsecrations. We read: "I sincerely hope that I may be a more thoughtful worker, in the new year, a better husband, a better father, a better brother, a better friend." One year later he wrote: "The last night of the year; my purpose is to keep my face to the Light—The Light of the World which is Jesus Christ . . . if I succeed in looking to Him the new year cannot fail".

Samuel S. Sampson was a man of God; he was a loving husband and father; he was a pastor devoted to every member of his flock; he was a brother beloved by all pastors on his district, a father to the younger men and a welcome guest in every parsonage; he was a considerate fellow worker; he was a square dealer; he was a loyal friend. This conference has never known a more brotherly brother. His kind comes too seldom.

WM. C. HODGSON.

HAROLD JAMES SMITH

Harold James Smith was born in Victoria, Australia, on the 13th day of February in the year 1882. He died in Costa Mesa, California, February 9th, 1938.

Between those two dates lies a life filled with romance and fruitful service. Married February 22, 1905, to Lillian Jeffery, two children came to bless his home. His wife was a comrade in every sense of the word. They labored in effective harmony in the parish and lived in loving comradeship in the home. His two children, Mrs. Mildred Mogridge, of the Congressional Library, Washington, D. C., and Jeffery, instructor in the department of philosophy of the University of California, had lived to bring pride and satisfaction to his father heart.

Coming to America to complete his training for the ministry, he had his first appointment in 1907 at Traver and Riverbend. During his student days he served pastorates at East 38th St. Los Angeles and Ramona, Alhambra, as well as assistant pastor at University Church. He graduated with honors from the University of Southern California, receiving the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Divinity.

In 1915 he set sail for India, the land of his dreams, under appointment by the Board of Foreign Missions. There he served at Asansol, Kidderpore, Darjeeling and Calcutta. When, after 13 years he was compelled to return to America on account of the illness of his wife, he had just completed three notable years as pastor of the historic Thoburn Church of Calcutta.

After returning to his home Conference, Brother Smith served pastorates at Maywood, Oxnard, North Long Beach and Costa Mesa. Throngs of eager youth, attracted by the ministry of this good man and his wife, were drawn into closest fellowship with Christ and His Church in all of these pastorates. This was a striking phenomenon of his ministry.

Born in far off Australia, sent to serve in India's ancient provinces by the Bay of Bengal, returning to the land of his adoption and to the homeland of the Church he loved for eleven final years of happy, fruitful ministry, his stout heart ceased to beat and his strong body, never knowing illness, suddenly relaxed and Harold J. Smith fell asleep, in Costa Mesa by the blue Pacific in his 55th year.

"Go home content, the evening falls,

Day's tired sinews are unbent;

No more the thrush or linnet calls,

The twilight fades, go home content.

Father, the field is but half turned,

And yet the spring is well nigh spent,

My son, the hour of rest is earned,

The day's work done, go home content."

WALTER C. BUCKNER.

FLETCHER GUARD WATSON

"Nothing against him." For 39 unbroken years was this said of Fletcher G. Watson when he answered roll call in his Annual Conference. He had not missed a roll call. On February 8, 1938, in his parsonage home at Corona, California, he slipped away to answer the Final Roll Call.

He was born in the Meridian Street parsonage, Indianapolis, Indiana, May 31, 1875. His father was the Rev. George Douglas Watson, a Methodist minister whose ancestors dated back to the first settlers on Virginia soil.

Dr. Watson was educated at Pennington Seminary, New Jersey, New Windsor College, Maryland, and did graduate work at Johns Hopkins University. The University of Southern California conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

In 1901 he was united in marriage to Mabel Read Jones, who survives him. He was a family man. He loved his family and enjoyed with them a lovely family life. He took unusual satisfaction in the successes of his two sons, Donald Read, now head of the Science Department of Citrus Union High School and Junior College, and Fletcher Guard, Instructor at Harvard University.

He joined the Baltimore Conference in 1899 and transferred to the Southern California Conference in 1915. He had served in this Conference, Richland Avenue, Santa Ana, Inglewood, First, Visalia, Pico Heights, Trinity Pomona, Monrovia, Bakersfield First, Washington St. Pasadena, and Corona. He had inspired the Corona people to enter upon their long delayed building program and was in the midst of a most happy pastorate when, without warning, he was gone.

Fletcher Watson was a gentleman, possessing fine culture and a gift for making friends. An able preacher and a faithful pastor, he was especially thoughtful of the sick and afflicted.

He had hoped, when he retired, to live in Pomona. His body lies in the beautiful Pomona Mausoleum. He loved to quote, "Let there be light at eventide", and his funeral service was cast in that mood.

"To live in the hearts of those we love is not to die."

Good-bye till morning comes again,
We part, if part we must, with pain,
But night is short, and hope is sweet,
Faith fills our hearts, and wings our feet,
And so we sing the old refrain,
Good-bye, till morning comes again.

Good-bye, till morning comes again,
The thought of death brings weight of pain,
But could we know how short the night
That falls, and hides them from our sight,
Our hearts would sing the old refrain,
Good-bye, till morning comes again."

WALTER C. BUCKNER.

DAVID FINDLEY HOWE

"Please tell us, Dr. Pitner, whom you would regard as the most interesting and eloquent preacher in the City of Los Angeles. I have just come to California and would like to attend that church."

"Undoubtedly, the most interesting, best informed and altogether eloquent preacher in any church in Los Angeles is Dr. David F. Howe of Westlake." This was the appraisal of an outstanding member of the Southern California Conference, who himself ranked high as a preacher, and who was then District Superintendent.

A few years later, the following occurred. Dr. Howe was asked to address the Spanish Work Association at its monthly meeting. Among other things, he said, "My dear young people, anybody who scoffs at a Mexican on the street, even though he be dressed in overalls, is scoffing at a mass of ignorance in the back of his own head. The Mexicans are a great and a noble people. I have lived on the Border and have made a great study of them. They have been dragged down from a great civilization. Our task is to help them up."

It is interesting to note that the speaker's son, John P. Howe, became the first superintendent of the Spanish American Institute at Gardena, and that Helen Pitner became his wife, the likewise talented and sacrificing queen of the Institute.

David Findley Howe was born at Cedar Grove, Franklin County, Indiana, February 7, 1855. His parents moved to Illinois. Here, while still a boy, David was converted. He was later employed in a store, and at last he heard the call of God to the Christian ministry. In his active service of about forty years, we find him with the exception of one year as a missionary in Arizona and two years in Denver, Colorado, serving with steady promotion the largest charges in the Illinois Conference. He came to the Southern California Conference in 1906 at Westlake M. E. where he was the very popular pastor until his retirement in 1919. More than any other one pastor, he laid the early foundations of the present great Wilshire Church.

Dr. Howe never sought an appointment; yet he held the largest charges. He received an honorary degree from an Eastern college, but never used it or referred to it. He felt that the message is greater than the man. His sermons, though oratorical and profound, yet were exceptionally practical and so uniquely personal that they lingered in the memory.

Dr. Howe was a student all his life. He knew his Hebrew and his Greek. He read the Bible in Spanish, French and Italian. Until a few days before his death, he had the regular habit of daily study and the recording of his observations. He was mentally alert to the last. His chief regret in going seemed to be that he had not yet finished certain studies that were on his mind.

He was a lover of the beautiful. His sermon illustrations, his books, his choice of music and art, were the tributes of an aesthetic soul. He was especially interested in fine music. While a young man, he did concert work in a quartette. And the soprano later became his wife. He was greatly interested in humanity, especially the less fortunate. He became deeply interested in the Spanish work in the Southwest. He gave his son John and the gifts and service of the missionary impulse of Westlake to the founding of the Spanish American Institute. A beautiful bungalow is known as the Westlake Cottage.

He was generous to a fault with his energy and limited finances. He loved his comrades in the ministry and the members of his church, and constantly prayed for them. The Sabbath meant much to him, particularly after he was retired, when he almost lived from one Sunday to the next. As the end drew near and the family expected him to go almost any day, his son John remarked, "I believe that he will wait just a few days until Sunday so that he can go on the day that meant so much to him", and, sure enough, he did pass away on a Sunday at a time when his brothers were in the midst of their morning service. I wonder if God did not have a hand in this. Does God ever get sentimental?"

We might answer the devoted children, James F., John P. and Mrs. Mary E. Kern, "Well, if God ever got sentimental, He certainly would do so over such a classic, spiritual, scholarly and achieving life as that of David Findley Howe." This worthy follower of John Wesley, Asbury and Christ died September 19, 1937. He was buried in the Inglewood Cemetery. Of the many tributes in verse which we might select, none could be too heroic or full of uniform appreciation. As Edwin Markham said of another man from Indiana and Illinois, Lincoln,

"He held his place—

Held the long purpose like a growing tree—

He leaves a lonesome place against the sky."

But we somehow feel that more fitting still are the words of Hugh Robert Orr:

THEY SOFTLY WALK

"They are not gone who pass
Beyond the clasp of hand,
Out from the strong embrace.
They are but come so close,
We need not grope with hands,
Nor look to see, nor try
To catch the sound of feet.
They have put off their shoes
Softly to walk by day
Within our thoughts, to tread
At night our dream-led paths
Of sleep.

"They are not lost who find
The sunset gate; the goal
Of all their faithful years.
Not lost are they who reach
The summit of their climb,
The peak above the clouds
And storms. They are not lost
Who find the light of sun
And stars and God."

VERNON M. McCOMBS.

GEORGE EDWARD MONKMAN

Some thirty-seven years ago two young men came from Canada to the Iowa Conference. They were evangelists and they were brothers. They were George and Jesse Monkman. They not only preached the word but were also effective gospel singers. Whether their audience was large or small they completely captivated it. When they sang at the sessions of the conference they would be called back again and again. Their voices possessed a rich musical quality and their interpretation of gospel song carried a spiritual value that was compelling. Their services were in demand throughout the conference and many found the fellowship of Christ through their ministry.

George Edward Monkman was born at Mt. Hope, Canada, March 10, 1875. He was the youngest of nine children and the third to depart this life. Reared by godly parents he always trusted in the Lord for all things. His early education was in Canada. When a young man he came with his brother Jesse to the States to attend Moody Bible Institute. Later he attended North Western University and Garrett Biblical Institute, graduating from the latter in 1914. Later he took post graduate work at Boston.

He was admitted into the Iowa Conference in 1904 where he served three charges covering a period of sixteen years. Following his year of post graduate work he was transferred to the Southern California Conference where for seventeen years his useful ministry was continued. He served the following charges, all in the city of Los Angeles. Union Avenue, Vincent, Santa Barbara Avenue and Melrose Park. In 1935 after but one year at Melrose Park, on account of severe illness he took a year's leave of absence and at the end of the year was granted the Retired Relation. He found little relief from severe and frequent attacks of illness and on the morning of April 22, 1938, passed to the joys and triumphs of the saints of God. Services largely attended by friends and ministers were held at Pierce Brothers Mortuary April 25th. Dr. L. T. Guild brought comfort in a tender and affectionate prayer, and Dr. Roy L. Smith and the writer spoke in appreciation of his life and ministry.

His choice of companionship for life was most happy and on January 4, 1904, he was united in marriage to Miss Alma Rominger of Bloomfield, Iowa. Those of the immediate family who survive are Mrs. Monkman, their only child, Mrs. Josephine Koke, residing at Huntington Park and one granddaughter.

It is impossible to measure the value or reach of the work of a true minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. George Monkman possessed many essential qualifications for the ministry. He was deeply spiritual. He lived in the atmosphere of faith and prayer and ever reflected in his life and work the constant and intimate companionship of Christ. He was a true son of Wesley, in that he always possessed a "warm heart" and a passion for souls. His ministry always contained a genuine spiritual appeal. With positive moral and spiritual convictions his life maintained a true course to the end. He was faithful in every task which the pastorate imposed upon him. Today he rests with the immortals, having heard with joy that welcoming word of the Master, "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou has been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

HARDY A. INGHAM.

WILLIAM LARUE DEXTER

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers,
None has gone his way alone.
All that we send into the lives of others,
Comes back into our own.

"I care not what his temple or his creed,
One thing holds firm and fast,
That from his fateful heap of days and deeds,
The soul of man is cast."

A few minutes before William LaRue Dexter died, he rallied, and in a triumphant voice exclaimed, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith," and with these words upon his lips, he passed to his reward.

He was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, June 12th, 1863. His father was a farmer, and, like most boys from the prairies, he had to make his own way through school and college.

In his early boyhood he was converted, and soon was conscious that God was calling him for special service. He taught school to get money to equip himself to answer that call.

He enrolled in the DePauw University, and after five years study he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Sacred Theology.

He began his ministry in the Southwest Kansas Conference in 1892. While a member of that Conference for two years he was State Secretary of the Kansas Temperance Union.

He was also a missionary in Utah and Nevada. In 1914 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference, and for fourteen years he effectively served churches in Fresno, San Diego and Arlington.

His last appointment was 1925-1928, Arlington, where under his direction the church building was remodeled, and educational and recreational units were added.

During his years at College he met and married the one who was to be his life companion, and who through the years, seconded his every effort to strengthen the Kingdom of God in the world.

Those of his immediate family who survive him are his wife, Mrs. Minnie B. Dexter of Arlington, a son, Delbert Dexter of Los Angeles, and two brothers, Clarence Dexter, Chicago, Ill., and George Dexter of Texas.

Brother Dexter was a very likable man. He was never harsh in his criticisms. It was easy for him to see the good in men.

He was a man of strong convictions. His sense of right and wrong was acute, and he had courage enough to stand for the right under all circumstances.

He loved to preach and had great faith in the efficacy of the word to bring men face to face with God.

God called him home Friday evening, April 8, 1938.

A good man never dies—
In worthy deed and prayer,
And helpful hands, and honest eyes,
If smiles or tears be there;
Who lives for you and me—
Lives for the world he tries
To help—he lives eternally.
A good man never dies.

EDWARD H. NICHOLSON.

WILLIAM EDWARD MALAN

"I hope I may die in the harness", was the statement once made to me by Will E. Malan. That wish was literally fulfilled on Easter Sunday, 1938, when in the midst of his morning service he was stricken and before evening had come he was standing in the throne-room of God. At another time he said, "it must be the most glorious thing possible to go home to heaven on Easter", and this too became a reality for him.

He was born in Greenville, Illinois, January 30, 1882, received his early schooling in that State and for a time taught school before coming to California. In 1914 he graduated from the University of California and from Maclay School of Theology in 1918. He joined the Southern Conference in 1914 and was assigned to Baldwin Park. At the end of two happy years he left it with a new church building erected, an increased membership in both Sunday School and Church and proved that building a church need not hinder the benevolent giving for the increase in benevolences was almost ten-fold. This was but the beginning of ten happy pastorates. The records show that increases became the rule and many are the friends in those churches who remembered his patient, helpful and constructive ministry.

On September 17, 1916, at the close of an evening service, with the church filled with friends, the writer united him in marriage to Miss Myrtha Scott. To them were born four children, Mrs. Ethel Garrett of Calipatria, California, and Jean, Edward and Phyllis at home.

Will, as his brethren affectionately called him, was a faithful pastor and thoughtful preacher. He believed in all the finer things of life and tried to bring to his people a message that helped them in every day living. People found God in his ministry and others were inspired to greater achievements. One young man at the funeral service said, "I have only known him a few months, but I feel like I was burying my father".

On Easter Sunday morning he baptized seven babies, received two of the young people into the church, listened to the anthem and started to preach. Very soon it was noticed that something was wrong. He kept repeating, "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you". He could not go on for already the door of his mansion was opening for him and he laid aside a broken body and went to be with the One about whom he had been preaching. It was one of those climaxes God brings to a beautiful life.

A large number of his brethren, friends from other pastorates, and the people of Pasadena came to pay him honor in the Hartzell Memorial Church, where for ten months he had labored so successfully. The service was in charge of F. G. H. Stevens and the writer of this memoir.

A. RAY MOORE.

JOHN PETER LIVONI

In this large Conference, spreading over a part of three states, and including hundreds of members, it is not possible for any of us to know intimately very many of our men. Practically all of the ministry of our brother Livoni was given to the San Joaquin Valley. But there we learned to know this man as one who took very seriously his religion and his ministry.

His parents were German Lutherans, John A. O. Livoni and Christina Livoni. And a Lutheran background meant adequate Christian training and a high type of morals.

He was born in Marion County, Kansas, Aug. 24, 1875. At the age of ten he and his father were both converted and united with the German Evangelical church, in which he continued as an active member for 20 years.

He began his college work at Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas. It was here that he met and married Edna M. Allen in 1904. They came the next year to Los Angeles where he entered the University of Southern California to complete his work. At first, church membership was held in University Church but he was one of the charter members of the Vermont Square church, from which he received his Local Preacher's license.

Entering the Conference in 1910, he was appointed to East Santa Monica, which he held as a student charge. Following his graduation the next year, he was appointed to Atwater and Livingston. For the next ten years he worked in the San Joaquin Valley at Livingston, Del Rey and Sultana. It was during this time that he gave much of his work during the summer to the management of the new Methodist resort at Camp Sierra. None held higher ideals for the work of the Camp than he.

But the nervous strain of the pastorate was too great for him, and in 1929 he became Superintendent of buildings at the College of the Pacific. Here his contact with the student body gave him a fine opportunity of Christian service. He was almost regarded as a Campus member of the Faculty. The young folks loved him, for he knew young folks, having four in his own home.

To his wife and two sons and two daughters, he gave all that a husband and father should give.

His death occurred at Stockton, Oct. 6, 1937. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. Henry Hoag Frost, pastor of Central M. E. Church, Stockton, assisted by Dr. Tully C. Knoles, President of the College of the Pacific, and Rev. Ralph Crawford, pastor of our church in Tracy. He was laid to rest in the Stockton Rural Memorial Mausoleum.

JACOB LUTHER MINNEY

Brother J. L. Minney, modest, unapplauded minister of God fell on sleep June 11, 1938, at his home in the city of San Diego. On June 14 his tired body was laid to rest on a sunny slope in beautiful Glenn Abbey.

The earthly career of this holy man is simply told. He entered the Christian ministry in the middle west serving churches in Illinois for four years. Three brave, pioneering years were invested in Idaho. He joined our conference in 1915 and for twelve years served needy fields within our borders. He built churches in four of the charges to which he was sent—Cardiff, Encinitas, Sultana, Cutler, Exeter, Atwater, Del Rey and Popular. The story of the struggle and sacrifice he and his noble wife faced in those charges will never be known till the books of the judgment are opened.

Brother Minney was so sincere himself that his soul loathed all sham in Christian allegiance. How he hated hypocrisy! But how he loved God's word and how he loved to teach and preach its gospel! The purity of his own life and purpose is well attested when his own children rise to affirm his character as without spot.

He had always been so active, so eager in his work, few knew he had an incurable malady. Lately he had been absent from church—that, now, we know was an index of his deep hurt. But his passing came as a great shock to his many friends.

Surely to such a saint there is granted an exceeding great and abundant entrance. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ and at the throne of God deserves the welcome, "Well done, Good and Faithful Servant, enter Thou into the joy of Thy Lord."

W. J. SHERMAN.

JOHN OVALL

(Not a member of this Conference but honored for ten years service in the Conference)

John Oval was born in Gothenburg, Sweden, January 28, 1863, and came to this country as a young man, going to Galveston, Texas. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Waco, Texas, in 1886, was licensed to preach in 1899, and admitted to the Austin Conference in 1891. In 1901 he went to the Pacific Northwest and was stationed at Tacoma, Washington. In 1902 he became the Presiding Elder of the Swedish work in the Northwest covering the territory included in Washington, Oregon and Idaho. He joined the Swedish Mission Conference when it was organized in 1908. In 1928 he was admitted to the California Conference and came to Randsburg, where he labored for ten years until the time of his death.

Brother Oval was taken suddenly ill on January 28th, his 75th birthday, and died on February 3rd, after an unsuccessful operation. Throughout his entire ministry he was a zealous and devoted missionary, having organized some twenty church societies and built some eighteen or more churches and parsonages. The one great desire of his heart was that he be permitted to complete the erection of a new church building at Randsburg before his death. He was not permitted to see this work completed, although the walls of the church had been raised.

He was married in 1890 to Miss Emma Nilsson, who shared with him in his work for many years, and passed away soon after coming to California. In 1929 he was married to Miss Carrie Lee of Santa Barbara, California, who has shared loyally with him in his work in the Randsburg parish.

Funeral services were held at Randsburg on February 5th, 1938, interment being at Porterville, where the rest of his family are buried. A host of friends from all over the surrounding desert gathered in the American Legion Hall for the last rites. It was a touching sight to see the children of the community asking if they might be permitted to carry the flowers from the Hall. Participating in the services were his District Superintendent, Dr. S. S. Sampson, who has since passed away; his former Superintendent, Dr. Leonard Oechsli; Dr. F. G. H. Stevens, Superintendent of the Pasadena District; and Reverend Harold Erickson.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Oval, who has carried on his work as pastor of the Randsburg Church since his death. Also his two sons, Wesley E. Oval, of Vancouver, Washington, and Andrew V. Oval of Oakland, California, and by a brother, Alfred, of Los Angeles, California.

The striking figure of John Oval will be missed from the streets of Randsburg as well as the communities in the surrounding desert territory where he has so faithfully labored during the past ten years as a "retired" minister. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, and there will be a prayer in the hearts of his many friends in behalf of the work that he loved so much, a prayer that the unfinished Church may be completed as a memorial to his heroic life.

LEONARD OECHSLI.

MRS. WILLIAM CASHIEUS BOTKIN

The life of Elizabeth Alta Casler began in Corning, Missouri, on July 12, 1881, and ended in the home of her sister in Los Angeles, February 1, 1938. Early in life she became a Christian and united with the Methodist Church. Coming with her parents to Los Angeles in 1901, she attended the University of Southern California and became a member of the Westlake Methodist Episcopal Church.

She became acquainted with the pastor of the Union Ave. Church, the Rev. W. C. Botkin, and that acquaintance ripened into a close friendship. Their marriage took place in the Westlake Church on June 29, 1905.

When she became a pastor's wife, she became in reality a Methodist preacher's wife. Although hindered from full work by lack of health, she aided by counsel and was active beyond her strength. Through the uniting of the two congregations which formed the Echo Park Church, and through its building program, she worked and it stands as a monument to her and to her husband. Fittingly, her funeral service was held at this church.

Later at Pico Heights and at Maywood she and her husband went through the union of churches and the rebuilding of St. Paul's and Maywood churches. The fact that there are no children in the home made it possible for her to be with Brother Botkin in his pastoral work, so that in the three charges mentioned and again in Santa Monica in the Associate Pastorate they had four experiences in the difficult work of merging two congregations. But her work was not limited to her own group. In a number of charges she was active in the woman's club work, a place which she held at Azusa at the time of her death.

But to the church she gave her best. As a friend so well said of her, "If ever a woman did her duty to the church she did, always loyal and devoted, she never neglected her obligations." At Maywood she taught a class of over 50 women and helped in the work of the missionary societies especially in planning the year's programs.

Because her life within her was so like her Master, she had no word of criticism, no unkindly sentence, for she thought none. No trouble for her to get along with folks, for she loved them and they knew it.

Coming into their parsonage, you came into a home, beautified by her choice of setting, for she loved beauty, but beautified more by a quiet winsome personality which knew suffering but knew Christ better than and above suffering.

In her life mingled a love of poetry, a love of nature, a love of beauty, a love of folks, and a love of God. So we loved her and God loves her.

Here are some of the tributes paid to her by her friends. "Her sunny smile and deep consecration gave her a ready entrance into the lives of all who knew her." "What a brave soul she was. Never thinking of herself but of others. She was always so cheerful and knew the Lord so well." "A sweet noble woman whose patience through years of discomfort, and smile in the face of discouragement, will remain an inspiration to me."

Her own folks were very dear to her. She has a sister in Philadelphia and a brother in South Dakota. She and her sister, Miss Emma W. Casler of Los Angeles, were so much together and so alike that they have often been taken for twins. They and we together will miss one who knew how to love Christ and to live like Him.

Besides many friends through the years and from their different charges, the funeral services were attended by over 100 of the ministers and their wives. Interment was in Forest Lawn.

The light of her dear life went down
As sinks behind the hill
The glory of a setting star—
Clear, suddenly, and still.

The blessing of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts where her footsteps pressed,
Like fairy blossoms grew.

MRS. ISAAC EDWIN WRIGHT

Martha A. Jeffers was born in Herkimer, New York, November, 1845. She was one of a family of eight children. Being of a spiritual nature early in life she united with the church, and always was happy when she could be engaged in some form of Church work.

March the 6th, 1873, she was united in marriage to Isaac E. Wright. Soon after the wedding he felt the call and entered the ministry and became a member of the New York Conference in 1878 and was appointed to Dickinson, Brasher Falls, South Canton, DePauville and West Stockholm. In 1888 she, with her husband, Rev. I. E. Wright and family, came to San Pedro where he organized the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1889 he was transferred from the N. Y. Conference to the Southern California Conference.

Other charges they served were: Otay, National City, Del Rosa and Chino. While pastor at Chino, Rev. Wright purchased a home on Central Ave. where they resided until his death in 1922 after which time she lived with her daughter, Mrs. B. W. Reid in Hollywood, spending the summers with her son, Bruce, in Oakland.

Their home in Chino was always open to the pastor and it was a delight for Mrs. Wright to have the privilege of their presence in her home. She was a mother to many of the young people and many of them continued to call her "Mother" as long as she lived in Chino. She loved folks and not only invited the different organizations to hold their meetings in the home but took in strangers and made them acquainted in the church.

Her life was one of service up to the very last, always cheerful and happy, looking on the bright side. No matter how discouraging things were she would look on the optimistic side.

When she went to live in Hollywood she took her church letter and placed it in the First Methodist Church there and even though far advanced in years she became interested and active in the many affairs of the church and counted it a great privilege to attend the services. Her pastor, Dr. Phillips, said of her it was always a blessing to enter the home and have an opportunity to talk to her, in her 92nd year.

Her passing was peaceful and happy with the members of her family gathered about her.

The funeral services were held in the Chino church where she had worshiped so many years. The services were conducted by Rev. R. I. McKee, an old friend of the family, assisted by Rev. L. E. Warren, pastor of the local church. Appropriately, the pallbearers were from the official members of the church that had known and worked with her for so many years.

Her body was laid to rest beside her husband in the Pomona Cemetery. She leaves a sister in New York, a son, Samuel Bruce Wright of Oakland, two daughters, Mrs. Jennie Reed and Mrs. Ella Messenger of Los Angeles, six grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren with several more distant relatives and a host of friends to mourn her going.

W. C. BOTKIN.

MRS. DAVID BYRON LOOFBOURROW

Ella M. Johnson was born May 13, 1877, in Jacksonville, Oregon. In infancy the family moved to Michigan where Ella grew to womanhood, and graduated from high school, and later from the Ferris Normal School at Big Rapids. After teaching in the public schools for three years this young and gifted woman became head-teacher in the College of Albuquerque, New Mexico—a college under the auspices of the Board of Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the training of young men for educational and ministerial work among Mexican people. For several years she served on the Deaconess Board and was a member of the General Executive Board of the David and Margaret Home at the time of her death.

On July 11th, 1901, Ella Johnson was united in marriage to David B. Loofbourrow at the Episcopal residence of Bishop John W. Hamilton in San Francisco, whither these two had gone to attend, as delegates, the Fifth International Convention of the Epworth League.

Rev. Loofbourrow, with his bride, entered upon his first pastorate in Pico Heights, now the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in Los Angeles. Throughout the years of her life as a minister's wife, Ella Loofbourrow served the Church and the Kingdom with fidelity and efficiency. Besides the work that naturally devolved upon her as a minister's wife, Ella Loofbourrow became the moving spirit and leader in establishing the Mexican Churches in Tucson, and also in San Fernando, Calif.

The Community Methodist Church of Puente, where David and Ella were serving so acceptably at the time of her death, has been greatly bereaved, as have the host of admiring and sincere friends through the Southern California Conference. There is in almost every church served a group of sorrowing hearts that remember affectionately Mrs. Loofbourrow as having been their teacher in a Church School Class. Naturally endowed with rare qualities of leadership and executive ability, trained by education and experience in teaching, modest and unassuming in demeanor and wholly surrendered to God, she attracted and held those desiring the better way of living. The loving service rendered, and the sacrificial spirit of the teacher will be a Memorial to this beloved servant of the Master throughout future years.

Though conscious of failing strength she courageously kept busy in the Master's service up to last Conference, which session she attended with her husband. Immediately thereafter a careful diagnosis revealed that she was battling against carcinoma of the liver.

Funeral services were held in The Little Church Of The Flowers and she was buried in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, August 5th.

Arrangements for the funeral occasion were practically completed by Mrs. Loofbourrow several days before her passing. Dr. F. G. H. Stevens, Superintendent of the Pasadena-Arizona District, was in charge; and the writer of this memoir gave the memorial message. The pallbearers were among the intimate friends of the family: John Oliver, E. P. Ryland, W. L. Y. Davis, B. D. Snudden, George Goodell and Robert Fisher.

Mrs. Loofbourrow leaves a bereaved husband, two daughters, Mrs. Roy G. Miller of Claremont, and Mrs. Karl C. Darlington of Riverside; and four grandchildren: Roy David and Marvin Manley Miller, David and Iris D. Darlington.

"O happy, happy soul!
In ecstasies of praise,
Long as eternal ages roll,
Thou seest thy Savior's face."

CLYDE M. CRIST.

MRS. WALTER CLYDE LOOMIS

This beautiful tribute was given Jennie Loomis by a friend: "One whose quiet grace and unassuming manner showed perfect poise, whose gentleness of speech and action won affectionate admiration and lasting friendships; whose sincerity of purpose was never questioned; of whose tolerance and forbearance friends all marveled, such was our beloved friend, Mrs. Loomis."

As the gifted companion of one of our finest brothers in the ministry, Rev. Walter C. Loomis, we knew her. Her gifts and grace equaled her modesty and manner. We heard them sing the beautiful gospel songs together and the blending of their voices was a symbol of the blending of their lives. Whether in the home or church circle they lived to make melody for others.

Born in Pennsylvania sixty-one years ago, she grew to young womanhood and married a young Methodist preacher, Walter C. Loomis. In 1907 they came to California, entered the Southern California Conference and for twenty-nine years she shared the fruitful ministry of her husband until that stalwart soul was called higher on May 25th, 1936. They were not long divided. Suddenly on April 8th she was not, for God had called her. "Walter and Jennie were lovely and pleasant in their lives and in death they were not (long) divided."

She died in San Bernardino where they had spent seven happy years in the pastorate of the First Methodist Church. The services were held in the church she loved so much and were conducted by Dr. Roy L. Smith, Rev. G. E. Harvey and Rev. L. V. Lucas. Dr. Walter A. Andrews, former choir director at First Church, sang her favorite hymns—"Still, Still With Thee", "There's A Wideness In God's Mercy", "O Thou In Whose Presence". She sleeps beside her husband in the beautiful Mountain View Cemetery in San Bernardino.

Her home going was near Mother's Day. One of her daughters wrote of them both as "my perfect father and mother". Three daughters survive her: Mrs. Pearl Price and Mrs. John A. Anderson of San Bernardino and Miss Dorothy Loomis of Los Angeles. "Her children rise up to call her blessed."

We think of them both in the Land that is fairer than day singing together the new song. There her children and friends will find her.

Only going Home,
Oh, Come where separation cannot be;
Oh, Come where we shall love eternally;
Look up, for I shall long your face to see;
I'll wait in Heaven.

FRED H. ROSS.

MRS. FRANK CONOVER BUCK

Nora M. McClain was born in Larned, Kansas, August 26, 1875 and passed to her eternal reward from Long Beach, California, September 10th, 1937.

Early in life she dedicated her life to the service of Christ and united with the church and later joined hands with Rev. Frank Conover Buck, a young methodist minister. After spending some time in the Illinois Conference in 1903 they came to the Southern California Conference and she, with her husband, served the following charges. Chesbro Memorial of Bakersfield, Santa Maria, Bakersfield, La Mesa and Del Rosa.

Owing to ill health, Rev. Buck retired in 1915 and they moved to Long Beach and established their home and remained there until the call came to come to another and higher home.

They had a part in the establishment of the Belmont Heights Church and he supplied Zafferria, now East Long Beach, for some time.

The later years of the life of Mrs. Buck were spent quietly in the home. Rev. Ralph Lee, pastor of the Atlantic Avenue Methodist Church of which she was a member at the time of her death, conducted the services and she was laid to rest beside her husband in Sunnyside Cemetery, Long Beach.

MRS. CHARLES ARTHUR BUNKER

Anna Mary Maxfield was born in Sycamore, De Kalb County, Illinois, on May 8th, 1858. Before her marriage she was a primary grade teacher in the Sycamore school, being highly complimented by her superintendent as having a model room.

Dr. Lewis B. Curtis introduced her to the young preacher, Rev. Charles Arthur Bunker, and it was love at first sight—each feeling that the other possessed the attributes that together would bring to them an ideal marriage and in this they were never disappointed. They were married on June 23, 1887, in Sycamore and went immediately to Rock Falls where Rev. Bunker was pastor of the local church.

She proved a staunch helper of her husband who as a Methodist preacher served in Rock Falls, Dixon, First Freeport, Ottawa, Lincoln St. Chicago, Garfield Blvd. Marengo, and then owing to health reasons came to Albuquerque, N. Mexico, and in 1902 was transferred to Southern California Conference where they served Visalia, Compton, San Dimas, Perris, Garvanza and Euclid Heights, L. A.

While at Rock Falls Hazel Mae came to brighten the home, and two years later Jean Paul was born.

Mrs. Bunker was always happy in being of service to her Master. She was always identified in the Sunday School work and with the Missionary Societies of the church. She was a tireless and efficient worker. She was a sympathetic friend and made a host of friends in every parish who have loved and kept in touch with her during the many years.

Upon retirement after fifty years of service they settled down in Pasadena and soon made for themselves a place for work in the First Methodist Church.

Rev. Bunker fell asleep on April 7th of last year and Mrs. Bunker slipped away on December 21st to be with her loved one. It was a beautiful thought to the family and those who were close friends to know that God called her so she could spend the Happy Christmas time with her husband and Saviour she had so faithfully loved. Her life was an inspiration to all with whom she came in contact—quiet, happy, studious, she was always alert, even after illness had lessened her activities. Her keen interest in the work of the Lord never faltered.

At the beautiful service held in Pasadena, Rev. James A. Sutton read the following lines from the first page of her Bible:

"I have a treasure that I prize,
Its like I cannot find,
There's nothing like it on this earth,
'Tis this, a quiet mind.
I found this treasure at the cross
And there, to every kind
Of weary, heavy laden ones
Christ gives a Quiet Mind."

Mrs. Bunker is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Gordon (Hazel Bunker) Davidson of Glendale and her son and the only grandchild, Keith Davidson.

Her body was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

HAZEL BUNKER DAVIDSON.

MRS. WILLIAM SCHULDT

Mrs. Katie Scholdt nee Helmich was born in Sandusky, Ohio, June 8, 1854 and passed to her reward in Berkeley, Calif., Jan 30, 1938. She lost her father when she was but nine years. He was one of the first to fall in the battle of Gettysburg, 1863, fighting for the Union cause.

Her early life was one of hardships and yet she learned to lean on God. Raised in the Evangelical Association, she was early led to God in a personal way.

August 16, 1881 she was married to Rev. Wm. Scholdt. Together they came to California that year where they helped build the Kingdom of God on this coast. Their first charge was Anaheim, where they organized the German Work and built the Church. After that they were sent to the following charges which they served acceptably: 1883, Los Angeles First German; 1887, Santa Barbara German; 1888 South Hollywood; 1889, Pasadena; 1891, St. Johns, S. F.; 1896, San Jose; 1901, St. Pauls, S. F.; 1906, Santa Rosa; 1912, Santa Cruz; 1916, Chico. Since 1918 the Scholdts have been on the retired list and made their home in Berkeley, Calif. She is survived by five children and her husband, Rev. Wm. Scholdt, with who she shared the joys and burdens of the parsonage home for 57 years. She was a loving wife and mother and an able worker. Everywhere in the Churches where she and her husband labored Mrs. Scholdt is remembered with joy. The services were conducted in the Calvary Methodist Church, February 2, 1938—Rev. Waasa and Rev. Hobert assisting with the undesigned.

MRS. CLARENCE VOSBURG GILLILAND

"She did not die, She was too near an angel,
One morn near break of day,
Hand in hand with an unseen evangel,
She went away."

Thus, this lady of light and love stepped out of this world into God's city September 30, 1937.

Carrie Stewart Collins, daughter of James M. and Sarah Collins, was born near Albia, Iowa, November 9, 1868. Early in life, she united with the Presbyterian Church, but after her marriage to the Reverend Clarence V. Gilliland March 26, 1891, she transferred her membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1900, her husband became a minister in the Upper Iowa Conference. Here they served together for a period later moving to Mitchell, South Dakota, where Dr. Gilliland became professor in Dakota Wesleyan University. With the exception of two and one half years at Carleton College, Missouri, Mitchell was their place of residence until they moved to Los Angeles in 1919 when the husband became professor of history at the University of Southern California.

Mrs. Gilliland had the soul of a poet, and the poet's gift. She could put her thoughts into lovely verse, and no occasion at University Church in recent years was complete without a poem from her fertile pen. God placed on her the mantle of that gentleness that makes His children great. Quiet, soft spoken, but "with a firmness in the right as God gave her to see the right", she was indefatigable in the support of those programs and institutions that extend the borders of Christ's Kingdom. Hers was a pleasant soul. Its radiance was reflected ever on her face and her eyes were the eyes of one who could catch glints of light through the darkest clouds.

She was a beautiful mother, the heart's desire as wife of a distinguished teacher and preacher, and an inspiration to countless friends. As Matthew Arnold saw in his father's life the greatest claim of immortality with his belief that such a beautiful life could not end with death, so the life of Mrs. Gilliland has given to those who knew her added assurance that "death is only an old door set in a garden wall."

She is survived by her husband, three sons, one daughter, nine grandchildren and one brother, James I. Collins.

MRS. WENDELL BARLOW KRAMER

Mrs. Carrie J. (Root) Kramer was born March 24, 1899 near Paso Robles, Calif. When she was eight years of age her mother died, leaving her as the baby girl in a family of three sisters and two older brothers and one younger. Dainty, gentle and beautiful, she acquired the title "Sweet Little Pet" which affectionately clung to her through the years.

The free open life of the farm, the flowered hillsides and the abundant sunshine gave health, happiness and expression of soul. Religion was a controlling factor in her home and the first place she went, as a baby, was to church. Dr. S. S. Sampson, whose last public message was her memorial service, said, "I have known Carrie's spiritual background for three generations. It has paralleled my ministry. Her grandmother was a member of the church of my first appointment. I knew her mother, personally—the saint that she was. And I have followed Carrie up through the years in the development of a great soul."

She finished her elementary and high school work near the place of her birth and then spent three years at the University of Southern California.

Near the end of her Junior year in University she responded to the missionary urge and took up work in Bennett Academy, a missionary school in Mississippi. After a year there she came back to California where she took to mothering the little Mexican children in the newly organized Children's Home of the Plaza Community Center.

While engaged in this beautiful service of love another love broke forth in her heart. Her lover came, in the person of a young Y.M.C.A. Secretary, Wendell B. Kramer. In October of 1925 they were married in University Church amidst the happy surroundings of University friends. Sweethearts they continued, loving and cherishing until death did them part. Four children came to bless their lives and as a mother, Carrie was supreme.

For five years she suffered with the malady but her spirit mounted up in victorious living and her mothering grandeur shone with brilliance to the very last.

She left the afflicted body March 2, 1938, just a few days less than thirty-nine years of age. Short, yes, but what a triumph her life had been. To her immediate family and close friends she bequeathed the fragrance of a spiritual dynamic that revealed the splendor of God.

"If life be short, let's make it
As lovely as a rose!
If cares there be to shake it,
If griefs there be to break it,
with multitude of blows—
If every joy forsake it
And only sorrow wake it
Let fragrance crown its woes!
If life be short, let's make it
As lovely as a rose."

GEO. E. ROOT.

MRS. JOHN EPHRAIM HALL

A radiant, saintly soul came to her coronation when Cora Moore Hall triumphed over death January 4, 1938 and greeted her Savior and her loved ones in the Heavenly Home.

Mrs. Hall was born September 3, 1871 at Seneca, Missouri, the daughter of a Methodist minister, Rev. Richard Moore.

A daughter of the parsonage, she was "to the manor born" and began her ministry as a Methodist preacher's comrade when she was married to Rev. John E. Hall, March 18, 1900 and together they labored in beautiful and devoted comradeship until Brother Hall was transferred to the heavenly ministry, July 26, 1926, while pastor of our church at Sawtelle. The first seven years of their ministry together were spent in the St. Louis Conference. Then coming to Southern California in 1907, she gave herself with her husband in fine ministry to nine different charges in our Conference—Delano, Santa Maria, Huntington Park, Orange, San Bernardino, Wilshire Boulevard, Pomona First, Lankershim and Sawtelle. And in every place she was a great source of strength and blessing, entering into all the activities of the church with deep devotion, a devotion continued as long as she lived to the full measure of her strength.

Beautiful in character and disposition, she adorned the parsonage life wherever she went, creating a gracious atmosphere of friendliness and hospitality and made her home a revelation of her Lord.

Missionary minded, she gladly gave her time and strength and money to the great missionary work of the church, as well as to meeting the need of the needy around her, one of God's sweet and beautiful hand maidens of his redemptive love.

And we can sing of her with Raymond:

True heart and wise, that with love's key
Didst open all life's mystery.
And bury life's treasure at the price
Of love's perpetual sacrifice.

The peace that love finds hid in care,
The strength that love-borne burdens bear.
The hope that stands with love and faith,
Serenely facing life and death.

The blessing that in blessing lies—
These didst thou know, true heart and wise.
Now God has added, last and best,
The awaited glad surprise of rest.

The memorial service was held at Forest Lawn, conducted by S. S. Sampson and B. D. Snudden, Jan. 6, 1938, her resting place alongside of her husband. She left to mourn her loss but to honor her memory, four daughters—Mrs. Helen Hill, Mrs. Ruth Snyder, Mrs. Dorothy Pemberton, Mrs. Katharine Tincher and a host of warm hearted friends.

Organization Session of the Lay Conference

The Seventh Annual Lay Conference of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was called to order in Room 24 of the First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, Tuesday, June 21, 1938, at 2:00 o'clock P. M. by President Ernest W. Oliver.

The meeting was opened by song, after which Mr. Daniel L. Scott led in prayer.

President Ernest W. Oliver addressed the Conference. In his address he made the following statement: "Let us as Methodists reconsecrate ourselves to a Renaissance of idealism, pledging ourselves anew to fight vice and injustice and to work with all Protestants, Catholics and Jews to build a greater democracy and a better world".

Donald A. Odell, Secretary, made the report of the Credentials Committee, during which a report was received from the registrar from each district as to the number of lay members in each district who had presented credentials and registered, and it was reported that those who had presented their credentials and registered were the members of the Conference. By common consent the report was approved. (See roll of Lay Delegates).

Rules of Order: The President stated that in accordance with the action taken at the Sixth Annual Lay Conference held June 15, 1937, a committee had been appointed to draft By-laws for submission to the Conference at the present Session, and that A. B. Stevens had been appointed chairman of that committee. A. B. Stevens then presented the report of the committee and tendered Rules of Order which had been prepared by the committee. He then moved the adoption of the Rules of Order as presented, and said motion was seconded by W. E. Daniels, of Grace Church, Long Beach. Daniel Scott moved an amendment to the original motion to the effect that in addition to the officers specified in the Rules of Order presented, there be a provision for one district vice-president from each of the five districts of the Southern California Annual Conference. Mr. A. B. Stevens, who made the original motion, accepted the amendment, and thereupon the question on the original motion as amended was called for. However, discussion ensued, and it appeared during the discussion that the San Diego-Phoenix District, in view of the large territory covered by the district, desired additional representation. Thereupon a motion was made by John Mott, of First Church, San Diego, and seconded by Tom Hurst, of the Creighton Church, Phoenix, Arizona, to amend the original motion made by A. B. Stevens so as to provide for the office of two district vice-presidents from the San Diego-Phoenix District, the original motion having provided for one district vice-president from each district only. The motion to amend the original motion was carried. Thereupon the original motion of A. B. Stevens as amended was unanimously carried, and the following Rules of Order of the Southern California Lay Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church were adopted:

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PREVENTION OF WAR

During the past Conference Year I have traveled 55,310 miles; and I have given 268 addresses, reaching audiences with a total attendance of 54,485, plus radio listeners. Much of my work has been of an educational character, lecturing before colleges, universities, professional schools and young people's institutes.

During the year I have acted as Pacific Coast Chairman of the Campaign for World Economic Cooperation; and I am now acting as Executive Secretary of the International Good-will Congress to be held in San Francisco, Nov. 6-11, 1938, under the auspices of the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches.

The churches are the backbone of the peace movement in the United States. Pastors are the leading promoters of peace sentiment and peace action. The Methodist Episcopal pastors have been especially cooperative in California in connection with my work.

METHODIST MEN

In Annual Session Monday, June 20, 1938, First Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles, Trinity Methodist Church, Los Angeles

Culminating the first year of activity under the banner of Methodist Men, the conference and district officers and several hundred laymen, met at an afternoon session in the Memorial Chapel of the First M. E. Church, to pay tribute to an organization, that has as its purpose, the building of the Kingdom of God and the uplifting of Christian ideals in the hearts of men of the church.

The business of the afternoon consisted of short talks by the conference officers, adoption of constitutional amendments, and reports of committees.

Outstanding among the events of the year, as reviewed by President Wray Andrew, was the fine Christian work of the Gospel Teams organized by George Little and the rehabilitation of the Roscoe Church, which was made possible by the contributions of the men of the conference and the expert management by L. E. Martin, chairman of the building committee.

The evening meeting was preceded by a banquet, which, because of the large number of reservations, was held in both the First M. E. and Trinity Church banquet rooms.

A parade of 500 men, headed by the Salvation Army band, marched in formation, from the First M. E. Church to the Trinity Church, there to combine forces for the program that followed.

Approximately 1,000 men listened to the stirring Christian messages of Roland Maxwell of Pasadena and Rev. Don Householder of Los Angeles. Hearts were warmed, new pledges were made and with the 1938-39 Objectives of Methodist Men in hand 1000 men adjourned, with but one thought in mind, that of making this next year an even more eventful one in the progress of Methodist Men.

Our hats are off to President Wray Andrew and his conference officers for their tireless efforts in furthering the interests of the men of the church.

The officers elected for the next year are as follows:

WOMAN'S AID FEDERATION

The annual meeting of the Woman's Aid Federation was held at Trinity Methodist Church on Thursday, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water presiding. Those in attendance completely filled the auditorium and after an inspiring devotional message brought us by Mrs. Robert Young, wife of our pastor at Taft, we listened with thanksgiving and humility to the accounts of the work done by our women through the Aid Societies as presented by the various District representatives.

These reports showed the number of Aids in the Conference to be 215 with a total membership of 16,787. These women have made 196,095 calls and brought to the treasury of the church $135,095.58, an advance over any previous year, surely a fine achievement.

The chairman of these districts are:

Fresno-Glendale	Mrs. Callister
Los Angeles.....	Mrs. F. J. Broad
Long Beach.....	Mrs. George Frampton
Pasadena	Mrs. F. C. Onion
San Diego	Mrs. R. O. Taylor

The Aid Federation has from its beginning especially sponsored the work for the Plaza, the Goodwill Industries, for the sailors at San Pedro and for the past two years the Spanish American Institute. The needs of these institutions of our church were presented respectfully by Miss Katherine Higgins, Mrs. Elaine Dudley, Dr. Fred Ross, and Mrs. Grow S. Brown.

For ten years the Federation has been most fortunate in having as its leader one of the most outstanding women in our church, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water who has given unsparingly of her time and unusual talent to forward the work of this organization. It would be impossible to discharge our debt of gratitude to her but as a small token of our regard Mrs. S. N. Bisbee in a few words of sincere appreciation presented to her a gift of $25.00, each District having its part in this evidence of their esteem. It is with deep regret that we surrender her fine leadership. We are fortunate to secure Mrs. Byron Wilson as our president for next year.

The inspirational address was brought us by Dr. Glenn R. Phillips who thrilled our hearts with his message on the theme "Myself and My God". No one who heard will forget the beautiful messages in song brought us by Miss Elmazian.

The nominating committee presented its report and the following officers were elected for the coming year:

We are glad to welcome those minister's wives who are new this year; those who come to us as brides and those who have been newly transferred, and we offer to them our assistance in making them feel "at home" and happy.

May we all return to our homes with a reborn sense of adventure, a greater reliance upon God, a deeper consecration to the great work of bringing in the Kingdom of God, and be glad for the great opportunities of growth, that are ours in a very special way.

By spiritual mindedness, we in no sense desire any denominational bias, influence, or teaching in the schools and colleges.

Believing that the leaders of all the great religious bodies in this state are in harmony with the above idea, and would gladly cooperate to focus it upon the public mind, we ask this committee to take appropriate steps to bring this subject to the attention of these leaders and ask their cooperation in making it effective, and also to study the question of week-day religious education and to make proper recommendations to the annual conference.

We the members of the former Southern California Conference wish to voice our deep appreciation to Dr. Jesse Lee Corley for the splendid, constructive leadership which for twenty years he has given this Conference as Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education. He has been a practical idealist. He has both dreamed and worked. He has been statesmanlike in his planning and indefatigable in his labors to consummate those plans. The result of such leadership, long continued, is—that this Conference is Christian education minded. We have become conscious that Christian education in its broad implications is the big business of the church. Under his direction the churches of this Conference are undertaking a five-year program that probably is not equalled anywhere in Methodism. We should remind ourselves that he has been instrumental in these twenty years in lifting the educational level of the entire church life of this Conference. The Church Schools of the Conference, the young people, the ministry, all owe him a debt of gratitude for the advance in knowledge and technique that have been achieved through his wise leadership.

But it should be noted that he has also been a decided force for church comity and effective church unity. He has had a part in Kingdom building in this state. The very significant world service cultivation programs carried on for a number of years in this Conference were made possible only by his dedication of time and ability to this work. In recognition of these facts we desire to record our gratitude to him for the intelligent, unselfish leadership he has exercised in the broad field of Christian education and we give thanks to God for him and his work.

Reports

EXTRACT FROM ACTION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1939

"It is moved that all reports originating in any of the Boards or Committees of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church but read in the sessions of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, be adopted and ordered printed in the Journal of the originating Conference."

(The same rule has been observed in the Arizona Conference.)

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

It is with an almost jubilant sense of hope and prospect that we come to the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of United Methodism with a definite, concrete, understandable task assigned us by our great communion. The new Commission on Evangelism that you have set up by the authority of the Uniting Conference feels its inadequacy as it faces this task. We are humbled as we catch a vision of the possibilities. But we are determined by the help of Christ, who never yet has failed, to give our best, that we may come back a year from now without shame to this body, and give our report.

The Uniting Conference authorized the setting up within every Annual Conference in Methodism an active Commission on Evangelism, which Commission should be responsible for the leadership within that conference in the distinctive field of Evangelism. This newly created Commission stands along side the Board of Education, the Board of Missions and other Boards and Commissions of the church and its activities in the promotion of a spiritual awakening throughout the territory covered by our conference is unrestricted, being required to answer only to the body that created it and the Christ under whose mastery it proceeds.

It is our purpose to cooperate to the fullest, with every agency and instrumentality of the church in the promotion of a spiritual heart warming in our congregations, and the engendering of evangelistic zeal on the part of our people.

We believe wholeheartedly in the whole cause of evangelism. It is our desire to promote church school or educational evangelism, personal evangelism, home evangelism, social evangelism and mass evangelism. It is not our desire to specialize, except upon that gospel and that activity that would bring sinful souls to the saving Christ.

We want to work in absolute harmony with the five year plan. Recognizing the important place evangelism has in that plan we desire to vitalize and make it effective. We wish to work with all other agencies in our conference, looking to a spiritual awakening and a revival of genuine experience in the hearts of the people.

We urgently appeal to our pastors and church leaders, for the fullest cooperation in the program, that we hope to enterprise, and invite suggestions and constructive criticism of our activities as we proceed.

We wish to secure as never before the fullest co-operation between minister and laymen in the promotion of evangelism. Not evangelism by ministers alone, not by laity alone, but a united effort to vitalize our churches in their spiritual and redemptive life.

It is our conviction that the world and the church stand in need of a heart searching, a heart purging and a heart healing as possibly never before. Strife and greed and sordid sins of every nature, are playing havoc with humanity. We believe that the time has come to call men back to the fountain of healing and to the supernatural source of transformation so eloquently proclaimed by the Methodist fathers. Human nostrums have thus far failed us. We have found no healing for our souls in the panaceas of men. We call our pastors and people to come aside with us to a place of prayer, that there may begin in us a supernatural expression of the power of God to save, when all else has failed.

It is our purpose to conduct an aggressive campaign of evangelism of every Christian character within the territory covered by this conference. We appeal to the Conference for that financial support and moral backing, without which success would be made most difficult indeed. We ask above all things that you will pray for us as we proceed.

R. P. SHULER.

METHOD OF ORGANIZING BOARDS OF LAY ACTIVITIES

(As adopted by the Lay Delegates, and later by the Southern California-Arizona Conference.)

WHEREAS: The Disciplinary procedure for the appointment of Lay Leaders and the selection of Boards of Lay Activities does not provide for the immediate filling of such Boards and positions where none already exist; and

WHEREAS: It is the sense of this Southern California Lay Conference that organized lay activities should be initiated without unnecessary delay; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That we recommend to the Successor Conference that the following "Short Plan for Organization of Lay Activities" be adopted and followed for the selection of Lay Leaders and Boards of Lay Activities, such Plan to be recognized and employed only as a temporary expedient, to be discarded as soon as the Disciplinary provisions shall, through the creation of prescribed organizational facilities, become possible of application.

SHORT PLAN FOR ORGANIZATION OF LAY ACTIVITIES

1. Selection of Conference Lay Leader

The District Superintendents will, during the present Conference, nominate one Layman for the office of Conference Lay Leader. Opportunity will be given for further nominations from the floor by the Lay Members of the Conference. Election will be by Lay Members.

Comment: The Discipline provides that the Conference Lay Leader shall be nominated by the Conference Board of Lay Activities. The difficulty is that no such Board exists at this time.

2. Selection of Charge Lay Leaders

Each Official Board should elect its Charge Lay Leader not later than September 11, 1939. This will enable District organization to be effected without undue delay.

3. Selection of District Lay Leaders and District Associate Lay Leaders.

The District Superintendent of each District, in collaboration with the Conference Lay Leader, will name a Committee to nominate the District Lay Leader and two District Associate Lay Leaders. He shall call a meeting of the Charge Lay Leaders not earlier than September 15, 1939, and not later than September 30, 1939, to receive such nominations and to elect such District Lay Leader and Associates and to make suitable plans for Lay Activities for the year.

4. Organization of the Conference Board of Lay Activities.

The Conference Lay Leader will be expected to convene the Conference Board of Lay Activities for organization not later than October 15, 1939.

Comment: The Conference Board of Lay Activities consists of the Conference Lay Leader, the District Lay Leaders, two Associate Lay Leaders from each District, and the District Superintendents.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Secretary of the Southern California Lay Conference be instructed to furnish a copy of these resolutions each to the Bishop, the District Superintendents, and the Secretary of the Successor Conference, and at the proper time to have the Plan presented to the Successor Conference for consideration.

EVERETT SHAW.

MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE NUMBER 1: PENSION RATE

WHEREAS, there is great unevenness and inequity arising from differences in resources, annuity responsibility, and in apportionment and annuity rates, for Conference Claimants throughout the Methodist Church, and particularly among the Annual Conferences under the administration of the Illinois Corporation;

THEREFORE, the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Church respectfully memorializes the General Conference of the said Methodist Church, which will meet in April and May, 1940, to provide such legislation as will permit the Board of Pensions, or either of the Corporations administering pension matters throughout the jurisdictions composing them, to make a level apportionment throughout all Conferences under their several administrations sufficient to create a uniform basic annuity rate of not less than $5.00 per service year for all Conferences, said rate to be supplemented as each Annual Conference may find it possible so to do.

NUMBER 2: BIBLICAL INSTRUCTION

WHEREAS, we feel that the indifference and neglect of Biblical instruction is having an evil effect upon the rising generation, that it is undermining the moral character, economic integrity and the very foundations of our democratic institutions;

WE, THEREFORE, request the General Conference to take into consideration the need for a more general and thorough instruction of the Bible and its teachings, and that measures be recommended to amend the constitutions of the various states and of the United States, with reference to clauses restricting the teaching of Bible in the public schools, and that instruction in the Bible as history and literature be introduced into the curriculum of the public schools.

NUMBER 3: NATURALIZATION LAWS

Be it hereby resolved that the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference present a memorial to the General Conference of 1940 requesting legislation by the Congress of the United States to eliminate racial ineligibility to citizenship and the exclusion system, based thereon, by the enactment of the following provisions:

1. That laws providing naturalization to citizenship in the United States shall apply to all aliens alike, irrespective of race, color or place of birth.

2. The provisions governing Quota Immigrants from European and certain other countries shall be extended to include all persons native to Asia and the Islands adjacent thereto.

3. No person, otherwise admissible by law, shall be excluded or prevented from entering the United States, or be ineligible to citizenship, on account of race, color, or place of birth.

Be it further resolved that the above resolution be submitted as a Memorial to the next General Conference of the Methodist Church.

NUMBER 4: PENSION LAY EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS, there are lay men and lay women who are giving full time and lifetime service to the Church; and

WHEREAS, it is impossible for these lay men to receive government pension benefits for this service; and

WHEREAS, we have made provision for the ordained workers, the ministers, we petition the General Conference to pass suitable legislation that these workers for the Church and the Kingdom, whether in Conference positions or the local Church, may have suitable pension provision.

NUMBER 5: WORLD PEACE

We request the General Conference of 1940 to provide for a Commission on World Peace, representative of the entire church, and to make adequate provision for its financial support. And, to provide further for a Committee on World Peace in each Jurisdictional Conference, Annual Conference, and Local Church.

NUMBER 6: TENURE OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

In our City work we find ourselves handicapped by lack of continuous supervision:

We hereby petition the General Conference to amend the legislation in paragraph 204, sec. 3, of the Uniting Conference Discipline, so as to permit a Bishop to reappoint a District Superintendent for a period not to exceed ten years, in cities of over 300,000 population. Provided that the Bishop shall take the initiative by presenting the matter to the Conference and such approval shall be given by a two-thirds majority vote taken by ballot without debate.

NUMBER 7: YOUTH WEEKLY

We hereby request that the General Conference of 1940 make provision for a National Weekly Youth Publication which shall be in addition to any monthly youth publication now in existence; this weekly publication to include current up-to-date material to stimulate and guide the youth of the Methodist Church in their program of the Christian life and activity.

NUMBER 8: RELIEF

WHEREAS, the term "Relief" is used in the pension legislation passed by the Uniting Conference, to apply to special aid given to Conference Claimants, and said term has come to have a different connotation in the mind of most people, be it therefore

RESOLVED, that the California-Arizona Conference respectfully memorialize the General Conference of The Methodist Church, which will meet in April and May, 1940, to change the term "Relief" to "Special Aid" or some other more desirable term.

NUMBER 9: MISSIONS AND MISSION CONFERENCES

WHEREAS, under the present legislation, the Annual Conferences in which members of Missions and Mission Conferences retire are responsible for their annuity claims; and

WHEREAS, the work of said ministers is not confined to the territory of the Conferences in which they hold their membership but is entirely Missionary in character;

THEREFORE, the Southern California-Arizona Conference of the Methodist Church respectfully memorializes the General Conference of the said Methodist Church which will meet in April and May, 1940, to provide legislation which will make the responsibility for men serving in Missions and Mission Conferences rest upon the whole Church through cooperation of the Board of Home Missions and Board of Pensions rather than remain the responsibility of the Conference in which they hold membership.

NUMBER 10: ORDINATION UNDER MISSIONARY RULE

In many of our Western Conferences, men are in remote sections who need to exercise the full work of the ministry.

We hereby petition your Honorable Body to amend paragraph 247 of the Uniting Conference Discipline dealing with the requirements for ordaining Elders "Under the Missionary Rule," so as to conform with the similar provisions under requirements for Deacon "Under the Missionary Rule" by adding the provision, in line 5 after the words "Foreign Missions," "or to a remote field in any Conference," so that the entire paragraph shall read:

"Those who are members of, or have been received on Trial in an Annual Conference; and have been appointed to a Chaplaincy in the Army or Navy, or to a Foreign Mission, or to a remote field in any Conference, or to the pastorate of a church in a foreign country outside of a Mission or Conference, or to a Mission among foreign people within an English-speaking Conference."

NUMBER 11: ANNUITY RESPONSIBILITY

We respectfully call your attention to the following facts:

During the past twenty-five years there have been transferred into the Western Conferences, including the Southern California-Arizona Conference, a large number of ministers with a high number of accrued service years.

These men were transferred by authority of the presiding Bishops, the Conferences, in accordance with our Discipline, having no authority or recourse in the matter.

Yet with these years of service came the responsibility to pay all these years of service when the men retired, no matter where the service was rendered.

Two General Conferences have taken action to rectify this injustice, the latest one being the adoption of the principle of Divided Annuity Responsibility, by which these Western Conferences have been relieved of responsibility for years served in other Conferences.

In view of the above facts we respectfully request your Honorable Body to either continue in force the Divided Annuity Legislation, with such modification in application as may be needful.

Or, that other provision, by flat amount or otherwise, may be made that the Western Conferences may continue to receive funds for service years served in other Conferences.

Note: The above memorials were approved by the Conference with the exception of number six which was defeated by Conference vote.

RESOLUTIONS

Methodism has reached a new day. The spirit of unity and goodwill that has characterized this Conference session has been unparalleled. When the Methodist Men came together on the initial day of the Conference they gave indication of the man power now enlisted for service. The spirit of the Fathers has found a new birth. John Wesley spake anew through Bishop Baker and F. G. H. Stevens in their heart warming challenges. Wray Andrew, Ray Winter and George Little were living witnesses of what men may be when their hearts are touched with the living fire. Bishop Martin brought the day to a fitting climax with his soul-stirring message.

The united marching host in the Wednesday evening parade was a dream picture of the Christian forces that are ultimately to plant the banners of our Christ on the world's outposts. The enthusiasm with which the 5000 people participated in the Mass Meeting and the Declaration of Union bespeaks an awakened Church with an absorbing passion. All hearts were fused in true Christian fellowship, and all denominational lines and prejudices were swept into the discard in the Holy Communion Thursday morning, and in the annealing Conference following in which the new organization was consummated and the Southern California-Arizona Conference launched on the great adventure.

The Women's meeting which packed the Methodist Church gave another demonstration of the harmony and goodwill that everywhere prevails.

In spite of the fact that the leadership of the Conference has been compelled to pilot the way on an uncharted sea, business has moved with dispatch, thanks to the committees charged with responsibility in advance. We are deeply indebted to those who had in hand the arrangements and entertainment. They anticipated our every need. The Churches of the other denominations—Congregational, Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian have shown a most brotherly spirit by placing their commodious churches at our disposal, while the Moore Memorial and the First Methodist Churches have spared no pains in ministering to the comfort and convenience of all. The pastors who have acted as host to the Conference, George McDonald and A. T. O'Rear, have been the very epitome of courtesy, and the corps of secretaries and assistants have placed us under a debt of gratitude. W. C. Botkin, the retiring secretary, is deserving of special commendation for the prompt and accurate service he has rendered the Conference over a period of years. The other Conference secretaries, statisticians and treasurers have denied themselves much that they might serve the Conference in a way that has made for highest efficiency and also conserved the maximum amount of time. It has not been an easy task because of the complicity of arrangements necessitated by the double sessions of the Predecessor and Successor Conferences. The programs and addresses this year have not only measured up to the high standard of previous years, but there has been the added interest and enthusiasm in that they have been built around the thing of prime interest to all just now—Unification, and all that involves in the issues of the new day. The spirit of the Conference has been happily interpreted and directed through the combined leadership of Bishops Baker and Martin. We felicitate ourselves in the assignment of Bishop Baker to the California Area of the Western Jurisdiction with episcopal residence in Los Angeles. This, we believe, meets the universal approval of the men of the Area. At the same time we congratulate Bishop Martin and the Omaha Area on the assignment of Bishop Martin to that great Area in the South Central Jurisdiction. Their success is thus assured. We shall ever be linked to them with love ties as we mingle our prayers for Divine guidance in the expanding work of a great Church in a needy world.

Dr. Paul W. Quillian of Houston, Texas has been a real key-noter for the Conference. He has stirred our hearts profoundly with his compelling messages. We have been lifted into heavenly places, even as the collections have been "lifted" from night to night. Dr. Robert G. McCutchan, editor of the New Methodist Hymnal, has been the right man in the right place as he has interpreted the stately hymns the United Church will sing across the years. Bishop Edwin F. Lee, fresh from the Orient, brought a note of encouragement as well as an urgent call from the far-flung battle-line. Bishop John W. Robinson with keen eye and ringing voice directed our attention to the virgin fields still awaiting us in India. Bishops Locke and Mitchell have also honored the Conference with their presence. The Superintendents of the various Districts within the bounds of the New Conference have given concise reports touching the achievements and the unmet needs of their respective fields. Unification makes many readjustments in District boundaries and personnel necessary. Dr. Tully C. Knowles was a welcome representative of the College of the Pacific. The General Boards of the Church have been ably represented although the time allowed each speaker was limited.

Vernon M. McCombs again captured the Conference with a dramatic presentation of the work of the Latin American Mission, this in turn afforded a mighty stimulus to the total missionary spirit of the Conference.

In the Ordination service of Sunday afternoon when six deacons and nine elders were given the sanction of the Church to their call to holy service, all present were given a new appraisal of the signification of such a call and consecration. The parsonage babies presented for baptism twined tendrils of love about the hearts of the ministrants and the assembled witnesses.

We believe the emphasis given by the Program Committee to the three great days in which the Methodist Men, the Methodist Women, and the Methodist Young People in turn had their innings was a very happy arrangement and made for increased attendance and interest by giving prominence to the particular phases of work undertaken by each group, at the same time keeping emphasis on the unity of our work—all for each, and each for all.

The sanctuary has been adorned and made fragrant as well as beautiful by the floral offerings of Mr. and Mrs. Armacost. Where beauty is, God is. The organists and choir leaders and the various church choirs and soloists have added worshipful zest to every public service. We remember that a singing church is a conquering church.

We express our high appreciation of the splendid service of the City of Long Beach in the cooperation of the traffic officers, the Municipal Board and the telephone service and in placing at the disposal of the Conference the Municipal Auditorium for three great services and in furnishing the programs for the same.

We would not fail to mention the splendid publicity given by the local papers, and their generous estimate of the significance of such a Conference to the entire community. The hotels and homes, the restaurants and cafeterias have afforded accommodations such as the pioneer fathers never knew. That, together with the ideal weather and the choice location here beside the sea, has made the days of our sojourn delightful indeed. We trust it has been stimulating and not surfeiting, for again we hear the call of the far fields. Let us now individually gird our souls with high resolve as we move out to the task than which none is more enthralling or compelling.

MINISTERS WIVES ASSOCIATION

Southern California-Arizona Conference of The Methodist Church

The meeting of the Ministers Wives Association of the Southern California-Arizona Conference was held on the afternoon of June 30, 1939, in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A., at Long Beach, followed by a social hour, arranged by Mrs. George McDonald and the women of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach.

Mrs. Clyde Crist, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. George Cliff led in prayer. The group sang, "Blest be the tie that binds." Mrs. Crist told of the organization of the Ministers Wives Association forty years ago, by some of our leaders. This year four members have passed to their reward; among them Mrs. F. S. Woodcock, widow of a charter member of the Southern California Conference. The President extended a welcome to the members who came from the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted. The acting treasurer reported a balance of $12.37 in the treasury.

The report of the Resolutions committee was read and accepted:

Resolutions for the Ministers Wives Association

WHEREAS, we wish to thank our Heavenly Father for his guidance during this past year in the joining of our heretofore divided forces into one united body, may our new friendships in this association make possible a real growth in the work of the Kingdom of God, and,

WHEREAS, we are deeply grateful to Mrs. George McDonald and Mrs. James Roberts, our charming hostesses, and the women of the First Church of Long Beach in making this afternoon an enjoyable one, and for all the kindness and thoughtfulness which has been shown during our stay, and,

WHEREAS, we wish to thank Mrs. Clyde Crist, our president, and the other officers for their services during the past year, and we are happy to have as our honored guests Mrs. William C. Martin, wife of Bishop Martin from the Omaha Area, and Mrs. Paul W. Quillian, of Houston, Texas, the charming wife of our Conference speaker, and,

WHEREAS, to Mrs. James Chamberlin Baker, wife of our Resident Bishop, we wish to extend our thanks for her inspiring message, which is always greatly appreciated, and to Mrs. Cloyd Gustafson, who has entertained us from time to time with her lovely music, and to the Young Women's Christian Association goes our thanks for their kindness in giving us the use of their building this afternoon, and,

WHEREAS, we extend hearty congratulations to those who have entertained little strangers this year, and,

WHEREAS, our hearts are saddened as we think of the loss of four of our group this year. We shall miss them—Mrs. Alice Gould Tilroe, Mrs. F. S. Woodcock, Mrs. L. G. Spring and Mrs. L. O. Bostwick, and,

WHEREAS, we are glad to welcome those ministers' wives who are new, those who come to us as brides, and those who have newly transferred, and we offer our assistance in making them feel at home and know the warm companionship existing in this group, and,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, may we appreciate our position, and be a real "help-meet" to our partner, and may we return to our various homes with renewed spiritual power, ever alert to the responsibilities that are ours, realizing that the higher we climb, the broader our horizon becomes.

MRS. CHARLES M. BACON,
MRS. ROLLAND M. TINCHER, Jr.
MRS. ROY D. FORD.

The Nominating Committee made the following report:

"President, Mrs. Stanley McKee; Vice President, Mrs. C. M. Aker; Secretary, Mrs. Louis Fisk; Treasurer, Mrs. Noel Le Roque.

"Resolutions Committee: Mrs. R. K. Swenerton, Mrs. B. J. Martin, Mrs. Roy Ford.

"Nominating Committee: Mrs. Jesse Lee Corley, Mrs. Earl Carter, Mrs. Alec Nichols.

"Program Committee: Mrs. Robert McKibben, Mrs. E. P. O'Rear, Mrs. Carl Soule."

It was moved and seconded that we accept the report of the nominating committee, and that the secretary be instructed to cast the ballot for their election. Motion carried. Ballot was cast.

Mrs. Crist introduced Mrs. McDonald, our hostess, and thanked her for her part in planning the afternoon program.

The traditional part of the program, that of introducing new members and announcing new babies, was in charge of Mrs. Walter Buckner. She introduced Mrs. James Lyons, wife of the district superintendent of the Los Angeles district of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who asked the women of that former church to stand and be presented. She announced the names of Mrs. G. O. Rector, Mrs. Francis Cook, Mrs. Ray Cook and Mrs. Eustace Anderson as transfers into this conference; and the birth of Bruce Conrad Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook. Mrs. Lyons expressed her thanks for the welcome given.

Mrs. Edwin W. Stricker introduced Mrs. F. H. Essert, Mrs. Eugene Shackleford, Mrs. Theodore Leen, Mrs. Tyler Thompson, Mrs. Marvin Johnson, Mrs. Stanley Creighton, Mrs. Arthur Harrington. She announced two new babies: Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kingman, and David Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burgess.

Mrs. Paul Huebner had neither brides nor new babies to announce.

Mrs. F. G. H. Stevens announced the birth of Carolyn Joan—at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Winston Trever, and presented two brides, Mrs. David Loofburrow and Mrs. Frank Butterworth.

Mrs. James Dunning announced Marcia Rae, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ford, and Douglas Markham, to home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Reisner, and introduced Mrs. Leonidas Brock, a bride, and Mrs. Burl Long, who came by transfer.

Mrs. Buckner introduced Mrs. Thatcher Jordan and Mrs. David Hasell as transfers, and Mrs. Orrin Smith and Mrs. Maurice Singer as brides. She also told of the arrival of Carolyn Louise to Mr. and Mrs. George Warmer, Jr.

Mrs. Lyons presented Mrs. William C. Martin, the wife of Bishop Martin, and Mrs. Paul W. Quillian, wife of the Conference speaker.

Two beautiful numbers were sung by Mrs. C. V. Gustafson, accompanied by Miss Esther Dalton.

In her own charming manner, Mrs. James C. Baker, wife of our presiding Bishop, spoke on the subject, "The Place of Women's Work in the new Methodist Church." She gave this as the highlight of the Uniting Conference, and told of the greater opportunities for work in the new church. She urged that we enlist the Young Women in the great work of the church.

The business meeting was adjourned, to be followed by music and refreshments arranged by the women of the host church.

MRS. ROLLO E. DUNHAM, Secretary.

PACIFIC CONFERENCE LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

James L. Lyons, District Superintendent

We are thankful to Almighty God that we may record the fact that not a minister or any member of a parsonage home has passed away during this Conference year. This has been a year of transition, resulting in a measure of uncertainty regarding the future. After an honorable record of eighty-nine years, the preachers and members of the Pacific Conference were to be separated, yet there has been no let down in their fidelity to all of the duties assigned to them.

The general state of the District is good; 323 received on Profession of Faith; 286 received by Certificate and otherwise. Special evangelistic services of some nature have been held in every charge in the District, with three exceptions.

It should be borne in mind that all statistics are based upon a Conference year of eight months. A full Conference year would add approximately 33 and 1-3 per cent to most items. $31,635.00 was paid on Ministerial Support; $8,403.00 was assumed on General and Conference Benevolences, with $8,539.00 paid. The total raised for all purposes in the District was $94,314.00.

The value of Church property within the bounds of the District is $827,950.00. The Church Schools have an enrollment of 6,714.

Exceptional interest is shown in the Young People's program. There has been a remarkable growth in the Young Adult work. It is worthy of note that the first Young Adult group organized in the former Southern Methodist Church was organized within the bounds of this District. Plans have been completed for the usual summer Assemblies. The Golden Jubilee Celebration held at Trinity Church was well attended and highly inspirational.

There are twenty-one charges within the District, and also twenty-one Adult Auxiliaries of the Women's Missionary Society. The present membership is 1255. It is unusual that the number enrolled in Mission Study classes was larger than the entire membership, the number enrolled in these classes being 1322. The Conference Treasurer's report shows that a total of $11,940.00 was raised by the Women's Conference this year.

Homer Toberman's Settlement House and Clinic is doing an exceptionally fine piece of work. The program of work is very comprehensive, but the need of additional equipment is most urgent.

The laymen are not fully organized, but many have already united with the Methodist Men. Under the new legislation there will doubtless be a large growth in the membership and activities of this organization.

Two new buildings have been completed and occupied this year. The new church at Epworth, Los Angeles, is not only a beautiful structure but was thoughtfully planned. With the completion of the Educational unit it will meet every requirement of a modern Church plant. This same church has also within the last two months purchased a splendid parsonage, and the pastor and his family are happy in their new home.

A unique building has been completed and dedicated at Norwalk. It is a commodious recreational hall and will mean much in developing the proper social life for the young people of the community.

May I express by personal appreciation to Bishop James C. Baker, the Cabinet and brethren of the former Southern California Conference, for their splendid spirit, and kindly cooperation in every phase of the work, and in every contact made. I am sure it will not seem amiss if I also express our appreciation of Bishop William C. Martin for his wise, brotherly leadership during this short but significant year in our Church life in California.

This report is brought to a close with mingled emotions, with a certain sadness as I bid farewell to the preachers and my brothers and sisters of the District, whose loyalty and consideration, both personally and officially, will ever be remembered with deep gratitude. However, above this, we rejoice in the high anticipation of a better tomorrow. God is good, and we know that He has set before the United Church "an open door which no man can shut."

My prayer for the brethren of both the old and new Conferences is this:

"The Lord bless thee and keep thee,

The Lord make His face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace."

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES L. LYONS

As your Board we are closing our books and on motion all funds remaining in our hands will be transferred to the Board of Education of the Successor Conference with the request that the money be used for young people's work in Arizona. This request is made by reason of the fact that we have used much of their money for general purposes of the Board during the last Conference year.

We request the Board of Education of the Successor Conference to retain the Rev. E. Clyde Smith in educational work in Arizona because of his experience and ability in this particular area.

As we bring to an end the work of your Board of Christian Education of the former M. E. Church, South, Arizona Conference, we feel the need of pledging ourselves anew to the work of Christian Education in this section of our country. As we go into the larger church, let us renew our efforts to make in our local communities the very largest contribution possible to the building of the Kingdom of God through our churches and church schools.

Respectfully submitted,

S. DOUGLAS WALTERS, President
CLELL C. GRAY, Secretary.

THE PHOENIX-TUCSON DISTRICT ARIZONA CONFERENCE

O. L. Walker, District Superintendent

Bishops Baker and Martin, and members of the Southern California Arizona Conference:

Dear Brethren: I beg leave to submit to you my report concerning the last Conference year in the Arizona Conference, with a brief statement of progress for three Conference years.

I desire to report on the work of the pastors and laymen of the several charges of the Conference:

Avondale: Rev. T. V. Ludlow has opened a field of labor to our attention which should present a challenge to the entire Successor Conference. He has not only served the resident population in a creditable manner, but has been a friend and helper to the homeless migrants. He and his helpers, including Miss White, deserve the highest commendation. Benevolences paid in full.

Bowie-San Simon: Rev. M. H. Stroup has led his people at Bowie and San Simon to many victories this year. He has had a good gain in Church Membership; a splendid year with the young people, and all finances in full again.

Camp Verde: Rev. Eric Folsom has shown himself a true social and spiritual leader this year. The Church shows a gain in membership, in finances, and in spiritual life. All financial obligations paid in full.

Casa Grande-Coolidge: Rev. J. T. Redmon has done the best work at Casa Grande and Coolidge known to the writer. His churches have grown in membership, spiritual graces and in a broader vision of the Kingdom of God. All finances paid out in full.

Claypool-Ray: Rev. A. M. Bennett has completed a very satisfactory year at both Claypool and Ray. Some very substantial gains have been made along all lines. Were it not for an unfortunate purging of the roll, a gain in membership would be shown. All finances paid in full.

Duncan: So far as the District Superintendent has been able to ascertain, Rev. Paul Tripp has done the best work ever done at Duncan. Gains have been made along all fronts and finances are paid in full.

Elsy-Taltic Mission: This is a field of labor set up as an experiment. There is no way of gauging results. However, we feel that some good has been accomplished. We regret that lack of Missionary support forces us to abandon the work. Rev. H. L. DuFree was our missionary pastor there last year.

Liberty: Rev. O. B. Annis has done splendid work at Liberty. Gains are registered along all lines. Finances are out in full. We regret that ill health makes it expedient for Brother Annis to ask for the Superannuate relation.

Nogales-Patagonia: This field has been fraught with some difficulties this year caused by the Federal Government's policy of shifting Customs officials. Early in the year it was apparent that the financial goals could not be met. However, Brother W. R. McGaugh has worked faithfully and most efficiently at the task, with results most gratifying. Gain along all other lines are in evidence. Benevolences are paid in full. No man is more dear to his people than Brother McGaugh is to the people of Nogales.

Parker: No man in our Conference is more beloved than Rev. Geo. E. McClure. He has led Parker to many high points of achievement during his years on this charge. There has been growth in all departments of our Church at Parker. All finances are paid in full.

Peoria: It is apparent to all who know our situation at Peoria that it is unwise to attempt to carry on an independent charge there. Because of its proximity to Glendale it is deemed wise that the pastor there be asked to supply the Peoria charge until such time as a better arrangement can be made. Brother Fred Wilson, our supply pastor at this point, has done as well as could be expected of any young man who could give only part of his time to the work. Benevolences 90 per cent paid; salary in full.

Phoenix-Bethel: Rev. C. C. Gray has the highest esteem of all his people. His work has been thorough and efficient. He had led Bethel to an ever-enlarging conception of the Church and Her work for mankind. Gains are in evidence on all lines. Finances are paid in full.

Phoenix-Broadway: Our pastor, Rev. W. Hanford Miller, has brought Broadway from a pit of despondency to the heights of faith and daring adventure. His people are growing in grace and in knowledge under his wise leadership. His finances are out in full.

Capitol: One has but to sit in the chapel of worship at Capitol to know that both pastor and people are filled with the Spirit of God. Brother C. B. Holland's achievements there merit the highest commendation. The Church is growing in numbers, breadth of vision, and in spirit. All finances are out in full.

Central: Our pastor at Central, Dr. W. H. Coleman, has been a great inspiration and blessing to our people at Central Church. Reports indicate a genuine growth along many lines during his four years in that great church. He has made himself felt for the Kingdom of God in the life of Arizona's sunlit capitol. He has reported each year finances in full. The same is true for this year.

Margaret Brooks Memorial: Rev. Ray E. Davidson has completed his second year at this beautiful little church. He is greatly beloved by his good people and they have faithfully followed his wise leadership to many great and worthy victories. The church is making notable progress in every way. All finances are paid in full.

Prescott: Our pastor at Prescott, Rev. S. D. Walters, has enjoyed seven years of continuous, victorious success with his charming and loyal people. His popularity has grown with the years and they are pleading for his return for the eighth year. Gains are pronounced along all lines, and finances are paid in full.

Safford: Rev. R. Orman Roberts has been a real shepherd to his beloved flock at Safford for four years. Amid many discouraging problems he has never lost his faith. His quadrennium has been a real success. This year many gains have been made, and his finances are also out in full. Our interest, prayers, and great expectations follow Brother Roberts to his new field of labor.

Scottsdale: Rev. G. M. Marshall has done splendid work at Scottsdale, and is enjoying the esteem and appreciation of his people. Owing to the hazards connected with growing cotton and citrus fruits, this charge has not paid its salary in full. However, all Benevolences are paid in full, and gains are to be seen in all other phases of the work.

Tucson-University Church: Our new pastor, Dr. R. E. Dickinson, was assigned to this great church March first of the present year. Upon his arrival the situation was somewhat discouraging. But in this brief period of about three months the goals of the year have been fully attained. All finances are paid in full and the church is rapidly gaining in poise, vision and faith. The outlook for the future is bright and comforting.

St. Johns-Menlo Park: Brother C. L. Cartwright is much loved by his people on this charge. He is leading them in a statesmanlike manner to a bigger and better day. All Benevolences and the salary are paid in full.

Warren: Dr. Glenn E. Smiley has done outstanding work at Warren. His congregations have grown. His work with young people has been very gratifying, and his evangelistic efforts have borne genuine fruit. All finances are out in full.

Some Concluding Observations: A. As the writer retires from the Superintendency he desires to express his appreciation of the loyalty and fine support of both ministers and laymen. As the following facts of progress are enumerated he wishes to say: Were it not for these true yoke-fellows in Christ these successes could not be reported. In a very special way credit should be given to Dr. W. J. Sims and to Rev. S. F. Redman. These men laid foundations which are deep and broad.

B. Within the past three years these things have been accomplished:

1. Salaries have been raised from an average of $1180 to $1830 per pastor including presiding elders and other paid Conference officers.

2. We had twelve men drawing less than $1000 per year. Now we have no married man drawing next year less than $1200.

3. 41 per cent of our pastors had the A.B. degree or more. Now 60 per cent of the pastors are men with the A.B. degree or more. Thus degree mens' percentage in the Conference has been raised 19 per cent or an increase on the whole of 49 per cent.

4. Good gains have been registered in Church Membership despite the purging of the roll habit of some of our men.

5. Church debts have been substantially decreased and properties have been improved without further indebtedness.

6. In many churches where the Board of Stewards were predominantly women and the men remained aloof, boards of active men have been set up.

C. During these three years your retiring District Superintendent has delivered over five hundred sermons and addresses; conducted approximately two hundred Quarterly Conferences, visited in over 80 per cent of the homes of the officials, read about one hundred good books, and traveled approximately 126,000 miles, or a distance equal to more than five times the distance around the earth. Also during these 32 months there has been no fund for traveling expenses and the salary has the distinction of being the lowest in Southern Methodism. But, in and through it all, your District Superintendent has been happy, and rejoices in the fact that the Church has given him the privilege of having a small part in these matters of growth and progress, as well as fellowship with as heroic group of Methodists as he has ever known. He rejoices in the fact that he has seen the day of a better paid pastor in each of our charges, and that his successor will enjoy a salary of $3300, plus $1200 for traveling expenses.

Reports of Boards and Committees

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Since our conference year is closing earlier, we have received no report from our Publishing Agents, as to their volume of business since our last Conference Session, or the amount to be distributed to our Superannuates.

However, we rejoice to know that our great publishing interests continue to prosper, and to produce vast quantities of enriching literature for all ages of our people.

Our Church School literature cannot be surpassed, if equaled. We respectfully urge all our Churches to make full use of this most excellent literature. We would call special attention to some of these publications, as follows: "The Christian Home," that should be read in every household. We rejoice to know that there is an increasing appreciation of it and demand for it. Let all our young people be encouraged in using "The Epworth Highroad." In this day of so much vicious literature, and so much that is cheap, shallow and frivolous, coming through the air and by social contact, there is a distinct need for the purifying, enriching and inspiring culture contained in this great Youth Publication. We also heartily commend the "Elementary Teacher," and "The Church School Magazine," together with all other publications coming from the Editorial Department of our Board of Education.

Too much could not be said in praise of our "Christian Advocate" and "World Outlook." To all who read them, they speak eloquently for themselves. Let every pastor and Church be diligent in increasing their circulation.

We are thankful to note the rapidly growing demand for "The Upper Room." This demand indicates both the awakening heart-hunger among the people for spiritual nourishment, and the high quality of mental and spiritual culture on every page of this truly great devotional publication. We desire to heartily commend Dr. Emmons, and others in authority, for refusing to mar this rich gem of devotion by accepting for its pages advertising at any price.

We are, also, coming into an additional rich heritage as we are to share in the splendid Christian Literature of the former Methodist Episcopal Church.

Above all, let us magnify the value and use of The Holy Bible.

WM. H. COLEMAN, Chairman.

BOARD CHURCH EXTENSION

To the Bishop and members of the Arizona Annual Conference in session at Long Beach, California, June 28, 1939.
Dear Brethren:

We, your Board of Church Extension, submit the following report:

First: From the sale of our church at Cottonwood we are due to receive some $250.00, which amount we direct to be turned to our successors in the united church.

Second: From the aforesaid amount we recommend that our said successors grant a donation of $50.00 to the Casa Grande congregation to aid in payment for certain improvements made on the parsonage.

Third: We recommend that this body rescind our action of 1937 whereby we established a loan fund.

Fourth: We grant to Coolidge Church a donation of $50.00 to be applied on their debt to this Board.

Fifth: Our treasurer reports that we have $35.00 at our disposal from current receipts. Of this amount we recommend that our church at Casa Grande be granted $25.00 for the payment of street paving debt; and that the Bowie Church be granted the remaining $10.00 to aid in reroofing the parsonage.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. MILLER, Chairman

O. B. ANNIS, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

To the Bishop and members of the eighteenth session of the Arizona Annual Conference, June 28, 1939, we your Conference Board of Missions make the following report:

During the year, through the Conference Evangelist, Rev. T. F. Hughes, we have cooperated in every way possible in evangelistic services.

Through the Conference Missionary Secretary, Rev. C. L. Cartwright, and the District Missionary Secretaries, Rev. G. M. Marshall and Rev. Glenn E. Smiley, we have cooperated with the General Board of Missions, the Presiding Elder and the Local Churches in Missionary Education and promotion.

The Chairman of the Board and the Conference Missionary Secretary represented the Board at the General Missionary Council in San Antonio, Texas, last January and brought echoes and reports of that great Council to the District Conference and Missionary Institute.

The Board has been pleased to see growing interest in the world missionary program of the Church as manifested in increased giving to Missions and other Benevolent causes, and in increasing numbers of study classes learning more about the total Christian Missionary enterprise.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, the Committee on Resolutions, are happy to bring you the following report:

We are deeply indebted to all who have contributed to this, the eighteenth Arizona Annual Conference, held in the Moore Memorial Methodist Church in Long Beach, California, and wish to especially express our appreciation and gratitude to Dr. A. T. O'Rear, our Conference host, and representative of the officials of the City of Long Beach.

We wish to express to Bishop Wm. C. Martin our appreciation and affection for the fine manner in which he has presided over this, the final Conference of the Arizona Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and also to express our deep regret of his transfer to the Omaha area, recognizing that their gain of this princely and gracious man of Christ, is our loss. And too, we are deeply appreciative of the gracious presence of Mrs. Martin.

And to our most excellent Presiding Elder, Rev. O. L. Walker, we express our deep and lasting affection and appreciation for the splendid work that he has done, not only for the past Conference year but for the entire three years he has served us.

For the manifest spirit of brotherliness of the men of the former Methodist Episcopal Church in this area, and their willingness to be more than just and fair, we are sincerely grateful, and we do trust that such a spirit of mutual love and fellowship will continue to exist in Methodism in this great southwest, and that through our coordinated efforts we shall greatly advance the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

S. D. WALTERS, Chairman

R. ORMAN ROBERTS

F. H. CRIST, Secretary.

REPORTS—BOARD OF STEWARDS

George B. Cliff presented the following resolutions and they were adopted:

General Report

Your Board of Stewards has intrusted to it, one of the most essential and delicate obligations, which belongs to our Conference Brotherhood. During the last few years it has become a most difficult and intricate problem to wisely plan for, and so far as possible, meet the needs of our retired brethren and their widows and orphans. The task has been much lightened, however, by the sacrificial participation of both laymen and preachers. The understanding co-operation of the Claimants has been almost unanimous and much appreciated.

There is much confusion in the minds of some of our Annuitants as to the effect of Unification upon the method of distribution of our funds; a brief explanation will clear this up. By order of the Uniting Conference, the method in operation for the last two years will be continued this year. Each Conference is again responsible for the years served in its appointments. The Chicago office will compute each Claimant's annuity on the basis of the years served in each Conference, multiplied by the annuity rate paid by that Conference for the current year. As heretofore, the entire annuity will be paid by this Conference, but the amount will not be known until the computation arrives from Chicago. If it has not arrived at the close of this session, our Treasurer will mail to the Claimants a check on account. The balance for the quarter will be sent as soon as we know what it is.

This year we are again able to pay the full legal rate of $20.00 for each year of service in the Southern California Conference. The Uniting Conference has adopted one change, which needs to be noted. Henceforth, a widow's claim is to be 70 percent of what her husband's would have been, instead of 75 per cent as formally. This is a compromise between the 75 percent paid by the Methodist Episcopal Church and 66⅔ per cent paid by the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

We can make no prediction as to what rate can be paid for 1940-41. That will depend (1) upon the action of the Distributing Committee, ordered by the Uniting Conference; (2) any action which may be taken by the General Conference or Jurisdictional Conference.

By your order we have been building up a Reserve Fund, which has now reached the minimum suggested by the Discipline. With this we expect to prevent any drastic or sudden cut in annuity rate, whatever action these Conferences may take. We are hereby asking authorization to use any part of this Fund which may be needed to meet the annuity rates determined upon. And we are also asking authority to place in the Reserve Fund any balance not needed for the Emergency Fund.

We are fixing the apportionment for men in Special Appointments the same as last year, namely, $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the net Cash Salary, with a maximum apportionment of \$195.00.

The following institutions meet the Disciplinary requirement for annuity claims: The Board of Education, The Board of Home Missions, The Board of Foreign Missions, Garrett Biblical Institute, Drew University, Wesley Foundation, Pacific Home, Spanish American Institute, Hawaiian Mission, Latin American Mission, Conference Evangelist, and Conference Board of Trustees.

We recommend approval of the following institutions for annuity claim: Goodwill Industries, The School of Religion at U.S.C., The Evangelical Seminary of Porta Rica.

We recommend to the Successor Conference the adoption of the following Rules of Order, which have been rules of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

(1) When any organization or institution which does not provide pensions for its workers requests the appointment of a member of this Conference to its work, the Cabinet shall notify such body before appointment is made, that unless the appointee shall assume the obligation it will be expected to pay to the Conference Treasurer each year, an amount to be apportioned by the Board of Stewards (Par. 952-5).

These amounts shall be placed on deposit with the Board of Pensions and Relief to help pay his annuity when he shall become a Claimant. If there shall be delinquency in payment of such apportionments, unless the appointee shall prorate the claim with his salary, a record shall be kept as provided in Article 19, Paragraph 961-3.

When he or his family become Claimants, a part of the annuity shall be disallowed until the delinquency shall be paid. Article 16, Paragraph 958-1.

(2) That when a Claimant who owns real property or other assets asks for additional help beyond his annuity it be suggested that he and, if married, his wife jointly, give a note bearing interest at 1 per cent per annum to the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference for the amount of such additional help, said note to be paid from his estate; or if a joint note, from the estate of the survivor.

During the year 1938-39 representatives of our Board of Stewards have been negotiating in cooperation with similar representatives from the California Conference in an effort to induce the Board of Pensions and Relief and the Board of Home Missions to assume a portion of the pension responsibility for the retired members of the Pacific Chinese, Pacific Japanese and Latin-American Missions. These negotiations have resulted in the adoption by the various interests involved of the following Principles of Agreement:

(1) The Missions shall determine for annuity purposes their own rate based on their average salaries, as provided in Par. 947.

(2) The Missions through the Conference shall contribute 40 per cent of the total required; the Board of Pensions and Relief and the Board of Home Missions shall contribute 30 per cent.

(3) In case of failure of the Missions to raise the full 40 per cent, the contributions from the Boards shall be in like proportion.

(4) There shall be set up in each Mission a committee consisting of three representatives of the Mission, the Mission Superintendent, and one representative of the Board of Stewards, to determine the annuity rate and to apportion the same to the charges of the Mission.

We recommend to the Successor Conference that these Principles be approved for the year 1939-40 with the hope that the 1940 General Conference will adopt legislation which will permanently care for the problem.

GEORGE B. CLIFF, President.

Distributing Committee

Since the final allocation of the membership of conference claimants in merging conferences, together with the allocation of distributable assets of the conferences to be merged, has been given to a Distributing Committee to be composed of three members appointed by each of the conferences involved in the merger; and

Since the responsibilities and powers given this Committee make its decisions of such far-reaching significance to the Conference as a whole, and to superannuated members in particular, it should be named with great care;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY REQUESTED: That the Bishop and Cabinet shall nominate three members to represent the Conference in this Distributing Committee.

GEORGE B. CLIFF, President.

Disposition of Stewards' Funds

Inasmuch as the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is, in accordance with the legislation of the Uniting Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Methodist Protestant Church, in process of dissolution; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Stewards of the said Southern California Annual Conference has, in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, allocated to Annuitants the funds at its disposal for Annuities during the coming Conference year; and has also made allocations of Relief and Emergency funds to proper beneficiaries among the Conference Claimants of the said Southern California Annual Conference, and the said allocations for Annuities and for Relief and Emergency have been approved by the United Session of the said Southern California Annual Conference; and

WHEREAS, the said Board of Stewards will, as the processes of Unification are completed, pass out of existence as a distributing Board of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the said Southern California Annual Conference that its Board of Stewards be and are hereby directed to turn over to the Successor Conference, when it has been organized and its Treasurer elected the complete record of the aforesaid allocations together with all sums set aside therein for Annuities, Relief and Emergency, together with all other sums held in reserve for stabilization and/or other purposes, in a single check made payable to the Treasurer of the said Successor Conference; on condition, however, that the said Successor Conference shall by formal action accept responsibility for distribution through its Board of Conference Claimants of the allocated sums on the schedules and in the amounts specified by the said Board of Stewards of the Southern California Annual Conference, and shall instruct its Treasurer to give receipt for all such funds to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards of the dissolving Conference; and that when these things have been done and the Board of Stewards of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall have received notice of the above described action of the Successor Conference and proper receipt for the monies transferred, the said Board of Stewards of the Southern California Annual Conference shall place these vouchers in its files and be discharged and released from any further responsibility for the said funds.

GEORGE B. CLIFF, President.

Book Concern: Bishop Baker presented Howard M. Boys, representative of the Methodist Book Concern, who spoke about the new publications of the Methodist Book Concern and for the first time in several years presented the Conference with a dividend check amounting to $854.44, which is the Southern California Annual Conference's share of a $50,000 general dividend and on the motion of Walter J. Sherman the draft for that amount was ordered paid to the order of the Board of Stewards.

Disciplinary Question: Is this Conference incorporated according to the requirement of the Discipline? It was answered in the affirmative.

Hough Fund:

O. B. Waite presented the financial statement of the Hough Endowment Fund and the Conference Endowment Fund and on his motion they were adopted. (See Report in Southern California Journal.)

On motion of O. B. Waite the following resolution was adopted:

Conference Committee on Audit

Inasmuch as there is no procedure established in the legislation of the Uniting Conference for the creation of the Conference Auditing Committee, mentioned in par. 523, page 298, of the Daily Advocate, it is moved that the Certified Public Accountants employed by the Commission on Finance to examine its accounts be recognized as constituting such a committee, and its report be accepted as the committee's report.

Incorporation of All Nations Foundation: R. A. McKibben referred to the plan for the incorporation of All Nations Foundation, now a part of the Los Angeles City Missionary Society.

(See Articles of Incorporation and Concurring Resolution in Journal of Southern California Conference, pages 210-215.)

PACIFIC HOME CORPORATION

Friday Morning, June 30, 1939

Pacific Home Corporation: Bishop Baker called the Pacific Home Corporation to order and announced that its membership consisted of the members of the former Southern California Annual Conference. Bishop Baker asked its president, J. Lewis Gillies, to preside.

Report: C. E. Leitzell read the report of the Pacific Home and on his motion it was adopted. (See Report Southern California Conference Journal.)

Pacific Home: On the motion of C. E. Leitzell, the following resolution was adopted by a vote of 236 for, none against: It is hereby resolved that we do hereby approve and record the following action which was taken in the annual meeting of the Pacific Home held in Long Beach this 4th day of July, 1939.

WHEREAS, The Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is, by virtue of the unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, under the Plan of Union duly adopted by the governing bodies in each of the aforesaid Churches, being superseded by a Successor Conference known as the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, said Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference succeeds to all the rights, titles and equities in property of whatsoever sort, real, personal or mixed, heretofore vested in the predecessor Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, including rights to elect trustees, to approve Articles of Incorporation, Constitutions and By-Laws, and to exercise any Jurisdictional rights duly reserved to the said predecessor Conference over subsidiary and affiliated corporations and/or organizations; and

WHEREAS, The Pacific Home, formerly known as The Pacific Old People's Home, is a subsidiary corporation of, and affiliated with, the said Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and reports thereto, and its trustees are elected by the said Conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That The Pacific Home, a corporation, its members in session at Long Beach, California, this 4th day of July, 1939, a majority of said members being present and voting affirmatively, does hereby instruct and empower its Board of Trustees to amend its Articles of Incorporation, its Constitution and By-Laws, and/or to do any and all other things necessary to vest in the aforesaid Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of The Methodist Church all the rights, titles, interest, powers and jurisdictions formerly vested in the above mentioned predecessor Conference, and to establish in its successor all residuary rights intended to be secured by the Trust clause in the Discipline of the Methodist Church.

Adjournment: On the motion of W. W. Kaler, the Pacific Home Corporation adjourned.

Adjournment: On the motion of Alfred Inwood, the Conference session adjourned.

Southern California Annual Conference Tuesday Afternoon, July 4, 1939

Bishop Baker called the Southern California Annual Conference to order at 3:00 P.M.

German Merger: On the motion of Hardy A. Ingham, the report of the German Merger Commission was adopted, as follows:

"Little progress has been made during the year toward the final adjustment of the remaining problems of the German merger. Certain details are being reported to the Conference by the Board of Trustees.

It is the belief of the Commission that, with the unification of the three Methodisms now being consummated, it will be better to discontinue the present commission and centralize the administration of the whole merger problem.

We therefore join with the Board of Trustees in suggesting that this Commission be discontinued, that interests which it has sought to serve be definitely referred to the Board of Trustees of the former Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be by it transferred, together with the rights and equities involved, to the Board of Trustees of the Successor Conference of the Methodist Church when that conference has been incorporated."

Printed Reports: On the motion of Leonard Oechsli, it was ordered that all reports originating in any of the Boards or Committees of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church but read in the sessions of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, be adopted and ordered printed in the Journal of the originating Conference.

Committee of Eleven: On the motion of Leonard Oechsli, the report of the Committee of Eleven was adopted, as follows:

The Committee of Eleven, authorized by the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at its session in 1938 to continue negotiations for the merger of the Spanish American Institute and the Voorhis School for Boys, reports its inability to secure proper financing for the enterprise.

After repeated interviews it voted to discontinue negotiations and release the Voorhis School from any commitment to the Conference with reference to the merger.

Transfer of Funds: On the motion of O. B. Waite it was ordered that any balance of the assessments for the Deficiency Fund be added to the capital of the permanent Endowment Fund.

On the motion of O. B. Waite the following resolutions were adopted:

General Funds:

WHEREAS, The Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is, by virtue of the unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, being superseded by the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, there are funds in the hands of the treasurers and other officers of various Boards, and Commissions of the said Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the treasurer or other officers of such Boards, Commissions or other organizations under the jurisdiction of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church be instructed immediately to turn over all such funds to the treasurers of the proper successor Boards, Commissions or other organizations of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, taking proper receipt therefor; which receipt shall be filed with the records of the organization making payment and when so filed shall constitute sufficient discharge and release of the treasurer making the transfer.

District Superintendents Reports

FRESNO-GLENDALE DISTRICT

Paul F. Huebner, District Superintendent

Events attendant upon the union of Methodism have made tremendous changes in the Fresno-Glendale district. Early in the present Conference year, it became evident that definite changes in Conference boundaries might be expected. As representatives of the California Area and of the Western Jurisdiction met from time to time, rumors of proposed changes drifted in upon the district. In spite of the pressure of these impending changes, the spirit and morale of both ministers and laymen of the San Joaquin Valley remained at a high Christian level. The achievements of the District in loyalty to Christ and the Church are proof of that spirit.

On the evening of May 1st, 1939, the delegates of the Western Jurisdiction at the Uniting Conference in Kansas City voted to transfer the churches of the San Joaquin Valley into the bounds of the new California Conference. As a basic part of that Resolution of transfer of territory, there appears on the official Minutes of the Western Jurisdictional meeting this statement:

"And that this action of the transfer of territory carry with it a recommendation to the administrative officers of the two Conferences involved that every consideration be given to men effected, looking toward an adjustment of their equities involved in the change of Conference."

Surely all of us agree with that statement.

Early in the Fall we attempted to bring before the churches of the district the challenge of the Five Year Plan of the Conference, through a series of combined Quarterly Conferences. A sincere effort was made to enlist the youth of the churches as well as the adults. The enthusiastic response of the youth justified our faith. Dr. J. L. Corley and Mr. James McGiffin were members of the team. Miss Alice Louise Brown has made a significant contribution to the cause of Christian education on the District. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Herron Smith assisted me in World Service cultivation during November. Mr. George Bechtel has done a splendid service for the cause of Missions through the entire district. The address of Bishop James C. Baker at the special post-Madras meeting held in First Church, Fresno, brought an added lift to the world enterprise of the Church. John R. Mott is convinced that an increase now of 15 per cent in the leadership of our missionary forces would augment the constructive results in Kingdom building by 100 per cent. As another great leader of our Methodist Church has put it, "We are not at the end of the missionary task, but at the beginning."

Randsburg Community Church

One of the evidences that both ministers and laymen are realizing that the Church must speak out in love and fellowship, is to be found in the determined manner in which the district has sought to find a way of vital ministry among the migrant peoples of the San Joaquin Valley. A splendid committee of ministers and laymen has been formed. This committee has worked in a spirit of cooperation with the Methodist Men of the Conference in an attempt to place a full-time worker in the field. It was felt that a minimum of $3000.00 was necessary before such a worker should be engaged. More than $1700.00 in cash has already been received. We must not fail in this worthy enterprise. The Epworth Leaguers are participating with the Friends in the establishment of work camps in the Poplar area this summer. Rev. Byron Hovey and his Church have done valiant service in an attempt to make the Church felt as the body of Christ among these migrant folk.

Selma Church

Two new church structures have been completed this year, the one at Randsburg, dedicated by Bishop Baker on Saturday afternoon, October 8th; the other at Selma, formally opened for worship by the Bishop on Sunday, June 11. Both of these buildings are gems and exemplify the best in church architecture. During December, the parsonage at Alpaugh was completely destroyed by fire. A new parsonage has been built under the leadership of the pastor. Definite plans are being carried forward for new church buildings at Earlimart, North, Glendale, Magnolia Park, and Trona.

Our Church property at Raisin City has been sold. Authorization for the sale of a lot at Rolinda was given at the recent sessions of the California Conference.

The outstanding projects in debt reduction for the year are the following: Poplar where the entire indebtedness on the social hall was cared for; Delano and Sanger, where a combined indebtedness of approximately $20,000.00 has been liquidated; and Porterville, where the campaign for funds has met with such enthusiastic response that there is no doubt but that this church will clean-up its entire indebtedness by September. Other churches which are worthy of special mention in this field are First, Fresno; First, Glendale; North, Glendale; Central, Glendale; Hanford; San Fernando; and Grace, Fresno.

Definite improvement of church property is noted at Bishop, Grace, Fresno, Hanford, Kernville, Livingston, Independence, North, Glendale, Pacific, Glendale, Poplar, Porterville, Springville, Trinity, Bakersfield, Van Nuys, and Visalia.

Further Highlights of the Year

The development of a week-day program of Christian education at Earlimart; the progress in Kingdom building under the plan of the larger parish in North King's County; significant gains in church membership at Kernville, North, Glendale, First and Trinity, Bakersfield; tremendous increase in Church School attendance at Calwa, Fresno; Northridge; North Glendale; Magnolia Park, Roscoe, Sepulveda and Trona; the merger of the former Methodist Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal South churches in Kingsburg and Visalia; the record of World Service giving at First, Glendale; the Regional Convention of the Epworth League at Bakersfield; the Mid-Winter Institute at Camp Sierra; the Epworth League Convention in the Owens Valley; the Young Adult Conferences; the Family Institute at Camp Sierra; the vital work of the Woman's Aid and the Methodist Men of the district; and new life in many of the churches as they have adopted the challenge of the Five Year Plan and have set up their goals under that plan.

Within the period of the present Conference year, Rev. Robert A. Young was appointed to Rosewood Church, Los Angeles, and Rev. W. A. Jennings came to Taft; Rev. J. E. Vandagriff made a direct exchange with Rev. E. M. Kendall of the Nebraska Conference. The following members of the Southern California Conference retired at this session: H. B. Lang, S. J. Lindsay, F. A. Lundberg and H. C. Mullen. On March 28th, 1939, Mrs. Ruby J. Bostwick, wife of Rev. L. O. Bostwick, answered the eternal summons of her Master. Since our arrival at Long Beach, word has come of the death of Brother Clyde P. Metcalf, of Canoga Park. His has been a faithful ministry in the Church. On Saturday, June 24th, 1939, Rev. Wendell B. Kramer of Richmond was united in Holy Matrimony with Miss Ruth Ballou, at the home of her parents in LaVerne, California.

As I come to this, my final year, as the Superintendent of the Fresno-Glendale District, it is with mingled feelings. I must confess that I took over the responsibilities of this District in May of 1938 in a spirit of great expectancy. I dared to dream dreams of great days in Christian fellowship as we worked together at the Kingdom task with Christ. These thirteen months have been months filled with rich Christian friendship. "The Methodists Are One People." We are one people wherever we may find our place of citizenship in the Kingdom. In the great Youth Meeting at the Uniting Conference, Bishop Paul Kern declared: "Youth would speak to the Church now. True they are confused and tried, but in a world not of their making. Nevertheless, they would say to the Church: We want a Church that is not afraid; one that is not lost in ecclesiasticism or dead theology; one which dares to deal with life now; a Church with an open mind; a Church which dares to march with Christ to build a Kingdom of God." To that Church we pledge our loyalty, wherever we may find our place of responsibility in the new Methodist Church.

PAUL F. HUEBNER.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT

Edwin W. Stricker, District Superintendent

Long Beach District; the long is descriptive, the beach; includes the Salton Sea of the Desert. This district has been blessed with a rapid succession of able leaders of the Southern California Conference; five in a period of ten years. Dr. Stevens and Dr. Buckner still sit in the cabinet. They know the district as well if not better than the present superintendent. I am greatly indebted to them not only for the work which they did upon the district but for their able assistance this year. The fact is, I firmly believe, that this cabinet of a year ago thought my education to be faulty and incomplete, consequently my appointment to the district. What a different world it seemed? A sort of lonesome—far away feeling. Then I came to your homes. Many I knew only by reputation; a reputation more often false than true. You took me into your homes. Some of you trusted me enough to share your problems and aspirations. Then it dawned upon my prejudiced mind that I was still a pastor. A pastor to a group that loved and desired to be loved, that had great dreams and desired to work together to make those dreams come true.

Two new lives have chosen wisely the advantage of the parsonage home. Barbara was born in San Luis Obispo to Dave and Dorothy Kingman. Paul David to Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Burgess.

Frank Leak, lay for days unable to care for himself. It was a grave question as to the future. But under the untiring care of Mrs. Leak he is being nursed back to health and strength. One cannot but admire that fine group of laymen at Santa Paula. They redoubled their effort and carried on under the fine leadership of Dr. and Mrs. Oliver. I called on Dr. Oliver, told him the situation and immediately the preacher spirit came to the front as he said, "If I can help the church and Brother Leak I will be glad to go." He left his home and retirement and served ably. Brother Leak has been cared for, conference items in full and the church pressing forward.

North Long Beach Church

N. H. Hudson for some time has been failing in health. He has just returned from the hospital and is doing nicely. However, it has seemed wise for him to retire. Dr. Will A. Betts closes a long and fruitful career. Starting a bit later than many, he has carried on longer. A long list of church buildings and conference activities are to his credit.

Corona Church

The North Long Beach church completed last year at a cost of $10,150.00 was dedicated by Bishop Baker on Oct. 16, 1938. Corona at a cost of $14,384.00 has built a beautiful worshipful chapel. In a very impressive service Bishop Baker dedicated this building to the worship of God.

California Heights, its building crowded with children and young people was compelled to expand. A new location was purchased on Bixby. The old church was moved to the new location and incorporated in the new enterprise. Now they have a beautiful sanctuary and a modest church school plant at a cost of $15,600.00. The church is in the midst of a new growing section of Long Beach and is a real opportunity.

Compton continues its renovation and remodeling. Each week sees some new task done and they are hopeful for the day when it will be completed. East Long Beach continues with its plastering and decorating.

Shore Acres is a benediction. A group of loyal folk meeting in a dingy bottling works was my first picture of Shore Acres. I felt sorry for them and their pastor. But it was wasted sympathy. They had faith and courage. Soon they had something else. The Woman's Aid went forth and bought lots, so much down, so much a month. The men said, "Now we must have a church but no debt. Reginald Inwood drew the plans, a contractor gave his time and the men formed a builder's committee. These people building their own homes, most of them incomplete, turned now to the building of the house of God. A beautiful stucco structure, still incomplete inside but usable is now their joy and pride. Already they have outgrown the new church and the young people are appealing for funds to the extent of $500 or a $1,000.00 to build an addition.

Santa Fe Springs surrounded by oil wells, subsidized by oil, finds its income shrinking. Dependent now upon fulfilling its real mission, it is building its church in Sunshine Acres. Reginald Inwood has drawn plans for a building adequate to the needs of this church. Ground has been broken and the contract let at $12,682.

Taking parts of old buildings owned by the government and given to them, Terminal Island built a club house and social room. Fred Ross had long promised the young people this building and now they rejoice in its use. The District superintendent dedicated the building.

Lompoc renovated its sanctuary, Seal Beach sealed its church school with knotty pine, San Pedro First, Simi redecorated the auditorium and it seems that about half of the churches either put roofs on the parsonages or the church. El Segundo is making some needed repairs. Debts: Santa Monica and Hemet continue the fine work reported a year ago in debt reduction. Grace, Riverside, wiped out entirely its old debt and the cost of remodeling. Ventura again pays off $3,000.00, a total reduction of $27,000.00 in the past five years. Grace, Long Beach, paid $4,850 on indebtedness and at the same time stands high in the giving to World Service. Atlantic Ave., Belmont Heights First Church, Long Beach, Hemet and Redondo Beach, each paid over a thousand dollars on their indebtedness this year.

Salary increases were made by Corona, Hemet, First, Long Beach, Murrietta First Church, Riverside, Seal Beach and Whittier for a total of $2,680.00. Decreases were reported by Fillmore, El Segundo and East Long Beach to a total of $816.00.

The Harbor City Missionary Society had its annual meeting at Grace Church, Long Beach. The basement was crowded and Dr. Roy Smith challenged us to our task today. This society gave Hynes $100.00 toward re-roofing the church, and $500 to assist the building program of California Heights.

World Service started well. George Bectel and the World Service exhibit helped to make our people World Conscious. The giving showed a distinct increase for the first ten months. Evidently we rejoiced too soon. The total on apportionment is $23,340.19 Additional Support $2,-036.44 or a total of $25,376.63. A decrease of $2,500.00.

The five year plan was presented throughout the district with beneficial effect. Two churches showed an increase in church school average attendance of 30 per cent; Indio and Santa Fe Springs.

A few statistics: Children baptized, 637; Adults, 212; Preparatory members received 401 into membership from preparatory roll, 336; On Confession of Faith, 450; transfer and renewal, 947; from other denominations, 165. Total membership, 21,153. Inactive, 2,968; removed by transfer, 825 and by death 214 or a total increase of 859.

These are the figures that are easy to record. There is another report that cannot be written with exactness. The sick visited, the defeated and discouraged encouraged, homes united, men, women and children introduced to our God and he gave to them newness of vision and outlook. The broken, sinning lives that have been redeemed. These figures we will never know. Nevertheless all else is but a means to this end. Men filled with the Spirit of God building his kingdom, here and now. But let us not forget that if this is being accomplished in our churches, it will be revealed in these foregoing more or less material results.

I was asked, "What is the indispensable quality that makes for a successful ministry?" I thought of the men who were considered successful in an outstanding way by their churches. What a variety of personality, age, opinion and method. But I found this one common quality. A great faith in God and His Cause. Men called, committed and driven to the utmost of their strength to serve God and their age. This is basic. Then the clearer the thinking and the broader the vision the more lasting and constructive the results. Nothing less than a great faith can meet the powers of destiny at work today.

As a district we have not accomplished all we had hoped. With humility of spirit we rejoice in the successes and pray earnestly for forgiveness where we have failed. Rededicate ourselves to greater preparation, self discipline and untiring zeal for the cause of Christ, the Church and Humanity.

EDWIN W. STRICKER

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Walter C. Buckner, District Superintendent

Early in the Conference year Byron E. Horn was compelled, for health reasons, to give up his work as Director of Religious Education at First Church. In a mid-year exchange, Robt. A. Young replaced Elijah H. Longbrake at Rosewood Church, January first. C. V. Gustafson, pastor of Euclid Heights Church, has accepted the Presidency of the Kansas City National Training School, and will go to his new field at the close of this Conference session. Roy L. Smith is lying in the Selma Sanitarium, where he has been since his injury in an automobile accident near Selma on Friday, June the ninth. His physicians advise him that he may not be able to resume his work for some weeks. First Church, under the leadership of the Assistant Pastor, Dr. Alfred J. Hughes, has rallied splendidly to meet the emergency caused by Dr. Smith's sudden removal from his place of leadership during the busy closing days of the Conference year.

A baby girl, named Carolyn Louise, has come to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Warmer, Jr.

Important financial totals for the year are as follows: World Service: On apportionments, $33,360.40; Additional Support, $5,670.24; W. F. M. S., $18,832; W. H. M. S., $20,318.88; City Missionary Society, $7,098.85; Baptisms: Children, 692; Adults, 211. Full Members now on roll 26,869; Inactive Members, 3,114; Church School Average Attendance, 10,845; Paid on Indebtedness, $49,012.00; Women's Aid Society, $32,741.00.

The morale of the churches is excellent. I have again and again been made to feel proud of the caliber and consecration of the pastors and their wives. We have an increasing number of loyal, intelligent, consecrated laymen.

Mount Olive Church

On November 16th last, Bishop Baker dedicated the beautiful new church located at the corner of Kenmore and Franklin Streets in Hollywood, for the Mount Olive congregation. Under the leadership of the pastor, Dr. Fletcher Homan, the membership of Mount Olive responded heroically to the demand for sacrificial giving. With the generous assistance of Los Angeles Methodism, through the Board of Home Missions, the enterprise, costing approximately $25,000.00, is well financed.

Westwood is well on its way toward the erection of commodious educational facilities, to cost approximately $50,000.00. First Church, Inglewood, is in the midst of perfecting plans and raising funds for the erection of a $50,000.00 church on a new site, ample in size and well located in the growing City of Inglewood.

The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society has had a busy year. It has received and disbursed funds in the amount of $14,270.00; it has assisted thirteen churches by supplementing the pastor's salary; six by providing a part time pastors helper; and ten by contributions to the cost of maintaining property. The City Society deals with problems which arise in a great city, such as discovering and occupying new fields; adjustment of the location of churches in a changing environment; the adaptation of local programs to changing community needs; the liquidation of embarrassing indebtedness, and the providing of additional staff helpers; all of this in cooperation with other religious forces of the city.

In order to more effectively face such responsibilities as the above, we have divided the District into nine sub-district groups. The pastor and one layman in each local Church constitute the membership of the sub-district committee, whose duty it is to study the field covered by the sub-district and make recommendations to the City Society through its proper committees. Our studies this year have resulted in the beginning of a long-term plan of adjustment and rehabilitation. Representatives of the Board of Home Missions are sharing in the formulation of these plans, with a view to continued cooperation in carrying them through.

We look forward with pleasure to the privilege of welcoming some six new churches into our fellowship, five of which came from the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and one from the Western Norwegian-Danish Conference.

We have been carrying on a quiet campaign for the liquidation of the $39,000.00 mortgage against the property of the All Nations Foundation. This will be continued with the confident hope that all indebtedness against the Foundation will soon be removed. The All Nations Foundation joins the City Missionary Society in asking this Conference to authorize the incorporation of the All Nations Foundation, and we are presenting for your endorsement the proposed Articles of Incorporation, with a list of names of those who are proposed as the first Board of Trustees.

The new organization, to be known as the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, of which the City Missionary Society shall be a part, makes provision for an Executive Secretary. Under the plan proposed, the Executive Secretary will give approximately one-half of his time to the City Society. He will cooperate with the District Superintendent, thus giving additional leadership, which should enable us to meet in a much more ample fashion our responsibilities in this hour of supreme opportunity.

The Church Federation of Los Angeles, for which Methodists have prayed and labored for many years, is now well started and we are assuming our share of the responsibility in money and leadership. The Federation has brought to Los Angeles, Dr. Samuel C. Kincheloe, of Chicago, expert in the field of City work, who is leading us in a special study of Los Angeles East side. We are viewing the East side as a region within which we hope to work out cooperatively our common problems of adjustment to changed conditions and continuing responsibilities.

That the people called Methodists are not without ability to adapt ourselves to changing times and conditions, is forcibly impressed on one who "travels through the connection" in the Los Angeles District. In addition to some sixty pulpits from which pastors proclaim the message of redemption, and each surrounded by a staff of lay teachers, we have a line of institutions rendering a form of specialized service to the community such as can be matched in few if any cities of the world. What a wide front we are presenting to the bruising, battering forces of modern life as we offer shelter and guidance in our Hospital, the Pacific Home, the Goodwill Industries, the All Nations Foundation, the Spanish American Institute, the Frances De-Pauw School, the Plaza Community Center, and the Wesley Foundation. Hollenbeck and Sunset Centers, as well as Vincent, with their drastically adapted programs, reflect our attempt to meet, through the local church, the changing needs of the changing City Parish.

The development of the Civic Center and the opening of the magnificent new Union Railway Station, has lifted our Methodist Headquarters in the Plaza building into conspicuous prominence. It is a significant symbol that we are in the heart of the City, and the City is in our hearts. From this center our lines go out to all sections of the City and reach all races and classes. Just what form our service shall take as the years bring new thousands and new problems, no man can say, but this we can say, with confidence and assurance: We intend to maintain our centers of service in the great City, at whatever cost, and we will not retreat!

The strength of Methodism is her practical theology, her evangelical message, and her marvelous connectionalism. As sons of Methodism, our priceless possession is an inner experience. Through that experience we validate our theology, vitalize our message, and make fruitful our connectionalism. All this we carry over into the new Methodist Church. It is this which furnishes the one and only ground for the sublime confidence with which our voices are being lifted here and everywhere in a great new song—"Lord, We Are Able!"

WALTER C. BUCKNER

PASADENA-ARIZONA CONFERENCE

F. G. H. Stevens, District Superintendent

In traveling the Pasadena-Arizona District for one year, a man drives his automobile clear around the world once and as far as London on the second lap. During those twelve months he sees so much of life that is real, so much of it that is joyous, and so much of it that is humorous that he doesn't need to thumb over the funnies or spend money at the make-believe movies. You can't travel the thirty thousand miles with me in half of thirty minutes, but you can, at least, get some of the victories and some of the defeats, some of the heartbreaks and some of the hearthrobs. The men and women of the ministry and laity have been working this year and here's the story.

The District stretches from the Cathedral Church of Pasadena's Methodism out to the cattle ranges of eastern Arizona with a northern swing into the wide open town of Las Vegas, Nevada; and a swing on the south into the Palo Verde Valley. Fifty-two churches with different problems and different people and all of them with Christians playing the Christian game.

In the latter valley, Blythe was inspired by a gift of one thousand dollars from an old time family and with that incentive made improvements in church and parsonage amounting to $2200 and shows gain in both membership and church school attendance. The close-by circuit of Midland and Ripley has had good work done of a missionary character.

Our Negro church at Las Vegas was scarcely more than reorganized and had about four months of a supply pastor, brother A. M. Brantford, when his sudden death last month closed a useful ministry. Our white church there shows an increased membership and a deepening of spiritual life. In this wide open town, Christians have to be Christians. This city will entertain the Citrus Region Epworth League Convention next spring.

In Arizona folks know whether you like them or not, and they respond accordingly. In our appointment farthest east, at Holbrook, a fine group of the younger married people have been won to the church and the Christian life. The social hall has been refloored. The pastor has developed a new field which ought to be opened as the Apache Parish.

Winslow is busy about plans for a remodeling in that railroad community and is not neglecting the deepening of the spiritual life. The Flagstaff Federated Church, with its important student constituency, is not an easy one to handle but a master hand and heart are busy at the task, winning people, students and others, to God, with a resultant gain in church membership and church school. The remodeling of the Williams church is about completed and the new pastor and his wife are working both with hands and prayer. Improvements total $1081, and the membership shows a gain of 35.

The Seligman church is repainted inside and out. At Ashfork we have purchased a parsonage with money from rent of Prescott property and help for refurbishing by the women's aid societies of the District. Over a hundred miles west at Kingman the young pastor and his wife keep high ideals for their ministry, church, and community.

Lessening of activity at the mines has hurt both Jerome and the smelter town of Clarkdale. At Jerome the "Overhaul Club" works one evening a week and has refinished the sanctuary and classrooms. Here the coming of Caroline Joan, in September of last year added another baby to the parsonage family, for this is the church which asked for a young couple with a baby and now they have two of them. In the company town of Clarkdale they told me they wouldn't care to go to church on Sunday but they are going just the same and as a result of good preaching they are supporting the church, have put a new roof on the building and show a gain of 20 in membership.

Crossing the Colorado at the railroad town of Needles we find a sad people because of the retirement of one whom they have learned to love. Brother Elmer E. Marshall retires after 47 years of service. Never has he been more successful in holding the love and confidence of his people and never has he had a larger group of young people than during this concluding year of his ministry. He and I have worked for years side by side in the ministry. With him has worked a woman, untiring, devoted, and winsome.

Our supply pastor, brother Marston, has closed a three year foundation work at Victorville. San Bernardino, one of our best fields, has responded finely to devoted leadership. It shows a net gain of 30 and holds up World Service well. The people have responded to high standing in leadership and worship. Mrs. Engle is recovering from a severe operation. Colton makes a net gain of over 30, with improvements in church and parsonage of over $400 and $100 paid on organ debt. Mrs. Celia Smith led this church in a very successful series of meetings. The Yucaipa people, though hurt financially by blight on their orchards, have deepened their spiritual life and paid $100 on debt.

All the thirteen orange growing communities in this district have been hard hit for three years in succession. As one pastor said, "I did not cause the freeze, or wind, or the low price of citrus" so they have carried on. For First Church, Redlands, to hold up the former high standards of giving and membership is indeed a victory. The pastor does good work with the students and the musical work of the church is especially fine. Grace Church has spent $150 in improvement and gives well to World Service.

The Rialto parsonage home has broken the record for hospital attendance this year. The pastor has been in the Sawtelle hospital twice while his older son and the twins have each gone once. A total of five. In addition to which Sister Bennett lost her father this past month. In spite of all this, the work has advanced. Highland has had a successful year and has paid $357 on church improvements.

Del Rosa, our small student charge near San Bernardino, shows what a young man and his wife, both devoted, can really do with the week ends in leading a small church. At Cucamonga another student has put in two years and leaves for Drew Seminary this Fall. Under his leadership, this beautiful stone country church has been reshingled and repainted and they have won a certificate for meeting their World Service apportionment.

Upland's gain of 23 was not easily secured, nor is $1500 easy to get in World Service when oranges sell at 30c a box. But they have done both. Improvements of over $800 have beautified the church and parsonage at Ontario while World Service giving tops $3000. Chino has paid $440 on debt, organized a new Epworth League, and runs a Vacation Church School.

At Trinity, Pomona, the pastor has made 1000 calls, and improvements and debt paying have cost over $500 with $2000 for World Service. Last Sunday afternoon their assistant, Brother Frank Butterworth, took as his bride Miss Irene Swanson. They leave for Garrett in September. Hugh Lormor, also of this church, goes to Boston. Four young men for the ministry from this church.

La Verne turned their attention from orange losses to membership gains and won an increase of 39. Parsonage improvements inside and out cost $190. San Dimas has paid $200 on debt, has won young life, and shows a net gain in church and church school. Why? Because they are working the five year plan. Covina's pastor and his wife made over 1200 calls and the church made improvements on Scout headquarters costing $100. Baldwin Park has paid $240 on debt.

Puente filled their church last November at the wedding of their pastor, who took as his bride Mrs. Lily Zaveallas. That evening on the Arrowhead mountain road both were badly injured in an auto accident but are now fully recovered. The church shows a gain in membership and has renovated the parsonage.

Of course El Monte with a returned missionary would show an increase in World Service giving. They have over 60 decisions for the Christian life, have paid $300 on debt, and have organized a new Sunday School nearby. Another Sunday School has been organized between El Monte and Baldwin Park which is now being cared for by Brother O. P. Saylor. At Rosemead is a beautiful sanctuary and $500 has been paid on debt with another $1000 secured for a new Sunday School quarters badly needed. An old fashioned Watch Night Service at San Gabriel was brightened by the mortgage burning made possible by the final $450 payment. Sister Elger is recovering from a very severe illness.

Glendora has made improvements totaling $275. Azusa has seen over 30 converted to the Christian life under the ministry of their evangelistic pastor and has registered a gain of 30 in their Sunday School attendance. Monrovia has moved all along the line. Improvements total $540. The pastor conducts a weekday service all summer in the patio which is a success both in numbers and in spirit.

Marengo Avenue has hammered down its debt by another $4100 (one-half paid by the church and one-half by a loyal friend) and shows a net gain in membership of 29. First Church, Alhambra, responded loyally to the leadership of a man who turned to the pastorate after eight years of the Superintendency, by raising $9600 to finish the $25,000 payment on debt. Scarcely was this done when their sanctuary was gutted by fire. It was rededicated by Bishop Baker last Sunday morning, a sanctuary beautiful without and within. Other improvements have been made to the extent of $1460.

At Monterey Park, both Brother and Sister Hornaday have been ill during the past year but are now much improved. The church has paid $240 on debt. After 47 years of faithful service in Nebraska and California, Brother Hornaday requests the Retired Relation and will do supply work.

Brother Anderson at Montebello carried a very heavy load this past year in debt paying and in leadership in his church and civic life. This took him out of the pulpit for four weeks at the busy Easter time but he is rapidly recovering his health and strength. Church attendance keeps up well. Temple City shows a decided gain in Sunday School attendance and is working on debt reduction.

The Pasadena churches united and said "Scott Church belongs to us." So they backed up their statement by raising $7000 and bought back the church from the bank. The bank helped by cutting out and cutting down interest so that today Scott Church owes less than $15,000 with interest at three per cent. This church is carrying on all the programs of the church, social service, education, recreation and worship. Our German brethren, in the Emmanuel Church, raised $200 for Scott Church, have increased their World Service giving, and made improvements of over $300. Sister Tautenhahn has been ill most of the year.

Hartzell Church shows a gain in membership and school attendance, has paid $640 on debt, and has thoroughly reorganized the church. Our First Church holds up the highest standard in service and worship. This First Church shows a net gain of 68, has overpaid their apportionment of $13,600 for World Service by over $1000, making a total of over $17,000 for all benevolences, aside from the women's societies. Holliston Avenue spent $200 on repairs and gains over 30 in both membership and Sunday School attendance.

After a severe illness of several weeks, Brother Ford is back in the pulpit at Lincoln Avenue. This church has been beautified in sanctuary and social hall at a net cost of over $1200. Better than that, their altars during this past winter have been crowded with folks seeking to get back to God. The leadership was given by our own Conference evangelist, W. C. McIntyre. Our Swedish Church has decidedly increased their World Service giving and has decorated both church and parsonage. The two pastors at Washington Street have done the full work of the ministry with a resultant gain in church attendance, church school attendance, and World Service giving. Improvements and debt paying have cost them another $500.

South Pasadena again has shown that it is possible to have a real Sunday evening service. This old time church shows a net gain of 62 in membership and through the use of the penny banks is paying for a new roof and repainting of the entire property. $3700 is the total improvement, $1307 of which has been paid by these penny banks. Average at morning worship, 260, at evening, 168. Soon after the holidays this church lost its oldest member, Sister F. S. Woodcock, last of the charter group in this Conference.

Among the men not in the active pastorate, the home of Brother E. Guy Talbott needs our sympathy in that both his father and his wife's father died on the same day during this last month.

On the District we have held three educational rallies in the interests of the College of the Pacific, three meetings in the interests of the Young Adult, and two District gatherings, one especially to discuss various methods of evangelism.

In our own home we rejoice that the "Methodists are one people" since one of us was born in Tennessee and one in Pennsylvania.

This is a great group of people with which to work. We have again increased our World Service giving until only a few of the districts in the denomination surpass us. The womanhood has worked in Ladies Aid and Women's Missionary Societies with holy zeal and unselfish devotion. Our Epworth Leaguers have attended Institutes and have faced fearlessly the making of a better world. Our officials have labored quietly and often unrewarded. Our pastors' wives have encouraged their husbands on Sunday morning and comforted them on Sunday evening. The children have somehow or other gotten to college and usually have their bills paid. When the cars have broken down we have borrowed another or walked. We have loved to do it all because we have done it out of love for Him and love for our fellows.

SAN DIEGO-PHOENIX DISTRICT

James Edwin Dunning, District Superintendent

Retirements: Charles Franklin Seitter, courtly gentleman, scholar, preacher, dreamer of great dreams, prophet of the new day which only the religion of Jesus can bring, has taken the Retired Relation this year, terminating thirty-eight years of ministerial service, of which twenty-five have been spent in this Conference.

William Rogatzky, a devoted representative of American-German Methodism, also takes this relation after an active ministry of forty-seven years. Within the bounds of this Conference twenty-six of these years were spent. All hail to these prophets of the long trail! May life's evening be full of the glory of God and of a triumphant note of victory.

Deaths: Three pastors ended their careers in the full flush of active service. Geo. A. Steed died October 26th, 1938, after an automobile accident; Carl M. Ross, who, though retired in 1923, had continued in active service, died in May of this year; Thomas Franklin Allen, accepted and acceptable supply pastor, died June 16th, 1939. These all went out with the glow of assured triumph on their faces.

Changes in Appointment: Burl N. Long was transferred early in the year from the Dakota Conference, and appointed to Globe, Arizona. D. K. Burnham was moved to Fallbrook, and Ernest A. Rayner, a member of the Philippine Islands Conference, was assigned to San Marcos.

Floyd C. Johnson withdrew "under complaints," March 14th, 1939, and Edwin A. Palmer, retired, a former pastor, was sent to El Centro. My congratulations to the splendid lay leaders of that Church, who responded magnificently to his leadership, and carried that Church through the crisis in a marvelous way!

Thirty years ago a Methodist Church was organized at Bard, an agricultural community on the California side of the Colorado River, a few miles above Yuma. But the Methodists had given this up, and a community church functioned in the property, still owned by the Methodists. Now under the lead of Wm. H. Mawson, member of the Bengal Annual Conference, it comes back into the new Methodist Church.

Personals: Is it called an appendix because it is something unnecessary that was added afterwards? Anyhow, Byron Deshler and John Engle seem to be better since theirs were amputated. Mrs. A. C. Abbe, Mrs. C. F. Seitter, Mrs. R. N. Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cunningham have been ill during this year. All are recovered or improving.

More than the parents' hearts were gladdened by the arrival of two wee babes in the parsonages at Chandler and La Mesa: Marcia Rae Ford on January 7th, 1939, and Douglas Markham Reisner, May 24th, 1939.

Wedding bells rang in four parsonages, heralding the marriages of Kenneth S. Imel to Ethel DeVol; Miriam Engle to Edwin Jacobsen; Catherine Holman to Homer W. Kerley, and Elsa Mae Royer to Howard L. Harvey.

Five Year Plan: Last Fall the Five Year Plan was presented in nearly every church of the district. It was generally approved, goals accepted, and committees set up to supervise its operation. I am convinced that any church that faithfully works this Plan will show steady improvement in the quality of its work, as well as in its statistical reports; but the plan is not a self-starter, nor has it found the secret of perpetual motion. J. L. Corley, Alice Louise Brown, Jim McGiffin, and E. Clyde Smith have rendered invaluable service in cultivation work. The following churches have had exceptionally good results from using the Plan: Ajo, Anaheim First, Brawley, Cardiff and Encinitas, Chandler, Costa Mesa, Huntington Beach, Escondido, Gilbert, Creighton, Phoenix First, Garfield, Mission Hills, Park Boulevard, Somerton and Tempe.

There have been some marked advances in Religious Education. More training classes and Daily Vacation Schools have been reported than for several years, and more churches are using Methodist literature. Young People's work has been strengthened and a number of Young Adult groups have been organized. Men's Work was emphasized with a series of Institutes across the District in January, conducted by J. Russell Throckmorton. Church School enrollment shows a loss of 144, but average attendance is increased by 353, or four per cent.

World Service: A series of eight World Fellowship Institutes last Fall brought together over six hundred lay leaders. Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Cooper, Vernon McCombs, Maurice G. Ballenger, W. J. Sherman, and many others, including all the pastors, share in the success of these Institutes. George Bechtel and the World Service exhibit were in many of our churches. This emphasis has brought increased giving in many churches, although the total increase for the district on apportionment is only $438. Total paid on apportionment, $19,654; additional support, $2652; total, $22,306. Payments for the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society have totaled $2320 from the churches.

Young People's Work: Our Young People's work is in the healthiest condition I have known. If I am tempted to be discouraged about the future of the church I look at our youth, far more intelligently and specifically consecrated to Christian purposes and to building a Christian world than was my generation, and my heart leaps in exaltation. For three and a half years I have been privileged to sit in the Conference Epworth League Cabinet. Last September I accompanied our delegation to the National Conference of Methodist Youths at Boulder, Colorado. Now I am sitting in the groups that are preparing for the all-Methodist Youth Assembly for our Area at Oakland next Labor Day. Early this month I spent a week in what I am told is the first united Institute in the new Methodist Church, at Prescott, Arizona, with over three hundred Arizona youth, and the next week looked in on over four hundred youth of my own District, at Green Valley Falls. The youth groups of the several Conferences are marching forward with high hope and holy daring, with the will to peace and good-will and justice, and are earnestly searching for adequate spiritual dynamic. Jim McGiffin and Clyde Smith are giving the finest youth leadership to be found in the whole church. I have only high hopes for the future of the Methodist Church with such youth coming to the front in our new Conference.

The Wesley Foundation at Tempe and Tucson are touching student groups with splendid results. At Tempe an Interdenominational Student Conference is conducting courses in religion, with full credit from the College; a Student Cooperative Lodge is projected for next fall.

Woman's Work: Our women continue a vigorous work. The Women's Aid Societies report 40,935 calls made, 22,663 bouquets presented; 11,689 Goodwill bags filled; $27,434 raised; of this $8389 went to reduce church debts and $8345 for current expenses.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society reports: "Our 70th Anniversary goal for new members for the three years was 557. We need only 100 more. We have secured eight of the nine $70 Anniversary memberships assigned to the District." Total money raised, $10,114.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society reports a total of $9398.60 raised in cash and supplies.

Property Interests: Three new Arizona churches were dedicated this year. Creighton Church, Phoenix, was far enough along to warrant dedication by Bishop Baker in October, 1938. The exterior stucco and some other features are still lacking, but the whole building is being used in a growing creative program.

Yuma completed its new church in time for dedication in May. Cost, including lot, $13,000. All paid but $1200, to be paid within a year. The new building is beautiful, and more adequately serves that community.

Chandler has long needed a real church. In the face of low citrus and cotton prices the people responded to the offer of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to donate $500 and lend the services of a practical builder, and, mirabile dictu, Chandler has a perfect gem of a church, worth $6500, but costing only $3700; all paid but $500. Reginald Inwood is the architect. Bishop Baker dedicated it June the fourth.

Debts are still being reduced. Inwood-San Diego, cancelled its note of $750, and Encinitas wiped out debts totaling $1830, the latter aided by a $500 donation from the Board of Home Missions and the generosity of creditors. Other churches reporting reductions are Calexico, Costa Mesa, Fullerton, Glendale, Park Boulevard, Santa Ana, First; Tucson and Yorba Linda. Total for the district, $16,930. In 1934 the total indebtedness was $430,980, reduced now to $262,016; aggregate reduction, $168,964.

Chandler Church

One goal in the Five Year Plan urges that the church and its premises be kept neat and attractive. Many of our churches have responded in the improvement of church and parsonage properties, redecorating of interiors, painting exteriors, beautifying grounds. The list is so large I refer you to the statistical table for an index as to the investment made. Total expended for improvements, $30,220.

Evangelism: The pastors have sounded a positive evangelistic note, and 629 persons have registered their decision to begin the Christian life; but effective evangelism includes much more than just beginning the Christian life, and only the Recording Angel knows how many commitments have been made in specific areas of life, as growing persons have become aware that religion is valid in proportion as it includes every part of life. "Thank God, a man can grow!" 683 have joined our churches through Preparatory Membership and on Confession of Faith, and 946 otherwise, making a net gain of 384 in total membership.

Any Church can have a good year whose members unitedly determine to give positive loyalty to their Church, supporting their pastor—whoever he may be. A few laymen have said this year, "We have not had a good year, and many people think our pastor should move, but the main fault is ours. Some have not liked the pastor for some petty reason, and so have staged a sit-down strike." Dear lay brethren, we preachers fail, too; but YOU have it in your power to make our new Methodism a winning, transforming, redemptive movement, if you will all work as loyally and indefatigably as some are doing. The cause is greater than the minister or any one or more lay members.

Valedictory: Several months ago a simple problem of arithmetic convinced me that five districts divided into seven Superintendents goes once with two over. I had some suspicion that I might be one of the two over, and our Bishop has intimated that my suspicions may be well founded. On February 5th, 1935, Bishop Baker asked me to take this office. It has been a great adventure. I have always believed strongly in our system of Superintendency; I still believe in it, in spite of my blunders and my failure to realize many of the high hopes I had four years and five months ago. The fellowship of our Bishops and of the devoted Christian gentlemen in the Cabinet has enriched my life beyond measure. How can I ever repay or even acknowledge the debt I owe the faithful ministers and their wives and the children whose priceless companionship I have enjoyed in these crowded years? I never knew what the fellowship of the ministry could be like until you began to take me into your homes and hearts. And you laymen of the district have often overwhelmed me with your kindness. We have often disagreed, but generally we have learned to love and trust each other.

I suppose every generation thinks it lives in a most crucial period, but surely no period of history is more fraught with dangers than our day. God has given us a great new united church to meet the world's greatest crisis. Crisis is only another way to spell opportunity. A thoroughly consecrated, intelligent, united church will move forward under God to realize the Christian fellowship even in a world of conflict. We will never falter, for His is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, forever and ever. Hallelujah!

JAMES EDWIN DUNNING

LATIN AMERICAN MISSION WINNING FLYING GOALS

Important repairs and sanctuary improvements have been made at Bakersfield, Glendora, Oakland, Santa Ana, and Selma, Pasadena and Mesa. The four outstanding achievements of the year in building are Orange, Flagstaff, Stockton and Sacramento. At Flagstaff, the artistic stone parsonage is all complete. Stockton's "Casa del Pueblo" (House of the People) is built of adobe. Pastor Davila knew carpentering better than making adobes. So he built a small frame house for the adobe artist who built this Community Christian Center. Here the young people at night and during winter months meet for directed recreation and Christian culture.

Watts is nearing its flying goal under the dynamic leadership of F. O. Quintanilla, assisted by Cesar Lizarraga and R. C. Menker. 41 decisions and increases along all lines except in local giving. Sampson Memorial Hall and the entire plant—except the unfinished sanctuary—is crowded with activities. Many community organizations use this great convenient center for luncheons and conferences.

Fremont Park, E. N. Hernandez, is making wonderful gains in the education of his four P.K.'s who will all graduate next year, two from Junior College, one from High School and Viola from Junior High School, while conquering great moral and economic adversities. Few if any parsonages in the Mission have more talented college sons than those in this "wrong side of the track" suburb of Pasadena. The Fremont Park membership has increased 25 percent and World Service as well. We rejoice that gains over the Mission are in the majority even though, because of lack of funds, the number of points served has been reduced from 76 to 66.

46 workers report 395 conversions, 204 baptisms, both good gains; also a gain in preparatory members received both into and from probation. The total members in all relationships is 4,337. There was an increase of 5 in number of Sunday Schools; the 4,036 Sunday School pupils represent advance; also the average attendance, and a 30 percent gain in Daily Vacation Bible Schools with a 50 percent gain in numbers enrolled. The number in English and Spanish classes has increased tenfold. The 5,878 church adherents, the 192 volunteer workers and the 59 sent to Christian schools and colleges represent fine increases. The total giving is $15,532, which represents some decrease.

The Latin American's ambition to excel rejoices in these Flying Goals attained.

Mexicali, capitol of Lower California. Rosa Fe Narro is the daughter of Rev. Miguel Narro, pastor of the Methodist South Trinidad Mexican Church in Los Angeles. The moral lapse of the former pastor wrought great damage, but the wise leadership of the three border woman workers, Dr. Dora Axe and Ruth Ferguson in cooperation with the W.H.M.S., held the fort. The Border Circuit reports 95 members, 31 affiliated, 225 in Sunday School, 12 conversions, 4 baptisms, 80 in D.V.B.S., 70 in Junior Circle, 8 voluntary workers, $435 given. We wish all Methodism might see as we have seen and heard Rosa Fe Narro preaching to some 200 including Government officials. The attendance has increased 75 percent. The Mexican Government is taking deep personal interest in the various activities of that fine work just over the border.

VERNON M. McCOMBS, Superintendent.

Standing Committees and Boards

EXTRACT FROM ACTION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1939

"It is moved that all reports originating in any of the Boards or Committees of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church but read in the sessions of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, be adopted and ordered printed in the Journal of the originating Conference."

(The same rule has been observed in the Arizona Conference.)

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

For the last time, your Board of Trustees brings its report to the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It will review briefly the work of the fiscal year ended April 30, 1939. The certified audit for that fiscal year furnishes the statistics on which the report is based, the Balance Sheet itself being published in its usual place in the Journal.

The World's unrest and turmoil have affected deeply all business and industrial conditions, and these in turn have made the administration of Trust Funds exceedingly difficult. The year, notwithstanding, has seen some degree of progress. This is reflected not only in our Balance Sheet but also in our Statement of Operations.

The Balance Sheet shows no marked change in our Net Worth, now standing at $215,051.69, making a gain of $1,582.00 for the year. The significant change, so far as Net Worth is concerned, is shown in its relationship to our total assets. As has been reported previously, the Net Worth, at its lowest point in 1935, stood at $134,388.75, and represented only 15.7 per cent of the total assets then reported. The above indicated Net Worth, as shown in the audit of April 30, 1939, is a gain of $80,662.94 over the low point and represents 70.67 per cent of total assets. The improved condition is likewise shown in any study of the relation of our Cash and Receivables to our total indebtedness. As reported this year, our Cash and Receivables stand at $117,677.88 as against total Liabilities of all sorts of $88,858.94. Whereas last year the Cash and Receivables items represented only 95 per cent of our indebtedness, they now equal 132 per cent thereof. Beside these Receivables we have an investment in securities having a market value of $21,790.75 on April 30, 1939, and real property valued at $160,370.14.

Indebtedness has been liquidated during the year in the amount of $57,074.39. Though this shows a slower annual rate than during the preceding three years, there is this significant change. Whereas in former years sales of property have been usually at less than the values carried on our books, during the year just ended sale of property has yielded a slight profit: an indication that our book values are now in line with realities. The same result has followed from the changes in our securities portfolio, sales made having yielded a profit of $2,175.29 on their book value.

The most important achievement of the year, perhaps, is to be found in the fact that for the first time in seven years the Fund has been operated at a profit. Whereas the Operating loss for the year ended April 30, 1938, was $3,518.00, this year a profit derived purely from Operations, taking no account of profits from sale of assets, stands at $847.57, after having absorbed depreciation in the amount of $4,718.88. The Net Operating improvement over the preceding year, therefore, amounts to $4,365.57. While the margin for the year is small, the gain is real and marks the transition of the Fund into Operating Solvency. For the first time in seven years your Board of Trustees brings to the Conference a dividend, small, but earned. The check for $500.00 marks the emergence of the Fund from its perils into a position where it is reasonable to expect that annual dividends for the benefit of our Claimants may continue to increase materially in amount. We go into the Successor Conference not only solvent as to Capital Assets but also solvent as an Operating Fund.

Upon the advice of the auditors, the Board is setting aside all operating profits from sale of Capital Assets toward the building of a surplus which will act as a cushion against future fluctuations in the market value of the items composing its assets and for the further purpose of stabilizing future dividends. How sharply such fluctuations affect the Fund can be seen at once when it is remembered that last year the revaluation of our securities alone resulted in a write-off in Net Worth of \$6,475.92. More than $\frac{1}{4}$ of that write-off has been recovered in the revaluation of this year and enters into the total surplus mentioned above.

The establishment of the Surplus enabled the Board to follow the policy approved by the Conference in 1937, when by resolution it authorized the writing off of the accumulated Operating deficit against Capital when Operating solvency had been reached. The total Capital is now identical with our Net Worth.

This year has witnessed the final liquidation of the indebtedness of the Endowment Fund to the Board of Stewards. This liability, which stood in 1935 at $46,897.63, has been entirely paid, through the sacrifices of our Claimants and through the assessments which for three years the ministers of the Conference voted against themselves and paid. During the year the last of the indebtedness has been discharged and enough delinquencies have been paid in to leave a balance of $1,087.65 in the treasury. Inasmuch as the Endowment Fund itself has borne all the expense of this four-year program, and all the expense of the five-year Loyalty Fund campaign as well, your Board recommends that this surplus, together with any payments yet to be received from delinquents, shall be incorporated permanently in the principal of the Endowment Fund, where it now rests, and where in the future it may earn for the Superannuates of the Conference. We ask definite action on this recommendation. There are still a number of the members who are delinquent. In fairness to the men of the Conference who have loyally paid their assessments, these delinquencies should be paid at the earliest possible date and not allowed to accrue against future retirement allowances.

The matter of the Endowment Fund Equity in the properties involved in the German Merger remains unsettled. Only one parcel, the parsonage of the former Salem German Church in Oakland, has come into the possession of your Board of Trustees during the year, and that has attached to it a use reservation at least for another year. Its value is so problematical that we have not yet set it up as an asset on the books but hold it as a suspense item. Unification finds this as one of several matters which must be handed over to the new Church for administration. The Board of Trustees joins with the German Merger Commission in recommending the discontinuance of that Commission and that the Conference by direct action refer the whole matter of our German Merger equities to the Board of Trustees to be by them assigned to the Trustees of the Successor Conference as part of our assets and equities.

The Hough Fund, which is not owned by the Conference, but was given to a specially constituted Board of Trustees, faces some intricate problems arising from Unification. These grow out of the provisions of the original Deed of Trust, which prescribes exactly how the Board of Trustees must be composed, limits that Board in the matter of investments, specifies Necessitous cases among the Conference Claimants of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church as beneficiaries, and also makes the Conference a party to the Trust as the responsible distributing agents of such funds as may be handed to it by the Trustees. It will be necessary to find a legal way to adjust the administration of the Board to conditions set forth in the Deed of Trust. Doubtless this will require Court action and the Board of Trustees of the Fund are feeling their way toward a proper solution.

During the year, the assets of the Fund have increased $2,652.31, standing now at $60,731.21. The only indebtedness is a street bond of $20.00. During the year the Fund has earned a total of $1,375.48 from the operation of its properties and investments, and a profit on the sale of Capital Assets of $410.07. After absorbing all contra charges, there is a total surplus in the Fund of $1,087.65. From this the Trustees are handing to the Conference Board of Stewards a dividend of $1,000.00 for the current year, to be used for Relief and Emergency cases.

OREN B. WAITE,

Executive Secretary and Treasurer.

G. CORPORATE SEAL.

1. The Corporate Seal shall contain the words, "ALL NATIONS FOUNDATION, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA."

RESOLUTION CONCURRING IN THE INCORPORATION OF ALL NATIONS FOUNDATION

WHEREAS, It is now proposed by the Los Angeles City Missionary and Church Extension Society of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporation, and by representatives of All Nations Foundation, to incorporate the latter as a separate corporate body affiliated with the Methodist Church for the purpose of creating and operating a non-profit Institution for Educational, Spiritual and Social Welfare purposes; and

WHEREAS, It is believed to be in the best interests of the said Los Angeles City Missionary and Church Extension Society, All Nations Foundation, and of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, that such a corporation should be formed;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference of the Methodist Church that we hereby concur in the act of the former Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in authorizing and empowering the said Los Angeles City Missionary and Church Extension Society to cooperate with the duly appointed representatives of All Nations Foundation in consummating the incorporation of the said All Nations Foundation for the purposes above indicated, as set forth in its proposed Articles of Incorporation and its By-Laws; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we join in authorizing and empowering the officers of the said Los Angeles City Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church to execute, and file all papers necessary to accomplish the aforesaid incorporation, and in further authorizing and empowering them to transfer and convey by proper legal instruments the property and other assets connected with and in equity owned by the said All Nations Foundation, when such incorporation has been completed.

DEACONESS BOARD

In this day with its tense relations of which most of us are conscious, nothing is needed more than the helpful touch and wholesome influence of Christian personality. Whether it be on Lower Main Street or the fashionable boulevard, the need is; the presence of Him who came that we might have life, and have it more abundantly. This need is as universal as the universality of Christ. Most surely, America is no exception. Especially is this true of her childhood and youth. Of this need, the Methodist Church has not been unmindful. Through many agencies, she has been attempting to render this needed ministry.

Significant among these agencies is the Deaconess movement. Young women trained in mind and heart have, through their efficient Christian ministry, guided many into the way of Christian experience and living. The difficult financial times in which we still live has compelled many churches to deny themselves the services of these trained workers. It has also worked hardship upon those who have prepared themselves for this particular type of service.

Those who have been serving in the several fields to which they were appointed last year have rendered a significant ministry.

Two houses are maintained in this Conference for the comfort and care of Deaconesses and Missionaries who, after years of achieving service, have come to retirement. Here, they live in happy fellowship.

One is Robincroft in Pasadena, where twenty of these retired workers compose the happy family. This home has, through the years, been a haven of rest to some thirty-five different individuals. One, during the year, came to her translation and triumph. Robincroft is a home excellently fitted for its purpose, but needing enlargement and hospital facilities if it is to continue to serve the increasing number of workers seeking a place of retirement.

The other home "Thoburn Terrace" is located in Alhambra, near Main Street, but on a quiet tree-shaded lot; close to the First Methodist Church, where its Missionary-minded Pastor, Dr. Oechsli, and its big-hearted membership, make all members feel at home.

Three times during the year, an unseen guest came and called three loved members of the family, that they might go and "be forever with the Lord." Mrs. Mary Woodcock, widow of a charter member of the former Southern California Conference, and last member of that group, left us at the age of 96 years, 7 months, 7 days, on January 7. Beloved of all, active, alert of mind, interested in life and folks, she made a large contribution to the family life at Thoburn.

Thoburn Terrace is now preparing to increase its ministry by building a new unit to care for the many whose applications are on file. Thoburn Terrace is not in debt, nor does it intend to be. For the erection of this new unit, money is in the bank to pay all obligations when the building is completed. The architect is now drawing plans, and the building will be under way soon.

For the achievement in this particular field of the Master's work, we give thanks to our Heavenly Father, and, in His name, plan for the future.

HARDY A. INGHAM, President.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

This is my twentieth annual report to the Conference since beginning to serve you as secretary of Christian education. I do not propose to review the results of our work together over this period. Suffice it to say that to me these twenty years have been happy ones, filled with an increasingly joyous fellowship. If our efforts have served in some measure to undergird the Church, turn the hearts of the people to our Lord and to build His Kingdom in the earth, I am more than glad. Please accept my sincere thanks for your continued confidence and support.

Despite interruptions occasioned by committee work in connection with Unification, the year closing has been one of great activity and of intense interest. The cooperation of the District Superintendents and the pastors has been especially encouraging. The Five-Year Plan has furnished a fine basis for mutual effort and fellowship.

In common with other boards and committees we begin, with Unification, a new Chapter in our work. We will have a changed personnel. There will be a merging of points of view, programs, interests and values fostered by the various uniting groups. This will be an interesting experience but one calling for mutual care and consideration by all responsible for its guidance. Already there have been pleasant exchanges by correspondence and in conferences. We are on the way. Clyde Smith and Maurice Cheek have made their reports to their former conferences as I am making mine to you. After this conference and the successor conference and we are assigned to our respective posts, when the new board begins to function then the whole can be woven into one common pattern for the days ahead. We believe it will begin a great new advance for our churches in Arizona and Southern California.

The Year Book of our Board,—a compilation of reports made by department leaders to our Annual Meeting in January, is available to anyone desiring it. This makes detailed statements here unnecessary. But let it be said that no Conference anywhere is served by a more devoted or more competent group of people than these whose names appear at the head of brief paragraphs below. They deserve, and I am sure will continue to receive, your loyal and appreciative cooperation.

All await anxiously the report of our statistician on our enrollment and attendance records. Other Spring conferences this year register continued losses. What will ours show? The Five-Year Plan, supplemented by the general advance material from the central office, has been generally adopted. Perhaps we should not look for increases so soon. We are confident that an improved program persistently maintained will attract, increasingly, members of our churches. After all, a growing, improving program is the only legitimate solution to this problem.

There is a growing demand for opportunities offered pastors for brief but continuous study and discussion of our Christian philosophy and its implications. Our brethren in the California Conference are eager to join us in such quests. Tentative arrangements have been made for such conferences or seminars, but thus far a suitable date has not been found. We recommend that we request the Conference cabinets to set the date; our board standing ready when that is done to assist in arranging the details.

General offices are slowly but surely recognizing that if the need of an adequate lay leadership so generally felt in the Church, is ever to be secured, there must be a greater spread of responsibility for the administration of lay education. The laymen themselves must be charged more with this duty. To this end a three-day interdenominational conference was held in Los Angeles in May. A special committee, Kenneth Danskin, chairman, followed with plans for our Church, suggesting, wherever possible, formation of fellowships among adult, young adult and children's leaders, coordinate with the young people's organization, following, geographically, their Alliance lines. The great increase of interest in the young adult program would greatly abet such a project. In any alliance, where formed with aggressive leaders, such a fellowship could become immediately useful by the introduction of creative activities, training institutes, educational evangelism, etc. An abundance of the finest educational materials ever prepared, for every phase and department of our Church life, is available, at nominal cost, for their use. We recommend conference endorsement of this plan.

If we Methodists could be endowed with a sense of mission comparable to that possessed by some other groups, religious and political, which we could mention, we could turn the world up side down for our Lord Christ. Right now, in our great new Church, that is the supreme need. It is pitiful, yea tragic, to see classes of boys and girls go to pieces and leave our churches because there are not enough adult leaders to shepherd them. Oh, Methodist men and women, fathers, mothers, awake to your opportunity, to your sacred obligation, come to the help of your pastors and superintendents! Let no church disgrace itself by failure through indifference, to lead its children into the path of righteousness and Christian experience. To meet this emergency in Los Angeles, for it is nothing less, a district committee has tentatively arranged for a crusade to enlist new teachers and supply new help to those now active. They have contracted for the use of Chapman College where, beginning next Fall, two series of discussion groups will be enrolled for a period, under the finest leaders we can secure. The committee entertains a great hope that by this means we can begin to meet the paramount need of an adequate and competent lay leadership.

The effort to secure a division of the school day between the church and school in order that we may have more time to teach religion to our children is still a live issue, but is one that must develop slowly. It cannot be hurried. We hope soon to revive the project in Long Beach, most successful up to the time of the earthquake. The support of laymen and ministers is necessary. A strong local committee to assume responsibility is imperative. Meantime, we await action through the Los Angeles Church Federation for the granting of released time in the public schools for this purpose.

Children's Work—Alice Louise Brown, Director.

The fact that "the child is father to the man" and that what we would have in the church, and world-wide, we must first put into his life experience in formative child years compels continued increase of emphasis upon our children's work program. A long step forward was taken during the present year in the appointment of a Conference Director of Children's Work to give more definite leadership in this field. Most of her time has been spent in local churches over the Conference, including some time in every district. Forty-eight churches have received visits ranging from two to six days each, the time being given to counseling with individual leaders and small group conferences. The value of this type of intensive local work, where major emphasis is placed upon practical problems of teaching procedures and materials with a given age group, is attested by the reports which have come from the churches visited.

On the basis of this field work, study plans are under way providing leadership and encouragement for the thousands of faithful workers with our children in churches over the conference. A corps of efficient volunteer field workers is being gradually developed who will cooperate with the Children's Work Committee as auxiliary members for their own section.

In the early fall, Miss Edith F. Welker, Secretary of Children's Work for the General Board of Education, is coming for a ten-day series of conferences planned to reach key leaders in every part of the Conference. Negotiations are under way to include other general leaders in this field of work also.

A definite plan of coordination of all children's work in the local churches, as represented by our various agencies, is being proposed. It is hoped to present a program of activity which is truly life-centered and touches every phase of child interests within the Church.

Epworth League and Young People's Work—Jas. McGiffin, Director. "Business as usual during alterations" has been the slogan under which the Young People's Department has been working these past months.

Seven regional conventions this past spring registered the largest attendance in our history. Plans for an aggressive program, including plans for increasing loyalty in membership, were given a prominent place at each convention.

We are now looking forward to an enlarged summer institute program. This season's schedule calls for twelve institutes. Three have already been held and have registered an attendance of over 800. These institutes will have a faculty of pastors numbering some 200.

"Christian Fellowship in a World of Conflict" which was the theme of the National Council of Methodist Youth held in Boulder, Colorado, last fall, has been the emphasis in alliance, regional and conference programs this spring and early summer.

"Christian Fellowship—A Way of Life" has been selected as the theme for the forthcoming United Methodist Youth Conference of the California Area which will be held in Oakland, September 1-4. This will be the first United Methodist Youth gathering since the uniting of the churches. Delegates will be grouped in three divisions,—high school, senior youth, and young adults.

We are looking forward to an enlarged fall program to be built around the new United Church Board of Christian Education, "Educational Evangelism," which will be individual and social in its scope.

Evidence of youth's eagerness to participate in such a program has been already demonstrated in the number of decisions recorded at the summer institutes thus far held. A special leadership training program will prepare local, alliance, regional and conference officers to promote this program in every local young people's organization.

Fellowship with the young leaders of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in this area indicates a wonderful spirit of harmony which will increase the effectiveness of Christian work among the youth of the great new Church.

Young Adults—Ruth Harris, President. The division of Young Adults is about one year old and has had amazing growth. Its purpose is not to be "just another organization," but a group to provide for the social needs of the people who have outgrown the Epworth League and yet are not ready to take their places in the Women's Aid Society and Brotherhood. During the year, with the splendid cooperation of the District Superintendents, there have been nine meetings held throughout the Conference for pastors and interested young people of the Young Adult classification to help with the organization, program and needs in each section. We are looking forward to our second Young Adult Institute at Mammoth Lakes, June 24-July 1, to a United Methodist Youth Conference over Labor Day and to a fall banquet that will probably be an annual event.

Wesley Foundation and Schools—Herman N. Biemfohr, Director. "I am convinced that the Church must lose itself in its service to college students of this day in order that it may save itself. It dare not forsake its student work or let it get lost in the total program. It is today a strategic spot for Kingdom building." So speaks Grace Sloan Overton after participating in the University Christian Mission on thirty university and college campuses—mostly tax-supported—this year.

The five Wesley Foundations and four Wesley Clubs to which this Conference gives support have been meeting this challenge. Some high lights of their programs are: fifteen students formed into a fellowship for full-time Christian service; an Inter-racial Deputation Team; Summer Session program at U.C.L.A.; Religious Conference of all denominations and faiths organized at Tempe; Social Service Survey of housing conditions among the under-privileged of Tucson; eight students entering either the Student Peace Service or the Work Camps for the Summer; a College Institute this summer held for the first time; and the Santa Barbara State Teachers' College ready to organize a Wesley Foundation.

In addition, all of the Foundations carry on a regular program of Religious Education through Forums, Seminars, Worship, of Leadership Training through participation in Student Councils, of Creative Recreation, of applied Christianity through Credit Unions and Cooperatives, of Missions through giving to Chinese students and Japanese Wesley Foundation, of evangelism through personal counseling and group sharing.

Adults—John Wyse, Chairman. Just as a promising program of Adult Work seemed to be rounding the corner, Byron Horn, our leader, was forced to abandon his work and as a consequence activity in this department has been somewhat delayed. We take this opportunity to express to Brother Horn our very deep gratitude for his faithful endeavor on behalf of this work and the earnest hope that he may be speedily and completely restored to normal health and strength.

Mr. John Wyse is now chairman of the Adult Committee and among other things proposes actively to encourage adult classes to use the elective courses found in the Adult Class Monthly, dealing with such subjects as Stewardship, Crime, Temperance, etc. There is need of groups taking up these important subjects and thinking them through in light of Christian truth. Another proposal is to arrange brief week-end institutes or conferences for adults where discussions may be encouraged under competent leaders, and where may be made commitments in new areas of life and plans made for active participation in the remedying of social evils in the world.

It is proposed to encourage the enlistment of our churches in the Five-Year Plan, in the use of the valuable leadership education materials and such other studies as those prepared by the Conference Committee on Social Studies. The Adult committee will adopt other objectives as it proceeds with its program.

Latin American Educational Work—Reported by J. Scott Willmarth. In the churches within the bounds of the Southern California Conference that are under the supervision of the Latin American Mission, some very good progress has been made in both the educational and cultural work. A successful Epworth League Institute was held with an attendance of 35. Vacation Church Schools were conducted in a number of churches, the largest ones being in Watts, where the attendance reached 250, in the Plaza church, San Fernando and Pasadena. The teaching of adults to use English as well as teaching Spanish to children and young people, has been a part of the program of the churches in San Fernando, Pasadena, Mesa, Santa Monica and a few others. Cultural classes in vocal and instrumental music and in art have been held in many of the churches. Teacher training has been emphasized in the Plaza Church and at Watts where much of the leadership is now to be found from among the members of the church.

Spanish American Institute—R. H. Silverthorn, President. The Spanish American Institute is just closing a very successful year with some seventy boys in attendance. Six boys were in the graduating class. These six will go out to take their places with a great group of alumni who have taken their part of responsibility over a period of more than twenty-five years. The summer program will be conducted on the Institute campus. Morning classes are to be carried on in Mexican crafts, gardening, poultry raising, printing and cooking. The afternoon program will include planned recreation and educational tours. It has been felt that the year-round program will fill a real need as there are always a number that have no way of employing their time profitably during the summer months. Visitors are always welcome, and we hope that the members of the Conference and friends of the school will find time to make us a visit.

W. F. M. S. Educational Work—Mrs. Wray Andrew, Secretary. This is the concluding year of the three-year plan leading up to the Seventieth Anniversary which is to be held in Pasadena next October. Our Goals which are both educational and promotional, include the study of the text book, the promotion of Leadership Training Courses, increasing the subscription lists of our magazines, the memorizing of favorite hymns and Scripture passages, the securing of new members and the meeting of all financial goals and obligations. Adult members numbering 9332 in this Conference are actively engaged in attaining some or all of these goals. The lives of 1354 Young Women and Standard Bearers are enriched by attendance at camp, retreats and the regular monthly meetings. There are 2476 Juniors enrolled and many others who are receiving instruction through the correlated program in the Church School. Our entire program is built on a foundation of prayer and earnest endeavor enriching the Christian experience of all who will accept it as a part of their lives.

W. H. M. S. Educational Work—Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick, President. Not only does this organization seek to extend religious and educational advantages to under-privileged groups of our country, including the Home and Schools in Southern California, but it is the constant effort to stimulate the interest of our 13,000 adult and junior members in community and national affairs leading to Christian Citizenship. The use of the Study Courses and other literature is encouraged in the 418 organizations, and there are 3217 subscriptions to our Home Missionary Magazine in this Conference. A week at Idyllwild Pines Camp, afforded opportunity for 205 girls and 50 leaders to study the Bible and the missionary activities of our Church. Anticipating unification, we have had an interchange of speakers with women of the former Methodist Church, South, to become acquainted with the methods and extent of the work of that body. Through affiliation with the Council of Federated Church Women knowledge has been gained of the work being carried on by all Christian women.

One of our outstanding goals this year has been the promotion of Leadership Training Institutes in cooperation with the Board of Education of our Church, which are being held in Auxiliary, District and Conference gatherings. Three hundred fifty-three women enrolled in the courses and over 200 certificates have been issued to date.

California Church Council—H. V. Mather, Executive Secretary. The California Church Council, Southern Area, has enjoyed another year of increasing activity and enlarging opportunity. With nineteen communions as members, it stands as a constant demonstration of the feasibility of Church unity. The Council greatly appreciated the support which is given to the interdenominational program by Methodism in Southern California. The appointed representatives have found many ways to further the cooperative work, and financial contributions from Methodist churches have helped to make possible the continuation and expansion of the work.

The department of Social Relations made a study of the migrant situation resulting in closer cooperation with the Council of Women for Home Missions. During the session of the State Legislature bills were analyzed which dealt with moral issues. Three legislative bulletins were issued to our constituency giving information and suggesting procedure.

The department of Christian Education has continued its work. In October a series of conferences on the use of fine arts in religion was conducted; and another series on church architecture.

In May a very significant conference which will doubtless result in the development of a volunteer field staff, was held. When completed it will serve both denominational and interdenominational interests. Vacation Church Schools, numbering over 600 enrolled in excess of 60,000 pupils, with an average daily attendance of 45,000. The Council is again leading in the study of the movement for Week-day Religious Education, and is developing plans which will place this work on a more substantial footing in the state. Leadership Education schools have continued; numerous local conferences have been conducted; significant gains have been made through the Christian Youth Council; individual churches have been served in many ways.

The service which the Council can render continues to be handicapped by lack of adequate finance. Methodist churches have done well in this regard. If every church in the Conference would see that its apportionment is paid in full this interdenominational agency, in whose work the Methodist Church participates in a large way, would be given a great impetus.

JESSE L. CORLEY, Executive Secretary.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

With unification now in effect and with every organization and department of the Church alive with forward looking programs, your Commission feels that the time has come to think in more positive and constructive terms with reference to the establishment of a School of Religion of the highest type in this great southwest.

We believe that such an institution should be commensurate in faculty, curricula and equipment, with eastern schools.

We recommend that an adequate Commission be continued, and that a vigorous policy of investigation and consultation be carried out, looking toward the establishment of such a School within the not too distant future.

F. G. H. STEVENS, Chairman.

EVANGELIST REPORT

During this conference year, I have held 17 meetings, as follows:
Three camp meetings—Penhook, Virginia; Seven Oaks and Mooers, both in New York.

FEDERATION OF METHODIST AGENCIES

During the year the Federation has invited representatives of the Pacific and Arizona Conferences of the former Methodist Episcopal Church South to share in planning its activities. The Annual Meeting on June 1st was made the happy occasion of a reception to Bishop and Mrs. James Chamberlain Baker in Wilshire Church in recognition of their assignment to the Western Jurisdiction and to residence in Los Angeles.

A master calendar is planned for the next Conference year with J. Wesley Hole as editor.

The principal function of the Federation is to promote fellowship between all Methodist organizations and institutions within the conference and to correlate and coordinate the activities as far as possible. Last year the Southern California Conference charged the Federation's Committee on Correlation "to make a study of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society and its relation to other societies of the Conference, including the Conference Missionary Society, the Equitable Support Plan, and other societies." In obedience to this mandate the said Committee on Correlation will submit a plan for the merger of these organizations within the framework of a Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, as provided for by the Uniting Conference.

The Federation recommends that the Southern California-Arizona

Conference of the Methodist Church recognize the said Federation of Methodist Agencies as an approved agency of the said conference, approve its Constitution and By-Laws as published in the 1936 Journal of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, pp. 106-108, and instruct the Federation to amend said Constitution and By-Laws so as to conform with the name and organization of the Southern California-Arizona Conference of the Methodist Church. We urge all Methodist institutions and organizations within the new Conference to affiliate with the Federation.

The newly elected officers of the Federation are: President, James E. Dunning; First Vice President, Robert A. McKibben; Second Vice President, Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick; Secretary, W. D. Michener; Treasurer, Miss Katherine Higgins.

JAMES EDWIN DUNNING.

COMMITTEE ON CORRELATION

The 1938 session of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church took the following action:

"That we ask the Federation of Methodist Agencies, through its Committee on Correlation, to make a study of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society, and its relationship to other societies of the Conference, including the Conference Missionary Society, the Equitable Support Plan, and other societies, such as those in the Bay Region, Pasadena, San Diego, etc., and the relation of all of these to our city and local missionary problems."

In pursuance of these instructions the Committee on Correlation of the Federation of Methodist Agencies has made a careful study, and submits the following Constitution for a Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, to the new Successor Conference of the Methodist Church. This program has been developed within the framework set up by the Uniting Conference for such a Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension. The report has the unanimous approval of the Committee on Correlation and of the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION CONSTITUTION I. ORGANIZATION

A. There shall be a Board of Missions and Church Extension of the (Successor) Annual Conference of the Methodist Church. (Par. 885, Daily Christian Advocate, pp. 358-359). (This Board shall be the successor of the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society and of the Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and of the Boards of Missions and of Church Extension of the Pacific and Arizona Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church South).

B. This Board shall be composed of one lay member and one minister from each District, and five additional members, all to be elected quadrennially; provided that the first Board to be elected at the session of the Annual Conference in June, 1939, shall be elected for one year only; their successors to be elected in 1940 for the full four year term. In electing the first Board A— and B— Districts shall each have two laymen and one minister; C— D— and E— Districts shall each have one layman and two ministers. In subsequent elections the proportion of ministers and laymen in each district shall always be reversed. The Annual Conference shall elect one ministerial and one lay member on nomination of the Conference Youth organization and the remaining members on nomination of the Conference Committee on Nominations. The District Superintendents and the Superintendents of Missions wholly or part within the bounds of the Conference, and the Treasurer of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall be consulting members of the Board, without vote.

C. The Board may elect such officers as it deems necessary. The treasurer of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall be Treasurer of the Board, and as such shall receive and disburse all monies as directed by the Board.

D. The Board shall employ a full-time Executive Secretary. (Par. 887, p. 359). He shall be elected by the Board, and shall be appointed by the Bishop in charge of the Conference. The support of the Executive Secretary, including house rent, travel and office expense, shall be fixed by the Board, subject to approval of the Annual Conference, and shall be included in the apportionment to the churches.

The duties of the Executive Secretary shall be to promote all the objectives of the Conference Board in cooperation with the Jurisdictional and General Boards.

He shall hold the same relation to all the District Superintendents, and when working in any District shall operate in cooperation with and by the consent and approval of the District Superintendent of that District.

Within these limitations he shall be responsible for developing the program of Missionary service within the bounds of the Conference. He shall prepare the publicity setting forth the activities and the forward program of the Conference Board. Pastors and churches are urged to open their pulpits to the Executive Secretary for presentation of the work. However, he shall not take public collections in the churches except when he shall have been invited to do so.

E. The Emergency Committee, consisting of the District Superintendents and the Executive Secretary, shall be responsible for the disbursement of the Reserve Fund, as hereinafter provided.

F. The members of the Board from each District, together with the District Superintendent, and three additional members so chosen that the total membership of the District Committee (exclusive of the District Superintendent) shall have an equal number of ministers and laymen, shall constitute a District Committee, whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided. The District Missionary Secretary (Par. 887, p. 359) shall be chosen from the membership of the District Committee.

II. OBJECTIVES

A. To cooperate with the General Board and the Jurisdictional Board of Missions and Church Extension in carrying out the policies and promoting the movements which they propose and adopt for any and all phases of the work of Missions and Church Extension. (Par. 885, Sec. 4 (2), p. 359).

B. To seek to cover all unoccupied territory in the Conference and to open new work where comity agreements indicate the responsibility of the Methodist Church, and to develop existing needy fields.

C. To maintain the schedule of minimum support adopted by the Annual Conference for the effective members, including members on trial.

D. To supplement low salaries paid by charges served by supply pastors.

E. To meet financial emergencies in parsonage homes, such as the need for hospitalization, food and clothes.

F. To cooperate with the General and Jurisdictional Boards in the work of church extension, such as debt raising, new building programs, etc.

G. To subsidize evangelistic work in fields where real need for it exists.

III. DEPARTMENTS

The Board shall conduct its activities through the following Administrative Departments, each of which shall be organized as the Board may determine:

A. Department of City Work

There shall be a department of City Work, which shall include all Missionary work in cities of 10,000 or more population within the Conference in conformity with the provisions of Par. 849, p. 354. Any and all organized City Missionary societies within the Conference shall annually submit their budgets to the Department of City Work, and said department shall submit its total budget to the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension; when approved by said Board, such budget shall become a part of the total budget of the Board, subject to final approval by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and by the Annual Conference.

Wherever desired, the Board of Managers or Directors of any City Society may designate the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board as Executive Secretary of said City Society. In such case an agreement shall be made between the City Society and the Conference Board as to the division of the time and the support of the Executive Secretary and other administrative expenses.

B. Department of Equitable Support

There shall be a Department of Equitable Support whose aims shall be to promote Objectives C, D and E. This Department shall be governed by the following procedure:

(1) Each District Superintendent shall report to the Department not later than thirty days before the opening day of the Conference session, on forms supplied by the Board, the estimated amount needed to assure the minimum salary for each charge served by an effective member of the Conference on his District for the following year, together with the amount of available support from the General Board of Missions and Church Extension and outside support for this purpose. He shall also report the amount needed by charges served by supply pastors to supplement the amount paid by the charge.

(2) In order to determine the amount to be raised by the churches for Equitable Support, the Department of Equitable Support shall deduct from the total obtained under Par. (1) the amount anticipated for this purpose from the General Board (See Art. IV, Sec. B), and the estimated income from the sustentation fund assessment provided for in Art. IV, Sec. C. To the balance thus obtained shall be added 25 per cent of said balance to provide a Reserve Fund. This total needed from the churches for Equitable Support shall then be included in the grand total to be apportioned to the churches for the work of the Board, as provided in Art. IV, Sec. A.

(3) The Board shall establish a Reserve Fund to care for Objective E and for any other work which the Board may authorize. The percentage of receipts from apportionments to the churches to be placed in the Reserve Fund shall be determined by the Board, provided this percentage shall not be less than 20 per cent of the receipts from the churches for the budget of the Equitable Support Department. The Emergency Committee shall be responsible for the disbursement of the Reserve Fund.

(4) Each District Committee shall:

(a) Inquire of every charge served by an effective member that has a salary below the minimum fixed by the Conference to ascertain whether it is doing its utmost to meet said standard, and to recommend in writing to the Department of Equitable Support the maximum amount to be paid to said charge.

(b) Report in writing to the Cabinet, members of the Conference serving charges who in their opinion are permanently ineffective, and suggest that the Cabinet take action as provided in Par. 252, P. 361.

(c) Recommend to the Department of Equitable Support the amounts to be paid to the charges served by supply pastors to supplement the support.

(5) The Conference Board, on the basis of the reports from the the District Committees shall determine the amount to be paid to each charge, and in writing to order the Treasurer of the Board to make payments monthly as funds are available.

(6) The Treasurer shall prepare an itemized account of receipts from members of the Conference and the expenditures to charges, which shall be printed in the Conference Journal. The expenditures from the Reserve Fund shall be reported by the Emergency Committee to the Department of Equitable Support in detail, and the total shall be listed in the printed report as "Reserve Fund Expenditure."

(7) The minimum salary for effective members of the Conference, except those serving as pastors in the Latin American Mission, shall be determined each year by the Annual Conference. The Department of Equitable Support, on recommendation of a District Committee, may make adjustments in the minimum salary where higher living costs and other variants warrant it.

(8) The Treasurer shall turn over to the Conference Committee on Permanent Records each year a list of members of the Conference who have not paid their assessments for the Equitable Support Fund in full, together with the amount of the default.

C. Department of Church Extension

There shall be a Department of Church Extension to promote Objectives B and F. This Department shall pass upon applications to the General Board for loans, donations and designated gifts. It may also provide for the creation of a revolving loan fund for church extension, for campaigns to liquidate or reduce church debts, and for such other activities as may hereafter be authorized by the Board, subject to Annual Conference approval.

IV. METHOD OF RAISING FUNDS

A. The total budget of the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension shall include: (1) Administrative Expense, including the support of the Executive Secretary; (2) Budget of the Department of City Work; (3) Budget of the Department of Equitable Support; (4) Such other items as the Board may hereafter include, subject to the approval of the Annual Conference. This total budget shall be submitted to the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, and when approved by said Commission and by the Annual Conference, the total budget (except the estimated amount to be provided by the sustentation fund assessment to the ministers, and the appropriations from the General Board for maintenance) shall be apportioned to the churches of the Conference, as is provided in Par. 538, p. 309, and Par. 849, Art. 6, p. 354. The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society shall have authority to apportion its budget to the churches within the territory of said Society, after such budget has been approved by the Annual Conference. The budget of the said Society shall include a proportionate share of the Administrative Budget of the Board, as provided in Art. III, Sec. A. The remainder of the total budget of the Board, after making the deductions hereinbefore provided, shall be apportioned to the remaining churches of the Conference.

B. Maintenance Funds received from the General Board of Missions and Church Extension shall be included in the total income of the Conference Board for the Department of the Equitable Support, and shall be disbursed in conformity with the Discipline and the regulations of the General Board.

C. There shall be a sustentation fund assessment upon that part of the salaries of all effective ministerial members of the Annual Conference above the minimum salary fixed by the Conference (Par. 539, p. 309). Funds collected from such assessment shall be used only in paying minimum salaries. The assessment shall amount to the following percentages of that part of the cash salaries in excess of the minimum salary:

Cash Salary of $1201 to $2999, 3 per cent of the excess over the minimum.

Cash Salary of \$3000 and over $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the excess over the minimum.

If there is no parsonage, actual house rent paid may be deducted in order to determine the "cash salary", provided the amount has been approved by the Department on "Equitable Support."

D. Additional funds may be obtained by private gift for church extension projects or such other purposes as the donor may specify, provided that such gifts and the conditions governing them shall be duly accepted by the Conference Board.

V. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and any By-Laws that may be attached thereto may be amended by vote of a majority of the members of the Board at any meeting, provided that each member of the Board shall have received a copy of the proposed amendment at least ten days prior to action thereon. Such amendment shall be in force and effect after the same shall have been passed or ratified until the next meeting of the Annual Conference, at which time if approved it shall continue in force and effect, and if disapproved shall then be null and void. The Plan may also be amended by vote of a majority of the members of the Annual Conference present and voting, provided that the proposed amendment shall have been presented in writing to the Secretary of said Annual Conference and read publicly in a session of the Conference at least one day prior to action thereon by the Conference.

INTERIM ENABLING ACT

Pending the adoption of this Plan and the election and organization of the Conference Board, the Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society has prepared the budget for Equitable Support for the Conference year 1939-40, as provided in Art. III, Sec. B; and the Commission on Finance has prepared the Administrative Budget for the said Conference year and recommended the salary of the Executive Secretary. The Commission on Finance has also recommended the total budget to the Annual Conference, as provided in Art. IV, Sec. A. The foregoing actions are hereby approved and made the action of the Conference.

JAMES E. DUNNING.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

TO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

As the end of another Conference year approaches, the Commission on Finance of the Conference wishes to express its sincere appreciation to the pastors and churches of the Conference for the fine cooperation we have enjoyed this year. The work of the Commission at its best is difficult. Many demands are made which are impossible of fulfillment. The large majority of pastors and boards have been sympathetic with the problems of the Commission and have cooperated in splendid fashion.

Many unusual problems have been faced this year as a result of Unification. Out of the new legislation comes a Financial Plan which is patterned very closely to the organization and procedure which we have been following. Because our operations have been so close to the new plan, our churches will experience little difficulty in becoming geared to the new machinery.

A particularly disturbing problem to some of our Conference projects has been created by the attitude and action of some of the General Boards in insisting on reducing each year the designated gift privileges for the support of these projects. These reductions have had to be met by accepting "additional support" credit instead of "on apportionment" credit for the designations. The problem has been accentuated by the refusal of the World Service Treasurer's office to follow the requirements of the Discipline that Additional Support credits should be included in the Total World Service Receipts. Still further emphasis has been placed on the problem by the issuance of "Certificates" by the Million Unit Fellowship office to churches which have met their World Service apportionment in full with "On Apportionment" credits. The old adage "You can't eat your cake and have it, too" seems to apply. The question our churches have had to answer is: Which is more important—the support of Conference projects, or receipt of a "Certificate" to hang on the wall? The response of the churches to the situation has been as one would expect of Southern California Methodists. The budgets of the projects have been met in full at the sacrifice of the "Certificates." Thanks to all who have cooperated.

All recommendations pertaining to the work for 1939-40 will be covered in a report to the Successor Conference. Only one matter needs attention of the United Session—that of the disbursement of the 1938-39 Annual Conference Expense Fund. With respect to the division of the receipts from the churches for this fund, we recommend:

1. That $1,000.00 be allocated for the Entertainment Fund for retired ministers of the Conference whose residences are outside the city of Long Beach, on the basis of $2.50 per day.

2. That $1,600.00 be paid to the Secretary of the Conference for the publishing of the Annual Journal.

3. That an Entertainment and Travel allowance be paid to the ministers and laymen alike, on the basis of $1.00 per day for 5 days, plus a mileage allowance of 1 cent per mile over 25 miles and under 200 miles, or 1½ cents per mile over 200 miles, with the provision that the allowance be paid on exactly the same percentage as the church from which the minister and delegate comes has paid its apportionment to the Annual Conference Expense fund.

The treasurer is authorized to pay the regular allowance, subject to the regular provisions, to pastors and lay delegates from churches in the San Joaquin valley upon presentation of a signed statement showing that the pastor and/or the delegate attended the sessions of the Northern Successor Conference.

In the event there are two lay delegates attending the Conference, one for the final session of the Southern California Conference and the other for the Successor Conference, the travel allowance shall be evenly divided between them and the per diem allowance shall be divided according to the sessions actually attended, provided the total per diem allowance for the two shall not exceed the allowance paid to one delegate sitting in both Conferences.

Since the L. A. District of the Pacific Conference and the Arizona Conference of the former M. E. Church, South, have provided certain funds for the Entertainment and Travel Fund, and since some of our members have contributed toward a special fund for the purpose of providing an allowance for Entertainment and Travel for these Southern brethren, and this special fund has been paid into the Entertainment and Travel Fund, the Treasurer is authorized to pay the pastors and lay delegates from these former Southern Conferences on the same basis as other pastors and delegates are paid.

4. That the balance of the receipts be credited to the expenses of the Treasurer's office.

TO THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA-ARIZONA CONFERENCE

Financial Plan. The Uniting Conference adopted a Financial Plan for the Methodist Church, a part of which covers the Annual Conference Financial set-up. The legislation calls for either a Commission on World Service and Finance or a District Stewards Meeting to carry out the provisions of the legislation. The Commission on World Service and Finance plan is very similar to the procedure which has been followed in the Southern California Conference for some years. It is therefore possible, and desirable, to put the new plan into effect immediately, with little disturbance in order that no further change in the set-up will be necessary after the 1940 General Conference when the Financial Plan will become effective throughout the church. The following paragraphs covering the Annual Conference Financial Plan are quoted for information. We recommend the adoption of the Commission on World Service and Finance plan and that these provisions be effective in the Successor Conference immediately:

"Paragraph 511. There shall be in each Annual Conference a Commission on World Service and Finance composed of five ministers and six lay members, nominated by the District Superintendents and elected by the Conference next succeeding the General Conference, whose term shall begin on adjournment of such Annual Conference and shall serve four years. No member shall be a member or an employee of any conference or connectional board. Members shall be elected by the Annual Conference. The chairman of each conference board or commission, or some person appointed by it, shall have opportunity to represent the claims of his board or commission before the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance."

"Paragraph 512. The Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall make diligent effort to secure full information regarding all conference interests that none may be neglected, jeopardized or excluded and shall recommend to the Annual Conference for its action and determination the total amount to be apportioned for each."

"Paragraph 513. The Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall recommend to the Annual Conference for its action what percentage of the total sum for Annual Conference interests shall be allotted to each such interest."

"Paragraph 514. The Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine the amounts to be apportioned to each District of the Annual Conference from both General and Annual Conference budgets when these have been determined as previously set forth and report them to the Annual Conference for approval."

"Paragraph 515. The Commission shall organize by electing a president and secretary. The treasurer of the Annual Conference shall be the treasurer of the Commission. The treasurer shall be bonded in a surety company approved by the auditing committee of the Annual Conference."

"Paragraph 516. It shall be the duty of the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, unless otherwise provided for, to estimate the amount necessary to furnish a sufficient and equitable support for the District Superintendent of each District in the Conference, including salary, suitable provision for rent, travel and office expense. It shall report this estimate to the Annual Conference for approval. The Conference Treasurer shall remit monthly to the several District Superintendents the amounts due them, and may borrow the funds necessary to make this possible, provided the approval of the Annual Conference for so doing has been obtained."

It is recommended that the District Superintendents and Treasurer of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall be advisory members of the Commission without vote.

Budgets. The Commission on Finance of the Southern California Conference, after consulting with representatives of the Arizona Conference and the Los Angeles District of the Pacific Conference of the M. E. Church, South, has prepared the Conference budgets for 1939-40. In accordance with the new legislation the budgets are prepared in three major divisions: Ministerial Support, Administration and Benevolences. The legislation provides that a Quarterly Conference may accept, increase or decrease the apportionment for Benevolences (General and Conferences). It should be noted, however, that this principle of voluntary acceptance on the part of the Quarterly Conference does not apply to the Ministerial Support and Administration apportionments. In preparing the budgets, the action of the Uniting Conference, which provides that there shall be no decrease in the General Benevolence apportionments to any church from the previous year, has been observed. The following budgets include the support of all the work for which the three constituent groups were responsible prior to Unification, and are recommended to the Successor Conference for adoption:

1939-40 Budget

General Benevolences:

To churches of former So. Calif. Conf. (M. E.)	$193,908.00
To churches of former L. A. Dist. (M. E. South)	8,221.00
To churches of former Ariz. Conf. (M. E. South)	4,991.00
Total	$207,120.00

Conference Benevolences:

L. A. City Missionary Society	$ 12,648.00
Conference Board of Missions	20,517.00
California Church Council	2,000.00
U. S. C. Student Work	3,500.00
Board of Education	3,128.00

Total$ 41,793.00

Ministerial Support:

*District Superintendents	$ 25,500.00
Episcopal Fund	11,500.00
Conference Claimants	84,000.00

Total	$121,000.00
-------------	--------------

Administration:

General Administration Fund	$ 2,000.00
Annual Conference Admin. Fund:
Entertainment and Travel	6,500.00
Conference Minutes	1,600.00
Treasurer's Office:	4,500.00
Episcopal Office Expense	1,000.00

Total	$ 15,600.00
-------------	--------------

Grand Total	$385,513.00
-------------------	--------------

Increase over previous year.....	1,395.00
----------------------------------	----------

*The apportionment for District Superintendents will provide for five Superintendents as follows: Salary, $3,300.00; Travel and Expenses, $1,200.00; Rent, $600.00; Total, $5,100.00.

Particular attention is called to Paragraph 513 of the new legislation quoted above. Instead of recommending what percentage of the total sum for Annual Conference interests shall be allotted to each such interest, the Commission has stated this division in dollars. It is recommended that in sending the apportionments to the charges, that each charge be advised of its share of the total for each individual item, and that each Quarterly Conference be informed on each separate interest in line with the provisions of Paragraph 525, which is quoted later in this report.

In addition to the apportionments included in the above budgets, it will be necessary to apportion to the churches during the year for the General Conference Expense Fund as ordered by the Uniting Conference. It is recommended that the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance be authorized to apportion this item to the churches when information is available from the General Treasurer as to the amount.

Method of Apportionment. The amount of support for the various items in the Conference budgets having been approved by the Annual Conference, it is recommended that the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall apportion these amounts to the Pastoral Charges of the Conference. It is recommended that the Grade Figure method of figuring apportionments as used by the Southern California Conference be adopted. In computing the apportionments to the Pastoral Charges, the Commission shall make a survey for the three years' immediately preceding, covering Membership, Total Ministerial Support and Disciplinary Benevolences, and shall ascertain the average for each item for the three year period. The ratio of each church to the Conference total for each of these three factors reveals the relative strength of the church to the other churches of the Conference. The ratios of these three factors shall then be averaged in order to eliminate, as far as it is humanly possible, any possible penalty or advantage due to unusually heavy or light ratios which may exist because of some peculiar condition, such as a large membership in a poor community or a small wealthy membership. The average of the ratios thus obtained shall be the "Grade Figure" percentage of the Conference total which an individual church should assume as its proportionate share of the budgets. Using this figure as a basis, the Commission shall make such adjustments as it may deem necessary in order to arrive at an equitable distribution of the apportionments, and such apportionments shall then become the official Apportionments of the Conference.

It is recommended that the Commission, in sending the apportionments to the Charges, shall separate them into the three general divisions, and shall give the churches full and complete information covering the legislation pertaining to each division.

Cultivation and Collections. The Financial Plan adopted by the Uniting Conference makes the following provisions relative to Cultivation and Collections:

"Paragraph 525. As soon as practicable after the session of the Annual Conference, the District Superintendent shall present to every charge in the District the amount apportioned to it by the General Commission on World Service and Finance for connectional (General) and Conference benevolences. It shall be the joint responsibility of the Pastor and District Steward and the Charge Lay Leader to present to a meeting of each congregation in a charge the program of benevolences and administration, an explanation of the various causes supported, and a statement of the amount of askings from that congregation and the manner in which it was determined. Such presentation to each local congregation shall be made before the Quarterly Conference of that charge shall set the amount of its acceptance. The first or second Quarterly Conference may accept, increase or decrease the amount apportioned. (For Benevolences, see paragraph on "Budgets" above). The amount voted by the Quarterly Conference shall be the amount apportioned for the charge.

"Paragraph 526. The District Superintendent shall report to the chairman of the Annual Conference Commission on the amounts that have been accepted by the District, charge by charge, and the chairman shall notify the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance and the various Conference interests of the total amounts which have been accepted by that Conference for the current year. The Bishops, District Superintendents, Pastors and official laymen shall make diligent effort to raise the full amount of the askings accepted by the charges. In the case of charges which have not been using this plan heretofore, it is advised that they arrange their affairs so as to inaugurate it immediately following the first General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Treasurer's Office. The Commission on World Service and Finance is authorized to make whatever arrangements it may deem advisable with the Board of Trustees of the Conference with reference to the maintenance, jointly of the Conference Treasurer's office.

A. W. TOWER, Chairman.

FRATERNAL AID

FRATERNAL AID I.

Another year's experience with the Fraternal Aid Plan on an assessment basis has convinced your committee of two things: (1) The members, by their splendid response in payment of assessments, have demonstrated by an overwhelming majority that they are "sold" on this Plan. (2) The letters and words of appreciation from beneficiaries of the Plan have proven beyond any doubt that this plan is a most practical way of assuring the bereaved families of our brothers that we do care in the hour of their sorrow.

Time and space will not permit us to quote in full all of the letters of thanks which have been received. We do, however, want to give you quotations from two of these letters. One beneficiary said, in part: "Most sincerely I thank you for the prompt dispatch and attention in forwarding check so soon following the tragedy. Indeed it came as food to the sparrow, and helped to console in deepest sorrow and bewilderment. God bless you in the good service." Another writes: "I wish I could express to the members of the Conference my appreciation for the wonderful help the check gave me at this time of our great loss."

During the year, seven assessments have been made. Two of those who died were effective members, three were retired members, one was the wife of a retired member, one was the wife of an effective member. In each case the amount which will finally be received by the beneficiary will amount to approximately $360.

Your committee wishes that every member of the Conference might have the privilege of serving on this committee and of feeling the results which this Plan is accomplishing.

In conclusion, we wish to thank one and all for the cooperation which has been given to this worthwhile project.

FRATERNAL AID II

For several years, the members of the Southern California Conference have carried on in one form or another a group plan of assisting surviving loved ones in a financial way at the time of sorrow and loss by death. At first this was accomplished through a "Group Insurance" plan. This was probably the cheapest way of doing the thing but it excluded many retired men as well as the wives of members.

For the past two years, a "Fraternal Aid" plan has been effectively used. The cost per member has averaged $10 per year, and the average amount paid to beneficiaries has been $360. This Fraternal Aid plan has come more nearly than any other suggestion to caring for all who should be cared for in the spirit of Christian Fraternal helpfulness. We therefore recommend to the Successor Conference that the following plan of "Fraternal Aid" be adopted:

1. The Conference shall assess each member the sum of $1.00 upon the death of a member or upon the death of the wife of a member.

2. 95 per cent of the receipts from an assessment shall be paid to the beneficiary of a deceased member.

3. 5 per cent of the receipts from an assessment shall be retained by the committee to guarantee handling expenses.

4. If and when the unused portions of the 5 per cent deductions shall accumulate to such an amount as to be sufficient to pay a claim in full, the following assessment shall be waived.

5. The Treasurer of the Commission on World Service and Finance shall act as collecting and disbursing agency for the Plan.

6. Regularly accepted "Supply Pastors" may participate in the Plan during the time of their service as pastors of churches within the Conference, with the provision that no benefits will be paid to their beneficiaries if more than one assessment is delinquent.

7. Members on Trial on salaried appointment shall be included in both assessments and benefits. Members on trial who are left without appointment to attend school may, at their own request, participate in the fund.

8. If any member is seriously delinquent in payment of assessments, the Committee on Fraternal Aid shall refer the case to the Cabinet for consideration.

9. Since the Conference cannot levy an assessment upon men in the retired relation, their joining will be voluntary. However, the retired men are urged to join the Fraternal Aid Plan, whereat all of the foregoing requirements will apply to their membership, with the exception of the enforcement of assessments.

10. In case a supply pastor or retired man, who was a member of the Conference at the date the Plan was initiated, decides to come into the Plan, he may do so at any time by paying the assessments in full that are levied after July 1, 1939.

11. In the event an effective member of the Conference retires and chooses to drop his membership in the Fraternal Aid Plan, and later wishes to resume it, he may do so by paying in full the assessments which were levied during the time he dropped his membership.

12. Any member of the Conference who is in school without an appointment, or on Sabbatical leave or otherwise without appointment with income, may upon written request and upon consent of the Conference Fraternal Aid Committee be excused from the assessment; but if so excused, will waive any and all benefits from the Plan during the period so covered, and shall not be required to pay the unpaid assessments when he again becomes a member. Such a member shall, however, be subject to assessments immediately when he receives an appointment or becomes otherwise employed.

13. In case a member neglects to pay the assessments, the Treasurer shall report the amount each year to the Conference Committee responsible for keeping the permanent records of all members, and upon retirement the amount of unpaid assessments against the member shall be deducted from his retirement allowance in accordance with the Discipline.

14. The Fraternal Aid Committee shall consist of seven ministers, nominated by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Ministerial Members of the Annual Conference. This committee shall act in matters of adjustment during the Conference year.

15. Since the members of the Latin American Mission have a group insurance plan of protection, they are hereby excused from participation and assessment in this plan.

In order for the members of the former Church South to enroll in the Plan, it will be necessary for them to fill out an information card and pay the first assessment of $1.00. Since assessments are payable in advance, all members of the former Southern California Conference have already paid this assessment.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Historical Society desires to submit the following report. Several meetings were called during the past year and the work of this organization was carefully considered. At the first meeting Wilbur Fisk was elected president and Will A. Betts was elected secretary. This action was taken October 18, 1938.

At the other meetings of the Society consideration was given to First, the importance of providing a suitable room to be used as a depository. It was the sense of the members that the logical place for such a room is in the Methodist Headquarters building. Accordingly a committee consisting of the president and Vernon M. McCombs were appointed to take this matter up with the Trustees of the Headquarters building asking them to provide such a room in one of the unfinished floors of that institution. The committee promptly took the matter up with the Trustees and received the assurance of their sympathetic consideration of the project.

Another matter of importance is that in order to have consecutive action we would suggest that the Committee on Committees be requested to continue the present group in their respective places, with the addition of such as may be specially interested in the personnel of the Conference.

The officers are happy to report that their requests made to different individuals for the preparation of historical accounts of different churches and other organizations connected with the Conference have been very generously consented to or complied with. The president is glad to state that there has been placed in his hands during the past year not a little valuable historical data with the promise of still other installments.

With the accumulation of this material it is only the part of wisdom that the Conference should appoint one of its members as custodian or historian, in order to conserve the results already achieved and the more energetically gather additional data. The Society wishes to herewith express its sincere thanks for the cooperation in the past and continued interest in the future.

WILBUR FISK.

WORLD SERVICE

To stem the disastrous post-Centenary ebb tide in missions the General Conference of 1924 provided that "There shall be a World Service Council in each Annual Conference." In the waning hours of the 1925 Annual Conference this Council first came into being. From the beginning it served solely a promotional function, and not until after eight years of service did it present a report. In 1933, in a short statement they proposed that we adopt the Foochow Area as the major objective of our foreign mission interest. In this the Conference heartily concurred.

During the current year the Council has promoted or cooperated in many types of missionary education. We note a few:

1. The autumn series of Cultivation Conferences held under the direction of the District Superintendents.

2. The year-round visitation of the World Service Caravan. The latter traveled 9600 miles, visited 112 churches and gathered an audience of 12,000 people. The manager, Mr. George Bechtel, delivered 285 addresses, and other speakers added 66 addresses. In eleven instances the exhibit served churches other than our own. Local offerings almost defrayed the cost of the caravan, exclusive of the manager's salary which came from other promotional funds supplied from general church sources.

3. Thousands of copies of selected letters from our Parish Abroad missionaries, prepared by our Board of Education office, went into the hands of members of local congregations.

4. The Speakers' Bureau with headquarters in the Board of Education office, cleared dates and placed many missionary speakers in our churches.

5. Increasing calls for definite information regarding special projects resulted in the issuance of the World Service Bulletin. Three issues went to the pastors and World Service leaders.

6. At the Council's suggestion the District Superintendents devoted their Easter letters to a call to stewardship giving for our missionary cause.

7. The Council cooperated in presenting and supporting four denominational and one interdenominational conferences to discover and disseminate the values of the Madras Conference.

8. Influence has been lent to the support of the Methodist Men's project to place a full time worker in the field on behalf of the victims of "the last great American migration." We commend the Methodist Men for their initiative and pledge continued support so that this project may get under way.

To the organization that shall succeed to the functions of the World Service Council we would share our experience.

1. We recommend the continuance of the World Service Bulletin idea, with its spotlighting of a wide range of definite projects for interest and support.

2. We suggest a new and improved type of Missionary Forum to succeed the Cultivation Conference. Specifically, we recommend the plan outlined by Mr. Bert Cooper and his sub-committee, and approved by the Council.

3. We urge that the tentative plans for bringing Dr. Ezra Cox to this Conference in the Spring of 1940 to evaluate our mission program and methods of cultivation be carried to completion.

4. We believe that some method should be devised to give recognition to the churches that meet their missionary goals in full.

5. We recommend that all pastors and lay leaders study their church giving to correct the practice under which thousands of Methodist dollars, needed for projects nurtured and approved by our church, are being diverted from that work and being applied to unauthorized and even questionable objectives.

6. We would close this final report of the World Service Council with a CALL TO ACTION. Yesterday's page is written; but we are in no mood to inscribe it with "Finis." Our last word must include a far-reaching deed that drives far into the tomorrows of the new century with the united church. We recommend that the Southern California-Arizona Conference in its first session assembled request the Division of Foreign Missions to send the Rev. and Mrs. Loren Humphrey to the Foochow Area as representatives of this Conference, and immediately invite our churches and groups and individuals in them to underwrite their support by designated gifts on apportionment credit through the Division of Foreign Missions.

FRANK M. TOOTHAKER.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS

The Conference Board of Home Missions has met quarterly during the year, and has sought to study the various applications for Maintenance and for special aid from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension which have been presented, in the light of the total needs of the Conference. The District Superintendents have been requested to make a survey of their respective Districts to show what projects are to be in line for aid in the next few years in order that the most needy cases may have prior consideration.

During the year several projects have been successfully promoted. These include: Phoenix, Creighton; Mount Olive; Delano; and Sanger. The funds for these projects had to be secured from the churches in "Additional Support" designations. The pastors and churches have responded in splendid fashion and the total amount approved for each project has been received.

Projects which have been approved and are now soliciting designations are: Long Beach, California Heights—$1000; Spanish American Institute, $1000; and Los Angeles Grace Church, $500. The support of these three projects is urged.

Officers for the Board are: Walter C. Buckner, Chairman; J. Wesley Hole, Secretary-Treasurer.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY AND EQUITABLE SUPPORT SOCIETY

The Conference Missionary and Equitable Support Society was organized by the 1938 Annual Conference in order to bring into one Board the administration of several groups in the Conference which were carrying on related activities. The personnel of this new Conference Board was also appointed by the District Superintendents as the Conference Board of Home Missions, although the functions of the two organizations were kept entirely separated in so far as records are concerned. By this procedure it was possible for the first time in the history of these groups to have an administration which was intelligent on all missionary and sustentation work within the Conference.

A particularly encouraging feature of the year's work has been the active participation of the lay members of the Board. As a matter of fact, some of the most constructive suggestions and the most helpful leadership has come from the lay members of the Board.

Funds for the use of the Board have come from an apportionment to the churches and an assessment on the cash salaries of the members of the Conference. These assessments on salaries have been used entirely to supplement salaries which are below the minimum set by the Conference. A portion of the funds received from the churches has been used for the purpose of supplementing low salaries and the balance has been used for other activities of the Board.

A total of 80 members of the Conference and Accepted Supply Pastors have been aided financially through the Board this year. Every member of the Conference whose support by the church he serves is below the Conference minimum, has received sufficient funds to bring the support up to the level set by the Conference. Many financial emergencies in parsonage homes due to unexpected hospitalization, need for food and clothes, etc., have been met through this Board. A complete and detailed financial report will be printed by the Treasurer in the Annual Journal, as well as a list of the amounts paid by the members of the Conference on the salary assessment.

The action of the Uniting Conference in setting up provisions for an Annual Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, makes it entirely desirable to bring the work of this Board into harmony with the new legislation. The Equitable Support plan has been carefully safeguarded in the new set-up. The Society has enthusiastically endorsed the proposed plan of organization of such a Conference Board and urges the members of the Conference to support the plan which will be presented to the Successor Conference for its consideration.

W. CLYDE BEECHER, Chairman.

PACIFIC HOME ANNUAL REPORT—JUNE, 1939

On coming to the Pacific Home six years ago, I found my predecessors had labored faithfully in laying the foundations of what was to become, at some future date, the greatest Home in Methodism. Our ideals and your ideals have not yet been fully realized but we are on our way.

Six years ago 390 feet of frontage on North Kingsley Drive with a depth of 183 feet represented our Home site. We now have a site that is more than two and a half times as large as it was six years ago. (71,-565 sq. ft. then, now 183,960 sq. ft.) Then we had one small two-story building and eight one-story stucco buildings with accommodations for 70 people. In the last four years four modern Class A buildings have been erected and equipped with modern furniture, one providing modern hospital facilities, another with dining hall accommodations for 400 people, another a beautiful chapel and housing unit with 123 rooms. All of these buildings were dedicated free of debt.

We now have accommodations for over 200 people and every available room is taken with more than one hundred other people interested in acquiring accommodations when rooms are available. At present we are remodeling buildings on adjoining properties recently purchased to provide temporary quarters until new buildings can be erected.

The annual report of 1933 showed assets of $355,575.52. During 1934 all of the assets were re-appraised and reduced by about $50,000, leaving assets of about $305,575. As you will observe, the report of Price, Waterhouse & Co. as of April 30, 1939, shows assets today of $1,307,474.56 which indicates a growth during the past six years in excess of $1,000,000, most of which has been added in the past three years. The same report also shows a surplus of $434,974.11.

Early in this Conference year after careful investigations and consideration, the Board decided to buy the Pierre Crest apartment house on which we traded in a number of our poorest residential properties. That apartment house is fully paid for.

In November we purchased another apartment house located within three blocks of the corner of Western and Wilshire which we acquired for approximately $100,000 less than it had recently been sold for. This modern six-story building has 115 rooms. On this apartment house we assumed a trust deed in the amount of $110,000 at 4½ per cent payable in monthly installments of $575 plus interest. We traded in as part payment about $130,000 worth of our poorest and least desirable residential property and took back $75,000 in notes secured by trust deeds on these properties with interest at 6 per cent amortized at one per cent per month. Both apartment houses are proving good investments.

The Home has made such tremendous progress in the past four years that the record seems to some to be unbelievable while others have felt sure that there must be something wrong with the bases of our calculations. I therefore recommended to the Board of Directors that a new auditing firm be engaged and that an exhaustive study be made, feeling that it is not enough to believe we are safe; we must know we are safe and be able to prove it.

Price Waterhouse & Co. was employed and after a thorough examination of the history and records as far back as records were available they rendered their report and the balance sheet as submitted is made a part of this report. Their findings should satisfy every one that the Home is in excellent financial condition.

Mr. William W. Gould, a certified public accountant, has recently been employed and placed in charge of all accounting records.

With sincere gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His gracious leadership and with a confidence that is begotten of the spirit He bestows we prayerfully press on to achieve greater victories in His name and for the sake of those for whom He gave His life.

C. E. LEITZELL, Superintendent.

THE PLAZA COMMUNITY CENTER

The years pass far too rapidly for those in His service to accomplish all that we hope. However, we give thanks for the many opportunities afforded. So little of the actual and most valuable work done at the Center can be recorded.

There have been many changes in the Plaza district. For years the matter of a Union Station has been before the public in courts and otherwise. Some folk predicted that it would never be built in this locality. As varied plans were published, it was feared a portion of our building would be taken, but the final layout of the Planning Commission revealed our building left intact, and that it fitted in nicely with the final plans.

The station is completed, and greatly beautifies this part of the city. The opening was, indeed, a notable and historic affair, and the Headquarters, the Plaza Community Center Staff and Building had a part in it. Many people speak of our valuable location. With the "working postoffice" now under construction a block away, other buildings to be erected and many improvements to be made, our property will be increasingly valuable.

We are happy our resident Bishop is coming South, and his and other offices made necessary by Unification, will doubtless be in the Plaza building. This will require the finishing of the upper floors. We believe the members of the Conference rejoice with us that all our Methodist Conference offices can be housed in a Methodist building. Our prayer is that the work of this Institution and the Plaza Community Center Building will mean more and more to Christ's Kingdom.

Church: Thirty-nine were received into the church this year. Good attendance in all departments and a deep spiritual note.

Miss Maria Chagoyan, an evangelist from Mexico City, assisted the pastor in the pre-Easter meetings. She had a real message, and it was effective. The consecration of the new Methodist Hymnal in Spanish was a beautiful service.

The Choir of 30 young people has rendered a fine service to the church, also the Interdenominational Radio services. Our quartette has made several sacred recordings to be used in evangelistic work in South America. Ten of our young members, including the pastor's daughter, are graduating from high school. One is vice-president of his class. One graduates from, and others expect to go on to Junior College.

The Daily Vacation Bible School was a success last year, but we expect it to be even better this year.

General Welfare: This department, with its limited staff, continues to help solve the many and varied problems brought each day. This year there were 3356 office interviews; 367 calls made, thanks to those who take the workers to call in the homes located at great distances. Home calls mean much. 582 Gospels and other pieces of literature were given out; emergency relief given to 158 families.

Our Assistant Welfare Worker, a graduate of U.S.C., with a major in Social Service, has secured employment for many this year, advising them to keep off the relief rolls. They appreciate this as do the taxpayers.

Clinic: People cannot maintain themselves or their families when they are ill. Therefore, we have made every effort to bring health to the 4703 men, women and children in our clinic this year. While the patients appreciate the service rendered, and want to pay their way, 608 were unable to pay. 736 paid a portion of the small amount charged; 150 calls were made and over 2000 gospels and pieces of literature distributed.

On our Plaza Staff there are Americans, English, Canadian, Mexican, Chinese and those of Latin America, Armenian, German and French extraction. They and the patients all appreciate the morning prayer service.

Boys' and Girls' Clubs: Our boys and girls enjoy the character-building activities afforded them. Violin and piano are taught by three teachers from the Government project. Our part-time worker, a Plaza boy, is assisted in the recreation, crafts, etc. by an N.Y.A. student. The boys are very happy over a new work bench and tools recently given them. We need a full-time, trained Boys Worker. It is better for youth and cheaper for the country to get hold of young people before they get into our courts. Over 1000 contacts made during the year in this Department.

Children's Home: Our family has grown to 27. The County recently placed nine children from two families with us. These little ones were in boarding homes, which was not satisfactory, as the families were separated. Now they are united and happy. Our Home is not a school. The children go to the public school, and ours is their only HOME.

One of our girls will be among the Junior High graduates this year at the Rose Bowl. She is our pianist, and helps the children with their music. Her brother, our oldest boy, sells papers. Besides his clothes, he bought a cornet, and is learning to play.

The eldest girl, an orphan, when a child said "I do not want to leave the Home. I want to work here." She graduated from High School, and is now an assistant on the staff.

Plaza Community Center Club just closed another year with some folk saying "We will miss coming this summer," so have planned a special meeting in July. We appreciate the luncheons served, and other assistance rendered by some of the Womans Aids of Los Angeles and other Districts. The Club contributed in many and large ways to our work, and is to our Institution what a Womans Aid is to the local church.

Finances: A business man, looking over our work recently, said "I wish every church and institution were on as fine a business basis as this institution." This year the Center and Children's Home budget was $15,100 and the Church $3300. Our only debt is on the Plaza building, which has been reduced to $27,000.

All that has been accomplished has been made possible through the prayers of friends, gifts from church organizations, the Board of Home Missions through World Service, the Community Chest and individuals. To one and all we say "Thank you in the Name of our Great Leader."

KATHERINE B. HIGGINS, Executive Secretary.

PERIODICALS

The Methodist Church has a score of weekly journals with a circulation of 325,000 and a reading constituency of 1,000,000. That is a showing unmatched by any Protestant communion, but it means that only one member in twenty-three takes a church paper and that only one in sixteen is a regular or casual reader. Unless that condition can be changed, the new church will be condemned to a tragic parochialism of outlook.

So the Uniting Conference did well to leave this most important matter open for study during the coming year. Moreover, the Western Jurisdiction has a special interest in the question, due to its great extent, variety of resources, differences in climate, heterogeneity of population and probability of future growth. It is unlikely that the commission appointed by the Council of Bishops will be able alone to solve our particular problem. In view of the fact that several neighboring conferences have appointed committees to consider the question, we request the appointment of a similar group to cooperate with them in studying the matter as it relates to the Western Jurisdiction and to make whatever recommendations may seem to be necessary to our delegates to General Conference.

In the meantime, we suggest to the Publishing Agents and the Book Committee that the appearance of the Christian Advocate is against it. The container affords no accurate indication as to the excellence of content. We trust therefore that the economies which have brought about this condition may be only temporary and that at the earliest possible moment the Advocate for which the Publishing House is responsible, shall be made attractive in typography, presswork and quality of paper stock. It is perfectly clear, moreover, that the space allotted to the local editor for regional matters is utterly inadequate to gather and express the breadth and variety of Methodist news in the Western Jurisdiction, to say nothing of the failure to give opportunity for the expression of local Methodist opinion.

It is obvious that, whatever the decision of the General Conference in April 1940 may be, the Pacific Edition of the Advocate will be in much better shape if it is being well supported by the churches which it serves. We therefore urge all pastors and good literature secretaries to more zealous activity in order that the promotional campaign this fall may be more successful than ever. We suggest that November 13th be observed as Advocate Sunday, or the nearest date that is locally convenient. Laymen in the new Methodism have a new and larger place than heretofore. Among their duties, as set forth in the new Discipline, is "the circulation of church papers and other Christian literature." We therefore urge that the Methodist Men of this conference give special attention to helping pastors to increase the circulation of the Advocate among our own people. We hope also that means may be found for providing the funds necessary to place the Advocate where the general public may become familiar with the Methodist point of view as set forth in its columns.

We commend The Methodist Book Concern, now the Methodist Publishing House, for the issuance of many inexpensive but otherwise excellent booklets and suggest that they be widely circulated among our people. Religion in Life remains the best review of matters theological and ecclesiastical that is published in this country and should be read by all ministers who desire to maintain a high level of professional excellence. While our Church School literature is generally used throughout the church, there are many gaps here and there; and we urge all pastors and district superintendents to commend it to church school boards as being the best available for all age groups. We also urge that all church schools of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference achieve the standard established by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church;

And: 1. That no publication not authorized by the Board of Education of the Methodist Church or by the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference shall be used in any Church School under the jurisdiction of the Southern California-Arizona Conference.

2. That the Board of Education of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference shall be instructed to establish a standing Committee on Approved Literature, to whom shall be submitted all publications not authorized by our Church, but which any Church School in this Annual Conference may be using or which they contemplate using. It shall be the duty of the Committee to examine such publications and report their findings to the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference each year. The action of the Conference shall be necessary to the acceptance or rejection of any such publications as approved literature.

3. It shall be the duty of the Board of Education of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference to place in the hands of each pastor and each District Superintendent at the beginning of each Conference year, a convenient catalogue of all publications authorized by our Church, for use in Church Schools, together with any other publications approved by the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference.

4. It shall be the duty of the District Superintendent to make an annual examination at a Quarterly Conference in each Church of his district to determine what literature is not used, and if he shall find any unapproved literature being used he shall require that such literature shall be submitted within three months to the Committee on Approved Literature. The Committee shall report its findings to the next session of the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference, and if such literature be not approved by said Conference its use shall be discontinued within a period which shall not be more than three months.

GEORGE A. WARMER, Chairman.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS AND INTERRACIAL RELATIONS

We reaffirm the principles of the Social Creed of The Methodist Church as adopted by the Uniting Conference at Kansas City and which are made a part of this report as follows:

OUR SOCIAL CREED

1. The Methodist Church stands for equal rights and complete justice for all men in all stations of life; for the protection of both the individual and the family by the single standard of purity; education for marriage, parenthood, and home-building; proper housing, proper regulation of marriage and uniform Divorce Laws.

2. We stand for a proper regulation of working conditions for women, especially mothers and the safeguarding of the physical and moral environment which surrounds them; for the abolition of child labor; adequate provision for the protection, education, spiritual nurture and wholesome recreation of every child; and for the provision of educational programs which will attain these ends.

3. We stand for the abatement and prevention of poverty by a protection against all forms of social, economic and moral waste, and by the conservation of human values by the protection of the worker from dangerous machinery, injuries from other sources, and from disease.

4. We stand for the rights of all men to live and to have adequate means of livelihood, and for the safeguarding of workers from the devastating results of enforced unemployment.

5. We stand for reasonable hours of labor, for just wages, for a fair day's work for a fair day's wage, for fair working conditions, for periods of leisure for those who work, and for an equitable division of the product of industry.

6. We stand for some form of security for old age, for insurance against injury to the worker, and for increased protection against those preventable conditions which produce want.

7. We stand for the right of employes and employers alike, to organize for collective bargaining and social action; protection of both in the exercise of their rights; the obligation of both to work for the public good.

8. We stand for the principle of the acquisition of property by Christian processes, and believe in stressing the principles of stewardship in its use; practical application of the Christian principle of social well-being to the acquisition and use of wealth and subordination of the profit motive to the creative and cooperative spirit.

9. We stand for the safeguarding of the farmer and his family and for the preservation of all the values of rural life.

10. We stand for all workers having at least one day of rest in seven.

11. We stand for the protection of the individual, the home and society from the social, economic and moral waste of any traffic in intoxicants and habit forming drugs.

12. We stand for the application of the redemptive principle to the treatment of offenders against the law, reform of penal and correctional methods, and to all races alike.

13. We stand for the rights of racial groups and insist that the above social, economic and spiritual principles apply to all races alike.

14. We recognize the need of an army and navy for police purposes. We stand for the repudiation of war and for the discovery and development of all reasonable methods to attain peace, for the reduction of armaments by all nations, participation in international agencies for the peaceable settlement of controversies, and for the building of a cooperative spirit among the nations. In this connection we insist that the agencies of the church shall not be used in the preparation for war, but in the promulgation of peace. We believe that war is utterly destructive and is our greatest collective social sin and a denial of the ideals of Christ. We stand upon this ground, that The Methodist Church as an Institution cannot endorse war nor support or participate in it.

15. The Methodist Church, true to the principles of the New Testament, teaches respect for properly constituted civil authority. It holds that government rests upon the support of its conscientious citizenship, and that conscientious objectors to war in any and all of its manifestations are a natural outgrowth of the principle of good will and the Christian desire for universal peace; and that such objectors should not be oppressed by compulsory military service anywhere or at any time. We ask and claim exemption from all forms of military preparation or service for all conscientious objectors who may be members of The Methodist Church. In this they have the authority and support of their Church. However, we recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government in an emergency according to the dictates of his Christian conscience.

16. We stand for the recognition and maintenance of the rights and responsibilities of free speech, free assembly, and a free press; and for the encouragement of free communication of mind with mind, as essential to the discovery of truth.

17. We stand upon the right of various groups to believe in various peaceful methods for solving the problems that confront us; some who believe that we need a drastic readjustment of the social order to correct the acquisitiveness which characterizes us; others who believe in the correctional method for an economic order which they believe possesses the inherent good which has produced prosperity and is able to do so again; and still others in producers' and consumers' cooperatives. We stand by the single measure of testing every proposal in the light of the teachings of Jesus.

18. We believe that society has a right to expect that every person not physically nor mentally incapacitated shall be constantly engaged, in so far as possible, in some vocation productive of common good.

19. We recommend that this social creed be read to our congregations at least once a year or placed in their hands in printed form.

A CHRISTIAN CREED IN A WARRING WORLD

We believe that love is the Christian way of life. In every situation love should be the guiding spirit of Christian action.

We believe that warfare as actually waged is the mockery of love. Its hatred, its lusts, its lies, its slaughter of the innocent, its destruction of individual and social values are irreconcilable with the love which led Jesus to Calvary.

We believe that every Christian is pledged by the law of love to do everything in his power to prevent war.

We believe that prevention of war involves: (1) Such economic and territorial adjustments as will provide for all peoples of the world access to the land and to those raw materials which are indispensable as the physical basis for the good life. (2) Such modifications of absolute national sovereignty as will make possible the settlement of international disputes by some Court of International Justice. (3) The cessation of journalistic and forensic assaults upon peoples of other racism and nations and the effort to cultivate an understanding of and sympathy for their legitimate aspirations. (4) Universal reduction of armaments to the level of police power. (5) The end of racial arrogance and the cultivation of universal brotherhood. (6) The eradication from our own hearts of the desire for those things, wealth, prestige, personal security, class supremacy, which can be secured and maintained only by war. (7) The Christianization of an economic order whose irrational dislocations and maldistributions make war often seem preferable to its stagnant industries, its armies of unemployed, its hopeless poverties. (8) The maintenance of the ancient liberties of speech, press, assemblage and conscience as the only adequate social check upon those governmental policies which in the past have led peace-loving peoples into a maelstrom of mass murder. (9) The refusal to support economically, what we morally condemn.

We believe it is hypocrisy for us to protest against war or to refuse to participate in war unless we use every resource at our command to change those elements in the lives of individuals and nations which are the causes of war. We believe therefore that every one of us should unite with one of the peace organizations now at work in America to create the will to peace.

We believe that America should have no part in the present struggle for power in the Old World. What we are witnessing in Europe is not a conflict between ideologies, one Christian and one un-Christian, but a battle between old imperialisms and new. Should war come to the Continent, every Christian voice in the land should be raised in behalf of a complete severance of America from the appalling struggle. This is not a retreat from reality but a recognition of reality. We shall not save Europe by joining in universal suicide.

We believe that America should disassociate itself from the war which is now being waged against China by an immediate and absolute embargo on all war materials destined for Japan.

We believe that if America should be drawn into the struggle, the Church should defend the rights of Christian conscience, and if any of her members in loyalty to a Christian conviction refuse to take up arms, we believe the church should offer her fellowship to their loneliness, her support to their courage, her comradeship in the inevitable penalties which a war-mad society may inflict.

We believe that the fellowship of the Church in war time should be extended both to participants and non-participants, to soldiers and to conscientious objectors. Christian men of equal intelligence and devotion differ as to the application of the absolute principle of love to inevitable relativisms of human life. The absolute pacifist should remind himself that he himself is a relativist in many phases of his life. He may say that he will not participate in nor support another war. But he is participating in and supporting by tax payments and by commercial transactions and by his continuing membership in society, a social system full of un-Christian practices, an armament program which has no meaning apart from war devices, and policies which make war inevitable. The soldier, on the other hand, should remember the lessons of history. Millions who put on uniforms in 1918 now know that their sacrifice was merely a pawn in a game that had no relation to the great purposes of Christ. These things are said, not in condemnation, but as a reminder that none of us can extricate himself from complicity in the evils of life, but are all so bound together in ethical relativities that in spite of our will to have it otherwise we are brought into conflict with our fellows at one point or another, and as a plea that we shall assiduously refuse to add one more to the welter of sundering antagonisms by creating schisms within the body of Christ. Whatever comes let us who are seeking to follow Christ maintain our fellowship with each other.

We believe if war comes, the Church should be the Church, an ecumenical organism of believers who know no boundaries of race or nation, and who remain united as the Body of Christ, refusing to hate those whom war seeks to range against us as enemies, and praying with all our hearts one prayer, "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done."

ALBERT E. DAY.

SOCIAL STUDIES

The committee has completed the work of preparing study outlines. The first six outlines have been reported in previous issues of the conference minutes. To this series we have added the seventh report on "Christianity and Race Relations." This subject is particularly pertinent at this time in the light of disturbing events which are transpiring, almost daily, around the world, revealing deeply rooted race and nationality prejudices and hatreds. Surely every church will wish to attain a high level of Christian understanding and solution of the perplexing race problems.

The subjects of the entire series of study outlines are as follows:

- Peace and International Relations.
- The Social Control of Public Morals
- The Christian and the Economic Order.
- The Church and the State.
- The Church and Leisure.
- The Church and the Family.
- Christianity and Race Relations.

Numerous churches have made extensive use of these outlines. Not a few requests have come for them from outside this Conference. Initiated by the laymen, who helped in the preparation of the studies, it would seem that the outlines would prove attractive and highly beneficial to groups in all the churches. Copies may be had at ten cents each or one dollar a dozen. Order from the Board of Education, 125 Marchessault St., Los Angeles.

MARTIN H. NEUMEYER, Chairman.

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

Once again we came to the close of another year in the history of the Spanish American Institute. The beginning of the year was fraught with uncertainty because of the fact that there was the possibility that the school would amalgamate with the Voorhis School for Boys. After long study and deliberation this move seemed unwise because of the financial obligation involved. It has meant that the program had to be re-thought and changes made in order to lay the foundation for the program of the future. In most respects it has been a very successful year. There has been an average of about seventy boys. The health has been good, and the program has moved along throughout the year.

It has been the aim of the school to hold and train every boy that goes out from the Institute so that he may be prepared to either go on to college or enter some worthwhile vocation where he might earn a livelihood and establish a home. With the graduating class of six this year, this ideal seems to be realized. The school is keeping closely in touch with every boy so as to enable him to actually be prepared for some worthwhile life work. By closer cooperation with the Gardena school system, the plans for next year call for a greater program of vocational activities on the campus so that in the future every boy will be fitted, before he leaves, for some worthwhile task.

The summer camp program inaugurated last year seems to fill a real need. Many times the boys have gone back into a home environment which has tended to break down much that has been built up during the year. Under the present arrangement these lads are continuing on the campus, and a program with real educational value is to be provided during the summer period. That the school meets a real need and performs a far-reaching service is beyond question. It has been made possible in the past because the leaders of the church and a great host of friends in Southern California have been conscious of the need of such a school. We covet your prayers and your interest to the end that it may continue to fill a larger need in the days ahead.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

A few days ago metropolitan papers carried the story of Germany's curtailment of religious broadcasts and the sale of Bibles and religious literature. At the same time and in the same papers was the story of the unification of Methodism. These concurrent experiences are illustrative of the complexity of our world and of the terrific struggle the organized church finds in maintaining itself as a potent factor in world affairs.

In attempting to analyze in a few paragraphs the State of the Church, we find ourselves facing conflicting testimony. On one hand there is much evidence that we are making scant inroads on basic social and economic ills. Morally, we have much to concern us. Drinking among both men and women, to say the least, shows no evidence of decline. Equal rights for women in too many cases means the right of women to degrade themselves. Gambling as a basic social vice according to all evidence is still on the upswing. There is every indication that thousands of our citizens are using this vice as a means of escape and that there is a high correlation between gambling and the economic uncertainty of the day.

One of the most serious problems confronting the church today is the increase of crime. The approximate cost of crime to the United States, according to J. Edgar Hoover, is fifteen billion dollars per year, an equivalent of $120.00 for every man, woman, and child in our nation. We call upon the members of our churches not only to teach justice and righteousness but to apply these principles in all human relationships. We seek not to remove crime through law but by finding the cause and cure thereof. Poverty and lack of respect for law and property rights are some of the fundamental causes of the increase of crime among youth. Broken homes and the disintegration of home life have had a large and important part in making possible the present conditions. Proper recreational life, the improvement of the moral and spiritual conditions of the home, improved economic conditions that make it possible for youth to obtain employment—these are but a few of the remedies necessary if this social evil is to be improved.

On the positive side of the ledger there is much to encourage us. Our membership is strong and shows substantial increase. Our ministry is made up of a consecrated group of intelligent, well educated men, aware of life's problems, a ministry that is increasingly alert and vigorous in its advocacy of fundamental rights. Let it be said for the leadership of the Methodist Church that it is "out in front" in the struggle for social, economic, and moral reform, and that it is second to none in its effort to maintain world peace. There is nothing incompatible between the social and the personal gospel. It is not a question of one or the other. Our church is coming to recognize that emphasis on both is necessary for the salvation of our race.

One reason why the church as an institution has exercised no greater force has been its lack of solidarity. The Uniting Conference at Kansas City not only marks the end of a long and tedious pilgrimage, but it is also the beginning of a great adventure. With the three tributaries of American Methodism whose confluence makes the greatest stream of Protestant Christianity on the North American continent, we face the new era well aware of the significance of our task. The United Methodism will find obstacles in some places, but they will not be of her own choosing. The church of the Wesleys since its very inception has been a barrier-breaking church, whenever those barriers encroached on human rights and liberties. Nor has she ever lacked fields of opportunity in which to labor for the breaking down of the wrong or the building up of the right.

The united Methodist Church faces the new day with a youthfulness and vigor which sanctions no philosophy of defeatism. On the contrary, Methodism was never so courageous, so heroic, so ready to meet any and all foes of Christianity as she is today. Particularly do we feel that we have an evangelical faith which, if properly preached and practiced, will go far toward keeping our democracy Christian.

And for our own Conference we heartily recommend the Five-Year Plan as a means of increasing our own efficiency in accepting the tremendous responsibilities before us.

In conclusion, might we say that the difficulties and complexities of the day are a challenge to the church. If we are to make real inroads on the evils of the day, ours must be a militant church. The new church should have a sound and sane evangelistic tone. For stability and permanence, Christian education must be continually stressed and improved. Ours must be a cooperative church. We must pledge ourselves to join forces with any and all institutions which have dedicated themselves to the principles for which we stand. The tragedies of Europe and the Orient cannot but cause us again to remind ourselves that ours must be a missionary church. If we believe that only the gospel of Jesus Christ can save the world, then there is a responsibility upon the Methodist Church to see that this gospel is given a chance wherever the sun doth shine.

CLAUDE L. REEVES.

TEMPERANCE

In our investigations and deliberations as your Committee on Temperance, we have found no evidence that proves the liquor traffic to be anything less than a legalized robber and murderer, licensed by the government for revenue. We will not take time to enumerate the myriad of facts that can be marshalled against it, proving beyond a doubt that the liquor traffic is a greater menace to civilization than any other evil in our midst. Repeal has been a ghastly failure. Quoting from the Conference Journal 1937, "Every promise made concerning the control of liquor and the benefits of repeal, and the non-return of the saloon has been broken and the liquor traffic rides rough shod over the bodies and crushed lives of our people today.

For details concerning conditions today, turn back to your Conference Journal of 1937 and read there the terrific arraignment made by our brother, A. L. Baker, in his report on Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. Read again the pronouncement of the General Conference as embodied in the Discipline for 1936. Every deplorable condition mentioned in those two great declarations against the liquor traffic is true ten times over today. We have not succeeded in curbing nor controlling the liquor traffic during the past two years; rather it has been increased by leaps and bounds, totally disregarding any and all regulations and controls which we have attempted to fasten upon it. Today, a wet legislature in California is ignoring the plea of the churches and all decent citizens and is attempting to repeal the "Liquor Abatement Act" which gives to every citizen the right to protest against Illegal Sales of liquor only, and when a state legislature attempts to protect illegal sales of liquor in that way, we say it is high time that the decent citizens of the state rise up in righteous indignation and recall that legislature, and replace them with men and women who have the welfare of the common citizen at heart.

Brethren of the Conference—in the light of the present appalling situation in our state, whereby the liquor traffic seemingly controls the legislature, and in view of the fact that under the present laws written into our constitution, whereby the people have absolutely no voice in prohibiting liquor stores, as to location, or number, or conditions under which they operate, and in view of the terrific increase in drunkenness, and deaths caused by the liquor traffic since repeal, we of your Committee hereby recommend that, as a Conference, we endorse and support the following measures calculated to eliminate the liquor traffic from our state.

1. The "Non-Partisan-Bone Dry Measure" which has already been prepared and presented to the proper authorities for title, in readiness for a place on the ballot, if and when the proper number of signatures have been secured.

2. We also endorse and support a Local Control Measure if and when such measure is proposed and the proper number of signatures have been secured to place it on the ballot.

3. We endorse a previous resolution adopted by our Southern California Conference to take the profit out of this nefarious business and we affirm our stand for the ideal "Total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the state."

Your committee believes that all dry forces will rally to the support of these measures which have in mind the thing we all desire, namely, the elimination of the liquor traffic from our state and nation. We believe that God will bless our efforts to this end. The liquor traffic must go, and nothing but a determined stand by the churches of Jesus Christ can accomplish its destruction. Therefore we present this report, and ask for its adoption to the end that the liquor traffic be wiped out in California.

Recognizing that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Anti-Saloon League of America are the two great national organizations cooperating with the churches to oppose and destroy the intoxicating liquor traffic, we commend them for their useful activities and recommend that the Southern California-Arizona Annual Conference appoint representatives to work with these worthy organizations; and we urge our pastors and churches to cooperate for the purpose of opposing and destroying the iustful traffic in intoxicating beverages.

E. DOW HOFFMAN.

REPORT OF METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The extensive service rendered by the Methodist Hospital to the community is evident from the following statistics, which are for the year 1938:

Total number of days of hospital care.....	49,954
Total number of adult admissions.....	4,846
Total number of births.....	1,132
Total number admitted and born.....	5,978
Total number of major surgical operations.....	1,350
Total number of minor surgical operations.....	1,217
Average number of adult patients per day.....	105.6
Average number of infants per day.....	30.9
Average length of stay of patients (days).....	8.0
Total number of laboratory examinations.....	15,457
Total number physical therapy treatments.....	988
Total number x-ray films used.....	2,396
Average number employees.....	200
Bed capacity	180
Bassinets	40

Its progress is indicated by the following improvements since the last meeting of the Conference:

Complete repainting of the exterior.

Installation of new stainless steel steam and salad tables in kitchen.

Renewal of dishwashing room and table.

Purchase of new x-ray deep therapy equipment.

Acquisition of orthopedic cart.

Installation of floor linoleum in a number of rooms.

Installation of acoustic ceiling in office, soda fountain and dishwashing room.

Supplying of fifty new beds and mattresses for nurses' home.

The nature of these improvements indicates that not only is the hospital in excellent physical condition, but that it has the finest appearance which it has had in a number of years.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Conference has made splendid progress in the retirement of the hospital debt. To date, bonds of the par value of $136,000.00 have been retired, leaving the outstanding balance at this time $434,000.00. Further bonds will be retired on July 1st, the date of the payment of the next installment. The Missionary Society is committed to the annual payment of $25,000.00 on account of principal and interest. The large amount of progress made in the retirement of bonds is due to the fact that bonds have been available for purchase at a price considerably under their par value.

The Methodist Hospital of Southern California is a non-profit institution. It pays no dividends to any investor. As above indicated, it does not even pay interest on its bonded indebtedness, this obligation being taken care of in its entirety by the Missionary Society. Its Board of Directors receive no remuneration for the time and work which they give to it.

The hospital has nothing to sell, but it does have a very vital and important service to offer to the community. The hospital is a service but it is also a business and to be successful it must be operated on a businesslike basis. No successful business can be run without assets, and without making changes and improvements from time to time. Bills must be met promptly. Expenditures must be kept within the limits of the income.

Contrary to the opinion of some who do not understand, it costs money to take care of each and every patient. One nurse is able to attend to the needs of only a certain number at a time. Food, linen and other supplies have definite values. For these reasons, the amount of free service rendered must necessarily be limited even though the need is great, the requests are many. Through cooperation with the All Nations Clinic, 218 patients have received free hospital care during the last year.

The Methodist Hospital fills a definite place in the community by rendering the very best of service at a reasonable rate to people of moderate income. It is a matter of pride that most of its patients are people from this income level, although facilities and accommodations are available for those who desire deluxe service.

A business employing over two hundred persons is a commercial asset to a community. The employment in a hospital is not seasonal but is continuous and in this way differs from many industries. The work in a hospital covers not forty or forty-four hours per week but one hundred sixty-eight hours per week. The doors never close and the work is never finished.

Approximately two hundred fifteen persons are on the payroll of the Methodist Hospital of Southern California. These men and women receive their pay checks on the fourth and nineteenth of each month. They spend their money just as anyone else does, and most of it is spent locally. Besides the regular pay check the employee enjoys a yearly vacation with pay, seven days sick leave per year with no pay deduction, drugs and notions obtained through the pharmacy at cost. A complete physical examination is given at the time of employment, and yearly thereafter at no cost to the employee. A liberal discount is given on any hospital service rendered him or his immediate family.

Most of the hospital employees are members of the Associated Hospital Service of Southern California. This provides them and members of their families with twenty-one days hospital care per year when they are ill. Payment for this membership is made by small monthly payroll deductions, a part of which is borne by the hospital.

At no cost to him, an insurance policy is carried for each employee which guarantees to his family the sum of $500.00 in case of his death.

As an employer the Hospital has endeavored to give to its employees every consideration possible not only in regard to cash remuneration but also in other prerequisites which are helpful and beneficial.

The hospital is pleased to announce that it has received distribution within the past few months of one-third of the Estate of J. O. Downing, the recipients of the other two-thirds of Mr. Downing's estate being the University of Southern California and the University of California. While this estate is substantial in size, it consists almost entirely of real estate, and it is anticipated that a period of years will be required for its liquidation. When this liquidation is accomplished, the funds, according to the direction of Mr. Downing's will, will be used:

" . . . in establishing free hospital beds for deserving sick—preferably adherents of the Methodist or other protestant Church—who otherwise could not have hospital care,"

It is hoped that the fund ultimately received will be of sufficient size to enable a substantial extension in the amount of free service rendered by the hospital. These funds will not, however, be available for some time.

The average stay of a patient in the Methodist Hospital in 1938 was eight days.

The following quotation from the Bulletin of American College of Surgeons indicates the significance of this figure:

"In the United States and Canada the modern hospital stands beside the college, the church, and large business organizations as one of the most important institutions in the life of the community. It is a continuous influence in the life and health of every individual.

"Each day there are approximately 700,000 persons in hospitals receiving treatment. No person can foretell when he may need hospital care. But in case of accident or illness he should be prepared to the extent of knowing the physician and hospital he wishes to select. The making of this choice may influence future health and so is of vital importance.

"Twenty years ago the average stay of a patient in a hospital was about twenty-five days or more; today it is twelve days or less."

The entire Methodist Church may take pride in the service being rendered by the Methodist Hospital of Southern California.

ROLAND MAXWELL.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

This is the fifteenth year that I have come before you to make my Annual Report, and when I try to decide what to put in that report each year, I believe I become more confused as the years go on.

In reading the minutes of the annual convention of our National Association held in Kansas City last April, I find this statement made by Dr. Diekmann, Superintendent of the Bethesda Hospital of Cincinnati, Ohio. "Especially did Dr. Diekmann bring very forcefully to those present the part Catholic hospitals play in the program of the Catholic church, and what a strong healing program these hospitals carry on. The Catholic church has recently purchased or built twelve new hospitals in the State of Texas alone. Does the Methodist church rejoice or complain about its hospital program?" I can well understand Dr. Diekmann raising that question.

I would like at length to tell you of our strength and our weakness; where we surpass other similar organizations and where we so badly need help; where our training school is wonderful, doing fine Christian work, and where it is so sorely in need of financial help; of the happiness we receive from substantial gifts and the heartaches with being pressed each day by needy people and being unable to do more for deserving people; but again, space will not permit. However, allow me to give you a few facts. First, while we have to constantly talk finances, never do we get away from the fact that the patient is the All-important thing in a hospital. We have closed another successful year. We have accomplished much. We have regretted we could not accomplish more. We handled more patients than ever before; 4,625, at an approximate cost of $175,000.00, and have a personnel of more than 150 people. One of the big accomplishments the past year was the approval of the American Medical Association of our institution for training of Dr. internes for their fifth year in medicine. We are proud of this fact, because approximately only 10 per cent of the hospitals in the United States have this approval. Our buildings, physical equipment, and personnel, were such that we had no trouble in receiving this recognition. When I tell you that in April, 1934, for the first year in our history, we paid all bills of the previous month, and from that time to this, more than five years, every bill has been paid every month.

or the cash in the bank to pay it with; when I tell you that in the past four years we have reduced our indebtedness more than $100,000.00, of which $25,000.00 was paid last March, I believe you will realize that we have progressed. We are still under a heavy load, owing approximately $200,000.00 on capital investment, but are very sure after our experience of the past four years, we are going to be able to pay this debt. Being in a growing community such as ours, it is a constant problem to expand and care for more business and keep our building and equipment in proper condition, but this we are doing. Our charity work for the past year was $27,981.91, of which $20,168.54 was charged off as the patients left the hospital; the balance, $7,813.37 on bad accounts. We wish we could do more, but we control this work according to what we are able to do, and still meet our obligations. Our institution, in the honest opinion of the writer, has the greatest opportunity of any institution in the whole Southwest in building an outstanding nursing school. We are the only Protestant institution of any size in the whole inland Southwest along this line. We badly need $150,000 for a new nurses' home, giving us a chance to measure up to the great opportunity that is ours. We feel we must succeed in getting it.

I hope and pray that some day our great church can measure up to that passage in the Good Book which says: "For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick and ye visited me." It is this ministry which we give to those less fortunate than ourselves, that makes our hospital work essential and worthwhile.

J. O. SEXSON, Superintendent.

CALIFORNIA CHURCH COUNCIL

It is altogether fitting that we should give a moment to record the work of the California Church Council, which, by our own vote, is our Extension Department as we cooperate with other denominational groups. Eighteen communions, now that Methodism is one, look to the California Church Council as their agency in carrying on those larger elements of the work of the Kingdom of God which can best be done by working together.

The accomplishments of the Council in the field of Christian Education appear in the printed report under the auspices of our Board of Education, and need not be repeated here. It should be stated, however, that the Council's plan of developing a large staff of volunteer field workers, which is now under way, can mean much for the success of the denominational, as well as the interdenominational program.

The Department of Comity of the California Church Council is conducted by the denominational district superintendents, including our own, and in its monthly meetings considers and solves many problems of inter-church relations in all parts of the conference. This interdenominational give-and-take plan is most beneficial.

In the field of Social Relations the Council has made real progress during the past year. Most of the members of this Conference have received the series of Legislative Bulletins, which have kept the churches up to date on important measures of a moral nature which have come before the State Legislature. Clarification of responsibility in the migrant problem, promotion of Marriage and Family conferences, promotion of Race Relations Week, participation in the activities of the United Dry Forces of California, and many other activities of vital concern have been guided by this department.

A three-day conference on Christian Unity, attended by seven hundred churchmen; an area-wide Post Madras conference; attended by over 800 delegates representing 262 churches and 19 denominations; a week of conferences on church architecture; and a series of three conferences on the Fine Arts in Religion have been among the larger group activities which have been conducted under the auspices of the Council.

H. V. MATHER, Executive Secretary.

APTITUDE TEST AND PERSONNEL

The report of this Committee for last year closed with the recommendation that further investigations be made into possible instruments to measure aptitudes of ministerial candidates.

The Committee this year has followed this suggestion and has devised a Personal Aptitude Record for Ministerial Candidates. We have attempted to aid the Conference Relations Committee in determining the qualifications of candidates who apply for entrance into our Conference.

The Aptitude Record seeks data by three means: first, by Objective Tests of Intelligence, Personality, Social Adjustment, Vocational Interest, Emotional Maturity and Study Habits; second, by Subjective Ratings by Professors, Laymen and colleges; and third, by Personal Data, such as, a Life History, Credits, Personal Devotional Life and plans for future formal educational training.

This is not an instrument to test the religious experience of the candidates for this is the business of the Conference Relations Committee to determine. This guide sheet is to be given to each candidate and he is to secure the required data.

This guide sheet was worked out first by the Committee and then a joint meeting was held with the Conference Relations Committee in which suggestions and approval were received. As a consequence, some of the tests and ratings were required of those candidates seeking entrance on trial this year. We recommend that in cooperation with the Conference Relations Committee this data be secured on this instrument from each candidate asking entrance into our Conference. We further recommend that since the Committee this year spent only fifteen dollars of the fifty that was allotted to it, that a fifty dollar appropriation be allowed for this work in order that it be continued during the coming conference year.

HERMAN N. BEIMFOHR.

CONFERENCE STATISTICS

The Committee on Conference Statistics was originally a committee to study Church membership in an effort to "discover the facts with respect to the losses in membership reported by our Statistician and the causes for these losses." This original committee was handicapped by a lack of detailed information on the sources of accessions and losses. As a result of the work of this committee a form was worked out whereby the additional information needed could be secured.

The supplemental forms were used in reporting to the 1937 Conference but were practically valueless for analytical purposes for the reason that the information needed had to be based on the previous year's totals, and since the 1936 Conference did not supply the needed facts, it was impossible to audit the figures. However, the 1938 figures could be audited using the 1937 figures as a starting point.

Last year's Conference requested this Committee to continue the study of the problem and to analyze the information secured from the Pastors in an effort to find some tangible evidence that would explain the tendency toward reduced membership figures each year.

The reports were first checked for errors which proved to be plentiful. These errors accounted for a gain in accessions of 539 and for losses of 915, or a net loss of 376. The sources of accessions and losses were then tabulated with the following results:

Received by Transfers.....	4,953
Loss by Transfers.....	2,474
		<hr/>
Net Gain by Transfers.....		2,479
Received from Preparatory members, Baptisms and Confession of Faith.....	3,654
Loss by Death, withdrawal, etc.....	1,386
		<hr/>
Net Gain—New Converts.....		2,268
		4,747
Placed on Inactive List.....	4,396
Restored from Inactive List.....	891
Net Loss to Inactive List.....		3,505

The Committee does not feel competent to appraise the results of this tabulation, but it is very obvious that the gain of 4,749 members in Transfers and new converts has been almost wiped out by the loss by transfer to the Inactive list of 3,505 members. We do not know whether this situation results from an effort on the part of the local membership committees to correct their records, or if it is an actual reflection of the facts that our churches are losing that many members per year from the active ranks of the Church. It occurs to the Committee that one task which the new Board of Lay Activities might well undertake would be to stimulate the interest of church members who have shown signs of becoming "Inactive" so that the annual exodus from the Active membership rolls will be curtailed.

It is the understanding of the Committee that the Publishing Agents of the Methodist Church are preparing forms for Statistical reports which will incorporate the new provisions for reporting membership and will be used for the 1940 Conference. We recommend to the Southern California-Arizona Conference that if these new forms are not adequate for the churches to continue to report the detailed information which is needed, the Statistician be authorized to prepare supplemental forms, and that the information thus obtained be analyzed for use by the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Education and other agencies of the Conference which should be concerned by this alarming situation.

The Committee also recommends to the Southern California-Arizona Conference, that a similar committee be appointed to continue the study of the problem during the year and to report its findings to the 1940 Conference.

E. DOW HOFFMAN, Chairman.

METHODIST CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION

Can we make of our Camp Meeting and Assembly an Ocean Grove of the Pacific? Long Beach has an historic background. Here fifty years ago the Camp Meeting was held that had much to do in shaping this community. What Ocean Grove has been to the Atlantic Coast, we hope the Methodist Camp Meeting will be to the Pacific; that out from here may go streams of spiritual influence to all the world.

This new united Methodism needs to be fused at the heart centers by a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit. We hope to take two of the immortal messages by John Wesley and put them in the program of our Camp Meeting and Assembly this year. Wesley said, "I felt my heart strangely warmed." All of us need a fresh, new heart warming, a new consciousness of forgiveness and cleansing. Wesley said, "The world is my parish." Methodism is on a new march around the world. At this meeting in Long Beach in 1939, we hope to put the cross in the heart of the world.

The meeting this year will be from August 20th to 27th. We hope to have our own resident Bishop preach the opening sermon. Bishop Wilbur E. Hammaker, resident Bishop of Denver, and of the Western Jurisdiction and just home from China, will preach each day. Bob Shuler, militant pastor and great leader will preach each day. There will be a Youth Day and a Womans' Day, a Missionary Mass Meeting the last Sunday afternoon.

Brethren and Sisters of United Methodism, a great new day is upon us. God is calling us as He called our fathers "to spread scriptural holiness over these lands." The Camp Meeting and Assembly will be eight days with God to gird us for this great task.

FRED H. ROSS, President.

In Memoriam

ABRAHAM HARTFORD GUNNETT

Abraham Hartford Gunnnett was born October 25, 1852, in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, the son of Joseph Gunnnett and Caroline Hartford Gunnnett. His life was one of hard work and yet a life that was lived to the full in service to God and his fellow-men.

While at the University of Ohio, he was married to Miss Emma Bean, a graduate of the Conservatory of Music, Ohio.

Brother Gunnnett entered the Springfield Conference in 1881, and served in that Conference until coming to Tucson, Arizona, in 1888. He has had a continuous record of splendid ministerial service in the churches to which he was appointed. He served for twenty-one years as Field Secretary for the Children's Home Society, and was always interested up to the day of his death in that work. One of the disappointments of his life was the fact that no children were born into his home and he often said that he felt that he had missed one of the greatest blessings of life.

Coming into intimate personal contact with Brother Gunnnett in the Fullerton Church, in 1932, was an enjoyable experience of my life. For a little over six years, he rarely failed to be present in the worship services of the church, at prayer meetings, and the Sabbath School department. With a quiet, sincere faith and helpfulness, he carried his part of the activities. Without any intrusiveness at all, he offered his services in any capacity in which he might be useful. Further, he went in and out among the people of the community carrying a message of hope into homes where grief had come, or where burdens almost too heavy to be borne were found. His ministry was always well-balanced, and he was an efficient pastor and courageous disciple of Christ. The gospel message which he brought from time to time from the pulpit and classroom reached the hearts of the people. He was beloved and respected by young and old for his Christ-like spirit and tender-hearted helpfulness in times of need.

Often he expressed the desire that when his time came he might go quietly and quickly without being a burden to anyone, and while his final end may seem to have been a tragic one, at the same time it was a direct answer to his prayer that he might go quickly into the presence of the Father. On Friday evening, shortly after dusk, as he was crossing the highway near his home, he was struck by an automobile and did not regain consciousness, passing away quietly Saturday, October 22, 1938.

Generous in death as well as during his lifetime, he left bequests in his will to the Retired Ministers' Association of the Southern California Conference, the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and to Pacific Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, all of the Southern California Conference, and to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Southern California, the Spanish-American Institute, and to the Children's Home Society of Southern California, besides bequests to relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Fullerton, October 25, with the pastor, E. Dow Hoffman officiating. His loss has been keenly felt both in the Church and the community and in his passing a true servant of the Kingdom of God has gone to his reward. Of him it may well be said,

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

E. DOW HOFFMAN.

CORYDON THOMAS FRINK

Corydon Thomas Frink, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frink, was born near Kesewick, Iowa, April 10, 1911. A year later the family moved to Thornburg, Iowa, where Mr. Frink spent his younger years and graduated from the Thornburg High School. In the fall of 1928 he enrolled at John Fletcher College, Oskaloosa, Iowa, and graduated from there in 1932. During that time he met Miss Virginia Lee of Erie, Penn., to whom he was united in marriage on July 7, 1931. To this union was born one daughter, Virginia Lee.

Upon graduating from college, he and his family moved to the Potawatomi Indian Mission at Mayetta, Kansas under the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church. Thirteen months later he was transferred to Yuma, Arizona, to work among the Indians there under the same organization.

In June 1935 he entered the Southern California Conference on trial, and left on leave of absence to attend Garrett Biblical Institute, the Methodist Seminary at Evanston, Illinois.

While attending there he served the Van Brocklin Methodist Episcopal church near Freeport, Illinois for two years, and in November 1937, moved to Thawville, Illinois, where he served the church there and also at La Hogue, Illinois.

After an illness of nearly seven months, he passed away at his home in Thawville, on Monday, October 24, 1938.

His faith, courage, and patience, throughout his entire life, even through the last trying days of his life left a memory in the minds of all those who were near him, that can never be forgotten, and will be an inspiration to all who ever knew him.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Virginia Frink, one daughter, Virginia Lee, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frink, one sister, Mrs. Harold Clark, and one half-brother, the Rev. C. W. Baker of Eldon, Iowa, along with a large group of relatives and friends.

At the last Session of the Southern California Annual Conference he was elected to Deacons Orders and had presented his credentials to the Illinois Conference to be Ordained but became so ill that he was taken to the Hospital and then home where on October 2nd, in the presence of twenty-five Ministers, he was Ordained Deacon and a few days later passed to his reward.

Funeral services were conducted at the Thawville church and then in his home church Thornburg, Iowa, where his body now rests.

W. C. BOTKIN.

ELMER ELLSWORTH DAMON

Elmer Ellsworth Damon was born on Christmas Day, 1861 in Vanwert County, Ohio. His early childhood was spent there and later he moved to Iowa where he received his education. He began his ministry in 1892 in Kansas. On May 30, 1894 he was married to Miss Mary McFarland, who still survives him. Five years were spent preaching in Kansas. He was ordained at Boise, Idaho September 3, 1899. Following this he served as minister in that state for several years.

California beckoned in 1904 and the Damons came to serve ten years in the Southern California Annual Conference. During that time he was pastor at Artesia, Moorpark, Chesbro Memorial at Bakersfield, Easton, Clovis and Laton. He retired in 1914 to take up his residence at McFarland. He lived there until his death August 13, 1938.

Surviving him besides his wife are his two daughters, Mrs. Letha Marshall of Delano, California and Mrs. Beulah Murdock of Palo Alto, California, three grandchildren, two brothers and a sister.

Brother Damon shared an experience in the closing year of his life that brought him great comfort and peace. He had been fretful for some time because of failing health and the need of doing many things his health would not permit. Earnest were his prayers for a happier frame of mind, but it seemed that this was not to be granted. Then one day he told his pastor what had happened. He had been in prayer when suddenly it seemed to him that the heavens opened and angel voices were singing. The words that came to him were those of that fine old hymn by Edward Mote. There were tears of joy in his eyes and a light of heavenly peace in his face as Brother Damon repeated these words to his pastor:

"My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness.
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name."

The word "righteousness" had an important place in his life. Not only was it a key word in his vocabulary, but it occupied an important share in his attention and action.

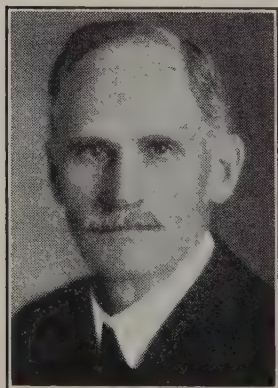

His life was one of quiet, unassuming courage and a sincere devotion to high ideals. We knew him as a diligent workman and a faithful servant of the Most High. His earthly task was done only when the Master called him home at evening time.

CLIFFORD FORD.

CARL MERT ROSS

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith" could be very fittingly used as the text for the services held in honor of the coronation of Carl M. Ross who for forty-four years went forth in California and Arizona proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ to be the power of God unto salvation to all who believed.

Brother Ross was a good preacher. He believed the Bible to be the word of God, and that those who profess to be the followers of Christ should square their lives according to the teaching of the book. He was positive in his preaching and yet he was kind as he presented the great fundamental verities of the scriptures. He could be characterized as a preacher of "The Faith of Our Fathers."

In his church at Encanto, San Diego, is an electric cross on the wall back of the pulpit. Suspended from the cross is a plumb line with its leaden bob signifying that our lives should be plumb with the cross.

This servant of God would have no trouble understanding what Dr. Homer E. Wark, former president of West Virginia Wesleyan College, meant when he said in an Easter address to the student body: "Death is the most beautiful experience in life." He would agree with Victor Hugo when he said: "The grave is not a blind alley, it is a thoroughfare; it closes on the twilight, it opens on the dawn." These words of Paul were real to him: "For we know if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." He believed life is continuous.

Brother Ross was born August 26, 1863 in Ohio. He passed over to the victory side of life April 28, 1939 trusting implicitly in Him who said, "I go to prepare a place for you."

At the age of nineteen he was principal of a county school in Iowa and then a student at Ames. Then came the sudden break in health which caused him to come west and handicapped him the rest of his long life. But this was not generally known. His friends thought him to be in splendid health.

At the age of twenty-two his father died and he returned from California to assume the responsibility of the family. With them he later returned to California taking with him his young wife whose godly life had much to do with his conversion. She died in a short time leaving her nine-day old baby, Mabel.

Brother Ross was principal of the Beaumont school and editor of the Beaumont Sentinel, but the call of the ministry was upon him. He joined the Southern Annual California conference in 1895. In 1923 he took the retired relation, but continued in the work as a supply pastor.

In 1895 he was married to Miss Rose B. Deyo who shared his long ministry with him. He is survived by Mrs. Ross, Mabel, Esther, Mrs. Beth Burke, Mrs. Ruth Walleit, Mrs. Frances Rhodes, Sterling and Roy; also a brother, the Rev. Fred H. Ross, pastor of First Methodist church, San Pedro, and two nephews, Ross and Ray Compton.

The funeral services were held in San Diego May 1st at 11:00 o'clock In the absence of District Superintendent James Edwin Dunning the services were in charge of James W. Mahood, pastor of the San Diego Larger Parish of which Encanto where Brother Ross served is a part. He gave the tribute based on the words at the beginning of this memoir. Assisting were Frank S. Williams, president of the San Diego Methodist Preachers Meeting, who read the scriptures and Q. P. Royer, an old friend, who offered prayer. The music was furnished by Mrs. Merle Howe and Miss Esther Greenfield of the San Pedro Methodist Church. At the close of the service fifteen ministers gathered about the casket and sang; "Faith of Our Fathers." Walter John Sherman made the closing prayer. Interment was at Beaumont cemetery where the body was laid by the side of loved ones gone on before. This service was in charge of Earl Haydock.

JAMES W. MAHOOD.

CHARLES LOGAN YORK

"With Morning, through high Noon, at Gutted Candle Dim, Calls The Eternal: that we forget not Him.
Our comrades gone, fond glad some vigils keep,
Till falls the imperial whisper—and we sleep."

Charles Logan York, a native of Illinois, for forty years an honored member of four Annual Conferences in three States, a Retired Minister revered through nearly a dozen more, in his seventy-seventh year, passed where waking is to rest, on December 26, 1938, in Los Angeles, California. His memorial Service, December 30, 1938, was held in Union Ave. Church, his final assignment as an Effective Minister and was in charge of the Pastor, Morris W. Singer, assisted by Dr. C. V. Gilliland, Fred Ross, Wilbur Fisk, and Rev. William R. Wells. The interment was in Pomona, California. In less than a month Dr. Gilliland and his old time friend were to meet again where they go out no more.

In his twenty-first year, at Thackery, Illinois, Brother York and Miss Clara Amanda Hamill were joined in a gracious marriage, broken only after forty-four years by her death, December 22, 1927, in Tempe, Arizona. Their two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude York Christy and Mrs. Mattie York Meyer are yet living in Arizona. Like their mother and their father in his early days, they are both teachers, Gertrude York having been for nine years on the Faculty of The University of Southern California and was last year teaching at the University of California, at Los Angeles. Mrs. Meyer has a son and two daughters. It was in her home in Tempe, Arizona, that her mother, after over forty years of service in Methodist parsonages, died all unexpectedly.

Dr. Robert Freeman knew well the devious ways of Providence: his words remind us.

"When men go down to the sea in ships,
It is not to the sea they go;
Some isle or pole the mariners goal,
And thither they sail through calm and gale
When down to the sea they go."

For eighteen years our Brother York was a member of the Southern Illinois Conference, for eight years of the Illinois Conference, seven years in the Arizona Mission and seven years in Southern California. He took the Retired relation in 1927, owing to a heart ailment which eventually caused his death. While ineffective in terms he was never so in fact. He was constantly preaching. He did mission work in Pershing Square. For a time he was an assistant Pastor at University Church. His only question was, "Am I needed". In his last hours he was preaching and praying. His fellowship with his brethren in the retired ranks was a perennial inspiration. His last lucid message was, "I want to get well so I can do more work for the Master." He is now with those who day and night serve God in His temple.

On January 16, 1930, Brother York made a happy second marriage with Miss Bertha M. Hurtt, formerly of Pomona, California, long a teacher in our public schools in Los Angeles. With his own teaching experience, his studies at McKendree College, at Garrett Biblical Institute, and his constant devotion to books and culture, his home at the sunset hour was a delight.

A matter that gave our friend and brother a thrill and satisfaction was his notable resemblance to Abraham Lincoln. He was chosen for the Pageant, "The Wayfarer" at the Centennial Celebration at Columbus, Ohio, June 20 to July 13, 1919, in the character of Lincoln and its repetition in the Los Angeles Coliseum, later. It was a Providence one might envy. There is no one thing better to recall as a transcript of his whole unassuming noble life. Like Lincoln, he was a devotee of the primal values of Bible religion. The one was a plain Methodist preacher: the other a world prophet. Charles Logan York never was sorry he was of the garden variety of the common people. It was the pride of Abraham Lincoln. That Lincoln forever listened to the call of Providence has grown his glory. The man who went as a habit where he was needed most, was of the same majestic sort. That in large fashion Abraham Lincoln saved the Union will presently be a minor matter to his saving of black slaves. The men who make Methodism an apostolate to the poor, in the perspectives of The Judgment Day will be likely its heroes. Our Brother York was never a star preacher nor had a limelight pulpit. That he was like Abraham Lincoln in more ways than one was limelight enough. His brethren will say, as others of another, "Charles Logan York walked with God and was not, for God took him." It spells a wondrous world to walk with God."

"Our comrades gone, fond gladsome vigils keep,
Till falls the imperial whisper—and we sleep."

W. E. TILROE.

REV. CLYDE P. METCALF

Clyde P. Metcalf was born near Peru, Nebraska, October 8, 1867. His parents were pioneers of that state and his father served in one of the two Nebraska regiments as a Union soldier.

He attended the common schools of Nebraska, graduating from the State Normal School at Peru, qualifying him for a teacher.

In 1890 he became a student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where he spent two years during which he became a student volunteer in the Student Volunteer movement which swept the country and colleges about this time. Licensed to preach by the University Church at University Place and later in the year recommended to the Nebraska Conference, by the old home church, Auburn, Nebraska, he was received into that Conference, ordained deacon under the missionary rule and sent to the Indian Territory as a missionary to that new but rapidly settling country. He preached to both white people and Indians and after Christmas he returned to Auburn, Nebraska, and was united in marriage to Belle Lorange, a teacher and friend of long standing.

Mrs. Metcalf was appointed by the Woman's Home Missionary Society as their representative to the Pojca and Pawnee Indian Reservations.

After a year of fine service he returned to Nebraska where he served as pastor at Hampton, Cowles, Lawrence, Carlton, Nelson and Steel City and in 1905 went to Cananea, Mexico, as minister among the miners of that famous camp.

Again we find him on the mission fields, this time at Flagstaff, Arizona, where he did an outstanding piece of work. In 1911 he was transferred to this conference and stationed at Reedley, and since then has served as pastor at Visalia, Highland Park, Porterville, and Owensmouth or Canoga Park. In 1929 he was badly injured in an auto accident and was retired that year.

The bride who went with her husband to the Indian Territory as a missionary has walked by the side of her husband through all these years. Their married life was a beautiful one of love and service and I have known of none where there has been such confidence, faith and sacrifice on the part of both as in this home.

Four children came to gladden them, all of whom are living, and five grand children. They are Mrs. Verna Demming, of Prescott, Arizona; Mrs. Glide Noble of San Bernardino, Calif.; Dean Metcalf, of Eureka, Calif., and Mrs. Hope Monroe of Los Angeles.

Brother Metcalf is also survived by two brothers, Rev. Charles D. Metcalf, a retired minister, Glendale, Arizona, and Will Metcalf of Beatrice, Nebraska, and also five sisters who live near the old home place, Auburn, Nebraska.

For the past year Bro. Metcalf has been in ill health but was up and around until about a month ago. After partaking of a light lunch he fell asleep and quietly passed to his heavenly home.

Brother Metcalf was universally loved. He was a man of beautiful life, simple, direct and friendly. He was a good preacher and a great lover of his people.

The funeral services were held at Canoga Park on Monday, July 2nd. Harold Broughton, the pastor, presided, and Fletcher Homan and the writer, who had known him for over 50 years, spoke.

A. L. BAKER.

CLARENCE VOSBURGH GILLILAND

Clarence Vosburgh Gilliland, gifted preacher, faithful teacher and Christian statesman, was born at Linesville, Pennsylvania, September 9, 1866, the son of Samuel and Eliza Gilliland. Lifting the curtain between Here and Hereafter, he stepped over into God's city January 26, 1939.

He married Carrie Stewart Collins in 1891 and five children came to bless their home: Grace Eliza, a resident of South Dakota; Floyd (deceased); Glen Clarence, Roy Collins, and Miles Thompson, who reside in Los Angeles, California.

Doctor Gilliland graduated from Cornell College, Iowa, in 1900, from which institution he received, also, the degree of Master of Arts in 1904. While completing his theological training in Garrett Biblical Institute with graduation in 1920, he took, in addition, graduate work in the University of Chicago, receiving the Master of Arts degree from the latter school in 1920. He was twice honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity: by Dakota Wesleyan University in 1911 and Garrett Biblical Institute in 1929.

As an educator, Doctor Gilliland exhibited his fine talents as President of Carlton College, Missouri, 1911-13; as Dean of the College of Liberal Arts of Dakota Wesleyan University, 1913-19; and as Professor of History at the University of Southern California, 1919-1939.

Dean Rockwell D. Hunt of the University of Southern California, colleague and long-time friend of Doctor Gilliland, writes of him:

"He is widely known for his devotion as a teacher, for his nobility of Christian Character, and for his high idealism as a citizen. He was an honored member of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Church, and one of the most active and influential members of University Methodist Church, Los Angeles.

"Conspicuous among his splendid traits of character was unselfish devotion, he was always eager to serve others rather than himself; love of family—no sacrifice was too great if thereby he could help those of his own house-hold; excellence and conscientiousness as a teacher,—each of his pupils was to him a sacred charge; intense loyalty as a citizen. He always extolled and exalted American democracy; serenity of inner spirit in the midst of outward turmoil; Christian grace in thought and deed—with heart and soul he patterned his life after the life of Jesus of Nazareth, whose devoted disciple he was."

No one who sat under the ministry of this Man of God, in classroom or sanctuary, could escape the impress of his remarkable personality. His counsel was priceless—so kindly, yet firm; so gentle, so fearless. He walked with God, he walked with men, and each called him "Friend." His field of teaching was history, but his students and friends received from his quite unconscious attitudes lessons in courage, faith, patience, humility and love which are ineffaceable."

"To live in hearts we leave behind
Is not to die."

H. I. RASMUS, JR.

GUSTAV EMIL KALLSTEDT

Gustav Emil Kallstedt was a native of Sweden. At the age of sixteen he came to the United States to become a member of that loyal, useful, dependable, solid body of Swedish-born people who have made so great a contribution to good American citizenship. Converted in a Swedish

Methodist church soon after his arrival, he was immediately aware of a call to the ministry and set out for the Swedish Methodist Seminary at Evanston, from which he was graduated at the age of nineteen, the youngest, at that time, the Seminary had ever sent out.

Possessing a good mind and a will to work he made careful and thorough preparation of his sermons, which he delivered with energy and conviction to the salvation of many and the strengthening of the faith of believers. One who knew him well writes: "He never had an unsuccessful pastorate and was loved and respected by all. He was always interested in civic affairs and took an active part in them, especially in the temperance movement."

He looked upon the ministry, not as a cross to be borne, but as a privilege to be shared and enjoyed. He considered it a high honor that he was "allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel."

His active ministry began in the California Conference with which he united in 1890. After two years he returned to the Northern Swedish Conference where he served until 1905, when he was called to Kingsburg, California. He retired in 1924 after serving at Pasadena, Oakland, Portland, and as District Superintendent.

His sudden and tragic death by accident in the streets of Pasadena last December came as a shock to the members of his family and his many friends. His funeral was largely attended, and the many, many messages of sympathy to his wife and two daughters from people of all degrees of life, indicated how wide-spread were his friendships and in what high regard he was held.

CHARLES F. SEITTER.

GEORGE STEED

The life of George Steed began in London, England, in 1876, and it was in the private schools of England that he had his early training. The pull of Canada brought him to that country in his early manhood, where he took work with the Hudson Bay Company. Later he was joined by the young woman of his choice, Miss Lily Bruin, and they were married.

Two children were born to them while he was still about secular work. But he felt the call to the ministry, and moved to Winnipeg and attended Wesley College. After graduation he entered the Manitoba N. W. Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada. The next eight years he spent at two charges, but on account of the health of his wife he moved to Southern California and supplied San Pedro, being received into the Conference in 1904. That was not the San Pedro of today. There was but a small meeting house on the hill, and San Pedro was a saloon-ridden, drunken sailor town. George Steed faced the question at both ends. He fought the liquor traffic as a Methodist minister is expected to do. He helped the families which liquor hurt. Then he started at the other end by trying to train the boys aright. This was before the days of Boy Scouts, so he organized a Boys' Club of his own. Later in his work in Los Angeles he was among the first to organize the Scouts and to act on the Central Committee.

One never needed to ask whether George Steed was a lover of his fellow men. He mixed easily and naturally with people, for he loved them. Whether in service club or on the street or in business houses they knew him by his first name and thus they spoke to him. But his strong love was for the young folks. Epworth League Institutes were not yet the fashion in his early days here, so he paid especial attention to revival work among young folks, and was very successful in leading young life to Christ and the Cross.

As the years went on the health of his wife failed, and to her he gave his love and attention. Chair ridden, she kept her mind alert by constant reading and discussion. And always if you stopped for a minute at the study, he would ask: "Have you seen mother?" as he always affectionately called her. The end came to her February 14th, 1937, at Moorpark.

He gave 37 years of his ministry in this Conference at San Pedro, Prospect Park (Hollywood), Livingston, Porterville, Pico Heights, South Main St., Montebello, Puente, Covina, El Monte, Moorpark and Fallbrook.

It was while completing a loving task of ministry to others that he met the accident which resulted in his death some days later. Following a funeral service which he was conducting for old time friends in Monrovia, he was injured and died on October 26th, 1938, in the Methodist Hospital. The funeral services were conducted in his former parish at Montebello.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Alfred Trefthen and Mrs. Charles Eiserman; three sons—Dr. George Steed, Roy M. Steed and George V. Steed; ten grandchildren and one great grandson.

His was a friendly ministry among men, for his smile came from within.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

CHRISTIAN SPAETH

Christian Spaeth was born in Wuertemburg, Germany, in 1858, and died in Portland, Oregon, on June 16, 1939, attaining an age of 81 years, 4 months and one day.

As a youth of 15 he migrated to Williamsport, Penn. and became a cabinet-maker. In his early twenties he came to Grand Rapids, Michigan, where in 1880 he met and married Caroline Diehl. This union was blessed with seven children, three of whom together with their mother preceded him to eternity.

When presently he felt himself called to the ministry, he attended college in Berea, Ohio, for a short time, then in 1885 joined the German Central Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for 24 years he served in various charges of that Conference: Marine City, Freeport, Pigeon, Saginaw and Pittsburg, Pa. In 1905 he accepted a call to the California Conference, where for 17 more years of service he preached in Los Angeles, Anaheim, Fresno, Berkeley, Santa Cruz and Santa Rosa.

In 1929 he met with an accident, which resulted in his retirement from the ministry, and in 1932 he came to Portland, Oregon, where he spent his remaining years.

On December of last year he met with a serious accident, from which he never fully recovered, and Friday morning, July 16, succumbed to an attack of pneumonia.

He is survived by four children, nine grandchildren, and the widow, Elizabeth whom he married in 1935.

MRS. LOUIS GARDNER SPRING

In the middle of the last century there lived in Berea, Ohio, a family by the name of Fischer. The husband was a Roman Catholic, the mother a Lutheran. Into that community came a dynamic Methodist preacher by the name of Rothweiler who by his ministry so profoundly influenced this religiously divided family that a new spiritual union was born at a Methodist altar, and the family became active workers in that church.

On January 20, 1859, God sent a baby girl into this Methodist home. So highly esteemed was the family of the Rev. Mr. Rothweiler that the baby was named Bertha, after the minister's daughter, who later became one of the first missionaries to Korea. When Bertha Fischer was three years old the family moved to Jeffersberg, Missouri, in which State they remained during the trying years of the Civil War. Shortly after the war they moved to Udora, Kansas. In 1877 they continued westward and finally settled in Burbank, California.

In 1889 a young Methodist minister was assigned by the Conference to serve the charge at Burbank, where he met and married

Bertha Fischer, in 1890. From then on she and her husband, the late Rev. L. G. Spring, served the following charges in the Southern California Conference: Los Alamos, Goleta, Lordsburg (now LaVerne), Garden Grove, Santa Paula, Upland, San Dimas, San Jacinto, National City, Fairmount, San Diego, and Florence Ave., Los Angeles. In 1922 they took the retired relation and made their home at 1619½ S. Bonnie Brae Street, Los Angeles. Brother Spring died in October, 1927, and eleven years and four months later he was joined in the home eternal by the companion of many years of service. Mrs. Spring passed away on February 7, 1939.

From this parsonage family came four children who all remain to cherish the blessed memories of good parents. Three sons are in the teaching profession. Gardener, of Ontario, California, is President of Chaffee Junior College, Carl and Paul are both High School teachers in the Los Angeles Public School System. One daughter, Elizabeth, now Mrs. G. R. Ramage, lives in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Spring's funeral service was conducted in Pierce Brothers' Chapel, Los Angeles, by the Rev. John P. Morley of whose Bible Class in the First Methodist Church, Los Angeles, she had long been a member. Members of the Retired Ministers' Association acted as pall bearers, and the interment took place in Grand View Cemetery, Burbank, on February 10, 1939.

JOHN GABRIELSON.

MRS. WILLIAM EDWIN TILROE

Alice Gould Tilroe silently slipped the tether of her weakened body in the early morning of December 7, 1938. Her quiet ministry as a wife, a mother, and the mistress of the manse was culminated.

She was born August 14, 1860, to the widely known pioneer family of Ansel A. Gould. Much could be said of her heritage in character from those whose names are deeply engraved in the early religious as well as Civic history of Illinois. At an early age she was compelled to make the readjustment of her life along the disciplinary path of suffering. While to some, this journey is one dark without and within, to her it became one where an inner consciousness of the Divine Presence compensated for the lack of other blessings.

In 1885 she became the wife of Rev. W. E. Tilroe and officially the mistress of the manse. She was the minister's wife in the finest sense of the word. Even in those later years when infirmity laid a confining hand on her, she aided and abetted her good husband's ministry by innumerable notes of cheer and encouragement to members of the parish. Many have testified to her abounding courage, which was an inspiration. She personified the loyalty of Ruth who said, "Whither thou goest, I will go; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God—for naught but death shall part thee and me." This journey took her with her enthusiastic preacher husband to West Liberty, Claremont, DuQuoin, Evanston, Chicago, Pasadena, and Los Angeles.

Many shall rise up to call her blessed and not the least among them her husband, Dr. W. E. Tilroe and the two children of the parsonage, a daughter, Welcome Agnes Tilroe of the faculty of The University of Southern California, and Carlyle Tilroe, a son.

The coronation service was held amidst loving friends, and the atmosphere was that of a Commencement where one is crowned with honor. Friends of many years were there to speak their respect and love. Brother ministers of the former years Dr. Robert Coyne, Dr. W. T.

Wright and Dr. C. V. Gilliland participated as well as Dr. R. D. Hunt and the minister of University Methodist Church, Wendell Miller.

From the pen of her gifted husband came the words which were read at the service by Dr. R. D. Hunt:

It is not far, the country where I go;
A breath, a look, and its delight I know.
My dear ones gone are with me at a bound;
These leaden sandals leap on holy ground.
It knows no grief, the country where I go;
All ills are left behind, as friend or foe.
No pain, nor tears, nor dread, nor wrong,
The storm is at an end in song.

Nor is it strange, the country where I go;
It is so like my fond home below.
My choice of all I know speeds on before;
Only, if there, I shall go out no more.

It makes no haste, the country where I go;
At quiet, rush and crush, the pace falls slow.
The trail is grown a gracious peace and rest;
It is the morning: I am healed and blest.

WENDELL L. MILLER.

MRS. CHARLES HERBERT ARCHIBALD

Lillie Lind Lee, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lee, was born in Fairview, Pennsylvania. As a very small child she came with her parents to California. She was educated in the public school of Los Angeles, the Los Angeles High School, and the Los Angeles Normal School.

With her family she found her membership in the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, and on completing her education became a church assistant in that church under Dr. Hugh K. Walker, the minister. Later she served as a Home Missionary for the Presbyterian Church in the Indian Territory.

After the tragic death in the storm and landslide at Darjeeling, India, of the six children of Dr. and Mrs. David H. Lee, she went out to India to bring comfort to her bereaved uncle and aunt. She arrived in Calcutta in 1908. She was known to the Indians as the golden-haired girl from California. She served in the Lee Memorial Girls' School and was much beloved by the Indian women and girls.

On July 27, 1915, she was happily married to Brother C. H. Archibald in the historic Thoburn Church, Calcutta.

One son (whom the Indians called "Shanti Baba," or "son of Peace") Herbert Lee, came to bless that home.

Brother and Sister Archibald served in a number of positions of great responsibility in India and always with great acceptability. She herself had the joy of seeing nearly 3,000 of the outcast Indians baptized in four years. Her home was a place where the weary found rest, the discouraged new hope, and her family the benediction of a great affection. She travelled widely and always with a mind eager to see and appreciate.

In 1936 the family returned to Los Angeles because she had given her health in the arduous service she had rendered the Kingdom of God in India. Service was the keynote of her life; it was so to the end.

Quite suddenly, as she was arranging for the funeral service for her dear sister, she herself went through the door into God's other room of beauty and grace on the evening of January 10, 1939. There was a beautiful service of memory for both sisters and they were buried in adjoining plots in the Perris Cemetery guarded by the everlasting hills. She is survived by her good husband and dear son.

Mrs. Archibald was a perfect hostess and an ideal home-maker, mother, and wife. She was noted for her gracious hospitality. Hers was a lovely, charming personality. She knew how to "love and laugh and lift." She was one of God's lovely women. She had rare beauty of mind and heart. Her mental habitation was in the great uplands of truth. She possessed a rare radiance of spirit. She had a wonderful penchant for friendship. Truly "none knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise." Her Christ-like life was a benediction to all who knew her.

WILLSIE MARTIN.

MRS. LEROY OTIS BOSTWICK

Ruby Jane Bostwick, wife of Leroy O. Bostwick, pastor of our Pacific Avenue church in Glendale, passed away at the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles March 28, 1939. Although she had been in poor health for some time, her sudden passing was a great shock to her family and friends.

Ruby Jane Babcock was born near Augusta, Michigan November 15, 1880. Later her family moved to Richland, Michigan. Too young to receive a State Teachers certificate, she was granted a permit and successfully opened her first school and taught school three years. During that time she met another young school teacher, in the person of Leroy O. Bostwick, who had felt called to the ministry and after three years of courtship that united their hearts together in the deepest devotion they were married on June 18, 1901 by the bridegroom's brother, the Reverend A. M. Bostwick. Both were active members of the Methodist church in Richland and were leaders in Sunday School and young peoples work. The following September they were appointed to the Scotts charge.

Thus Mrs. Bostwick began a life of sacrifice and service as a minister's wife, which was to carry her over 38 eventful years. She was deeply devoted to the work of the church, teaching in the Sunday School, organizing and working in the Woman's Missionary societies, assisting in the Aid Society work and sometimes took her husband's place in the pulpit, all with great acceptability.

They joined the Michigan Conference and after serving thirteen years there they removed to California where on their first work at Yucaipa, tragedy overtook them when God took their nine-year old daughter, Joy, to himself. She bore this great sorrow with a beautiful christian spirit that revealed her strong hold on the Eternal and unseen.

They served in our Conference at Yucaipa, Perris, Newport and Harper, now Costa Mesa, Paso Robles, East Long Beach, El Segundo, Artesia, Tujunga and were in their fourth year at Pacific Avenue. Since her Home-going a flood of messages have come to the stricken husband and son Morris testifying of her courage, her love and loyalty and of her abiding influence. On every charge she was a power for good.

Besides her work in the church as a husband's help-mate, she was a most devoted home maker, quiet, unassuming, loyal and painstaking. She was there, as everywhere, deeply and conscientiously christian.

In later years because of poor health and her deep desire for a quiet life, the work of the ministry was not easy for her, but she bore the burden without complaint, anticipating the time that with her family she might have a few years of retirement and rest. But God has called her to higher service and a peaceful rest.

Funeral services in honor of Mrs. Bostwick were conducted by the writer who was their pastor before they were married, C. A. Norcross, a Michigan Conference classmate, and J. V. Bennett, at the Scovern Chapel, Glendale, Friday, March 31, 1939 with interment at Rose Hill Cemetery in Whittier, California.

E. J. BRADNER.

MRS. FREDERICK S. WOODCOCK

Mrs. Mary Frances Woodcock was born June 1st, 1842 in La Porte, Indiana. Her grandfather Rev. Richard Posey and father, Rev. Wade Posey were circuit riders in the Methodist ministry.

At the age of nineteen she was sent to Thorton to an academy where she saw Abraham Lincoln on his way to assume the presidency of the United States. The entire student body of the academy turned out on this state occasion and Mrs. Woodcock stood very near as the president-elect passed by.

Three years later, July 26, 1864 she was united in marriage with Rev. Frederick S. Woodcock. They served churches in Indiana until 1875 when they were transferred to Southern California becoming charter members of the Southern California Conference which was organized that year. They served first at San Luis Obispo. When Pasadena and Alhambra were one charge Rev. Woodcock was the pastor. His last pastorate was in Monrovia from which he retired in 1894 and made Monrovia his home, until he passed away in 1897.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Woodcock for more than thirty years gave her unusual energy, zeal and efficiency to the cause of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. She has the credit of organizing more auxiliaries than any other woman in the Southern California Conference or elsewhere. Regarding this period of her life some one wrote to her: "I thought while you were speaking and giving us the broad view of the work that you with your wide experience have gained, how very like it must have been to the churches of Asia when Paul visited them."

She was always proud of her husband's charter membership in the Southern California Conference and though she outlived him forty-one years, her interest never lagged and rarely ever did a conference convene that she was not there for the very first session and remained if possible throughout the entire time—an informed and intelligent listener to all the discussions and legislation of this large body. On the occasion of the sixty-third Annual Session at Los Angeles this summer, Bishop Oxnam very graciously presented her as the last living representative of its charter membership.

She has been a member of the South Pasadena M. E. Church for more than thirty years where she has endeared herself to old and young because of her sincerity and eagerness to serve her church and community to the very best of her ability. To that end she was active also in club and civic affairs. She read the daily paper and was always able to converse intelligently and interestingly of the affairs of the day.

Early in 1932 she moved to Thoburn Terrace, a Home in Alhambra for retired Christian workers. She had rare ability in making, and retaining friends, as is attested by the great number of Alhambra friends created in the past six years of her life there. Rarely does one who has lived so long a period of time possess such a wealth of friends all along the way.

After an illness of only a week she was called Jan. 7, 1939 to the Home not made with hands, having lived to the full 96 years, 7 months and 7 days of earthly life.

Organization Session of the Lay Conference

The Eighth Annual Lay Conference of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was called to order in the auditorium of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach, Wednesday, June 28, 1939, at ten o'clock A.M. by the President, Donald A. Odell. The meeting was opened by prayer led by W. A. Kern. President Donald A. Odell addressed the Conference, stating that this would be the last time there would be a Lay Conference meeting and that in the future the Lay Delegates would have a very important part to play in the new Conference as the Lay Delegates would be on an equal basis with the Ministerial Delegates.

Vincent I. Correll, Treasurer, read the treasurer's report, showing after all bills were paid a balance in the treasury of $10.14. Mr. Correll made a motion that the balance of the money be retained by J. Wesley Hole and be used to help cover the expense of the Jurisdictional Conference. The motion was seconded and carried.

Mr. Odell introduced to the Conference the Lay Delegates to the Uniting Conference. Mrs. Jerome Seymour was the first to speak, and she told of her experience on the committees pertaining to the women's work. J. Wesley Hole told of the wonderful spirit of the Uniting Delegates and of the whole Conference. Wray Andrew explained the men's work and also the Lay Activities of the new Church. Mr. S. W. McCulloch gave some general views and comments, and also told about the new Jurisdictional Conference.

Everett Shaw, Secretary, made the report of the Credentials Committee, during which a report was given by districts showing the number of delegates registered from each. See roll of Lay Delegates to Southern California Conference.

Mr. Daniel Scott, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented two resolutions, which, upon motion duly made and seconded, were adopted. Said resolutions are as follows:

TENURE OF LAY MEMBERSHIP IN ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS: The Southern California Lay Conference has already derived great advantage from the lengthening of the term of membership from one to four years, thus enabling the members to become better acquainted and to plan their activities into the future, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That said Southern California Lay Conference in this closing session of its existence earnestly recommends that the tenure of Lay Membership in the Successor Conference be fixed at four years; and, further,

RESOLVED: That the Secretary of this Lay Conference be instructed to provide that at the proper time to be effective this resolution be presented on the floor of the Successor Conference, and that a copy of the same be furnished to the Secretary of the Successor Conference.

METHOD OF ORGANIZING BOARDS OF LAY ACTIVITIES

WHEREAS: The Disciplinary procedure for the appointment of Lay Leaders and the selection of Boards of Lay Activities does not provide for the immediate filling of such Boards and positions where none already exist; and

WHEREAS: It is the sense of this Southern California Lay Conference that organized lay activities should be initiated without unnecessary delay;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That we recommend to the Successor Conference that the following "Short Plan for Organization of Lay Activities" be adopted and followed for the selection of Lay Leaders and Boards of Lay Activities, such Plan to be recognized and employed only as a temporary expedient, to be discarded as soon as the Disciplinary provisions shall, through the creation of prescribed organizational facilities, become possible of application.

Short Plan For Organization of Lay Activities

1. Selection of Conference Lay Leader

The District Superintendents shall, during the present Conference, nominate one Layman for the office of Conference Lay Leader. Opportunity will be given for further nominations from the floor by the Lay members of the Conference. Election will be by Lay Members.

Comment: The Discipline provides that the Conference Lay Leader shall be nominated by the Conference Board of Lay Activities. The difficulty is that no such Board exists at this time.

2. Selection of Charge Lay Leaders

Each Official Board should elect its Charge Lay Leader not later than September 11, 1939. This will enable District organization to be effected without undue delay.

3. Selection of District Lay Leaders and District Associate Lay Leaders.

The District Superintendent of each District, in collaboration with the Conference Lay Leader, shall name a committee to nominate the District Lay Leader and two District Associate Lay Leaders. He shall call a meeting of the Charge Lay Leaders not earlier than September 15, 1939, to receive such nominations and to elect such District Lay Leader and Associates and to make suitable plans for Lay Activities for the year.

4. Organization of the Conference Board of Lay Activities.

The Conference Lay Leader will be expected to convene the Conference Board of Lay Activities for organization not later than October 15, 1939.

Comment: The Conference Board of Lay Activities consists of the Conference Lay Leader, the District Lay Leaders, two Associate Lay Leaders from each District, and the District Superintendents.

Be it further

RESOLVED: That the Secretary of the Southern California Lay Conference be instructed to furnish a copy of these resolutions each to the Bishop, the District Superintendents, and the Secretary of the Successor Conference, and at the proper time to have the Plan presented to the Successor Conference for consideration.

Motion was made, seconded and carried, and the meeting adjourned.

EVERETT SHAW, Secretary Eighth Annual Conference, 1939.

METHODIST MEN

In Annual Session Tuesday, June 27, 1939

The afternoon session convened at two-thirty at First Baptist Church with three hundred men in attendance. The fellowship hour was conducted by Ray Winter of La Habra, opening the meeting on a high spiritual note.

President Wray Andrew reviewed briefly the year's work, bringing out the fact that this period has been one of sacrificial giving by the workers, of both time and money. Uncounted gallons of gasoline and miles of travel and hours of time have been expended in carrying forward a gospel team program which has proved helpful to many churches and has brought spiritual regeneration and uplift to a considerable number of people. A striking feature of this work is the inspiration and growth that has come to the team workers themselves. Mr. Andrew reported meetings of the executive committee with each of the District Superintendents in an effort to ascertain how the men of the church might be of help in promoting their work. Pursuant to a suggestion arising in one of these conferences, the Methodist Men re-roofed the Annandale Church prior to the winter rains; they were given the task of raising a fund to put a full-time worker in the field to minister to the Migrants in San Joaquin Valley. Approximately $2000 was secured, which has been assigned to the California Conference, since the work is now within that area. A large number of sweaters were also collected and sent to the needy in these migrant camps.

Bishop Baker addressed the gathering, and impressed the men with his grasp of their problems and the fine, brotherly spirit in which he outlined the functions of the church and the opportunity for laymen to render effective service therein. His centering of the various phases in the heart experience of the individual brought his message home to every man present.

Frank Stevens brought a challenge to all by his vivid description of the unchurched areas in this section, with the hope that chapels may be established where needed, eventually growing into churches to serve these growing communities.

George Little, of Glendale, closed the afternoon session with a call to surrender and consecration. The men were visibly affected and nine were at the altar.

At 6:30 simultaneous dinner meetings were held at the First Methodist and First Congregational Churches. More than 700 men were on hand, and brief programs were the order at each place. Promotional literature was distributed, among them the objectives for the coming year, and a song sheet featuring songs to sing from memory, all of them from the Hymnal. The men were urged to use these songs instead of others with no spiritual appeal.

The evening service at First Methodist was opened with prayer by Dr. George McDonald. More than a thousand men were there, with Wray Andrew presiding. Dr. Frank Stevens installed the new officers, except the president, who was installed by Wray Andrew, retiring president. They are: President, George C. Little, Glendale; vice-presidents, L. E. Martin of Glendale, and Howard Cory, Alhambra; corresponding secretary, Marion R. Walker, Ventura; recording secretary, James S. McBride, Glendale; treasurer, Ira Weide, La Habra.

A large men's chorus, recruited from the various churches, and led by Frank Van Gundy of Alhambra, furnished music for both afternoon and evening services.

Bishop William C. Martin addressed the meeting, using the topic: "Living With a Christian Margin." His message was timely and challenging, and climaxed a day of uplift and inspiration. Truly, Methodist Men are finding a place to do valiant service for the King, and are looking forward with joyful anticipation to the years ahead.

WOMAN'S AID FEDERATION

Friday, June 28, 1939

The capacity of First Christian Church was taxed to its utmost by those attending the Woman's Aid Federation in its annual session. With representatives of the uniting churches present, truly it was a most inspiring audience. Mrs. Byron Wilson, our beloved president, led the great congregation in singing "The Church's One Foundation" and in the recital of The Apostles' Creed, after which all joined in the Lord's Prayer.

Reports of the District Presidents were given and showed a tremendous amount of work accomplished. The presidents reporting were:

Mrs. Callister	Fresno-Glendale
Mrs. George Frampton	Long Beach
Mrs. T. R. Jones	Pasadena
Mrs. R. O. Taylor	San Diego
Mrs. S. J. Broad	Los Angeles

These reports showed a membership of 20,596, and these women have made 227,015 calls, distributed 79,205 bouquets, sent in 35,488 Goodwill bags, and contributed a grand total of $166,075.79 to the support of the local churches. Since 1926 the women through their Aid Societies have paid into the coffers of the church the amazing sum of $2,053,433.

The Aid Federation sponsors four missionary projects, and the claims of each of these were ably presented from the platform: The Sailors' Work in San Pedro by Rev. Fred Ross; the Goodwill Industries by Mrs. Elaine Dudley; the Plaza Community Center by Miss Katherine Higgins; and the Spanish American Institute by Mrs. Grow S. Brown.

Mrs. Lallich presented the report of the nominating committee and the following officers were unanimously elected for the coming year:

President—Mrs. Byron Wilson, 420 N. Sycamore, Los Angeles, Los Angeles District.
1st Vice President—Mrs. Ralph Lee, 1842 Lime, Long Beach, Long Beach District.
2nd Vice President—Mrs. Roy Pendell, 513 Palm, Burbank, Fresno-Glendale District.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. C. D. Lewis, 7035 Templeton, Huntington Park, Los Angeles District.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. G. N. Parsons, 2404 Palm Grove Ave., Los Angeles, Los Angeles District.
Treasurer—Mrs. F. C. Onion, 451 14th St., San Bernardino, Pasadena District.
Historian—Mrs. W. T. Scott, 502 W. 5th St., Pomona, Pasa- dena District.
Parliamentarian—Mrs. R. O. Taylor, 5201 Marlborough Dr., San Diego, San Diego District.
Social Welfare—Mrs. M. Lamont, 1152 22nd St., San Diego, San Diego District.

Miss Gwendolin Roberts delighted her hearers with two beautiful solos, following which the speaker of the morning, Dr. Walter C. Buckner was presented. In his theme "The Place of Women in the United Church" he gave a summary of the changes brought about by the new organization and presented a splendid challenge to our women for greater usefulness in the program of a united Methodism.
